

WELCOME

I desire to extend through the medium of the Current Sauce, your newspaper, a cordial welcome to each and every student enrolled at Northwestern State College. I wish that it might be possible for me to learn to know each of you personally. This, however, is impossible. But I assure you that your welfare and happiness are ever uppermost in my mind. You are always more than welcome in either of the offices which I now occupy, and whatever you may care to bring to my attention will receive careful and sympathetic consideration. If it may be necessary to refuse any of your requests, I trust that I may always be able to give satisfactory reasons for my decision.

I plead most earnestly for your individual and collective support in a united effort to create and maintain on our campus a spirit and an atmosphere of cooperation and good will, and I am confident of your response.

Sincerely,
H. Lee Prather
Acting President

Stanford Grad Takes Forensic Coaching Tasks

Mr. William Smith, new Forensics head, is the latest addition to the Speech Department. Mr. Smith comes to us from Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif.

William Smith was graduated from Northern Illinois State Teacher's College in Decal, Illinois in 1941 with a major in mathematics and a minor in Speech. He immediately entered service as an aviation cadet and graduated a commissioned officer in January, 1942.

After serving for two and a half years as a flying instructor he went overseas with the 15th Air Force as Commanding Officer of the 723rd Bombardment Squadron. From there he was assigned to the 13th Air Force in the Philippines as Commanding Officer of the 523rd Engineering Squadron. He was separated from service in August of 1947 as a Lt. Colonel. Entering Stanford University the Summer quarter of 1947 he received his M.A. in Speech in the Spring of 1948, and immediately began the academic work on his doctorate in that field. This past year he served as assistant debate coach at Stanford University.

Mr. Smith is interested in forming the college debate squad as early as possible this year, and he has scheduled the first debate meet at seven-thirty next Wednesday evening in FA2. The 1950 question is, "Resolved: That the Non-Communist Nations Should Form a New International Organization." Interested upperclassmen and freshmen are asked to attend the initial meeting.

Deferrment to Be Given Quota ROTC Students

A quota will be given the Military Science and Tactics Department or the deferrment of ROTC students, it was announced by Major James Bowman, P. M. S. & T.

According to present plans, all second-year advanced students may be deferred; 80 percent of the first-year advanced students; and 65 percent of the second-year basic students.

The quota for the deferrment allowance of first-year basic students of ROTC has not yet been set. It is, however, expected to be released by the beginning of the Spring semester, 1951.

1380 Students Swell NSC Ranks To Two Hundred Over 1949 Total

Opening the fifty-sixth year of Northwestern State College, approximately 1380 students enrolled during the regular registration period on Wednesday and Thursday, the treasurer's office announced.

The final total will be considerably higher due to deferred registration of special students and late-comers. Approximately 100 nursing students now serving at Charity Hospital in Shreveport are expected to complete their enrollment during the next week.

Topping last year's total by nearly 200, this increased registration is a result of last year's large high school graduating classes and the new nursing program. Of the 500 freshmen, approximately 150 are students in the nursing department.

Regular classes began Friday morning and will continue steadily until the first scheduled holidays beginning November 22.

BULLETIN

Because of the unsettled budget, no journal announcement concerning the Artist Series attractions for this season can be made.

Announcements concerning the Series will be made as soon as possible.

Seniors and faculty members interested in applying for a grant under the Fulbright law are urged to see Dr. G. Waldo Dunnington at once. The deadline for submitting this year's applications has been set up to October 15, 1950.

Cheerleaders Tryouts to Be Held Wednesday

Freshman cheerleaders tryouts will be held in the Fine Arts Auditorium on Wednesday, September 20 from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Those freshmen interested in becoming cheerleaders must file their intentions with Luke Petrovich, president of the Student Body, or Dollie Smith, secretary of the Student Body, by 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, September 19. The election will be held September 21 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at a regular precinct vote by the entire student body association.

The students will choose one boy and one girl from the freshman class to serve on the cheerleader squad along with the four upperclassmen cheerleaders elected last spring. They are: Dale Brown, Louis Farmer, Jean Weeks and Carolyn Fuety.

Vets May Join R.O.T.C. Unit

Information has been received from the Department of the Army that selected veterans now in their senior college year but with no previous ROTC training may be enrolled in the fourth year of ROTC for a curtail course and those enrolled will attend ROTC summer training camp in 1951 following graduation and will be commissioned in the Officers Reserve Corps upon completion of college.

ROTC Unit Added This Semester; One Officer, Five EM on Staff

Something new has been added! The Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps will now permeate the campus with a military air. The unit, commanded by Maj. J. W. Bowman who reported here from Fort Louisa, Washington to install an arm of the Field Artillery, is made up of the following officer and enlisted men: Captain B. G. Simms, who will serve as executive officer; Master Sergeants Jeter and Hanscome—both recently stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma; Sergeants First Class Reeser, of Fort Bliss, Texas; Dahl, of Fort Hood, Texas, and Sitton, recently assigned to the White Sands Proving Grounds.

The purpose of the ROTC is to produce commissioned officers for the Organized Reserve Corps and the Regular Army. The general requirements for interested applicants formally enrolled in the Basic Course of the Senior Division are that; 1. He be not less than fourteen or more than

New Building to Be Constructed

Plans are underway for the building of the new Science Building. One wing is to be erected first, and this will include Physical Science and Chemistry. As soon as money is available, the entire building will be built, and will include the Biological Sciences. The building will be built south of the new Home Economics and Commerce buildings. The wing will be a two story structure 220' long and 70' wide. When completed, this building will take care of 1500 students.

100 Centers To Give Test For Law School

PRINCETON, N. J., September 11th.—The Law School Admission Test, required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools, will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on November 18, 1950, and on February 24, April 28, and August 11, 1951. During 1949-1950 8,100 applicants took this test, and their scores were sent to 92 law schools.

Dr. John S. Kyser opens the first Freshman Day's assembly Sunday night in Fine Arts auditorium.

BALLYHOO

"School again" . . . an apt phrase for the veterans of the registration lines, the bookstore rush, and other phases of normal college life; an entirely inapt phrase for the poor freshman whose awe of being a "college plebe" can be lessened by no-one.

And with the phrase "school again" we mad-cap journalists are back again; to report to you as best we can the events that make up NSC history and to add our little share of perhaps historical events.

No sooner had we hit the campus than were we intimidated, threatened by hulking football players demanding publicity and glared at by outraged students who insisted that the laundry had gleefully instructed its employees to check all bundles for new shirts and to then ruin them (the new shirts) through the combination sleeve-shredding, pocket-tearing, and button-crushing machine.

See what we mean by reporting the events that make history and perhaps creating some of our own.

On the serious side: all the ballyhoo that is as much a part of the American colleges as the classwork itself is by no means to be left out of our weekly editions; not if we can help it. But, it is tempered by the ever-increasing amount of "war-talk" about the campus and the sporadic departure of students, NSC students, to take their part in a war that daily becomes closer to each of us.

Both the ballyhoo and the serious side are essential parts of college life.

We, the staff of your Current Sauce, feel certain that we may temper one with the other and still be conscientiously, objectively, reporting the news and chronicling life at NSC—as it actually is.

Views of the News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

The most pleasant news this week is the fact that school has begun on our dear old campus at Northwestern State College. Since last Sunday there has been a constant chain of actions and reactions. Not to be different from the rest of the staff, I should like to add my word of welcome to all the new students and old students alike. It is most fortunate that we are able to be here to execute this era of history for our school, our country, and the world. It is my utmost wish that all of us can give, as well as receive, something constructive and beneficial to this era.

It is the purpose of this column to review and analyze each week some important news event. The views expressed in this column are the personal views of the writer, and are conclusions of a great amount of thought and study. They are presented to stimulate the thought of the students beyond the ordinary acceptance of the news. Although an effort will be made to treat some currently popular subject each week, occasionally there will be transgressions due to relative importance of news.

With the beginning of a new year, let us review briefly what occurred in the past year. One of the greatest accomplishments of our school in the past year was the addition of new plant facilities. Newcomers as well as old students will proudly note the three new buildings located on the campus proper, and down by the lake the new dairy building. These new structures are a visible record of the advancement of Northwestern State College. Along with these establishments many landscaping improvements were made, including the placing of the NORTHWESTERN sign at the entrance of the college. A completely new program of nursing education was inaugurated last year. This new phase in the college curricula has added many new students to our campus while helping to build a greater Northwestern. Several other curricula additions and changes have been made to help N.S.C. further fulfill its obligation to educate the youth of Louisiana. Ground work for the present R.O.T.C. at this school was started last year.

Northwestern added several new trophies to its collection—both in the athletic and academic fields. The gymnastic and swimming teams were outstanding while the debaters won several trophies and a trip to the Georgetown National tournament at Washington, D. C. An all-time high in conventions and statewide assemblies held on campus was reached last year.

However, these many accomplishments were not made without a lot of effort amid strife and turmoil. With potentialities more favorable this year, we should have an even more successful year. Although our national and international situation is not as pleasant as could be, we must carry our burden to promote the welfare of our country. Herein in the future you will find an analysis of these problems.

I wish you all a pleasant semester.

Positions Shuffled, Thirty Added To NSC Roster for Fall Semester

Northwestern moves into what has been casually dubbed, by students, as the "new era" with a large shuffle in teaching and staff positions.

Added to the Fall roster of professors and staff members are thirty new names.

H. Lee Prather, "Coach" to students on the Hill for the past 37 years, is now known as President Prather. Prather was chosen by the State Board of Education as the successor to Dr. G. W. McGinty who, after a year at NSC as acting president, resigned and has resumed his position on the faculty of Louisiana Tech.

With the resignation of former Student Personnel Director Joe N. Gerber comes a reassignment. Dudley Fulton, prior Assistant Director of Student Personnel, has become the Dean of Men.

The vacancy left by the resignation of Dean Martha Gannaway has been filled by Mrs. Perle David, formerly house director at Carondelet dormitory.

Mrs. Ruby Duncelman has become head of the Home Economics department, and Joe M. Henics department, and Joe M. Hendrickson, assistant professor of mathematics.

New members on the roll are: Dr. A. C. Ellis, Assoc. Prof. of Business; Charles Thomas, Asst. Prof. Health and Phys. Educ.; Josephine Rappaport, Asst. Prof., Nursing Education; Eola Porter Rooks, Asst. Prof., Home Ec.; Phillip E. Berk, Asst. Prof., Journalism; Joseph Carlucci, Asst. Prof., Music; Allan Crosby, Asst. Prof., Science; Kiffin Haynes, Asst. Prof., Languages; William S. Smith, Asst. Prof., Languages; John W. Postman, Asst. Prof., Industrial Educ.; Virginia Hurley, Asst. Prof., Health and Phys. Educ.; Rene J. Bienvenue, Asst. Prof., Science; Gordon E. Fairchild, Asst. Prof., Science; G. E. Jacques Wade, Asst. Prof., Home Economics; Sada F. Haynes, Asst. Prof., Nursing; Annie Louise Thorpe, Instructor, Nursing Education; W. H. Adams, Acting instructor of Social Science; Wm. A. Hoffman, Instructor of Art; Mary Love, Supv., Teacher High School; Ruth Geistwhite, Teacher Elementary School; Rivers Rhodes Dowty, Teacher, Elementary School; Annie Mae Green, Instructor, Nursing Education.

Gerber Takes Deanship At Stephen F. Austin

Dr. Joe N. Gerber, formerly director of student personnel and professor of education here at Northwestern, will be Dean of Junior Division and director of guidance at Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches, Texas, this fall, it was announced by Dr. Paul L. Boynton, president of the college. Dr. Gerber resigned from Northwestern this summer.

The guidance program at Stephen F. Austin will be something new at that college, but Dr. Gerber feels it is very essential to the students during their freshman and sophomore years.

Born in Bloomington, Illinois, Dr. Gerber attended Illinois State Normal University, where he received his Bachelor of Education degree in 1934. He received his Master of Science degree from the University of Illinois in 1935, and in 1941, his Ph. D. degree was conferred upon him by George Peabody College.

Previous to this work at Northwestern, Dr. Gerber taught at Witt High School, in Witt, Illinois, where he was principal.

Numerous honors have been conferred upon Dr. Gerber, among them being membership in the Schooldays are here again! But we can't say they are the same. Seems as tho' those "lil' old Froshies" have invaded the campus. . . . And we can say we are VERY happy to have them.

Our hairstyling committee seems to have done an extra special job this year. Perhaps you have noticed how college can change a person. If, however, you are in doubt, take a peek at the freshman men.

The ball started rolling Sunday when "Froshies" and upperclassmen alike swarmed the campus. Slowly but surely, many of the old faces returned during the week. To set off all events, the annual Freshman dance will be held in the Student Center tonight featuring the Demonaires.

Cupid evidently does not believe in summer vacatoin. In any case, he seems to have worked overtime this summer. Girls, maybe this marriage stuff is catching!

Among those who tied the knot are: Dot Taylor and Don Sibley, Hope Johnson and Walter Butler, Hope Richard and Bill Sansing, "Babe" Coldwell and Steve Cole, Pat Packer, Jake McCoy, Gwen Bradford and Don Danos, Ann Rutledge and Gene Duco, Dorothy Scott nad Louis Carley, Rosemary Berger and Don Williford, Nita Porter and Leon Garbo, Jr.

Best of luck to all you kids!

Miss Clydie Mae Beecham is sporting a diamond on the third finger of her left hand. The rumor is that he goes to L.S.U.

A little on the sadder side of cmpus society is the news that Miss Jan-an LeBlanc, outstanding leader in student activities and editor of the 1950 POTPOURRI, is not returning to N. S. C. Jan-an has enrolled in school at Kalamazoo, Michigan, where she will organize a chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority.

Visitors to the campus this week included the former Miss Joy Overby and Miss Kitty Thornton. Joy, a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority was welcomed by her sorority sisters as well as her many friends on the campus.

Kitty, a student from Newcomb, spent the summer here at N. S. C. She was visiting friends before returning to school next week.

The Panhellenic Council wishes to invite all the Freshman women to the Panhellenic tea Sunday, September 17, in Varnado Hall from 3:30 until 5:00. This tea is sponsored by the five sororities on the campus in order to welcome and meet the freshman women students.

Meet Mr. "T"

ESQUIRE, leading men's magazine, introduced a radical approach to men's fashions this fall. The new men's wardrobe for the man of the Half-Century emphasizes a taller, tapered effect.

Entitled Mr. "T", this new fashion highlights ten new stylings in men's clothing:

1. Tapered crown hats for loft
2. Less width across the shoulders
3. Straight hanging, E-Square

- lines
  4. Tapered trousers for trimness
  5. Comfortable, less bulky shoes
  6. Restrained, smaller knot ties
  7. Neat, new pin-point collar
  8. "Up"-looking terraced designs
  9. Smart, rounded-point collars
  10. Neat reserved mid-tone colors
- Well, boys, what are you waiting for?

Amid the hustle and bustle of this week we ran across this poem written by a senior dedicated to you FRESHMEN. It will show you just how we feel about N.S.C.

DEAR FRESHMEN

If you can't quite decide where you belong
And the lines you stand in look too long,
Just think of the po' folks back of you
And pull up a chair like the others do.

If you get to the front and they lock the door
With the excuse they "don't have time for more."

You might as well grin and get used to it,
Cause nothin' you say'll make 'em undo it!

If you go to the Dining Hall and can't get served
It ain't no use to get perturbed.
Just go to the cafe across the way,
Cause you can't eat That food Every day!

When you walk to class in the scorching sun
And you get there and the fan won't run,
Don't tell your prof it's too hot to stay
Cause he'll kep you there anyway!

If you go to your room to hit the sack
And you can't get in till "Roomies" unpack,
Don't give up now, just grin and bear it
Cause it won't be long till you "Can't compare it!"
Anne Freeze

GREEK NOTES

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Pi Kappa Sigma sailed off to a good start this semester by having a called meeting Tuesday evening at the regular time. There was a genuine feeling of sheer happiness and "ready-to-get-to-work" zeal throughout the entire sorority.

Plans for the coming rush party were discussed along with all the projects to be completed during the year.

Two Pi Kaps are back as Mrs. They are Gloria Strong who is Mrs. Hank Camp, and Ann Rutledge, now a Duco. Bill Sansing and Hope Richard have also tied the knot.

Pi Kap line up of officers this year include: Pat Leone, President; Anne Freeze, Vice-President; Ann Bolen, Treasurer; Eunice Eden, Recording Secretary; Lucy Singleton, Corresponding Secretary; Edith Tarver, Press Agent; and Beth McGuffee, Corresponding Editor.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Tri Sigs are looking forward to the return of their faculty adviser, Miss Eve Mouton, who has been visiting in France this summer. Miss Mouton will return sometime next week.

Another coming event is the report by Miss Janette Pace, prexy of Sigma Sigma Sigma, on her trip to national convention this summer at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago.

Two incoming freshmen join the influx of NSC students thronging the Hill Sunday. That tireless look is purely a pose.

Attention All Students

The schdeule for the taking of Potpourri pictures for the 1950-51 edition is as follows:

JUNIORS: September 26, 29 - October 2, 3

SENIORS: October 4, 5, 6, 9

The pictures will be made between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00 p.m. in the college studio on the first floor, south wing, of the Fine Arts Building. All men are to wear coats and ties. Freshmen are required to wear dog hats. All students are urged to report at their earliest convenience during the scheduled time in order to facilitate the completion of all pictures.

Please watch for further announcements on the college bulletin boards and in your Current Sauce.

Meet Your Demons

The football fever is here again. The Demon eleven appears to be loaded with an abundance of talent. They stack up three and four deep at every position.

This season finds changes in the football department. The greatest of which is the change of formations. The 1950 version of the Demons will employ the tricky "T" formation. The 1949 eleven employed the single wing.

Coaches Turpin, Brown, and Ledet have worked hard with the boys and their efforts look like they will pay dividends. The Demons stack up as the team to beat in the G. S. C. this fall.

So far the Demons haven't been plagued by injuries or the draft. Billy Losey, a fine end with great expectations this season is at present with the Marines in California.

One minor injury was suffered by John Ropp that may hold him out of the first game but he'll be in there soon.

Now let's meet the Demons.

Ends: Steve Cole—calls Minden his hometown. Steve is squads largest end at 195 pounds. He stands 6 feet 3 inches into the stratosphere. Steve has two letters and is playing in his junior year. A great hustler.

Merrick "Taso" Young — is a soph from Eunice with one letter to his credit. "Taso" is a great offensive end and is expected to see plenty of action this season.

George "Sonny" Pharis—a junior hailing from Pineville with one letter earned. Sonny is a tall and very good pass receiver. Sonny should have his best season this year at the terminal.

William Calvert—a Fair Park

soph with a letter his freshman year. This Shreveport lad is potentially one of the greatest ends ever to don a purple and white uniform. He was at his greatest in the State Fair game of '49.

John Haynes—calls Springhill home. He is a rangy end with a letter in 1946. He is known for his great linebacking ability.

Julius Robichaux—hailing from Houma is smallest Demon lineman. "Roby" as he is known is a good pass receiver. He is a transfer from Marion (Ala.) J. C. He is a good prospect.

Harry "Buck" Anderson—who hangs his hat in Tallulah is rangy and speedy terminal. This is Buck's first season and the 1950 quarter-miler could develop into a top-notch wingman.

Weaver—Frosh from Jonesboro. Good pass receiver.

White—Freshman from Bossier City and a good prospect.

Crouch — Freshman, hailing from Bunkie. Joe played prep ball in Marshall, Texas. He is a good end prospect.

Tackles: Rhett "Mac" Carter—hailing from Baton Rouge and a graduate from Istrouma High school. "Mac" is Captain of this year's eleven. "Mac" is an outstanding tackle and the most consistent offensive lineman on the squad; a good team leader and an outstanding blocker.

Jack Huckaby—calls Hall Summit his home town. Jack is a senior and is expecting his greatest year. He is a great defensive lineman and should be in the race for all-conference honors.

Buster Keaton — a Winnfield product and an alternate Captain. Buster is the squad's largest man. Buster is a great defensive back Johnny Emmons, passer deluxe. With the switchover from wing formations to the "T" the Demon aerial attack should be deadly.

Emmons' Targets

tackle and his offensive has definitely improved. He is in his Senior year this fall.

Huey Thomas — from Haynesville is the lightest tackle on the roster at 185. Huey is a potentially great tackle with lots of aggressiveness. He bears watching by opposing teams. Huey is the owner of a letter.

Harold "Go Go" Harlan—calling Jonesboro home, is second largest man on Demon squad. Harold has shown great improvement over previous seasons. Harold is a Senior and should see lots of action.

Charles Willis — a Vidalia boy with no high school experience. He is a big boy and a hard worker.

A. J. Telatto—a freshman from Abbeville. A good prospect topping the 200 mark.

Martin — Frosh tackle from Haynesville. A good offensive prospect.

Guards: Donald Danos—a Senior with three letters from Raceland. Don is a great guard. One of the best prospects for all-conference honors. Don has the hardest shoulder block on the squad. His Senior year should be his greatest.

Thomas Crump—a product of Haynesville. Thomas is comparatively small but is a great competitor. He is rugged for his size and a quick boy on the defense.

Lloyd Danos—another Raceland product and brother to Don. Lloyd is one of the best defensive guards. He is a hard worker and good guard. Lloyd owns a Demon letter.

Sam Harper—hailing from Minden is an excellent guard. Sam is one of the steadiest and most reliable guards. A good student of football, Sam will play some offensive tackle.

Bobby "Smoky" Smith — calls Homer his home. Bobby is hard working boy with a letter to his credit. He is good on offense.

Harry Creech — one of the smallest and toughest guards on the squad. He is expecting his best season this year. Harry calls Bossier City his home.

Sid Morell—a Shreveport boy with a letter in 1948. Outstanding prospect as a soph but was kept of action because of a hand injury. Sid shows good possibilities had between 82 percent and 98 percent. The lowest score was 85 percent.

See the schedule for Potpourri Pix.

Red Devils, Tiger Tilt Six-Six Tie

After three quarters of dull football the Natchitoches High School Red Devils and the Winnfield High School eleven came to life and scored one tally apiece for a 6-6 deadlock here Friday night.

The Devils play Byrd's Yellow Jackets Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Fair Grounds Stadium in Shreveport.

Winnfield seemed to hold an edge over Coach Tom Elkins' tackle-shy charges for the first three quarters, but in the final stanza it was the Devils who provided power enough to drive 38 yards for pay dirt. Winnfield's marker came on an 88-yard kickoff return by Dan Carr, Winnfield halfback.

Jack Sharp, Romaine Russell, Charlie Byles and Archie Worsham mustered a last quarter power rally that seemed destined to fall short, but beat the clock by several minutes too much. Worsham carried the ball across on a quarterback sneak.

The first half of the contest was uninspiring, with Jerry Crocker, 160-pound left guard for the R. D., displaying more hustle than anybody on the field. Crocker, Worsham, Russell and James Burney are potential defensive stars for Natchitoches.

The Red Devils struck deep into Winnfield territory for the first time in the third quarter when Quarterback Archie Worsham hurled an aerial to Fullback Byles for 48 yards. A 30-yard penalty put them almost back where they started from, though.

"OFFSIDES"

By ELVAN LIGHTSEY

Football season is here! This is the story that is flashing through sports headlines throughout the nation. The sportswriters begin sizing up the elevens from coast to coast and the pigskin parade is on.

Over the country as a whole, one team stands head and shoulders over the rest of the pack. You guessed it; the "Fighting Irish" from Notre Dame. Frank Leahy seems to have his methodical champions groomed for all comers. With the brilliant Bob Williams, quarterback extraordinary, back for another season the Irish seem destined for another national championship.

Tough competition in the race for top honors will be provided by such teams as Army and Cornell from the East and North Carolina, Illinois and Michigan from the Midwest. The deep South's bid for honors will likely rest on the Vols of Tennessee and the Bengal Tigers from LSU. The Southwest's best is labeled for Texas U. with SMU and TCU close behind. The Sooners from Oklahoma look good for the "Big 7", but so does Missouri. Tulsa should be the Missouri Valley's best bet. Wyoming appears to be the best in the Rockies. From the coast we see Stanford as the strongest eleven.

Now for a sectional breakdown: The East: The Army is far ahead in the eastern race. Coach Earl Blaik seems to have the Black Knights of the Hudson rough and ready for another successful year. Behind, Army, possibly Cornell is the next best. The "Big Red" look like a cinch for the Ivy League Championship.

Trailing Cornell should be the Princeton Tigers. The best independent behind the Army seems to be the Boston University Terriers with their great passer Harry Agganis.

Southern Conference: Coach Carl Snavelly's Tarheels from North Carolina should cop this championship. There can be a championship at Durham if Duke lives up to expectations. The Dark Horse role goes to the Maryland Terrapins.

MidWest: Illinois seems destined to be the first "Big 9" team to make a return trip to Pasadena this January. Coach Ray Elliott's "Illini" have 25 returning lettermen paced by Johnny Karras, a great running back. Michigan and Ohio state should fight over second position. Don't count Iowa out.

Deep South: General Bob Neyland's Tennessee Vols look like the pre-season favorite. However, this writer thinks the conference championship rests in Lexington on September 24. The game—the Kentucky Wildcats and the L.S.U. Tigers. The Wildcats still have All-American Bob Gain up front and the great soph passes Vito Parilli. The Tigers have their great defensive line to slow down transportation up the middle. Alabama grabs the dark-horse role.

The Southwest: This conference is a toss-up. It looked like a 6-way photo finish. The Longhorns from Texas look best. TCU and SMU are definite threats. The dark horse is Arkansas.

Big Seven: We will go along with, as Champion, the Sooners from Oklahoma. "Coach of the Year" Bud Wilkinson and his split-T should be mighty good again. He has one of the nation's finest runners, Leon Heath. Missouri is strong. Coach Don Faurot has a big, strong, and experienced eleven — but they play one another in Norman, Okla.

Missouri Valley: Buddy Brother's Tulsa Golden Hurricanes look far the best here. Detroit and Wichita could have outside chances. This corner says watch the Okie Aggies.

Rockies: The Cowboys of Wyoming should cop the skyline title with close competition provided by Denver U. Colorado College should cop the Rocky Mountain conference with Colorado Mines a close second.

Pacific Coast: Here we have three powerhouses. The best appears to be Stanford's Indians. But Southern Cal and the University of California are not to be counted out. Top independent should be Santa Clara and San Francisco.

That's the way it looks from the pressbox as we come back for another year of gridiron thrills.

MEET YOUR COACHES

HARRY "RAGS" TURPIN—Head football and track coach. Begins his 25th year coaching Demon elevens. Started out as freshman coach in 1926 and took over varsity duties in 1934. "Rags" over varsity duties in 1934. "Rags", as he is known throughout the South and Southwest, is a former Northwestern and Tulane great. While still in high school, the slightly balding Purple and White mentor, payed on college elevens. He has devoted more than half his lifetime to the coaching profession and can count almost half of the Louisiana high school coaches today as former students. A nervous individual from September 1 to December

1, Coach "Rags" has competition in that department — his wife, Jerry, says that she suffers from the same ailment. He would like nothing finer for a 25th anniversary present than to have the DEMONS repeat the record of the 1939 squad.

ALVIN "CRACKER" BROWN—Assistant Coach who handles the backs, ends, and centers. A Texan by birth, 'nuff said, "Cracker" was a star halfback and quarterback in Marshall, Texas and Centenary College. Served as freshman coach at Centenary in 1931, 1932, and 1933. From there he went to Springhill to turn out Class "B" champions and later on to Minden high school where his teams ran up an enviable record. He joined the NSC staff in 1940 and has been here since with the exception of a hitch in the U. S. Navy during the World War II.

WALTER "CAJUN" LEDET—Assistant Coach who works with the guards and tackles and doubles as the DEMON trainer. Ledet is considered one of the NSC football greats; he played from 1935-38. In his senior year he was selected on the Little All-American roster as a guard. Following graduation at the "Hill", Ledet stayed on as freshman coach. Has been here since with the exception of a few years in U. S. Army during World War II.

Number two man in size on the Demon squad . . . Harold, "Go-Go", Harlan is a man to watch this season. "Go-Go" hails from Jonesboro, claims a senior rating, and wants to coach.

Heavy Equipment To Play Major Part In R.O.T.C.

Two ROTC cadets in training at the Fort Bliss summer camp in El Paso, Texas train a 40 mm. anti-aircraft gun. A third member of the team stands by with ammunition. Preparation for the use of similar equipment will be part of the program here.

Northwestern State Offers Two New Courses in Nursery Education

To new courses in nursing education will be offered graduate nurses in the Shreveport area this year by Northwestern State College, according to H. Lee Prather, acting president. Requested by the Shreveport League of Nursing Education, the courses will be under the supervision of Miss Josephine Rappaport, assistant professor of nursing education and clinical co-ordinator of the Northwestern department of nursing for the Shreveport division.

Registration will be Friday, Sept. 15, at Charity Hospital, 1235 Murphy St., Shreveport, from 3 to 4 p.m. for "Administration of a Hospital Nursing Service Unit," and from 4 to 5 p.m. for "Comparative Procedures in Nursing."

Each course carries a registration fee of $5. Northwestern will grant two semester hours credit for successful completion of either course by the end of the semester, Jan. 30, 1951.

Miss Graham Price, director of the Northwestern department of nursing, describes the former course as consisting of a study of basic principles of administration and how they function in a head-nurse unit, including planning for patient care, use of records, and other problems. This course will be offered at 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The comparative procedures course entails research work for graduate nurses who have had previous courses in nursing education. It is composed of a study of basic evaluation, simple research, and problems in and methods of procedure construction. It will be offered at 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

Miss Rappaport is a graduate of the D. Ogden Mills School of Nursing, Trudeau, N. Y., and holds a master's degree from Columbia University. Among other achievements in nursing education she is co-author of a textbook, "Pharmacology and Therapeutics in Nursing," published in 1948 and revised in 1950 after her appointment to the Northwestern faculty.

Additional information about the nursing education courses may be obtained from the Northwestern State College department of nursing, Shreveport division, 1235 Murphy St., telephone 2065, extension 42.

Graduate Tests to Be Given by ETS

PRINCETON, N. J., September 11th.—Tests of the Graduate Record Examination, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year. Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1949-1950 nearly 13,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Friday and Saturday, October 27 and 28; in 1951, the dates are February 2 and 3, May 4 and 5, August 3 and 4. Since the GRE is not required by all graduate schools, ETS advises each student to inquire of his prospective school whether or not he is expected to take the test and, if so, on which dates.

The GRE tests offered in these nationwide programs include a test of general scholastic ability, tests of general achievement in six broad fields of undergraduate study, and advanced level tests of achievement in various subject matter fields. According to ETS, candidates are permitted several options among these tests.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which pro-

Major James W. Bowman, PMS&T, welcomes Cass Moss, a junior from Winnfield, as a new student of the ROTC school, which opened here this fall.

Education Board Committee Silent On Choice for Northwestern Head

Baton Rouge, Sept. 9.—A special committee of Louisiana's Board of Education met here today to recommend appointment of a president of Northwestern State college, Natchitoches.

Mrs. Eleanore Meade of Gramercy, committee chairman, declined to say what recommendation would be made. The committee, which met in closed session, will report at the next board meeting, she said. At its last meeting, Sept. 2, the board named Lee Prather, athletic director at Northwestern, as the school's acting president. No date has been announced for the next meeting of the board, which assembles when called into session by the chairman, George Madison of Bastrop.

Prather took over acting presidency of Northwestern today, replacing Dr. G. W. McGinty, who has returned to Louisiana Polytechnic institute, Ruston, as professor of history. McGinty held that post until his appointment as acting president of Northwestern about a year ago.

VOL. XXXVII NORTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA SEPTEMBER 23, 1950 NUMBER 2

Editorial

We don't often go out on a limb with front page editorials. Like a safety campaign, or a Polio appeal, however, some things merit unusual attention.

The need for magazines for Infirmary patients merits that attention!

The amount of literature available in the Infirmary can be vastly increased with your help. No matter what type of publication it is: Esquire, Mademoiselle, Argosy, Seventeen, or Red Ryder, someone will enjoy reading it.

So don't throw your magazines away. In your spare time, on your way to class, or even if you have to find time, spare a moment to bring your magazines to either the Infirmary or the Current Sauce office.

Someday you may benefit by this thoughtfulness!

Thanks!

NSA Conventionists Confirm UN Position on Korean Conflict

This week we have relegated a large portion of our edition to an account of the activities of the United States National Student Association. Since the Current Sauce is a tabloid paper, small in size, space is limited. We know that the space used for this account will necessitate omitting several campus news stories.

However we feel that the activity of such an organization as the National Student Association deserves the attention of the public, and particularly of students. If you read the article carefully you will find student opinions on such recent conflicts as the Korean situation and how it affects college life, the efforts of fellow students in countries which are now struggling for independence and self-governing status, the Communist-dominated International Union of Students, academic freedom for teachers, federal aid, and others.

These are all issues which are important to every person, and particularly to college and university students.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—The Korean War competed with campus problems for the attention of representatives of more than 300 American colleges and universities attending the Third Annual National Student Congress in August here.

Wesleyans Hold Lawn Party September 15

The Wesley Foundation entertained freshmen and old members of the group on the Methodist Church lawn Friday, Sept. 15.

Burt Boone and Bob Parrott highlighted the evening with a skit. The old members of the Wesley Foundation enacted "Casey's Coffins" and "Pocahontas."

Ice cream and cookies were served.

Frosh Week Is Highlighted by Aquatic Party

The Aquatic Club closed out freshman week Saturday, September 16, with a splash party at the natatorium.

A number of participants designated by John Piscopo relayed in rubber boats, and others swam across the pool with spoons in their mouths with ping pong balls in the spoons.

Leroy Ford, as "teacher," taught Buddy Newman to dive. Myron Lockey gave an extraordinary exhibition of swimming backward while appearing to swim forward, and Ken Howard, Robt. Voorhees, Ben Duhon, Jack Gaston, Myron Lockey, Sonny Hoff and Jeff Hennessey went through their act of clown diving.

Sonny Hoff, Jack Gaston, and Jeff Hennessey exhibited expert diving.

BSU Activities Include October Youth Revival

The Baptist Student Union activities for the year got under way Friday, September 15, with a circus party at the First Baptist Church.

Relay races, games and sing-spirations carried out the circus theme.

A youth revival will be held October 1 through October 8 at the First Baptist Church in Natchitoches. Udell Smith, state B. S. U. Director, will be the evangelist, and John Jolly, a student at Southwestern Baptist Seminary, will lead the singing.

Total Enrollment Over 1500; Frosh Top Three Year Record

The Freshman class for the Fall of 1950-51 set a record by being the largest since the Fall of '47. Enrolled in the Fall of '47 were 681 Freshmen; the Fall of '48, 580; the Fall of '49, 338. This semester the all high was reached when 586 Freshmen enrolled in this institution of higher learning. Thus far no tabulation has been made as to what these new students are majoring in.

The other classes are as follows: 267 Sophomores, 310 Juniors, and 317 Seniors. Also there are 35 Special students.

Student Council Sponsors First Dance of Season

Helping to get social life at NSC under way was the dance sponsored by the Student Council Saturday night in the Student Center, honoring the new freshmen.

Firal Lee Ryder, master of ceremonies, presented outstanding features of the college, each of which were represented by a student from that department. The Nursing School was represented by Loraine Dawson, the Industrial Arts Department by Kenneth Isgitt, the Speech Department by Julia McBroom, the Gymnastics by Lee Reese, the Home Economics by Claudine Box, the Business Department by Carole Clark, and the ROTC by Don Nutter.

The dance and floor show had as its theme the transferring of one's loyalty from high school to N.S.C.

Carrying out the theme of the evening was a large mirror picture designed by Nell Richardson. The picture showed a path leading from a small school house to the familiar three columns at Northwestern.

The dance committee, under the direction of Firal Lee Ryder, consisted of Charlotte Coombs, Carole Clark, Jean Burkhalter, Nell Richardson, John Ropp, Jack Gaston and John Brewton. These committee members, plus members of the Student Council, served as hosts and hostesses at the dance.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Demonaires and led by Gene Flores.

EPISCOPALIANS PROGRAM OUTLINED FOR YEAR AT FIRST MEET

The Episcopal students had their first activity for the year Friday, September 15, at the Religious Center.

Miss Carmen Breazeale entertained, introducing games and serving unusual refreshments.

Plans for the enlarged program during the year were outlined.

Men Lose Lead in Enrollment

There is a very definite decrease in the number of male students enrolled in proportion to the number of female students. Last year there were only six more men than women, but this year out of the 1515 students already registered there are 725 men and 790 women, leaving 65 more women than men. Out of the number of women enrolled about 50 are nurses out in the clinical area.

60 Per Cent Take X-Rays

The mobile health unit, during its three-day stay at NSC, made tuberculosis x-rays of 850 students; more than 60 percent of the total student body.

While the unit was near the Infirmary only 60 students were x-rayed. This, according to Joy Temple, head nurse there, was due to the late notification that the unit would be on the campus. Many of the students did not know that the unit was here for the use of all students.

After the consequent removal of the unit to the south side of Caldwell Hall, the majority of the students in the registration lines took the health precaution.

As a part of their physical examination all ROTC men were required to have an x-ray made. The mobile unit was utilized for this purpose.

Results of the x-rays will be reported to the school Infirmary within three or four weeks.

Fifty NSC Nurses In Shreveport, Alexandria Area

Fifty regularly enrolled nursing students at Northwestern have left the campus to go to nursing schools in Alexandria and Shreveport. They will attend these schools for two years, furthering their nursing education.

These students will enroll at their respective schools, each semester, through the auspices of Northwestern. Elizabeth Horton, Business Manager and Social Director at the Shreveport Division, and Miss Graham Price, working with the Alexandria Division, will direct the registration at the schools, and send the reports to the registrar at N.S.C.

The thirty-nine students in the Shreveport Division, and the eleven at Alexandria will take such courses as medicine and surgical work, pediatrics, obstetrics, psychiatry and public health. At the end of the two years, in addition to their work at Northwestern, the students will have completed three years of training.

The nurses may then receive their diplomas, take the state board examination for nurses, and begin their practice in their chosen fields. Or, they may return to Northwestern for their senior year and finish their Bachelor of Science degrees, by taking such courses as public health and advanced experience in clinical service.

The curriculum at the nursing schools includes regular lectures given by doctors and specialists in medicine and surgery. The students will follow regular course out-lines for the required content for professional nurses.

These students have the same privileges as the regular students of Northwestern. Plans are now in progress for branch libraries for the divisions, directed by Northwestern.

NOTICE

All students taking library science courses or who are definitely planning to do so are eligible for membership in Alpha Beta Alpha, national library science fraternity.

The first meeting will be held at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, September 28 in room 104 of the college library. All are invited to attend.

Six academic departments of NSC were represented at the Student Council sponsored dance last Saturday night. Master of ceremonies, Firal Lee Ryder, introduced each representative to a throng of freshmen between dances. Music was furnished by the Demonaires.

The Question Is ...

One of the most prevalent criticisms of college students today is their almost total withdrawal from contemporary issues of major importance. Collegiate students have long been looked upon by the average citizen as well informed, socially conscious, and progressive. A close observation often shockingly reveals that the converse is true in many of our institutions.

Take almost any campus, our own campus, and look carefully at the persons who supposedly comprise the ranks of the cream of America's youth. Even a casual glance discloses that a cast number consider themselves a privileged class, enjoying their freedom, sports conscious, fashion conscious, sex conscious, isolated from life by an academic curriculum and hence largely unawakened by the real issues of the contemporary world and its terrible needs.

A well-rounded student will certainly participate in the social activities around him. That they often dominate him so completely that the rest of the world—the world he must face in a few months or years—becomes remote is the tragedy. How can one be oblivious to the blood of his fellow countrymen now being spilled in far-away Korea? How can one be oblivious to the serious problems confronting our state and even our campus? A great many find it easy.

The fact remains that some constructive thinking and work is being done by both individuals and student groups. To bring this before NSC students the Sauce plans to publish such accounts.

All letters to the editor on controversial issues or events of the times will be included in this publication. The Sauce staff gladly invites your opinion.

Views of the News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

There has been much controversy recently about the desirability of having school teachers sign a statement of non-communist affiliation or membership. To those who are "dyed-in-the-wool" or "die-hard" capitalists, there is no objection to this proposal. Likewise, the many millions who have gullibly accepted the fallacious theory of capitalism, have no objection to such a requirement. In fact these persons are ardent supporters of the principle—many of which have never stopped to analyze the complex situation and its possible implications. This represents only an isolated example of people who are proposing to execute the principle that "one has a right to subdue any force, mental or physical, which does not conform to his belief."

To this I have no objection—if the code or idea one is protecting is right and the best possible. Ah! But therein is the rub. Who is to decide which is right and which is best? Long ago we saw the right of the individual to choose his own course of life disappear, and rightly so. It is impossible for us to have maximum individualism in the status to which our political and economic life has developed. Yet, have we digressed so far in this age of power politics that no minority group is to be allowed an opportunity to advance a theory which it feels is better for the entire group?

The democratic theory of life from its beginning by Aristotle has provided for the right of the individual, as a minority, to try to win the will and convictions of the masses. Today we find the people of this country and of the world being deprived of this right. Maybe it is necessary to suppress the rights of individuals to sustain this highly collective system of ours. But let us not be deceived into thinking that it is for an infallible principle which guarantees individualism. Such is not the case.

More prevalent than ever is the practice of overlooking the big issues and problems of society for the smaller ones. For instance, what difference does it make if a teacher takes an oral oath of non-communist affiliation, or signs a statement to that effect? As in California, this has become an issue or paramount importance all over the country—not for its apparent significance, but for its unlimited implications. It represents a tool in the current trend of power politics, being played on a national scale. And it represents a subject deserving much thought by us as republic citizens.

Deferment Policies Outlined In Memorandum from President

The question on the campus has been, for some time, "What are the present deferment policies?" Recently, Acting President H. Lee Prather outlined in the following memorandum directed to all faculty members, three definite requirements which students must meet before they may be deferred:

"September 19, 1950

We have been informed by the National Headquarters of the Selective Service System that local boards have been directed to consider for deferment students who meet the following conditions:

1. The registrant has completed at least one academic year of a full-time course of instruction at a college, university, or similar institution of learning.

2. The college or university at which the registrant last completed an academic year of a full-time course of instruction certifies that the registrant's scholastic standing placed him among the upper half of his class.

3. The local board is satisfied by the record of the registrant's actions in making normally required arrangements that he has fully intended prior to August 1, 1950, to enroll in a full-time course of instruction at a college, university, or similar institution of learning for the academic year ending in the Spring of 1951.

In order that we may be consistent, it is requested that all inquiries concerning deferment be directed to the Dean of the school in which the student concerned is enrolled. Answering condition two mentioned above, the medians for the four classes are as follows: Freshmen, 1.000; Sophomore, 1.37; Junior, 1.3249; and Senior, 1.32166."

Additional information on the present deferment policies has been released from the office of the Dean of Men by Dudley Fulton.

According to current regulations on the subject, applications for deferment must be submitted to the following places, by reservists: NAVY: Should be submitted within 24 hours and addressed to Commandant, Naval District from which orders originated. If no reply is received by date designated for reporting, orders must be complied with. Appeal may be re-submitted after induction.

ORGANIZED MARINE CORP: Request to Marine Corps Instructor—Instructor of unit involved. AIR FORCE RESERVE: Send request to Headquarters of the Air Force issuing orders, i.e., the 8th, 11th, or 12th, AF. Delays of not over 30 days may be granted in justifiable cases. Delays may be granted up to 6 months in special cases. In doubtful cases requests will be referred to Air Force deferment boards at respective AF processing stations.

ARMY RESERVE: National Guardsmen ordered to Federal Duty will forward requests to the Commanding Officer of the organization called. All requests must be supported by written evidence.

ORGANIZED RESERVE CORP: Requests to instructors, then to Commanding Officer of the Army Area involved.

RESERVISTS NOT ASSIGNED TO UNITS: Requests to Commanding General of Army District which issued orders.

ROTC Program Benefits Cadets

To gain the full benefits of the ROTC program, the cadet must enroll as a freshman, Lt. Col. James Bowman, Professor of Military Science and Tactics (PMS and T), advised in an interview this week. "A cadet who completes the basic program may receive a certificate entitling him admission to Officers' Candidate School, but in order to get a reserve commission and a degree, the non-veteran cadet must receive the full four years' training," he added.

"Enrollment in the ROTC reduces rather than increases the danger of the draft preventing a student from finishing his education, and sufficient deferments are available to cover the second year basic and advanced students. The quota of deferments for first year students has not been received as yet," he said.

The Colonel also reminded that during the first two years, cadets make no commitments to join either reserve or regular army, and are under no further obligation to continue in ROTC.

Lt. Col. Bowman also announced the addition of Sgt. Richard Garchie to the Northwestern ROTC staff. Garchie formerly was an instructor at the Artillery School at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Freshman Week is over and classes have begun. "Back to the old grind" is now our slogan. But it was fun while it lasted.

Our "Freshies" really blossomed at the Pan-Hellenic Tea Sunday afternoon. New fall frocks were the style for the day. The girls were greeted by the presidents of the five sororities. From thirty until five, representatives of the sororities and the freshman women students met and talked of college life.

Visitors to the campus last weekend included Bobby Johnson, an N.S.C. alum, who visited Miss Beth McGuffee. Bobby is now working in Shreveport after completing a successful season of baseball with the Monroe Sports.

Kenneth Mott, also an alum, visited Miss Mary Jo Turnage. Kenneth is assistant principal at Olla High School.

Frank Orton, another alum, returned to see Miss Erin Mays. Frank is working in Shreveport.

A welcome is in order for Miss Marilyn Barnette, who returned to the hill Sunday. Marilyn, after having tried Centenary this summer and Tech for the first week of this semester, decided that N. S. C. was the place for her. Glad to have you back, Marilyn.

If you should ever need to know something about Honduras, you could ask Miss Carolyn McLean. Carolyn, better known as "Pud," visited Miss Eunice Eden there this summer. There can't be anything that she missed because she hasn't stopped talking about it yet. I believe his name is Mickey!

Our football captains, Mac Carter, Bobby Davis, and Buster Keaton lunched with the Rotary Club Tuesday at noon. Must be nice to be a wheel!

Old Cupid didn't fail us this week. Some steady-goers on the campus are Jo Ann Debate and Linwood Outz, Bessie Morgan and Firal Lee Ryder.

The wedding march will begin soon for Miss Helen Melder, a graduate, and Cliff Sellers, a student here at N.S.C. Helen is wearing a sparkling diamond on her left hand and plans to add a wedding band soon. Best of luck to two swell kids.

Two of our girls returned this week with wedding bands. They are the former Misses Virginia Blackburn and Frances Johnson.

By the way, if this paper is a little mixed up, the blame goes to the chief, Chuck Tillman, and his assistant, Louise Harris. It seems that Louise is wearing a Phi Kappa Nu frat pin from none other than Editor Tillman.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Pi Kappa Sigma had its weekly meeting Tuesday evening at the sorority house. A calendar of events for the coming year was discussed and approved. There seem to be many good times in store for the Pi Kaps.

This Saturday night after the football game, the girls have planned a "bang-up" slumber party with food and all. A clever idea for food was for each girl to bring a box and shuffle them to have a drawing. Sounds like much fun!

At next meeting the Pi Kap girls will be the owners of another box of candy because of Liz Seegers wearing Ned Mahfouz's frat pin.

The girls are also busy shining the house these days; the reason, a national officer will arrive soon for the purpose of inspection. While she is here, she will have a conference with the President of the College, the Dean of Women, and each member and pledge of Pi Kappa Sigma.

Pi Kaps welcome back an old member, Mrs. Rooks, who is at present a member of the Home Economics staff.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Delta Sigma Epsilon resumed activities Tuesday evening with the feeling of having come back home. Some DSE's were missing, such as Nita Porter, who is now Mrs. Leon Garbo, Jr. Others are still with us, but under new names. Dorothy Scott is Mrs. Louis Corley and Marguerite Bozman is a Durham.

Julia McBroom, Doris Jeanne Pine, Myrtle Ann Babin, Pat Mormande, and Miss Janelle Farris reported on the events of Conclave last summer in Chicago. Mrs. Lucille Pine and Elizabeth Horton attended with them.

Big plans for rushing got under way, and everyone had a high spirit of enthusiasm. The girls have returned to school with plenty of good ideas.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

Here it is a new semester and the Theta Sigs would like to welcome the Frosh and say to the old faithfuls, "Glad to have you back."

Cupid visited us this summer. Nell Denham married Paul Hammons; Frances Johnson married David Britt; Patsy Packer is now Mrs. Jake McCoy, while Rosemary Berger is Mrs. Don Wiliford.

Tuesday afternoon, the Theta Sigs had a waxing good time on their new floor in the sorority room.

Tuesday evening, the officers pulled a very enthusiastic bunch of Theta Sigs through a meeting. Bessie Morgan was pounding her gavel while Mary Alice Driscoll, vice president was backing her up. Zona Morris, secretary was busy taking notes. Barbara West was collecting all the money; Carol Blankenship, editor, was getting publicity in shape. Virginia Scalton, rush captain, was putting over her ideas for the oncoming rush season.

Plans were discussed for the year's gala affairs and they sound wonderful!

Stored Carrots

After 30 weeks of storage, nine varieties of carrots contained more carotene, the basic material of vitamin A, than they contained before the storage period started, a recent government study showed.

Pose in, contrast . . . Jerri Jackson and Elresa Maxwell were chosen freshman beauties. Taking the proper stance are Demon Dogs, Oral Griffin and Lamar Pace, chosen ugliest dogs.

Freshman Women Introduced to NSC Activities

To introduce the freshman women students to the extra-curricular activities of the campus, heads of the women's organizations addressed this group at an assembly Wednesday night in the Little Theatre.

Janette Pace, president of the Associated Women Students explained the purposes of this organization and briefly sketched its plans for this year.

Discussing sororities on the campus was Patricia Ann Leone, president of the Panhellenic Council. Rushing regulations for this fall were read and explained.

Other speakers on the program included Myrtle Ann Babin, Purple Jacket leader and Louisa Johnson of the Memonettes.

U.S. Potato Crop

7m to 26 per cent of the U. S. potato crop (field run) consists of small and cull potatoes. They are suitable for livestock feed.

Panhellenic Tea Held in Varnado

Approximately 300 freshman women and transfer students attended the annual Pan-hellenic tea in the drawing room of Varnado Hall, 3:30 to 5 Sunday afternoon.

In the receiving line to welcome the guests were the presidents of the five sororities. They are: Dorothy Olivier, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Julia McBroom, Delta Sigma Epsilon; Patricia Leone, Pi Kappa Sigma; Jenette Pace, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Bessie Morgan, Theta Sigma Upsilon.

Also representing each sorority were seven members to serve as hostesses.

Steel Genius

Captain William R. Jones was the outstanding production genius of the early bessemer steel era. Very early in his steelmaking career he nearly doubled previous records with similar equipment, and continued to produce what were then considered astounding ton-nages of steel.

Demon Season to Open Tonight; Broncos to Buck 'T' Formation

When Coach "Rags" Turpin's gridiron shocktroopers hit the field Saturday night, it will mark the beginning of what may well be one of the most successful seasons the Demons have enjoyed in years. Several valuable men are gone from last year's eleven, but a flock of freshmen and sophomore squadmen have moved up to fill the gaps. These are the boys who could blossom into stardom this season.

It will be a veteran forward wall and a potentially fine backfield to line up against the "Broncos" of Central Oklahoma State. Running from the "T" formation for the first time the Demons have looked extremely sharp in practice sessions.

Buster Keaton, Mac Carter and William Calvert have been spark-plugs of line play, while Johnny Emmons, Art Lancaster and James Beck have been three of the outstanding backfield performers. Lancaster's running and little Emmons' superb passing were among the highlights of last season's play. Beck could star in this, his junior year.

Team spirit is at its peak and the boys believe they have the poise and ability to bring home a G. S. C. Championship, despite a preseason Associated Press poll that had Northwestern relegated to a second division berth.

All that is known of Central State is that they gave the Purple and White a terrific scare before bowing 7-6 in the season opener last year.

The shoe scramble of all the dogs and the appearance of all freshman girls in pigtails and without makeup will be special half-time attractions.

'B' Red Devils

Bow to Jonesboro Eleven, 14 to 6

Natchitoches High School's "B" Red Devils just didn't have it in the clutches Tuesday night as they bowed to a fighting team of Jonesboro's "Bees," 14-6.

Jonesboro scored first when Lilly, in punt formation for Natchitoches, fumbled the pass from center and was trapped back of his own goal line for a safety.

Natchitoches threatened mildly several times but couldn't muster enough offense to sustain their drives.

Jonesboro added another tally late in the first period when the Red Devils again fumbled near their own goal line and failed to recover. A couple of power plays and the ball was resting in scoring territory; Jonesboro was quickly off to an 8-0 lead.

Natchitoches came back with new determination in the second quarter, and with swivel-hipped Gerald Tynes doing some fine running, marched deep into the Jonesboro territory. A sturdy Jonesboro line held, however, and the Red Devils' rally was momentarily stopped.

An attempted Jonesboro pass was fumbled in the end zone, and an alert Natchitoches lad pounced on it for a Red and White T.D.

Jonesboro quickly came back to add insurance to their lead on a beautiful 45 yard touchdown run in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter.

Outstanding performances for Natchitoches were turned in by McTyre, Ebert, and Hernandez in the line, and Lilly, Stephens, and Tynes in the backfield.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Coach John Piscopo has announced that tryouts for the N. S. C. gymnastic team are being held daily in the little gym of the men's gym.

Last year the team did not begin workouts until the spring semester but Coach Piscopo is anxious to get his prospects in trim for the coming season.

The team of last year was very successful, winning the S.A.A.U. Championship by a wide margin. . . .

SPECIAL NOTICE

Coaches Prather and Thomas announce that tryouts for the 1950 edition of the Demon basketball team are to begin Tuesday night, September 26, at 6:30 p.m.

All boys who are interested report at this time in the Men's Gymnasium. There will be a month grind before anyone is cut off.

SPORTS

Fleet, diminutive Bobby Davis, offensive and defensive halfback for the NSC Demons will carry a lot of the ball-carrying department assignments this season and judging from past performances, he should do very well.

Harold Tanner hails from Homer and is a letterman. Harold is a very capable halfback. He is an excellent broken field runner and will furnish opposing teams a good headache. Harold is a sophomore this season.

Meet Your Demons

In last week's Sauce we honored the line. This week we will try to pay our tributes to the backfield. So — let's meet your Demons.

Quarterbacks:

Johnny Emmons—a Junior this year, Johnny calls Mansfield home, is a brilliant passer and a smooth "T" quarterback. He should have his best season this fall.

Buddy Cope—a Senior from Haynesville. Buddy is calm on offense and shows up nicely on the defense.

Mike Bellepanni — hails from New Orleans. Mike is considered one of our best ball handlers and also rates as a passer.

Bobby Ray McHaffey — is a freshman from Bossier City. Bobby is a good quarterback and can throw a good pass when needed.

M. D. Ray—calling Haynesville home is a freshman this season. Ray is a good signal caller and a good passer. He rates as one of our best frosh prospects.

Halfbacks:

Arthur "Buddy" Lancaster—calls Ferriday his hometown. "Buddy" made the all-conference team last season and looks like a repeater. He is a Senior this season.

Harold Tanner — a product of Homer in his Junior year. Harold is probably the Demons' best punter, also a fine runner.

Bobby Davis—from Fair Park of Shreveport is an excellent place-kicker. Bobby plays good defensive ball and is a good passer, too. Bobby is an alternating captain this season.

Jackie Givens — a product of Winnfield in his Senior year this fall—is a fast and very shifty runner. Should see his best season.

Joe Price Lancaster—another boy from Ferriday and brother to "Buddy." Joe is a transfer from Auburn and a good defensive back. He also carries the mail when called upon.

E. L. "Red" Harp—hails from Bastrop and is a fine runner. "Red" is playing his first season with the Demons and is the squad's fastest man.

Tom Broussard — a freshman from Abbeville — a good runner and a potential passer.

Pace — another Minden lad. Pace is the squad's smallest boy but a good hard runner. Watch this little freshman go.

Keene—a product of Bastrop. Keene is a hard runner and good prospect. He is a freshman this season.

Don Wineman — another Fair Park product. He is an outstanding punter. This is his freshman season.

Fullbacks:

James "Pete" Beck—hails from Minden. "Pete" is a pile-driving fullback at 210 pounds. He is exceptionally fast for his size. Should be at his best this fall.

John Ropp—another local boy. John is a hard worker and a good runner. He is probably the best downfield blocker on the team. John is in his sophomore season. James "Junior" Turner — calls Springhill his home. "Junior" looked good as a freshman and is a good line-bucker. He should stand out as a sophomore this fall.

Leon Fuller—from Delhi, is a good runner and stands out on the defense. Leon is playing his first season with the Demons.

Ralph Ezelle—a frosh fullback from Byrd of Shreveport. He is a good rugged boy at 170 pounds and a good prospect.

Latool — hails from Fair Park and Homer. He is a freshman and a good linebucker. . . .agood ODL a good linebucker . . . a good prospect.

Steel's Greatest Decade

During the 1940's about 800 million tons of steel were made. Steel employees were paid 17 billion dollars. The industry spent about 3.2 billion dollars for expansion.

Intramural Notes

Intramural touch football is to begin on October 2. The deadline for entries is Sept. 29. All persons and organizations entering teams should be present at the meeting to be held Thursday night, Sept. 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the men's gym. Coach "Red" Thomas, director of intramurals, has announced that 1950 Intramural Handbooks will be passed out at this first meeting.

Footballs are available at the intramural office to all organizations sponsoring teams. Coach Thomas urges all teams to be getting some pre-season practice and conditioning to avoid injuries.

He has stated that games will be closely supervised according to the rules. Copies of the rules are available to all who want them in the intramural office.

Coach Thomas also advises all boys winning medals last year but not obtaining them to do so at once. Contact him in the gym and he will give them to you. Seven medals are still in his office.

Special Notice

Equipment for touch football, volleyball, basketball, softball, shuffleboard and others are available for the asking in the intramural office. The Health and Physical Education Department urges all men students to take advantage of this service.

Big Keaton

Alternate Captain and defensive standout, Buster Keaton is in his senior year and the biggest man on the Demon roster. Keaton played top notch ball last season and will be in the running for all-conference honors this season. The Demons open the 1950 season here Saturday.

Red Devils Fall Before Jackets

Showing more than was expected of them, the Natchitoches High School Red Devils fell before the Byrd Yellow Jacket powerhouse, 35-12, in Shreveport Friday night.

Archie Worsham, converted quarterback, scored both Natchitoches High touchdowns, exactly two more than most fans present at the game expected.

Worsham, Romaine Russell and Jack Sharp played outstanding ball behind a hustling line.

Art is offensive left half and leading ground-gainer in the Gulf States Conference last season. Joe is defensive left half and a transfer from Auburn.

Demons Round Off for Attempt at Breaking Broncos

Rain has hampered workouts for the Demons this week at a time when the boys needed to put the finishing touches on much of their blocking, tackling, and running assignments. This reporter's guess at who will start tonight for the Demons is: in the line at the end positions, Steve Cole and Merrick Young; at tackles, Buster Keaton and Mac Carter. The guards will be Sid Morrell and Tyrus Sibley; at the pivot post will be J. R. Akins; in the backfield will be Johnny Emmons, Buddy Lancaster, James Beck, and either Bobby Davis or Joe Price Lancaster. This is strictly unofficial.

In an interview with the coaches Wednesday morning the following statements were made. We quote:

"The boys have shown great enthusiasm and hustle in their workouts and have shown that they are willing to pay the price to win. In shifting to a new formation it has been impossible to cover everything that should have been covered; but we feel that the boys will make up for these mistakes by their extra effort and hustle."

The team the Demons meet tonight has a record of 9 wins, 1 loss last season, for the championship of their conference. Their only defeat was handed them on the Demon field.

We'd like to see that happen again; wouldn't you?

Well, sports fans, it is time for the Demons of NSC to show everyone that they have a team. As kick-off time approaches the coaches are taking on that worried look, if for no other reason than their memory of the close game the boys from Oklahoma gave them last season.

The score in last year's contest, and it really was a contest, after four full quarters of exciting football, was 7-6.

Everyone who has watched the boys work-out in the past few weeks knows that the team can develop into one of NSC's finest. They have all worked hard for a winning team and intend to have one. The coaches have contributed more than their share to give the team the necessary training, help and encouragement, and the boys themselves have shown their willingness to win by the extra work and time which they have put in this season.

Tonight when the 1950 edition of the Demons' football team takes the field it will be the old case of "may the best man win."

The team can be one of the finest in the GSC if not the finest, but it will take the backing of the entire student body to give them that extra help needed to win.

The Broncos from Oklahoma will field a big, fast, and experienced team, most of whom saw action against the Demons last year. Tonight's game will definitely not be a push-over.

'The Low Down'

At the last minute Friday afternoon the coaches have decided to let "little" John Ropp dress out for the game with the Broncos tonight over in Demon Stadium.

Also last minute changes for the Demons will place either Buddy Lancaster, or Jackie Givens, in the all important position of having to kick out of any holes which the Demons might find themselves in tonight. . . . Don Danos, will not start tonight's game on offense or defense but will see a lot of action, and most of it will be on offense alone. . . . For the first time in many a season Johnny Emmons will be in perfect form for tonight's game.

As has been the case in so many opening games, Johnny has always had some injury which has kept him out of the game. . . .

Big James Beck will have to carry most of the load in the full-back slot and can always be counted on to get that extra amount of yardage when it is needed most. . . . Bobby Davis, the Demon alternate captain, has a bad shoulder which may keep him out of the line-up tonight. At this time the coaches are undecided. . . .

The team, as a whole, however, is in top shape, and ready to go. It's up to the team and to the student body tonight to give all they've got in order that we'll have the top score.

Twenty-six Attend BSU Retreat Held at Chandler's Camp Sept. 8

Twenty-six Northwestern students attended the annual B.S.U. Retreat held at Chandler's Camp on Black Lake September 8-10. These students were chosen from among the 850 Baptist Students and Baptist preference students enrolled at Northwestern to represent the Baptist Student Body and to plan its activities for the ensuing year.

The highlights of the activities planned for the coming school year are the Annual Freshman Party given on the lawn of the First Baptist Church, the Youth Revival held the first week in October, the State B.S.U. Convention held in Alexandria October 20-22, a freshman "talent show," planned and directed by the Freshman Council, a conventional Thanksgiving party and a Christmas party, the Annual Spring Retreat, and the Annual contest electing the "Rose of BSU." Standing events on the B. S. U. calendar are: College Young People's Sunday School—Sunday, 9:45 a.m.; Training Union—Sunday, 6:30 p.m.; Y. W. A.—Tuesday, 6:30 p.m.; Vespers—every day except Saturday and Sunday, 6:00 p. m.; Noon Day Services—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday; Jail Service—Wednesday afternoon.

Those representing the B.S.U. Council at Retreat were: Martha Lou Craft, president; Leesville; Sallie Harper, Women's Enlistment vice-president, Crowleyville; Joy Norris, Dev. Vice-president, Hall Summit; Billy Simmons, Training Union Representative, Natchitoches; Evelyn Gandy, YWA Representative, Many; Bobby Miller, Promotional Director, Toro; Clydie Mae Beachmen, Social Vice-president, Shreveport; Johnny Zenter, Treasurer, Grand Cane; Max Pugh, former State B.S.U. President and Lorraine Dawson and John Brewton.

Those on the Freshman Council attending were: Don Finley, president, and Herbert Law, Olla; Thelma Ruth Stephens, Women's Enlistment, Vice-President, Leesville; Ben Brewton, Men's Enlistment Vice-President, Goldonna; Bobby Earnest, Sunday School Representative, Cheneyville; Byron McCain, Music Director, Rosepine; Earline Usrey, Hostess, Sikes; Claudine Box, Training Union Representative, Verda; Bernadine Henderson, Dev. Vice-President, Crowley; Luerline Seals, Secretary-Treasurer, Oakdale; Billy Shaw, Missions Director, Elizabeth; Fred Sullivan, Editor of "Chain," Ashland, and Winnie Dowdne, Publicity and Promotional Director, Cypress.

Marine Reserves Warned to Comply With Regulations

Failure to comply with the regulations concerning deferment of Volunteer Marine Corps Reservists being called to extended active duty may result in the Reservists being denied such deferment or the possible loss of tuition fees in the case of certain college students.

Major Claude G. Rollen, Director of the Eighth Marine Corps Reserve District stated that instructions regarding deferment of Volunteer (inactive) Marine Reservists have not been complied with in many cases.

"This is particularly true," he said, "in the case of college students. It should be understood that all students, whether high school or college, are not exempt from call to active duty merely because they are enrolled at the present time."

The regulations state that only those students who have one semester or less to complete for their college degree or high school diploma may be deferred for the period of time necessary to complete their school work, not in excess of six months in any case.

Students who have successfully completed undergraduate work and are pursuing an education in a field of scientific research, medicine, or dentistry may be deferred upon request.

All reservists who apply for deferment for scholastic reasons should obtain statements for their school principals, deans, or registrars, which includes a history of their scholastic record and present standing, and the time necessary for completion of their present course of instruction.

All request for delay in call to active duty from Reservists other than students will be initiated by the reservist, or his employer if appropriate, in writing addressed to the District Director, Eighth Marine Corps Reserve District, Room F 306, Custom House, New Orleans 16, Louisiana. Under no circumstances will a Reservist request deferment until he has received his orders to active duty.

Such requests must be supported by necessary documents, affidavits, notarized statements, statements by physicians, etc., which will substantiate each request and provide sufficient information upon which a decision may be made.

Major Rollen said that no action will be taken on requests for deferment in case where supporting documents do not accompany the request.

New Ruling Made For On-Farm Vets

Veterans Administration broadened requirements that veterans' farms must meet for institutional on-farm training under the GI Bill.

Under a new ruling, eligibility requirements for farm training have been expanded to include the feeding, breeding and managing of livestock, as well as poultry and other specialized farming commonly followed in the area.

For the past few months, the only veterans admitted to the "learn-while-you-farm" training program were those farms including tilling of the soil as a basic activity. These veterans, of course, continue to be eligible for the training.

These are not the only criteria farms must meet before veterans may take GI Bill institutional on-farm training, V-A emphasized.

The farm or other agricultural establishment must be of a size and character which, together with the group instruction part of his course, (1) occupies the veteran's full time; (2) allows for instruction in all aspects of farm management of the type for which he's being trained, and (3) the farm must be of such a nature that if the veteran plans to continue operating it after he completes his course, it will assure him a satisfactory income under normal conditions.

Within the meaning of the law, V-A said, institutional on-farm training does not apply to veterans in establishments engaged primarily in the processing distribution or sale of agricultural products.

Examples of such establishments are dairy processing plants, grain elevators, packing plants, hatcheries, stock yards, florist shops and the like.

Establishments of this nature desiring to train veterans may qualify under the on-the-job training provisions of the GI Bill, V-A said.

V-A pointed out that its requirements that farms must meet for institutional on-farm training in now way constitute a definition of a farm itself. The requirements merely include qualifications a farm must have for purposes of GI Bill institutional on-farm training.

Miss Mouton Tours Continent; Says Paris Stole Her Heart

On June 8, the French liner, "Ile de France" sailed from New York Harbor en route across the Atlantic Ocean. Among the excited passengers catching a last glimpse of the Statue of Liberty was one of Northwestern's own professors, Miss Eve Mouton.

Miss Mouton, who for the past few years has been assistant professor of French at NSC, disembarked at a French port after a six day voyage.

First on her agenda was a visit with Michele Honegger and her family in Lyon. Michele had studied at NSC in 1948 and 1949 as an exchange student from France.

After one week spent in the Honegger country home at Poley-mieux, Michele and Miss Mouton traveled throughout southern France and to the Riviera.

Miss Mouton's four week stay in the capital, Paris, was spent in sight-seeing, attending class at the Sorbonne and evenings at the opera, theater and ballet.

Her visit to Germany included attendance at the world famous "Passion Play" held at Oberammergau. During this time, Miss Mouton stayed in one of the homes in the little village, as is the custom. Her host was a member of the orchestra which accompanied the players.

The play, which continued for eight hours, also included a series of tableaux in which the beauty of color, costume, design and artistry were displayed. The beauty of the play itself along with an orchestra and a chorus of 50 voices, serves to make this play one of international interest.

During her visit to Munich, Miss Mouton had the pleasure of lunching with the American Consul, Sam Wood.

While traveling through Milano, Venice, Florence and Siena, Miss Mouton visited the glass factories, lace and silver-smith shops and many world renowned museums. After visiting the Vatican Museum and St. Peter's Cathedral her three day stay in Rome was highlighted by an audience with Pope Pius XII.

The voyage back to the states was made aboard the French Luxury liner "Liberte."

Miss Mouton, when asked to indicate the most impressionable sight during her travels, commented that without a doubt, Paris had completely stolen her heart.

NSC Military Measure for New Uniforms

The third floor of Caldwell Hall sounded like a tailor shop this week, with the Military Science Staff measuring for uniforms. Textbooks and equipment are expected to arrive sometime this week, but it is feared that the uniforms will be somewhat slower in arriving than was previously expected.

As school gets into full swing this week, Military Science classes will be held in the classrooms on the third floor of Caldwell Hall. Administrative offices are located in the south end of the Caldwell basement, reached by a separate entrance. The instructional and supply section is at present in the north basement, while anti-aircraft equipment will be placed in the warehouse near the stadium. When this equipment is set up, it will be open for visitors' inspection.

Cadets are requested to read the bulletin board opposite the registrar's office in Caldwell Hall every day. This will contain all instruction and information concerning the ROTC program.

Saturday Assembly Hi-lighted By Student Body Inauguration

Highlight of the noon assembly September 20 was the inauguration of the 1950-51 student body officers. According to the student body constitution, the incumbent members introduced and inaugurated Luke Petrovitch, President; Chuck Castaing, Vice President; Pat Bishop, Co-Ed Vice President; Dollie Smith, Secretary; and Zona Morris, Treasurer.

Chairman of the Assembly, Dr. John S. Kyser, introduced Acting President H. Lee Prather to the members of the student body. It was the President's first appearance before the group as a whole.

In his speech Prather compared Northwestern with a fleet of three vessels. Each vessel, the President expressed, was flying the colors purple and white.

Continuing his analogy, Prather titled the vessels Citizenship, Friendship, and Sportsmanship. Their respective guardian ships were denoted as Loyalty, Faith, Understanding, and Sympathy; Fair Play, Courtesy, Consideration, and Self Sacrifice.

After the assembly the President made a brief talk to members of the Student Council, the Purple Jackets, the editor of the Potpourri and the editor of the Current Sauce.

Moore to Handle Publications Photography

Just in case any of you Sauce readers have been wondering who shoots all the pictures that come out in the college paper, here's the scoop.

John A. Moore, a first semester freshman, is your man. Although he first saw the light in Harrisburg, Pa., John has been a resident of Natchitoches for the past four-and-a-half years, during which time he worked as an assistant to Curtis Guillet, a local professional photographer.

ATTENTION BOX RENT DUE!

If not paid on or before the last day of this month, will be closed, in accordance with the Regulations.

In order to get your mail promptly, make sure your correspondents have the correct address.

Publications Staff Is Announced

Heading the Current Sauce and Potpourri staffs this year are "Chuck" Tillman and Ronnie Martin.

"Chuck" Tillman, a journalism major and president of Alpha Phi Gamma, hails from Mangham, Louisiana. Before coming to NSC "Chuck" served as editor of an Air Force paper where he received experience in the field of journalism. Having gone from reporter, managing editor, associate editor, and then to editor of the Current Sauce, "Chuck" has proven his capability of handling our Current Sauce this year.

Working along with "Chuck" is Faculty Adviser Philip E. Berk, a graduate of the University of Missouri, originally from Indiana. Mr. Berk is a member of Alpha Phi Gamma, NSC journalism fraternity.

Louise Harris, last year's associate editor of the Potpourri, is now serving as Current Sauce associate editor. Louise is a French major from Monroe, Louisiana, where she held the title of editor of the Ouachita High School weekly.

Pat Leone, society editor, worked as feature editor of the Potpourri last year. Pat is president of Pi Kappa Sigma and holds that same office in four other organizations of the campus.

Serving as news editor is Laura Mahan from Monroe, Michigan. Laura spent much time last year working on the Potpourri.

Wesley Jackson, a journalism major, has had previous experience on the Current Sauce and is now working as managing editor.

Sports editor Elvin Lightsey handled all of last year's intramural sports for the Current Sauce. Elvin is a physical education major.

Erin Mays, feature editor, is a member of Alpha Phi Gamma and is majoring in Speech. Erin has also had previous experience on the Current Sauce.

The business managers, Anne Freeze and Buddy Williams, spend much time around the Current Sauce office. Both Anne and Buddy are Business majors.

Circulation manager this year is Joe Couch, a freshman who has already displayed his talents on the Current Sauce staff and on the football field.

Special writers are Jimmy Johnson and Jim Bonnett. Johnson, a debater and Social Studies major, writes "Views of the News" and Bonnett handles features.

The sports staff consists of Jerry West, Jim Voorhoff, Joe Russell and Charles Eddington.

Reporters include Joyce Rabin, Beryl DeLoach, Alice Crawford, Mary Belle Davis, Dot Cromwell and Glynn Ellen Pennington.

Another important Northwestern publication is the Potpourri, edited by Ronnie Martin.

Ronnie Martin calls Natchitoches his home town. While in high school, Ronnie spent time working on the Natchitoches High School annual and has had previous experience working on the Potpourri.

Serving as associate editor is Julia McBroom of Shreveport. Besides working on the Potpourri staff, Julia spends time debating, at which she has won many honors.

Business Manager Robert Allen hails from Florien. Robert is a senior majoring in Social Science and has worked on both the Potpourri and Current Sauce staffs.

E. G. Smith, associate manager from Alexandria, will take over as business manager at the end of this semester. Smith is a sophomore and is majoring in Accounting.

Tom McCaughan holds the title of class editor. Tom, a Physical Education major, came to NSC from Lake Charles.

Working with Tom as associate class editor is Mary Lou Statham, a Spanish major from Amite. Mary Lou is a senior and has worked previously with the Potpourri staff.

Organizations editor is Ponder Davis from Many. Ponder is a major and has also worked on the Potpourri staff previously.

Helping with these tasks is Bobbye Lou Hancock, a freshman at NSC. Bobbye Lou is from Many and is majoring in medical technology.

Marie Tilleux, an art major, will fulfill the office of feature editor this year. Marie worked with the Potpourri staff last year as well as serving as secretary of the freshman class.

Sports editors are John Batten and "Lucky" Hayes. John, a freshman at NSC, graduated from Natchitoches High School where he worked on the high school annual. "Lucky" is a junior and hails from Shreveport.

Marie Tilleux and Louise Vicks serve as artists of the Potpourri. Louise acted as editor of the high school annual at Vivian.

Assisting with the tasks of the Potpourri are Thomas Poole, Joyce Rabin, Mary Louise McBride, Martha Ann Glass, Pat Marmande, Marcia Thompson, Lorrain Dawson, Stewart Carrington and Dorris Jeanne Pine.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I applied for disability compensation for pulmonary tuberculosis, and my claim was turned down by VA. I think I am now eligible under the new law increasing the "presumptive period" for tuberculosis to three years after discharge. Must I submit another application?

A. No. VA will review automatically the case records of all World War II veterans whose applications for compensation based on alleged service-connected pulmonary tuberculosis have been rejected.

Library Changes Facilitate Reading

Changes in periodical circulation and new lighting arrangements are two of the improvements to be noted in the library. The reserve book room has been changed from the main desk to the lower floor.

The old globe lights have been replaced by fluorescent lighting in order to facilitate reading.

Eugene P. Watson, librarian, has issued the following statement on the new regulations for periodical circulation. No current issue of any magazine shall circulate except for a period of two hours, and then only upon the individual written permission of the Librarian.

An unbound non-current issue of a magazine shall be due on the same day that it is checked out. Bound volumes shall be due two hours after it is checked out.

Any issue of any magazine can be placed on reserve by any teacher, and such reserved issues can be used only in the periodical room. These issues are obtained from the main desk.

Fines for keeping magazines out overtime shall be charged as follows: a fine of ten cents for the first hour or fraction thereof, and five cents for each succeeding hour or fraction thereof with the exception that thirty cents shall be the maximum fine for each day.

AWS Skit

National position on Korea, strengthened their own stands on academic freedom, discrimination, and scholarships, but did not complete work on a revised Student Bill of Rights.

Dues in the U. S. National Student Association (NSA) were reduced by 30 percent, and the national headquarters were left in Madison, Wis., with a sub-commission to study other possible sites in the middle west.

On the "immediate challenge to student life and incentive" of the Korean situation, students supported the UN in application of Articles 33 and 42 for mediation, conciliation and arbitration, and for use of armed forces in breaches of peace. Their action followed a special order of business to allow 10 minutes speaking time to Robert Fogel, Labor Youth League, who presented the North Korean view of the Korean War. Students allowed him to speak because they felt that his views would not be expressed by bona fide delegates from member schools. His speech was received with complete silence.

Students also condemned oppression as well as aggression and expressed sympathy and support "for the efforts of our fellow students in countries which are now struggling for independence and self-governing status." The resolution concluded that the success of these students in securing the freedom and equality of opportunity for their people will aid substantially in the elimination of the causes of war.

On the Communist-dominated International Union of Students (IUS), students heard reports from the NSA observer-delegation to the IUS World Student Congress in Prague, Czechoslovakia, which was held before and during the NSA Congress. Eugene Schwartz, New York University, and William Holbrook, University of Minnesota, explained that they were given an opportunity to speak at the IUS meeting, but that the group continued its support of the Russian-sponsored partisan "Peace" offensive. NSA pleas for concentration on commonly-defined problems in constructive service to all students were denied.

Based on the delegation report, the NSA Congress moved to discontinue unsuccessful efforts for cooperation with IUS on practical programs such as the exchange of students. NSA will await IUS overtures on non-partisan projects, and send observers to IUS functions.

NSA International programs in future will be based on multilateral working arrangements with student groups around the world toward international understanding and fellowship. Programs will include seminars, workcamps, travel and exchange of students, exchange of publications, cultural study programs, and exchange of ideas. NSA will also consult with other student groups on determining if there exists a basis for formation of an international organization open to students from every nation, which would subordinate ideological differences.

At the campus level, students reaffirmed their previous stands on academic freedom for all teachers, with hiring and firing on the basis of professional competence rather than political, religious, or social criteria. On loyalty oaths, students decided that "signing does not necessarily guarantee the loyalty of the person to the United States." They said oaths are an attempt to "isolate the academic community as a special case in the fight against subversion."

Federal aid to private and parochial schools, as well as public institutions, won support of students at the Congress. They felt that present needs for funds outweighed other considerations.

Another resolution declared that economic problems "play too great a role in determining who shall attend college" and called for Federal scholarships up to $800 annually based largely on financial need. Students stipulated that in states with segregated school systems, Federal funds should be split up on the basis of each group's total population, and that administration should be handled by a Federal board with separate agencies in each state. The program was called "an extension of the G.I. Bill."

On discrimination, the NSA National Executive Committee requested the American Council on Education to convene a national student conference on discrimination in higher education, with NSA cooperation.

Time ran out on attempts to revise the NSA Student Bill of Rights. Both re-wording changes and substantive amendments lost when they were unable to regain the floor after appearing once in compliance with a 24-hour notice provision.

The Congress also censured Michigan State College for placing the Michigan State News, college newspaper, under administrative supervision, following an editorial attack on the American Legion Wolverine Boy's State Institute, held annually in Michigan. Students declared that "editorial policies of student publications should be limited to legal and moral considerations."

STUDENTS! MAKE MONEY WRITING LUCKY STRIKE "HAPPY-GO-LUCKY" JINGLES!

It's easy! It's fun! No box tops to send! No essays to write! Just write a simple four-line jingle, and you may make $25! Start today!

Write a "Happy-Go-Lucky" jingle, like those you see on this page, based on some phase of college life. If your jingle is selected for possible use in Lucky Strike advertising, we will pay you $25 for the right to use it and your name in our advertising. Start today. "Happy-Go-Luckies" will soon be running in your paper. Send in your jingles—as many as you like—right away, and $25 can be yours pronto if your jingle is chosen. Be the first to write a jingle in your school. Watch this paper for more "Happy-Go-Luckies."

READ THESE SIMPLE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Write your "Happy-Go-Lucky" four-line jingle on a plain piece of paper, or postcard, and send it to Happy-Go-Lucky, P.O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.
2. Every student of any college or university may submit jingles.

Be sure your name, college and address are included—and that they are legible.

Band to Make Initial Appearance During Half-time at Game Tonight

The sixty-piece Northwestern State band will make its first appearance tonight during the half of the game with Northwest Missouri State. Gene Flores is head drum major, Robert Durham and Ted Forte are twirlers, and Doris Jean Pine, Marilyn Snoddy, Hazel Marie Brannon, and Carolyn Underwood are majorettes.

This year's band has more brass which, according to Mr. Dwight Davis, should give better sound for field play.

Due to our tradition here at NSC," said Mr. Davis, "the first game has the half time given over to the freshmen activities, and this year the trampoline was added. This makes it very convenient for the band in that it gives more time to prepare for the next game, issuing instruments, altering uniforms, and preparing music."

A great deal of time and effort is put into each performance that most people don't realize. Suitable

Dr. Kyser Reveals Film Program to Be Continued Here

The film program instituted last summer on the campus will again bring movies of a high caliber to NSC students, Dr. Kyser, chairman of the committee announced. The newly appointed committee, consisting of six faculty members and six student representatives, met Monday to outline tentative plans and to make arrangements for securing the elected films.

Dr. Kyser also stated that the 16 mm. projector has been repaired with the result that a larger variety of films can be shown. The 35 mm. projector in use last summer will also be available.

Included in the reels the committee will attempt to secure are such top-rate productions as one of the Shakespearean plays, "Blossom Time," "The Ox Bow Incident," and "Symphonie Pastorale."

Definite plans will be announced within a short time.

Youth Revival Set For October 1 to 8 At Baptist Church

The week of October 1-8 is being set aside as youth revival week by the Baptist young people of Natchitoches. This revival is to be truly youth led, with students represented on all committees. The services will be conducted by Rev. Udell Smith, State B.S.U. Director. John Jolly from Southwestern Theological Institute will be our song leader.

Noonday Chapel will be held Monday through Friday of this week. Lunch will be served after the chapel service on Monday in the BSU room, and everyone is urged to stay for it.

The whole week has been planned as a crusade for Christ. Cottage prayer meetings, led by students, will be held Monday and Tuesday nights. Friday night is specified as "Freshmen Night."

We hope that the special visitation program and prayers will result in the greatest spiritual youth revival that can be hoped for our campus.

Lorraine Vaughn Selected Queen For Central La. Fair October 14

Miss Lorraine Vaughn of De-Ridder was chosen Thursday night to reign as queen over the annual Central Louisiana Fair football game October 14 at Alexandria.

Miss Vaughn, a music major, is a junior at Northwestern State College. She was chosen by student acclamation at a pep rally Thursday night in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Representing Beauregard Parish, "Queen Lorraine" will be attended by: Hazel Marie Brannam, Bunkie, Avoyelles Parish; Barbara Malloy, Ville Platte, Evangeline Parish; Patricia Prince, Lake End, Red River Parish; Geraldine Transier, Dry Prong, Grant Parish.

Freda Woodhatch, Rosepine, Vernon Parish; Helen Thompson, Ferriday, Concordia Parish; Beth McGuffee, Harrisonburg, Catahoula Parish; Carol Blankenship, Oakdale, Allen Parish; Patricia Leone, Zwolle, Sabine Parish.

Frances Elliott, Olla, LaSalle Parish; Peggy Sandifer, Pineville, Rapides Parish; Virginia Ingram, Winnfield, Winn Parish; and Carol Clark, Natchitoches Parish.

The regal court will be presented at the height of festivities on Northwestern State College-Louisiana College Day when the NSC Demons meet the Louisiana College Wildcats on the gridiron in the annual clash between the only two colleges in Central Louisiana.

Sponsors of this event are the Central Louisiana Association, Central Louisiana Fair, and the Chamber of Commerce of Alexandria, Natchitoches and Pineville.

AWS Sponsors Skit; 'Frosh Daze' Is Given Thursday

"Freshman Daze," a narrative skit sponsored by the Associated Women Students was presented Thursday night at 6:30 in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

The skit, under the direction of Edmy Ann Sonier, is written by AWS president, Janette Pace and was also presented last year.

The skit served to acquaint the Freshman women and transfer students with customs, traditions and privileges on the campus.

Also included was a summary of AWS functions together with helpful hints as to dress and manners.

Presentation of the official AWS code was made by President Jeanette Pace.

The program was concluded with the singing of the Alma Mater, led by Bessie Morgan.

Those participating in the skit were: Bessie Morgan, Beth Cox, Pat Brown, Julia McBroom, Amy Lou Smith, Janette Moses, Betty Lynn Goldsby, Beryle DeLoach, and Mary Maxwell. Electrician was Lowell Vaughn.

NOTICE

Phi Mu Alpha had their new, electrically illuminated shield presented to them on this occasion.

Joy Norris is president of Sigma Alpha Iota and Hank Camp is president of Phi Mu Alpha. All music instructors and music majors in the department were invited.

Severe Punishment Is Meted Out To Thirteen NSC Campus Painters

The punishment of thirteen NSC students who traveled to and painted the Louisiana Tech campus in Ruston Monday night, September 25, was disclosed in a letter opened in the office of the Dean of Men Wednesday noon.

After a morning assembly of all men students on the campus, opened by Dudley G. Fulton and then turned over to the men for a period of discussion, the apprehended group was instructed to report to the Dean's office at 12:40.

An envelope, given to Student Body President Luke Petrovitch at the morning assembly, was opened in the presence of the thirteen men in Fulton's office. It contained the following letter from the Dean of Men:

Memorandum to: Men Who Visited Tech

This is to advise that the punishment meted out to the campus painters is as follows:

1. You will pay for the damages done to the campus of Louisiana Tech on a pro-rata basis.

2. The drivers of the automobiles concerned are to make immediate arrangements to leave their automobiles at home and you are barred from further use of automobiles during the rest of the 1950-51 session (Fall and Spring).

3. You are to remain in your rooms from 7:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m. daily, including Sundays, except for church. While on the

Wide Assortment Of Lost Articles In Prexy's Office

Headquarters—President's Office: In Charge—Mrs. Gunn

Did you lose a plaid rain coat on the campus three years ago? If so, you may claim it merely by contacting the Secretary to the President, Mrs. Gunn, and describing it.

Stacked back in her office is a large collection of pens, pencils, rings, fraternity and sorority pins, various clothing, and other items too numerous to mention. Some of the items were turned in to her office as long as three years ago, others just found their way there recently.

Many items which are turned in to Mrs. Gunn find their way to the owner almost immediately due to a "service" to students. Articles, turned in by either students, faculty, or administrative staff, which have sufficient identification on them are returned to the loser through the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women, whichever the case may be.

Perhaps you've lost something?

David Appointed As Acting Dean

Mrs. Perle Devereux David has assumed the position of acting dean of women following the resignation of Miss Martha Gannaway this summer. Appointed September 1 by past Acting President G. W. McGinty, Mrs. David will serve in this capacity until such time as a permanent dean is selected by the college officials.

Miss Gannaway submitted her resignation on August 23 to accept a similar position at Redlands University, Redlands, California.

Mrs. David, a native of Alexandria has served as house director in NSC dormitories since the fall of 1939. Once before, she has filled the office she now holds.

The house director of Carondelet Hall, Mrs. David will resume her regular duties after the new appointment is made.

Editorial

It was agreed among some in the Wednesday morning assembly of men students that popular opinion was the only thing that would stop campus painting and renew school spirits.

An article was recently printed in a literary magazine that told of "spotters" being hired to sit at various places in the audience. These men were paid to sit through each performance of a play, opera, or such and quietly make remarks on the merits of the production to the person in the neighboring seats. At the end of the performance they set up a spattered applause. The effect of the applause was incendiary and the quietly made remarks helped create public opinion.

Public opinion is created by people; people who, "spotted among an audience or a group, make remarks that influence thought. Perhaps that is what we need at NSC; a nucleus of people who aren't afraid to speak up and say that they disapprove of campus painting. A large group of people who, no matter where they are sitting in the stadium, don't feel "ashamed" to stand up and yell for NSC.

Actions that a society condones, people do freely. Actions that a society condemns, are done less frequently. Should the entire student body of NSC, or at least a major portion, condemn campus painting—should the student body, again as a social unit, stand up for NSC, wouldn't the problem be solved?

LETTER TO EDITOR

To the Editor:

In reading this week's "Views of the News" I see that the writer has continued his criticism of our democracy. This time objecting to the ideal of teachers being required to sign a statement of non-communist membership.

I would like to ask the NSC students if there is any doubt in their minds whether or not it is advisable to have teachers in our public school systems that do not agree with our own way of living. I believe that there is little doubt that this minority group is pledged to overthrowing our government by any means possible.

In asserting that the individual should have rights, the author is correct, but does an individual retain his rights when he is actively trying to destroy the rights and privileges of others.

At the close of the last war I came into contact with such men as Joe Stack, F. Smith, Harry Bridges, "Blacky" Meyers, etc., all members or followers of this same theory. They also complained about the "Fallacious theory of capitalism" and condemned our government, but each and every one of them, when called down, fell back on his "constitutional rights."

In our great country a minority is allowed the right to advance a theory it thinks best for the entire group. We have not and will not allow a small group to push its ideals down our throat, however, when as in this case over 99 percent of the people disagree with the ideals what shall we ask the men in Korea after viewing the results of this theory first hand if they think it better and would like to have its followers teaching in our schools.

It would be interesting to get the views of other students on this question, especially future teachers, as it is a problem we must face.

George Ward

Views of the News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

Having been unable to accept the wave of optimism with which our nation was swept recently, I should like to take this opportunity to explain my attitude. First of all let us look at the cause of the apparent complacency of the public.

On September 12, official word was released that Mr. Louis Johnson had resigned as Secretary of Defense and that he was to be succeeded by General George C. Marshall. This in itself was a welcome piece of news under the existing circumstances. Considering the fact that there was a rift between the Defense Secretary and Secretary of State Acheson, it seems very logical that one should have been replaced by a man who would co-operate with the other. This fact is even more important in light of our international relations. Adding greatly to the appropriateness of General Marshall's appointment is the fact that he is in reality the chief underwriter of the foreign policy which president Truman and Secretary of State Acheson have been proposing. So at first glance it might seem that all is well; but let us look behind the scenes.

Although a policy conflict has evidently been rectified in the President's cabinet through a shift in personnel, another conflict has been intensified between the cabinet and our Supreme Commander in the Far East. It is no secret that General Marshall and General MacArthur have long been bitter opponents over the importance of the Far East and Western Europe. It is known that their opinions on military strategy in the East greatly differ. Also differing between these two men in their general foreign policy attitudes toward the Pacific-East. As human as these two men are, their personal differences cannot be overlooked. Who is qualified to say that neither hold grudges toward the other (MacArthur once assigned Marshall as National Guard instructor when much better positions were available). At any rate, the illusion that perfect harmony in our top command is at hand is just that—an illusion.

There are many factors concerning General Marshall himself which prevent me from accepting his appointment so cheerfully. First of all his foreign policy program which our government has been following has proved to be no practical blue-print for world peace. Before blindly placing my faith in eGneral Marshall as Secretary of Defense, I am reminded of his failure as coordinator of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; his ineffectual trip to the Orient in a most high diplomatic position and our erroring China policy resulting therefrom. General Marshall, however, is a living example of a soldier who fights for his opinions, be they prejudiced or not. Therefore, we might rightly be proud and optimistic about the fate of our foreign policy. But we should all remember "no man is greater than his ideas."

Bobby Smith, better known as "Smoky," hails from up Homer way. "Smoky" is an offensive guard and a two-year letterman. He is one of our most consistent guards. "Smoky" is playing his Junior year and it should be his best.

Sauce Staff Digs Into Family Closet, Finds Relics of Lost Journalism

If you think that your Current Sauce staff of 1950 publishes a rather trite paper, you should have been a "Normalite" of 1914!

The following excerpts taken from "ancient" copies of the Sauce were the products of journalistic endeavor of an editor (female), seven associate editors and a joke editor:

"Wanted: A man of marriagable age of good character and habits." (Times never change!)

Pearl: "Have those sandwiches any meat in them?"

Freshie: "Yes, but it's ground up." (Dining hall at work...)

Carie Bell: "Lessie, I bet you a Hershey on the football game Thursday that Normal wins."

Lessie: "All right, I bet two Hersheys that Lafayette wins."

Carrie Bell (trynig to study): "I wish you would hershey up." ("Corn" obviously came in with the "flappers"!)

Coney: "Hey, P. E., what shall I give my kid brother for his birthday?"

P. E.: "A nice pair of sox."

Coney: "Yeah, but he has got a nice pair of sox." (... that's all!) Just in passing, those were jokes!

Editorial: "Did you see the colors last Friday when the sun came out after the rain? Did you see the rainbow and the purple mists hanging all over the campus? Did you ever see anything as fresh as the grass and the willow trees? Did you know that the bunnies—hands off the bunnies, by the way—kept warm and dry in their nests?" (Get the point? It must mean something!)

Society: "The inhabitants of the Hill were thrown into a state of excitement when the news came that Mr. Wilson Hightower of Camp-ti and Miss Ruby Leigh Hood of Monroe had eloped. . . . Almost from the first day of their meeting, their acquaintance ripened into an abiding love that knew no measure. . . . The pines stirred gently as the youthful swain vowed eternal love beneath their spreading branches. . . ." (While today, marriages are relegated to a sentence on the society page, they were given a half-page "spread" with pictures in 1921!)

News Item: "Staff Enjoys Walk . . . The members of the Current Sauce had a most delightful walk along the beautiful lake road Sunday afternoon with Mr. St. Amant as chaperon." (Front page item.)

Ad: "Attention Girls! Paul Jones Middies in all styles are here! Price, $1.00." (Please girls, remember your budget!)

The first football game of the season was really a success! Besides winning the game, it looked like homecoming with so many alums here. That old NSC spirit was riding high!

And speaking of spirit, what has happened to our Freshman girls? I've heard rumors that some of them have really been complaining. Such things as "You didn't do that when you were a Freshman," have been used as excuses. Well, girls, so what? A custom has to start sometime! What's the matter with now? After all, it's only in fun! Why, you could just as well say, I won't ride in an auto because my great - great - grandmother didn't do that when she was my age. Just peek into the future and see that next year you'll be upperclassmen.

A perfect example of good sportsmanship exhibited by a Freshman girl is the case of Miss Gloria Ethridge. Gloria went to the Field House without her Freshman cap. She was asked by some of the upperclassmen to stand on a table and tell everybody how pretty she was. She did just that! In fact, she even made love to Dog Elm! And when she climbed down she laughed about the whole thing! Gloria, in the eyes of those upperclassmen who were there, is really tops! Let's be good sports, and build up that old NSC spirit.

Wednesday night at 6:30 the AWS presented "College Daze" in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The skit was presented in two scenes, the first representing the typical Freshman girls, a snooty snob, a regular old gal, the personality gal, and timid Jane. The second scene represented these same girls at graduation. And now we all know just how much college can change a person.

It's that little old man again, and this time he's called to our attention the fact that there are some things going on right in front of our eyes. Jo Clark, an NSC graduate, visited the campus last week-end. Jo is engaged to Sid Morrell, football player.

Also Bobbie Hornsby, a Freshman from Bossier City, is wearing a diamond from Bobby McHalfey, another football player.

New Marriage Law Goes Into Effect

Clerk of Court B. S. Swett this week is publishing a notice concerning the new law governing issuance of marriage licenses. Prospective grooms must prove by two adult witnesses that they are over 18 and also by two adult witnesses that the would-be bride is over 18.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The Alpha Sigs started the year off right by having a slumber party Saturday night, following the football game. Besides the old stand-bys many of the alums returned to make this a gala affair. Audrey Smith, Marilyn Finley, Dorothy Dale and Barbara Smith related the tales of this wide world to ever eager ASA's. Mrs. Robert Easley and Mrs. Lamay Bice, chaperones, shared in the fun! Dot Tullos and Mrs. A. Kilpatrick, the former Quanita Cardozier, were here for the game. Plans for the coming rush parties have been discussed at previous meetings.

The Alpha Sigs, aside from business have been playing, too! They seem to like chocolate fudge and roasted marshmallows. Anyway, it's an excuse to gather at the house and make merry!

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Some of the Pi Kaps were still sleepy at the weekly sorority meeting Tuesday night, but most had about recuperated from the Saturday night slumber party. It seems everyone had much fun and there was plenty food and little sleep. The Alpha Sigs, our next door neighbors, came over for a little visit and even took several snapshots of the gang.

On the line-up for social events this week, Pi Kaps and their dates will play Canasta and Bridge. A Canasta-Bridge Party sounds like fun and with food and entertainment, why not?

Liz Seegers and Nell Richardson were at active meeting for the first time since their initiation. Congratulations, Liz and Nell! You are "full-fledged" Pi Kaps now.

After meeting Miss Bruner and Joanne Brantley were in charge and several games were played.

Liz Seegers brought that box of candy promised and there was fun for everyone.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

The Theta Sigs are really getting in the groove.

Tuesday afternoon, they got together and made sandwiches which they sold Tuesday night.

The Theta Sigs' room is going to be the scene of much fun when the time comes Saturday afternoon to get together for a fudge making. Dancing, singing and everything goes with it.

Best wishes go to Nell Richardson who is engaged to Sonny Gatlin. The wedding is to be held on February 3.

The Theta Sigs are glad to have back into their midst Mrs. Jim Willis (Dixie James).

This year we have Carol Blankenship on the Varnado Council.

So much enthusiasm has been displayed for the oncoming rush season that the Theta Sigs feel as if they are being rushed themselves.

Today all Delta Sigs are putting their efforts into a rummage sale in downtown Natchitoches. Everyone dug into their old clothes and wrote home for worn garments, and they're spending their time selling them.

At meeting time Tuesday the girls were highly enthusiastic about rushing plans. Suggestions flew thick and fast, and many plans were made in greater detail than formerly.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

As per usual, the Sigma's are busy bees with activities of all sorts. To begin with, congratulations are in order for two "love-lies," Carol Clark and Pat Prince who will represent Natchitoches and Red River parishes, respectively, at the Central Louisiana Fair game between our own Demons and Louisiana College.

Also, Laura (Lollie) Mahan will wield the Varnado Hall gavel for this year. Best of luck, Lollie, with the new job! Nobly assisting Lollie as secretary-treasurer will be "Ruthie" Ellender. Congrats for Pat Crump too, who will hold the purse strings and keep minutes for Carondelet dorm. Heading the Women's Recreational Association will be Jeanne Olivier.

Just in passing, a few boxes of chocolates are due the Sigma gals. One from Vice President Louis Harris. (The lucky fellow is J. C. (Chuck) Tillman, also from Helen Jane Gooch of Shreveport who will become Mrs. William Nicholas Bret, Jr. as of Saturday, October 7. Another event to make October 7 a day to remember will be the wedding of Lallah Cunningham of Natchitoches. Lallah was former president of Alpha Zeta and held such honors as "Darling of NSC," Aquatic Queen, member of "Who's Who" and many others.

At the regular meeting Tuesday, evening, President Janette gave an exciting and informative account of her and Pat Prince's escapades in Chicago at the National Convention held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

Price to Survey Nursing Programs Of Two Colleges

Miss Graham Price, Director of the Department of Nursing, and Miss Carrie Spurgeon, Executive Secretary of the Louisiana State Board of Nursing left by plane last Sunday to survey the basic college programs of nursing in Incarnate Word College, San Antonio, Texas, and the University of Texas, School of Nursing, in Galveston, and act as accrediting representatives.

Miss Price and Miss Spurgeon will remain in San Antonio the week of September 25 and will go to Galveston during the week of October 2.

They were asked by the National Nursing Accredited Service to survey the schools and act as accrediting representatives of the service.

Demons Display Sharp Football in Downing Central Oklahoma Broncos

Everyone who saw the game last Saturday night in Demon stadium witnessed one of the finest exhibitions of football ever played on the turf of the gridiron here at Northwestern. The team this year will be the best football team NSC has ever had if the boys keep up the good work.

After Oklahoma kicked off to start the game Saturday night, James Beck returned the ball for 10 yards on the first play from scrimmage Arthur "Buddy" Lancaster carried for two more yards, Bobby Davis, picked up 3 and then Johnny Emmons tried a flat pass which went incomplete. Buddy Lancaster dropped back and got off a beautiful 54 yard kick, deep in enemy territory.

The Broncos drew a five yard penalty on their first play for off-sides then the Demons were penalized 5 yards for off-sides. On the next play the Broncos fumbled and NSC recovered. Beck, hit the left side of his line and picked up 8 yards and a first down. Bobby Davis picked up 4 yards around left end and James Beck hit the left tackle slot for 2 more yards. Emmons dropped back and attempted a pass to Bobby Davis, which fell short of the mark. Oklahoma intercepted the next pass by Emmons, and Hilderbrand of Oklahoma picked up 5 yards, and then the Broncos fumbled but recovered. The Broncos attempted a pass but was broken up by Joe Price Lancaster. The Broncos picked up 3 yards on the next play. Oklahoma dropped back and kicked 43 yards. Harold Tanner took the kick and attempted to run it back but lost a yard from the point where he caught the ball.

On the first play Buddy Lancaster picked up 5 yards, and then Emmons dropped back and threw a pass for 50 yards which was short of the mark. Tanner dropped back and kicked for 38 yards. On the first play the Broncos picked up 9 yards and then Hilderbrandt made three and a first down for Oklasoma. Oklahoma drew a penalty on the next play but it was refused by the Demons and they were forced to kick. On the first play Buddy Lancaster picked up 11 yards and a first down then Joe Price carried for three yards and then Buddy, carried and fumbled and Oklahoma recovered.

In the second quarter Bobby

E. L. "Red" Harp calls Bas-trop home. "Red" is a fleet half-back and a terrific broken field runner as he exhibited in the Oklahoma game. "Red" is the team's fastest man. He is also an excellent dash man in track. "Red" is in his first season with the Demons.

Intramural Notes

One of the extracurricular activities of which Northwestern is justifiably proud is its fine intramural sports set-up.

The program swung into action this year with a preliminary meeting of all those interested in organizing teams in the intramural system. The meeting was held last Thursday night.

Because of conflicting schedules the meeting was adjourned until Monday night, Oct. 2 at 6:30. The seventeen members present Thursday night were issued handbooks, rules, and entry blanks.

Teams represented at the meeting were: Cream Puffs, Mongrels, Sigma Tau Gamma, Phi Kappa Nu, "A" and "B" Frames, West Barracks, Brick Shack, Lambda Zeta, and an unnamed town team.

All others interested in entering a team may call at the intramural office to obtain information or equipment. Entries are due by 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 2, and play begins at 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 4.

A new and popular feature of this year's intramural contests is that trained officials will be available at all touch football games.

Davis took the ball on the 44 yard line and carried all the way for a touchdown, the run being good for 56 yards. Davis' try for extra point was good and the Demons led, 7 to 0. From then on the ball changed hands several times until Johnny Emmons dropped back and threw a short pass to Calvert, who lateraled to James Beck who galloped 51 yards to score. Davis' try for the extra point was good and the Demons led, 14-0.

The Demons kicked off to Oklahoma and Hilderbrand returned the kick 85 yards for Oklahoma's first touchdown. Arthur Lancaster returned the Oklahoma kickoff 25 yards. Givens tried the line and picked up 2 yards. Emmons fumbled, and Emmons again tried to complete a pass but it fell short. Harold Tanner dropped back and kicked for 40 yards. Oklahoma, after a series of plays picked up a first down, then tried a pass which was no good, and then Emmons, intercepted one of their passes and the half ended.

The second half had just started when Joe Price Lancaster broke loose for a 61 yard run and a touchdown, and again Bobby Davis tried for the extra point and it was good. The ball changed hands again several times and then Red Harp, broke loose for 51 yards and Bobby Davis again collected the extra point. The ball again was carried up and down the field with both teams trying for a touchdown and Oklahoma finally making one from the three yard line. Their try for the extra point was no good. From this point of the game on it was Northwestern all the way with Red Harp picking up another touchdown which was good for 17 yard and Davis added another extra point. Oklahoma ran a Demon kickoff back for the second time for 83 yards and another touchdown. Emmons collected a touchdown on a trip around his own right ned which was his only score for the night.

The Demons were penalized 10 times for 80 yards and the Broncos of Oklahoma were penalized 9 times for 80 yards. Emmons completed one pass and Red Harp led the Demons in the rushing department. At the final whistle the Demons led by a score of 41 to 20.

Don't miss the game tonight with the Missouri eleven and let's all back the Demons.

The Freshman Cheerleaders' try-out was held in the Fine Arts Auditorium on Wednesday, Sept. 20, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. The students who crowded into the auditorium for the event chose Jo Pullen and John Hicks as Freshman cheerleaders. Jo, a native of Natchitoches, was a cheerleader in Natchitoches High School. John hails from New Orleans where he was a cheerleader at Warren Easton High School. Jo and John performed with the upperclassmen cheerleaders at the game Saturday night.

Other Freshmen who participated in the try-out were Charles Moreland, Ferriday; Jenny Beth Bennett, Dodson; Claudelle Kimry, Smackover, Arkansas; Evelyn Pyle, Shreveport; Betty Jo Miller, Marthaville and Robbie Morgan, Martin. Jerry Buxton, Saint Amant and Billie Joy Payne, Moringouin; John Batten, Natchitoches and Johnnie Nash, Le-compte, participated as teams.

Rhett "Mac" Carter comes from Istrouma High of Baton Rouge. "Mac" is this year's captain and an excellent offensive tackle. He is a hard worker and a good team leader. "Mac" is in his Junior year with the Demons. "Mac" intends it to be his best.

formations have to be planned and drawn to scale. Every person in the band has to be given a position, and, of course, the music has to be arranged for the formations and changing of formations.

The average band director takes all this preparation as a matter of course. The formations cannot be made in advance because of the uncertain number of players in the band; even ten persons would cause a great deal of difference.

Football Squad Hampered by Rain During Workouts for Missourians

Rain has hampered workouts for the Demons of Northwestern for the early part of this week, and the coaches have been having the boys workout in the men's gymnasium. After the game with Oklahoma Saturday night the coaches looked well pleased with the performance which the boys turned in, but there were some mistakes which will have to be ironed out before the season goes any further.

The only player to suffer an injury as a result of the game with Oklahoma was Joe Price Lancaster, the younger brother of Arthur "Buddy" Lancaster, who was all-conference last season. Joe turned in a fine exhibition against Oklahoma and accounted for one of the six touchdowns the Demons made Saturday night.

Saturday night the Demons will take on Northwest Missouri State in Demon Stadium and according to the coaching staff this is expected to be one of the best games of the season. The Demons, at half time in last season's game with Missouri trailed by a score of 14 to 6, but the Demons came back strong in the last half to win, the final score being 33 to

Missouri has one of the strongest teams in their area and the game tonight will definitely not be a pushover for the Demons. A really fine game is in the making. The coaches were well pleased with the downfield blocking in the first game this season but are stepping up the pace in an effort to correct the many mistakes which were made.

Sid Morrell, a Shreveport boy and a graduate of Fair Park High School, has moved up to the starting lineup on the defensive team and is going to see a lot of action this season. Sid made the starting team by the outstanding line play which he displayed in the first game with Oklahoma. This is Sid's second year to play for the Demons and if he continues to give such excellent showing as he did Saturday night he will have a strong bid for all-GSC.

In practice Wednesday afternoon the Demons looked like a team ready to take on any and all comers. The hustle the boys have shown is the main reason that so many Conference teams are going to find the Demons hard to beat this season.

Much time is being spent on the practice field in running plays and practicing going down on kickoffs, blocking for the kicker is being stressed more and more strongly every day and doing most of the kicking for the Demons in practice has been Arthur Buddy Lancaster, and Jackie Givens, who have been getting off excellent kicks with the defensive team, giving them a rough time.

Demon Swimmers Begin Workouts On Football Field

Workouts for the 1950 edition of the Demon swimming team have begun . . . but not in the natatorium.

All aspirants for Coach John Piscopo's team can be found most any day jogging, and puffing, on the track around the football field, to build up wind and resistance.

Working out for the 1950-51 session of swimming are Jack Branch, Leo Ellison, Myron Locky, and Robert Voorhees. New faces added to the group are M. L. Aust and John Stafford.

Following the period of track workouts the group will work out, ashore, in the gymnasium, doing calisthenics. With better than two weeks "warm-up" exercises behind them, then the team will take to the water.

According to Piscopo, negotiations are under way for a pre-season game with Auburn. Tentatively, the meet is to be held during the Fall semester.

If negotiations are completed, a newcomer will be added to the Demon schedule; the Auburn Plainsmen.

Q. If I get a GI home loan, how much of a down payment am I required to make, under VA's new ruling to conserve essential material and labor?

A. In the case of automatic loans made by supervised lenders, you must pay all closing costs in cash. In the case of other loans requiring prior VA approval, you will be required to make a cash down payment of an amount equal to at least five percent of the purchase price or construction cost.

Margarine Restrictions

Federal and state laws impose such restrictions on margarine that "the poor man's butter" is not stocked by about 60 per cent of the nation's grocers.

"OFFSIDES"

Here at home, our Demons were very successful last week-end as they toppled the Central Oklahoma "Broncos", 41-20. Elsewhere in the Conference we find that our arch-rival, Louisiana Tech, trouble downing Howard Payne, 27-20. S.L.I. ran over East Texas Baptists to the tune of 26-0. Louisiana College had a tight squeeze before tripping Southeastern, 14-13, to knock the lid off for the G.S.C. Mississippi Southern ran into much difficulty as they fell before mighty Tennessee, 56-0.

This week in the G.S.C., we find only one conference game. This one pits S.L.I. again Southeastern. Elsewhere in the circuit, we find our own Demons playing host to Northwest Missouri State Teachers. Louisiana Tech is visiting East Texas Teachers in Commerce, Texas. Louisiana College is at home against Alabama State Teachers. Mississippi Southern is entertaining Delta State Teachers in Hattiesburg.

Johnson to Head 1950 Demonettes, ROTC Group

The Demonettes, Northwestern's precision marching team and pep squad, are now getting organized under the direction of Louisa Johnson, this year's president.

Serving with Louisa will be Vice-President Carman Basco and Secretary Sue Tucker. The officers were elected at the end of the past spring semester by last year's members.

It is the purpose of the Demonettes to do formations with the band and to march in all parades in which the school participates. Two of their most outstanding performances will be at the NSC-Louisiana College game in Alexandria and at the NSC-Tech game in Shreveport.

In order to become a Demonette, a girl must be five feet, three inches to five feet, six inches tall and must maintain a C average. No previous marching practice is needed.

This group, composed of fifty-four members, meets for practice at 4:15 until 5:00 o'clock on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays and is being drilled this year by three R. O. T. C. officers. Some time in the near future the Demonettes will elect three officers, a captain and two lieutenants.

As yet, there is no specific time set for the meetings except when called by the president.

Dorm Councils Elected Last Week

During last week the six girls' dormitories met to elect their dormitory council officers for the coming year.

The senior dormitory, Varnado Hall, elected as their officers the following girls: President, Laura Maftan; Vice-president, Elizabeth Abraham; Secretary - Treasurer, Ruthie Ellender; Social Chairman, Edmey Ann Sonnier. The representatives for the various floors in Varnado are: in West, first floor, Mildred Miley; second floor, Carol Blankenship; third floor, Pat Mormon. In East Varnado, the representatives are: first floor, Marna Hynum; second floor, Ruth Lee; third floor, Wanda Thomas.

Audubon Hall officers are: President, Claudine Box; Vice-president, Julia Honeycutt; Secretary-Treasurer, Sarah Cook; Social Chairman, Ruth Good; first and second floor representatives, Virginia Hanks and Joyce LaBorde, respectively.

The officers elected for Agnes Morris are: President, Ila Mae Milton; Vice-president, Dorothy Barmore; Secretary - Treasurer, Louise Burns; Social Chairman, Patsy Winkler; first floor representative, Elizabeth Messer; second floor representative, Kathryn Tanner; Sleeping porch representative, Lou Gregorio.

Carondelet Hall elected as President, Christine Rosier; Vice-president, Bobby Platt; Secretary-Treasurer, Patricia Crump; Social

Huey Thomas is a product of Haynesville. Huey is the lightest of the Demon tackles at 185 pounds. He is a fast and very aggressive lineman. Huey is playing at defensive end some this season and he is playing it exceptionally well. Huey is a Junior this year.

Chairman, Peggy Haywood; first floor representative, Sue Ann Westmoreland; second floor representative, Aphrodite Marmelitas.

Kate Chopin Hall's officers are: President, Barbara Malloy; Vice-president, Lois Ferree; Secretary-Treasurer, Thelma Ruth Stevens; Social Chairman, Mona Masin-gill; first floor representative, Doris Bolin; second floor representative, Lady Jane White.

Junior Turner calls Springhill his hometown. Junior looked very good as a fresh fullback last season and with a year of experience to his credit should stand out this fall. Junior is a powerful line-bucker and a good punter.

Fourteen Pledged To Euthenics Club At Saturday Meet

Saturday afternoon fourteen freshman girls were pledged into the Euthenics Club at a very impressive candlelight ceremony. The new pledges are Barbara Malloy, Kathleen Ray, Patsy Winker, Winnie Dowden, Doris Bolin, Eddy Jeane Elliott, Nezy Deiville, Betty Ruth Bryant, Helen Kibbe, Jo Ann Gandy, Iva Lois Davis, Lois Ferree, Claudine Box and Betty Tarter.

These girls will remain pledges until the beginning of the Spring semester. The members of the istered the oath were Mary Belle Davis, Gloria Ebarb, Mary Beth Buckley, Edith Tarver, and Evelyn Gandy. Acting as sponsor for these pledges will be Elaine Harris.

Student Council Future Meets to Be on Thursdays

At the last meeting of the Student Council it was decided that hereafter the Student Council would hold bi-monthly meetings on Thursday nights.

Also under discussion at this meeting was jerseys for the boy cheerleaders. It was decided that someone in town would be hired to make them. The boys were allowed to choose the style that they wanted. They chose purple jerseys with white sleeves.

Veteran's Credit Allowance Issued By Pres. Prather

Policy governing allowance of credit to students called into military service was announced this week by H. Lee Prather, acting president of Northwestern State College. This policy is in accordance with regulations adopted by Northwestern during World War II, according to Prather.

If the Federal Government calls a regularly enrolled student into military service before mid-semester, the student is given no credit for work done during that semester. He may, however, return at the same point (or earlier) of any later semester and resume his work in courses which he was passing at the time of being drafted.

If a regularly enrolled student is called into military service at mid-semester or later, he is given credit in all courses which he was passing at the time of being drafted. The grade assigned in each course is the one submitted by the instructor at mid-semester or later. Before any student can benefit from this regulation, he must submit to the Registrar's office proof that he was drafted into military service.

The special regulations outlined above do not apply to any student who enters military service voluntarily.

Draftable College Men May Apply For Naval Commission Before Call

Draftable college men who wish to try for commissions in Naval aviation must make their applications before they receive notices to apply for draft examinations, according to information from the nearest Aviation Cadet Procurement Office, located at the New Orleans Naval Air Station.

Once a notice from the draft board to report for physical examination is received, the Navy cannot take a man's application, no matter how well qualified he is to be an officer, the announcement stated. However, if a man applies for flight training as a Naval aviation cadet and subsequent commissioning as an officer, and then receives a draft notice, all draft boards in Louisiana and certain ones in other states have agreed to defer him until the Navy either accepts or rejects his application.

A great number of eligible college men, according to Lt. Comdr. J. M. Parsons, Naval Cadet Procurement Officer for Louisiana and the southern parts of Mississippi and Alabama, have an idea their draft boards will hold off sending them notices until completion of the semester or even the school year. That is not likely to be the case, he said. It is more likely that draft boards will call college men in when their time comes, examine them and then defer them until semester's end or year's end. By that procedure, they will be prevented by law from applying for entry into any other branch of the service.

Men with two years or more of college, or men within a few weeks of having 60 semester hours, are eligible to apply for Navy flight training by visiting or writing the U. S. Naval Air Station, New Orleans 19, La. However, they must be temperamentally suited for flying, Lt. Comdr. Parsons pointed out.

Acceptable aviation cadets can start well up the seniority and financial ladder at $105.00 per month for the 18 months of training, then $353.00 monthly thereafter, rather than at the $75.00 pay of a private. They will be commissioned ensign in the Naval Reserve or second lieutenants in the Marine Reserve after flight training, and they may hold these commissions and receive benefits from them all their lives, after their return to civilian life.

New Books

Some new books can be found in the Library this week. The list contains both fiction and non-fiction and assures you of some interesting and educational reading.

"The Golden Apple", by Wilty, is a popular story laid in a Mis-issippi town. By Nourse, we have a historical interpretation entitled "Ferment In Far East". An intriguing account of how our earth may have come into existence is told by Velikovsky in "World's In Collision". "Little Boy Lost", containing an interesting tale of a father's search for the son he has never seen, was written by Laski. The Salem Witch Trials are reproduced realistically by Stackey in "The Devil In Massachusetts". Rose produces a well-liked story, "Room For One More", when he writes about adopted children. "An Iceland Fisher", by Loti, is a colorful tale of fearless men and their wives. A religious novel, "The Cardinal", is enthusiastically told by Robinson.

Demonaires Boast Twenty Members

With Gene Flores top man again the Demonaires, NSC's twenty-piece dance band, are all set for their full schedule of activities this year.

According to Flores, this year's group is the largest since the Demonaires were organized. Featuring an enlarged repertoire of dance favorites, they will be on hand at all college dances.

The students comprising the band and the instruments they play are: Gene Flores, drums; David Carson, piano; Glen Gardner, bass violin; Roger Duhon, guitar; Frank Pasqua, Gordon Young, Gerald Carter, Bob Dorrivitt, trumpets.

Hank Camp, Ralph Tompkins,

Allen Grant, trombones; Don Jones, Hardy Rose, Les Gillespie, Hubert Belisle, Elsa Marx saxophones; Mrs. Hank Camp, "vibes."

Raymond Russell and Beryl DeLoach will be featured on the vocals.

Industries Told Of Manpower Source by VA

Industries expanding to meet Defense contracts were reminded by Veterans Administration of a first-rate source of manpower, ready and willing to train for new skills—the nation's disabled veterans.

Survey after survey disclosed that these men, when properly placed, prove to be at least as good workers as their able-bodied fellow employees.

In fact, one major study showed that the handicapped suffer fewer serious accidents and build up better production records than do those without physical impairments.

And yet, today—five years after V-J Day—thousands of disabled World War II veterans everywhere in the country still are looking just for an opportunity to prove themselves.

A federally-sponsored training program is at their disposal: Public Law 16, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. But they need a place to train.

Employers who, because of increased orders, now find themselves in a position to train new workers are urged by VA to remember America's disabled ex-servicemen.

A call to the nearest VA Regional Office at Shreveport or New Orleans will produce full details as to how to go about taking on handicapped veterans under Public Law 16.

Dr. George Walker Reveals Increase in Enrollment for Fall Nursing Program

Total enrollment in the NSC nursing program this fall is 285. According to Dr. George Walker, Dean of the school of applied Arts and Sciences, this is a relatively large number when compared with other collegiate nursing programs.

One hundred and forty of the students are freshmen studying basic courses on the campus. There are 22 second year students at NSC this fall.

Thirty-nine students are presently enrolled in hospitals in the Shreveport area; eleven are in Alexandria.

Four registered nurses are working on BS degrees here; sixty-nine others are taking one or more advanced courses in Shreveport.

'Smoking Lamp' Lit for Local Frats

"The smoking lamp is lit," as the old Navy saying goes. Only this time it doesn't refer to whether or not a person may smoke.

Fraternities on the campus have started their annual rushing ceremonies for the fall semester.

The groups busied themselves with plans for the fall formals the first two meetings. "Smokers" for rushees, however, will be begun and continued during the next few weeks.

Election Day for Student Senate Set for October 18

The Student Council set Wednesday, October 18, 1950 as the election day for the Student Senate, with October 4 through 6:00 p.m. October 9 as the time for filing intentions.

The election will be for the sixteen upperclassmen members of the Senate. In order to qualify as a candidate for the Senate, the student must be of at least sophomore standing and at the time of their filing for office must have a scholastic average of 1.0 quality point for each semester hour of credit pursued.

Intentions for Student Senate are to be filed with Dolly Smith, Secretary of the Student Body.

Tri-Sig Host to 45th Div. Visitors; All Frats, Sororities Represented

The Tri-Sigma Sorority girls were hostesses last Sunday, to two soldiers, Jack Williams and Ad-nell "Ad" Acers, of the 45th Infantry Division of Oklahoma, now stationed at Camp Polk.

The two boys had been on the NSC campus the week before to attend the game between the Demons and Oklahoma Central State. In a letter to Janette Pace, President of Tri-Sigma, Jack said "We were not only pleased with the campus, but also the beauty of the charming young ladies." He asked Janette if she could possibly arrange for him and his friend, Ad, to meet some of the girls on the campus.

Jack, a Kappa Sigma, and Ad, a Lambda Chi, were invited up to the campus by Janette. They arrived on Sunday, October 1, at about two-thirty.

The Tri-Sigas had decorated their house beautifully, with fall flowers, and everything was in shining order. Upon their arrival, Jack and Ad were introduced to the representatives from the other sororities and fraternities on the campus. From the sororities were: Ann Bolen, Pi Kappa Sigma, and Ralph "O.K." Gremillion; Julia McBroom, Delta Sigma Epsilon, and Ponder Davis; Marilyn Barnette, Alpha Sigma Alpha, and Dick Tolar.

From the fraternities were: Luke Petrovich, Lambda Zeta, and Jo Pullin; Rudy Berlin, Phi Kappa Nu, and Jenny Ward.

The hostesses and their dates were: Janette Pace, and Paul

Suggestion of the Week...

Our opinions on a subject that occupied the spotlight last week are more than adequately expressed in the following letter from the President of Louisiana Tech.

The letter is in agreement with an idea first expressed by the Dean of Men at an assembly for all men students.

"I would like to suggest that each school forget all about this pre-game horseplay until a couple of days before the game when the customary hanging of dummies could be carried out. I am certain that our students will co-operate in placing the Demon dummy on display not more than two days before the game, say for example, on Tuesday night, guarding it Tuesday night, Wednesday, Wednesday night, and Thursday, burning it Thursday night prior to the game Saturday.

"Naturally, this is a custom which has been followed by both schools for many years and I feel that it is a good one to create a keener feeling of rivalry between the two colleges prior to the fair game. If you have any suggestions to offer concerning the display of the dummy or any suggestions as to how we can handle this whole situation in a more amicable manner, please let me know.

"With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
R. L. Ropp
President

Views of the News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

An important issue before the international and national leaders of the world last week was whether or not U.N. forces should cross the famous 38th parallel. Naturally, there was a difference of opinion concerning the problem. However, I believe it safe to say that a very large percentage of the English speaking people were in favor of crossing this political boundary. As General MacArthur issued his proclamation, a wave of agreement seemed to go out to him from here and other Western democracies. I must admit that I too, was inclined to agree. But the reasoning offered validating the action was hardly sound.

One of the arguments offered was that the North Koreans started the war so we should finish them "but good." Perhaps by our animalistic instincts such thought could be justified. Yet, applying the same reasoning to our everyday life, why do we not go out and annihilate all our adversaries if they initiate the conflict? Another prominent argument—one used by high officials of our government—was that Korea should be one sovereign state. Proponents of this argument say it is not practical to have two political entities in the small state. If this be valid reasoning, let us review the cause of the Korean conflict as stated by the North Koreans. They maintained that their reason for marching on the Republic of South Korea was to reunite Korea into one national state. They said it was not practical to have the small country of rather homogeneous people so divided. It not that identical to the reason offered by our leaders for going across the 38th parallel?

May I say again that I am not against the moving of troops into North Korea—maybe we should go farther. But the point I am making is that we are all guilty of the same crimes (if they can be called such) in rationalizing to justify our actions. Why not face the issue squarely and proclaim to the world that yes! we are now and shall in the future take a positive course of action in overcoming what we have decided is our perpetual enemy.

Again I say that we as citizens owe to ourselves and to our country an effort to know what is going on about us. And to be guilty of using or accepting the reasoning I have heard is a sure sign of incognizance of World affairs. This is an era of power politics in which our actions of today are justified by the same actions of another were declared unethical. Let us not be misled by the techniques of this era. Even the best of geo-politicians cannot explain the problems of the world; but we all can study and think about them.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Ordinarily I would not sacrifice my time to reply to such a display of ignorance as the asinine letter of one George Ward attacking my news column of September 23. However, less public sentiment be misled I shall submit a few brief remarks.

In the first place, Ward grossly misrepresented the ideas I discussed in my column; even this was done very incoherently and grammatically incorrectly. I did not object to the "ideal" of teachers being required to sign a statement of non-communist membership—quite the contrary. And his authority for calling this practice an "ideal" is certainly questionable. In the second place I did not criticize our "democracy." In the third place Ward is guilty of that same thing of which I wrote—rationalizing to justify his actions, but accusing others of destroying the rights and privileges of others. An effort to read understandingly will help him considerably. In connection with this, I suggest Ward go back and read my statement of purpose in the September 16 issue of the Current Sauce.

If George Ward is carrying a chip on his shoulder because he was in the last war, I suggest he come around. I and a million other veterans of the recent blood and thunder conflict will gladly share that chip.

Realizing the space of the Sauce is too valuable to be used for a personal argument—and Ward's letter proves he has no intellectual argument—I shall conclude by saying that George Ward or any other student who has a different view from those expressed in my column are cordially invited to come see me. I can prove what I say as fact or offer abundant evidence for my opinions.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Johnson

First of all, may we express our thanks to the Current Sauce for inviting us to share the activities at NSC. Though we are no longer directly on the campus, we are still students of NSC, and are anxious to keep up to date on all news and activities. We, in turn, are anxious for you to know what we are doing. Through our Current Sauce, we are an undivided student body.

Under the guidance of our director in the Baptist Hospital Division, Miss Sada F. Haynes, we have organized our student body and elected our officers. Miss Gloria Schumaker was elected president; Miss Louise Canafax, vice-president; Miss Gay New, secretary-treasurer; Miss Yvonne Jenkins and Miss Faye Gaspard, chairmen of the social committee.

At present, we are a small student body. There are only eleven of us NSC student nurses affiliating here. It is only natural that we are looking forward to next September when thirty other NSC nursing students will join us. We are sure that they will feel the assurance that we now feel—that of being a member of a group working together and learning together, and knowing that a helping hand is always extended from fellow students, as well as our head nurses and directors.

The first day on duty in the hospital is the hardest. The newer students recently witnessed that. The older ones well remember it. As time advances, however, we realize that the beginning of anything is difficult. After we have become well acquainted and adjusted to our new environment, we are at home. We feel certain that you who are to join us will find yourselves at home.

Janice M. Tucker

Dear Sauce Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how much I have enjoyed this semester's Current Sauce.

Your journal has become the true voice of the Northwestern student and of the college as a whole. Your news coverage is of the highest calibre, and the presentation of happenings shows care and close attention to the rules of journalism.

Your whole staff is to be commended for the fine work it is doing. Keep up the good work!

The Panhellenic Council met Wednesday afternoon at six p.m. to discuss and plan for the coming rush season. Rush rules were presented by the committee and accepted by the council. At present, Panhellenic is working to revise their constitution.

The Blue Room of the Fine Arts Building was the scene of an informal tea Monday afternoon, sponsored by Mrs. Olive Cooper, Sara Jane Wadsworth and Bebe Lawton. Twenty girls were invited to become members of the Fine Arts Club. This club was very active on the campus before the war and the new members are making big plans to make this year the best yet!

The Purple Jacket Club met Thursday afternoon at six o'clock at the home of Miss Catherine Winters, sponsor. Already, thoughts of that trip to New Orleans in the spring are in the girls' minds. In the meantime, the girls are content to do those little chores that fall their way.

The A.W.S. is making plans for its Leadership Conference which will take place some time next month. This type of conference was tried last year and proved to be quite interesting and helpful to the students of NSC. The full program has not been decided upon yet, but just keep your eyes and ears open for further announcements from A.W.S.

Best wishes are in order for our former house director of Audubon Hall, Mrs. Bibb. Will Cupid never cease to amaze us? On September 20 she became the wife of S. J. Bostick, who has been a resident of Natchitoches. The following Monday they left for Shreveport, where they will make their home.

September 30 will be a Red Letter day on the calendar of the former Helen Melder and Cliff Sellers, for it was on this date at four o'clock that they took their marriage vows. Helen is a former student of NSC who graduated only last summer. Cliff is a Business Major at the college. They will make their home in Natchitoches. Congratulations and best of luck, Cliff and Helen.

Sigma Tau Plans Activities for Fall Semester

The members of Sigma Tau Gamma met Tuesday night and began their plans for the 1950

Fall Semester. Harry Creech was elected vice-president to replace resigning Jerry West.

After the election the group, under the leadership of President James Oakes, settled down to settling the date for the Sigma Tau Gamma White Rose Ball. The Ball is to be held December 9 in the Student Center.

Conversation was made on the second Annual Gridiron Classic when the Taus meet Phi Kappa Nu in the Toy Bowl. This game is scheduled for December 16 in Demon Stadium. It is played as a benefit game for the Kiwanis Doll and Toy Fund Campaign.

Twenty-eight active members reported for the Fall Semester together with fourteen pledges and Faculty Adviser Robert Easley.

The Taus are working hard and looking forward to an outstanding school year.

The officers for the following 1950 session are: James Oakes, Homer, president; Harry Creech, Bossier City, vice-president; Jackie Givens, Winnfield, Recording secretary; Leslie Lum, Longstreet, treasurer; Thomas Hennigan, Marthaville, chaplain; Nick Fragala, Bastrop, historian, and Harold "Go-Go" Harlan, Jonesboro, sergeant-at-arms.

Pi Kappa Sigma had their weekly Tuesday night gathering at the sorority house and discussed such topics as informal and formal rush parties.

Plans were made for the installation of Nell Richardson as corresponding secretary of the sorority. She is succeeding Lucy Singleton.

President Pat Leone visited Mississippi Southern campus this week-end and Edith Tarver spent the week-end at Louisiana State University. Edith reported seeing Pi Kaps' own Baby Kay Sonnier during her stay there.

Our congratulations to Helen Melder, who became Mrs. Clifford Sellars Saturday, September 30 at 4 p.m. The couple is residing in Natchitoches while Clifford finishes this semester of school.

Friday night the group held a bridge and canasta party at the house. Refreshments were served between games. There were also group singing and music specialties by Beryl DeLoach.

TRI-SIGMA

The Tri-Sigma crew wishes to announce that in spite of the pails of water, hose, and other such equipment in evidence Thursday afternoon at the sorority house no fires were reported for that day. The not-so-old saying—there's something about a soldier—surely held true for the Sigmas Sunday afternoon when the sorority sponsored a get-acquainted party for two Camp Polk officers, Ad Acers and Jack Williams. Representatives of each sorority and fraternity participated in the evening's events, including dancing, card playing, and candy-making. The boys promised to return—with increased numbers.

Congratulations are in order for Jeanne Oliver, elected vice-president of the state W.R.A. and Carolyn McLean, elected secretary-treasurer. Jeanne is in charge of the sorority's intramural activities and is already lining up a top-flight volley ball team.

The Sigmas plan to attend the wedding of Lallah Cunningham, a past chapter president, this afternoon. Also on hand for the event will be an illustrious alum, Mary Ann Gaunt, who is now teaching in Greenwood.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Big boxes of candy went around the room Tuesday night after Julia McBroom's and Pat Mormande's announcement of their being pinned respectively to Ponder Davis and Ronald Martin.

Officers were elected to fill the places of girls who didn't return this year. Mac Schoonover is vice-president, Jean Weeks is corresponding secretary, and Dorothy Nesbit is sergeant-at-arms.

Miss Janell Farris is giving the girls a slumber party at her apartment Saturday night. The girls can get some sleep after a hard day's work at the rummage sale.

About the middle of the meeting, Betty Flow Few came in trembling and pale. She had just parked a friend's car on the hill behind Caldwell, and as she turned her back, the car started rolling down the drive! Luckily she caught it in time.

LAMBDA ZETA

At the fourth meeting of the year for the members of the oldest local fraternity on the hill, Lambda Zeta announced the plans for the coming semester. A total of twenty-seven active members were present and willing, even though the vets' checks have not come in, to make definite plans for the fall Zeta formal. The official date has been set as November 11, 1950, for this annual highlight.

Attention was also directed to the plans for the rushing season which is on the schedule as an important event, and all the frats might well agree to that fact. A "smoker" will be held in the near future for the purpose of meeting all the freshman men, and introducing them to the fraternity.

Taking the lead in the year's activities as the president of Lambda Zeta is Student Body president, Luke A. Petrovich. Assisting him as vice-president is Richard "Dick" Traber. The other officers are as follows: Secretary, Ronald Martin; Treasurer, Layton Stephenson; Parliamentarian, Jimmy Johnson; Chaplain, Thos. "Cess" Poole; Sergeant-At-Arms, Ponder Davis; and Pledge Master, T. Scott Strickland.

Red Devils Drop Close 24-20 Game To Mansfield High

Defense was thrown aside Friday night as fans witnessed a wide open offensive game. Mansfield High edged the Natchitoches Red Devils, 24 to 20.

A strong running attack, led by the brilliant dashes of Stout, put Mansfield into an early 6-0 lead in the first quarter. Natchitoches came back strong and forged ahead, 7-6, on a sustained drive downfield. Brunning tallied for Natchitoches on a pass play and Simpson converted.

The game see-sawed back and forth for two quarters with both teams showing terrific offensive power, but little defense. At the half Mansfield led 18-14.

A 20-18 Red Devil lead late in the fourth quarter fell before the brilliant passing arm of Mansfield's Reynolds. Three consecutive passes were completed downfield to bring the crowd to its feet.

With the ball on the Natchitoches seven yard line, a running play failed to gain. On the next play a pass was successfully completed, giving the Wolverines a final lead of 24-20.

Brunning scored once, Russell twice for the Red Devils.

17 Compose 1950 Gymnastic Team; Prep for December 'Extravaganza'

The 1951 edition of the Demon gymnastic team is making great progress in their workouts. Coach John Piscopo stated this year's team should be his best. Coach Piscopo is in his third year at the helm of the gymnastic team. He has some of the boys he started with back for another season.

The Physical Education Department, under Coaches Guy W. Nesom and John Piscopo are very busy formulating a schedule tentatively with dates at Plain Dealing and Fort Necessity. In the spring there is to be some competitive meets, according to Coach Piscopo.

All squad members are returning with the exception of Bill Barnidge. To compensate for this loss we have new faces in the form of Tex Carlyle of Shreveport and John Hicks of New Orleans, who doubles as our frosh cheerleader. Tex is an all-round gymnast while John is an ace tumbler.

The boys are working out daily in the little gym. They are to introduce a new apparatus this season, known as the "Jumping Jack," so be on the lookout for it. Coach Piscopo also stated the Men in Bronze would be back again with some new formations.

The highlight of the season is to be the "Gymnastic Extravaganza" to be held in the Fine Arts Auditorium on the night of December 13. The Demonnaires will play for this and all other performances.

Al Kopp, ace gymnast, from New Orleans, was elected captain of this year's team in a recent election. Squad members this season include: Fred Hoff, Little Rock, Arkansas; Warren Hauth, New Orleans; Burt Babcock, New Orleans; Ken Howard, Shreveport; Gene Flores, Shreveport; Ben Duhon, Baton Rouge; "Chuck" Castaing, New Orleans; Pedro Velez, Rio Piedras, P. R.; Marion Shirah, Shreveport; Ralph "Kayo" Gremillion, Alexandria; Harry Jim Brannon, Sulphur; Jack Caston, Eldorado, Arkansas; Dale Branch, Waterproof; Joe Holley, Tallulah; Lee Reese, Shreveport, and Leland Langridge of Shreveport.

Team managers this season are Myron Lockey and Henry Lyle.

Full Length Films Now Possible

This year for the first time, we have been able to have full-length motion pictures with technical speed taken. The adequate equipment only recently purchased and handled by Dr. Kyser and his assistant, Mr. Hennegan, will afford motion picture records of the Central Oklahoma, Missouri, Louisiana College, Tech, Southwestern, and East Texas Baptist games played against the Demons.

President Prather has given permission for a new final magazine to be ordered for the camera. Although it takes preparation and skill to operate the camera, Dr. Kyser and others are fully qualified in experience and preparation.

Hoop Crew Begins Preseason Practice

With big time football again coming onto the scene in a big way and the championship of the baseball still hanging in balance the sports calendar may seem to be filled to capacity. Unknown to many, however, a third major sport has edged into the picture here at NSC, as the Purple and White hardwood crew begins its preseason workouts.

Afternoon sessions, stressing such fundamentals as ball handling, passing, and shooting, have been held during the past week under the watchful eye of Coach Thomas. Several outstanding regulars are back from last year's team, and a crop of fine-looking freshmen are also very much in the running for varsity berths.

Even though it is much too early to say how the Demons are going to shape up, we would like to be among the first to wish the Demons' success in their coming campaign.

"OFFSIDES"

By LIGHTSEY

Last week-end in the G. S. C. our Demons trampled Northwest Missouri Teachers, 53-0. Louisiana College drew a national ranking by defeating Alabama State Teachers of Livingston, 20-7. Mississippi Southern still couldn't find a scoring punch and fell before Delta State, 6-0. Southwestern remained in the win column defeating Southeastern, 6-0 in a conference game. In the other game our arch-rivals, Louisiana Tech battled East Texas State Teachers to a scoreless deadlock.

In this week's competition we find our Demons in Port Arthur, Texas on Friday night for a tilt with Lamar Tech. Mississippi Southern invades Abilene, Texas for a game with McMurry. Louisiana College goes out of bounds to play Tulane in New Orleans. Southwestern is at home to Troy State Teachers of Alabama. Louisiana Tech is host to Stephen F. Austin in Ruston. Southeastern plays Auburn at Auburn this week-end.

At present, after two weeks have elapsed Southwestern and Louisiana College pace the conference, each with a single win and no losses. None of the other teams have played a conference game yet.

Against intersectional rivals the G. S. C. has fared pretty well. The conference has compiled an unofficial record of 7 wins, 2 losses (both by Mississippi Southern) and 1 tie.

Demonettes Elect Officers for Year

A business meeting was held Friday, September 29, by the Demonettes, for the purpose of electing field officers, treasurer and reporter.

Louisa Johnson was elected captain; assisting her are Lieutenants Carmen Basco and Elva Sue Tucker. Patsy Winkler was elected treasurer and Sadie Bernadette Basco, reporter.

The Demonettes are proud to have as their sponsor, this year, Miss Janell Farris from the Commerce department.

Practice for the Louisiana College game began Wednesday, Oct. 4, then the Demonettes met with Mr. Davis and the band. They are under the guidance of Sgt. Hanscome, Sgt. Reeser, and Sgt. Garchie.

NSLI Applications Flood VA Offices; Service Expanded

A flood of new applications for National Service Life Insurance has forced Veterans Administration to expand its underwriting service in Washington, D. C., and to set up an adjunct underwriting unit in the Philadelphia District Office to handle the overflow, VA announced.

Personnel for the Philadelphia unit will be recruited in Philadelphia. Also, persons in the Washington office will be given the opportunity to make voluntary transfers to Philadelphia.

The expanded Washington office will be increased to the extent that office space and personnel are available, VA said.

VA explained that the stepped-up rate of inductions into the armed forces has resulted in an increase of thousands of new applications daily for NSLI. Also, persons already in service who held little or no NSLI feel a new awareness of the need for insurance protection in view of the Korean conflict, and are now applying.

NSLI, in amounts from $1,000 to $10,000 is available to any person entering active duty in the armed forces. Types of policies include low-premium term insurance as well as six permanent plans, including endowment.

Dr. John Duffy's Doctoral Essay Is Published

Dr. John Duffy, professor of history at NSC, is the author of a chapter in a book recently published by the Church Historical Society of Los Angeles.

The book, BRITISH HUMANITARIANISM, printed by the Kingsport Press, Inc., contains 10 essays honoring Dr. Frank J. Klingberg. The essays, written by former doctoral students of professor Klingberg, were published at the time of his retirement from UCLA after 33 years of service.

Dr. Duffy's chapter, fourth in the book, deals with "Early Factory Legislation" in England during the industrial revolution.

The essay, according to Duffy, was written at LSU. Further research was done on the work at the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C., last summer.

Duffy is the author of a book, now being published; The History of Epidemics for American Colonies, concerning the period from 1607 to 1775.

Dr. Duffy first came to the campus in 1946. He taught at Southeastern State College in Hammond from 1947 until September 19, 1949, when he returned to Northwestern.

Communist, Democratic Ideologies Subject of Speech to Debate Team

Dr. John S. Kyser will address the Northwestern State College debate squad Wednesday night, October 11, in room 2 of the Fine Arts Building, on "Differences between Communist and Democratic Ideologies." The NSC debate group is under the direction of Mr. William S. Smith of the Speech department. All students interested in debating are urged to attend.

"With only two members of last year's varsity debate team back, there are big openings for qualified freshmen and inexperienced debaters," Mr. Smith announced. "Those who are inexperienced will receive special attention," he added. "If there are sufficient freshmen interested, a freshman squad will be formed."

Members of last year's varsity squad back for more debating are Jimmy Johnson and Luke Petrovich. Invitations to the Dixie Champion Forensic Tournament, November 30 to December 2, and to the Grand National Forensic Tournament, March 21-25, have been received and more are expected. The NSC debaters will travel to the extent of finances, and will sponsor a High School Debate Clinic, and a High School Tournament, February 9 and 10. The Louisiana College Tournament here tentatively is scheduled for March 9 and 10.

Mr. William Havard, NSC professor of Government discussed "A Conception of the United Nations Organization" this last Wednesday.

You are reminded that experience is not necessary to start. If you are interested, the time is 6:30 to 7:30 and the place is room 2 of the Fine Arts Building.

Euthenics Club Holds First Meet

Thursday night the Euthenics Club girls chalked down another important date in their history book of the Club. It was the first meeting in their new club room. This fact holds special significance because this is the first time in the club's 23 years of being that there has been a club room. The Executive Council for this year chose this business meeting for discussing with the girls the plans for the club that they had worked on this summer.

Gloria Ebarb presented a tentative schedule for the program meeting of the year. The committee chairmen were announced by the president, Mary Belle Davis.

Then came the big business of the evening, whether or not the club would buy club pins. After much discussion the girls chose to order the official pin for the College Club Division of the American Home Economics Association.

Mickey West, Treasurer, discussed briefly changes that she proposed be made in the budget.

After a discussion of money making ideas the meeting was adjourned.

Ralph Quinn Is Elected President Of Freshman Class

The Freshman class elected officers at a special meeting in the Fine Arts Auditorium Wednesday evening. The newly elected officials are Ralph Quinn, president; Stewart Carrington, vice-president; and Claudine Box, secretary-treasurer.

President Ralph Quinn, who nosed out three other candidates, hails from Spring Hill and is majoring in mathematics.

Stewart Carrington, new "veep", who was challenged by five other candidates, is a pre-med major who calls Lisbon his home.

Miss Box, victorious over ten other competitors, is a home-economics major from Verda.

The attendance by the Freshman class at this special session was one of the largest "Frosh" gathering on the "Hill" in a long, long time.

Alumnae Find Marriage a Problem; State Unpreparedness As Reason

The article "The Trouble with Men Is..." in October MADEMOISELLE is a continuation of the magazine's survey of college women ten years after, which appeared in the September issue. Last month 1940 graduates of Smith College and Wisconsin University reported on their lives since graduation—their jobs, their homes and activities. In the October issue their reports deal more specifically with their husbands and their marriages.

The majority of these Smith and Wisconsin alumnae have found marriage packed with unexpected problems. The overwhelming consensus was that "most of us were unprepared for marriage." The same idea was expressed in other ways: "We both thought running a household, raising children and controlling a budget were much easier than they actually are." "My family protected me too much..." "Having children too soon tied us down more than we expected..." though we never seriously regretted it." "Emotionally I was a child and it caused the debacle of my first marriage."

One recurring complaint about husbands was that they are often uncommunicative or tired or boring: "Forgets to tell me the news," "keeps things to himself," "when tired he's speechless and generally I feel like talking," "his thinking is narrow, his interests few, he can discuss little but his own work." Three men fall asleep sitting up in their chairs after dinner. Another "doesn't clean up after making popcorn."

The greatest single complaint about men was "too conscientious about his work" at the expense of wife, children or recreation. The second most frequent complaint: "He loses his temper with the children." Some wives said: "He cannot manage money." One sighed, "I just wish he earned more."

Twenty per cent of the class of 1940 find their husband's earnings inadequate. Eighteen per cent said they were satisfied, while the majority checked "adequate" but commented in this vein: "It is enough to sustain life but it provides no extra."

Fat salaries, however, don't seem to produce any specially rich grade of happiness. The MADEMOISELLE study showed very little correlation between income and general joy and adjustment to life. What it did reveal was that men whose wives complained they don't see enough of their families were, with few exceptions, the biggest earners, men pulling down $10,000 a year or more. As a partner in marriage the junior vice-president has his drawbacks.

Despite the complaints they make about their lives and their husbands, the class of '40 seems to be mighty glad they're married. A very few may be contemplating divorce but so far there have been amazingly few broken marriages (2.6 per cent) according to the MADEMOISELLE sample.

And most of the women who have no tyet married are still hoping. One single girl answered the question "do you still think of marriage as a serious possibility?" by writing, "When he comes along it's going to be serious all right."

Band Prepares For Next Two Appearances

The Northwestern State College Band, under the direction of Bandmaster Dwight G. Davis, is presently one of the hardest working organizations on this campus as it is confronted with two of the most important appearances of the year in a period of only eight days.

The band, having participated in two football games this season, is faced with presenting a good performance during the parade and half-time of the annual Cenla Fair game between the Wildcats of Louisiana College and the Demons of Northwestern on Saturday, October 14, and following up the next week-end, October 21, with perhaps the most important performance of the season as the Demons tangle with the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs at the annual Louisiana State Fair in Shreveport, also preceded by a parade.

The seventy-piece aggregation has already begun rehearsals for the Cenla performance to be presented in Alexandria and has started to practice on precision marching and good playing for the all-important pre-game parades along with the fifty-four members of the Demonettes, a group of girls especially drilled for marching and precision drills.

According to Band Director Davis, the half-time ceremonies for the Cenla game promise to be very unique as well as interesting and entertaining. Plans for the performance at the State Fair game are still in the making.

Kappa Phi Fine Arts Club Reorganized at Blue Room Tea

Kappa Phi, honorary Fine Arts Club, reorganized at a tea in the Blue Room Monday. This is the first time since the beginning of World War II that the organization has been active.

Elizabeth Lawton is president and Sara Jane Wadsworth is vice-president. Mrs. Olive Cooper, Mrs. Cora Carver, Mrs. Eleanor Lee, Mrs. Ellen Hill and Mrs. Sally Gunn are sponsors.

Kappa Phi is composed of girls interested in art, literature, and music, and its membership is limited to twenty. Each girl, though, may choose a little sister whom she considers is entitled to be a part.

Phi lo kilo theane, lovers of anything beautiful, is the theme. The purpose is to seek a better understanding of the fine arts, to found that understanding, and to cultivate a love for the fine arts.

Kappa Phi was founded in 1914, and prizes were offered for the best piece of literature, the best musical composition, and the best piece of art produced on the campus.

PKN Plans Dance

Plans are already under way for the Phi Kap formal dance for the fall semester. Following the usual "get-back-together" meetings the group got down to serious work on activities for the semester.

First on the list of Phi Kap doings are smokers for the rushers, to be held in the near future.

Officers for this year are George Grammar, president; Donald Ray, vice-president; Carvel Prince, treasurer; Steve Cole, secretary; Doug DeLoach, corresponding secretary; Elvin Lightsey, Intermural representative; George Bruser, sergeant-at-arms; Dennis McMullan, George Grammar, Rudy Berlan, Inter-Fraternity representatives.

NSC Eleven to See Action in Cenla Area Tonight Against LC Wildcats

The Northwestern Demons will invade Bolton Stadium tonight at 8:15 p.m. for a game with the Louisiana College Wildcats. This is the second annual Cenla Fair game for the two clubs. The Demons eked out a narrow 7-6 victory in last season's classic.

The Wildcats are out for revenge and are boasting one of their best clubs of all time. They have a big line and a fleet of fast backs. The Wildcats come into the fracas with a record of three wins and one loss. Their loss came at the hands of Tulane last weekend.

Nevertheless our Demons will enter the contest undaunted by Louisiana College boastfulness. This is the Demons first conference game and first real test. The Demons have breezed by three teams so far. They have piled up 120 points to the opponents' 20. The Demons' defensive line is to be praised for its magnificent work. Neither of the three foes thus far have been able to make a sustained drive for a score. The offense has clicked beautifully also from the "T" formation.

The coaches announced that John Ropp and Joe Price Lancaster are both ready for action against Louisiana College. But on the other side of the ledger we have some capable men who are on the doubtful list. They include William Calvert, who has a bad toe injury; Johnny Haynes, who

Alumni Feted at Open House in Bentley Hotel

Open house for Northwestern State College alumni will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. today at the Bentley Hotel, Alexandria. Free coffee will be served by members of the Rapides unit of the NSC Alumni Association, sponsors of the affair, according to Leroy S. Miller, secretary-treasurer.

Also present will be Northwestern's Cenla Fair Queen Lorraine Vaughn and her 13 attendants, representing the 14 Central Louisiana parishes.

Thirty Candidates File for Student Senate Election

Thirty candidates for positions on the Student Senate of NSC have formally petitioned for the election to be held October 18, according to Luke Petrovich, president of the student body.

The election will take place Wednesday.

The results of the election, under the direction of Dollie Smith, secretary of the student body, will be announced Wednesday night as soon as the final count is completed. Sixteen nominees getting the most votes will be seated.

Qualifications for nominees, who filed prior to the October 9 deadline, were that they have at least a "C" average and be a 2-1, or 1st semester sophomore. Freshman position elections will be held at a later date.

NOTICE

The dining hall will be closed for the supper meal on Saturday, October 14.

MOUTON IS GUEST SPEAKER AT I. A. CLUB MEETING

The political, historical, and economical standards of France, was the subject of Miss Eve Mouton's speech to the Industrial Arts Club October 5. The language professor's talk was based on a recent tour of France and other European countries.

Rally Highlights Pregame Activities

To increase interest and rouse spirit for the Cenla Fair football game, a half-hour pep rally was held by the student bodies of Northwestern State and Louisiana College from 7 to 7:30 Friday

The program was broadcast over the combined facilities of KSYL, Alexandria, and KWJC, Natchitoches, so that each school would hear the other's pep rally while radio audiences in Central Louisiana were listening to both.

As host school, Louisiana College filled the first half of the program, while Northwestern's pep rally was planned from 7:15 to 7:30 under the direction of Don A. Carr, associate professor of speech.

The NSC band, led by Dwight G. Davis, associate professor of music, provided musical background for the Purple and White program. Cheerleaders added their cries to the rally.

NOTICE

The dining hall will be closed for the supper meal on Saturday, October 14.

Bird's Eye View ...

A birds-eye view of the band formations is given in this picture taken from the position of one on the bandmen. Just as the group is completing a for-

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICERS

The Industrial Arts Club officers for 1950 have been announced as follows:

Russell, Sibley To Be Honored At Homecoming

The library and the drive in front of the men's gymnasium are to be named during a ceremony at Homecoming.

The library will be renamed for Miss Scharlie E. Russell, librarian for 31 years until 1940. A name plate will be put inside the library and over the front door.

Sam J. Sibley is the namesake for the drive in front of the men's gymnasium. He was also a librarian from 1920-1947. A marker of native stone or petrified wood with a bronze plaque will be placed in the triangle across from the Fine Arts building.

When a permanent baseball field and stands are constructed, Dr. C. C. Stroud will be memorialized.

A committee of five, H. L. Prather, chairman, Leroy Miller, Mrs. John Kyser, Miss Katherine Winters, and Eugene P. Watson, made the recommendations last spring to the State Board of Education and were then approved.

Havard Article Is Published in Science Quarterly

William G. Havard, professor of government and social sciences at NSC, is the author of an article published in the September, 1950 edition of the Southwestern Social Science Quarterly. The title of the essay is "The Labor Party and English Political Democracy."

The essay, an attempt to survey the constitutional effects of labor's five years in office, was written by the professor after his return from England three years ago, and based on graduate work done at the London School of Economics.

It was read at the Louisiana Colleges Conference held late last year in Baton Rouge.

Havard came to NSC in 1947, shortly after the completion of graduate work in London.

Purple and white will decorate Highway 20 when the Northwestern State College motor caravan leaves Natchitoches Oct. 14 en route to Alexandria for the second annual Central Louisiana Fair football game between the NSC Demons and the Louisiana College Wildcats.

Assembly will start at the power plant on the campus around noon, according to Prof. Albred L. Ducournau and Assistant Prof. William Havard, chairmen of the Northwestern section of the Cenla Parade.

Leading the Natchitoches group will be three convertibles carrying "Queen Lorraine Vaughn and her 13 attendants. They will leave promptly at 12:30, as will the band and the Demonettes. Owners of the convertibles donated for the parade are Prof. George H. Ware and students Dreux Smith and Dunson Stephens.

The remainder of the caravan will assemble at the power plant at the same time and will leave about 12:45, driving down Highway 20 to McLemore's grounds, here all cars will stop on the shoulder to wait the "go ahead" signal from the official traffic directors.

The caravan will be escorted as far as Boyce by Natchitoches police where they will be met by state police.

As the parade moves forward, cars from Louisiana College, Alexandria, and Pineville will enter McMemores grounds from Highway 20.

Homecoming Is Set for Nov. 18

Saturday, November 18 has been designated by the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association as the date for NSC's Annual Homecoming.

The board decided to change the annual event from the usual spring date to one in the fall of the year at the spring meeting of last year.

The regular business session of the Alumni Association will be held at this meeting. All officers of the Association were re-elected at the spring meeting, 1949, to serve until the Fall Homecoming, 1950.

During Homecoming activities this year, the Association members will select a president, vice-president, secretary - treasurer, and one member of the board to serve four years.

Plans are being made for the full day of entertainment for returning alumni.

The Decreasing Race ...?

A moot question, the status of the Veteran in school. Field house rumor has it that the race of veterans regularly enrolled in schools throughout the United States is within the next ten years, to be multiplied ten-fold or more. Statistics prove otherwise.

We don't particularly like statistics, and besides, we don't have them handy to prove that the coffee-cup tales are wrong. We do know that at Southeastern Louisiana College the enrollment of veterans has dropped from 514 last year to 233 this year. Here at NSC we have only 231 veterans.

The argument of the non-statistics is that coming wars will, in no short time, compel every citizen of the United States to be listed under either public law 16 or 346. The ever decreasing number of veterans in school now means nothing to them, pessimists that they are.

As we said, the question is moot. We only hope that it remains that way for a long time to come—and that in the mean-time, few persons will have to go through the experience necessary to qualify one as a "veteran."

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In the last issue of the Current Sauce I was accused by Jimmy Johnson of rationalizing to justify my actions while accusing others of destroying the rights and privileges of others. I made it quite clear at that time that the minority I was referring to was the Communist Party. I ask the student body if there is any doubt that the Communist Party is working to overthrow our form of government by any force possible.

From Mr. Johnson's personal criticism of me it perhaps appears that a personal argument exists between us, but such is not the case. The fact that we have never met is apparent when Mr. Johnson suggests that perhaps I have a chip on my shoulder from the last war. I can see no reason for anyone carrying a chip, if we stop and consider what the world

Views of The News

Having had no chance to thoroughly study the national and international news of this week, I should like to take this opportunity to comment on local news. To use a well known expression, "the situation is well in hand" at Northwestern State College. There is ample evidence that NSC has a good portion of that which it has needed for some time—school spirit.

Although it has been reported that a teacher has dismissed a class with disgust, there seems to be much academic interest. Students who once helped drum up noise in the halls are now reported to be seeking quiet for study. The informal talk of classes and subjects in the Field House (when certainly there are more interesting things to be discussed) is an indication of better than usual academic interest.

The zest with which the fraternal and other organizations seem to be working is an encouraging sign of better school spirit. The promotion of the many extra-curricular activities by the various departments shows a more than normal interest. Our varsity football team, going into its fourth game undefeated, deserves our highest regards. This splendid team has done much to foster the good school spirit that seems to be prevalent at NSC. The student body as a whole is to be congratulated and encouraged for their enthusiastic support of the Demon footballers. Witnessing a remarkable cheering section consisting of fifteen students, two alumni, and one professor who would be like today had the Axis power won instead of us.

George Ward

Editor's note: We welcome letters to the editor and, provided they are signed and in good taste, print each one received. We do not, however, believe that haggling over such apparent social questions as whether or not the Communist party is trying to overthrow the capitalistic form of government is of sufficient controversial value to require space in the Current Sauce. We prefer that all letters to the editor be kept purely on an impersonal plane.

VOTE FOR

Jimmy Johnson
For Student

journeyed to Port Arthur for the Lamar game, convinced me that our students have the old supporting spirit. Students who did not see the game can be assured that Northwestern State College made a remarkable showing in Port Arthur, both on the gridiron and in the stands.

The attitude the students have shown concerning the crowded dining conditions is commendable. Efforts and results of the student newspaper staff are also to be commended. Our editor is doing a fine job of a complicated operation. The efficiency with which the Potpourri staff has begun its work is encouraging; however, it is regrettable that a higher percentage of students did not show to have their pictures taken.

Less I create a false illusion, I must say that things are not perfect here on the hill. Neither can we slack up now. We must continue to back our football team, our intramural sports, our organizations, and certainly we must continue to study. Every student should show interest in our student government and its proceedings. No more can be received from this school year than is given. So, let us give, give, give.

Spanish Vets Get Medical Care Now

Veterans of the Spanish-American War, Boxer Rebellion and Philippine Insurrection are now eligible for out-patient medical care without regard to service-connection, Veterans Administration announced recently.

To be eligible, a veteran must have served some time between April 21, 1898 and July 4, 1902 (or July 15, 1903 if the service was in Moro Province, Philippine Islands), and have been discharged other than dishonorably.

An estimated 118,000 veterans have become potentially eligible for full medical and dental care in VA clinics, or at home by fee basis physicians and dentists for any illness or disability under the new law, VA said.

"USELESS"

No, it isn't an animal which has escaped from a zoo, or an extinct species some archeologist dug up—it's only "Useless." "Useless" is a car! Amazing? Yes. Carolyn Fultz, and Sammie Banks say they were tired of having to walk to town, classes and church and when the opportunity of buying a car appeared they jumped at it.

These girls got busy with paint and brushes and created their masterpiece. By the way, if you care for a ride admission is ten cents (Quote).

Last Saturday the Home Economics Methods class spent the day in Alexandria at the High School Future Homemakers State meeting. The purpose of the trip was to get ideas for teaching. Mrs. Dunckelman, Mrs. Jean Sneed and Mrs. Halm chaperoned the group.

A coffee in the Bentley Hotel will be the official welcome to NSC alumni attending the Louisiana College game in Alexandria. Queen Lorraine Vaughn and her court will act as hostesses. The coffee is from three to five Saturday afternoon.

The upperclassmen of the Home Economics Department are planning a formal reception honoring the Freshman Home Economics students. It is to be held in the Home Economics living room Wednesday, October 18 from 7:30 until 8:30.

The older club members have little sisters to take to the reception. The receiving line will be composed of Mrs. Dunckelman, Head of the Home Economics Department, Mary Belle Davis, President of the Euthenics Club, and a representative from each class.

Of special interest to their many friends on the campus is the marriage of Miss Bea Bruscatto to Gene Uhrbach of Natchitoches. The scene of the wedding will be Saint Matthew's Catholic Church in Monroe. The wedding will take place December 26, 1950.

Miss Bruscatto will have two attendants, Miss Beth McGuffee, maid of honor and Mrs. Arnold Tucker of Monroe, matron of honor. Jerry West will act as best man.

Miss Evelyn Bumgardner came back to the campus last week with a beautiful diamond ring. Evelyn, a Freshman at NSC, is engaged to Howard Friday of Bossier City.

GREEK NOTES

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

At the regular Tuesday night meeting, the Alpha Sigs enjoyed a box of delicious candy sent by Mary Jewel Johnston as a gift.

We were happy to learn that one of our alumnae, Audrey Smith, is pinned to "Mac" McDonald.

Good times are in store for the Alpha Sigs. We have made out our calendar and many slumber parties, hayrides, and other events are scheduled.

The ASA's are still working to make their rush party a big success.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Pi Kappa Sigma had its weekly meeting Tuesday evening at 6:00 o'clock. Every member was present and filled with enthusiastic ideas for coming projects.

Pi Kaps are proud of President Pat Leone and Beth McGuffee, who are to represent their respective parishes at the Central Louisiana Fair as maids.

The Traditional Frat Party is still on the calendar for this week's social.

Nell Richardson was installed as Corresponding Secretary of the sorority preceding the meeting.

Plans for the initiation of Bobby Platt and Emma Ruth Smith are set for Thursday, October 19 with a theatre party following.

Volleyball practice has begun and Ann Freeze will serve as captain. The team looks ready for action and at least some good times.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

There was fun "galore" to be had at another of those "slumberless" slumber parties held at the Tri Sigma house last Saturday night. Guests for the weekend included Pat Hays, Betty Roan, Janice Coleman, Billie Faye Adams, Joy Stothart Gaddis, Mary Ann Gaunt, and Alexa S. Osborne. Many of these girls came down for Lallah Cunningham's wedding which was held last Saturday afternoon at the Catholic Church.

Two return visitors from Camp Polk were Ad Acers and Jack Williams, who were guests of two Tri Sigmas. These were the two men that were entertained at the Tri Sigma party Sunday before last.

At the weekly meeting Tuesday night, Miss Eve Mouton, Tri Sigma's sponsor, was presented with a recognition pin by Janette Pace, President. The pin was purchased by Janette while she was at convention this summer.

Plans are well under way for the formal and informal rush parties which will be held at mid-semester.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

If anyone heard singing Tuesday evening, don't be surprised because it is just the Theta Sigs getting back into full swing.

The Theta Sigs were very glad to welcome Ella James, Jaconette Davis, and Fairy Scherz, who were visiting the hill for the week-end Tuesday evening, the Theta Sigs were happy when they walked into the sorority room and found the bar had been refinished, the drapes hung and the floor bright and shiny with a new coat of wax. The pledges are wonderful people to have around.

Congratulations to Carol Blankenship, who has been selected maid for the Cenla Fair in Alexandria.

The pledges, Peggy Taylor and Maurine Gray, are very happy that at last they will be initiated in the very very near future.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Delta Sigs are really up to their ears in rush plans this week. The various rush committees reported at the meeting and definite plans are well on their way.

Delta Sigma Epsilon now has a house mother in its midst. Marie Tilleux is in full charge of the girls in the dining hall dormitory. She has a difficult task on her hands.

New Books

Several new books have been added to the collection in the library. They include historical novels, romances, and non-fiction.

On the list are:

Merington, The Custer Story. (An account of the general who met with disaster.)

Howe, Call It Treason. (An exciting tale of three Germans in World War II.)

Campus, The Plague. (A powerful story set in Iran.)

Wilson, Live with Lightning. (A modern love story.)

Smith, ed., The Saturday Evening Post Sports Stories. (An excellent collection.)

Baldwin, Great Mistakes of the War. (A penetrating analysis.)

Ilyin, Green Boundary. (A story of an American's love for a Russian girl.)

Streeter, Father of the Bride. (A story of an shrdlucmfwycmf (Hilarious account of a wedding.)

METHODS CLASS ATTENDS

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS MEET

Members of Mrs. Ruby S. Dunckelman's Home Economics Methods class attended the State Future Homemakers of America meeting on October 7.

The purpose of this trip was for the girls to get acquainted with the part they will have to play as teacher in the Future Homemakers organization.

Girls making the trip were Mary Beth Buckley, Evelyn Gandy, Elaine Harris, Mary Belle Davis, Jean Sneed, Mickey West, Gloria Ebarb, Dorothy Paul, Wilma McElveen, Mrs. Marsene Powell. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Frances Halm.

Demons Down Lamar Cardinals, 26-0 In Port Arthur Contest Friday Night

Northwestern invaded foreign soil for the first time last Friday night as they met Lamar Tech in Port Arthur, Texas. The Demons aerial game brought them home conquerors to the tune of 26-0. Johnny Emmons and Mike Bellipanni did some nice throwing and completed 10 out of 20 attempts. Receivers were Davis, Calvert and Cole on the most of the throws.

The Demons drew first blood in the first quarter when Emmons after fading back to pass circled left end for 18 yards and a score. This concluded the first half scoring. Then in the third quarter Emmons intercepted a Lamar pass and journeyed 94 yards behind outstanding blocking by the whole team.

Lamar threw a pass which an end pulled down but as he tried to lateral to a halfback, trailing the play, Bobby Davis very alertly snatched it out of the air and raced 45 yards for the Demons' third score.

Late in the fourth quarter Lamar fumbled on their 30 with Julius Robichaux alertly recovering for the Demons. From here Bellipanni shot a strike 23 yards to Cole to put the ball on the 7. Bellipanni circled end and carried to the two. Leon Fuller then crashed over for the final tally. Bobby Davis kicked two extra points and the final score read Demons 26, Cardinals 0.

Outstanding for the Demons on the defense were Walker, Nation, Davis, Huckaby, Morrell, Cole, Harper, L. Danos, Thomas and Haynes.

Consistently through all games Akins at center, Sibley and Smith at guards, Carter and Keaton at tackles, Cole, Pharis, Calvert and Young at ends have done outstanding blocking.

Intramural Notes

By CHAS. EDDINGTON

One of the outstanding features of the intramural program is the presentation of three "Sports Night" programs, the first of which will be held October 26.

During the first two programs semifinalist players will be named in all of the activities conducted. The third program will be a tournament of Champions, where the contestants named during the two previous "Sports Night" will vie for school championship in badminton, paddle ball, table tennis, and box hockey.

A student may enter only one sport other than box hockey in the tournaments, and a semi-finalist during the October 26 "Sports Night" may not enter the second. The touch football division of intramural play got under way last week with the Cream Puffs emerging as the only undefeated team in the American League. team in the American League. They took two lop-sided contests, one from Brick Shack, 24-0, and another from West Barracks, 53-0.

In the National League Sigma Tau Gamma and Phi Kappa Nu both won single games to tie for the league leadership. Sigma Tau trounced the Mongrels 17-0 and Phi Kap edged the "Frames", 8-6. In the only other game the "Frames" downed the Mongrels, 13-6.

Turpin Pessimistic Of Demon Chances In Alex. Today

Although he is pleased with workouts so far this week, Coach Harry Turpin is pessimistic of his chances against Louisiana College today.

"Louisiana College has the best team in its history," he said, "and we will have to play above our heads to beat them."

Northwestern is undefeated and holds wins over Central Oklahoma State, 41-20, Northwest Missouri State, 53-0, and Lamar College of Technology, 26-0.

Turpin really has a reason to feel a little sad about his encounter with the Wildcats. Four starters: William Calvert, Johnny Haynes, both ends, Billy Walker, center, and Johnny Emmons, quarterback, are missing practice because of injuries or sickness.

Emmons, Turpin's passing ace, is in the college infirmary and probably will not be out for the game. Without the diminutive quarterback, the Northwestern passing attack will suffer, especially since Calvert and Haynes will probably not play today. Calvert is the top aerial-snagger on the squad.

The Demon ground-gaining division received a little encouragement with the announcement that Joe Price Lancaster, brother of starting halfback Arthur Lancaster, last season's leading ground gainer in the GSC, reported for training Thursday.

Today's game will be the first conference test for the Demons, who still must meet Louisiana Tech, Southwestern, Southeastern, and Mississippi Southern — four rough ones.

District PTA Meet Convenes Friday

Strengthening ties between home, school, and community was the topic of a panel discussion of Parent-Teacher Association leaders and some 50 parents who met in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building Friday. This was the first semi-annual meeting of the 14th district of P. T. A.

The panel, "Why Extend Our Interests Geographically? How can we strengthen our relationships between the home, school, and community?" consisted of Dr. John Jones, Robert Merriam, W. R. Noah, all of Natchitoches; Mrs. J. H. Stringer, state president from Baton Rouge; Mrs. Herbert Spaulding, president of Twin City Council, Alexandria; and Mrs. Charles Nesom, eighth district director, iToga. The discussion began at 11 a.m., after registration and a preliminary program.

Mrs. Hunter Normand, acting director, welcomed the gathering at 10 a.m. After a community sing, the invocation was given by the Rev. D. W. Poole, Methodist Church. Mrs. C. C. Dethloff gave the welcoming address on behalf of Natchitoches, and a response was made by Mrs. Elbert McFatter, Ragley.

"Why Some Teachers Object to the P. T. A.," was the topic of a talk by Mrs. J. Y. Brashears, Pineville. The Rev. Edward Haug, Leesville, then spoke on "Character and Spiritual Education," in the last meeting before the panel discussion.

After noon luncheon, the group held its business meeting and discussed a plan of work of local unit presidents.

New Formations to Highlight Half-Time in Wildcat, Demon Game

A host of new band formations have been planned for the Louisiana College game ceremony.

Although the actual formations are not disclosed by the band director, Dwight G. Davis, he did state that the half-time performance would be new and unique. The 60 members, who comprise the 1950 edition of the Demon marching band, and the twirlers and majorettes have been working steadily for the past few weeks in preparation for the two big performances of the year at the Cenla and Louisiana State Fairs.

According to plans formulated at a meeting by the committees of the Central Louisiana Fair Association at the Chamber of Commerce in Alexandria Monday, October 2, the band will begin its parade at Sixth Street between Beauregard and Fisk facing Beauregard, and then follow the queens and courts into Jackson.

The band will proceed along Belton to Jackson, left on Jackson to Sixth Street, then to Third. At Third and Johnston, it will turn left on Johnston to Second and on to DeSoto to the City Hall Square.

Northwestern will be on the left side of the courthouse facing Third Street. The band and cheerleaders will alternate in directing.

Gym Team in Good Shape This Season

Working out at least an hour a day, Northwestern State College gymnasts are preparing for their first performance of the season. John Piscopo, NSC gymnastics coach, has announced that the gym show will begin at 7:15 p.m., October 25, in the Ft. Necessity High School, sponsors of the event. Principal of the high school is Robert Rouse, NSC alumnus.

"We've a well-balanced team, this year," said Piscopo, "with many good additions, and some outstanding performers."

The gymnastic team won the Southern Amateur Athletic Union (S.A.A.U.) team trophy in April, 1950, at New Orleans. Al Kopp, physical education major from New Orleans, holds the all-around championship for 1948 and 1950. Bert Babcock, also of New Orleans, won the runner-up spot last spring. John Hicks, New Orleans possesses the S. A. A. U. junior tumbling laurels for 1950.

Other performers are: Ben Du-hon, Baton Rouge; Charles Castaing, New Orleans; Pedro Velez, Porto Rico; Lee Reece, Shreveport; Ken Howard, Shreveport; Fred Hoff, Little Rock, Ark.; Dale Branch, Waterproof; James Brannon, Sulphur; Jeff Hennessey, Monroe.

Ralph Gremillion, Alexandria; Joe Holley, Tallulah; Fair Hyams, Natchitoches; Marion Shiloh, Shreveport; Jack Gaston, El Dorado, Ark.; Jim Carlyle, Shreveport; Warren Hauth, New Orleans.

Manager Myron Lockey, Slidell, and Assistant Manager Henry Lyle, Brooklyn, assist Coach Piscopo with arrangements. Music for gymnastics exhibitions is provided by the Demonaires, under the direction of Eugene Flores, senior from Shreveport.

This year's program and performers include: parallel bar control, selected personnel; group pyramids, entire personnel; parallel bar exercises, Castaing, Babcock, Piscopo, Kopp; clown antics on bars, Howard and Hoff.

Still rings, Babcock, Kopp, Reece; trampoline, Hoff, Castaing, Howard, Branch; balance quartet; ground tumbling, selected personnel; magic, Churchill Gordon Adams; horizontal bar, Babcock and Kopp; acro-maniacs, Flores, Castaing, Howard; Indian club drill, Langridge; long horse leaping, se-

Other performances are being planned for the 1950-51 season.

Local Characters Are Subjects for Student Jingles

Campus characters abound in the new "Be Happy-Go Lucky!" advertisements appearing in this paper. There's a vibrant girl cheerleader who leads a yell for victory for L.S./M.F.T. And an astute college prof who will agree, "it's Lucky Strike for me!" A comely lass admits she's not the smartest in the class, but has one thing the boys all like—a Lucky Strike!

Yes, the jingling of such phrases out of the mouths of college smokers is causing a heavy jingling of cash in the pockets of creative minds on campus. For each jingle accepted, $25 cash is paid out, and you can send in as many four-line jingles as you like. Many of them will be used in the "Be Happy-Go Lucky" advertising campaign which is appearing in 275 college newspapers. Any student from any college or university in the U. S. is eligible, but it's "first come, first served"—so get your jingles in quickly. The sponsor of this campaign reports heavy receipts of this questionable poetry arriving daily.

Q. I had several years of peacetime service in the Army. A short time after I was honorably discharged, I became ill and disabled and I feel that my disability is due to the service. What action should I take to get VA hospital care?

A. You may file a claim for disability compensation and thus get a decision from VA. Generally, as a peacetime veteran, if your disability is not service incurred or service aggravated, you are not eligible to VA hospital benefits.

"OFFSIDES"

This past weekend found all G. S. C. teams going outside their conference to take on intersectional rivals. Again the conference fared well dropping only two games while winning four. Louisiana College suffered a 4-0 shellacking at the hands of Tulane. Mississippi Southern dropped their third successive game, this one to McMurry, 33-19. Our own Demons turned back Lamar Tech, 2-0. Louisiana Tech defeated Stephen F. Austin, 20-6 in Ruston. Southeastern rose to upset Auburn, 6-0. S. L. I. defeated Troy State Teachers of Alabama, 41-6 in Lafayette.

In this week's games we have two conference contests on hand. Louisiana College will entertain Northwestern at the Cenla fair in Alexandria. Mississippi Southern will play host to Southwestern in their homecoming. In other games Louisiana Tech plays Xavier and Southeastern visits Nacogdoches, Texas for a game with Stephen F. Austin.

State Board of Education Boosts Semester Budget for Northwestern

Operation of the eight state colleges under the supervision of the State Board of Education is going to cost the taxpayers of Louisiana $7,709,542 for the current semester. Of this figure $1,369,822 will go to Northwestern State College. The amount is an increase of $40,994 over what was spent at the local college last year.

The budgets of Southwestern Louisiana Institute at Lafayette and Louisiana Polytechnic Institute at Ruston were substantially decreased by the board.

Most of the increase of $374,125 went to McNeese and Northeast State College, and the state's two Negro colleges.

Northwestern's budget had called for 48 salary increases of which 25 were rejected by the board, 18 allowed, and eight partly allowed. The board boosted 10 salaries above the amount recommended by the president.

Scoring Meat

To score meat you make light cuts on the surface, usually in criss-cross fashion. Thin slices of round steak are sometimes scored when it is to be pan fried to make it more tender.

Chaplin Comedy Opens Movie Series

The film program committee began its fall activities with the showing of "Charlie Chaplin Comedies" Thursday night in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

The program originated in the Social Science department by faculty and student members last summer in order to obtain films for campus use which were not commercially available. A committee with equal representation of both students and faculty was formed with Dr. John S. Kyser as chairman.

A charge of 20 cents to the movies has met the initial cost of presentation and may make possible the purchase of new equipment.

As the program now stands five films will be shown per semester, making a total of ten films for the year. Films are now scheduled for November 2 and 30, December 14 and January 11. These will include "The Mikado," "Birth of a Nation," "Tight Little Island," "Rocking Horse Winter" and "Adam and Evalyn."

If possible, Shakespearean productions and a foreign language film will also be shown.

Olivier Is Named Queen of Demons For NSC-Tech Tilt

Dorothy Olivier of New Iberia has been selected as NSC's queen at the Tech-NSC fair game by members of the student council, Luke Petrovich, student body president, announced. Dot, a senior in business education, is active in campus activities which include the presidency of Alpha Sigma Alpha and membership in the Purple Jackets.

Attending the queen will be her court of eight maids, also chosen by the student council. They are: Myrtle Ann Babin, LaPlace, mathematics; Jo Anne Brantley, Alexandria, secretarial science; Louisa Johnson, Chestnut, medical technology; Julia McBroom, Shreveport, speech; Pat Marmande, Houma, home economics; Janette Pace, Centerville, business education; Marie Tilleux, Shreveport, art; Marjorie White, Castor, medical technology.

Pi Kapps Sponsor Annual Frat Party

Pi Kappa Sigma sorority informally opened the Greek Social season on the campus Thursday night with their annual "Frat" party.

Members of each of the three social fraternities on the campus entertained the group by participating in contests for the "Man with the tallest line," the "Darling of NSC," and "Crooners DeLuxe."

Phi Kappa Nu walked off with top honors in the Darling of NSC contest by entering Miss Neddy May Mahfouz; Sigma Tau won the Pi Kaps hearts with their rendition of "The Rose of Sigma Tau," and Lambda Zeta took the title of the men with the "Tallest Line."

The fourteen guests were entertained by Pi Kapp songsters and were served refreshments.

Fraternity members present were: Sigma Tau: Carl Pharr, "Butch" Ellard, "Red" Hennigan, Firal Lee Ryder; Phi Kappa Nu: Rudy Berlin, Joe Macaluso, Ned Mahfouz, Dennis McMullan, and "Chuck" Tillman; Lambda Zeta: Chuck Castaing, Vernie Roig, Jimmy Johnson, Gayle Colgin, Aubrey Grey.

Kyser Addresses Forensic Group at Wednesday Meet

Dr. John S. Kyser, head of the Northwestern Social Science department, spoke to members of the 1950 Northwestern Forensic Club Wednesday night in the Fine Arts building. His subject was "Democratic and Communist Ideologies."

Purpose of the speech was to familiarize debate team members with the aspects of this year's national debate topic, Resolved: That the non-communist nations should form a new international organization.

Qualified members of the debate team will attend the 5th annual Alabama Discussion Conference to be held at the University of Alabama November 9, 10, and 11.

A practice debate will be held at the next regular meeting of the group, Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. E. G. Smith and Thomas Poole will defend the affirmative against Luke Petrovich and Jimmy Johnson.

NSC Nurses Feted At Hospital Party

Nursing students who for the past year have been on the Northwestern State College campus studying basic sciences and other foundation courses were welcomed to the Nurses' Residence with a get-acquainted party given by the senior class of the Shreveport Charity Hospital.

The senior class entertained the group with skits and refreshments.

On September 21 sophomore class officers were chosen. They are: Barbara O'Brien, president; Mary J. Bedgood, vice-president; Jane Allen, secretary; Loretta Falcon, treasurer; Gloria A. Paris, representative; Faye Bailey, sergeant-at-arms.

NSC began its educational program of nursing in September, 1949, in collaboration with Highland Sanitarium, North Louisiana Sanitarium, Shreveport Charity Hospital and Tri-State Hospital of Shreveport; Baptist Hospital of Alexandria and E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital of Monroe. After the nursing students have completed their first year here, they will go to one of the collaborating hospitals or other health agencies and receive practical training.

Thirty-nine students entered the Shreveport division of NSC Nursing School September 11. They will keep in contact with the campus by way of the Current Sauce and the football games.

NEWCOMERS' CLUB HOLDS FIRST SOCIAL MEETING

To get acquainted with fellow staff members and the college life, the thirty new faculty members have continued the activities of the Newcomers' Club. Membership is limited to those on the faculty who have been at NSC less than two years.

The club held its first social meeting Tuesday night in the drawing room of Varnado Hall. Approximately thirty people participated in the evening's activities which included bridge and canasta games.

Guests present included Mrs. H. Lee Prather. Officers for the year are Mrs. R. O. Baker, president; Mrs. J. W. Duffy, vice-president; Mrs. George A. Stokes, secretary-treasurer.

Nursing Notes

By JANICE M. TUCKER

Classes are under way again, and all of us are busily occupying the wards of the hospital. That professional attitude is ever present, as it should be. There are times, however, when circumstances change that attitude. In the automatic elevator. The door failed to open when we reached our floor, so one of our classmates, displaying extreme calmness, punched the button marked "Door Open." Another decided that the alarm might bring success. Both were successful—the door opened, but all that was seen of us on the other side was wide, wondering eyes. The elevator had not quite reached the floor when it had stopped. With the help of the orderlies, we were lifted from the elevator. The discussion on professional attitudes was not continued that day.

Ina Faith Gragg, one of the newer students, was making the most of her first day on duty. She was asked to assist a patient in a wheelchair out of his room. He had visitors, but they were politely asked to make room while Miss Gragg assisted him. The procedure was very well carried out and the man in the wheelchair was made comfortable. The moral of this procedure? Always check first—a visitor was in the wheelchair.

We have just received our insignia that is to be worn on the sleeve of our uniforms. It is marked, "Northwestern State College, School of Nursing." That insignia is already being proudly worn.

By the way, we hope to see you here when NSC plays Louisiana College.

Potpourri Beauties Selected by Men's Organizations

Selection of the girls to adorn the beauty section of the 1951 Potpourri is already underway, according to Mrs. Ronald Martin, yearbook editor.

A tentative schedule of girls has been selected by various groups on the campus. In accordance with this year's plan for choosing the beauties each of the principal men's organizations on the campus will turn in a list of 15 names.

These names will be narrowk

These names will be narrowed to number only thirty names by seven judges nominated by the Potpourri staff. The judges are the President of the student body, the chairman of the Student Council, Chief Justice of the Honor Court, President of the Inter-dormitory Council, President of the Inter-fraternity Council, and the editors of the Current Sauce and Potpourri.

Radio Class Begins Newscast Of NSC Activities

Initiating the radio activities of the campus, the radio class under the direction of Donald Carr presented the first college news cast, broadcast over KWCJ, Natchitoches, on Thursday. The program consisted of five minutes of world news and ten minutes of campus news. This program will be a weekly procedure, henceforth, every Thursday evening at seven o'clock.

Officials of the two colleges and communities are to arrive at Mc-Lemore's at 1:45 p.m. when pictures will be taken and the participants will be assigned to cars.

The car containing the presidents of Northwestern State and Louisiana Colleges will be on Highway 20, directly behind a motorcycle escort, followed by cars containing the mayors of Natchitoches, Alexandria, and Pineville; chamber of commerce, Fair Association and Cenla representatives.

Bands, marchers, and courts will follow this procedure: Louisiana College Band will line up on Sixth Street, between Jackson and Beauregard, facing Jackson, with the Boosters behind them. Northwestern State's band will line up on Sixth Street, between Beauregard and Fisk, facing Beauregard, with the Demonettes behind them. Queens and courts will assemble on Beauregard, between Sixth and Seventh, facing Sixth Street.

When the motorcycle escort and presidents' car have passed Sixth and Jackson, the parade will be halted while the Louisiana College band and boosters swing into Jackson Street behind the presidents' car. The queens and courts will turn from Beauregard onto Sixth Street, following the Louisiana College band onto Jackson Street. Next will come the Northwestern State band and Demonettes, with the remainder of the parade following.

Promptly at 2:30 p.m. the motorcycle escort will start from the Circle, followed by the dignitaries' cars. Visiting and local cars will drive into the line aternatey.

Select Student Senate Members Here Wednesday

Approximately 830 persons went to the polls Wednesday to select 16 members to comprise the Student Senate for 1950-51. Polls were open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. in 14 precincts.

Leading the candidates was J. C. "Chuck" Tillman, editor of the Current Sauce, with a total number of 730 votes.

The above were elected to fill the 16 posts.

The remaining 28 students who filed their intentions for Senate positions were ranked as follows: Roy Connell, 405; Ponder Davis, 437; George Hayes, 400; Virginia Ingram, 450; Joe Kemp, 415; Elvin Lightsey, 316; Jean Lyons, 381; Joe Macaluso, 368; Jean McKinney, 377; James Michael, 354; Virginia Metcalf, 454; Shelton Robinson, 209; Ray Smith, 360.

Aquatic Club Names Gaston As President

Jack Gaston was elected president of the Aquatic Club, succeeding Leroy Ford, at the initial meeting of the year, October 12.

Nelwyn Boydston is vice-president; Virginia Metcalf, secretary; and Bobby Voorhees, treasurer.

The officers met October 16 to revise the Aquatic Club constitution and propose a new system of awards. These will be voted on by the club at the next business meeting, which is slated for Monday, October 23 at 6:30 p.m. in the natatorium.

The president stated that it is important for all Aquatic Club members to be present at that time.

Conference for IRC Clubs Listed

The Louisiana State Conference of International Relations Clubs will be held November 18 and 19, on the campus of LSU according to Roy Sleby, president of the Louisiana Conference and student at LSU. Registration for the two day conference will begin at 1:00 o'clock Saturday, November 18, (Cont'd on Page 8)

Beauty For The Fair...

Representative Group of Students Select 15 Beauties for Potpourri

NOTICE

A splash party will be held by the NSC Aquatic Club Wednesday, Oct. 25 from 6:30 to 7:30 and Thursday, Oct. 26 from 3:45 to 5:00. Anyone interested regardless of skill in swimming is cordially invited.

8 Senior Students Named Lieuts.

Eight 4th year ROTC cadets have been appointed to the rank of 1st Lieutenant, according to Colonel James T. Bowman, professor of military science and tactics.

The positions of Cadet Colonel and executive staff personnel have not been appointed yet. Senior cadets will be rotated at the various higher cadet positions until permanent appointments can be made.

At the third year level cadets will occupy the position of sergeant or above. Possible appointments will be made to the rank of sergeant first class, master sergeant, and acting cadet officer.

Those named as 1st lieutenants are Vic Boyd, Walter Butler, Robert Bryant, Epham J. Macaluso, Firal Ryder, Joe Sudbury, Lowell Vaughn, and Jerry West.

Who the men students think are Northwestern's loveliest girls were introduced to the student body Monday night at 6 o'clock in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

In a preliminary beauty contest fifteen of the thirty-four girls presented were selected to enter the final contest for the 1951 Potpourri beauties.

Prior to the preliminary contest each of the principal men's organizations on the campus and the editors of the Current Sauce and Potpourri selected fifteen beauties each. Taken from the total list were the girls who were named by at least two organizations.

Chuck Castaign, Ronald Martin, Luke Petrovich, Don Williford, Jeff Beasley, "Snap" Oakes, and "Chuck" Tillman were the seven judges. The fifteen girls selected in the preliminary contest will later be judged by a group from Dallas.

Chosen were Myrtle Ann Babin, Jo Anne Brantley, Dottie Cromwell, Martha Ann Glass, Evelyn Clair Hall, Beth McGuffee, Pat Marmande, Zona Marx, Bessie Morgan, Marjorie White, Lorene Watts Williams, Janice Ward, Nell Richardson, and Joyce O'Brien.

Northwestern, Tech Meet Today in Annual Fair Fracas in Shreveport

When the Northwestern Demons and Louisiana Tech Bulldogs take the field this afternoon at the State Fair in Shreveport, the Gulf States Conference leadership will be at stake. The Demons are currently tied for the lead, while the Bulldogs haven't played a Conference encounter as of now. The Demons enter the contest as the only unbeaten, untied team in the G. S. C. The Demons have amassed 13 points to the opponents 30 in rolling over four adversaries. The Bulldogs have won two, lost one, and tied one. They have rolled up 68 in their four contests.

This is by far the toughest opponent we have met thus far. Louisiana Tech is concerned with continuing their domination over the Demons, while the local eleven intend to spoil the Tech rules.

We will be in almost top-notch shape at game time. Only doubts are Billy Ray Walker, J. R. Akins and William Calvert. Returning to action will be Harold Tanner and Johnny Haynes.

Barring late changes the lineup will find, offensively, Young and Pharis at ends; Keaton and Carter at tackles, Smith and Sibley at guards; and possibly Jack Moore or J. R. Akins at center. Backfield will consist of Johnny Emmons at quarter, Beck at full and Arthur Lancaster and Bobby Davis at halves.

On the defense we will find

Thomas and Cole at ends; Huckaby and Morrel at tackles; Moore at center; Beck, Hooper and Possibly Haynes replacing Walker Lancaster at halfbacks and Art Lancaster or Emmons at safety.

Plan Parade For Fair Game

Hoping for the Demons' fifth straight victory of the 1950 season, Northwestern State College boosters will flock to the NSC-Louisiana Tech football game at Shreveport, Oct. 21. The schedule of NSC events for the day of the Louisiana State Fair game announced by Luke Petrovich, president of the student body, follows: 6:30 a. m.—Busses start loading in front of Power House.

7:00 a. m.—Busses leave Power House for Shreveport.

9:30 a. m.—Arrival in Shreveport, center of Crockett and Common Streets.

10:00 a. m.—Parade begins.

10:30 a. m.—Parade and pep rally break up.

12:30 p. m.—Busses leave bus station at Fannin and Edwards for Fair Grounds.

2:00 p. m.—Game starts at Fair Grounds Stadium.

11:30 p. m.—Busses leave Fair Ground (after Grand Stand show) for return to Natchitoches.

BLUEGRASS BARON WILL SPEAK AT BASKETBALL SCHOOL HERE

Coach Adolph Rupp, "Mr. Basketball" himself, will be here on the campus to conduct a coaching clinic on November 2 and 3. The clinic is being jointly sponsored by the Physical Education Major's Club and the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball, of which Acting President H. Lee Prather is president.

Last season, the P. E. M. Club had Coach Cliff Wells of Tulane University here for the clinic and are continuing the practice of having top-flight coaches by inviting Coach Rupp, basketball coach of the University of Kentucky.

Coach Rupp's records are widely known and he was voted the honor of "Coach of the Year" in 1950. He has an amazing record at Kentucky, 410 wins against 77 losses.

Assisting Coach Rupp will be Coach H. Lee Prather of Northwestern; F. H. "Buzz" Delaney of Centenary; Luther Marlar of Southeastern; and Woodrow Turner of Columbia High School. Coach Turner, who is the Louisiana representative to the National Federation of High School Athletic Associations Rules Committee, will give rules interpretations.

The clinic will be a two-day affair and will be free to the public. Everyone is cordially invited.

A Howl Has Been Raised . . .

about the selection of the queens and maids for the Cenla Fair and the State Fair, and about the selection of the 1951 Potpourri beauties.

The process of selection has been called arbitrary, un-democratic, not according to the students' will, and other names not exactly complimentary to the group who did the work.

About the selection of the queen and maids for the Cenla Fair. The decision was made last year by the student council to relegate the duty of choosing fourteen maids, one from each parish in the central Louisiana area, to the members of the Current Sauce and Potpourri staffs. The decision was made by a group that was chosen (by the student body) to represent the student body. It is their duty to make such decisions.

The students, at the time the decision was made, raised no objection. If after due consideration, a majority of the students feel that the method of selection is not fair, then it is up to the student council, as representatives of the student body, to change it. The same goes with the selection of the State Fair court.

The method of selection of the Potpourri beauties is a different situation entirely. The editor set the policies of the yearbook and outlined the method for choosing the beauties.

Personally, we think that the method of selection of the beauties was not democratic. For at least two reasons:

1. The yearbook belongs to all the students on the campus. Each and every one. Therefore, all persons should have a voice in the selection of the beauties.
2. The girls, in order to receive consideration for the positions, had to be nominated by two, not one, organizations.

We contend that the selection of all persons to represent the college as queens, maids, or beauties, should either be selected by the student body as a whole, with every student having equal nomination and suffrage powers, or that the selection be made by groups, representative of the student body, to whom the powers have been delegated.

A second controversial issue is whether the representatives are to be selected on the basis of beauty alone or, as in the case of the Cenla and State Fair courts, on the basis of time at NSC, service to the college, achievement, and beauty.

The decision should be made on the same basis. . . . By the student body, or by delegated representatives of the student body, to whom those powers have been appointed.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Chuck Tillman, Editor
The Current Sauce
Northwestern State College
Natchitoches, Louisiana

Dear Editor:

We would like to know just what kind of policies are being carried out by the student publications staffs. Namely, the Current Sauce and Potpourri.

The issue we are most interested in and disgusted with at the present is the selection of maids and queens for both the Cenla Fair and the State Fair, and the Potpourri beauties.

The impression we received from these selections was that the two staffs, Current Sauce and Potpourri, picked the girls they wanted to compose the courts and then had them parade before an audience of students and have the audience elect a queen, by applause, from the "picked" group.

In the selection of the lovely girls whose photographs will adorn the pages of the "beauty" section of our yearbook, it was a very unpublicized procedure in which the Potpourri staff "picked" a group of 30 girls, evidently whom the staff personally desired, and had that group appear before the staff's judges, who in turn selected, secretly of course, the 15 who will comprise the group representing Northwestern State College's "beauties."

In the past each men's organization on the campus, including independent groups and the Current Sauce and Potpourri staffs, nominated a certain number (4 if we remember correctly) of girls whom they thought deserved the honor of being a beauty, and from the total number of girls nominated a fair and just process of elimination was enacted which would narrow the number down to a group of 30. From these thirty, an independent group of judges selected the 15 whose pictures would appear in the yearbook and then these 15 would be ranked by some nationally known authority on beauty.

For the queens and maids of the two Fair Courts; a similar procedure for nomination was used and the queen would be the girl receiving the most nominations from the organizations. Her court would be the girls receiving the next highest number of nominations and so on down until the court was complete.

Now, it isn't that we are so dissatisfied with the girls that were chosen but just with the "controlled policies" that are now in use.

We have been students at this institution since 1946, and until this current year we have been completely satisfied with the procedures where the student body had a voice in the selections of girls for such honors, and we would like to see the policies of the past continue to be carried out to the satisfaction of the student body as a whole.

It may be, perhaps, that we are entirely wrong with the impression we have thus far received, but we would like to have the procedure, by which these girls have been chosen, published. Also, as to whether or not the results thus far obtained have been the work of the Current Sauce, and Potpourri staffs or just the carrying out of instructions given them by the student body administration.

Very truly yours,
Louis Farmer
Firal L. Ryder

Editor's Note:

The selection of the Potpourri beauties for the 1951 edition of the year book was done as follows: Each of the "principal men's organizations" on the campus selected 15 beauties as nominations for the yearbook on request from its editor. The organizations were the Men's Dormitories (selected by the dormitory councils), the Intra-fraternity Council, the Intra-dormitory council, the Student Council, the Current Sauce, and the Potpourri. After the separate lists had been turned in to the editor of the yearbook five of the seven judges appointed by the yearbook editor met and (with the approval of the two absent) decided that to be eligible a girl must have been nominated by at least two (2) of the organizations concerned, thus selected were presented to the student body in an assembly. As they were presented the seven judges named by the yearbook editor rated them on the basis of beauty. The final results were decided in a closed session of the judges and announced to the assembly. The editor's instructions to the judges were to pick fifteen of the 34, to later be judged by an artist from Dallas, Texas.

The queen and court for the Cenla Fair were selected by members of the Current Sauce, and Potpourri staffs on request of the Student Council. In accordance with Student Council instructions fourteen maids (one from each parish in the Cenla area) were selected on the basis of length of time in school (at NSC), popularity, achievement, and beauty. This group of girls was then presented to the student body so that they might select, by acclamation, a queen.

The queen and court for the State Fair in Shreveport were selected by members of the Student Council, on the same basis as were the Cenla group. The State Fair group, however, was not presented to the student body for selection of a queen.

The queen and court for the Homecoming game will, as has been the custom in the past, be selected by the football team.

" . . . as to whether or not the results thus far obtained have been, the work of the Current Sauce, and Potpourri staffs, or just the carrying out of instructions given them by the student body administration . . ." The result of the selection of Potpourri beauties is the result of the policies of the Potpourri staff. The results of the selection of the Cenla Fair court is the result of the policy of the Student Council, which was formed on the basis of past methods of selection. Likewise, the result of the selection of the State Fair court is the result of Student Council policy.

Views of The News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

In the present cold-hot war, the Far East and Western Europe are but the right and left wings of a common battle line. Surely China is still the key position in the defense of the whole of the Far East. Its key position is not merely geographic as some might think. To us a free China or a China under the U.S.S.R. might mean the difference between victory and defeat. As a reservoir of manpower for troops and for industry and of numerous strategic raw materials, China is inexhaustible. It can continue to provide an annual quota of four million men or more for an army and possibly tens of millions for labor battalions. This currently is under the Red regime of force and terror.

The Soviet Union's threat against a unified and independent China was already very real in 1945. It had been clearly foreseen by Military Intelligence; but was foreshadowed in current events. Yet the arms and technical assistance promised by President Roosevelt at Cairo and by President Truman in 1945 were for the most part withheld.

There has been much discussion of proposals for a compromise settlement of the China questions before the U.N. This would involve seating the Communist delegates; and presumably, leaving the Chinese Republic's charges of aggression against the Soviet Union to go by default. In spite of the apparent confusion, it is still possible for the United States to block the above proposed settlement by demanding a full hearing and adjudication of China's charges against the Soviet Union and by using the veto, if necessary, to prevent other disposal of the charges or the seating of Communist delegates before a clear judgment in the case has been delivered.

As regards the present status of our China policy, its formulation and execution remains in the hands of those who shaped and have controlled it throughout this period of China's betrayal. If the Washington Administration does not speedily reverse its present policy; support fully the Republic's legal position in the U.N. and provide the necessary military aid for its defense; how can any Nation again put faith in the pledged word of the United States?

Kappa Delta Pi met in the Home Economics Building Tuesday night. Mrs. Marie Dunn, president, welcomed new members to their first meeting. Plans for the coming year are well under way.

All thoughts are turned to the "Big Weekend" ahead. Queen Dot Olivier and her court are ready to boost the team on. The Queen will wear a gray suit with black accessories.

The annual banquet at the State Fair will see Tech playing host to NSC. The queen, maids and Student Council will represent us. The banquet will follow the parade and pep rally, the time, eleven till one.

The Greeks on the campus are preparing for the coming social season. Sororities are planning for informal and formal rush parties the weeks of November 6-10 and November 13-17.

Fraternity dances are scheduled for November and December dates.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Pi Kappas are really in full swing now! With all the rush party plans thoroughly under way and all their other activities going along smoothly, they feel they are really going places.

The traditional fraternity party was a big success from all accounts. The boys seem to enjoy the games as well as the food and the Pi Kappas were right at home entertaining.

Our congratulations go to Beth McGuffee, Joanne Brantley, Nell Richardson and Evelyn Hollis Hall who are to be some of this year's Potpourri beauties. Joanne was also selected as one of the State Fair maids.

For a sports roundup, Pi Kap has a bang-up volleyball team. Their first game was Monday night: opponents, Dinnig Hall; the score 42-16 in favor of Dining Hall. Tough luck but fun anyway.

The Pi Kapps were entertained after their regular meeting Tuesday evening by Miss Carolyn Fultz who played the ukulele. Carolyn was asked by Miss Eunice Eden as part of her after meeting program.

TRI SIGMA

Forty-two to twelve! Isn't that a score for you? Well, that was the score between the Tri Sigmas and the Miscellaneous Eight in the W.R.A. volleyball game played Monday night. The Tri Sigmas show great possibilities of winning the title of volleyball champions.

Congratulations are in order for Janette Pace and Marjorie White, two Tri Sigmas who will grace the State Fair Stadium as maids this Saturday at the annual State Fair tilt with the Tech eleven.

Also to be congratulated are Pat Bishop and Marjorie White who have been chosen Potpourri beauties.

At the weekly meeting Tuesday night a call meeting was scheduled for Wednesday night and the regular meeting was adjourned so that the members could attend the hanging of the Tech dummy. Before the meeting was adjourned the members enjoyed a big box of chocolates that was received from Dona Mae Thompson, a graduate member who is engaged to be married.

Sorority Rush Season Begins November Sixth

The date November 6 may be just the day after November 5 to some NSC students for it isn't State Fair or Homecoming or the beginning date of the Christmas holidays, but it is a very important date to the members of the five campus sororities; November 6 begins the rush season!

Preparations, plans and work have long been under way but the gala formal and informal rush parties will officially begin November 6 and continue through November 18 when rushees will accept membership bids.

The first informal party is scheduled on November 6, 5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m. by Delta Sigma Upsilon. On November 7, Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority will entertain. Next is the Theta Sigma Upsilon informal party November 8. November 9 will be Alpha Sigma Alpha's party and the Pi Kappa Sigma's on November 10 close the informal party schedule.

From November 13-17, the sororities, in the preceding order will be hostesses at formal affairs. Nor does rushing season end the calendar of dances and parties for the five sororities. Dances have been scheduled by Pi Kappa Sigma, April 14 and by Alpha Sigma Alpha, April 21. The members of Theta Sigma Upsilon will give a banquet in the spring.

Forensic Club Holds Meeting

The Northwestern Forensic Club in its regular meeting Wednesday night elected officers for this year in an effort to obtain organized promotion of the club. Jimmy Johnson, a 3-year letterman in debate, was elected president with Thomas Poole assisting as vice-president. Miss Joyce Winn was selected Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. William Smith, the forensic coach, announced plans to secure for this campus a chapter of Pi Kappa Delta—National Forensic Fraternity. Then followed the highlight of the meeting which was the demonstration debate featuring Thomas Poole and E. G. Smith on the affirmative and Luke Petrovich and Jimmy Johnson on the negative. The group is currently preparing for the annual University of Alabama Discussion tournament to be held November 9, 10, 11.

Congratulations to Lorraine Vaughn who reigned as queen at the Cenia College game last Saturday. She represented Beauregard Parish.

DSE is proud of Myrtle Ann Babin, Julia McBroom, Pat Marmande, and Marie Tilleux. These girls will be maids in the court of the game with Tech in Shreveport.

Pat Marmande, Myrtle Ann Babin, Peggy Haywood JoAnn DeBate, and Lorraine Vaughn were a fair representation of Delta Sig in the Potpourri beauty contest. Not only that, but Pat Marmande and Myrtle Ann Babin were selected as two of the top fifteen.

Troubled frowns and then twinkling eyes prevail on all of DSE as committees meet and discuss the big plans for rush season. The numerous ideas are beginning to take material form now.

In the not too distant future, Delta Sigma Epsilon girls are going to be surprised by a "come-as-you-are party." Apparently some two or three people are going to get together some night and start calling the various members. It's just too bad; they must come as they are!

Sandwiches are on the agenda again. They will be sold in the girls' dormitories a week from the coming Monday.

Swimmers Bear Down...

Members of the 1951 edition of the Demon swim team are bearing down in out of the water workouts. They are preparing to begin water workouts on November 15.

Jack Branch, prominent Demon tankman of past seasons, was recently elected Captain of this year's squad. Jack is a junior in Health and Physical Education and hails from Little Rock, Ark. He holds the polo and college record for the 100-yard backstroke event.

Men who are undergoing daily workouts are Myran Lockey, Leo Ellison, John Stafford, M. L. Aust, Bobby Voohries, and of course Branch.

Q. I was given an honorable discharge from the Army in 1945. I reenlisted in 1947 and was recently given a dishonorable discharge. Am I eligible for treatment in VA hospitals?

Demons Eke by Louisiana College In Central State Fair Feature

Saturday night in Bolton Stadium, Alexandria, the Northwestern State College Demons squeezed by Louisiana College, 12-10, in the closest game this season. Johnny Emmons, the standout for the Demons passed and ran the Demons to victory over the Wildcats scoring his 5th touchdown of the season on the same play which he has scored on in every game.

James Beck, the 210 pound full-back for the Demons was bruised up in the game but will see action against Louisiana Tech at the State Fair. He is being counted on to hold the Bulldogs' rushing and passing attack to a minimum or halt it altogether along with Sid Morrell, Tyrus Sibley, Jack Huckaby, Don Buster Keaton, George Pharis, Buddy Lancaster, and Merrick Young.

Buddy Lancaster, broke into the scoring column for the Demons on a pass from Emmons, who was standing on his 23 yard line. Jack Huckaby played as much ball in Wildcat territory as he did in the Demons. He was in the Wildcat backfield so much that they thought he was one of their own backs and missed a hand-off by inches. Repeatedly Huckaby broke through to throw the Wildcats for losses.

Tyrus Sibley, lineman, put his weight to good use and dealt the opponents plenty of misery.

Joe Price Lancaster was roughed up on one occasion, causing a 15 yard penalty against the Louisiana College eleven. This was Joe's first game since the Oklahoma tilt.

Gymnasts Ready for Exhibition—

The Demon Gymnastic team is ready for its first exhibition. This exhibition is scheduled at Fort Necessity in Franklin Parish. Sponsor of the show will be Robert Rouse, Principal of the high school there.

After many weeks of hard preparation the boys are ready to show their wares. It is assured to be another top-notch performance of the boys in the purple and white.

Coach Piscopo announces that plans are being made tentatively for an exhibition at Vinton. Coach Ernest "Slim" Howell, of Vinton, an alumnus of NSC has invited the show to be presented there.

The highlight of this fall will be the Gymnastic Extravaganza to be held in the Fine Arts Auditorium December 13.

Intramural Notes

By CHARLES EDDINGTON

Phi Kappa Nu caught fire in a story book finish to keep its spotless record intact as they edged the Mongrels 12-7. Phi Kap scored in the last fifteen seconds to overcome a 7-6 Mongrel lead. The Mongrels scored their touchdown with only forty seconds of playing time remaining.

Sigma Tau had less trouble holding their undefeated record as they trounced the "Frames" 32-6.

In the American league the Cream Puffs continued to rumble alone at the top of the heap as they added another lop-sided victory over Lambda Zeta to their string, 19-0.

The only other game saw Brick Shack climbing into second place with their 32-0 trouncing of West Barracks.

Standings
American League	W	L	Pct.
Cream Puffs	3	0	1000
Brick Shack	2	1	.667
Lambda Zeta	1	2	.333
West Barracks	0	3	.000
National League
Sigma Tau	2	0	1000
Phi Kappa Nu	2	0	1000
A & B Frames	1	2	.333
Mongrels	0	3	.000

Games next week: Monday, October 23, Lambda Zeta vs. West Barracks and Mongrels vs. Frames; Tuesday, Oct. 24, Cream Puffs vs. West Barracks and Sigma Tau vs. Mongrels; Wednesday, Oct. 25, Lambda Zeta vs. Brick Shack and Phi Kappa Nu vs. Frames.

Entries for intramural volleyball will be due Nov. 1, and play will begin Nov. 6. If eight or more organizations enter teams, the volleyball competition will be divided into two leagues with each league participating in a round-robin tournament. The winner and runner-up of each league will qualify for a final elimination tournament.

The "Sports Night" programs are almost the most popular intramural attractions on the campus. The first "Night" is to be held Oct. 26, in the men's gym and all organizations are urged to enter as many contestants as possible. Point earned in the "Sports Night" will count as individual and team points at the end of the intramural season. Trophies will then be awarded to individual and high team scorers.

Grid Conference

Head Coach Harry "Rags" Turpin of the Northwestern State College holds an on-the-field conference with his offensive and defensive backfield stars.

Eldred "Red" Harp, Johnny Emmons and Don Nation, left to right, listen to the words of NSC's mentor. Harp and Emmons do a lot of ball-carrying chores and both stand a good chance to lead the conference in the total yards gained column.

Freshman back Nation is probably the most vicious tackler in the Gulf States Conference.

"OFFSIDES"

GSC CHATTER . . . . .

This past weekend saw the two GSC leaders fall and two more rise to the top. Previous to last weekend, Louisiana College and Southwestern were on top of the heap. After last weekend, Northwestern and Mississippi Southern climbed aloft. The Demons defeated a strong Louisiana College eleven, 12-10, at the Cenla Fair in Alexandria. Mississippi Southern finally tasted victory in her Homecoming game by knocking off previously undefeated SLI to the tune of 6-0.

Louisiana Tech also tasted defeat for the first time this season. Xavier of Cincinnati downed the Bulldogs, 35-21. It was Tech's first defeat in their past ten games. Southeastern also found the going rough and fell before Stephen F. Austin, 21-0.

This weekend we find the Northwestern Demons and Louisiana Tech Bulldogs battling it out at the Louisiana State Fair in Shreveport, the top game of the week in the GSC. This game slightly shades the conference encounter between Mississippi Southern and Southwestern. Louisiana College goes to Beaumont to play Lamar Tech. SLI invades Memphis for a contest with a strong Memphis State eleven.

“ONE FAN’S BREEZE”

TAKE TECH FOR TURPIN

By JOE KEMP

Today is the big day. The powerful Demon grid machine invades Shreveport for the Annual State Fair encounter with Louisiana Tech's equally powerful Bulldogs. Its now or never for the Demons. Undefeated, untied thus far this season, the Purple and White boys will climax the season against Tech. Tech will be no pushover, their season shows only 1 loss against 2 wins, and 1 tie. The loss came at the hands of a powerful Xavier University team in Cincinnati.

The Demons came out of the Louisiana College game in good condition and as a result no one should miss the game. The injury to first string offensive Center J. R. Akin proved less severe than was at first feared, and he should see plenty of action. The return of Calvert and Johnny Haynes is being greeted with wide smiles from the coaching staff. The former is "tops" as a receiver of Emmon's passes, while the latter Demon proves his worth on defense.

Northwestern goes into today's game tied for the G.S.C. lead, showing 1 victory and no defeats in conference play. Tech has yet to play a Conference game, today being the first. Mississippi Southern is the team which shares the lead with NSC. Their won and loss column reads the same as ours in Conference play. Louisiana College and Southwestern have identical conference records, one win and one defeat. Southeastern has yet to win and sport a nothing won, two lost record in the conference.

Today's game is expected to be a wide open affair, with Emmon's passing, vieing for top honors against the running of Joe Rabb, who is currently leading the nation in "ground gained rushing" in small college play. It will be left to the Demon defense to stop Mr. Rabb, and if last week's game is any indication, the job can be done. Our defense looked great despite the highly touted Louisiana College line.

Tech's season thus far shapes up in this fashion. They defeated Howard Payne 27-20, Stephen F. Austin 21-6, battled to a 0-0 tie with East Texas State, and were defeated 35-21 by Xavier.

Another feature of the game will be Northwestern's attempt to break the jinx held over them since 1942 when the Demons won 10-6. Every year since its been Tech with the scores reading: 1946, Tech 14, NSC 7; 1947, Tech 24, NSC 0; 1948, Tech 10, NSC 7; and 1949, Tech 28, NSC 21. Tech also won the G. S. C. title in 1949.

Let's get out and support the Demons. The team needs the co-operation of every student, and will give us a win if we get out and show them that we are 100 percent behind them! Let the motto be: "Take Tech for Turpin!"

Now for a look at the records of the teams in Gulf States Conference:

Papa

Oldest man on the Demon football squad at 27, Sam Harper plays hard ball on the Demon line.

Fullback

One of the few local players on the Demon squad, John Ropp played for Natchitoches high school before coming to Northwestern. This is his third season and his first to play much ball. He was injured early in the previous two years. He is a capable understudy to Jas. Beck and is the top downfield blocker on the team.

Tackler

Don Nation, the most vicious tackler in the conference, has played a lot of defensive ball for the Demons this season. Freshman Nation plays halfback and has performed admirably at that post.

Calendar's Step-child

February, the stepchild of the calendar, originally had 30 days. February did not become a misfit until Julius Caesar and Emperor Augustus each stole one of February's days to add to their namesakes, July and August.

Red Streak

Fleet-footed trouble for Louisiana Tech is Eldred "Red" Harp, Demon offensive halfback. Harp can do the "100" in 10 seconds flat in full football togs and is no slouch at broken field running. His average for the season is 9.88 yards per try.

"N" CLUB HOLDS

REGULAR MEETING

The regular "N" Club meeting was held Wednesday, November 11, in the Men's Gym. Stanley Catha was elected secretary to replace Randall Williams, who joined the Armed Forces this summer.

Plans were discussed for future meetings and President Marion Benson appointed a committee to prepare programs for these meetings.

What About Her?

DEEP IN THOUGHT . . . considering who is to adorn the pages of the Potpourri beauty section, are the seven judges of this year's contest. After a group of thirty-four girls was presented to the student body in an assembly the judges retired to the Current Sauce office to make their final decision. They selected fifteen of the thirty-four. From left to right they are Chuck Castaing, Chairman of the Student Council; "Chuck" Tillman, editor of the Current Sauce; Ronald Martin, editor of the Potpourri; Luke Petrovich, president of the student body; Don Williford, chief-justice of the Honor Court; Jeff Easley, president of Intra-Dormitory council, and "Snap" Oakes, president of the Intra-fraternity council. ## Dallas Symphony Major Attraction Of Concert Group's Coming Season

The Dallas Symphony Orchestra has been booked to appear at Northwestern April 4, 1951, according to Sherrod Towns, chairman of the Artist Series committee.

In addition to the Dallas group at least four other numbers will be chosen for the 1950-51 series. The Artists Series committee has joined with the city of Nat-chitoches to form a new organization, the Natchitoches-Northwestern Concert Association.

Of the five appearances scheduled for this year, the Artists Series Committee will select three. The other two will be chosen by a joint committee of the executive board of the town group and members of the Artists Series group.

Under the new organization students will be admitted to all concert upon presentation of their activity tickets.

side of the fire station, Common and Crockett Streets, with Northwestern's contingent leading. The band will precede the Demonettes, cheerleaders, students, and queen and attendants. The Tech group will follow.

Proceeding north on Common to Milam, the marchers will turn right on Milam to Market, left on Market to Texas Avenue, left again on Texas and continuing west to the Court House square.

Northwestern's pep rally will be on the Milam Street side of the Court House Square, while Tech's will be on the Texas Avenue side.

No cars will be in the parade, at the request of the Shreveport Police Department, because of a large marching group of high school bands in downtown Shreveport at the same time.

The Other Half

Each week the Current Sauce mail-box is filled with journals edited by other members of the fourth estate. We thought that perhaps somebody besides us wondered how the other half lived and that perhaps this material could be put to better use. The brains of the staff came up with this column.

In the deep south ... we notice that (Daily Revielle), that LSU has a $5,700,000 bond approved for increasing the size of the Tiger stadium. Good deal. ...

Also at LSU ... "Tom W. Dutton, board chairman from New Orleans said that the court decision, ordering LSU to admit Roy S. Wilson, Negro, to the Law School is in the hands of attorneys." Purpose of appeal.

The lighter side. ... South-eastern Louisiana's publication, The Lion's Roar column reports, "The chow hall goes on. The question is how long can we? and a timely note, 'let's face it. ... "Single men in barracks don't turn into plaster saints." The leatherneck band will be part of SLI's '50 Artist Series. Coincidence ... SLI has 233 vets—we have 231.

Louisiana College's Wildcat reports an enrollment drop, 814—482 men nad 252 women, in day school, that is. Night school enrollment totals 100.

Pittsburgh, Kansas ... Kansas State Teachers College's weekly features a big picture of Rise Stevens. She opens the season music concert series there.

University of California all upset about the signing of anti-communist statements. Student reaction strictly negative.

Southwestern is having trouble scheduling a name band for the annual fall formal. Seems that the Rhumba King wants a high price for a concert only — no dance. Next best chance is T. Dorsey.

Maybe that isn't as bad a situation as the SWLI swain who complains that he has to pick his girl friend up in a pirogue?

Biology Frat Holds Initiation

Delta Theta chapter of Beta Beta, national biology fraternity, has recently added five members to its rolls by the pledging and initiation of Trudy Prather, Roy Russell, Eleanor McGee, Newlyn Turner, and Rene J. Bienvenu. Membership in the fraternity is open to majors and minors in biology.

A new project of Tri-Beta is the new display case on second floor of Science building. The displays are changed approximately every two weeks.

'Happy Go Lucky' Campaign Offers Students Cash

Here's a way to earn some easy money. You don't have to give away your fraternity pin or send in the top of your new convertible, but just compose a four-line jingle singing the praises of Lucky Strike cigarettes and tying in with their sensational new "Be Happy-Go Lucky!" campaign. Each jingle accepted (and you can send in as many as you want) will earn you $25, and a good many of them will be used in the Happy-Go-Lucky advertising campaign to appear in this paper and 275 other college newspapers. Any student from any college or university in the United States can submit jingles—the more the merrier.

Plenty of cash awards will be paid out, and the important thing is to get your jingles in as soon as possible. Freshman, scratch your beanies and show up the Sophomores; Sophomores, stay in front of those Juniors; Juniors, beat the Seniors to it; and, Seniors — well, get ahead of your dates! (For 'tis known that the co-eds are pretty clever at this versemaking.)

No lost moments to be spent in the library stacks looking up exacting words or rhymes. Just remember the perfect mildness and full, rich taste of your Lucky Strikes, and describe your smoking pleasure in a four-line jingle. The situation depicted should be one of life on campus such as:

As quarter-back, I lead the team;
I call out, "One-two-three!"
But when I'm not in training

It's L.S./M.F.T.

It's easy, it's fun, and it's profitable. So get together (although, who wants to split $25) or frite as many jingles as you can and send them to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

Q. My son is a war veteran and a patient in a State Hospital. Am I required to pay for his board, or should it be paid by VA?

A. VA may not assume maintenance unless hospitalization is indicated for treatment of a service-connected disability, and the VA determines a bed is not available in a VA facility. Payment may be made by VA only from the time care is authorized.

Q. I am the stepmother of a World War II veteran who was killed in action. He was in my care and custody prior to his entrance into service. May I file a claim for compensation?

A. Yes.

Folklore Society Offers Cash for Students Work

A familiar radio voice is helping students to collect and preserve our native culture.

Prizes of $125, $75, and $50 are the three sums singer Jo Stafford is offering for college student collections of American folklore in the year 1950.

Hector Lee, folklore professor at Chico State College, Chico, Calif., is chairman of the national committee that has been appointed by the American Folklore Society to conduct the contest. In publishable form, the student collections of folklore—what people do, say, sing, and pass on to following generations—should be in Dr. Lee's hands before January 15, 1951. These and dissertations meeting the requirements are eligible for consideration.

Miss Stafford, the popular singer who in 1943 was a $100 a week songstress for Tommy Dorsey's band and by 1945, in the words of TIME magazine, "the most-listened-to female vocalist," has been thinking up ways of encouraging those students who are collecting and analyzing American legends, superstitions, and folk songs. She is offering these awards for the third consecutive year.

In 1949, first prize went to Geo. W. Boswell, Nashville, Tenn., for his entry entitled "English Traditional Ballads of Tennessee." Robert J. Miller of Seattle, Wash., won second prize for "A Collection of Makah Mythology." Third prize was for "A Comparative Analysis of Some Montana Folksongs," by Robert C. Wylder, Badger, Wis.

In addition to Chairman Lee, the judging committee this year includes Professors Samuel P. Bayard of Pennsylvania State College, Viola Garfield of the University of Washington, Mary Haas of the University of California, and Frances Gillmor of the University of Arizona.

The judges request that the collections be gathered from primary sources and be submitted as original research. Manuscripts are to be accompanied by letters setting forth when, where, and how the material was collected, together with a listing of the scholarly as-stance—suggestions, bibliographical information, etc.—supplied by others. They are to be typewritten on good quality paper and double-spaced. Winning entries will become the property of the American Folklore Society; other manuscripts will be returned only if postage is included.

and the meeting will conclude at 6:00 p.m. the following day.

The theme of the program will be: A Positive Program for Peace. According to information received by Jimmy Johnson, State treasurer of Louisiana International Relations Clubs, the conference will feature addresses by such outstanding speakers as the French Consul-General and the Ex-Chinese Consul-General. Delegates to the convention will also express their views on international topics in the panel discussion groups. A program of social entertainment has been planned by the host club at LSU.

NORTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

OCTOBER 28, 1950

Reiteration

A few short weeks ago in these columns, as acting president, I addressed a brief but sincere message to the Student Body of Northwestern State College. Now as permanent president, I desire to reiterate the sentiments expressed therein. I wish also to express my genuine appreciation for the splendid way in which you have responded to our request for sympathy and cooperation. I desire to state also that I heartily commend you for the fine college spirit which is everywhere manifest. Let us all continue to put forth our best efforts for a greater Northwestern State College. We shall try to do our part.

H. Lee Prather
President

Breakdown of Fall Enrollment Shows Many Interesting Factors

Witness to the fact that Northwestern offers a variety of subjects to students are the 1950 Fall semester enrollment figures. Of the 1569 students enrolled in the three major subject fields here 874 are preparing to teach. Nearly one-eighth of that number will teach health and physical education. Upper elementary education students number 111.

Breakdown in the other departments of the School of Education is Agriculture, 6; Art, 8; Business Education, 98; English Ed., 13; Foreign Language, 10; Speech, 7; Biology, 14; Chemistry, 15; Physics, 2; Home Economics, 71; Industrial Arts, 58; Vocational Industrial Education, 11; Library Science, 13; Math, 51; Music, 64; Primary, 89; Social Science, 41; General students, 32; special and post-graduate, 7.

Second to the School of Education in enrollment is the School of Applied Arts and Sciences, with 509 students. Top enrollment in that department was in Nursing, 285.

Other subject enrollment figures were Agriculture, 33; Aviation, 2; Accounting, 32; Business Administration, 100; Secretarial Science, 35; Home Economics, 9; Industrial Arts, 11; and Special and Post Graduate Students, 2.

The Arts and Sciences Department ranked third with a total of 186 students.

Social Sciences students in that school numbered 42, topping the number of Social Science majors in the field of Education by one. Medical Technology came second with 25 enrollees.

Other totals in the department are Art, 2; English, 2; Speech, 9; Journalism, 9; Biology, 18; Chemistry, 14; Physics, 9; Pre-Dental, 3; Pre-Medical, 14; Pre-Engineering, 17; Math, 5; Social Science, 42; Pre-Law, 10; General, 1; and Special and Post Graduate, 3.

The women students outnumber the men 835 to 734.

'Messiah' Practices Planned for Mon. Nights—Glattly

Preparation for the annual "Messiah" program, according to Donald Glattly, director, is under way. The college chorus, college singers and faculty members compose the group which will present the program. Rehearsals are planned for Monday nights, from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in joining the singers is urged to attend these practices.

Mr. Glattly said that the solo parts have not yet been chosen.

The "Messiah" contains a selection of "stories" about the Christ child and the praises due Him. According to the director, the preparation thus far has made good progress and the concert should be one of the best.

4 Journalists to Attend ACP Meet

Four members of the publication staffs and their adviser will represent NSC at the Annual Associated Collegiate Press Convention November 2-4 at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago.

Attending from the Current Sauce will be J. C. Tillman, editor, and his associate editor, Louise Harris. Potpourri Editor Ronald Martin and Robert Allen, business manager, will represent the yearbook staff.

Dr. John Duffy, Potpourri adviser, will drive with the group, leaving NSC Tuesday.

Highlighting the convention will be lectures from nationally known journalists and conferences between yearbook and student newspaper staffs throughout the nation.

Funds for the trip will be drawn equally from the budgets of the two publications.

Five to Attend South-Central Language Meet

The following members of the Department of Languages at NSC will attend the seventh annual meeting of the South-Central Modern Language Association at Rice Institute, Houston, Texas, November 3-4:

Dr. Sarah L. C. Clapp, Dr. G. Waldo Dunnington, Mr. Kiffin Y. R. Hayes, and Miss Mamie Bowman. Fritz-Egbert Dohse, University of Cottingen, who is this year a student at NSC, will also attend the sessions.

Dr. Dunnington is vice-president of the association. Miss Bowman will participate in the discussion of the American literature sectional program.

Coach H. Lee Prather Is Named President of Northwestern State

Confirmation of H. Lee Prather as president of Northwestern, was announced by the State Board of Education October 24. Acting president since September 9, Prather succeeds Dr. G. W. McGinty, who resigned September 2.

A senior member of the faculty, Prather joined the NSC staff in the fall of 1913 as athletic director and teacher of mathematics. Holding a B.A. '10 and LL.B. '12 from the University of Missouri, he has taught various subjects, including business law and political science.

As director of athletics, "Coach" Prather has achieved a record of 37 continuous years of coaching basketball at one school, climaxed by his election as president of the N.A.I.B. in March, 1950. Because of his outstanding contributions to the sport and his devotion to it, Prather has been called the "Dean of American Basketball Coaches."

Prior to his arrival at NSC, where he served also as dean of men and dean of students, Prather spent one year at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Lafayette, as athletic director and teacher of English and business law.

He has since done advanced work in summer sessions at the Universities of Missouri and Wisconsin.

Fraternal organizations of which Prather is a member include Kappa Delta Pi, (education), Phi Alpha Delta (law), and Phi Alpha Theta (history).

Born in Lafayette County, Mo., on Oct. 10, 1886, Prather began school in a rural log cabin. He attended grammar school in Mayview and Odessa, Mo., and was graduated from Odessa High School in 1905.

Mrs. Prather is the former Gertrude Corder of Alma, Mo. They have five children, Mrs. Stathum Crosby, Waterproof; Mrs. Rivers Y. Nesom, Hammond; Henry Lee Prather, Jr., Shreveport; Wallace Ewing Prather, Coshatta; and Miss Trudy Lee Prather, a student at NSC.

One of eight grandchildren, Mary Beth Crosby, is also a student at Northwestern.

German Student, Fritz-Egbert Dohse Likes Our Girls, Food, and Town

Many students here at NSC carry on an age-old feud concerning "to eat or not to eat" the food in the dining hall but to one student, there is no such controversy; he thinks the food is most enjoyable!

This student is Fritz-Egbert Dohse, a shy, friendly young man from Cottongen, Germany. Fritz says that, to him, the food is delicious with the exception, of course, of bread which is too much like cake. He especially enjoys certain foods which he had never eaten such as popcorn, egg-plant, and sweet potatoes.

Fritz is at present living in Natchitoches as the guest of Associate professor of German, Dr. G. Waldo Dunnington. He will remain at NSC one year studying physics and mathematics with emphasis on the study of English.

Dr. Dunnington became acquainted with the Dohse family while studying in Germany at the University of Cottingen in Germany. At this time, Dr. Dunnington was doing research on Gauss and became familiar with the works of the famous sculptor, Christian Heinrich Hesemann, the official court sculptor to George V, last king of Hanover. This great artist was Fritz's great-grandfather.

In 1923 Fritz was drafted into the Reich Labor Service but was deferred from military service for reasons of health, and thus was able to continue his studies in mechanical engineering.

Since 1941 he has been enrolled as a student at the Deutsches Museum in Munich, the University of Cottingen where he studied chemistry, mathematics, metallurgy and economics, the Technical University in Berlin—Charlottenburg in the field of mechanical engineering along with some months spent in practical work in cabinet making, tooling, welding, manual training and other industrial arts under the direction of the German railroads.

One of Fritz's most interesting experiences while journeying to the U. S. was in Antwerp, Belgium. A few hours before his ship was to sail, Fritz was arrested for making pictures of the ships from the wharf; it seems that, among other things, Fritz is an amateur photographer.

The two things Fritz mentioned that he likes best about America so far are "the little nice town, Natchitoches" and "the American girls."

The Best Answer...

The appointment of "Coach" H. Lee Prather as permanent president of NSC is indicative of the fact that our college is emerging from the realms of political battles, student-administration dissension, and general dissatisfaction.

During the past months the state papers and the college have been clamoring for the appointment of a capable man to this office, as an answer to the recent problems.

"Coach" Prather is, we believe, the best answer. Here is a man who has for nearly forty years devoted himself in every way to the interests of Northwestern. Here is a man who understands us and a man whom we understand.

With the "Coach" as acting president, the college experienced a noticeable rise in school spirit and standards. It is our prediction that this is only the beginning of many benefits that will follow under his administration as permanent president.

We pledge our loyalty and active support to President Prather in making a bigger and better Northwestern.

Central Louisiana Art Group Sets Membership Goal for 1950 at 1,200

The Central Louisiana Art Association is one of the organizations seeking the co-operative efforts of all Cenla pledged to help carry out the objectives of the Central Louisiana Association, S. W. Nelken, of Natchitoches, president of the Central Louisiana Association said this week.

The art group, second largest in the state with 700 members last season, is made up entirely of unpaid volunteers who give their time and efforts to promotion of art and offer Central Louisianians each season a series of exhibitions on a par with the best museums in the South.

The Association has set 1,200 members as its 1950-51 goal. Mrs. J. W. Uhrbach has been named captain for Natchitoches. Mrs. O. L. Cooper, head of the art department of Northwestern State College, has pledged her full support.

Q. Is it possible to pay National Service Life Insurance premiums from my disability compensation pay?

A. Yes. Authorization for premium deductions from your compensation pay must be made in writing over your signature—preferably on a VA form which you can obtain at any VA office. Send the application at the VA district office to which you now pay your premiums.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Editor Current Sauce
Northwestern State College
Natchitoches, Louisiana

Dear Sir:

I am of the opinion that a vote of thanks is due the State Board of Education on its appointment of "Coach" H. Lee Prather as permanent president of NSC.

A man who has worked with and for the students of this college for such a long time and who so unquestinably has worked successfully is certainly the best man for the position. Surely he will have the whole-hearted co-operation and trust of both the faculty and students.

With this appointment it is readily seen that NSC is again on its feet and making progress.

Jeanne L. Oliver

Chesterfield Co. Holds 'Letter to Editor' Contest

To encourage students to take action on controversial issues the campus representative for Chesterfield cigarettes has offered a carton of Chesterfields to the author of the best Letter to the Editor.

Each week the letters will be judged by the Current Sauce staff and by the representative. Decision is final.

62 Students Make Honor Roll

At the end of the summer session, 1950, 62 persons were listed on the NSC honor roll.

In the school of Arts and Sciences, headed by Dean C. E. Dugdale, there was a total of 33 students with a "B" average or above. Of these five maintained a straight "A" average.

Twenty-nine members of the school of Applied Arts and Sciences, under Dean George Walker, held the required average. Three made straight "A's."

Listed were:

Elwyn Adams, Stewart G. Carington, John Curtis, *Robert DeKeyser, *Donald Finley, *James Ray Glover, Bobby L. Hancock, Patrick Harrington, Grady Frank Howell, Rodney L. ## Fantasia Experts

Leopold Stokowski, Walt Disney and Deems Taylor are shown in some of the poses they struck during their creation of "Fantasia." Known as Walt Disney's most impressively artistic musical motion picture, and perennially popular besides, "Fantasia" bristles with original treatment. The picture will be shown for the first time in Natchitoches November 2 and 3 at the Chief Drive-In Theatre.

Watson Will Speak At Southwestern Librarians Meet

Eugene P. Watson, NSC librarian, will speak on "Co-operation Between the Reference Librarian and the Catalog" at the Southwestern Library Association convention in San Antonio, Nov. 8.

The convention, a bi-ennial affair, was last held in New Orleans.

Mr. Watson will be accompanied by Mrs. Lucille Carnahan, head of the department of Library Science, and Miss Olive Roberts, catalog librarian.

Nursing Notes

On October 14-16, the faculty and representatives of the Northwestern State College Nursing Program spent the week-end at Camp Beeneaire on Lake Bistineau in Caddo Parish. It was a week-end for conferences and recreation. Representing the sophomore class, which is now in Shreveport getting their clinical experience were: Misses Barbara Jean O'Brien and Louetta Falcon. Faculty members present were: Misses Rappaport, Thorpe, Green, and Horton, and Mrs. Watkins.

Cap for Student Nurses Chosen

Unanimously accepted by both students and faculty was a student nurse cap designed by Miss Emma Marie Hebert of the Shreveport Division of the Department of Nursing for the Northwestern State College student nurses to wear. Capping Exercises for the Shreveport Division has been scheduled for December 2, 1950, at 7:30 p.m. at the Louisiana State Exhibit building.

Pres. and Mrs. H. L. Prather to Be Feted at Silver Tea Sun. Afternoon

A silver tea will be given Sunday honoring the new president, H. L. Prather, and Mrs. Prather in the Blue Room of the Fine Arts Building beginning at four o'clock. Mrs. Cora Turpin Carver is assisted by the Natchitoches Beautification Foundation in sponsoring the tea.

Members of Kappa Phi, the fine arts organization will welcome their guests and friends at the outer entrance of the Blue Room.

All members of the faculty and student body are invited to greet the president and his wife at the tea.

TWO FORMER NSC STUDENTS TO WED IN NOVEMBER

November 22 will be an important day to Juanita Nugent, sister of Peggy Mathison, and William Brown of Dry Prong. These two former NSC students will be married on that day in Camden, Arkansas.

William was a member of Phi Kappa Nu Fraternity. He received his degree in forestry from LSU.

The couple, after their honeymoon will make their home in Alexandria.

SQUARE DANCE THURSDAY NIGHT IS BIG SUCCESS

Full skirts and peasant blouses were the style Thursday night for the square dance in the women's gym.

J. R. Akins called while everyone there whirled about to a merry tune. Congratulations go to the square dance sponsors for such fine entertainment!

Pi Chapter Holds Annual Meet Thur.

Pi chapter of Iota Lambda Sigma, professional Industrial Arts fraternity, held its annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers, Thursday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

The following officers were elected: M. B. Dunn, president; Leon Basco, vice-president; Burt Boone, secretary-treasurer.

A committee, composed of Burt Boone, Melvin Shaw, and Joe Varice, was appointed to check on the eligibility of prospective members.

Dr. Robinson and Mr. Hays were appointed to represent the chapter at the annual meeting in Miami, Florida.

ANNA ROSE SMITH TO WED LOUIS FARMER IN NOVEMBER

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Anna Rose Smith to Louis Farmer is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith, of Shreveport. The wedding will be November 22 at seven p.m., at Parkview Baptist Church.

The bride-elect has chosen Mrs. Lory L. Smith, Jr., of Austin, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Diane Davis, Miss Rebecca Jane Gray, Miss Annette Titone and Mrs. E. N. Norton.

Jerry O. Price will be best man. Ushers will be Shelton A. Farmer, Sam M. Farmer, brothers of the prospective bridegroom, Joe Sterkx and Firal Lee Ryder, of Alexandria.

Louis has attended NSC since 1947. He is a member of Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity. Most of us have seen him in purple and white leading yells with the cheerleaders for three years. Last year he served as sports editor of the Current Sauce. He will graduate in February, 1951.

The couple will be at home in Shreveport.

Weeks, received a letter from Corville regarding a patient afflicted with Hans Disease that DSE befriended. Every Christmas and on other occasions the girls send a little old lady a gift.

Jackie Gunn also wrote a long, newsy letter telling about the farm she and Mickey now have.

Attention, all girls' dormitories! Meat pies will be sold on Monday night as a sorority sponsored project. Now you won't have to starve along about ten o'clock. Look for the DSE.

Congratulations to Myrtle Ann Babin, Pat Marmande, Julia McBroom, and Marie Tilleux for being maids in the court of the game with Tech last Saturday.

The rush committees gave their reports at the meeting, and all is ready for action—a little work, that is.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

It has been a busy week for all the A. S. A's. A lot of hard work is being done toward the coming rush parties.

With Homecoming just around the corner, there is also a lot of work to be done on the float.

The A.S.A.'s were happy indeed that their president, Dot Olivier, was selected to represent Northwestern as queen of the State Fair in Shreveport this past week-end.

The State Fair was a reunion for the A.S.A.'s. Among the alumnae there, were Marilyn Finley, Audrey Smith, Dot Tullos, Barbara Smith, Margie Barnette, Yvonne Dale, Mary Jewel Johnston, and Dee Goetz.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Pi Kaps held their weekly meeting Tuesday at 6:00 at the sorority house and discussed plans and worked on the rush parties and Homecoming Float.

This active meeting was attended for the first time by Bobby Platt and Emma Ruth "Priss"

Smith who were initiated last Thursday evening. Congratulations! Immediately after the initiation ceremony the sorority, as a body attended the giant pep rally broadcast and the burning of the bulldog.

The Pi Kaps are holding a rummage sale up-town all day Saturday.

Miss Harper told the sorority of plans she had made for Halloween; a "bang-up" party at her home on Tuesday night.

Volley ball is still in full swing and the Pi Kaps never give up although they have no wins to their credit as yet.

Word has been received from Mrs. Ruth Neidig, our national inspector, which reports that she will honor Alpha Delta Chapter, of Pi Kappa Sigma, here at Northwestern by her presence sometime early in December. The purpose of her visit is for national inspection. Mrs. Neidig was once president of the Grand Council of Pi Kappa Sigma. We are looking forward to her visit.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The scheduled volleyball game between the Tri Sigmas and the Alpha Sigs which was to be played last Monday night has been called off until next Monday, October 30. The Tri Sigs have been practicing for the game and it promises to be packed full of excitement.

At the weekly meeting plans were discussed about the forthcoming informal and formal rush parties which should prove to be very successful.

Also a theme was decided upon for the float in the annual Homecoming parade. Just wait until you see that!

After the meeting the Sigmas had a song session which was enjoyed by all.

Demons Prepped for Hammond Tilt; Ropp and Keaton on Injured List

Natchitoches, Oct. 26 — Northwestern State College's once-defeated Demons wound up the week's hard drills here today and went through a light play scrimmage in preparation for their Saturday contest with Southeastern Louisiana College in Hammond.

With only two men, Tackle Buster Keaton and Fullback John Ropp, on the injured roster, the Demons are in fair physical shape. Keaton is the biggest man on the squad and fills up an important hole in the line. Ropp is the best downfield blocker on the team.

Ropp seems destined to play little or no college football. He is a graduate of the hot-shot Natchitoches High School team of 1948. This is the third season he has been unable to play because of injuries.

The Demons fell before their tradition foes, the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs, in Shreveport Saturday in their second conference game and first loop defeat. They held four lop-sided wins over non-conference teams.

Northwestern supporters' bubbles were burst in Shreveport Saturday. Their dream of the best NSC team since 1939 was rudely interrupted by the Tech offense. Since competition in the Gulf States Conference is stiffer this season than ever before, they can see a slim chance of capturing the title.

Quarterback Johnny Emmons has recovered from an attack of the flu and should be in top form for the Lions of Southeastern. Eldred "Red" Harp, halfback, and James "Pete" Beck, fullback, leading ground gainers for the Demons, are in fine shape.

All-conference tackle candidate Jack Huckaby, Ends George Pharis and William Calvert, along with linesmen Tyrus Sibley, Merrick Young, Smoky Smith, Lloyd and Don Danos, are ready and should start against the Lions Saturday.

One Fan's Breeze

There hasn't been much "breeze" in the last week since the Demons' loss to the Bulldogs of Tech. There seems to be several answers to the question of what happened put forth by the "street-corner quarterbacks." You may take your choice.

It is the opinion of your writer that it wasn't poor coaching or poor playing, but rather the unfortunate fact of meeting a team which was "up." The Demons are the best of the two teams, as every record will show, but they just didn't have it Saturday. Maybe Tech was rebounding after the beating administered them by Xavier and the Demons due for a slump after playing superb ball in four previous encounters. The worse thing that can happen is for student supporters to lose faith in the boys. They are doing a great job and will continue to do so if given the support of the students.

Ben Franklin on Peace

At length we are in peace, God be praised, and long, very long, may it continue. All wars are follies, very expensive and very mischievous ones. When will mankind be convinced of this, and agree to settle their differences by arbitration?

Intramural Notes

Intramural activities here at NSC had a full slate this week with touch football going into a stretch drive, the approach of league volleyball, and the patronizing of "Sports Night."

Regular season play in touch football will end November 2 when championship playoffs will commence. The deadline for entries in intramural volleyball is November 1, and play will begin November 6.

The first "Sports Night" was postponed indefinitely because of a conflict with the square dance.

An intramural council meeting was held Tuesday night and several measures were acted upon, including a rule allowing touch football teams to add three additional players to their roster, which was unanimously passed.

In touch football play, three teams backed into victories the easy way, as a result of forfeits. West Barracks forfeited their game to Lambda Zeta, the Cream Puffs also advanced on forfeit over West Barracks, and Phi Kappa Nu won over the Frames by forfeit.

The only game actually played in the American League saw Lambda Zeta edge Brick Shack, 20-18 in a battle for second place. The Cream Puffs retained the lead as a result of their win on forfeit.

In the National League the Mongrels trounced the Frames, 26-0, and Sigma Tau in turn beat the Mongrels 32-0.

STANDINGS

"OFFSIDES"

G. S. C. CHATTER . . .

A new team rests atop the GSC this week—Louisiana Tech, after beating the Demons 15-7, moved into first position. The Demons are in a four-way tie for second with Louisiana College, S.L.I., and Mississippi Southern. Southeastern, despite the fact that they tumbled Mississippi Southern 7-0 are in the league cellar. Other results last week were: Louisiana College fell before a strong Lamar Tech in Beaumont, 15-7.

This week-end finds the Demons going south to compete with Southeastern. Possibly the top game in the GSC is the Louisiana College, Louisiana Tech encounter in Ruston. Mississippi Southern will entertain Chattanooga in Mobile, and S.L.I. is at home to Stephen F. Austin.

Ky. Hoop Mentor 1950 Coach of Year; Named 'Man in Brown Suit' by Scribes

"The Man In The Brown Suit" sounds like the title for a good mystery thriller and might very well be if it were not for Adolph Rupp, University of Kentucky's affable wizard of hardwood magic.

Colorful as he is successful, Kentucky's head cage mentor long ago was tagged with the descriptive title by sportswriters of the nation because of his preference of brown as a game-night wardrobe and thus forestalled any cloak-and-dagger novelist from becoming famous with the title.

The 1950 "Coach of the Year," who will be in Natchitoches, Louisiana on November 2nd and 3rd, to take part in the Basketball Coaching School sponsored jointly by the Physical Education Majors Club of Northwestern State College and the N.A.I.B. is known to the basketball world by a variety of other titles, such as "Mr. Basketball," "Baron," "Colonel," "The Baron of Basketball," and "Ol' Rupp and Ready"—but none adequately describes the human interest of the man who has done more than any other modern tutor to make the cage game a national spectator sport.

Beginning his 21st year at the Bluegrass school, Baron Rupp can look back over a two-decade reign of unparalleled success—an amazing record of 410 wins against 77 losses in 20 seasons coaching Kentucky basketball.

Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats can boast an unequalled record of 71 victories against 15 defeats in major tournament competition over the past 20 years, including participation in 14 national classics. The Bluegrass cagers were the first team in the history of the Naismith sport to win two NCAA and one National Invitation Crowns. Coach Rupp and his "Fabulous Five" (Groza, Beard, Baker, Jones and Rollins) represented the United States as a unit on the American basketball entry at the 1948 Olympic Games in London.

For the re-building job he accomplished on the sophomore-studded 1949-50 Wildcats (25-5), weakened beyond repair (everyone thought) by the loss of four great stars, the New York Basketball Writers Association named Rupp "Coach of the Year." In 1944 he won the highest individual coaching honor in the basketball world election to the basketball Hall of Fame sponsored by Helms Foundation. Rupp was the tenth coach in the history of the sport to be so honored by the quasi-official California organization, which in 1949 selected him as Coach of the year for the second season in a row and designated the Wildcats as national champions for the third time—an honor given no other collegiate quintet.

Just for the record, Coach Rupp is a native of Halstead, Kansas, where he captained the school cage team. Later, at Kansas University, he played under the tutelage of Dr. Forrest (Phog) Allen, a noted basketball mentor. As a high school coach at Freeport, Illinois, his teams won 71 out of 82 games prior to his entry on the Kentucky scene in 1930.

Short Notes

Ken Konz, LSU's halfback, who also plays every other position, was chosen "Player of the Week" in the Southeastern Conference. Konz was a product of 6-man football. Jerry Marchand of Baton Rouge is another Louisiana boy making good at Notre Dame. James Hooper will be playing before many friends in Saturday's game in Hammond. He's from Baton Rouge High.

Although beaten on several occasions, Southeastern has a tough defense. Look at those close scores. It won't be any picnic, but the Demons can win.

Did you know that we now have an "Old Beanpot" football game. It'll be played Saturday between Syracuse and Boston U. in Boston. The "Beanpot" trophy weighs 100 pounds.

There are only 52 undefeated and untied football teams in the nation as of today.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

All French majors or minors, as well as all persons interested in the French culture, are invited to attend the meetings of Le Cercle Francais, newly organized group.

The club existed some years ago on the campus and, under the leadership of French Professor Eve Mouton, became a large and active group.

The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in the French language, the French culture, and, in general, all aspects of life as Frenchmen live it.

At the first meeting of the group, held Thursday night in Caldwell Hall, a film and lantern slides depicting the scenic beauties of Paris were shown. Other activities included conversation and singing in French.

Meetings are held monthly in Caldwell Hall. Notices will be posted.

English Council to Discuss Teaching of English in 1950

"Teaching English in 1950" is to be the subject of Dr. Lou LaBrant's talk when elementary, high school, and college teachers of the language arts meet at Louisiana Tech on Saturday, October 28, at the invitation of the Louisiana Council of Teachers of English.

The program for Saturday will open with registration of teachers at Howard Hall on the Tech campus at nine o'clock. There will be two sessions, at the second of which Dr. LaBrant will answer pertinent questions from teachers and administrators. It will close with a luncheon at the Ruston High School Cafeteria at noon.

The English and Education Departments of Louisiana Tech are co-operating with the Council in making the meeting available to all teachers of the language arts, according to Miss Clio Allen, president of the Council.

New Books

New books in the Library this week include the following:

There Is No Armour, by Spring. An imaginative novel about an artist.

Autobiography of Will Rogers, edited by Day. A book containing sensible answers to social problems is Manners for Moderns by Scott.

The Damsel Debonaire, a tale of love and adventure in Ireland, by Walsh.

I Choose Justice is a scathing indictment of the Kremlin, written by Victor Kravchenko.

Square Dance Club Formed on Campus

Grab your partner! Dossi-Dos! These will soon be familiar words to those NSC students who are planning to join the newly organized square dance group sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association.

It is the purpose of this group to further an interest in square dancing on the NSC campus.

Officers will be elected, a name will be selected, and plans will be made for the coming year at one of the first meetings. Meetings will be held at least once a week, and the president will serve on the WRA Council.

The group will be financially supported by the square dance fund which was collected by the square dance camp held on this campus during the past summer.

Any students interested in joining this group, please leave your name with one of the instructors in the women's gym.

NOVEMBER 4, 1950

Miss S. E. Russell and S. J. Sibley To Be Honored at Dedication Nov. 18

The Northwestern State College Library will be dedicated, Saturday, November 18, to the late Miss Scharlie E. Russell, librarian for thirty years from 1910 to 1940, who devoted her talents and energies to improving the library facilities.

During her administration, the library collection increased from 5,000 volumes to more than 40,000, and the new three-story building was erected.

A campus drive lined with avenues of pines will be dedicated to the memory of Sam J. Sibley, purchasing agent and business manager from 1920 to 1947, who was responsible for the planting of the trees which beautify the campus.

President Emeritus V. L. Roy, of

Baton Rouge, president of Northwestern from 1910 to 1928, will give the dedicatory address. A marker of native stone, bearing a bronze plaque, will be placed in the triangle across from the Fine Arts Building near the drive.

ALUMNI TO ELECT OFFICERS AT HOMECOMING LUNCHEON

Officers of the Alumni Association of Northwestern State College will be elected at a luncheon-meeting in the College Dining Hall at the Fall Homecoming, Saturday, November 18. Admission will be by ticket. Reservations for the luncheon must be made not later than November 10. They can be obtained at the office of Leroy S. Miller, secretary-treasurer of the association.

Deadline for Entries Is Nov. 16 Float Contest Rules Announced;

Attention, campus organizations: Do you want to win some prize money—$50.00 or $5.00? Then follow closely what you are about to read. Start to work on your idea of a float for the Homecoming Parade. All entries, eligible for the prize money, must be in by Thursday, November 16, according to Mr. Bert Boyd. Each organization must arrange for their own truck, or method of transportation, and Mr. Boyd suggests that they do so immediately.

The prizes will be:

First place.....	$50.00
Second place.....	$35.00
Third place.....	$25.00
Fourth place.....	$10.00
Fifth place.....	$ 5.00

Prize money is obtained from the local organizations, such as

Dietitians Scarce In Labor Market

The number of trained professional dietitians in the labor market today is too small to meet the demand in this field.

This shortage is largely due to marriage, according to Bureau of Labor Statistics and the American Dietetic Association. A large percentage of dietitians work in this field only a few years and then leave because of marriage and family responsibilities.

This loss must be constantly overcome by regularly training new students in the field of Dietetics. The Home Economics course is the only college course which prepares students to be dietitians.

Authority on Far East to Speak At Assembly in FA Auditorium

Dr. No-Yong Park, writer-lecturer and a recognized authority on Oriental questions, will speak on the Korean situation and related affairs at an assembly in the Northwestern State College Fine Arts auditorium at 10 a.m. Monday, Nov. 6, under the auspices of the college assembly committee, headed by Dr. John S. Kyser, head of the department of social sciences.

Combined with his Oriental background and Occidental training, Dr. Park has a gift of expression and keen sense of humor which make him an outstanding speaker and writer. His travels through Asia, often as guest of government dignitaries, have given him a keen insight into life in the Far East.

Born and reared in Manchuria, Dr. Park studied in China and Japan, and later in Europe and America. He has an M.A. and Ph.D. from Harvard University, and for more than a decade has been a lecturer on Far Eastern

Centenary Is Host To Student Group

The annual fall convention of the Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities was held this week-end at Centenary College in Shreveport, on Friday and Saturday. Registration for all delegates started Friday, November 3, at 3:30 p.m. An executive meeting was held Friday, at 2 p.m., prior to the convention.

The purpose of this convention is to set up a tentative agenda for the coming year.

Northwestern delegates attending were: Miss Eve Mouton and William Havard, faculty representatives; Luke Petrovich, Chuck Castaing, Dollie Smith, Zona Morris, Kenneth Isgitt, Don Jones, Ronald Quint, Dot Taylor Sibley, Beryl DeLoach, Leland Langridge, Don Williford, Gene Flores, and Tom McCaughn.

Representatives were divided into three groups, consisting of three delegates, three alternates, and observers. They were honored at a banquet on Friday, at 5 p.m.

Transportation for the group was furnished in the college station wagon, and the cars of the faculty representatives.

The convention ends today at 3 p.m.

Call Me 'Coach' Says NSC Prexy At Goodwill Supper Tuesday Night

"I want to be called Coach," President H. Lee Prather told a gathering of local businessmen and the Northwestern State College coaches and football squad here Tuesday night.

The college prexy was making a short talk at a barbecue supper arranged by the College Football Program Committee to honor the squad and let the local Demon supporters get to know the players.

"Coach" Prather was introduced by Sylvan Nelken, Chairman of the College's Athletic Committee. R. S. Fly acted as master of ceremonies. Mr. Prather stressed the good relations existing between college and town, and extended a promise that he would do everything to reciprocate the goodwill shown by the supper.

Each businessman present was host to one or more players, and after supper introduced himself and his guest to the crowd.

Miss Mittie Lancaster Will Reign As Homecoming Queen November 18

Reigning over the 1950 Homecoming will be Miss Mittie Lancaster, a freshman from Ferriday. With her will be Miss Sara Jane Wadsworth, a senior education major from Bastrop; Miss Joyce O'Brien, a senior home economics major from Vinton; Miss Quincy Lincecum, a junior physical education major from Bossier City; Miss Hazel Brannon, a junior physical education major from Bunkie.

Miss Bobbye Hornsby, a freshman business administration major from Bossier City; Miss Verna Ellen Roberson, a freshman nursing student from Bossier; Miss Janice Ward, a freshman nursing student from Minden; Miss Juanita Sanford, a freshman secretarial science major from Homer, and Miss Louise Sheppard, a junior education major from Hodge. The Queen and her court will be presented, November 18, in pre-game ceremonies at 2 p.m., at Demon Stadium.

In charge of the Homecoming parade arrangements are A. L. Ducournau, professor of chemistry and Bert B. Boyd, assistant professor of physics.

School Spirit

It is highly encouraging to witness the great increase in school spirit so much in evidence this fall.

The support accorded the Demon eleven at all games—winning or losing—is especially noticeable and gratifying. Rarely in the past has the interest accorded the football squad been equaled. The large turnouts for both home and out-of-town games is perhaps one of the best indications.

Alumni and others connected with the college have observed that even the pep rallies have boasted the greatest and most enthusiastic crowds in many years.

Other examples point to this rejuvenation of school spirit—the sincere approval the students have accorded the appointment of H. Lee Prather as president, their willingness to co-operate.

Our school is recuperating from the nearly fatal blows dealt it last year. Keeping pace with this reconstruction is the student body. The students have a right to be proud of Northwestern in all fields and it is good to see the great school spirit reflecting that pride.

Natchitoches Orchestra to Open Youth Concert Season Wednesday

The first youth concert of the season will be presented by the Natchitoches Orchestra, conducted by Val Hill, at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 8, in the Fine Arts Auditorium of Northwestern State College.

The Natchitoches Branch of the American Association of University Women sponsors two youth concerts each year for the students of Natchitoches High School, Warren Easton, and St. Mary's Academy. Mrs. Vestal M. Mouser is president and Mrs. Jewel B. Jones is education chairman of the Natchitoches Branch of the A. A. U. W.

The program includes: "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor," Bach; Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony"; "Because" from "Jocelyn," Godard; "Moods Americana," Hummel; "Elsa's Procession" from "Lohengrin," Wagner; "Aria," Tenaglia.

A rendition of Mozart's "Rondo" will feature the string orchestra. The second half of the concert consists of: "Valse Triste," Sibelius; "Lady of Spain," Evans; "Jazz Pizzicato," Anderson; "Tin Soldiers," Pierne; and "I Got Plenty o' Nuttin'," by George Gershwin.

Other appearances of the Natchitoches Orchestra this year are scheduled for the Northwestern State College assembly 10 a.m., Nov. 15, in the Fine Arts Auditorium, and concerts at 2 and 7:30 p.m., Nov. 16, at DeRidder.

Women Medicos

Women graduates in medicine in the United States in 1949 totaled 612, or more than 12 per cent of all graduates compared with two and one-half per cent in 1910.

Views of The News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

The highlight in the news this week is the revolution in Puerto Rico and its far reaching effect. A significant event which has been connected to the controversy in Puerto Rico was the attempted assassination of President Truman. Some have expressed the opinion that the action was that of neurotic men executing the plans of another force. Some seem to believe the action only a stunt of publicity-mad men. At any rate the incident is receiving disproportionate emphasis—it is overshadowing the real conflict in Puerto Rico.

The fight there has much more significance than most people are ready to admit at first thought. It is the result of a group seeking complete independence and freedom as a sovereignty. Perhaps, under the circumstances, these people are not justified in their attempt to reject the party in control. However, before we pass judgment on these people, we should analyze their problem and ascertain whether it is any different from similar cases on which we have passed a decision.

It seems upon close examination that the United States has been rather inconsistent in her policy toward protectorates. Of course, different circumstances often necessitate different actions. Giving complete independence to the Philippines was probably a very wise choice. Striving for a union of Western Europe is probably a very wise choice. I have no argument on these points. But it does seem "still-yet" that a group of persons in a state has a right to seek independence. Granted that the means—physical revolution—in Puerto Rico is unethical, when we fail to recognize the right of a people to decide its fate, we have lost a fundamental principle of democracy.

Another important international news item this week is the advance of Red China troops into Tibet. This, it seems, is only another step in the confessed purpose of the Communists to spread their influence throughout the East. It is really a challenge to the U. N. and its ability to secure peace in the world. It is a challenge to the United States in both theory and fact.

Are we to take a definite attitude now that the Community spirit and American ideology are incompatible? Are we to take a positive military program now and resist physically this and any further Communist expansion? Possibly the action in Tibet is only strategy to aid the Red cause in Korea. However, it is stimulus enough to cause deep concern by U. S. citizens for our future foreign policy.

Luke Petrovich Speaks Before Lions Club

"During elementary education is the time to interest people in becoming educated," stated Luke Petrovich in a talk before the members of the Lions club at their regular Monday luncheon meeting in the Blue Room of the Nakatosh Hotel.

Petrovich, a senior and president of the student body at Northwestern State College, spoke to the civic group on what is to make good citizens for this state and for the United States. He told the Lions that the lack of interest shown in education is due to the fact that many learn too late the necessity of becoming educated.

Mrs. C. L. Planchard was guest of honor. She and Lion Planchard celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary.

Lion Bridges reported on the meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce last week to discuss the Service League sponsored Natchitoches Clean-Up Week, November 13-17.

Teachers Attend Language Meeting

The Louisiana Council of Teachers of English sponsored a meeting of elementary, high school and college teachers of the language arts at Louisiana Tech on Saturday, October 28.

The program opened with the welcome by Mr. Ropp, president of Tech, followed by a brief talk by Dr. Hughes, of the Tech language department. Dr. Lou LaBrant spoke at the first morning session, using as the subject of her talk, "Teaching English in 1950."

After the first morning session, the entire group was entertained by Mrs. Ropp at her home.

At the luncheon, Miss Blanche Trezcap, State Supervisor of English for the past ten years, was honored, and Miss Marguerite Teer addressed the group.

Mr. A. G. Alexander, head of the language department at Northwestern, Miss Clio Allen, president of the Council, and Miss Mary Robson of the Natchitoches High School attended the meeting.

Varnado Has Halloween Party

One would have thought Varnado Hall was haunted Tuesday night from ten til eleven thirty. Spooks and an extra special witch, namely, Linda Mason in disguise, brought forth the real Halloween spirit.

A highlight of the party was the reading of a spooky story by Miss Mamie Bowman. Delores Sutherland and Delores Abraham, Carolyn Fultz, Carolyn McLean, and Blanche Morrow, and Dottie Jo Cromwell provided musical entertainment.

The ghosts served the food and everyone sang. Thanks to the Varnado Council for so much fun!

Dancing and More Dancing

There's dancing in the air! Every Wednesday night in the Student Center there'll be dancing for 15c. It's for a good cause. We want a name band. So let's do our part. Just dance!

Pinned

That little old man is at it again! Lorraine Vaughn is now wearing a Phi Kappa Nu frat pin that belongs to Leland Langridge.

Jackie Gamble, much to everyone's surprise, has been married since September 29 to the former Miss Doris Jean Reed of Minden. Congratulations, Jackie and the best of luck to the new bride.

Alpha Psi Omega

Members of Alpha Psi Omega, honorary speech fraternity, were hosts at a party given Thursday, September 26, for all freshmen interested in extra-curricular speech activities.

The program was opened with a welcoming speech by Jimmy Johnson, president of Alpha Psi. Mr. W. S. Smith, director of forensics, gave a short talk on Opportunities in Extra-Curricular Speech Activities, followed by Miss Irma Stockwell, who talked on Speech Correction and Drama.

"Resolved: That men are more intellectual than women" was the subject of a debate between Misses Louise Burns and Beth Hargrove vs. Jimmy Johnson and E. G. Smith, with the girls taking the affirmative. Lovell Vaughn showed the group some colored slides of previous dramatic productions.

After a brief talk by Mr. Don Carr, head of the speech department, the group was taken on a tour of the workshop and shown other facilities of the speech and drama departments. They were taken then, to hear a "live" broadcast given in the Fine Arts building by remote control to Station KWJC.

Miss Stockwell, sponsor of Alpha Psi Omega, acted as hostess at a Russian Tea which followed the broadcast, assisted by other members of the faculty and members of Alpha Psi.

BSU Halloween Party

A Halloween party, sponsored by the Baptist-Methodist executive councils, was given in the Religious Center, Friday night, October 27, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

After enjoying outdoor games and relay races, the 150 students were taken on a "Trip Through Hades." The guests, after having their fortunes told, were served refreshments of Halloween cookies and orange punch. Several skits and floorshows were presented, in which numerous students participated.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The Alpha Sigs are working like mad to get the sorority house in tip-top shape for the rush parties which will be taking place in the very near future. The most important thing being done to the house is sanding and waxing the floors. We are also redecorating our powder room.

The ASA's still have a lot of hard work to do on the rush parties, but plans are shaping up nicely.

We have started working on our Homecoming float. With mid-semester, rush week, and Homecoming just around the bend, everyone is busy.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

"The Goblins Will Get You if You Don't Watch Out!" Yes, the Pi Kaps were guests at a big Halloween party given them by Miss Jean Harper, co-sponsor of the sorority. The party was on the lawn of Miss Harper's place and was very effectively decorated with jack-o-lanterns, Japanese lanterns and other spooky little details. A huge bon-fire was in the center for weiner roasting and various contests consisted of an apple eating, peanut hunt and hat decoration. Finally the girls retreated inside to settle down for canasta or bridge and listened to some records. Each was given a small "crawling snake" as a favor, on leaving.

The regular meeting was held just before the party and all seems to be going well for the rush parties and float.

The rummage sale was a big success and another one is scheduled for this Saturday.

The Pi Kaps have a win to their credit in the volleyball tournament. They defeated Carondelet 26-24 on Monday night.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

The Theta Sigs are putting finishing touches on everything for the rush parties.

If you see a group of girls Sunday with bags under their eyes, you may be sure that they are Theta Sigs 'cause Saturday night Miss Glenna Williams, our patroness, is giving a big ole slumber party. The Theta Sigs are all looking forward to this with anticipation.

You never know what will turn up next. Tuesday night a witch visited Varnado Halloween Party and lo and behold if it wasn't Theta Sig's own Linda Mason. You were wonderful, Linda.

Theta Sigs had news from Frances Johnson Britt and Nell Denham Hammons. Seems as though they are enjoying keeping house. They send big hellos to everyone.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

"What did you do for your soul today?" began Chaplain JoAnn DeBate at the meeting Tuesday. It's a wonderful gem of thought to toy with at the end of the day.

A box of candy made the rounds again. It was for the pinning of Lorraine Vaughn and Leland Langridge, Phi Kap. The event happened just after the square dance the previous Thursday.

White sweaters have been ordered for the girls. In about three weeks, Delta Sigs should blossom out in their white.

Congratulations to Marie Tilleux and Joyce Rambin. Marie was elected vice-president, and Joyce was elected secretary-treasurer of the Northwestern State College Student Senate.

Mac Schoonover and Dokey Abraham are two of a group of singers who will sing on the local radio station Wednesday evenings. They sing popular and semi-classical selections.

Plans were made and committees appointed to clean the sorority room for the rush party next week, so it'll be spic an' span.

Committees reported and meetings were arranged for the weekend to make way for rushing. The time has come!

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS PLANS SECOND MEETING

Le Cercle Francais, recently organized French Club, will hold its second monthly meeting Thursday, Nov. 9, in Room C14 in Caldwell Hall.

Plans for future meetings will be discussed. A short social session will follow, including conversation and singing in French.

At the last meeting, tentative plans were made for several parties in the near future.

Coach and Mrs. H. Lee Prather Honored at Silver Tea Sunday

A silver tea honoring President Prather was given in the Blue Room last Sunday evening by the Natchitoches Beautification Foundation assisted by Kappa Phi, the fine arts club.

President and Mrs. Prather stood in the receiving line with Mrs. George Sutton, Miss Carmen Breazeale, Miss Miriam Carver, Dr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nesom, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Alcott alternating.

Dr. and Mrs. R. U. Parrott attended from out of town. Mrs. Parrott, who is Mrs. Olive Cooper's niece, sang several semi-classical selections accompanied by Mrs. Hayden of Natchitoches. Also from Pineville was Dr. Long, Mrs. Cooper's brother.

Mrs. G. H. Pierson, Mrs. Violet Winslow, Mrs. Perle David, Mrs. Maud Henry, Mrs. Sam Hill, and Mrs. Arthur Watson alternated pouring.

Hostesses were Mrs. Terry Stroud, Sr., Mrs. G. F. Thomas, Mrs. Guy Shehane, Mrs. A. L. Ducournau, Mrs. Olive Cooper, Mrs. A. G. Lawton, and Mrs. M. H. Carver.

Marie Tilleux, Betty Hawkins, Bebe Lawton, and Joyce Rambin assisted in serving.

Mrs. M. H. Phelps and Mrs. Morris Aaron played the piano. Those present began informal singing and sang a tribute to Mr. Prather.

Other out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frazier from Winnfield. The Frazier Machine Works made the iron chair which will adorn the river front in Natchitoches.

This tea was the first money-raising project for the beautification of Natchitoches by the Natchitoches Beautification Foundation.

SMOKER HELD TUESDAY BY SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Sigma Tau Gamma held its first smoker of the year at the College Wells last Tuesday evening.

More than 15 rushees were present. Transportation was provided, and cokes, cigars, and cigarettes were served.

Professor Robert Easley, Sigma Tau's faculty adviser, spoke on fraternity life at Northwestern. President Snap Oakes later introduced members and pledges to the rushees.

As an added highlight, movies of the Tech vs. NSC game were shown.

Initiation for Harry "Buck" Anderson, Ed Watkins, and Ray Mayeaux will be November 18, and they may be seen wearing rather heavy beards until their initiation is over.

Turpin Preps NSC Squad for Game Tonight Against Miss. Southern

Coach Harry Turpin's Demon football team wound up drills here Tuesday in preparation for the Mississippi Southern game to be held here at 8 tonight. Although the contest is a conference tangle, it will have no important bearing on the loop standings.

The Demons will be without the services of flashy quarterback Johnny Emmons. He was hurt in the Southeastern fracas last week. Other than Emmons and big Buster Keaton, tackle, the Northwesternites are in good physical shape.

The Southerners, with their backfield star, Bubba Phillips, are heavy favorites. The Demons have never defeated Mississippi Southern since the formation of the Gulf States Conference.

After winning four straight early in the season, the Demons have since fallen before Louisiana Tech and Southeastern. Although they still look good on the statistics sheet, the Demons' won-lost tally is not very impressive. Southern will outweigh Northwestern both in the backfield and on the line. That fact, plus the experience the Southerners have, makes the scales hang heavy in their direction.

Following the Southern tilt, the Demons will engage Alabama State Teachers' College and then Southwestern Louisiana Institute.

Intramural Notes

The playoffs for intramural touch football will begin Monday, with plans calling for the first place team in the National League to meet the second place team in the American League. The American League winner will tangle with the National League runner-up. That would pit the Cream Puffs against Phi Kappa Nu, and Sigma Tau against Brick Shack.

Final Standings

Cream Puffs	5	1	.833

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Cream Puffs	5	1	.833
Brick Shack	3	2	.600
Lambda Zeta	2	2	.400
West Barracks	0	6	.000

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Sigma Tau Gamma	5	0	1.000
Phi Kappa Nu	3	2	.800
Mongrels	1	5	.166
Frames	1	5	.166

The entry deadline for volleyball has been postponed from November 1 to November 6. A date for "Sports Night," recently postponed, has not yet been arranged.

Statistics released by Coach Thomas, head man in intramural activities, giving intramural equipment and the number participating for the first month are as follows:

Equipment	No. Participating
37 basketballs	297
2 tennis balls	2
1 tennis racquet	2
1 ping pong ball	2
47 footballs (touch football)	711
4 paddle balls	4
1 soccer ball	20
Total:	1038

The total number includes 238 in intramural league play and 810 in non-league activities.

Equipment may be checked out from the intramural office from 2 to 5 p.m., on week days, and from 2 to 4 p.m. on week-ends.

Lumber Exports

While U.S. lumber exports in 1948 the world markets were one half the annual average of the previous five years, exports to Africa and Oceania increased by 50 per cent.

"OFFSIDES"

GSC CHATTER...

The Demons fell again last week-end, this time to a rejuvenated Southeastern Louisiana College eleven, by a score of 28-14. Louisiana College had a similar fate at the hands of Louisiana Tech by a tally of 21-9. Louisiana College led until late in the fourth quarter. Mississippi Southern dumped a strong Chattanooga eleven, 14-13 in Mobile. In the week's other game, SLI overcame a 13-0 deficit at halftime and bounced back to defeat Stephen F. Austin 20-13 in Lafayette.

In this week's action, we see the Demons at home against Mississippi Southern in hopes of breaking their short losing streak. Louisiana College will be trying a like procedure of four consecutive losses, when they tangle with a strong Memphis State team in Pineville. In the other conference tilt of the week, the SLI Bulldogs will be trying to stop the league kingpin, Louisiana Tech eleven, in Ruston. Southeastern has a tentative date with Pensacola Navy in Pensacola.

Defensive Standout

Senior Tackle Jack Huckaby, playing his last year for the Northwestern State Demons, has been a defensive standout for the college team all season. A candidate for all-conference honors, Huckaby has played in every game this season. He played particularly good ball against the Louisiana College Wildcats in Alexandria and helped hold the Southeastern Lions to a measly 82 yards in the game at Hammond. He is expected to see plenty of action in stopping Southern's steller back, "Bubber" Phillips.

One Fan's Breeze

After viewing the "murder" of our football team in Hammond last Saturday night, your writer was left speechless. It certainly appears that something is drastically wrong, and I am not of the opinion that it is the ball players. After all, it is the same team that won its first three games by overwhelming scores, chalking up 119 points to the opponents' 21. But is it the same team?

In the first three games, there were liberal substitutions, allowing each man to rest a bit at intervals during the game. There seems to have been a trend in the other direction in the last two games. In other words, seeing which could play the longest before collapsing from exhaustion.

I am not a coach, nor do I intend to be one, but I do know that when a person gets tired, he is not up to par, and as a consequence, can not be as alert as is necessary for playing heads-up ball. Or anything else for that matter.

I am not trying to tell our coaching staff how to run their team, but I can not help wondering why it is that some of the boys who played good ball in the first three games have not seen one minute of action in the last two which we lost by convincing scores. Why is it a man is allowed to continue to play when he is apparently having an "off" night? Why not let someone else who can play that position try it? And if he is better or worse, then no one can offer any criticism. No matter how good a person is, there always comes a time when he has an "off day." That is the case in every phase of life, sports, business, or what have you.

Southeastern scored 21 points in

Demons Drop Game to Lions 28-14; Second Half Proves Pitfall to NSC

Southeastern Louisiana college's Lion football team put a successful night cap on their homecoming last Saturday night, with a 28-14 triumph over the Demons of Northwestern State.

Two hitherto unheralded Lion backs pooled their talents to lead a surprising Southeastern offensive attack, which came from behind twice in the first half, and maintained the lead thereafter.

Hubert Polk, a yearling back, who had not made an impression so far this year, intercepted a pass by Demon Quarterback Johnny Emmons, and ran for a touchdown, besides turning in several sizzling punt run-backs which set the Demons back on their heels.

Riddle Boudreaux, who had taken a back seat at the fullback position so far this season, came through repeatedly with ripping runs through the center of the visiting line.

Emmons started the scoring with nine minutes left in the first stanza, putting the Demons ahead with a 43-yard run on a bootleg play around his own left end. Bobby Davis converted to make it 7-0.

that half, seven of which were set up by a punt return. Northwestern had hied on their three-yard line the previous set of downs, the ball being placed there by a 39 yard punt return. During the second half, the Demons began to kick out of bounds away from the safety man. Result, Southeastern scored 7 points.

These mistakes are attributed to the boys who are playing, but let's not put the blame on them. They need guidance from the bench, from where the development of plays can best be seen. So let's go out Saturday and really "holler" for those guys. They are doing a swell job. Let's not put all the blame on them for losing. It is not always their fault, you know.

The Lions struck back four minutes later after recovering a Demon fumble on the Demons' 32 yard line. The Lions rolled up 2 first downs on the way, with half-back Wilkins going over from the two. F. O. Chaney converted to tie the score.

A penalty for interfering with the pass receiver set up the second and final Demon tally. Emmons passed to Davis from the Lion 42 and interference was called on the two. Lancaster, went over, and Davis again converted.

The Lions made it 14-14 after Polk ran back an Emmons punt from the Demon 43 to the 14. Fullback Lou Campos went over from the nine, and Chaney tied it up.

Polk ran back and intercepted Emmons pass from the Demon 40, and Chaney converted to make halftime score read 21-14, Southeastern.

The final tally of the game was made by the Lions in the third canto, driving downfield from their own 41 after the opening kick-off, Boudreaux sparking the drive with repeated gains through the center of the Demon wall.

Campos went over standing up from the four, and Chaney made his fourth successful conversion to end the scoring.

The host team's brilliant offensive play did not overshadow its defensive record. They held the visitors to 113 yards on the ground and only 52 in the air. The Demons only completed three out of 13 attempted passes.

Emmons, Northwestern's leading offensive back was hurt late in the game when he was rolled into the Southeastern bench on an attempt around his right end.

Southeastern did not show too brilliantly in the statistics, although they did garner 28 points. The Lions only picked up 161 yards rushing and 63 passing, against a Demon defense led by Guards Don Danos and Sam Harper.

Johnson Elected Senate Prexy; Tilleux, Rambin Cop Other Posts

The Student Senate of Northwestern State College held its first meeting Tuesday, Oct. 31, in the Faculty Room of Caldwell Hall. Luke Petrovich presided as temporary chairman.

Nominations for president of the senate were in order, and Jimmy Johnson, Chuck Tillman, and Rudy Berlin were nominated. Jimmy Johnson was elected.

Marie Tilleux and Sonny Hoff were nominated for the vice-presidency; Marie Tilleux was elected.

Pat Cameron and Joyce Rambin were nominated for secretary-treasurer; Joyce Rambin was elected.

MINUTES OF THE SENATE MEETING

The motion was made, seconded and passed that "bi-monthly" in the constitution be interpreted to mean that the senate meet twice a month.

The dates, and time of future meetings were discussed, and the motion was made, seconded and passed that the senate meet at 7:45 every first and third Tuesday of each month.

The dances on Wednesday evenings were discussed concerning the part the senate would play in them. The Demonaires would receive 50 per cent of the proceeds, the nights they play, for a period of one month.

Demonette emblems were brought up for discussion, and the senate decided that the emblems were not under the jurisdiction of this body.

Amendments and procedures for passing such were made clear to the members.

No definite conclusion was made concerning the choosing of a faculty sponsor. Mr. Havard was chosen by the president to act as parliamentarian.

The finances, particularly the drama fund and the proceeds from coke machines were discussed.

Also elaborated upon was the fact that the AWS and the Honor Court have the final power of interpretation of the constitution.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Joyce Rambin, Sec'ty

FIRST MEETING MONDAY FOR SQUARE DANCE CLUB

The newly organized square dance club, under the auspices of WRA, will have its first scheduled meeting at 6 p.m., Monday, Nov. 6, at the Women's Gym.

Those who signed up for membership last week at the square dance will meet to discuss plans for formal organization of the club.

This club is open for membership to any student who wishes to be a member. Those who wish to join may leave their names with one of the instructors at the Women's Gym.

First All-College Dance Held Wed.

The first of a series of all-college dances was given with the Demonaires playing Wednesday evening in the Student Center to raise funds for a "name band."

The dance is to be a weekly affair, and when the Demonaires cannot be present on Wednesdays, the juke box will be tripped to provide music.

Part of the proceeds will go to the band when it plays to take care of music and equipment.

Boy and girl stags are invited as well as couples.

Annual Halloween Party at Varnado Is Colorful Event

Varnado Hall gave its traditional Halloween party, October 31, complete with jack-o-lanterns, ghosts, witches, and black cats.

The proper atmosphere was attained by witches' heads, pumpkins, and moss hung at vantage points in the large drawing room. While white-hooded figures flitted about, Miss Mamie Bowman read a spine-chilling ghost story, completing the traditional setting of Halloween.

Elizabeth Abraham, Mistress of Ceremonies, introduced each entertainer, as Linda Mason, a hump-backed, black-cloaked figure, stirred a bubbling caldron before the fire-place. Delores Sutherland and Delores Abraham sang "Good Old Mountain Dew," Carolyn Fultz, Carolyn McLean and Blanche Morrow sang "Cool Clear Water", followed by Dottie Cromwell, who gave her renditions of "St. Louis Blues," and "Memphis Mamie."

After many encores by the performers, refreshments were served to all those present.

Alumni to Meet At Open House In Varnado Hall

Open house and coffee will begin Homecoming's festivities when many alumni, visitors, faculty members and friends of the college meet from 9 to 11 a.m. in Varnado Hall on November 18.

On the committee in charge of the open house are: Miss Mamie Bowman, chairman, associate professor of English; Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, chairman of the women's division of health and physical education; and Mrs. Eola Porter Rooks, assistant professor of home economics; and Mrs. Ora Garland, assistant professor of library science.

Right Combination

With the addition of Bob Hope's new radio show for Chesterfield cigarettes on Tuesday nights over NBC, the famed ABC trio (Arthur, Bing and Como) became a quartette, as shown above. Hope's joining the combination made it the greatest lineup under one sponsorship in the history of radio and television. As heretofore, the friendly redhead is heard over CBS every weekday morning and seen on CBS-TV every Wednesday night. Wednesday night also remains Bing's night on radio, via CBS, and Perry Como has a brand new show on CBS-TV Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights.

Wins Attendance Award at Alex BSU Convention

At 4:00 on Friday afternoon, October 20, some 50 Northwestern students gathered in front of the Religious Center. Here they boarded buses which carried them to Alexandria for the Annual State Baptist Student Convention.

Upon arriving in Alexandria they were greeted at the Emmanuel Baptist Church by a welcoming committee from Louisiana College. Northwestern along with some 300 other representatives from Southwestern, Southeastern, Northeastern, Tech, Tulane, Newcomb, McNeese, Centenary and LSU were guests of Louisiana College for the week-end. Many students stayed in the Louisiana College dorms, some in the Baptist Hospital and Nurses Home and others with hospitable families in Alexandria and Pineville.

After general assembly on Friday night the students were entertained with an informal reception in the social room of the Emmanuel Baptist Church. On Saturday they heard many outstanding speakers including prominent business men, professors and scientists. One of the highlights of the program was a lecture, "God, Man, and the Atom," by Dr. Schweitzer, professor of Chemistry at the University of Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Schweitzer is one of the 120 scientists who worked on the "A" bomb and later on the "H" bomb. Later at the request of the students Dr. Schweitzer held discussion groups.

Northwestern easily won the award for the best attendance with a total of 55 representatives. LSU and Louisiana College tied for second place with 44 representatives each.

Six other states over the nation—Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee were also holding state wide BSU Conventions at the same time.

KDP Bids—

issued its bids for the fall semester.

The present officers of this organization are president, Clio Allen; vice-president, Mary Alice Driscoll; secretary, Evelyn Gandy; treasurer, Ann Montgomery; and historian, Patsy Jean Eason. Miss Mamie Bowman will serve as counselor again this year.

Those students who were issued bids are Mary Janette Abraham, Sammie Jean Banks, Eunice G. Eden, Jerry Fuller, Billie R. Greer, Dorothy Langridge, Mrs. Ramona C. Lawrence, Dudley Morrison, Dan W. Poole, Dollie M. Smith, Elva Sue Tucker, Doris Jane Wolcott, Geraldine Zabasky, Sallie Yvonne Harper, Louise E. Harris.

Students accepting bids will be initiated in December.

This book has been acclaimed by critics and educators—John Dewey, Charles A. Beard, Arthur N. Holcombe of Harvard, George H. Blakeslee of Clark University, the Book-of-the-Month Club, and many more.

While in college in America, Dr. Park won numerous essay and oratorical contests, including the International Essay Contest, open to all foreign students in American colleges; the Harris Political Science Prize, given to students of the leading universities in the Middle West; and the Pillsbury Oratorical Contest at the University of Minnesota, an English-language competition.

New Books

New books in the Library this week include the following: Kathie, the New Teacher. A romance for moderns, by Rosenheim.

Baron writes a story of the Normandy invasion entitled, From the City, From the Plow.

The Pollsters is a story of public opinion, politics and democratic leadership, written by Rogers.

The novel of a Confederate surgeon after the war is told by Slaughter in The Stubborn Heart. A collection of true crime stories is related in Stranger Than Fiction.

World Enough and Times is a tale of romance in Kentucky by Warren.

Howe writes The Circle of the Day, a novel of social life and marriage in New York City.

Forensic Club Sponsors Clinic For High School Debate Squads

Clio Allen, will have the affirmative.

"Resolved: That the American People Should Reject the Welfare State" is the topic of the fourth annual high school debate clinic scheduled at Northwestern today. At least 15 Louisiana high schools will be represented at the one-day meet.

Sponsored by the Northwestern State Forensic Club, the clinic presents an opportunity for high school students to gain some fundamental knowledge of the proposition and to participate in early season debating practice.

The program will begin with a general convocation at 8:45 a.m., in the Fine Arts Auditorium, with introductory greetings by William S. Smith, director of forensics; H. Lee Prather, president of Northwestern; Dr. C. E. Dugdale, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences; and A. G. Alexander, head of the department of languages.

Following introduction of visiting coaches, William Adams, acting instructor of social science, will speak on some aspects of the "welfare state."

In a college exhibition debate at 10:30 a.m., E. G. Smith and Julia McBroom will take the affirmative against Bobbye Hancock and Jimmy Johnson for the negative. Discussion will follow.

A high school exhibition debate will begin the afternoon's proceedings at 1 p.m., when the affirmative is taken by Byrd High School of Shreveport, directed by Roy V. Evans, against the negative of Warren Easton High School of New Orleans, directed by Ben Hanley.

Debaters from Neville High School of Monroe, coached by A. G. Alexander, Jr., will take the negative in a demonstration debate at 2:30. The Natchitoches High School team, coached by

At the same time, non-decision practice debates are planned. A general critique period, scheduled for 3:30 p.m., will bring the clinic to a close.

The following schools have filed entries for the meet: Cypress, St. Mary's, Castor, La Grange, St. Matthews, St. John's, Byrd, Calhoun, Neville, Lake Charles, Many, and Warren Easton.

The college has invited the high school debaters to be its guests at the football game between Northwestern State College and Mississippi Southern at 8 p.m., in the college stadium.

Euthenics Club Meets October 26

The Euthenics Club met Thursday, October 26, for their monthly business meeting. Jane Walcott, Grace Cooley, Evelyn Gandy and Mrs. Marie Dunn will represent the club at the Province Workshop to be held in Shreveport November 9-11.

The counting of a secret ballot voting showed that Rita Walters will be the new reporter for the club.

The topic which held the spotlight for a large part of the time was the discussion for the plans of this year's Homecoming float.

The girls who had attended the FHA meeting in Alexandria brought copies of new songs presented at this meeting and led the groups in a group singing.

After the appointment of committees for the Homecoming float, the meeting was adjourned.

Beta Beta Beta national honorary Biological Fraternity is now sponsoring a bi-monthly exhibit on some phase of biological science. This exhibit is situated in a display case in the hall on the second floor of the Science Building. The first of a series has already been on display for two weeks. It demonstrated the steps and technique in preparing a microscope slide.

The next display, which will be ready Monday, is on the subject of Embryology. It will feature some preserved human embryos and will include mounts of lizard, pig, and rabbit embryos. Slides of chicken embryos will be shown in the progressive stages of development. Highlighting the display will be a live chick embryo. The heart will be seen beating through a window in the egg shell.

The entire exhibit will be very interesting and informative. Every one is invited to come over to the Science Building and see it.

Northwestern Faculty to Honor New President and Staff Members

Townpeople invited to reception

The faculty and staff of Northwestern State College are giving a reception at Varnado Hall Tuesday evening, November 7, at 7:30 p.m., honoring President and Mrs. H. Lee Prather and new members of the faculty. Wives and husbands of faculty and staff members are included.

The townspeople are cordially invited to attend this reception.

CALDWELL GETS NEW COVER

Caldwell Hall will be sporting a complete new roof about the fifteenth of this month, according to Mr. Griffin Taylor, purchasing agent of Northwestern.

The contract for this new roof was signed by the H. S. Bain

Roofing and Sheetting Co., of Shreveport, on July 3, 1950, for $11,217. The new roof has a guarantee of twenty years.

Caldwell's old roof was laid in 1920, thirty years ago.

W.R.A. Sponsors Halloween Dance In Women's Gym

One of the more important activities on the Northwestern campus this past week was the big square dance held Thursday night in the Women's Gymnasium.

Mr. Joe Jolly, a well-known caller, conducted the dance which was sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association. A special feature on the program was a dance called by J. R. Akins and demonstrated by a group of college students. Another number was performed by four couples from the quadrill group, one of the older town groups.

Those who attended the party entered the gymnasium through a door designed as a huge pumpkin. Black and gold crepe paper streamers hung from the ceiling and gave an atmosphere of Halloween throughout the evening.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to all the guests.

Enjoy your cigarette! Enjoy truly fine tobacco that combines both perfect mildness and rich taste in one great cigarette - Lucky Strike!

Perfect mildness? You bet. Scientific tests, confirmed by three independent consulting laboratories, prove that Lucky Strike is milder than any other principal brand. Rich taste? Yes, the full, rich taste of truly fine tobacco.

Only fine tobacco gives you both real mildness and rich taste. And Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. So enjoy the happy blending that combines perfect mildness with a rich, true tobacco taste. Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Debate Clinic Held in Fine Arts Nov. 4; Is Sponsored by NSC Forensic Club

The speech department was host to sixteen high schools Saturday, November 4, in the fourth annual High School Debate Clinic held in the Fine Arts building. The clinic was under the administration of Coach William S. Smith and the Northwestern Forensic club.

Starting the program were words of welcome from Coach Smith, President H. Lee Prather, Dean C. E. Dugdale, Mr. A. G. Alexander, head of the language department, and Mr. Don Carr, head of the drama department. The students then heard an address entitled "The Welfare State" by Mr. William Adams of the social science department.

To complete the morning program four NSC students, E. G. Smith, Julia McBroom, Bobby Hancock, and Jimmy Johnson, gave an exhibition debate on the high school question, Resolved: That the American people should reject the welfare state.

The program for the afternoon consisted of an exhibition debate between Byrd and Warren Easton High Schools. Jimmy Johnson, forensic club president, then led the group in a general critique of the debate, after which the various teams were matched in practice debates.

Dr. J. B. Nash Will Speak at Meet Nov. 17

On Friday, November 17, Dr. J. B. Nash of New York University, noted authority on physical education, will speak at the Little Theatre. He will be the guest speaker of the NSC chapter of the American Association of University Professors' first meeting of the current year. All faculty members and students are invited to attend.

New Senate Heads

NEW OFFICERS OF STUDENT SENATE include (from left) Miss Joyce Rabin, Shreveport, secretary-treasurer; James Ray Johnson, Starks, Route 1, president, and Miss Marie Tilleux, Shreveport, vice-president. Johnson, a senior in speech and government, is a former member of the student Honor court and a four-year member of the varsity debate squad.

The clinic included teams from the following high schools: Byrd, Fair Park, St. John's, and St. Vincent's of Shreveport, Natchitoches High and St. Mary's of Natchitoches.

Lake Charles High and La Grange of Lake Charles, Warren Easton of New Orleans, Neville of Monroe, Many, Calhoun, Cypress, Shongaloo, and Castor of those towns, and Coach George W. Liskow of John McNeese State College, Lake Charles.

The day's activities ended with a final general assembly and an invitation to the high schools to attend the Mississippi Southern-Northwestern football game.

First Uniforms Issued Cadets On Thursday

The first uniforms were issued to NSC Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadets Thursday afternoon in the basement supply room in Caldwell Hall, according to Lieutenant Colonel James Bowman, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Measurements were taken for the uniforms shortly after activation of the ROTC unit at NSC this semester.

Both basic and advanced school cadets will receive their equipment by Tuesday. Due to necessary uniform alterations the unit will not be dressed in full uniforms at their weekly drill period Thursday at 4 p.m.

The unit will, however, state the PMS & T, be ready for dress-parade at Homecoming Day ceremonies.

SENIORS' NOTE

The deadline for ordering senior invitations is December 13, as announced by Mrs. Pauline Johnston of the bookstore.

Available in the bookstore are samples of the three types that may be ordered: leather, cardboard, or French folder style. The price of the invitations will be determined by the total number ordered by the college. No deposits are necessary.

Seniors desiring invitations are requested to place their orders with Mrs. Johnston in the bookstore as soon as possible.

Orchestra Concert Slated for Wed Assembly Program

The Northwestern State College Orchestra, directed by Val Hill, will present an hour concert at an assembly in the Fine Arts Auditorium at 10 a.m. Wednesday, November 15.

The orchestra has appeared this season in a youth concert in the auditorium on November 8 and is scheduled for two performances at DeRidder at 2 and 7:30 p.m. on November 16.

The program for the assembly includes: "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor," by Bach; Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony"; "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn," Godard; "Moods Americana," Humel; "Elsa's Procession," Wagner; "Aria," Tena-glia; "Rondo," by Mozart, featuring the string ensemble.

Included in the lighter half of the concert are: "Valse Triste," Sibelius; "Lady of Spain," Evans; "Jazz Pizzicato," Anderson; "Tin Soldiers," Pierne; and "I Got Plenty o' Nuttin'," by George Gershwin.

Finalist Chosen In '51 Potpourri Beauty Contest

Jack Sarphie, special representative of Ward's Sportwear of Dallas chose the winner of the '51 Potpourri Beauty contest Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

As the fifteen final entrants paraded across the auditorium stage the Dallas representative judged them on personal appeal, carriage of head, facial contour, height, smile, grace in walking, figure, and clothes.

"Each of the girls," stated Sarphie, "deserves a full page blow-up in your annual. I have never seen a more graceful and appealing group of girls."

He made the traditional parting remark as he was posing for a picture with the group of contestants, "If my wife could see me now."

Bolet to Open Joint Concert Series Here Wednesday, November 15, in FAA

Havana-born pianist Jorge Bolet (you pronounce the "T") opens The Natchitoches-Northwestern Concert Association series Wednesday evening, November 15, 1950, in the Fine Arts Auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Mr. Bolet received the major portion of his musical education in the United States at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. Following his graduation from the Curtis School, Bolet toured Europe—Paris, London, Vienna, Madrid, The Hague, Amsterdam and other major continental music centers. Then he returned to the United States to win the coveted Naumburg Award, which carries with it the privilege of a Town Hall recital.

Bolet has toured Mexico, Central America, the West Indies and Latin America and has recorded several programs for the Canadian Broadcasting Company. Cuban audiences have heard him frequently as soloist with the Havana Philharmonic under such noted conductors as Erich Kleiber and Massimo Freccia.

In North America, he has toured the continent annually, has appeared as soloist with such orchestras as the Philadelphia Orchestra under Eugene Ormandy, has given highly lauded New York recitals in Carnegie Hall, and has won the Josef Hofman award.

During the 1949-50 season, this brilliant young pianist ran up an impressive record of re-engagements by leading symphony orchestras.

On February 11, 1951, he is scheduled to play the B-flat minor concerto on the orchestra's annual all-Tchaikovsky program. (Cont'd on Page 8)

ANC Colonels To Visit Campus Saturday, Nov. 18

Student nurses of NSC will hear ranking members in the field of Army nursing speak Saturday, November 18 at 11 p.m. in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts building.

Colonel Mary C. Phillips, Chief of the Nursing Division Office of the Surgeon General of the U. S. Army, will travel to NSC from Washington, D. C. to give nursing students at NSC an account of Army Nurse Corps activities and opportunities.

Accompanying Colonel Phillips will be Lieutenant Colonel Augusta L. Short, Chief of the Nurses Section, Headquarters, Fourth Army at Fort Sam in Houston, Texas. Colonel Short is also a member of the Army Nurse Corps.

All students, according to Nursing, at NSC, are invited to attend the talks.

25 Scholarships Open to Students For Foreign Study

Twenty-five scholarships are available to American students for study in Mexico. Of these, twenty are at the undergraduate level and five at the graduate level.

Applications must be filed by November 20, 1950. Few scholarships to Spanish speaking countries have been hitherto available under the Fulbright law. Those interested are urged to see Dr. G. Waldo Dunnington at once for details.

A True Armistice

Armistice Day, we can imagine, at one time brought thoughts of men laying down their arms, beating them into plowshares.

Today the twenty-four hour period which we set off to celebrate the cessation of hostilities, 11 November, 1918, has become so strongly associated with cold steel and hot lead, in the minds of some, that it is possible for them almost to smell the acrid atmosphere of war.

The Armistice that we now celebrate, on many occasions since the suspension of hostilities, has been observed while men clad in olive drab and navy blue were experiencing that atmosphere; the tension, the total effect of war.

Twenty-three years after Armistice, 1918, men of all races, creeds, and colors took up arms to defend once more the beliefs they hold right. Armistice for five subsequent years was "celebrated" without real meaning. To fighting men it was only another day of living hell; to others it was both that and a day of renewed hope and prayer.

The prayer doubtlessly uttered then, that a permanent peace would come to mankind, is, we hope, to some small degree being fulfilled. Not, however, without the concession of men, one to another, and the uniting of men, one for another. Not, however, without bloodshed, as a means of achieving concession and unity.

Bloodshed, cold steel, and hot lead once again have made Armistice Day one of apprehension; yet a day of heartfelt hope . . . hope that will ever be backed by militant action on the part of those who hold to the blessings of a true Armistice.

3,550 Carloads CROP Record For Past 3 Years

From the farms of America, the flow of food directed by the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) to feed the needy in Europe and Asia is gaining volume for the fourth season of CROP activity.

How the sharing of food by individual farmers with the world's needy amounts to a substantial total has been demonstrated by CROP in its first three years. More than 3,550 freight carloads of various foods have been collected, sent abroad and distributed through the three parent agencies: Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service and Lutheran World Relief. This year they are aiming at 1,350 carloads.

The central ideas of CROP's program are that food in kind sent by bona fide farmers is a lot better than money and (2) that the spirit of Christian good will is essential in a gift, even in such practical items as corn and beans.

These principles were emphasized when CROP ceremonies started a Friendship Food Ship from Chicago on United Nations Day, October 24. Aboard the freighter were quantities of food symbolizing the carloads soon to move from farm centers to seaport, and dried eggs and powdered

Senate Minutes

President Jimmy Johnson called the meeting to order Tuesday, November 7. The minutes of the meeting were read and approved.

To clarify and explain the constitution by the use of by-laws was discussed. Many of the traditional things on the campus would be put on paper possibly in the form of a bill of rights.

Chuck Tillman suggested a change in the amount of pay business managers of student publications receive. At present the managers receive $40 a month; if there are two managers, each receives $20.

The appointment of publications' advisers by the editors was discussed.

Leland Langridge outlined a plan for a student-operated loan program in which a person may borrow as much as $10.

Tillman moved that a special committee be appointed to make a survey and submit a detailed report of the loan plan. The motion was seconded and passed. Tillman was appointed to head the committee.

The changing of senate elections to the spring was discussed. The motion was made, seconded, and passed that the meeting adjourn.

Respectfully submitted,

The girls on second floor of East Varnado said "Farewell" to a good friend, Blanche Morrow, Monday night. Gathered in Carolyn Fultz's room, the girls presented Blanche with a cake and a few gifts of remembrance. Blanche resigned from school last week.

Welcome back is in order for Faye Bullock, who has been at home for the past week because of the illness of her mother. Glad to have you back, Faye!

No, he isn't a foreign spy! He's the vice-president of your student body, Chuck Castaing. Those loud trousers and sign on your back really did the trick, Chuck. Come on, gang, let's dance on Wednesday nights.

A visitor to the campus this week was Miss Claire Baird of Homer, Claire, a graduate of Tech, is now working in Natchitoches. She visited Miss Gloria Owens in the dorm Monday night.

The beauty parade was on Wednesday night as the fifteen Potpourri beauties marched across the stage of the Fine Arts Auditorium. Judges from Dallas ranked the girls according to their appearance in the yearbook.

Wednesday night was one busy time! In the women's gym the Recreation Class 403 sponsored a recreation night. Ping pong, shuffleboard, and basketball were among the sports enjoyed. Thanks, kids, for the entertainment.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

DSE is at it again! The Hadacol rush party Monday night was a hilarious episode in Delta Sig's history with 53 rushees present.

The setting of the party was a general store at Hadacol Junction. The sorority room was decorated with bales of hay and flour sacks. Kegs of goods were "fer sale cheap." A showcase contained the doughnuts that were served, and on shelves were bottles and boxes of Hadacol.

The members were dressed as much like country hicks as possible. They all wore shirts with Captain Hadacol on the front.

Julia McBroom, Mac Schoonover, Peggy Haywood, Dokey Abraham, Dot Nesbitt, and Betty Kick enacted a skit, "Sludge-pump's Other Wife," written by Elzer Marx, NSC student, Billy Ray Walker and Ramon LaTouf sang hillbilly songs and accompanied themselves with guitars.

After the boys left and refreshments were served, the group sang DSE songs until 7:30 and time for the "Rose of DSE."

At the meeting Tuesday night, the committees reported and gave exact accounts of the entertainment, refreshments, and decorations for the formal rush party next week.

Time has been taken to get plans for the float under way for Homecoming and a committee of one was appointed to obtain a truck.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

With the informal rush party work completed and plans for the formal and float well under way, the Pi Kaps are still busy girls.

An alumnae chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma has been organized in Natchitoches with Margaret Abington Sutton in charge. They seem very enthusiastic to work with the Pi Kaps on the campus and the two groups have a number of joint activities planned for the year.

Our congratulations to Sarah Jane Wadsworth who has been selected as one of the Homecoming maids.

Pi Kaps will welcome Ann Rutledge Duco back to the campus. She has been in Campti doing her student teaching.

A vacancy will be in the sorority now that Blanche Morrow has resigned from school.

TRI SIGMA

"Howdy Pardner," was the general greeting as the Tri-Sigma hands rounded up their cowpuncher rushees last Tuesday night, and herded them off to the Tri-Sigma house. From there, they hit the trail to the "Triple-S Round-Up" at the Women's Gym. Part of the entertainment included John Batten and Reuben Roy, who gave their versions of a few cowboy songs. After acting out a short western story, all the girls, cow-girls, that is, were divided into squares for square-dancing. With J. R. Akin calling the dances, everyone had loads of fun. Refreshments were served later from a chuck-wagon by the Tri-Sigma "cooks." The two short hours and a half held lots of good times for everyone.

Congratulations are in store for Marjorie White and Pat Bishop, who are two contestants in the Potpourri Beauty Contest. Good luck, girls!

Louise Harris, our vice-president, returned to the campus from her Chicago trip to the ACP Convention just in time for the informal rush party. We know you had a good time, Lou!

Zeta Dance Opens Frat Rush Season

Lambda Zeta, the oldest social fraternity on the campus, will highlight this week's social activities with a formal dance from 8 to 12 p.m. tonight in the student center. The theme of the dance will be the traditional Zeta Room, being planned and decorated by Dick Traber and Scott Strickland.

Approximately 125 members, alumni, rushees, and special guests are expected to be on hand for the annual affair held in honor of the organization's 29 rushees. The organization promises a splendid program emceed by Dick Traber. Music for the dance will be furnished by the Demonaires.

Blood Typing Project Planned By Beta Beta Beta

Members of Tri Beta, an honorary biology fraternity, will be in the Student Center Monday to type the blood of Northwestern students according to an announcement by John Curtis, president of the fraternity.

This service is an extension of the same service offered to Northwestern students two years ago. Its purpose is to inform students of their blood type and to compile a list of known blood types from which calls for emergency transfusions can be made.

All students are urged by Curtis to have their blood typed as a service to themselves and to their fellow students. It will require only one minute for their test and only about five minutes if one desires to wait for his results.

pointed president and the new faculty and staff members.

Emphasizing great esteem held for the newly appointed president, Coach Prather and his wife, was the unusually large attendance of men and women including faculty and staff members and townspeople.

Hosts for the occasion were the Academic Deans, Dr. C. E. Dugdale, Dr. John B. Robson and Dr. George T. Walker.

Artistic arrangements of garden flowers in autumn colors provided effective displays throughout the reception rooms. Arriving guests were greeted at the door by a group of young ladies, all college students, and Mrs. Perle David, Dean of Women and Mr. Dudley Fulton, Dean of Men with Mrs. Fulton received guests in the foyer.

The hosts introduced their honor guests, and a large number of faculty members, their wives and husbands assisted in entertaining during the appointed hours.

Presiding at the punch bowls were: Dr. Sarah C. Clapp, Miss Ida Graham Price, Miss Catherine Winters, Mrs. Olive Cooper, Mrs. John Duffy, Miss Jean Harper, Mrs. W. C. Hayard and Mrs. G. A. Stokes.

Mrs. Ruby S. Duncelman, reception chairman, was assisted by faculty and staff members in the serving courtesies.

Lovely piano music played by music majors at Northwestern added much to the happy occasion.

Demon Record at Stake Saturday; No Non-Conference Loss Since '47

An injury-riddled Demon football team from Northwestern State College will enter Mobile Saturday for a night contest against the squad from Alabama State Teachers College at Livingston.

A Demon record will be at stake, for Coach Harry "Rags" Turpin's boys have not lost a non-conference game since 1947 when East Texas State Teachers turned the trick, 27-0. Since then, the Demons have beaten 12 opponents and tied one—Wofford, 0-0, in 1948—all in tilts outside the GSC.

The NSC team made a good showing against Mississippi Southern last Saturday, when the defensive lineup held well until a long desperation pass in the final seconds of play gave the Southerners a 7-0 edge.

Billy Walker, freshman from Shreveport, was outstanding as linebacker. Other Demons in the heaviest action were End Steve Cole, Minden; Tackle Jack Huckaby, Hall Summit; Guard Sam Harper, Minden; Tackle Huey Thomas, Haynesville; and Guard Sid Morrell, Shreveport.

Eldred "Red" Harp, flashy broken-field runner from Bastrop, was the offensive standout against Southern, although a minor injury makes him a question mark for the coming game.

Bobby Ray McHalfey, understudy for injured Johnny Emmons at quarterback, completed 7 to 15 passes against Southern for 72 yards. McHalfey, a Bossier City lad, will start against the Alabama Teachers, probably backed up by James Beck, fb; "Red" Harp, lb; and Joe Price Lancaster or Bobby Davis, rlb.

Other injuries hampering the Demons' plans were suffered by Mike Bellipanni, qb, who received a broken arm in Monday's scrimmage; Art "Buddy" Lancaster, hb, a broken rib; Don Nation, one of the hardest tacklers in the GSC, who has a dislocated shoulder; fullback John Ropp; and tackle Buster Keaton.

Quarterback Johnny Emmons and center Jack Moore may see limited action in Saturday night's game, although both have been out of the lineup recently.

Miss. Southern Downs Demons 7-0 Saturday

Bubber Phillips and whip-armed quarterback named Tom Le Gras pulled one out of the fire for Mississippi Southern here last Saturday night as LeGras tossed a touchdown pass to Phillips to down Northwestern State, 7-0 in the last minute of play.

The winning toss came after Northwestern's Bobby Davis had tried a field goal from the south 11-yard line and missed. It climaxed a see-saw game, which saw the Demons repeatedly threatening to score but not being able to cash in on their repeated chance.

The first half was about even, though the punting of Harold Tanner helped the Demons keep the Southerners well back from the goal line most of the time. Bubber Phillips did the punting for the Southerners, but did not fare as well as Tanner.

Mississippi Southern crossed the goal line in the first period, when Bill Holmes threw a spot pass to end Jack Rosamond into the end zone, however, the play was called back and the visitors were penalized 15 yards for holding.

The Demons recovered a Southerner fumble on the Mississippi 17 yard line for their best scoring opportunity in the first half. A penalty and an 11-yard loss nullified that chance.

Southerners pass attack gave them little help in the first half, completing only three out of seven for a net gain of one yard. Bobby Davis intercepted a Holmes pass on the Southern 49 to stall a Southern drive.

SPORTS

P.E.M. Club Holds Annual Clinic; Coach Rupp Is Guest Speaker

The second half was about the same story as the first stanza, except that the Demons had the advantage most of the time.

The Demons came close to pay dirt in the third quarter when Eldred Harp, halfback, sparked a drive which stalled on the Southern four. Harp turned in a 32 yard jaunt during that push.

Jackie Givens, sub halfback, put the Southerners back against the wall just after that drive had stalled when he punted out on the 1 foot line. The Mississippi team punted out of that one, and the Demons came back again, only to be once more denied.

Phillips, a mainstay on defense and offense, intercepted Bobby Ray McHalfey's pass on the five to thwart the Demons again. McHalfey played the entire game in place of Johnny Emmons, whose passing and running prowess were sorely missed by the locals. Emmons is out with a knee injury received in the Southeastern game last week.

The Demons' last scoring opportunity came after another exchange of punts, Givens booting the oval out on Southern's 13, and Art Lancaster running back Phillips' punt from his own 47 to the visitors' 42.

After losing five on a penalty and three more rushing Harp ran for 10 and McHalfey passed to End George Pharis for a first down on the 11. Not being able to move from that point, the Demons decided to try the field goal on fourth down. Davis' kick was a little wide. It looked like there was only one minute to play, and it seemed that the game would end in a scoreless tie. On the first play from the 20 yard line LeGras heaved to Phillips, who got behind the Demon defense on the 40, caught the ball over his shoulder and dashed the rest of the way. The conversion attempt was good, giving Southern the victory, 7-0.

The PEM Club of NSC held its annual coaching clinic on the campus this past 2nd and 3rd of November. The guest speaker was Coach Adolph Rupp of Kentucky, assisted by Coaches F. H. Delaney of Centenary and Luther Marlar of Southeastern Louisiana College.

The clinic was attended by one hundred and forty coaches who represented various areas of the state and surrounding states. A large number of students and fans also attended many of the meetings held over the two-day period. This large number of coaches and fans can be attributed to the fame and magnetic personality of Adolph Rupp. The audience found no grounds for disappointment as Rupp extolled and expounded his philosophy and theory of basketball. Coach Rupp's lectures provided much food for thought and discussion. He explained his system in frank, simple and convincing terms and diagrams that left the spectators spellbound.

Coach Rupp's excellent work did not overshadow the fine lectures of Coaches Delaney and Marlar, however, as they both displayed ample knowledge of the game despite their youth in the coaching field.

Several fine films were shown and there were demonstrations by the NSC basketball squad in conjunction with the coaches' presentations of techniques and fundamentals. The prevailing opinion seems to be that the school was highly successful and well received by all participants and coaches. Doubtless, this year's fine program will enhance and promote a greater number of participants for next year's clinic.

5 New Members To Be Initiated at P. E. M. Banquet

The P.E.M. Club held its annual banquet Friday, November 3. Five new members were initiated with Phillip Timothy in charge of the initiation program. New members initiated were: Harold Harlen, Ralph Gremillion, Linwood Outz, Tyrus Sibley, Julius Robichaux.

The Coaching Clinic Staff was present with Coach A. Rupp as guest of honor delivering the after dinner speech. His speech was broadcast over the local radio station (KWCJ).

Tanner Gains for Demons

Harold Tanner, one of the pile-driving fullbacks for the Purple and White, adds more yardage to the 129-yard total massed by the Demons Saturday night against Mississippi Southern. Southern won the game 7-0 on a desperation pass with only a little over a minute to play.

Demon Squad Riddled by Injuries; Save for Southwestern Is By-Word

Monday afternoon the football squad was once again hit hard with injuries, Mike Bellippani, suffered a broken arm and Don Nation, suffered a bruised shoulder. Tuesday afternoon Ralph Ezelle, former Byrd High school player was the victim of a leg injury which may keep him from making the trip to Mobile, Alabama for the game there with the Alabama State Teachers College of Livingston, Alabama. Johnny Emmons will see limited service along with Tyrus Sibley and Buster Keaton. Buddy Lancaster, all GSC for the Demons last season was lost for the season in Saturday night's game with Mississippi Southern. "Buddy" suffered a set of broken ribs. "Red" Harp is also expected to see very limited action in the coming tilt.

Being counted on to hold the Alabama team down Saturday night in Mobile, will be All-Conference Jack Huckaby, and big bruising Sam Harp who is playing the kind of football this season that coaches really like to have around when they need it.

Out to win the game with Alabama the coaches have in mind the game a week from Saturday with Southwestern which will be homecoming here on the hill and everyone wants to win this game and will play a close game with Alabama to avoid further injuries. The game with Alabama will not be a pushover by a long shot but from the way injuries have plagued the team it would be better to play it safe and hold out for our game with Southwestern.

P.E.M. Club to Meet Nov. 17

There will be a regular meeting of the P.E.M. Club (Men's Division) November 13, 6:30 p.m. at the Men's Gym. All unfinished business will be cleared up and final plans will be made to attend the LEA meeting at Monroe. All members are urged to be present for this important meeting.

Intramural Notes

An under rated Sigma Tau team rose up in the finals of intramural touch football to overwhelm a battered squad of Cream Puffs, 26-6. The Cream Puffs, playing without the service of four regulars, fell victim to an early Sigma Tau tally and never caught up. Watkins sparked Sigma Tau's championship march with a pair of touchdowns and a like number of extra points.

Sigma Tau had advanced to the finals by swatting Brick Shack, and the Cream Puffs had eliminated Phi Kappa Nu, 19-6.

In the battle for third place Brick Shack edged Phi Kap 20-14.

Final playoff standing:

Coach Thomas has requested that all team captains see him before Tuesday, Nov. 13, to plan for team pictures.

The deadline for intramural volleyball entries was Nov. 9 and play will begin Nov. 13.

An outlaw basketball league will swing into action when volley ball competition is finished. This will not be the regular intramural basketball playoff, but was added to offer a competitive sport during the lull between volleyball and regular intramural basketball. The League, considering that it is an "outlaw" affair, has appropriately been named the Mexican league.

NOTICE

There will be a regularly scheduled meeting of Beta Beta Beta fraternity Thursday, November 16.

OFFSIDES

Last week-end found the Demons falling before a last ditch passing attack of Mississippi Southern to the tune of 7-0. This was the first time all season the Demons had been held scoreless. In the upset of the week-end, Southwestern soundly whipped Louisiana Tech, 41-13 in Lafayette. Louisiana College continued their losing ways falling before Memphis State, 25-12 in Pineville. Southeastern upheld the conference prestige by dumping Pensacola Navy, 25-6 in Pensacola.

This week-end finds the Demons in Mobile for an intersectional tilt with Livingston (Ala.) State Teachers. Mississippi Southern steps into fast company as they go to Tuscaloosa for a game with the Red Elephants of Alabama. In the top conference games, Louisiana Tech is entertaining Southeastern in Ruston. Louisiana College is playing host to Southwestern in their homecoming.

Activities Planned By Square Dancers

The first meeting of the newly organized square dance group was called to order by the president, Jeanne Oliver, last Monday night. There was a brief discussion concerning the time of the following meetings, and it was decided that there would be another meeting Monday night in the Women's Gymnasium.

It is the purpose of this group to further recreational square dance among both students and faculty.

Meetings shall be held one night a week and the college students will do the calling. Mr. Joe Jolley, on certain occasions, will be present to call the dances, and records will be bought with the dues of the club.

Membership will consist of mixed couples, and all students interested in joining such a group are asked to be present at the meeting this Monday night at 6:00 in the Women's Gymnasium.

Mercury Drops To 29 Sunday

milk contributed from government surplus stocks. Children in the costumes of their parent lands brightened the scene and a band provided by the courtesy of the Chicago Federation of Musicians played the National Anthem.

"Man does not live by bread alone, but by a combination of bread and the divine spirit which CROP exemplifies," said the speaker of the day, Dr. Raymond W. Miller, Consultant of The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

The kinds of food handled by CROP include wheat, corn, rice, beans, peas, soybeans, lard, honey, dried fruits and nuts. The corn is processed and the oil and syrup derived are shipped overseas.

Approximately 60 carloads of food were aboard the Friendship Food Ship. Additional carloads will start moving soon in a regular flow, as will other cars from other ports. Included in the early cars were a number carrying powdered milk and powdered eggs donated by the government from its surplus stores. On these CROP paid transportation from storage points to shipping points.

Bolet-

This will be Bolet's sixth performance with the National Symphony, and the seventh and eighth are already signed. Few Pianists of Bolet's age can boast such a phenomenal record of engagements and re-engagements.

Other concerts on the Series are Magnolia Coulet, lyric soprano,

January 16, The Cavallaires, nationally known male quartet, February 5, the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, April 4. In addition to these four numbers membership holders are invited to hear Set Svanholm, leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Association, on March 28, and at least one other number to be brought by the college's Artist Series Committee, and which will be announced later.

The box office will be open in the college bookstore daily from eight to five and Saturdays from eight to twelve, for the Bolet concert and membership holders may present their cards there for reserved seats.

U. S. Strength Crux Of Chinese Aid Issue—Lippman

"The crux of the controversy is whether it is in fact true that the United States is not strong enough to reinforce Europe and to intervene on the Asiatic mainland at the same time." This statement, by Walter Lippman, is part of his evaluation of the government's decision to aid Europe at the expense of withdrawing from China, in an article called LET'S FACE IT—AND GET ON in the November issue of LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

In his analysis, Mr. Lippman states, "To those who say we could and should have done that, the answer, I believe, is that even in 1944, when we were fully mobilized and had ninety divisions and an enormous air force and the greatest fleet in the history of navies, we took care not to engage the main force of the Japanese army until the German army had been defeated. . . . Now we have no big allies, and the armies of the Atlantic community are outnumbered by the armies of the communist orbit. Mr. Churchill, speaking of Europe alone, says we are outnumbered seven or eight to one. In Asia, the ratio against us is even worse. . . ."

"What then, the reader will ask, do I think American policy in Asia should be? . . . We should seek agreement with them (leading friendly powers in Asia) on all Far Eastern questions, on the future of Korea, on Formosa, on the Japanese treaty, on China and the United Nations."

"A policy of concert would mean that we undertook nothing inside Asia which has not been approved in advance by the free peoples of Asia. It would mean that in questions which concern them more intimately than they concern us — the treatment of Communist China, for example — we would let them lead, and we would follow. . . ."

"I think that a policy of concert in the Far East is all that we can afford. I think also that were we much more powerful than we are, it would still be the wisest course for us to take in Asia. For while we shall never overawe and dominate the peoples of Asia, we might, if our motives are pure and our manners are suitable, begin to reduce their suspicions and then to earn their confidence, and we might end perhaps by winning their friendship."

Professors Hold First Meeting November 17

The Northwestern State College chapter of the American Association of University Professors will hold its first meeting of the year 1950-51, on Friday afternoon, November 17, at four o'clock, in the Little Theatre, according to G. Waldo Dunnington, professor of English.

The guest speaker for the first meeting will be Dr. Jay B. Nash, Chairman of the Department of Physical Education and Health at New York University's School of Education. Dr. Nash has been a member of N. Y. U. since 1926, and head of the department since 1930.

All faculty members and students are invited to attend and are welcome, whether or not they belong to the association.

Drama Dept. To Stage One-Act Comedy Monday

The drama department will present a one-act play entitled "Honesty Is The Best Soviet Policy" in the Little Theatre, Monday and Tuesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. The play, by Albert Shweld, is a farce on Russia and contains a plot synonymous with communist confusion.

Cast for the play includes Parker Ballard, Elzer Marx, Ponder Davis, E. G. Smith, Roy Stevens, and Dolores Abraham. Director of the play is Julia McBroom, a senior student majoring in Speech. The set for the show is being built by the Speech 204 class as one of their laboratory projects.

Don Carr, director of dramatics, held try-outs this week for the forthcoming production of "Cuckoos on the Hearth." This play and all its production aspects are open to all students on the campus. People who are interested in doing technical work or a part in the play should contact Mr. Carr in the speech office for assignments.

Second Dance Is Held in Student Center Saturday

Approximately 150 students were present Wednesday evening for the second in a series of dances being held in the Student Center lounge from 6:30 to 7:40. The purpose of the dance program is to build a fund to be used in securing a "name" band for the Spring formal.

There was $20.80 taken in at this week's dance, half of which went to the Demonaires to buy new music (by a previous agreement of the band and the dance committee). At last week's dance there was $24.60 collected in admission fees, half of which also went to the Demonaires.

This program is to continue thusly for a period of one month on a trial basis. Students are urged to attend these dances, enjoy a full hour of dancing, and contribute to the fund which will be used to obtain a name band in the Spring.

Due to the Artist Series program next Wednesday evening, the dance will not be held at the regular time, according to Miss Kendrix, chairman of the dance committee. Students are asked to observe the bulletin board for an announcement concerning the dance for next week.

Debaters Travel To Alabama Meet

The Northwestern debaters journeyed to the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa this weekend to participate in the annual Alabama Discussion tournament.

The group, consisting of Coach W. S. Smith, Tom Poole, E. G. Smith, Luke Petrovich, and Jimmy Johnson, left Thursday morning at four o'clock.

The tournament program Thursday night consisted of an exhibition debate between the Oxford debaters from England and the University of Alabama debaters.

Friday the discussion panels went through four of the five and that night attended a banquet given in their behalf. Today the group will be guests at the Mississippi Southern - Alabama football game.

The NSC debaters are expected to return to the campus Sunday evening.

VOL. XXXVII NORTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

NOVEMBER 18, 1950

WELCOME GRADS

"By their fruits ye shall know them" are the words in which an eternal and universal truth is expressed in the Book of Books. This institution, under various names, has been bearing fruit since 1884. And the educational leadership of this state and far beyond, has been tasting it and it has been declared to be very good.

Alumni are made and not born. The making of loyal alumni is the pleasant duty of Northwestern State College and we are justly proud of our product. We hope and trust and pray that your Alma Mater may ever be to each of you a source of just pride.

The faculty, staff, student body, citizens of Natchitoches, and all other friends of our college join me in extending to each of you a most cordial welcome. And we trust that you may enjoy to the fullest your return to the "Hill" on this and all other occasions.

Sincerely,

"Coach" H. Lee Prather
President of Northwestern State College

Pan-Hellenic Council Metes Penalty For Infraction of Rushing Rules

Delta Sigma Epsilon, social sorority of the campus, was formally meted punishment for violation of the NSC Pan-Hellenic rushing rules by members of the 1950 NSC Pan-Hellenic Council Tuesday afternoon at a call session. (See Letter to Editor on Page 2).

The rush rules now in effect under Article IV, Section I, of the NSC Pan-Hellenic Council constitution, states in part that such rules "shall be printed" separately from the main body of the constitution and that they "may be as widely distributed as local needs and conditions may demand."

Section IV, Subsections A and B of the 1950 NSC Pan-Hellenic rush rules state that (A), "There shall be strict silence between sorority girls and rushees" and that (B) "Strict silence is defined as no more than a passing greeting."

Council action was initiated according to local Pan-Hellenic rules Monday afternoon before the call session Tuesday, at which the president of DSE stated her case.

After discussion a formal vote was taken and the sorority unanimously found by the four sororities qualified to vote, to be guilty of an infraction of the rush rules.

The punishment, according to Pan-Hellenic President Pat Leone,

Patsy Winkler Chosen Delegate To White House

Patsy Winkler, freshman home economics major from Olla, La., has been chosen to represent the state at the White House for a world-wide child and youth conference Dec. 3 to Dec. 7 in Washington, D. C.

On the basis of being the state 4-H Club president, Patsy was selected to attend the conference which occurs only every four years.

The delegates will discuss problems for children and youths all over the world.

The Demon student body, faculty, and administrative staff officially will spread the welcome mat for alumni and visitors to the annual Homecoming Day this morning with a float-laden parade through the streets of downtown Natchitoches.

The parade, to begin at 9:30, will form in front of the Power House on the campus, and loop through the down-town section.

In the meantime alumni and guests of the college will be welcomed by students and college officials at a Varnado Hall open house and coffee. There the registration books will be open until eleven.

The festivities, climaxed by a football game between the Southwestern Bulldogs and the Demons, will end tonight with the annual Homecoming Ball. Music for the dance will be furnished by the Demonaires.

Forming at the college, they will proceed down Second Street to Lafayette, east on Lafayette to Front, and south on Front to Amulet where they will disband.

Float entries are: Pi Kappa Sigma, Alpha Sigma Alpha, Sigma Sigma Sigma and Theta Sigma Upsilon sororities; Sigma Tau Gamma and Lambda

Editorial

Last Tuesday night, here on the "Hill" a small group of students gathered in front of the President's home. One night last year, just prior to Homecoming Day, approximately the same students did the same thing; but not for the same purpose.

One year ago at NSC, there was dissension, rife, ill-feelings among and between members of the college students, faculty, and administrative staff. There was no unified school spirit. Certain members of the faculty and administrative staffs felt insecure in their positions. Students looked in out-raged awe on the condition of the school.

Ill-feelings, evidenced by such student action as derogatory remarks "thrown" behind empty beer cans, whiskey bottles, and trash, tossed in front of the president's home, like a festering sore, swelled and burst, resulting in degradation of the school in the eyes of the public.

With the burst of the political bubble came a "new administration"; a new college president, and a new "hands-off" policy by the state. With these came new school spirit, a new feeling of being able once more to work freely; of being able once more to ask for and get co-operation.

A major part of these renewed feelings came with the appointment to the presidency of the school of a man whom NSC knows; a man who knows NSC; a man who hides nothing from the students; and a man whom the students trust.

With the new feeling of security, of trust, comes the hope that the school may regain the confidence of its friends and alumni, and that it may continue to prosper in the tradition of the "Hill" as it has under the leadership of President H. Lee Prather.

To the fulfillment of that hope the Current Sauce pledges itself wholeheartedly.

LETTER TO EDITOR

I would like to take this opportunity to clear up some rumors which seem to be rather widespread on the campus.

It is common knowledge that Delta Sigma Epsilon has been penalized for violating a rush rule. What is not common knowledge is the penalty that Delta Sig has received. The Panhellenic Council allowed Delta Sigma Epsilon to choose between three penalties . . . deferred pledging, deferred initiation, or deprivation of all social activities for one year. The DSE's chose the deferred initiation, and contrary to some of the campus rumors, DSE can and will pledge girls, but will not be able to initiate them until next September at the latest, or at some time prior to September at the discretion of the Panhellenic Council. So this penalty will not affect the present rushees until next March at the earliest, since they could not be initiated prior to that time at any rate.

I would also like to say on behalf of DSE, that we accept the ruling of the Panhellenic Council in an objective and sportsman-like manner and fully intend to abide by the ruling to the utmost. So now let's forget the whole thing!

Sincerely yours,
Julie McBroom, Pres.
Delta Sigma Epsilon

Views of The News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

There is evidence to believe that the makers of foreign policy for this country and several other countries have become cognizant of the true nature of their problem. First of all they have shown less optimism over the possibility of an immediate world union. Secondly, they have indicated agreement upon a stronger, positive program of defense for the Western Democracies.

In the case of the world union we see that recently even the most ardent supporters of the idea have acknowledged the fact that difficulties exist which make a homogenous world union impossible at this time. It is true that the machines and implements of modern time provide for closer contact of all nations. However, the fact remains that religion, language, material, and custom of the various nations still remain significantly different. It is still the acceptance, toleration, or reconciliation of these differences which is necessary for harmonious relations among the nations. And, if you have peace and cooperation among the various nations, there is no need for a world union.

On the other hand, if the nations of the world should devote themselves to a world organization, that organization could facilitate the peaceful relations desired among the nations. Herein lies the crux of the problem. The nations have proved unwilling to subordinate their selfish desires for the peace and well-being of all.

Recognizing these complex problems our policy makers have recently taken a stronger course of action for which they are to be commended. A plan has been submitted to revise the UN in an effort to make it a working organization. Efforts are being made to strengthen the Atlantic Union. In accordance with the world conditions today, this seems to me a very feasible attitude.

I do not maintain that war with the Soviet nations is inevitable; neither do I suggest the abolition of the UN. We must continue to strive for a settlement of our international differences. However, to continue without preparing for a possible peril is a faux pas, first class. Thus, commendations for our positive policy.

Delegates Attend Euthenics Meet

Four members of the Euthenics club, Grace Cooley, Jane Walcott, Evelyn Gandy, and Mrs. Marie Dunn, attended the Province-V meeting at Centenary College on November 9-11.

Opening the first general session was Dr. John B. Wilson, dean of Centenary. Other activities included a luncheon in the Washington-Youree hotel with Mrs. Lela Tomlinson as speaker, a tour of Shreveport, entertainment by the Centenary choir, and a tea honoring delegates.

Officers for the year were installed at the final meeting Saturday morning.

Rush Season Officially Opens November 6

The signing of rushee preference cards this afternoon marks the end of the two-week formal rush season for NSC's five social sororities.

On November 6 Delta Sigma Epsilon officially opened the rush season with the first informal party. Following with their respective rush parties were Sigma Sigma Sigma, Theta Sigma Upsilon, Alpha Sigma Alpha and Pi Kappa Sigma.

This week approximately 100 rushees were entertained at the formal parties, all of which were held in the Student Center.

At one o'clock this afternoon the prospective sorority members will assemble to list their first and second choices of the Greek groups rushing them. Bids will be issued tomorrow morning and all sororities will have welcoming parties for their new members.

FROM FRESHMAN BEAUTY TO FRAT SWEETHEARTS

It's that time again! And we are happy, for all those "old" faces appearing once again on the hill. Indeed, Homecoming is a great event of the year and we would like to say, Welcome, Alums! We hope you enjoy the football game, the open houses, the Homecoming dance and in general, we hope you enjoy being back at NSC.

For a little review of society on the campus this year, let's retrace our steps to September.

Upperclassmen greeted Freshman students, and many of them, the first week of school and helped to orientate them to school life. The highlight of Freshman week was the selection of Freshman beauty, Miss Jerry Jackson, on Thursday. Saturday night, the annual Freshman dance, sponsored by the Student Body, was held in the Student Center. The Demonaires furnished the music.

Sunday the Panhellenic Council sponsored its annual Freshman tea. And if you were looking for beauty, the Freshman students really blossomed at the tea.

And then, classes began! But, the fun wasn't over. Football games rolled around almost every week-end. And for some of them, all college dances followed.

Two big week-ends soon came! The Louisiana College vs. NSC game was first, NSC really invaded Alexandria. Lorraine Vaughn was chosen queen with a court of thirteen maids. It was an even bigger week-end when the football team defeated Louisiana College.

Then the Fair came. Dot Olivier reigned as Queen with a court of eight maids. This time, NSC invaded Shreveport.

After that, we stayed at home for a while. Dances and Recreation nights kept the students happy. A special event of the year was the Square Dance in the women's gym. Our grandparents had nothing on these hep-cats at NSC.

The time came for the selection of beauties for the Potpourri. Fifteen girls were selected by several men students. An artist from Dallas, chose the top beauties. Yes, we're all waiting for the Potpourri to be issued.

Last week-end Lambda Zeta began the formal fraternity rush season with their annual Zeta Room. Miss Marilyn Barnette was presented as Sweetheart of Lambda Zeta. They say "it's all the Vice-President's fault."

The last two weeks, Freshman women have seen their first bit of sorority life, for these two weeks contained informal and formal rush parties. Tomorrow is Bid Sunday.

Cupid has played his part in this school year, too. There have been many exchanges of rings and pins this fall.

And now it's Homecoming. Miss Mittie Lancaster, freshman from Ferriday, will reign as Queen. It's a day of celebration!

Again, we'll say, Welcome Alums. It's good to see you here.

Rush Season Highlighted by Informal Parties

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA—"PROGRESSIVE SUPPER"

One of the great moments we've been waiting for finally came last Thursday night. The Alpha Sigs had their informal rush party. Working on the idea that an "eating party" was the best party, we had a progressive supper. The Alpha Sigs went by for their dates and met in front of the sorority house. We left from there in cars and went to Mrs. Lamay Bice's home for the cocktail. There we sang many of the Alpha Sig songs. The party then went to Mrs. Robert Easley's home for the main course which consisted of chicken spaghetti, hot rolls, peach pickles, crackers and cokes. A discussion was given, telling the rushees about the social functions that we have, during the year. We then progressed to Mrs. Marguerite Matthews' home for dessert, which was cake topped with ice cream.

Congratulations are in hand for Marilyn Barnette for being chosen Sweetheart of Lambda Zeta. Of course we're prejudiced, but we think they made a right fine selection.

The Alpha Sigs are having open house for all the Alpha Sig Alums Saturday afternoon from five till six-thirty o'clock. We'll be looking forward to a gay reunion.

PI KAPPA SIGMA—"VANITY AFFAIR"

"Vanity Affair" was the informal Pi Kap rush party on Friday night. The "affair" was a powder puff-perfume bar and lounge. The living room of the sorority house was appropriately decorated for the occasion with the huge make-believe powder puffs, lips and hand-mirrors tacked on three walls. A beautiful organdy skirted mirror-topped bar stood in the center of the fourth wall and behind the bar was pastel drapes giving a dreamy effect. The program consisted of Pi Kap girls modeling perfumes while Gloria Strong Camp played background music on the vibraphone. The models were: Beryl DeoLach—Taboo, Nell Richardson—Something Blue, Beth McGuffee—Beau Catcher, Liz Seegers—Tigress, Sara Jane Wadsworth—Midnight, Anne Freeze—Intoxication, and Joanne Brantley—Pi Kap's own Forget-me-not perfume. All the Pi Kap girls were dressed as little powder room maids when they called for their dates. Refreshments were served and the entire group sang Pi Kap songs.

Pi Kappa Sigma is holding open house from five to six p.m. Saturday in honor of Pi Kap alumnae.

Our congratulations go to Beth McGuffee, Nell Richardson, Joanne Brantley and Evelyn Hall, who competed in the final Potpourri Beauty selection last week. We are also proud of Sara Jane Wadsworth who is to be a member of the Homecoming Court.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA—"PALACE OF CARDS"

The student Center last Tuesday night became a "Palace of Cards" as the "royal" Tri Sigmas entertained their rushees at their formal rush party. Royal flushes were distributed as invitations and at seven-thirty the doors of the palace were opened and the royalty was welcomed in.

Members were dressed as cards from the highest ace to the lowest deuce. King and Queen Sigma were Janet Kyser and Janette Pace.

As the rushees arrived they were shown around the palace by their dates. Concessions, named for various card games, provided fun and prizes for all. Among these concessions were "Go Fishing," "Shoot the Moon," "Pitch," "Froggy in the Pond," and "Old Maid." Joy Stothart Gaddis, an alumnae, made some rushees happy and some sad as she gazed into her magic deck of cards and revealed the future of the girls. The rushees were each given one card and the members were each given three cards. The rushees were requested to search until they found the other three cards that matched the one they had. The first two girls who obtained all four of their cards received prizes.

The rushees were then seated in a heartshaped circle in front of the bandstand while the Tri Sigmas stood behind them. Laura Mahan acted as Mistress of Ceremonies and introduced the numbers on the program. The three wild treys, the jokers and the aces, provided fun and amusement for all. Luke Petrovich presented a pantomime of a drunk who lost all his money in a poker game. Coach Guy Nesom entertained everyone with his marvelous card tricks, and Raymond Russell did his wonderful rendition of the "Dark Town Poker Club."

Everyone then adjourned the opposite end of the student center where a beautiful banquet table was located. After everyone was seated, Carol Clark, who represented "Canasta," gave a Spanish dance which was enjoyed by all. After a wonderful dinner, songs were sung by all and cards with poems on them were presented to each rushee.

Pat Cameron, who came through a huge red heart then sang "My Tri Sigma Girl," and provided a most appropriate ending to a truly wonderful party.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON—"PRISONERS' BALL"

The Theta Sigs are busy this week bringing the rush season to a close and assembling a float for Homecoming.

Last Wednesday night, Theta Sigs had their informal rush party, Prisoners' Ball, in the sorority room. A skit, written by Jo Nell Richardson, was given by all the Theta Sigs. The Judge, Amy Lou Smith presided over the court while her assistant brought up before her various cases. Virginia Scallon sang "Stone Cold Dead in the Market." Linda Mason portrayed a drunk. Carol Blankenship rendered a song on her uke and accompanied Dixie Willis when she gave "Life gets Tedious."

Four dice shooters, Mary Alice Driscoll, Patsy Clement, Maurine Gray, Bobby Johnson, were found guilty of gambling. Barbara West tap danced and was accompanied by Peggy Taylor. Peggy "Sugar Boy" Taylor rendered a couple of numbers on the piano. Bessie Morgna sang "I'm Just a Prisoner of Love." Jo Nell Richardson and Bessie then sang a heart-breaker of a song. Zona Morris did a pantomime for the group. Refreshments were served by the prisoners and songs were sung by the entire group.

Wednesday night, the Theta Sigs had their formal rush party, Mexican Fiesta, in the private dining room of the field house. A Mexican supper of Tortilla's, hot tamales, salad, tea, etc. was served to the rushees, members, and their guests. While eating, a Troubadour, Raymond Russell, serenaded the girls. Virginia Scallon sang a couple of South of the Border songs. Vergne Roig and Zona Morris did a tango de la Rumba dnace. Don Braswell, serenaded the girls with "TicoTico" and "Siboney." Linda Mason and Barbara West did a Mexican hat dance. "Spike Jones" and his city slickers were touring in ole Mexican and stopped in at the Fiesta and entertained with a couple of their numbers. Peggy Taylor rendered a number, "Mexican Fiesta" on the piano. Bessie Morgan, songbird, gave out with a couple of songs. A congo was enjoyed by everyone. Games were played and fortunes were told by Miss Hope Haupt. The night ended with group singing.

Mittie Lancaster Will Reign As Homecoming Queen Today

Miss Mittie Lancaster, a freshman music major from Ferriday, will reign as queen of the North-western State College Homecoming ceremonies on Saturday, Nov. 18. Miss Lancaster and her court will appear in the parade at 9:30 and in a pre-game ceremony at 2:00 that afternoon.

Serving as members of the court are Miss Sarah Jane Wadsworth, a senior education major from Bastrop; Miss Joyce O'Brien, a senior home economics major from Vinton; Miss Quincy Lincéum, a junior physical education major from Bossier City; Miss Hazel Brannon, a junior physical education major from Bunkie; Miss Bobbye Hornsby, a freshman business administration major from Bossier City; Miss Vera Ellen Roberson, a freshman nursing student also from Bossier City; Miss Jody Aaron, a freshman nursing student from Minden; Miss Juanita Sanford, a freshman secretarial science major from Homer; and Miss Louise Sheppard, a junior education major from Hodge.

The Other Half

By WESLEY JACKSON

In writing this column, the main purpose is to acquaint the members of the NSC student body on what is going on in other institutions of higher learning throughout the nation.

Is prohibition on the way back? . . . The Pennsylvania State College recently ordered the removal of bars from fraternity houses and other student quarters and expressly forbid the possession or use of alcoholic beverages on college property in a sweeping regulation announced by the administration. . . .

Is honesty the best policy? . . . An honor system to be enforced by a student honor board will go into effect at Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois, this semester. This system, completely new to the college, will pace the main responsibility for cheating and resultant disciplinary measures in the hands of the student body.

Here's an item with a familiar sound . . . At Mississippi State College, a new topic is dominating the conversation of students this fall. Words such as "draft," "reserves," and "mobilization," have pushed aside the more familiar "blind date," "pep rally," and "crip courses". . . . Small world, isn't it?

Fire extinguishers? . . . A new "Chaperone File" has been installed in the Dean of Women's office at the University of Wyoming, listing all faculty members eligible and their desires, whether they be chaperoning formal dances or prefer other social functions. Cards are sent to each faculty member to be filled out and returned, in case they are interested in chaperonage.

A note on absenteeism. . . . Only freshmen will be penalized for not attending classes at Barnard College, New York, N. Y., this fall, according to a new faculty ruling. The faculty decided last spring to take attendance in all classes, but to abolish penalties for all upperclassmen. The penalty for excessive absence or tardiness involves a reduction of point credits toward the degree requirement.

Well, that's just about all the news about the other half for this week. But as soon as more comes in, I'll try to give you the scoop. So, until then, don't do anything that any other college paper will publish.

Intramural Notes

An intramural meeting was held Thursday night and the organization of league volleyball was discussed. A series of rules for volleyball was passed out and the team representatives decided to play two games a night on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. All games will be played in the men's gym and competition will start November 20.

The team representatives also decided to have a team picture made and to keep a bulletin board of pictures.

After volleyball play is over an outlaw league in basketball will begin about January 5. The first of the postponde Sports Nights will probably be held around the middle of January.

"OFFSIDES"

Our Demons were unable to break their losing streak which has now stretched through four games. They fell before Livingston State 28-30 in Mobile. Louisiana Tech tightened their hold on first position by eking out a 14-0 Homecoming victory. Louisiana College turned in the week's upset by dumping Southwestern 22-20 before a large Homecoming crowd. Mississippi Southern found Alabama too patent and fell before the Crimson Tide by a score of 53-0.

This week-end the Demons are entertaining Southwestern in our Homecoming and will be trying to break that losing stretch.

In the battle for the Conference championship we find Mississippi Southern entertaining Louisiana Tech in Hattiesburg. The Conference laurels are in the balance. Louisiana College is at home against Daniel Baker. Southeastern is also at home. They will entertain Delta State.

NSC Graduate, Lt. Kinnison Home on Leave

A graduate of NSC, Lt. Dorothy Kinnison, WMSC, has completed the physical therapy training course offered by the U.

MISS DOROTHY KINNISON

S. Army Medical Service and will take up regular duties at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, Denver, Colorado. The Women's Medical Specialist Corps includes physical therapists, occupational therapists, and dietitians.

Lt. Kinnison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kninison, 1513 Trenton Street, West Monroe, graduated from Ouachita Parish High School in 1945. She received her B.A. in physical education from NSC. During her four years here she was an active member of Sigma Sigma Sigma and received the groups senior loyalty award.

In July of 1949, Lt. Kinnison received her commission in the organized reserve. In September, 1949, she was ordered to active duty, reporting to Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, for basic training. The didactic training for physical therapy was also taken at Fort Sam Houston. Upon completion of this, she was sent to the Army's largest hospital, Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, for the clinical portion of her training. Training was accomplished as she aided in rehabilitation of the Korean casualties.

Lt. Kinnison will be home in November before taking up her regular duties.

Bolet Presents 1st Artist Series Concert of Year

"That guy hits more keys with one hand than I can with both hands and a foot," Sherrod Towns, NSC music department director, remarked of Jorge Bolet, during the first presentation of the Natchitoches-Northwestern Concert Association in the Fine Arts Auditorium Wednesday night at 8:15.

Bolet, a Havana-born concert pianist played the following selections: "Rondo in D Minor," Mozart; "Prelude and Fugue in E Minor," Mendelssohn; "Barcarolle," "Polonaise in C Sharp Minor," "Polonaise in C minor," "Ballade in F minor," from Chopin; "Symphonic Studies," Schumann; "Funerailles," Liszt; "Schwanda Fantasy," Chasins.

The next presentation of the joint Natchitoches-NSC Association will be the Dallas Symphony.

IMPROVING

Prof. A. G. Alexander who suffered a severe heart attack early Sunday morning is improving nicely at the Natchitoches Hospital.

HITS 22 1/2

A low of 22 1/2 degrees was registered here Sunday, Nov. 12, with heavy frost and ice. This is the coldest weather so far this winter.

SENIORS' NOTE

The deadline for ordering senior invitations is December 13, as announced by Mrs. Pauline Johnston of the bookstore.

Available in the bookstore are samples of the three types that may be ordered: leather, cardboard, or French folder style. The price of the invitations will be determined by the total number ordered by the college. No deposits are necessary.

Seniors desiring invitations are requested to place their orders with Mrs. Johnston in the bookstore as soon as possible.

Thirty-third Slam

The college professor is my shepherd and I am in dire want;
He preventeth me from lying down in the bed which I renteth;
He leadeth me to distraction with his exam questions;
He shaketh my resolution to get a college degree;
He leadeth me to make a fool of myself
before my classmates;
Yea, though I burn my lamp until the landlady howleth, I fear much evil;
He is against me.
His policies, his theories, and his ranting frightens my wits from me.
He assigneth me extra work in the presence of mine enemies;
He annointeth my quiz paper with red pencil marks;
And my zeros fill a whole column.
Surely, theories, exams, and themes will follow me all the days of my college career.
And I will dwell in the bughouse forever.

200 High School Delegates Are Expected to Attend FBLA Meet Here

More than 200 high school business club sponsors and students are expected to attend the Second Annual High School Business Club Workshop at Northwestern State College on Saturday, Dec. 2.

Announcement of the program was made by N. B. Morrison, head of the Northwestern department of business which sponsors the one-day workshop to assist sponsors and officers in organizing, planning, promoting, and improving high school business clubs in Louisiana.

Since the first workshop in October of last year, the number of high school business clubs has increased from four to 55, most of which are members of the Future Business Leaders of America.

The workshop falls on the first day of the annual Natchitoches Christmas Festival when a traditionally mammoth and impressive celebration draws spectators from surrounding parishes and neighboring states. Workshop sessions will be held in the morning to allow the participants to witness the display, in the afternoon and evening.

Following registration from 8 to 9:30 a.m., in the Business Administration Building will be FBLA sectional meetings from 9:30 to 10:30 which are open to respective officers and to students interested in serving as club officers.

The sectional meetings, planned in two categories, will be presided over by Miss Geraldine Shaw, teacher at Vinton; Miss Polly Lou Hicks, teacher at Boyce; and Kenneth Durr, assistant professor of business at NSC.

The group will re-convene in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building, after a mid-morning intermission. Leading the 10:45 to 11:15 session will be Jack Simpson, president of the Louisiana FBLA and a student at Natchitoches High School.

H. Lee Prather, president of NSC, will welcome the delegates. "What FBLA Means to Business," is the topic of a speech to be given by Miss Gladys Peck, state supervisor of business education. Richard Clanten of Bolton High School, state director of business education, will present reports.

At a general forum from 11:15 to noon, led by Professor Morrison, each club will report on its best project of the year for the mutual assistance and benefit of all the participating clubs.

Club sponsors will meet at a luncheon at 12:15 in the private dining room of the Student Center.

Lambda Zeta Holds Rushee Dance Nov. 11

Members of Lambda Zeta fraternity entertained rushees from 8 til 12 p.m. Saturday night in the NSC Student Center.

Theme of the dance was a night club with the Student Center being decorated in accordance. Rushees entered the door under a sign "Zeta Room."

Entertainment was furnished by the Demonaires and the three "singing waiters," Irene Hebert, and Martha Ann Glass were cigarette girls.

Highlighting the party was the introduction of Miss Marilyn Barnette as sweetheart of the Zetas by Scott Strickland, past president of the group and present pledgemaster.

Dick Traber was master of ceremonies.

NOTICE

The BSU Freshman Council will sponsor a talent show Friday, December 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel of the Religious Center.

All participants in the events will be freshmen who have indicated interest and special talent for developing the program.

The program includes skits, music—both classical and hillbilly style, piano duets, solos, vocal solos and duets, monologues, dialogues and interpretive readings.

NORTHWESTERN WOMEN'S CLUB

The annual Christmas Party for members and guests of the Northwestern Women's Club will be held at the Student Center on Friday, December 15, instead of December 11 as previously announced.

(Con't from Page 3)

The Theta Sigs are very happy to welcome all of the alumni back to the hill, especially Nell Denham Hammons, Marianne Rains, Tessie Dufour, Frances Johnson Britt, Peggy Andrews Pugh, Ella James, Ann Simons Cross. Saturday, the Theta Sigs are having open house and wish to welcome all of you to come down and see us.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA—SECOND "SMOKER"

Last Tuesday evening thirty rushees met with members and pledges in the Fraternity Room for the second in a series of "Smokers" given by the fraternity.

Talks on fraternity life were given by Snapp Oakes, president and cigars and cokes being provided by the pledge class. Films were shown at the end of the program and enjoyed by all.

Last week Sigma Tau won first place in Intramural Football by winning 8 straight games. Team members include: Leslie Lum, Gerald Jeansonne, Walter Butler, Jack Robertson, Crayton Hall, Tom Daniel, Harry Anderson, Don Morgan, Snapp Oakes, Firal Ryder, Ed Watkins, Joe Holley and Louis Farmer, who was elected captain for the team.

Work on the Homecoming float was carried on all during the week with hopes of a successful venture. A cordial welcome is extended to all Tau Alumni who are returning back with us this weekend and we hope to see more of you in future days.

Initiation this week-end for Harry "Buck" Anderson and Ed

Watkins are well under way. They have been carrying on various functions for members during this hell week designed especially for them.

Soft lights, palm trees, rustling grass skirts, and a soft, green carpet of grass was Delta Sig's setting for its formal Hawaiian Paradise rush party last Monday night. Yellow cushions circled a blue, rocky pool, and at one side was a moss and palmetto-covered hut. Rubber plants formed a natural background.

A short introduction of each member led to a brief poem about each rushee. Then a somewhat crazed shipwrecked sailor (E. G. Smith) stumbled in and gave his interpretation of "The Waltz." Dorothy Nesbitt played a marimba with Daisy Prudhomme at the piano, and Doris Jean Pine did a hula dance. Raymond Russell sang and accompanied himself on a guitar.

The DSE songs were sung; the "Rose" finished the party with all the girls standing in the friendship circle.

At the sorority meeting Tuesday, Homecoming had the floor. The float was planned with the theme, "Our team is on the ball; their team needs Hadacol." The various committees necessary were appointed as well as those for open house.

Open house will be held in the sorority room from 4:30 to 5:30 Saturday.

NSC Frats Launch Fall Rush Season

Open season on fraternity rushees is formally here! Fraternity contacts with prospective members were first made at "smokers" held in the fraternity rooms.

Lambda Zeta led off in the Greek member race with the first smoker of the year three weeks ago. Phi Kappa Nu and Sigma Tau Gamma followed closely with meetings held for rushees the next week.

The real rushing takes place in the Greek world at the formal dances. Lambda Zeta fraternity entertained their rushees Saturday night in the Student Center.

Phi Kaps will make their bid for future members on December 2 when the members, 37 rushees, their dates convene at the Student Center for their annual Fall rush dance.

Sigma Tau will wind up the formal social season on December 9, the same date that the annual "Toy Bowl Game" is played between Phi Kaps and the Taus.

All three fraternities name their sweetheart at their formal rush dance.

Bids to membership will be issued one week after the last formal rush dance.

Drama Dep'tment Presents Mystery Play Dec. 6, 7, 8

Demon drama admirers may join the mystery fans in detecting the maniacal killer in "Cuckoos on the Hearth," a recent Broadway success to be presented on the campus December 6, 7, and 8, under the direction of Donald Carr of the NSC Speech department.

In the cast will be Helen Brupbacher as Abby Rodick, Julie McBroom as Lulu Pung, Betty Sue Boydston as Charlotte Carlton and James Leak as Sheriff Preble. Marion Shirah will be Don Carlton, Bill Cronin will play Zadoc Grimes, Don Nutter will be "Doc" Freris and Jimmy Johnson will perform as the professor. Bob Dorbitt will play the Rev. Clarence Underhill, with Beth Hargrave as Beulah Peck, Nelwyn Turner as Dr. Gordon, and Wesley Jackson as a State Trooper.

The action takes place at Harmony Hearth, home of the Donald Carltons, not far from Portland, Maine.

According to Director Don Carr, the better mystery stories and plays are "Whodidits," while the lesser grade killers are "Whodunits." He expects this Mystery-Comedy in three acts to be rated a Whodidit.

The one act play, "Honesty Is the Best Soviet Policy," was presented in the Little Theatre last Monday and Tuesday nights. Student-directed, by Julie McBroom, the play included Ponder Davis as the manager of the Cooperative Store, E. G. Smith as the clerk, Elzer Marx as Night Watchman and honest burglar, Parker Ballard as the Bookkeeper, Dolores Abraham as the Cash Girl and Roy Stephens as the Militiaman. The Speech 204 class served as stage crew.

Dr. J. B. Nash Guest Speaker At Meet Friday

"The outstanding man in health and physical education," Dr. Jay B. Nash of New York University, was guest speaker for the Northwestern State College Chapter of the American Association of University Professors in the first meeting of 1950-51 at 4 p.m. Friday, Nov. 17, in the Little Theatre of the NSC Fine Arts Building.

Three other Friday meetings scheduled Dr. Nash as speaker: Dr. John Kyser's Social Studies 102 class at 9 a.m. (broadcast over KWCJ); the noon luncheon of the H&PE staff and student majors in the Student Center; and a 5:30 picnic-meeting at College Wells.

Dr. Nash, chairman of the department of physical education and health at NYU's School of Education since 1930, has a wide background of world travelling lecturing, and notable service in health education.

An executive of many national health and education organizations, Dr. Nash has been president of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation; chairman of the Department of School Health and Physical Education; a member of the Joint Health Committee of the American Education Association, and American Medical Association; and others.

Dr. Nash is author of several books — "Spectatoritis" (1932); "Teachable Moments: A New Approach to Health" (1938); and "Building Morale" (1942)—as well as technical volumes on administration in physical education, health, and recreation.

Influenza Vaccine will be given at the Infirmary to all students, faculty members, and employees who are interested. The administration of this vaccine consists of only one injection, and provides an immunity lasting not more than a year. The cost of the vaccine will be 60c per person.

Eleven Baptist Hospital Students To Be Capped

Capping exercises for the eleven student nurses at Baptist Hospital, Alexandria, Louisiana, are to be held on Saturday, Nov. 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the new Emmanuel Baptist Church sanctuary. Four of the students, Louise Canafax, Ina Faith Gragg, Gay New and Gloria Ann Schumaker are to be capped. The other seven students are to be recapped.

This ceremony is a beautiful and inspiring occasion. It is in this exercise that student nurses take for the first time, and graduate nurses reaffirm, the famous "Florence Nightingale Pledge."

An excellent program has been arranged with the main address to be delivered by Dr. R. Bruce Wallace, Jr. Other members of the medical, hospital, and Northwestern State College nursing department staffs will also have important parts in the program.

The general public is invited and urged to attend.

Faith Gragg, Route 3, Lake Charles; and Yvonne Jenkins, 2 Erwin Street, Pineville.

Petrovich Wins Excellent Award At 'Bama Tourney

Four Northwestern debaters and coach William S. Smith journeyed to the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa last week-end where they participated in the fifth annual Alabama Discussion Conference. The subject of the discussion was "Should the non-communist nations form a new international organization?"

Luke Petrovich was awarded a certificate of excellence for being rated among the top ten per cent of all the participants. There were 150 students from 21 colleges and universities competing in the tournament.

Other Northwestern debaters making the trip were E. G. Smith, Thomas Poole, and Jimmy Johnson.

The visiting students gave audience to an exhibition debate on Thursday night between the touring British debaters and two debaters from the University of Alabama, and were guests of the University at the Mississippi Southern-Alabama football game Saturday afternoon. The NSC squad returned to the campus Sunday evening.

NSC and La. Col. Hold Practice Debate Thursday

The Northwestern Forensic club was host to the Louisiana College debaters from Pineville, Thursday night in an intersquad meet. Four teams from each school took part in two rounds of practice debate, taking the affirmative in one round and the negative in the other.

The debaters argued the national question for this year, "Resolved, that the non-communist nations should form a new international organization." Participating in the debates for Northwestern were E. G. Smith, Thomas Poole, Luke Petrovich, and Jimmy Johnson.

These practice debates were held to aid the debaters of both schools in preparing for the forthcoming season. Teams from both schools are planning to enter the annual Central State College tournament at Ada, Oklahoma, Dec. 1 and 2, and the LSU tournament at Baton Rouge, Dec. 15 and 16.

In addition to the debate practice, the Northwestern Forensic Club is preparing for contests in individual events—radio, oratory, extemp, poetry interpretation, etc. Efforts are still being made by the club for installation of a chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity.

Cash prizes, donated by the following Natchitoches business firms and civic clubs: Exchange Bank of Natchitoches, City Bank & Trust Co., Peoples Bank, Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary, will be awarded to five of the three automobile entries.

Judges for the event are presidents of three Natchitoches civic clubs: Dudley Fulton, Kiwanis; Hugh Bernard, Rotary; and W. R. Noah, Lions. Results of the judging will be announced during the football game between Northwestern State and Southwestern Louisiana Institute.

Added to the parading group this year is the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, activated at NSC at the beginning of this semester. The Cadets, marching for the first time in full-dress, will appear at both the 9:30 parade this morning and at the pre-game ceremonies this afternoon.

Scheduled for this afternoon on the activity list is the dedication of the Northwestern Library and the drive in front of the men's gymnasium. The Library will formerly be dedicated as the Scharlie E. Russell Library in honor of the distinguished Louisiana librarian. The area in front of the men's gymnasium will be christened Sibley Drive.

Gala Christmas Program Opens Tonight on Cane River Banks

The program of activities marking the formal opening of the Christmas Season will begin at 12:30 Saturday, Dec. 2 in downtown Natchitoches. The entire program will be sponsored by the Christmas Festival Association composed of local business men. The opening event will be a parade which will include floats sponsored by different local organizations, the Demonettes, various other organizations and some 13 high school and college bands. $100 in prizes will be awarded the winning floats — first prize $50, second $35, third $15.

Bands participating are Winnfield, Cloutierville, Natchitoches, Oil City, Greenwood, Mansfield, Coushatta, Tioga, Ida, Ferriday, Vivian and Northwestern State College.

After the parade each band will give a 30 minute concert on the stage under the river bank. The NSC band, under the direction of Dwight Davis will conclude the series of concerts with a rendition of familiar Christmas carols.

The main feature of the program will begin at 7:30 when over $1250 worth of fireworks are displayed along the river front. This part of the annual Christmas Festival has been enjoyed by Natchitochesans and people in surrounding areas since 1937 and has attracted crowds from Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, and many other states. This year some 25-3500 spectators are expected to attend.

The climax of the lighting program will be the gradual turning on of over 30,000 colored bulbs, lighting up all of Natchitoches for the incoming Christmas season.

Following the turning on of the lights at 8:15 an Old-Fashioned Square Dance sponsored by the Round-up Square Dance Club will

Sibley Drive and Library Dedicated Homecoming Day

The dedication of Sibley Drive and the Scharlie E. Russell Library took place at Homecoming with Gratia Smith unveiling the name plate on the library, and Mrs. Sam J. Sibley unveiling the stone on Sibley Drive.

President H. L. Prather introduced the speakers at both places. Emeritus Victor Leander Roy, president of the college when Mr. Sibley was employed, made the dedicatory speech. Mr. Sibley was business manager from 1920 until his death in 1947.

Eugene Watson, librarian, was selected to make the dedicatory address at the library. He was assistant librarian under Miss Russell until her retirement. He then took over the position of librarian.

In his tribute to the former NSC librarian, Watson stated that the library had grown from 5,000 to 40,000 volumes.

There will be no parking along Front St. after 5 p.m. Saturday but arrangements have been made for invalids to park under the river bank. All local people and college students are urged to leave their cars at home to make room for and accommodate out-of-town guests.

Freshman Attends Youth Conference In Washington D.C.

Patsy Winkler, freshman home economics major, left Friday, December 1, by train to attend the world-wide child and youth conference in Washington, D. C.

Patsy met with 32 ministers, priests, doctors, health workers, parents, and teachers from Louisiana in Baton Rouge Monday, November 27, to get final instructions.

Four youths representing the state include a Boy Scout, a Girl Scout, a Future Homemaker, and a 4-H Club member, who is Miss Winkler.

While in the capitol the group will hear President Truman.

The 4-H Club delegate has been asked to remain in Washington until the following Friday to represent the youth of Louisiana in a large planning program.

NSC STUDENT DIES DURING HOLIDAYS

Elizabeth Ann George, a junior in business education, died at her home in Bastrop on November 23 after an illness of one day.

After graduation from Bastrop High School, Elizabeth attended Northeast Junior College in Monroe for a year. In the fall of 1949 she entered NSC, where she was a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority.

According to the attending doctor's report, Elizabeth, 19, died of polio. Funeral rites were held November 24 at the First Baptist Church in Bastrop. A number of her NSC friends were able to attend.

Elizabeth is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. George, Sr., four brothers, and one sister.

The members of the Current Sauce staff extend their sincere sympathy to both her family and friends.

Vetstown Election Scheduled Monday

The terms of the entire council of the Vetstown Community of NSC expire at the end of the fall semester, this year. The council will be replaced by a popular vote at a general assembly of the community at 6:30 Monday evening, December 18, in the visual aids room of the library.

The present council is not eligible for re-election to the same office. To qualify, the candidate must be a married veteran who is to be enrolled in the college the following semester.

NOTICE

Have you done your Christmas shopping? Good, if you have. But have you mailed them yet? Miss Pharris of the post office wishes to remind all students that Christmas parcels should be mailed now to insure delivery before the holidays. Remember in addressing them to include box number and your return address.

Open house for the public, faculty, and students will be held in the Home Economics Building on the campus of Northwestern State College from 6:45 to 9 p.m. Monday, Dec. 4.

Dedicated last April 22, the new modern building contains the latest innovations in equipment providing for each phase of home economics. The Home Economics Building, which cost $289,000, houses all home economics classes which were formerly held in other buildings on the campus.

Members of the faculty of the home economics department will serve as hostesses: Mrs. Ruby Duncelman, head of the home economics department; Mrs. Eola Rooks, Mrs. Marie Dunn, Mrs. Frances Halm, and Miss G. E. Wade. They will be assisted by students to be announced.

St. Nick Will Visit Campus Says Grapevine

Old St. Nick will definitely be at NSC this year. Word has been received from the north pole area that the jolly old man has included in his 1950 itinerary several stops on the "Hill."

First news of his decision to make the "hill" one of his stops came when St. Nick contacted The Current Sauce to act as a recipient of letters to him. This, he explained, would give him a chance to pay special attention to the requests of NSC students.

The main appearance of the old man on the campus will be during the annual Christmas assembly, to be held this year on December 20 in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Santa stated that at present his toy shop was busy turning out creations for "other" kids in the U. S., but as soon as he could find out just what the Demons wanted for Christmas, he would put a special crew to work to have them finished in time for his appearance.

St. Nick stressed the point that students should get their letters in to the Sauce as early as possible. He stated that he would present as many as he possibly could in the assembly on Dec. 20.

(Note: All letters to the Editor must be signed. Names may be withheld on request).

Men's Dormitories Get Beds, Chairs

All men students in the dormitories of NSC will be assigned new steel beds and chairs this week, according to Hal E. Townsend, director of men's housing.

Griffin Taylor, purchasing agent for the college stated that 201 double deck beds were received, at a cost of $7,463.13 and 135 chairs, at a cost of $7,175.70, a total of $14,931.61, plus tax.

New mattresses may be ordered in the future if money can be appropriated, stated Taylor.

Sibley Drive Is Dedicated

Mrs. Sam J. Sibley, assisted by Leroy S. Miller, is shown unveiling the marker dedicating a pine-bordered drive to the memory of her husband, who was business manager and purchasing agent at Northwestern State College for many years. The ceremony took place as part of Homecoming at the college.

In the background are D. J. Hyams, President H. Lee Prather, and President-Emeritus V.

An Editorial

Qu'est-ce Que Dit? What are they saying? The Demon football year is over and basketball is on its way. Some are glad, so they say, and others wish there were a couple of more games yet to be played. The coaches and the players' opinions are unknown.

They say that the Student Senate has on its docket the reconsideration of those amendments that were passed in the constitutional election last year and then declared to be unconstitutionally voted upon.

They say that the food is getting worse and worse, and that the service is no better. They claim that the "sterilized" glasses in the messhall are just a little dirty; that bugs sometimes run out of the cereal.

They say that they are looking forward to the Potpourri Ball and the answer to the big question: "Who is the Potpourri Beauty?"

Demon comment on the campus is definitely not limited to small talk. From big discussions about the ex-Korean situation to little tiny ones about student government, student sessions go on from day to day.

We say that that is good. NSC has once again returned to the old attitude of free talk, a legitimate gripe, and favorable comment.

A little criticism here and there, but mostly comments on how the school has improved . . . with this attitude existing we say, and we believe, that the school will keep on improving.

Joan Brannon Amuses Crowd With Her Magic

Joan Brannon, famous female magician, presented a two hour show in the Fine Arts auditorium Tuesday night before a large assembly of students and townspeople. The show consisted of three phases in which Miss Brannon kept the audience amused.

Using persons from the audience the magician performed a variety of tricks of magic. In the course of her program she explained some of the tricks commonly used in magic shows, and pointed out that they were merely tricks and not based upon any supernatural powers of the magician.

Miss Brannon has traveled over most of the world and understands eleven different languages. She professes to have learned these different languages through hypnosis. In a backstage comment the performer advised some students the secret to making "A" in all one's courses is to learn the art of hypnosis.

Views of The News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

The news of the intensified conflict in Indo-China is being received with far too little concern by far too many people. Many seem to think the Indo-China conflict new and subordinate to the Korean conflict. However, close examination of the facts proves this an invalid conclusion.

In the first place the French have been fighting in Indo-China since 19 December, 1946, while the United States has been fighting in Korea only since 26 June, 1950. The real conflict in Indo-China started before the conditions of the Korean conflict were even created. And I dare say the importance of the Southern Asia conflict exceeds that of Korea.

To understand these assertions, let us examine the current Eastern war and the events which have led up to it. Reviewing the end of World War II, we find that when the Japanese capitulated, there were no French forces in the Far East. The clandestine activity of the French cadres was thwarted by the "coup de force" in March, 1945. The Japanese had massacred or committed to concentration camps all loyal subjects to the Provisional Government of France. General de Gaulle at this time asked America for ships to transport French troops to Indo-China for occupation, but was refused. Thus, the disarming of the Japanese was turned over to the British in southern Indo-China and to the Chinese in the north.

Herein began the force which is accountable for the war in Indo-China today. The Viet-Minh, under the leadership of Ho Chi Minh, had begun a movement of Communist inspiration in Tonkin during the Japanese occupation. It had secured arms from American services in China and from the Japanese in large quantity when the latter realized their fight lost. With this background and with the corrupt Chinese occupation of northern Indo-China, the Viet-Minh extended its power and began its aggressive action.

The French effort in Indo-China has been meager but commendable. The chief problem now is that the French with their internal aid from Indo-China are unable to withstand the aggression of Ho Chi Minhs forces. This condition is intensified considering the aid being received from Mao Tse-tung by the Viet-Minh. Herein also lies the importance of this conflict to us. Linked with the Korean conflict it creates one continuous front which the allies of democracy must maintain.

We are fools who believe the conflict in Indo-China is only between France and the Viet-Minh. It is merely a manifestation of the extensive and expansive effort of the Communist to spread their control over all of Asia. And we are fools who do not recognize the tremendous peril the rest of Asia and the democratic world would be in should Indo-China fall to the Soviet forces.

Student Reaction

Do you like to be "In the Movies?" It may be possible! The CURRENT SAUCE is sponsoring a poll on student reaction on the films shown in the Fine Arts Auditorium at Wednesday morning assembly.

There is a possibility that more films of that type and films of general campus activities may be taken and shown at assemblies shortly after the event. . . . If student opinion warrants it.

We can only know how you feel if you let us know. If you will take the time to tear out the questionnaire below and drop it in the box placed in the Student Center.

If you feel that the questionnaire doesn't give enough space for your views, write a letter to the editor. All opinions welcome.

Did you enjoy the films on the Homecoming Parade and Halftime ceremonies?.....

Would you attend assemblies in which similar types of movies are shown?.....

What activities on the campus do you consider of sufficient interest for filming?.....

Do you have any suggestions for creating a program or for improving an extended program of campus films?.....

The Thanksgiving holidays were welcomed by the students on the campus as a well needed rest. Should I venture to ask how many of you got that rest? Anyway, we're back at NSC and at it again.

All thoughts are now turned toward Christmas. The modern dance group under the direction of Miss Jean Harper is planning a Christmas program. The college singers are working to present to the students the "Messiah". The A.W.S. Council plans to make this the biggest year of the annual Christmas at home yet. Sororities and fraternities anticipate the coming Christmas parties. And everyone is looking forward to the holidays!

A late Thanksgiving dinner was served Coach and Mrs. Prather and Dean Walker and Mrs. Walker Tuesday evening by the girls in the Home Management house. Nell Emmons served as cook for the meal with Anne Duco, Assistant cook. The hostess for the occasion was Mary Belle Davis.

Phi Kappa Nu will entertain at the second fraternity dance of the year tonight. Red and white, the fraternity colors, will be used in the decorations. The highlight of the dance will be the presentation of the Phi Kappa Nu Sweetheart.

Congratulations are in order for Miss Patsy Winkler who left yesterday for Washington, D. C. Patsy is representing the youth of Louisiana at the Youth Conference.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Pi Kaps have really been busy lately with rushing and all. The formal rush party was Friday, November 17 and lasted from seven until ten. The theme was Scheherazade's Harem. With the sound of a gong rushees entered the land of "A Thousand and One Nights." From the entrance could be seen in the center a huge silver pool with bowls of fresh fruit placed at interval upon it. At the end of the room sat President Pat Leone, jeweled turban and robe, as the Sultan, of the magic land. She was seated upon a beautiful throne where she ordered court jesters, Ann Freeze and Gloria Camp to bring on the program. Several tall white columns loomed up through the room and they were draped with silver dusted pastels, giving a dreamy effect. The room was outlined in black hanging with many silver stars representing the night. Satin pillows provided pillows for all. Miss Jean Harper, co-sponsor of the sorority, was borne in by two slaves and presented as the Sultan's favorite dancer. John Hicks and Church Castaing entertained with a tumbling act and court jesters tried their luck at this act. A dance composed of various harem girls came next and Beryl DeLoach sang "It Was Written in the Stars." Eunice Eden, as the court sage gave the court prophecy and after refreshments, the mystic spell was broken and the entire group journeyed to the house on Pi Kap Hill where they sang sorority songs. At this time Beryl DeLoach sang a song she had composed to the tune of "Oh Promise Me."

The Pi Kaps Homecoming float "Alumns We knew You Were Coming so we Baked a Cake" took honors again. This time fourth place.

Open house was held after the Homecoming game in honor of Pi Kap alumni. We were happy to see such people as Martie Broussard Powell, Sara Pat Andry, Elise Hines, Helen Helder Sellers, Margaret Ellen Sutton, Joan Phillips Scheen, Margie Seegars, Mary Bogan Cummings, Hope Richard Sansing, Kathryn Henry, Ann Sterkx Swift, and Beverly Rose Sibley.

Bid Sunday was an extremely happy occasion as the Pi Kaps welcomed the following: Janice Austin, Dee Dee Barmore, Isabelle Pierce, Rita Doughty, Betty Roberts, Mittie Lancaster, Gail Curley, Patsy Sullivan, Frances Wilson, Patsy Winkler, Marilyn Snoddy, Sara Cook, Sally Hall, Mary Murphy, Kathleen Ray, Sue Rhodes, Lynn Rutledge, Glen Ellen Pennington, Jo Pullen, Louise Vick, Bobby Patterson, Barbara Malloy and Nelda Maden. The group attended lunch at Doug's Steak House and a movie together.

Formal pledging was Monday night.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

After homecoming day, bid-Sunday, nad the Thanksgiving holidays, the Theta Sigs are ready to settle down again.

The Theta Sigs are very proud of the five wonderful pledges that accepted their bids Sunday morning. The five are Betty Sue Boydston, Joyce Winn, Darline Farr, Sue Garmany and Evelyn Mussilwhite. These five were ribbon-pledged in the sorority room Sunday morning. Afterwards everyone motored out to Murphy's for coffee. After a turkey dinner at the Nakatosh Hotel, the group enjoyed a movie.

The new pledges met Monday afternoon with their pledge mistress, Mary Alice Driscoll for their first sorority meeting. Darline Farr was elected president of the pledges.

Tuesday night at the regular meeting, a social service project was discussed. A couple of boxes of food, toys, and clothing will be given at Christmas to a needy family.

The Theta Sigs had open house homecoming day. They were very glad to welcome old and new members.

Congratulations go to Zona Morris for being a maid in the Homecoming court. Congratulations also go to Bessie Morgan for being one of the top 15 beauties.

The Theta Sigs are looking forward to the wedding of Jo Nell Richardson to Sonny Gatlein of Mansfield. The wedding will take place during the Christmas holidays.

A couple of the Theta Sigs are on the injured list. Zona Morris had a little accident on a motor scooter during the holidays. The results—cuts and bruises. Barbara West caused excitement in the dormitory when she hit her knee and out of place it went. Both are doing fine and are expected to survive.

Word has been received from Jaquette Davis. She is now in training for an airline hostess of the Delta airlines. She will start her flying duties on December 15.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Delta Sigma pledges have met elected their officers with Ann Deree, president, Jocelyn Townsend, vice-president; Mary Glaze, secretary-treasurer; and Martha Ann Leach, chaplain. The other new pledges are Elisa Maxwell, Peggy Trichel, Jenny Lou Ingram, Bobbye Lou Hancock, Betty Bryant, Lynn Swope, Lelia Lanahan, Marilyn Kent, Ethlyn Cloutier, Kathleen Prudhomme, Louise Burns, Dodo Sutherland Jenny Marmande, and Janelle Watson.

The pledges joined the actives after business was pushed aside for a hilarious time. Jocelyn Townsend played the piano and sang "Caldonia," Kathleen Prudhomme and Ethlyn Cloutier sang a pledge song of their own invention to the tune of "Darktown Strutters' Ball"; and Dokey Abraham gave the "German Girl" and sang "Blue Moon."

JoAnn DeBate gave the welcome news that the DSE sweaters would be in next week.

The Homecoming float was put into effect with a good many last minute changes. A little bit of the Hawaiian Islands was driven through Natchitoches on the float with Julia McBroom greeting the people with "Haw-ah-ya."

Mac Schoonover was taken home before the holidays because of illness; it's possible that she won't be back this semester. She certainly is missed.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

INITIATES PLEDGES NOV. 18

Demons Stomp E. Texas Baptist 34-6; End Season With Six Wins, 4 Losses

By JOE RUSSELL

The Thanksgiving Day game with East Texas Baptist here in Demons' Stadium was nothing short of a track meet with everyone trying either to score or run with the ball. Bobby Davis started things off with a 42 yard kick to the Texas team, and after one running play, they attempted a pass which was intercepted by the Demons. On the first play from scrimmage, Bobby Davis picked up 5 and then carried again for 26 and a touchdown, but failed to collect the extra point. With two minutes and forty seconds of the game gone, the Demons kicked off to the Texans, who tried a series of running and pass plays. They were held, and had to kick. At this time, Art "Buddy" Lancaster picked up 40 yards on first down. Then with another first down, Beck hit the line for 2. A. Lancaster tried for no gain, and McHallfey tried a pass to Calvert. Tanner kicked for 14 yards.

After several exchanges of the ball, M. D. Ray passed 43 yards to Harold Tanner for the second touchdown, and B. Davis collected the extra point. The Demons led 13 to 0. After getting their hands on the ball once again, Ray passed to Tanner for 36 yards. Art Lancaster hit the line for one yard and Ray passed to Lancaster in the end zone for the third Demon score.

Starting the second half off, Beck and Davis alternated carrying the ball. Beck finally went over from the 7 yard line. Davis collected the extra point. The fourth quarter was when the East Texans scored. With Ray passing, Jackie Givens, playing his last game for the Demons, picked up 14 yards, hit the line, and went over for another Demon tally. To top off the extra point, Jack Huckaby, all GSC candidate, kicked the extra point.

The Other Half

All over the nation this past week, students were returning back to their respective schools. Previously, these same scholars were giving "thanks" for Thanksgiving, but alas and alas, Turkey Day comes but once per annum and now it's gone. The only thing American students are looking forward to now is Christmas, with the exception of a few who are candidates for matriculation.

Well, enough for the holidays and on to business.

Down Baton Rouge way, LSU has some new rules about parking. . . . Don't get the wrong idea now, as I did. Upon further investigation of the new rules, yours truly discovered that the rules did not pertain to the "national pastime," but to the parking of automobiles in the area surrounding the LSU Stadium during athletic events there. . . .

Congratulations to Mr. Jimmy Coleman of Southwestern Louisiana Institution. . . . Mr. Coleman was recently honored in an election by the entire SLI student body. His title—"The Ugliest of the Ugly Mugs." . . . (I shudder at the thought of a similar election here at NSC.) . . .

Weaker sex? . . . Up at Michigan Central College, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, the entire student body recently went all out for "Sadie Hawkins' Day" with all the trimmings. They even went to the extent that the "She Shmoos" couldn't have dates unless they asked the "He Shmoos." By the way, boys, the "She Shmoos" also had to pay the expenses. . . . Sounds like a good idea! . . .

Here's a new twist on football half-time ceremonies. During the half-time in the recent California U.-University of San Francisco football game, more than 2,300 high school students representing 46 California high school choirs, will sing during the intermission period. . . .

In closing this week's attempt at a column, here's a little list of things from another college publication that I thought I'd pass along to you.

WHY IS IT? . . . When you're down to your last pair of socks, the laundry isn't ready?

When you cut a class for the first time, your instructor calls the roll?

When you have made plans to go home for the week-end, someone asks you for a date?

When you do study for a test, you study the wrong material?

When you want a light, nobody has a match?

When you're gossiping about somebody, that person walks in?

When you put on a clean shirt, you dunk your sleeves in catsup?

The time has come to abdicate, so I guess that's all until next week.

6 Meets Slated For Demon Nat. Team This Year

The Demon varsity swimming team has booked meets for the season so far, according to Coach John Piscopo. In addition to the six scheduled meets the team has slated two tentative meets for the year.

The team, in practice since Nov. 15, will make its first public appearance against Memphis Naval Air Station on Jan. 20, in the NSC natatorium.

Other definitely scheduled meets are:

S. M. U.—Feb. 3—Here
Texas A. & M.—Feb. 10—Here
Memphis Naval Station — Feb. 17—Memphis
Pensacola Nav. Air Stat.—Feb. 24—Here
S. E. A. A. U.—March 3—Emory U.

Meets tentatively scheduled for the team are with Vanderbilt U., and Baylor.

There are still openings for candidates for the '50-51 swimming team, stated Piscopo. Persons interested should contact him or meet at the natatorium during practice hours at 7:30 p. m. daily.

Jr.-Soph. Classes Sponsor Variety Show for Band

Organizations on the campus were asked recently to participate in a Variety Show, co-sponsored by the Junior and Sophomore classes. The show is to be given January 10 to help raise money for a name band fund now being raised on the campus.

The acts will be competitive and will be placed in two categories: one pertaining to music and the other to miscellaneous acts (skits, comedy, etc.). A five minute minimum and a fifteen minute maximum will be set as time limits for each act.

According to a letter issued by Sophomore Class President Don Jones, each organization may enter two acts, one in each class, if they so desire.

A first prize of $7.50 will be awarded the best act in each category, so that it is possible for an organization that wins first place in both music and miscellaneous to get a total of $15.00 prize money.

Five faculty members will judge the show on quality, originality, and other points. Novelty will play a big part in rating of the miscellaneous acts.

Deadline for entries in the show was December 1.

Students helping in preparation of the show are, Chairmen, Don Jones, Kenneth Isgitt; Program Committee, Rudy Berlin, Charlotte Martin, Peggy Haywood, Pat Marmande, and Kathryn Hopkins; Publicity Committee, Marie Tilleux, Carolyn McLean, Philip Choren, Joyce Rambin, Leland Landridge, Carolyn Fultz, Eunice Eden, Ben Duhon, and Jack Gaston.

ROTC to Give Bi-monthly Radio Program

A series of bi-monthly ROTC radio programs, to be presented as a project of the speech radio class has been tentatively scheduled. First program in the series, which will feature ROTC Staff and Cadets was tentatively set for Thursday. Although a definite time has not been assigned by Station KWJC, the programs are expected to run fifteen minutes every other week. The programs will be produced by Cadet Lt. Lowell Vaughn.

Two invitations to the Louisiana Tech Military Ball Dec. 2 were received by the ROTC department, and Firal Ryder and Ponder Davis will attend.

SEE DEMONS
BASKETBALL GAME
MONDAY NIGHT

Homecoming was completed here at Northwestern, when the Demons defeated the Bulldogs of Southwestern Louisiana Institute, to the tune of 12 to 7, with Joe Price Lancaster and Bobby Ray McHallfey tallying for the Demons in a game which saw the Bulldogs fumble 18 times and the alert Demons pouncing on the majority. The game was a tossup to start with. Not until the second quarter was either team able to push over a touchdown.

After two hair-raising runs, Joe Lancaster slammed over from the 25 yard marker for the first score in the game. Big guns in the game were Bobby Davis and M. D. Ray in the backfield, and Jack Huckaby, Don Danos, Tyrus Sibley, Steve Cole, and Sonny Pharris in the line. The jarring tackles of Huckaby and Danos caused the Bulldogs to fumble repeatedly with Demons covering the ball most of the time.

Huckaby broke through and blocked a Bulldog punt, and Don Danos raced the distance for the score, but he was called back, and the score nullified. Early in the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs were able to push over a touchdown and garner the extra point. Emmons dropped back and passed to Beck for 16 yards, and attempted three more passes which were incomplete. Tanner kicked, and the Bulldogs fumbled. The Demons recovered. With M. D. Ray back in formation, he completed three passes, the last one being to Harold Tanner on the one foot line. At this point, McHallfey carried over on a quarterback sneak.

The game ended with the SLI team trying desperately to score on passes, but failing. The Demons won their first conference game since their victory over Louisiana College.

Due to excessive mail loads we did not receive the pictures intended for publication in the Current Sauce this week. The Homecoming activities will be pictured in next week's Sauce. Sorry!

The Department of Home Economics will have open house on the evening of Monday, Dec. 4, from 6:45 to 9:00 for the faculty, staff, students, and friends in town. Come and bring your family.

Eugene P. Watson Is Elected Chairman of Col. and Uni. Section

Eugene P. Watson, librarian at Northwestern State College, was elected chairman of the College and University Section at the Southwestern Library Association's biennial meeting in San Antonio last week.

Promotion of library interest and advancement of the cause of librarianship are the chief aims of the Association which includes Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Arizona, and New Mexico.

Val Hill, director of orchestral music at Northwestern State College, has been included on the national list of judges and clinic directors of the National Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Association, according to Arthur G. Harrel, president of the Association in Wichita, Kan.

This list includes music teachers who are qualified to judge music contests and direct bands and orchestras at music clinics throughout the nation.

Drama Dept. Presents Play December 6-7-8

An escaped stranger will bring anxiety to the players, and the audience, in "Cuckoos on the Hearth," a mystery play in three acts, to be presented by the Northwestern State College drama department, directed by Don A. Carr, in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building at 8 p.m. Dec. 6, 7, and 8.

"Cuckoos on the Hearth," a recent Broadway success by Parker Fennelly, was described by drama critic Burns Mantle as "one of the craziest mystery comedies."

The action begins at the lonely Maine home of Don Carlton, (played by Marion Shirah of Shreveport, who also was cast in that role in the Byrd High School production a few seasons ago). Carlton, a young inventor, must go to Washington to discuss a formula he has perfected.

Carlton's wife, Charlotte (Miss Betty Sue Boydston of Natchitoches), is left under the somewhat dubious protection of Zadoc Grimes (Bill Cronin of Teaneck, N. J.), a pompous, disagreeable egomaniac who writes fantastic murder mysteries.

Next on the scene are The Professor (Ponder Davis of Many), a suave menace; "Doc" Ferris (Donald Nutter of Encampment, Wyo.) a loud-spoken Brooklyn-type cabbie; and the Rev. Clarence Underhill (Bob Dervitt of Shreveport), a gentleman who is not all he appears to be.

Abby Redick (Miss Helen Brupbacher of New Orleans) acts as narrator and connects the various scenes of action with pertinent comments. Lulu Pung (Miss Julie McBroom of Shreveport) lends a touch of comedy as a flighty relative of the Carltons. Another bit of comic interest is provided by Beulah Peck (Miss Beth Hargrave of Oakdale), the wife of a telephone repairman, who is doing her husband's work while he recuperates from a broken leg.

Adding to are Sheriff Preble (James Leake of Monroe), a kindly, mild-mannered character; Dr. Gordon (Miss Nelwyn Turner of Natchitoches), a mysterious person who pops up from nowhere to complicate the action; and the State Trooper (Wesley Jackson of Leesville).

Library Frat To Establish Miss. Chapter

A delegation from Alpha chapter of Alpha Beta Alpha, national library science fraternity, is going to Columbus, Miss., Saturday to establish the Beta chapter at the Mississippi State College for Women.

The members who will make the trip are: Miss Helen Belisle, of Many, national president; Miss Sallie Harper, of Crowville, national vice-president; Eugene P. Watson, national executive secretary; and Mrs. Lucille Carnahan, national executive committee member and sponsor of the Alpha chapter.

Mrs. Carnahan is the Natchitoches High School librarian, and Watson is librarian of NSC.

Alpha Beta Alpha was established at NSC last May 3 as the first undergraduate co-educational library science fraternity in the United States. Since then, schools in New York, Illinois, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Texas, Indiana, and Louisiana have requested information regarding the establishment of chapters.

The fraternity has received national recognition in the American Library Association Bulletin, the Library Journal, the Clearinghouse News Letter, and the Louisiana Library Association Bulletin.

Watson, as executive secretary for the ABA, attended the American Library Association convention in Cleveland last July where he gave a talk on the fraternity.

Other NSC students who are officers include: Miss Katherine E. Hopkins, of Tallulah, national treasurer; Miss Bobbie Elkins, of Shongaloo, executive committee member; and Miss Patsy Eason, of Many, president of the Alpha chapter.

Nursing Notes

By JANICE M. TUCKER

On November 25, Saturday evening, at 7:30, the processional began in which the eleven Northwestern State College Student Nurses affiliating at Baptist Hospital marched down the aisle of the Emanuel Baptist auditorium to receive their caps.

W. Wilson Turner, administrator of Baptist Hospital, presided. He congratulated the group on the splendid work they had done to earn their caps.

The invocation was given by Rev. Tracy H. Lamar, pastor of St. James Episcopal Church. The greeting was given by Dr. Franklin M. Segler, pastor of Emanuel Baptist Church and President of the Board of Trustees of Baptist Hospital. A solo, "My Task," was sung by Leon Maxwell. Dr. King Rand, Chief of Staff, Baptist Hospital, gave the introduction.

Our guest speaker was Dr. R. B. Wallace, Jr., member of the Medical Staff, Baptist Hospital. Miss Graham Price, our Director of the Department of Nursing, presented each student with a cap. Miss Sada F. Haynes, Director of Nursing in the Alexandria Division presented each student to Miss Price for capping. Miss Ruby M. Hall, Supervisor of Nursing, Baptist Hospital, represented the Lady with the Lamp, as she lit each student's lamp after she had been capped.

After all the students had received their caps, the group stood, with lighted lamps, and recited the Florence Nightengale Pledge. The Benediction was given by Rev. Virgil D. Morris, pastor of the First Methodist Church. After the Benediction, the group marched down the same aisle, with the same lamp—but with a different stride, a lighted lamp, and a new cap.

Times Editor to Rejoin Faculty For Short Time

Charles Cunningham, Managing Editor of the Times, will return to the Journalism Department at Northwestern State College Monday, pinch-hitting for Professor Phillip E. Berk, who is ill.

Mr. Cunningham holds the M. A. degree in English with a major in Journalism. He taught at the college for ten years.

The appointment is temporary, and Mr. Cunningham will continue his duties with the Times.

Capping Exercises Scheduled Tonight For Student Nurses in Shreveport

Saturday, December 2, will mark the night of the first Capping Exercises for student nurses in the Shreveport Division of the Northwestern State College Department of Nursing. Exercises will take place at 7:30 p.m., in the Louisiana State Exhibit Building with a reception immediately following. Principal speaker for the occasion will be Mr. Louie E. Throgmorton of Shreveport.

The students who are to receive their caps are members of the first class enrolled by Northwestern when the Nursing program was inaugurated in September, 1949. During the first year, the students attended basic science and academic courses on the Northwestern State College campus to prepare them for the clinical areas. Since September, 1950, the students have been receiving the necessary clinical experience in the four hospitals affiliating with Northwestern — Highland Sanitarium, North Louisiana Sanitarium, Shreveport Charity Hospital, and Tri-State Hospital.

For the students to receive their caps is an indication that they have successfully completed basic theory and practical courses and have been accepted into the clinical fields. A cappy student has acquired the ability and art of working skillfully with her head, heart, and Hands—the 3 H's associated with the nursing profession.

Students who are to receive their caps are as follows: Billie Lucille Alford, Shreveport; Martha Jane Allen, Ville Platte; Millicent Boatright Arnold, Logansport; Lucille Katherine Bacle, Mangham; Ameralis Faye Bailey, Rosepine; Mrs. Jerene Willis B. Rosepine; Mrs. Jerene Willis Beatty, Shreveport; Mrs. Orlean Madden Beckett, Bossier City.

Mary Joyce Bedgood, Atlanta, Texas; Anita Sue Bishop, Minden; Carlene Anne Blum, Morgan City; Merlene W. Bond, Rodessa; Veronetta Borden, Oak Grove; Maxine Bowden, Hope, Ark.; Mrs. Agnes Feazel Brown, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Betty Jean Currie, Shreveport; Mary Frances DeaBte, Bunkie; Mrs. Helen Crunk Elrod, Logansport; Ernestine Emmett, Noble; Louetta T. Falcon, Rayne; June Ann Gissler, Artesia, New Mexico; Rosa Mae Godwin, Jonesville; Dorothy Ann Hayes, Shreveport; Emma Marie Hebert, Abbeville; Marilyn Ruth Helton, Shreveport.

Patsy Aliece Henry, Troup, Texas; Margie Lee Hoffpair, Indian Bayou; Rita Evone Key, Effie; Farah Tema LaGrone, Lufkin, Texas; Virginia LeMour, Lake Charles; Mildred Charlene Melton, Mindne; Nancy Montgomery, Springhill; Barbara Jean O'Brien, Opelousas; Gloria Ann Paris, Mansfield; Esther Lucille Remont, Cut Off; Martha Magruder Skinner, Lucedale, Miss.; Donna E. Wilson, Utility; and, Mary Frances Woodruff, Shreveport.

Mung Bean

China's mung bean, source of the tender sprouts that make chop suey and other oriental dishes exotic, achieved commercial importance as an American crop during World War II. Grown almost exclusively in Oklahoma, it reached a production peak of 24,200,000 pounds in 1945. Demand has lessened since the war, with the result that the 1949 harvest was one-third that of 1945.

Senate Minutes

The senate was called to order Tuesday, Nov. 21, by Vice-president Marie Tilleux. The freshman senators present, Joe Saltzman, Claudine Box, and Evelyn Pyle, were introduced. The others are Stewart Carrington and Louise Burns.

Chuck Tillman read the draft of the loan fund plan and each part was explained. General approval was made of the plan. The chairman of the fund plan committee was authorized to continue preparatory measures.

Sonny Hoff made the motion that at the next meeting the fund plan be put to vote before the senate, and that immediately procedures be started on it. The motion was seconded and passed.

Leland Langridge offered the assistance of the Student Federation, and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Joyce Rambin, Sec'y

I. A. Club Entry Takes First Place In Demon Parade

First place prize money of $35 was won by the Northwestern State College Industrial Arts Club for their DEMON MERRY-GO-ROUND float in the annual Homecoming parade staged in Natchitoches Nov. 18.

Other winners were: Second place, Lambda Zeta fraternity's SWINGING ON A STAR, $25; third place, Baptist Student Union's TIME TO BEAT SOUTHWESTERN, $15; and Pi Kappa Sigma's I KNEW YOU WERE COMING SO I BAKED A CAKE tied with Alpha Sigma Alpha's SWEETS TO THE ALUMNI for fourth place money of $10.

The judges, Dudley Fulton, W. R. Noah, and Hugh Bernard, presidents of the Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary clubs, respectively, had trouble selecting a third place champion. After deliberation, a fourth prize was decided upon with the judges personally supplying the extra money.

Other prize money was awarded by the local Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, Rotary Club, City Bank and Trust Co., Exchange Bank, Peoples Bank, and the "N" Club and Student Council of NSC.

A. L. Ducournau and B. B. Boyd, faculty sponsors for the event, this week expressed their appreciation to all who contributed toward making the affair successful.

VA Asks All Recalled Vets To Notify Them

Veterans recalled to active military duty while they are receiving benefit payments from Veterans Administration can save themselves and the Government a lot of trouble notifying VA immediately of their recall.

These benefit payments include GI Bill or Public Law 16 subsistence allowances and compensation for service-connected disabilities.

The law does not permit a veteran to receive such VA payments once he goes back into uniform.

If a veteran receives such a payment covering any period after he has entered active duty, he should return it to the VA office which has his records. Otherwise, it will remain as an overpayment against him until disposed of.

The notification to VA of recall to active duty should include the veteran's "C" (claims) number, his complete name and address, the amount of the VA payment, what it's for, and the date he is to go back into service.

The veteran should send this notice to the VA office handling his records. In Louisiana, VA Regional Offices are located at New Orleans and Shreveport.

Swedish Gov't Offers Three Fellowships

The Swedish Government has made available three fellowships to American students for graduate study in Sweden during the academic year 1951-52. These are offered for study at the Universities of Gothenburg, Lund, Stockholm and Uppsala and at other approved institutions.

Both men and women are eligible to supply. Each fellowship carries a cash stipend of 3,800 Swedish crowns. It is expected that tuition fees will be waived, except in the Graduate Course for English speaking students at the University of Stockholm. Preference will be given to those who have not had the opportunity of studying in Sweden.

In certain scientific fields and in the Graduate Course for English speaking students at the University of Stockholm, a knowledge of Swedish is not necessary but it is preferable in all cases. Applications with all supporting documents must be filed not later than February 1, 1951. Seniors interested in applying should see Dr. G. Waldo Dunnington at once.

To Stage Xmas Festival Program

The public is invited to attend the Christmas program to be held on the lawn of the Natchitoches Trade School Saturday, December 2, at 6:15 p.m.

The students and faculty members of Natchitoches Trade School have a beautiful program arranged and a very colorful Christmas scene to be lighted during the ceremony.

The program will be presented before the usual fireworks downtown, and will give everyone adequate time to be present on the banks of Cane River Lake for the main feature of the Christmas festival.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

The Student Council of NSC met November 30, 1950, at 6:00 p.m. in the Student Council Room. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Chuck Castaing.

The first matter for discussion was the type of cheerleader sweater and letter to be awarded the cheerleaders. Several cheerleaders were interviewed, and it was decided that the type of letter for the sweaters would be determined later.

Don Jones gave a report on the Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities' dues which have been sent off this semester, leaving us paid up at present with the Federation.

Don Jones then made a motion that the maximum possible compensation of the business managers of the Current Sauce be raised $10.00 per month, in accordance with the Honor Court interpretation of "managers" in Article VII, Section 3, Subsection (c) of the Constitution.

Pat Bishop seconded the motion. After much discussion, the motion was passed with a vote of four to one.

The Student Council is empowered to do this through the Constitution. Before the motion is made valid, however, it must be approved by the Student Senate, so in accordance with this, Don Jones was appointed by the Student Council to present the motion for approval to the Student Senate.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

were: Dr. Leo T. Albritten, professor of education; Dr. Walter J. Robinson, head of the department of industrial education and vice-president of the LEA industrial arts section; and Dr. John A. Jones, principal of Warren Easton Elementary School.

H. Lee Prather, president of the college; Dudley Fulton, director of student personnel; and Leroy S. Miller, secretary-treasurer of the NSC Alumni Association and Placement Service, were among those attending.

Miss Irma Stockwell, assistant professor of speech, was elected vice-president of the Louisiana Speech Association. Don A. Carr, associate professor, discussed "Problems of Teaching Drama in the Classroom" at one of the sessions. At another, William S. Smith, director of forensics, participated in a panel discussion, "Making the Forensic Problem Monroe Realistic."

"Health Policies for Children of School Age in Louisiana" was the subject of a panel participated in by Guy W. Nesom, director of the department of health and physical education.

Mrs. Vilma Hargis, of the high school staff, was a member of a panel on "What Kind of Art Education Do We Need, and How Shall We Achieve It?"

THIRD ANNUAL GYMNASTIC SHOW SET DEC. 13

The 1950 edition of the Northwestern State College gym team has slated its annual gymnastic talent display here on the campus for Wednesday, Dec. 13.

The popular show, which toured the state last year, stars Demon gymnasts who have taken records throughout the state in previous seasons.

Lee Reece, senior from Shreveport, took honors in the AAU meet at New Orleans last year, copping the title, "Mr. New Orleans." Al Kopp and Warren Hauth, both New Orleans boys, took first places in gym competition at the same time.

The show includes group pyramids, work on the parallel bars, tumbling, horizontal bar acts, and a host of other gymnastic feats.

Two acts along the comedy line spark the show along with music furnished by the Demonaires.

Highlight of the show this year is a series of still poses depicting such scenes as "American Sports," "Progress," and "Liberation."

Members of the team, under the direction of Coach John Piscopo, are Al Kopp, Captain, New Orleans; Warren Hauth, New Orleans; Chuck Castaing, New Orleans; Ben Duhon, Baton Rouge; Jeff Hennessy, Monroe; Dale Branch, Waterproof; Joe Holley, Tallulah; Ralph Gremillion, Alexandria; Jack Gaston, El Dorado, Ark.; Pedro Velez, Puerto Rico; Lee Reece, Shreveport; Leland Landridge, Shreveport; Jas. Brannon, Sulphur; Kenneth Howard, Shreveport; John Hicks, New Orleans; James Carlyle, Shreveport; Bert Babcock, New Orleans; and Fair Hyams, Natchitoches.

Tickets for the show will be on sale in advance in the Book Store of the college Student Center. Prices for tickets are: Students 25c, adults and townspeople, 50c. Tickets will also be on sale at the gate.

Legis., Exec. Bills Before Senate; Would Change Senate Election Date

Senate President Jimmy Johnson introduced to the Senate Tuesday night two joint resolutions which would create major changes in the Student Body Association Constitution.

The first of the resolutions would change the date of election to the Senate members from fall to spring. According to the bill introduced by the president in the last moments of the meeting the Senate election would be held in the fifteenth week of the spring semester. This would place the election at the same time of the second primary election for student body officers.

Reasons for the bill, Johnson stated, was to have the Senate in effect at the beginning of the year, when its decisions are really needed, since the Senate is supposed to pass on all budgetary and other actions of the Student Council.

The second bill introduced at the meeting concerned the Executive portion of the Student Body Association Constitution. Although the bill would make a major change in the constitutional status of executive members, it would not change the method or date of election of these officials.

The resolution in effect places the student body president in the position of Chief Executive, with the other elected student council officials as his cabinet.

These bills, with others, will be considered by the Senate at their next meeting. If passed they will be referred to the Student Council. After approval by both the Student Senate and the Student Council, they will be put before the student body for ratification as required in the Association Constitution.

Dr. Han to Speak At NSC Ed. Dept.

Dr. Harold C. Han, professor of education at the University of Illinois, will speak at the joint guidance conference held by the state Department of Education and Northwestern here Dec. 15.

This will be the third annual conference and will be in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building from 9:30 to 3 p.m. Mrs. Margaret Colvin, state teachers and counselors are expected to be present.

Dr. Han will demonstrate his lectures with slide material. The last part of the program will be a question and answer session.

Dr. Han has been a consultant in guiding for a number of years and served on the faculty of Columbia University, Stanford, Northwestern University, and the American University of Cairo. He also served over three years as Lieutenant-Colonel in the Air Force. He was also associate director at the Carnegie guidance studies for a number of years.

Dr. Han will pilot his own plane from the University of Illinois.

Kellogg Fund Exec. to Inspect Nursing Program

Miss Mildred L. Tuttle, Nursing Director of W. K. Kellogg Foundation in Battle Creek, Mich. will be a special guest of the Nursing Department of Northwestern State College on Tuesday, December 12.

The purpose of Miss Tuttle's visit will be to see the operation of the Nursing program in effect here on our campus. Miss Tuttle has a personal interest in the curriculum which is being developed at Northwestern. Now a collegiate program of 4½ and 5 years instead of the 4 year intergraded program is being developed here.

Student Loan Fund Passes Senate; Slated for Council Action This Week

College Student Killed in Wreck

Thomas L. McCaughan, 19, student at Northwestern State College, was killed early Sunday morning when the car in which he was riding missed the Bermuda bridge and plunged into Cane River Lake. Parish Coroner Dr. W. H. Pierson said drowning was the cause of death.

McCaughan, along with Robert Lan Allen and Jim Falkner, was returning from a fraternity initiation when the accident occurred. Falkner was driving.

Allen suffered a broken collar bone and minor cuts and bruises and Falkner sustained minor cuts and bruises.

Annual AWS Doll Program Slated Dec. 10

The annual "Christmas at Home" tea will be held Sunday, December 10 from 3 to 5 in the drawing room of Varnado Hall.

Sponsoring the affair will be the Associated Women Students who present "Christmas at Home" for the 4th consecutive year.

On display will be dolls depicting various Christmas and college scenes. The displays will be planned and decorated by each of the women's dormitories. These dolls are to be presented to a Natchi-

The Student Senate approved by unanimous vote Monday night, Dec. 5, a proposed by-law to place in operation on the campus a student short-range loan fund. The by-law was formally introduced by "Chuck" Tillman at the second meeting of the Senate this year.

The idea for the bill was first conceived by members of the Student Council at the NSA meeting in Ann Arbor, Mich., last summer.

Don Jones, president of the Sophomore class, was assigned by the Council to complete research on the project at that time.

The results of his research, a compilation of the two plans used at LaSalle College, Ind., and at Southeastern Louisiana, were used to write the bill as submitted to the Student Senate here.

According to the proposed plan students will be allowed to borrow up to and including $10 from a fund which will be operated by the students. The proposed by-law was first written so that the funds used in operation of the plan would be jointly administered by an executive treasurer of the Student Senate and by the treasurer of NSC.

Due to the necessity for the State Board approval of placing student funds in the hands of the treasurer for an administration the plan was revised.

In its final form, the by-law reads that the funds will be administered by a faculty member who will be called disbursing treasurer and who will disburse all loans, and by a student, who will authorize loans.

The by-law, as proposed by the senate will be submitted to the Student Council Thursday night for approval after a seven day interval for deliberation.

Prior to submission the by-law will be scanned by a Style and Revision committee who will correct all grammatical errors. Upon its return to the Student Senate preparation to place the plan into operation will be made.

'Harmony Hearth' Mystery Staged By Drama Dept.

"Cuckoos on the Hearth," a three-act mystery, was presented in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts building, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week.

The setting takes place in Harmony Hearth, Me., where a newly married couple reside with a younger cousin and an invited guest. Don Carlton, the husband, is making preparations to leave for Washington D. C. He learns that a lunatic killer has escaped from the nearby asylum and hesitates to leave his wife. The situation becomes involved when three foreign agents appear on the scene after Carlton's departure. The agents are after Carlton's

'Christmas Goes on'

Varnado Hall will stage its annual reception, "Christmas at Home," on Sunday, December 13. Four years ago, the idea for this annual reception for all college and town people was conceived by the Associated Women Students to create both an entertaining feature of Christmas on the "Hill," and to provide enjoyment for those who are unable to provide for the season adequately.

Women of each of the five dormitories on the campus, dress in original costumes, four or five dolls which are contributed by the officers of AWS. These costumes are made by the girls, and may depict any scene or era of dress. For instance, the dolls are dressed to show an old-fashioned carolling scene, an ice-skating scene, or Christmas at home. The scenes and costumes are optional for each dormitory.

The individual scenes are arranged in the drawing-room of Varnado by the dormitories, with prizes awarded to the most original scenes and costumes. After "Christmas at Home," the dolls are distributed to various organizations throughout the town, who, in turn, give them to children whose parents are unable to provide such gifts.

At the initiation of this program, the State Board of Education provided funds for the program. This year, the fund was removed from the budget. Undaunted, the AWS has carried on its program, once again brightening the Christmas season on the "Hill," and continuing their aid to needy children.

Views of The News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

As the position of the United States in the present conflict becomes more and more perilous, more and more people seem inclined to make the headlines with trite criticism of our government leaders. Recognizing the fact that our policy makers are far from the best we should hope for, the citizens of the United States should contribute all they can to the success of these men in preserving the security of our nation—not to their failure.

It is true that the immediate future of this country, and of the world, cannot be definitely ascertained at this time. It is true that we have made mistakes in our Far Eastern foreign policy. It is true that currently we are losing many American men on the battlefield in the East. However, the malicious public criticism of our leaders by a few unqualified critics does not help to alleviate these conditions.

Let us consider the validity of the cryptic statements made recently by such men as Glenn McCarthy, Benjamin Fairless, and Philip Murray. By what token is McCarthy an authority on governmental affairs; does being a fabulous businessman qualify him as an expert on foreign policy? Not necessarily so. Then consider the United States Steel Corporation president, Benjamin Fairless. By what reasoning does he criticize our leaders when he has done so much to foil the optimum efforts of our industrial output? The actions of Philip Murray, the CIO boss, are hardly consistent with his cries and protests against our government leaders.

Surely these men and anyone else can criticize severely the leaders of this country, and can offer such vague policies as that of McCarthy's, "Find the truths, get the answers and then someone make a decision." But just whom do these people think they are fooling? Of course, that is the formula for action. But it is also the formula that is very difficult to work. The very crux of the problem today is finding just what the "truths" are and the "answers." Even with these there is still another tremendous problem in making a decision.

Therefore, let us not be misled by the cryptic remarks of men who are not necessarily authorities on the subject in question. This is an era in which we should do everything possible to promote the security and maintenance of our free nation. We cannot do this by allowing pseudo-authorities to control our attitudes and in turn our actions. The challenge is ours.

Phi Kaps Stage Annual Rose Dance; Liz Seegers Named Frat Sweetheart

Elizabeth Seegers, junior secretarial science major from Haynesville, was named Phi Kappa Nu sweetheart at the annual Sweetheart Dance Saturday night in the student center.

She was serenaded before a huge heart by the Phi Kaps with the Sweetheart song.

Red and white streamers separated the tables from the dance floor and hung in front of the orchestra. At the far end of the room was the enormous heart, and over the door was another with a door cut in the center. By the mirror was a long table for the buffet supper. A block of ice with a dozen roses frozen in it was the centerpiece.

Gene Flores was master of ceremonies for the dance and floor show. A quintet featuring Rudy Berlin, "Chuck" Tillman, Gene Flores, Jerry Harvel, and Don Jones began the entertainment. Gerald Carter, Gene Flores, and Frank Pasqua gave a mock fan dance. Mr. and Mrs. Val Hill gave their version of "Goofus" accompanied by Betty Jo Martin at the piano, and "Dokey" Abraham sang a medley of songs in her individual style.

Favors of gold compacts with PKN on the top were given to all the boys' dates.

The program dances were scattered throughout the evening, and on the last one, balloons were dropped from above the floor.

SOCIAL NOTES

That Christmas spirit is in the air! It was formally welcomed to this city last Saturday night when the Christmas lights were turned on and the fireworks were displayed. Christmas parties for about every organization on the campus are being planned.

PHI KAPPA NU DANCE

Phi Kappa Nu entertained last Saturday night at their annual Sweetheart Dance from eight til twelve. The Student Center was beautifully decorated in red and white. Liz Seegers was presented a beautiful vanity when she was recognized as Sweetheart. Members presented their dates with smaller vanities in the shape of a heart.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA DANCE

Tonight Sigma Tau Gamma will entertain at the last of the fall fraternity dances, the White Rose Ball. At this time, the Rose of Sigma Tau will be presented.

CHRISTMAS AT HOME

A.W.S. invites faculty and students to the annual Christmas at Home Sunday from three to five in Varnado Hall. Dolls dressed by the different dormitories will be on display. The dolls will be given to the welfare department to be distributed to needy families.

WELCOME BACK

A welcome back goes to Mac Schoonover and Betty Flo Few who returned to the campus this week.

VARIETY SHOW

Something to look forward to after the holidays is the Sophomore-Junior Variety Show, Jan. 10, 1951. According to latest reports, there have been around twenty entries and more are expected. It should be fun to watch the talent of your fellow students.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The Alpha Sigs had their formal rush party November 17, at eight fifteen o'clock in the private dining room of the student center. The rushees were called for by the members of the sorority who were dressed in riding habits from the derby to the riding crop.

The dining room was decorated like a horseshoe. The rushees entered through a large, fold horseshoe.

Dollie Smith, acting as mistress of ceremonies welcomed the rushees to the Alpha Sigma Alpha Derby. Each rushee was given a copy of a story about horses, which contained the name of each one. When their names were referred to in the story, they stood.

To add to the entertainment, Gene Flores gave his renowned preacher act.

Little Misses Mary Frances and Betty Kay Easley did a tap dance. Carolyn Fultz certainly proved she had talent when she sang several songs, including "Blue Moon," "Can't Help Loving That Man" and "The Man I Love." Marliyn Barnette played a medley on the piano while everyone was served. The food was named for famous race horses.

Our Sweetheart Song was very effective when sung by Raymond Russell to Peggy Sandifer.

After this, we went to the sorority house. To end the party the members sang "Good-Night Little Rusee" to the rushees.

The following Sunday we were very happy indeed to have Claudine Box, Fay Bullock, Alice Crawford, Dot Dezendorf, Jeanette Dowden, Nannette Garrett, Jean Haskens, Frances Pender, Nan Short, and Joy Smith as our new pledges.

We all had dinner at Doug's Steak House and the went to the picture show.

Last Saturday night, we had a slumber party to show the new pledges a little bit about one part of sorority life, and I think they've found out. A lot of them have been talking about being sleepy. Since no one got over three hours sleep, you can understand why!

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Redecorating plans for the DSE room are under way in the hands of Marie Tilleux. She and her committee already have part of the new curtains up.

Julia McBroom has played the role of Lulu Pung in "Cuckoos on the Hearth" last Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. It's kept her quite busy.

Delta Sigs are being invited to a Christmas party by one of the alums, Margie Banns, here in town for next Friday night.

Tuesday evening after a very short meeting, the sorority is going caroling from 6 to 7:30. An extensive trip is being planned to go around to all the dormitories, sororities and fraternities, and people in town.

Thursday night the pledges will give the actives the annual Christmas party.

Jean Weeks will represent DSE at the Sigma Tau dance this week.

PLEDGE NEWS

"Those who don't work don't get points," seems to be the new motto of the Delta Sig pledges as they toil toward the far-away goal of Best Pledge of the Year.

Accumulating quite a few points Tuesday afternoon were the "clean and wax girls" under the chairmanship of Martha Ann Leach. The workers were Lynn Swope, Louise Burns, Peppy Marmande, Jenny Lou Ingram, Elf Cloutier, Kathleen Prudhomme, Marilyn Kent, and Peggy Trichel.

Best pledge of the week was Peggy Trichel; last week it was Lynn Swope.

Left out last week in the pledge officers was Dokey Abraham as treasurer and Louise Burns as reporter.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Many Pi Kaps were seen sleepy eyed and yawning after that "bang-up" slumber party at the sorority house Saturday night. I think all snoozed a little in the early morning except pledge Jo Pullin who refused to be a party pooper and didn't close an eye.

The pledges of Pi Kappa Sigma held their first weekly meeting last Thursday evening and elected the following officers: Dee Dee Barmore, president; Marilyn Snoddy, vice-president; Kathleen Ray, secretary; Isabelle Pearce, treasurer; and Sara Cook, social chairman.

Plans are now under way for the annual Christmas party given the actives by the pledges. Name drawing took place Tuesday after active meeting.

Our congratulations go to another Phi Kappa Nu Sweetheart, this time our own Liz Seegers!

Missing from the Pi Kap group this week is pledge Patsy Winkler who left December 2 for the White House in Washington where she is attending the National Youth Conference.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Tri Sigs are proud to report that during the last two weeks twelve new girls have been formally pledged. These include Elaine Ferguson, Theresa Davis, Bertha Adams, Virginia Sigler, Mona Massingill, Doris Bolen, Helen Wilson, Mary Ann Cronin, Thelma Ruth Stevenson, Jo Ann Breedlove, Betty Lou Palmer, Gervais Aldredge, and Billye Joy Payne. At the weekly pledge meeting Gervais Aldredge was elected president of the pledges. Congratulations to "Gerry" and all the other pledges. They are rather busy now carrying laundry, trays, etc. in order to "rack-up" some points. Keep pitching, girls!

Last Saturday Tri Sgimas were busy down town selling popcorn balls. They were so successful that at one o'clock Saturday afternoon the popcorn balls were all sold and more had to be made.

Sunday before last one of the Tri Sigma's frequent "Charm Schools" was held in the sorority house and everyone enjoyed it thoroughly.

On December fourteenth Mrs. W. M. Dunham, Tri Sigma's National Executive Secretary, is making a two-day visit to the Alpha Zetas partly as a social visit and also a visit to talk to all the committee chairmen and officers to give them advice and any help they may need. We are eagerly awaiting the time for her visit.

Demons Open Season With Two Wins; Prep for Tilt With Oklahoma State

The Purple and White cagers of Northwestern State are undergoing daily workouts in preparation for their Monday night contest with the cagers of Southeastern Oklahoma in Natchitoches. The Demons are fresh from two victories over Lamar Tech of Beaumont, Texas. The local cagers downed the Lamar quintet, 87-55 in Natchitoches on Monday night and 83-61 in Beaumont on Tuesday night.

Little is known of the Oklahoma team except that they always have a tall, high-scoring five. The Demons may be able to match their high scoring, but it is doubtful that the home team can match their height.

The Demons have turned in some fine performances in their initial contests. Pacing the scorers is Johnny McConathy, who has collected 45 points thus far. Linwood Ouzts follows Johnny with 30 points, trailed closely by Artie Ranew with 29. Hershail McConathy has chipped in 22 points and Jim Yergler has hooped 17 points. Bob Pender has found the range for 16 points.

The Demons have been hitting good percentages of their shots and figure to give the Oklahoma team a handful. The game promises to be a wide open and free-scoring affair.

The two teams meet here Monday night in the Demons second home contest and then play a second game here on Tuesday night. This will wind up the Demons' schedule until the Enid Oklahoma tourney during the Christmas holidays. The Demons' next home contest after the holidays will be with Southwestern on January 9.

The Other Half

Another week, another column, (Supposedly!), that's what it's being called anyhow.

I see in The Ball State News, Muncie, Ind., where Elliott Lawrence will play a dance and a concert sponsored by the Triangle Fraternity. . . . Well, we got the Triangle, but where does the frat part come in? . . .

By the way, how's about more of us NSC'ers coming to the Student Senate dances on Wednesday nights so we can get a good name band for the Spring Formal. . . .

Today, Dec. 9, all college students in Louisiana are anticipating the results of the first annual "Bloomer Bowl" at Ruston. The two teams, the "Bulls" and the "Dogs" are composed of girl students of the opposite sex from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute. The game is not a farce, but an actual rough and tumble football game to appropriate funds for the Tech Blue Jackets. Rumors have it that President Ropp and Head Coach Aillet are members of the "Chain Gang" and that the Dean of Women will carry the down box. . . . Three rahs for the "Bulls." . . .

A new foreign language course will be initiated at Kansas State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kan., next Spring. The course—Russian . . . Maybe a course in Chinese would be just as well. . . .

A different twist to curb subversiveness in California Colleges has been inaugurated in the University of California, Berkeley, Calif. It is strictly "verbotten" for any student on the Bruin campus to wear any red clothes on Monday.

Then there's the tale of the two busy bees who got married and got a bumble from heaven. . . .

Well, I guess that's about all for this week. Aren't you glad though? . . .

'Through The Knothole'

With the original writers approval, we'd like to re-vamp a column that appeared for some time in the now defunct publication, the Natchitoches News. It isn't quite what Satan's Satire used to be when it graced the pages o'd the NSC journal. . . . but at least it is satirical. Like both the previous edition of the Knothole and like the old Satan's Satire, it is all in fun . . . a few pokes at those who can be poked at, a few quips about conditions on the hill, and a lot of non-sensical remarks. Well, here goes.

What a sight . . . little "Doc" Marx totting big old Charles Ertell around piggy-back! No, nobody's crazy, it was all in the first aid book.

Did you see Ben Duhon kneeling before Marie Tilleux in the dining hall last week? Proposal? No, Willard Harlan made him do it. You see, Ben was a Lambda Zeta pledge so he had to kneel every time Marie spoke to him. Interesting situation, huh?

Sure is a lot of preparation for Christmas going on around here. All the dorms are breaking out in mistletoe . . . better watch out, boys!

The poll on movies is getting nowhere fast, what's the matter, don't you like movies?

Heard Jocelyn Townsend declare after returning from the post office, "No mail and no male!" Really, Jocelyn?

Jack Gaston has more trouble! Can't even eat his ice cream in peace. Ask Ann Deir and Lucky Lawton why. You'll be surprised.

Bess Haynes said she stumped her torso. Amazing, yes! How was she to know that the anatomy prof said tarsal instead of torso. By the way folks, a tarsal is a toe.

The Phi Kappa Nu's are pretty embarrassed about the forty-eight dozen cookies they ordered and forgot to get for their dance last Saturday night.

I'll let you boys in on a little secret . . . if you want to get a lot of female attention, get a coon like "Squeak" Neilsen's and some cute little puppy dogs like Al Sidewand's! At least the girls say they're looking at the animals, soon and puppy's that is.

Now's the time for a joke so here 'tis. . . . Opera—where a man gets stabbed in the back and instead of bleeding . . . he sings. Laugh, it was supposed to be funny!

With that priceless gem of humor, I'll close this little masterpiece until next time. So long!

Jrs., Seniors Have Possibility of Deferment

The draft board may consider for deferment a college student who is classified as a sophomore or junior provided his scholastic standing is in the upper half of his class.

According to President Prather, "All students may be eligible for postponement of induction if they request it. For further details see Dudley Fulton.

Long Shot

IN THE LAST FEW MINUTES of the initial game, played against Lamar Tech, here Hildebrandt goes in the air and shoves the ball toward the net. The Demons took the first game, 87-55 and the second, 83-61.

The Intramural swimming meet will be held Thursday night, Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. Those interested may enter at the pool the night of the meet or at the intramural office at any time before then.

Those planning to enter basketball competition should begin to organize. The outlaw league will swing into action after the Christmas holidays, and regular league play will follow.

"Rocking Horse Winter," an English film based on the novel by D. H. Lawrence, will be shown at 7:45, Thursday night in the Fine Arts Auditorium. This will be the third presentation this semester under the sponsorship of the college film committee.

The story of "Rocking Horse Winter" is that of a young boy who discovers that while riding his rocking horse, he can successfully pick the winning horse of the current races. Thereby he augments the meager income of his family.

The showing of "Tight Little Island" last week resulted in many favorable comments on the type of films selected.

Admission to the movie Thursday night will be 25c. All women students will be permitted to attend.

NSC, Minnesota Nursing Programs Recognized by Health Foundation

"Seeking to solve the problem of 'manpower' in the nursing field, Shreveport, Louisiana, and Minneapolis, Minnesota, have found strikingly similar answers to a question that confronts many communities of the United States," states the Health Information Foundation of New York in the November issue of "Progress in Health Services."

The article, entitled "Louisiana and Minnesota Cities Find Similar Keys to Future 'Health Manpower,'" briefly tells the story of the collaboration of five state hospitals with Northwestern to establish a nursing program.

"Besides the dean of its School of Applied Arts and Sciences," the article stated "many doctors, nurses, hospital administrators, and lay friends contributed to the plans that made it possible for the college and four Shreveport Hospitals—North Louisiana Sanitarium, Highland Sanitarium, and Tri-State and Shreveport Charity Hospitals—to announce a program under which the college in September, 1949, offered:

1. A three-year diploma program for high school graduates seeking the state R.N. certificate.
2. A four-year program for students wishing to earn both the R.N. certificate and a B.S. degree in nursing.
3. A two-year program for registered nurses seeking a B.S. degree.

Continuing its brief of the program, the article states that, "The college program offers affiliations in public health nursing, and psychiatric nursing, two important areas usually neglected in hospital schools."

In conclusion the Health Information Foundation writes that, "The State of Louisiana has assumed responsibility in the education of nurses as in the education of doctors, teachers, lawyers, and neighbors."

BSU Stages Talent Show Here

A talent show, composed entirely of Freshman participants and sponsored by the Freshman B.S.U. Council was given in the Chapel of the Religious Center Friday, Dec. 1, from 7:30-8:30 p. m. The hostesses for the occasion were Claudine Box, Thelma Ruth Stephens and Lois Feree.

Ben Brewton acted as announcer and master of ceremonies and Bobby Earnest assisted by Bernadine Henderson was commentator. The program was as follows:

1. Variations of "Down on the Erie Canal," "Old McDonald" and "Ain't It a Shame"—John Batten, Stewart Carrington and Reuben Roy
2. Pantomime—Tom Drewett
3. "The Young Man Waited"—Winnie Dowden
4. Piano Solo — "Moonlight Sonata"—Nita Feree
5. "Practice for Military Drill"—Don Finley and David Lewis
6. Solo, "Lying Little Daisy"—Mary Anne Cronin
7. Original Poem — Mary Lou Saxton
8. Trio, Rose McRight, Amanda Merrill, Bertha Adams, accompanied by Earline Usrey
9. Baritone solo, Max Burns, accompanied by Thelma Ruth Stephens
10. Humorous Reading and Poem—Gloria Williams.

After the talent show Martha Lou Craft, president of B.S.U. Executive Council awarded each member of the Freshman Council a present from the Executive Council in gratitude for the service he had rendered toward the furtherance of all B.S.U. activities.

Pi Omega Pi Plans Tour of State Companies

Plans for a tour of Esso, Standard Oil Company, Baton Rouge, the Port of Embarkation, New Orleans, and the Freeport Sulphur Company during the week of January 25 thru the 28 were made at the November 28 meeting.

Twenty members of this organization will make the tour.

A duck mulligan was also discussed and planned for Dec. 13.

Youth Group Offers European Travel To Author of Test Contest Essay

A scholarship trip to Europe next summer, with all expenses paid, will be awarded to the person who writes the best essay entitled, "Why I Would Like to Go Hosteling in Europe," it was announced this week by officials of American Youth Hostels.

The winner in nation-wide competition for this trip will join one of the supervised groups sponsored by AYH and will spend eight weeks abroad. He will have his choice of trips to the British Isles, Central Europe or France and the Rhineland.

The British Isles trip includes visits to London, Cambridge, the highlands of Scotland, Loch Lomond, Wales, Belfast and Dublin. The itinerary of the France and England trip includes ten days in Brittany, a week in Paris and brief stays in London, Stratford-on-Avon and Oxford. Countries covered in the Central Europe trip are Germany, Austria, France and Switzerland.

Regardless of which group the winner selects, he will sail about June 15 and will return about September 1. Going as a member of an AYH group means that he will cover some distances by train and ship, but that the greater part of his trip will consist of hosteling.

Hosteling derives its name from the low-cost overnight accommodations, "hostels," available to those with hostel passes traveling by bicycle or hiking. Hostellers carry their clothing in saddlebags on their bicycles or in packs and frequently prepare their own food. Their expenses seldom exceed $1.50 a day.

The competition for the trip is open to United States citizens who will have reached the age of 17 by July 1, 1951. In addition, they must apply for a hostel pass for 1951. The pass costs two dollars for those under 21 and three dollars for those 21 or older, and permits the holder to stay at hostels both in this country and abroad for between 20 and 50 cents a day.

Entrants may use any number of words they choose in their essays up to 1,000. Entries must be postmarked not later than April 15, 1951. The winner will be notified by mail within two weeks and his name will be announced in the summer, 1951, issue of "Hosteling" magazine.

The phrase "all expenses paid," officials of AYH pointed out, includes trans-Atlantic passage, transportation by public conveyance in Europe as stipulated in the itinerary, food and lodging.

AYH is a non-profit organization which provides hosteling opportunities for young people. Its president is John D. Rockefeller, 3rd. Full information and application forms for the scholarship may be obtained from National Headquarters, American Youth Hostels, 6 East 39th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

Phi Mu Alpha Pledges 10, Initiates 5

Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia, National Professional Music Fraternity held pledging ceremonies at Grand Ecore on Tuesday, Nov. 28. The new pledges are Dick Somers, Dave Lepard, Dave Carson, Gerald Carter, Joseph Carlucci, Jim Bob Key, Owen Phillips, Sonny Mercer, Bryon McCain, and Teddy Forte.

The new pledges were entertained by the members with barbecued hamburgers cooked over a charcoal grill at Grand Ecore. Allen "Tiger" Grant made delicious hamburgers with a minimum of dirt and charcoal as seasoning. After everyone had eaten, the men sang fraternity songs for an hour. As the bon fire died slowly, the new men were officially pledged.

ed into Gamma Rho Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia by President Hank Camp.

The fraternity held initiation rites on Nov. 9 in the Blue Room of the Fine Arts building.

The impressive ritual, the story of Orpheus searching for his beloved Euridice in Hades; was acted and sung by members of the fraternity. Paul Torgrimson was at the piano. The secrets of the fraternity were read by president Hank Camp and the new members were pinned by older members.

New members are: Hardy Rose, John Zenter, Burt Boone, Frank Pasqua, and Tommy Latham.

Home Ec. Dept. Holds Open House

In a Christmas atmosphere the Home Economics department held open house last Monday night. From 6:45 to 9 p.m. the faculty, students and townspeople were shown the building by the home economics majors. Exhibits of work done by the students were arranged throughout the building.

Coffee was served the guests in the living room by the graduating seniors in Home Economics.

Program Tea Held Dec. 5 By Kappa Delta

On Tuesday, December 5 Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education fraternity, held a program tea in the living room of the Home Economics building.

The outstanding part of the program was the talk "Education Through Books," given by Mrs. Lucille Carnahan, a member of the Northwestern library faculty.

Model Airplane Show Set Sunday On NSC Campus

Natchitoches' Model Airplane Club will conduct a contest as part of the 1950 Christmas Festival Program Sunday. The contest will be held on the training school playgrounds at Northwestern State College.

Many clubs from this and neighboring states have been invited to participate.

The contest will be directed by three members of the model club here, Alvin Bailey, Jr., Ed Johnson and Curtis Foshee. Timers for the speed event will be Paul Marx and John Piscopo, members of the athletic department of Northwestern State College.

Speeds will be computed by George E. Miller, mathematics teacher at NSC. Judges will be Ed Dezendorf, Brandon Ewing, Alexandria, and James D. Moss.

Events will begin on the field at 11:00, Sunday, and contest flying will go on from 1:00 until 5:00. Prizes will be awarded after all flying has ended.

LARGEST CROWD IN HISTORY ATTENDS FESTIVAL

Senate Minutes

The Senate was called to order by Jimmy Johnson December 5, Don Jones presented the resolution that the maximum possible compensation to business managers of the Current Sauce be raised $10 per month. The Senate approved the measure by vote.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The Freshman senators were officially seated as members of the senate.

The loan fund plan was discussed and read in its entirety. "Chuck" Tillman made the motion that Section VI, a clause concerning a measure to be taken for collection of delinquent loans, be deleted. The motion was seconded and passed.

"Chuck" Tillman moved that of Section 2, Sub-section F of the plan, concerning the impeachment of the Student Senate Executive Treasurer, be changed to give the Senate power of impeachment of the Executive Treasurer rather than the Student Body Association. It was seconded and passed.

Sonny Hoff moved that the last paragraph of Section 5 be omitted. It was seconded and passed.

"Chuck" Tillman moved that a Style and Revision Committee of three persons be appointed to submit changes in grammar, etc., to the president of the Senate. The draft and the list of changes were subsequently to be submitted to the Student Council for ratification. It was seconded and passed.

The Committee appointed was chairmaned by Sonny Hoff; members at large were Leland Landridge, and Ronald Martin. The Senate proceeded to vote on the bill and it was passed by a unanimous standing vote.

The Variety Show was discussed. Ronald Martin moved that LaJuan Hust be entered as the Senate representative in the musical portion of the show. It was seconded and passed.

Sonny Hoff moved that, if the Senate wins any prize the money should be returned to the Variety Show committee to be used to further the Name Band Dance fund. Seconded and passed.

Ronald Martin also moved that the Senate enter the miscellaneous division of the show. Sec-

The largest crowd in the history of the Natchitoches Christmas Festival attended the fireworks and lighting ceremony here Saturday night, despite inclement weather.

The Natchitoches Lions Club's float depicting the United Nations in session was awarded first prize in the colorful parade ushering in the Christmas celebration. Second prize was presented to a Santa Claus float sponsored by the Industrial Arts Department at Northwestern State College.

Taking part in the parade were 14 bands from neighboring schools, the Natchitoches High ended and passed. Ronald Martin moved that the amendment submitted by Chuck Tillman: proposed that the portion of the clause stating "not to exceed the equivalent of a full time scholarship" in lines 5 and 6 of Article VII, Section 3, sub-section c, and the words, "and business manager" from line 8 of the same sub-section be deleted, be passed. The move was seconded and the proposed amendment passed.

The president introduced two proposed amendments to revise the executive and legislative departments of the Student Body Constitution.

Meeting was adjourned. Respectfully submitted Joyce Rambin, Secretary Student Senate meetings are open to the public! The Senate meets every other week in the faculty room of Caldwell Hall. 7:45 p.m.

School band and the Northwestern State College band, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts and various firms and institutions were represented by floats.

The fireworks witnessed by many thousands lining nearby streets and the banks of Cane River Lake, were termed the most elaborate in the festival's history. The fireworks, sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association with the cooperation of many other citizens and groups, cost $1250.

As a climax to the fireworks display, which began at 7:30 and continued about an hour, the Christmas lights were turned on.

The initial demonstration will be followed by various Yuletide programs throughout the season. Some have already been presented. Arrangements for the Christmas programs were made by the Natchitoches Festival association. S. E. West is president, James Harry, Secretary-manager, and Miss Carmen Breazeale is secretary of the group.

Army Service Advantages to Be Told By WAC Adviser Here December 13

If a girl college graduate could lay away her cap and gown, be assured of a $315.75 monthly pay check, get free medical and dental care, have 30 days annual vacation, and know that retirement pay was being set up without deductions from her pay, she would do considerable thinking about such a future . . . a job with the WAC Officers Corps.

Promotions come at regular intervals, three years to First Lieutenant and seven years to Captain. Outstanding ability is rewarded by faster promotions up to and including the grade of Colonel. Pay hikes come every two years, regardless of promotions. High standards are required and only a limited number of girls are appointed each year. Warrant officers and enlisted women of the Army of the United States, and civilian women who are college graduates and who otherwise meet the eligibility requirements, are encouraged to participate.

A girl's education does not stop when she receives her college sheepskin. The "Earn While You Learn" plan for Army career officers provides for the unusual advantage of being able to study for new and more important positions.

In addition to the finest military service school system in the world, Army career officers are enrolled in graduate work at leading colleges and universities. Correspondence and extension courses are available through the United States Armed Forces Institute (USAFI).

Eligibility requirements provide that a girl must be a college graduate or a prospective graduate in her senior year. She must have attained her 21st year but not have passed her 27th birthday on 1 September of the year in which appointed, be a citizen of the US, unmarried and have no dependents under 18 years of age.

She must be of good moral character, not be or have been a member of a subversive organization, and be physically fit.

Individuals must indicate aptitude for the military service. Qualification will be established by means of interviews, investigations, and review of college and employment records. If applicable, waivers of age requirements are authorized in certain cases.

No particular type college degree is required. Versatility in handling assignments is given primary consideration.

Selected individuals will be tendered direct appointments as Second Lieutenants in the WAC Reserve and ordered to extended active duty for attendance at the basic course at Fort Lee, Va. During the training period they will receive the pay and allowances of a second lieutenant.

(On 13 December, Captain Rita J. Davis, WAC Reserve Adviser, will be at NSC to discuss the WAC program with interested students. The officer will hold conferences in Varnado Hall, beginning at 4 p.m. that day).

Crew Back From Cuba

Otis R. Crew, NSC Registrar, returned Monday, Dec. 4, from Cuba, where he spent the greater part of his annual vacation. With several friends, he traveled by car to New Orleans and took a boat to Miami, Florida.

While in Florida he visited Saratoga, the winter home of Ringling Bros. Circus, where most of the training of the show animals is done.

From Miami, Crew flew to Havana, Cuba. There he traveled over the Cuban countryside, sight-seeing. Mr. Crew reports that in Havana are some of the most beautiful buildings he had ever seen.

He stated that he was also impressed by the pride Cubans take in health and sanitation. "During my stay in Havana," he said, "I didn't see one fly or mosquito in this low and humid region. There are apparently no traffic laws in Cuba, but he who blows first and loudest has the right-of-way. The remarkable thing about this is the low percentage of automobile accidents," stated the Registrar.

Crew visited many farms in a 40 mile radius of Havana. "Most farms are owned by large planters and they quite frankly list their crops in the following order: sugar cane, tobacco, and politics," he said.

"Little machinery is used in the building of highways and buildings. Cubans give the reason that working by hand affords labor for a greater number of people," the visitor remarked.

While in Havana Crew stayed at the Saratoga Hotel. After two days of sight-seeing he returned to Louisiana by plane, boat, and car via Miami and New Orleans.

Editorial

The Current Sauce of 1916, Volume IV, Issue No. 23, December 20, printed an editorial concerning the absence of loved ones at Christmas, due to national crisis.

The Sauce printed, in part: "There will be a shadow over many homecomings because some loved one is not there.

"But we can still feel our hearts throb with joy when we anticipate Christmas. On that first Christmas morning, the angels sang, 'Peace on earth, and good will to men.' For this peace, our loved ones are fighting, are giving their all. . . . But their gift is not so great as the World's First Christmas Gift.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish, but have everlasting life."

That editorial was more than likely intended to be timely only once . . . just before the war to end all wars; just before the expressed hope, "Peace on earth, good will to men," was realized.

For Americans it was very timely again twenty-four years after it was written. Once again there was hope that it would not be applicable again.

Today the words of that editorial are still true. "There will be a shadow . . ."; and still, . . . "their gift is not so great as the World's First Christmas Gift."

Today, thirty-four years later, a dread fear hangs over the world . . . a fear that there shall never be "Peace on earth," and, "good will to men"; and yet there is still hope . . . hope that once again we shall have time to consider only the "World's First Christmas Gift" and not perish, "but have everlasting life."

Views of The News

By JIMMY JOHNSON

Considering the diplomatic arguments going on now concerning the Korean war, one is led to believe that it is nothing more than a childish fight between two groups of roudy boys. But when thinking of the American men who are losing their lives on the battle field and the trouble the war is causing here in the United States, one knows that the war is real.

An analysis of the diplomatic arguments, nonetheless, gives ample reason for one to doubt the necessity of the Korean war. First, let us examine the beginning of the war and its proclaimed causes. The United States, by post war agreement, was assigned the rehabilitation of South Korea, and proceeded to execute the agreement. Last year and in the first half of this year, the program was abandoned—some say because Congress failed to provide funds to continue the rehabilitation program, and some say because our policy planners felt the job completed. At any rate the American forces were withdrawn, and the Republic of South Korea (Korea south of the 38th parallel) was left to self-government. That this country and its government was weak and inadequate, is undeniable now.

In June of this year, the government of North Korea decided that it was impractical and undesirable for Korea to remain divided into two separate countries. Thus, the North Koreans began their march upon South Korea to reunite the country. Perhaps their action was not justified, but who can truthfully say they would not agree with the action, were they a citizen of North Korea.

This, however, is not the point of my discourse. The subsequent actions in Korea are what I wish to point out. The United States went to the aid of the South Koreans, probably to "save face" more than anything else. The argument was that they were aiding the free Republic of South Korea to rid itself of its aggressor, the North Koreans. Then when they had pushed the aggressor beyond the 38th parallel, the U.N. forces continued their fight against the North Koreans, using as their justification the same argument used by the enemy previously.

When the Chinese forces came to the aid of the North Koreans, the United States argued that the Chinese had no right in the war. The Chinese maintained that the U. S. had no right in a local conflict on their Asiatic border. This attitude, I might add, seems to be absolutely analogous to the attitude of the U. S. concerning the American continents.

Another point of argument now is whether the Chinese and North Korean forces have a right to recross the 38th parallel. The whole diplomatic argument of the Korean crisis has been on the same level as this—each party rationalizing, trying to justify his own actions by whatever principle that seems to fit. Therefore, with this inconsistency and ridiculousness one is justified in comparing the fight to that of two uncouth boys. We should regret that such seemingly foolish arguments are costing so many lives and causing so much grief.

KNOTHOLE

By BETTY EDWARDS

Another peep through the knothole . . . an inside look at Demon happenings during the week.

First off the bat . . . orchids to the girls on the campus who have put in so much time on Christmas decorations. Orchids and special mention to those who helped to make the Varnado "Christmas at Home" such a huge success. Someone remarked that credit should also be given to the boys who helped the girls decorate.

Prettiest part of the campus at night? . . . the front of the Trade School. Check the Christmas display there some night. Natchitoches has nothing on these boys.

Sidelight on the messhall . . . much improvement in the cleanliness of the knives, spoons, forks, and glasses. Can't say much for the food, tho. Could be they are washing them by hand now?

It would take photography—color photos, that is—to describe the very modernistic Christmas tree in the women's gymnasium. Quite a different take-off from the original pine tree. Seems that this one has a deep sun-tan . . . violet rays or something. Anyway, it's lavender—or is it orchid—or pink?

The Lion's Roar; Southwestern . . . roaring about the student body throwing insults at both the team and the officials in a hard fought game. Seems that they hooted their own team because they were behind. Doesn't look like we'll get a chance to do that—if we would—any time soon. Besides, who could hoot a team like ours?

Same story, second verse . . . is it that the fans' habit of counting-out loud—the number of times a player bounces the ball before shooting a foul shot—bothers the player . . . or the referee?

Christmas came too soon for Gene Flores. The boys, at the Rendezvous, and a few feminine friends, gave the band leader a "birthday party," with a most unique cake. They struck matches between his fingers, lit them, and sang "Happy Birthday." No comment from Flores on the number of "candles."

30 from 30 . . . except for one more remark. Good to see that the college has acquired another student photographer. The fill-ins during the absence came up short on a couple of events.

Truth Champion Recruits Workers

Are you interested in working for international understanding as a career? The December issue of MADEMOISELLE magazine tells you how to go about qualifying for work in Washington or abroad for the State Department's newly expanded Campaign of Truth program. You've got to be good. Languages, a big asset, must be fluent for translating or broadcasting jobs. With library experience—degree preferred—you might work in an information center; editorial experience could mean a press or publication job. Educators will be picked to work with the program for the exchange of students and teachers. For further information MADEMOISELLE suggests that you write to USIE Special Recruitment Unit, State Department, Washington 25, D. C.

Sigma Tau Gamma Holds Annual White Rose Ball Saturday Night

Sigma Tau Gamma entertained at the last of the fall fraternity dances, the annual White Rose Ball, Saturday night in the Student Center. This week marks the 30th Anniversary of the National Fraternity, and also the 20th Anniversary of Nu Chapter. This month, Sigma Tau Gamma became a member of the National Inter-Fraternity Council.

Dinner was served in the Private Dining Room on tables beautifully decorated with rows of ivy, and a large bowl of white carnations served as a centerpiece. A welcome was extended to the guests, alumns, rushees, and dates by President "Snap" Oakes, and Don Atkinson, toast master, introduced the guests. Guest speakers for the occasion were Mr. Robert Easley, Mr. Dudley Fulton, Mr. John Postman, and Mr. Laddie Alexander, after which everyone retired to the dance hall.

The Student Center was attractively decorated with blue and white streamers, and a large triangular sign with Sigma Tau Gamma written on it in blue hung from the ceiling.

Firle Lee Ryder acted as master of ceremonies for the dance and floor show. The entertainment consisted of the High School "Spike Jones Orchestra," a fan dance portrayed by Frank Pasqua, Eugene Flores, and Gerald Carter, and a tap dance and acrobatic number by four young ladies from Cookie Mims Dancing School.

The highlight of the evening came at the end of the program dances, and was the occasion everyone had been eagerly awaiting. Miss Mayme Ray Schoonover, a junior from Lake Charles and a music major was named "Rose of Sigma Tau" for 1950-51. She was presented with a bouquet of white roses by President "Snap" Oakes as she stood in front of a blue archway, on which "Rose of Sigma Tau" was printed in glittery silver letters. She then danced with "Buck" Anderson while surrounded by Taus, in the traditional circle, who sang the Rose song.

Favors of gold lipstick cases attached to tiny mirrors with the Tau crest were given.

CHRISTMAS AT HOME

Faculty, students and friends of NSC gathered Sunday in Varnado Hall as AWS officers and hostesses welcomed them to the annual Christmas At Home.

The drawing room of Varnado Hall was beautifully decorated with scenes of Christmas. The mirror above the fireplace portrayed the Christmas angels singing hymns. The guests were ushered about the room by hostesses from the various dormitories.

A Christmas tree stood in a corner of the room and on the other side, the table was dressed with small Santa Clauses around a larger one. The red punch bowls added more color to the delightful scene.

Individual dolls dressed by girls in Varnado Hall stood around the room.

The Christmas spirit was truly riding high as the guests looked at the dolls and enjoyed the get-together.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA DANCE

Sigma Tau Gamma entertained Saturday night at their annual White Rose Ball in the Student Center. The lounge was decorated in blue and white, the fraternity colors, and in the center, Sigma Tau Gamma, in Greek letters.

Preceding the dance, guests of the fraternity enjoyed a turkey banquet.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Rose of Sigma Tau, Miss Mayme Rae Schoonover.

Of interest to students on the campus is the engagement of Cpl. Steve Parker to Miss Mae Mayre Wolfe of Alexandria. Steven is a former student of NSC and member of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. He is now stationed at Camp Camplenton in the U. S. Marines.

Jack Robinson, of Sigma Tau, left last week for the U. S. Navy. He is now stationed at San Diego, California.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

Thursday evening, the Theta Sigs had a bang-up Christmas party with a Christmas tree and everything. The social service box that the sorority will give to a needy family was filled with food, clothing, and toys. Gifts were exchanged and games were played. There was plenty of food and loads of decorations. After the party, the gang went caroling.

Congratulations to Betty Sue Boydston who had the lead in the play "Cuckoos on the Hearth." Joyce Winn and Jo Nell Richardson were on the production staff.

Jacquette Davis has finished her training and has received her wings as an airline hostess. She is serving with the Delta Airlines.

Week-end visitors were Ella James and Amy Lou Smith. Ella is working in the Police Jurors' office in Alexandria while Amy Lou is teaching and coaching a basketball team at Campiti.

The pledges are getting their exercise by waxing the floor and cleaning up the sorority room.

The Theta Sigs were glad to have at their meeting Ann Powell. Ann is teaching at the present time.

In a couple of days everyone will be homeward bound. Theta Sigma Upsilon wishes everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and Good Luck on the tests that you take before starting your journey.

PLEDGE NEWS

Amidst much hustle and bustle, the Delta Sig pledges made final preparations for the Christmas party. There is no doubt among the pledges that this party was one of the best in the history of the DSE pledges.

It seems to most of the "little Delta Sigs" that there isn't enough time in a day to do all there is to do, both for themselves and their big sisters. Especially was this proved by Louise Burns who was pledge of the week with a high number of points.

DSE members have had a busy week with their own activities as well as preparing for the holiday season.

Tuesday night the girls met early to get the business out of the way as soon as possible. Talk is already under way about the Mother-Daughter banquet next spring.

After meeting, the sorority went Christmas caroling. Lighting their way with green and white candles, the girls serenaded the fraternities and dormitories.

The sweaters have arrived and they are nice and warm for the cold weather we've been having. A reorder is being made for those who missed out the first time.

Thursday night at 5:30 the pledges gave the actives their annual Christmas party in the private dining room of the student center. The actives agree that it was one of the best ever.

Congratulations to Mac Schoonover for being chosen the sweetheart of Sigma Tau Gamma.

Friday night DSE was entertained at a Christmas party given by an alum, Mrs. Margie Barnes Pierson.

Sigma Alpha Iota Pledges Three

Beta Iota Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota announces with pleasure the pledging of three girls: Theda Barra Welch, Jean Lyons, and Mary Edna Clark.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, the monthly musicale was held in honor of these new pledges. The performers were Betty Claire Polk, pianist who played a group of three numbers, and Dolores Southerland, soprano, who was accompanied by Daisy Prudhomme.

No Date Nights?

Who says girls can't go out enough around this campus? Just take a look at the past week. There has been a "date night" every night.

Monday night there was a basketball game, as there was Tuesday night. The gym show was Wednesday night.

Thursday "Rocking Horse Winter" was presented in the Fine Arts Auditorium, and Friday was the usual date night.

Some studying these nights, hmmmhmmhmm?

The Other Half

By WESLEY JOHNSON

Well, here's the same old draft stuff again. But, have no fear. Due to no "Sauce" next week, this will be the last column of this type (until the holidays are over). Nohow, here goes:

The annual Fall-Pledging of the Fraternities at Michigan Central College, Mt. Pleasant, Mich., has just begun. The total of prospects for initiation adds up to 69. . . .

The Sigma Epsilons at Oregon State College have a new nomination for the meanest man in the world. For a few meals last week, the frat boys juggled their water glasses and salt shakers while holding the dinner table on their knees. Some sneaky character had stolen all the table legs. . . .

Students at Duquesne University have initiated a "Share the Co-ed" plan in an attempt to combat the growing stag line menace. Here's how it works. When you pay your admission to a dance, you also agree to change partners every fifteen minutes. Your first partner's name is picked out of a hat. You dance or talk to this person for the allotted time, then switch partners. The plan seems to be gaining in popularity at Duquesne. . . .

The Daily Texan reports that students at that school are no longer satisfied with standard cliches for testing typewriters. On a paper halfway through the roller of a typewriter in one of the bookstores was printed: "Quit it, Maria! I don't provoke easily." Congratulations to Carolyn Cloutier and Suzanne Hahn, former NSC students who are in the running for the title of "Darling of LSU." The two girls are among the fifty candidates in the race. . . .

Here's an excerpt from Louis Brown's column (DePaul University). . . .

Victim of the current rage, The teacher gazed upon the page. Here was his popularity For himself and all to see. He and others here beheld The cat anonymously belled. He checked the rating once or twice.

And then his bloodstream turned to ice;

For at the end a comment stood, "He don't teach english any good." . . .

From "The Lion's Roar," Southeastern Louisiana College at Hammond, comes this little bit of news? . . .

"All the benches were so wet after that rain Tuesday that only three girls signed out for the library." . . .

In signing off for this week, here's hoping we don't get any season's greetings from Uncle Sam. . . .

Dam Construction Underway Now At College Wells

A new dam is being constructed and picnic grounds are being cleared of underbrush at College Wells.

Under the direction of A. E. Brown and Wylie Wilson work is already well under way.

The dam, made of the concrete taken from the old dairy barn and put across a ravine, will create a small lake covering four or five acres. Eventually it will be stocked with fish, although it is primarily for the purpose of water storage.

Barbecue pits are being constructed for the use of college students. New tables and lights have already been put up, and drinking water has been piped.

Dr. J. B. Robson Attends Con. In Virginia

Dr. John B. Robson, dean of the School of Education, returned Saturday from Richmond, Va., where he represented Northwestern State College at the annual convention of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Sophomore and Junior Class to Present Varsity Show Jan. 10

The Junior and Sophomore Class will present a Variety Show January 10, 7:30 p.m. till 10:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The price of admission will be 35 cents to everyone. Advance tickets will go on sale in the Student Center building from January 3 to January 10.

Women students will be permitted to attend.

All proceeds from the show will go to the Special Student Government Name Band Fund. Funds for the promotion of the show are from the Student Council.

The Planning Committee members, Class Officers are Don Jones, Kenneth Isgitt, Charlotte Martin, Rudy Berlin, Marie Til- leaux, Carolin McLane, with members of the class on the program and Publicity committees.

Judges for the show are to be

Mr. Towns, Mr. Carr, Dr. Allbrit- ten, Dr. Marx, and Miss McEniry. Alternate judges are Mr. Fulton and Miss Stockwell.

The M. C. for the show will be Elser Marx. Organizations and their entries are: Sigma Alpha Iota, Music; Phi Kappa Nu, Music and Tumbling; Euthenics Club, Skit (Comedy); Theta Sigma Upsilon, Song and Dance Skit; Lambda Zeta, Music and Skit (Student Life); Purple Jackets, Music (Purple Jackets Frolics); Student Council, Tum- bling; Alpha Sigma Alpha, Music (Alpha Sigma Alpha Notes) and Skit (Spotlight on U.S.A.); Dem- onettes, Skit (Frankie and John- ny); Phi Mu Alpha, Music and Skit; Student Senate, Music and Skit (Abbott and Costello); Pi Kappa Sigma, Pi Kapps on Pa-rade and Our Corn is Greener; Sigma Sigma Sigma, Medley of songs and skit; and Delta Sigma Epsilon, Musical and Comedy (Heaven or Hell).

Tentative outline of the pro- gram will be sent to the organ- izations participating before the Christmas holidays.

Varnado Hall Has Xmas Party

Varnado Hall, senior women's dormitory, will give its annual Christmas party in the drawing room of the dormitory, next Mon- day night, December 18. This party is given every year by the dormitory council for the girls living there.

The party will include enter- tainment, refreshments, and the presentation of the dormitory gifts to Mrs. David, acting Dean of Women, and Mrs. Holstun, house director of East Vardano.

The dormitory will set a prece- dent this year by furnishing gifts and food for some needy family in the community. Formerly, the girls have drawn names and dis- tributed gifts within the dorm- itory.

Pi Omega Pi Has Xmas Party

Chandler's Camp was the scene of a duck mulligan and a Christ- mas party held by Pi Omega Pi on December 13.

President and Mrs. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Morrison, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Mouser, and Mr. Durr were among the guests.

The ducks for the mulligan were supplied by male members of the fraternity. Mr. Easley prepared the food.

Games were played at the gathering and, acting as Santa Claus, President Prather dis- tributed gifts.

Women Staff Polio Clinics

Children might have died if the women of Utah had not put their hearts into the fight against polio. During the record epidemic of 1945, 156 women gave 10,000 working hours to the overcrowd- ed, understaffed hospitals. "Ab- solutely the difference between recovery and non-recovery," a representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis told Margaret Hickey, Public Af- fairs Editor, who discusses "Health Emergency Volunteers" in the December issue of LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

When volunteers, many of whom had children of their own in the polio wards, first begged doctors to let them help, they were told, "You'd only get in our way." But as conditions became more and more desperate, the doctors were forced to accept volunteer aids — skeptically at first, enthusiastically today. "We couldn't get along without them now," one doctor said. "They real- ly amazed us. Most of them, for instance, went into the isolation wards unhesitatingly!"

The knowledge of simple nurs- ing techniques, once considered an integral part of every future housewife's training, has been too long neglected," says Miss Hickey. "The modern family often shies away from keeping its ill mem- ber at home because, lacking knowledge of nursing care, it fears the responsibility. Yet, per- sonal care, in a familiarly cheer- ful environment, may hasten re- covery faster than hospitalization.

"The family that has a home nurse, ready and unafraid to pro- tect its members when sickness comes, has health insurance mon- ey can't buy."

Seven Taus to Represent Frat At Missouri

Seven Sigma Taus have been chosen to represent the Gamma chapter, NSC, at the National conclave of Sigma Tau in War-rensburg, Missouri, Dec. 27-30.

The fraternity was founded in Warrensburg in 1920. Gamma chapter was installed here in 1929.

The last conclave was held in Chicago two years ago.

Making the trip are Thomas Hennigan, Don Atkinson, Ray Mayeaux, Carl Pharr, Sam De- Keyser, James Oakes, and Firal Lee Ryder. Professor Easley will go to the meeting as guest speak- er and second vice-president of national chapters.

Purple and White Cagers Invade Enid, Okla. for NAIB Tournament

Northwestern's Purple and White cagers will put an undefeated record on the line for the second consecutive year when they invade Enid, Oklahoma for the annual Enid Invitational Tournament.

The tourney, featuring top ranking teams which are invited on past records, will be held December 27-28-29.

The civic sponsored affair is presenting this year such small college cage powerhouses as East Central State of Ada, Okla., NAIB runner - up in 1949; Arkansas Tech, third place winner in last year's meet; Regis College of Denver; Kansas State Teachers school, the defending tournament champion; Washburn College, a semi-finalist in the 1949 tourney; Maryville, Mo., Phillips University of Enid, the tournament host, and Northwestern State.

Last year the Demons suffered their initial loss of the season in the opening round of play, but came back behind the brilliant play of Jodie Stoutamire to take consolation honors. Stoutamire shattered the tourney scoring record and was named to a post on the all-tournament team.

Demons Down Savages 56-52 Mon. For Third Win of Season

The high-flying Demon cagers made it three in a row Monday night as they downed the Southeastern Okla. cagers, 56-52. The wearers of the Purple and White found the problem of scoring against the defensive minded Savages somewhat more difficult than they had previously. The local cagers had an 85 point per game average before the Oklahoma contest.

The home team jumped off to a quick 11-4 lead, drove on to a half-time lead of 31-22 after the Oklahoma team fought back to close the gap and went ahead 51-50 with two minutes remaining.

A 20-foot one hand shot by Bob Pender put the Demons ahead to stay.

The outstanding man on the floor was Kirby Minter, the big 6-6, 225 pounds center of the Savages, who totaled 24 points to take individual scoring honors.

Intramural Notes

In intramural sports here at NSC, volleyball currently reigns king as the end of play nears. The Cream Puffs in the American League and the Spanish Boys in the National League hold undisputed possession of first place in their respective leagues, with undefeated records. Both came through with wins in crucial games last week.

STANDINGS

National League

	W.	L.	Pct.
Spanish Boys	4	0	1000
Sigma Tau	2	2	500
Phi Kappa Nu	1	2	333
Mongrels	0	3	000

Games next week will pit Brick Shack against West Barracks in the American League and Sigma Tau against the Phi Kaps in the National League.

Should West Barracks defeat Brick Shack, there will be a return match on Tuesday, Dec. 19 for the right to enter the play-offs with the Cream Puffs. If the Phi Kaps down the Sigma Tau team they will also play a return match for the right to join the Spanish Boys in the play-offs.

Playoffs begin Jan 8 with finals on Jan. 10.

The Intramural swimming meet was held Thursday night. Winners earned team and individual points. Trophies will be awarded to team and individual high scorers at the season's end.

Dr. Hand Speaks For Guidance Con.

Dr. Harold C. Hand, Professor of Education, University of Illinois, officiated Friday, Dec. 15, at the Annual Guidance Conference, NSC.

Present for the Conference were members of the following schools: Louisiana Tech, 4; State Department of Education, 9; Caddo Parish, 13; NSC, 3; Lincoln, 2; Vernon, 1; Natchitoches, 4; LaSalle, 1; Sabine, 3; DeSoto, 2; Grant, 4; and Tangipahoa, 1.

The meeting opened at 9:30 with Dr. Hand officiating throughout the entire program. Beginning with "What It Takes to Make a Statewide Educational Program Go," Dr. Hand explained why each principle was so vitally necessary and the rationale of each principle.

Dr. Hand argued that the program should be under the auspices of the State Department of Education with the policies governing the program coming from an advisory body made up of representatives of all statewide organizations touched by the program.

Dr. Hand explained the actual working of the program under six topics. These being: The Statewide Advisory or Steering Committee, Local Studies Basic To Improving the Local School, Workshops Sponsored by ISSCP, Developmental Project in Pilot Schools Sponsored by ISSCP, Publication of ISSCP, Improvement of School-College Relations.

Dr. Hand has served on the faculties of Columbia University, Stanford University, Northwestern University, University of Maryland, and the American University of Cairo, Egypt. He is author and co-author of over a dozen professional books, five of which are in the field of guidance. He has a brilliant record of over three years service as Lt.-Col. in the Air Corps. The Demons are preparing for the invasion of Henderson State Teachers College of Arkadelphia, Arkansas Tuesday night. With a fourth victory under their belts after knocking off the S. E. Okla. quintet a second time, the Demons are making necessary preparations for the boys from Arkansas.

The Demons turned back the Southeastern Oklahoma Savages a second time Tuesday night by a score of 49-41. It was another defensive game in which the Oklahomians were ahead only once. The local team led only 22-18 at the intermission.

For the second night the outstanding player was big Kirby Minter, who turned in a fine performance. Minter hit the nets for 20 points as well as clearing the backboard a number of times.

Johnny McConathy again paced the Demon scorers with 13 points, followed closely by Ranew with 12. The second game was somewhat easier than the first.

Kleiser and His Paintings

An exhibition display of paintings and tapestries by Lorentz Kleiser, eminent artist, architect and tapestry weaver is being held in the Old Lemee House on Jefferson Street, beginning Sunday, Dec. 3, and continuing through the month of December.

Mr. Kleiser was born in Elgin, Illinois, of Norwegian parents and has been using colors and paints since he was a child. At the age of 5 he was taken to Norway, where he spent most of his boyhood working as an apprentice with the leading mural painters in Norway. At the age of 16 he returned to America and entered Munich Academy where he spent 3½ years. Then he returned to Norway and did book illustrations until his return to America at the age of 21.

Upon returning to New York, he became acquainted with Baumgarten, famous tapestry weaver, and became interested in Gobelin tapestry. He worked with Mr. Baumgarten for two years and then supported a venture in tapestry weaving of his own. He founded the famous Edgewater Tapestry Looms that have gained for him an international reputation for his designs. Mr. Kleiser has studied in Academy, Paris, Italy, and has spent one-third of his life in Europe. As president of the Art-In-Trades Clubs in New York, he promoted the club's interior shows and represented the craftsmen as a vice-president of the Architectural League. Mr. Kleiser is an honorary member of the Arts Institute Architects and of the Arts Institute Decorators.

Up until 5 years ago, painting was just a hobby with Mr. Kleiser, but when tapestry weaving became impractical, because of the expense of producing, he began to paint seriously and has since held one-man shows in museums and galleries throughout the States. Mr. Kleiser believes that a truly good artist can paint anything—rather than just subjects in one particular field. His collection of over 300 paintings includes landscapes, snow scenes, water, waves, mountains, redwoods, flowers, sunrise, moonrise, portraits, and many others, but he especially enjoys painting portraits, "because of the challenge they present." Mr. Kleiser has little respect for modern painting. Says Mr. Kleiser, "They paint with their tongue in their cheek, taking advantage of people to sell them something that isn't there." Mr. Kleiser dubs himself a "poor sport" because he has never seen a football, baseball or basketball game in his life. He just can't seem to get away from his painting long enough.

Mr. and Mrs. Kleiser's home is now in Orange, Texas, where his studio, built for him by Mr. Litcher Stark, is situated in a small park. Here is where Mr. Kleiser does most of his painting.

Mr. Kleiser came to Natchitoches on the invitation of Mayor Frank Kees, who saw an exhibition of the former's paintings and tapestry in the State Exhibit building in Shreveport. Mr. Kleiser plans to hold another exhibition in Shreveport in February, but now he is chiefly interested on Natchitoches and the surrounding area and plans to do several paintings during his stay. His exhibition is open to the public.

Gallery hours in the Old Lemee House are from 2 to 6 daily including Sunday and from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Special appointments may be made for mornings.

Assembly Wednesday!

Santa will be there!

Demon Gymnasts Make Appearance Wednesday Night in F.A. Auditorium

The 1950 edition of the Demon gymnastic team made their first public appearance on the campus last Wednesday night as they staged their annual gym show. The team under the direction of Coach John Piscopo, had previously put the show on in other parts of the state.

Composed of top athletes in their field, the team took honors last year in both honor and popularity over the state.

In individual events and in group work at the N.A.A.U. meet in New Orleans, Demon gymnasts copped a number of 1st and 2nd places.

At the first of two basketball games between NSC and Southeastern Oklahoma Monday night, four members of the team gave students, visitors, and townspeople a preview of the show, tumbling on mats during the half-time.

Although made up mostly of tumbling and balancing acts, the show varied. It was climaxed by a series of acts, staged under special light, and with special make-up, designed to represent strength and youth.

On the lighter side were clown acts of tumbling. Music was furnished by the Demonaires.

Fraternities Pledge 45 Members As Fall Rush Season Closes

More than 45 men added their names to the ranks of NSC's fraternity members Tuesday night as they left a pre-pledging meeting in the visual education room of the Library and went to the fraternity room of their choice.

Phi Kappa Nu, local fraternity founded on the campus in 1929, led the list with a total of 22 pledges. In addition to the 22 who reported to the Phi Kappa meeting Tuesday night to make their choice, 6 were unable to attend. They will be formally pledged at a later date, according to the president, George Grammar.

Sigma Tau Gamma, only national social fraternity on the campus, garnered 15 new pledges in the race for members, according to Tau president, "Snap" Oakes. Sigma Tau was founded in 1920. Gamma chapter was installed at NSC in 1929.

Eight of the rushees reported to the Lambda Zeta meeting to be pledged to the organization. The fraternity, headed by Luke Petrovich, was founded on the campus in 1924.

Pledged into the three fraternities Tuesday night were:

LAMBDA ZETA: Jim Voorhoff, Frank Pasqua, Oscar Alford, Leslie Lites, Charles Prudhomme, Kenneth Norsworthy, Jack Scroggins.

NSC Grad Chosen to Represent State At 1951 Cuban Teacher Celebration

George Adams Huff, graduate of Northwestern State, has been selected to represent Louisiana at Cuba's fiftieth anniversary of its Public School Education celebration, to be held in Havana, December 18 to January 1.

The Southdowns high teacher was selected and nominated by State Superintendent of Education E. N. Jackson.

She will go to Miami by train to meet representatives from each of the other 47 states. From there the group will be transported to Havana where they will be taken to a Havana hotel. All expenses while there will be paid by the Cuban government.

After receiving her B. A. degree at NSC Huff began her teaching career in Franklin. After a year there she moved on to Lake Providence where she taught eight or nine years. Her next school was in Mangham, where she taught the second grade for eight years.

Activities of the chapter inspection program included a model meeting, pledging, initiation, and pledge meeting.

Mrs. Neidig has served as a national officer since 1925. For two years she was the national grand treasurer, after which she served as grand president until 1946.

Chapter Inspected By Nat'l Officer

Alpha Delta chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma was host this week to Mrs. Ruth Neidig, the sorority's representative to the National Pan-Hellenic Conference. The purpose of the visit by the national officer was for triennial chapter inspection.

Arriving Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Neidig participated in a full schedule of activities, including conferences with the officers, and special entertainment by the group. Thursday afternoon she was honored at a tea in the Pi Kappa Sigma house with representatives of all sororities in at-

Oslo University Summer Session Opens June 23

The annual Summer School for American students at the University of Oslo, in Norway, has been announced by University authorities. The 1951 session will be the fifth consecutive one, and will be held in Oslo from June 23 to August 4. Once again all arrangements will be handled by an American committee, and applications for entrance can be secured from the Oslo Summer School Admissions Office at St.

Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota.

As in past years, some 250 American students will be admitted. All applicants must have completed at least two college years by June of 1951. Applications must be received at the Admissions Office not later than April 1. Notification of action on the application will be mailed shortly after that date.

The University of Oslo will provide lecturers and guarantee the educational standards of the courses, which will be conducted in English. The main emphasis this summer will be on courses pertaining to Norwegian culture: geography, history, language, literature, music, and art. There will also be courses offered on the social, economic, and political situation in the Scandinavian countries. Numerous courses will be offered from which the student can choose, with a 6-weeks orientation course, "The General Survey of Norwegian Culture," required of all students.

The faculty for the session contains the names of many prominent men, known not only in their native land of Norway, but recognized throughout the entire world. Many of the leading lecturers from the regular sessions of the University are included as well as prominent men in the Norwegian government. Halvard Lange, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Haakon Lie, Secretary of the Norwegian Labor Party, Dr. Karl Evang, Surgeon-General of Public Health, Christian S. Ofstedal, Editor-in-Chief of the "Stavanger Aftenblad" and Dr. Francis Bull, Professor of Scandinavian Literature at the University are but a few of the many that will be on the Summer School staff.

Six semester credits may be earned during the six-weeks' course. The University of Oslo will award a certificate to everyone who satisfactorily completes the Summer School course. Prospective students who wish to transfer credits from Norway are urged to confer with their faculty adviser or registrar. The University will issue official transcripts of student's records showing the number of hours devoted to lectures, laboratory and field work, and the results of examinations taken.

A limited number of scholarships will be awarded.

The Summer School session has been approved by the United States Veterans' Administration. American veterans may thus receive subsistence of $75 per month if single; $105 if married; and $120 if married and with additional dependents. In addition, of course, the Veterans Administration will pay the tuition fee and probably the student fee.

Classroom and laboratory activities of the Summer School will be conducted in the new Science Building of Oslo University. Located at Blindern, ten minutes by electric car from the center of Oslo, this building has pleasant natural surroundings and commands a sweeping view over the Oslo fjord and the hills around the city.

The lower rates established last year will again prevail. The tuition for the six weeks term is $80; the student fee which includes health insurance is $10; and the excursion fee, $20.

Two hundred berths in Tourist Class are reserved for the Oslo Summer School students on the Norwegian American Line's SS Stavangerfjord, sailing from New York on June 13. The round trip fare in this class is $360. Other means of transportation are somewhat higher.

Application blanks should be requested without delay by all those interested. They may be obtained from the Oslo Summer School Admissions Office, St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

I.A. Club Members Make Field Trip

On December 8, thirteen members of the Industrial Arts Club, with their sponsor, Mr. Postman, made their first industrial field trip of the year.

The trip included a tour of inspection through the following industries: Mansfield Hardwood Lumber Company at Zwolle, Nabors Trailer Company and Hendrix Manufacturing Company at Mansfield.

At each place the students observed methods of production and distribution from a practical viewpoint.

ROTC to Name Sponsors Before End of Semester

Three girls will be picked from the NSC student body by cadets of the campus Reserve Officer Training Corps for the honor of becoming ROTC sponsors. According to Captain B. G. Sims, military instructor, a girl will be chosen to represent each of the two batteries and one to represent the battalion.

Upon accepting the honor the girls will be conferred with an honorary rank commensurate with that of the commander of the unit they represent. The NSC cadet sponsor representing each of the two batteries will receive honorary rank of Cadet Captain. The girl representing the battalion will become an honorary Cadet Lieutenant-Colonel.

For that mark of distinction the girls will be issued Cadet Sponsor Uniforms. The sponsors are chosen for a period of one year, and will be announced before the end of the fall semester.

Publication of a new novel by Charles Gilbert Stahls, a former resident of Natchitoches and a graduate of Northwestern State College, has been announced by the Watling Publishing Company in Los Angeles.

Entitled "Grand Bouquet," Stahls' work is said by the author to be centered around New Orleans and Natchitoches. It is a provocative problem novel of ideas and conflicts concerning four closely related individuals, one of whom is killed in an accident, the author explained. He added that the central theme of the novel is a demonstration of the infallibility of human loyalty under unusually difficult circumstances.

Although "Grand Bouquet" will not be released nationally until January 15, 1951, the publisher stated that it will be available in North Louisiana early in December, coinciding with the author's annual Christmas visit to relatives and friends in Natchitoches and Shreveport.

Charles Stahls is well known here and in Shreveport, having resided in these two localities from 1925 until the outbreak of World War II. While in Shreveport he was associated with radio stations KTBS and KWKH, and was a member of The Emanon Club. His mother, Mrs. Charles C. Stahls, and a sister, Miss Hazel Stahls, live at Provencal. Paul F. Stahls, his brother, is associated with The Bain Company of Shreveport.

A native of Tennessee, Stahls attended high school at Clarks-ville where he shared a desk for a year with Robert Penn Warren, author of "All The King's Men," and following a year and a half at Vanderbilt University Stahls settled in Louisiana. He received his A.B. degree at Northwestern State College where he began his literary career as editor of "The Current Sauce," the campus weekly, from 1940 to 1942, and as a writer for the Natchitoches Times.

After a brief period as news editor for a radio station in New Orleans, Stahls entered the Army in June, 1942, and was stationed overseas for more than two years with the Twelfth Air Force. Since the war he has resided in Los Angeles where he was on the editorial staff of a west coast magazine prior to writing his first novel, "Grand Bouquet."

The author is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity; of The Los Angeles Public Relations Group, and he holds a captain's commission in the Air Force Reserve.

College Singers to Present Program

The College Singers of Northwestern State College will present a program of Christmas Carols Sunday afternoon, Dec. 17 at three o'clock in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The public is invited.

This impressive candle light service will begin with a processional written by the director, Donald Glatly, and continue with a selection of Christmas carols, folk songs, and composed Christmas music.

The soloists will be: Kathryn Cardneaux, Natchitoches; Beryl DeLoach, Monroe; Elizabeth Lee, Natchitoches; Bessie Morgan, Saline; Joy Norris, Hall Summit; Margaret Ahlson, St. Joseph; Henry Camp, Monroe; and Jerry Fuller, DeRidder.

Delta Kappa Gamma Holds Initiation And Banquet at Nakatosh Hotel Dec. 11

Mrs. Flowers, President of the Classroom Teachers' Organization of Louisiana, was the guest speaker at the Delta Kappa Gamma banquet held in the Blue Room of the Nakatosh Hotel Saturday evening, December 11, at 8:00 o'clock. In her address Mrs. Flowers discussed past, pending, proposed, and needed school legislation. She advocated a mature and intelligent approach to school problems and appealed to teachers to enlist the cooperation and support of the public to bring about effective legislation. Mrs. Flowers was introduced and presented by Miss Catherine Winters.

Individual and Chapter guests were presented by Miss Clio Allen, and the four initiates—Mrs. Vestal Mouser, Mrs. Eola Rooks, Mrs. Pluma Madden, and Miss Irma Stockwell—were presented by Miss Estelle Cockfield. Mrs. Martha Dugdale presided and welcomed the guests and initiates.

Miss Mae Beville and Mrs. Frank Schneider offered appropriate musical selections.

The details of the banquet were arranged by Mrs. Mary Katherine Fisher, and the initiation ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Mattie Woodward.

Christmas Dance

The Natchitoches Service Club is sponsoring a Christmas dance Saturday evening, December 23, at the Country Club starting at 9 p.m.

'Christmas At Home' Panorama Displayed in Varnado Hall Sun.

A virtual wonderland of dolls was displayed Sunday at the annual "Christmas at Home" Tea. From 3 to 5 old fashioned Christmas cheer prevailed in the drawing room of Varnado Hall as one of the largest crowds on record responded to invitations from the Associated Women Students.

First and foremost in the focus of attention were the doll displays. Four dolls were contributed by each of the women's dormitories. Recognition will be given to the individual doll and to the scene representing originality and beauty.

Agnes Morris dormitory presented a scene entitled "Winter Wonderland." Dolls were dressed in clever dresses of black velvet and simulate fur and snow suits. The outdoor scene was completed with dolls representing a whirling ice skater and a fluffy cotton "snow" man.

"Belles of Melrose" was the theme of the scene presented by Kate Chopin. In the background was a colonial mansion with white columns; in the foreground, southern Belles strolled the lawn in frothy taffeta and organdy gowns wearing lace hats and gloves.

Audubon dormitory depicted "The Potpourri Ball." Miss Potpourri, dressed in pink taffeta and net appeared through a rift in tinfoil to the delight of the gentlemen dressed in stiff white collars and black tails.

A familiar scene, "Christmas Morning" was presented by Carondelet. Dolls were seated around a brilliant Christmas tree, dressed in flannel nightgowns and pajamas with tiny houseshoes.

The Co-op display consisted of dolls enthralled in the happy past-time of window shopping. The theme was "Dreamer's Holiday." Dolls were dressed in velvet and corduroy while other dolls were displayed behind a cellophane show window.

"Holiday Hayride" was the gay scene the Dining Hall girls depicted. Dolls were dressed in blue jeans and plaid shirts, one riding in a miniature hay wagon.

Along with the various scenes were six dolls dressed according to pictures on Hallmark doll cards. These dolls may be purchased by writing a card to or by contacting Janette Pace, box 775.

"Little Bo Peep," dressed by Francis Woodall was picturesque in a fluffy dress of blue and pink, topped by a large picture hat.

Jean Snead and Mickey West presented "Sing Toy of China" complete with straw coolee-hat and red lanterns. His shirt of red and black cotton was hand-stenciled.

"Little Miss Muffet" with red braided hair was dressed by Cornelia Blake. The doll wore a print dress and a large pink felt picture hat.

In a costume of ruffles and frills was "Rita of Brazil," dressed by Jeanette Moses. An outstanding feature was the hat of straw covered with flowers and feathers.

"Marie of Mexico" was dressed by Janette Abraham and Sara Richardson. She wore a colorful skirt and an embroidered blouse. Across her shoulder was draped a brilliant hand-woven serape.

Lorraine Watts Williams dressed "Cinderella" in frills of pink and blue organdy. Tiny ribbon roses trimmed the skirt.

Also, drawing much attention at the tea was the "Chorus of Angels", painted on the drawing room mirror by Marie Tilleux and the table center-piece made by Carol Clark which was a modernistic snow man surrounded by tiny snow men candles.

Refreshments were prepared by Mickey West, Jean Snead and Gloria Ebarb. Mrs. Ruth Webber designed 15 varieties of cookies especially for the occasion. The large Christmas tree was decorated by the council of Varnado.

Those who dressed the dolls were:

Agnes Morris: Elresa Maxwell, Betty Bradford, Nezy Deville, Tommie Blackburne, Isabel Pierce and Ila Mae Milton. Carolyn Cartright was in charge of the scene.

Co-op: Jerry Transier, Patsy Grandpierre, Jerry Ward, Mickie McDonald and many others.

Audubon: Sara Cook, Darlene Farr, Maude Dudley, Mrs. L. E. Townsend and Francis Wilson. Patsy Sullican and Claudine Box were in charge of the scenery.

Carondelet: Aphrodite Mamou-lides, Mary Worthington, Freda Woodhatch, Geneva Walker, Carolyn Price (in charge of the scenery), Joy Smith, Mary Ann Hatfield, Billie Hatcher.

Kate Chopin: Clydie Mae Beacham, Doris Bolen, Barbara Malloy, Peggy Jo Taylor, Jackie Woodall, Jackie Walker, Joy Smith. Virginia Metcalf was in charge of scenery.

Summer School Expenses Now Deductible

According to the December issue of MADEMOISELLE magazine, teachers can rejoice at the appeals-court decision that Nora Payne Hill's summer school expenses were deductible from her Federal income tax. The decision hasn't yet changed local revenue instructions and it may be ignored unless all teachers stand firm on their rights. The National Education Association's NEA Journal for September 1950 tells the whole story of this Virginia case.

College Groups to Present Handel's 'Messiah' in FA Auditorium Monday

Handel's famous oratorio "The Messiah" will be given Monday night, December 18, at eight o'clock, in the Fine Arts Auditorium by the College Singers, College Chorus, and the Natchitoches Symphony Orchestra.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

"The Messiah" was not written as a seasonal piece of music, but since it is essentially the story of the life of Christ, its performance during the Christmas season has been most appropriate. This is the fifth performance at Northwestern State College.

The soloists will be: Beryl DeLoach, Monroe; Elizabeth Lee, Natchitoches; Joy Norris, Hall Summit; Daisy Prudhomme, Bermuda; Wilhelmina Wise, Lena Station; Ted Forte, Lake Village, Ark.; Allen Grant, Leesville, and Jerry Fuller, DeRidder.

The performance will be conducted by Donald Glattly, with the Orchestra under the direction of Val Hill.

Administrators Club Meets Dec. 11

The Northwestern Administrators Club, composed of the principals, supervisors, and superintendents of all secondary schools in this area, met Monday, Dec. 11 in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts building.

Dr. Leo T. Allbritten gave an address, "Education at Mid-Century" and Dr. John A. Jones spoke on "Department and Report Cards." The group then discussed the problems presented in these two addresses.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: B. L. Stafford, Principal, LeCompte High School, president; C. V. Ellison, Principal, Noble High School, vice-president; and Dr. John B. Robson, secretary.

The club meets three times yearly and will hold its next meeting in February.

PERRY ANGLE HAS IMPRESSIVE COACHING RECORD

The following article was run in the Natchitoches Times this week. It is of particular interest to Northwestern both because of the fine record of the team and because Coach Angle is an NSC graduate. Knowing that most NSC sports fans are familiar with the work of the coach and the record of the team, we re-print it in its entirety. It proves that there are still opportunities in the field of high school athletics.

Last week's article concerning Baker High School supporters' gift of an automobile to Perry Angle, coach, promoted the following article by A. B. Allday, an old friend of the Times:

Perry Angle came to Baker High School in January of 1946 as Head Coach and teacher of mathematics. At that time Baker High was a Class B school, which meant that there were less than 86 boys in high school.

His first year at Baker High Perry took a basketball team which had placed fifth the year before and won 3rd place in the district tournament and went to the quarter-finals in the State Basketball Tournament. That year was Baker High's first year in football, and they won 6 games, tied 3, and lost 1, the loss being to Class A Hammond High School. Catholic High of Donaldsonville beat them in a play-off game for the district title by the score of 6-0. By the way, the fullback on that CHS team was Jerome Helouin, the star 280 lb. lineman on the present Tulane team.

In 1947 Baker High won the State Championship in Class B basketball. In football that year his team won 11 games, lost 2 to Class A teams, and wound up their season by winning the Class B State Championship by defeating Tallulah High on their own field. This Baker High team had started their season by defeating Catholic High of Baton Rouge, a Class AA team by 7 to 0. The score of their championship game with Tallulah was 20 to 6, the highest score made on Tallulah in over ten years.

In 1948 Baker High enrollment had grown enough so that they went into Class A competition. Their basketball team won the Tri-Parish Tournament, won the Southwest La. District Tournament at Lafayette, and went to the quarter-finals at the State Tournament. The football team of the Baker High Buffaloes won 6 and lost 1 in Class A competition. They lost 2 games to Class AA teams, Baton Rouge High and Catholic High of Baton Rouge. They were knocked out of district play-offs when they lost 7 to 6 to Litcher High. They played in both Cypress Bowl games, at Ponchatoula High where they lost to Covington High and at Litcher where they were defeated by Destrehan High.

In 1949 the basketball team won the Zachary Invitational Tournament, was runner-up at the Istrouma Invitational Tournament, and were Southwest Louisiana District Champs. They won 42 out of 47 games, and won third place in the State Tournament. They were rated the best team in the Baton Rouge area. In football Baker High won 7 and lost 3 games, two of them to Class A teams and one to a Class AA team. They again played in a bowl contest, beating Covington High 14 to 0 in the Strawberry Bowl at Hammond. The Baker High baseball team won the first Baton Rouge City Prep League Championship, defeating Catholic High in the final game.

In 1950 the Baker High basketball team won the Southeast Louisiana District title, the third consecutive year they were district champions. They then won the Class A State Basketball championship in the State Tournament held at LSU, defeating Franklinton High in the final game 52 to 26. The Baker High basketball team won the State Championship in Class A baseball, defeating Behrman High of New Orleans in the final game. The 1950 Baker Buffalo football team has won nine and tied one and lost one game. They started their season by beating Class AA Istrouma High in a 20 minute game at the Football Jamboree, then tied Class AA Catholic High of Baton Rouge 0 to 0 in a regular scheduled game. They won the championship of their district, Southeast Louisiana, and then won the South Louisiana championship by defeating Reserve High on December 1 by 7 to 6. Next week they will play for the State Championship against the winner of the Bossier City-Morgan City game which will be played in Bossier City Friday night.

So, since January of 1946, Perry Angle's Baker High School Buffaloes have won a Class B State Championship in basketball, a Class B State Championship in football, a Class A State Championship in basketball, a Class A State Championship in baseball, and are hoping to win the Class A State Championship in football this week. In addition they have won 3 district titles in basketball, a City League championship in baseball, and many tournaments. Also in 1947 Perry was named unanimously "Coach of the year," in a poll conducted by the Morning Advocate.

Scholarships Are Available for NSC Nursing Program

Twenty-five $500 scholarships are available to qualified persons who enter the new class in nursing at Northwestern State College on January 30, 1951. The scholarship approximately covers the cost of attending the college for the two semesters and the summer session that the beginning nursing student spends on the campus at Natchitoches. During the second and third years the Northwestern student in nursing receives training in one or more of the six affiliated hospitals in Shreveport, Monroe, and Alexandria. During these years, comparable scholarships are available.

The scholarships are provided by the six collaborating hospitals: E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital in Monroe; Baptist Hospital in Alexandria; North Louisiana Sanitarium, Highland Sanitarium, Shreveport Charity Hospital, and Tri-State Hospital in Shreveport.

The college now has 278 students enrolled in its three curricula—a three-year diploma program, a four-year degree program, and a two-year degree program for registered nurses.

Young men and women who are high school graduates can qualify for the $500 scholarships by passing physical, psychological, and reading tests. The examinations will be given at the Shreveport Charity Hospital on January 6, 1951. All applications and inquiries should be filed immediately with Miss Graham Price, Director of Nursing, Northwestern State College, Natchitoches.

Santa Claus to Visit NSC Wednesday To Read Letters and Fulfill Requests

"Santa Claus is coming to . . ." NSC! But definitely! The jolly old gentleman will be on the "hill" in person Wednesday to see Northwestern students and faculty members.

The annual Christmas party will once again highlight the pre-holiday festivities Wednesday morning when presents will be presented to the "good people" of "hill."

The program, under auspices of the Assembly Committee, will be presented at 10:00 in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

In addition to the reading of letters to himself by Santa Claus and the subsequent gift-giving, there will be a choral group to entertain, a skit, and a modern dance exhibition.

Dr. Kyser will take full length color movies of the event.

Faculty members of the Assembly Committee are Havard, Duffy, Harper, Williams, and Towns.

Student members are Tilleux, Cheron, and Tillman.

Meet Santa Wednesday!

String Ensemble Appears at Martin HS Friday

Friday night, December 8, the College String Ensemble made its first public appearance in Martin, La. The ensemble played to a large crowd in the Martin High School gymnasium. The program was a varied one, consisting of not only the performances of the ensemble but also violin, viola and cello duets and solos. The audience was highly pleased with the program.

Max Ann Bamburg, a recent graduate of Northwestern State College is the music instructor in Martin. The outstanding part about Martin's music program is that an orchestra is being started there before the usual brass band. Martin can certainly be commended for their contribution to better music.

The College String Ensemble has several other scheduled appearances in January.

NOTICE!

The final volleyball game in the W. R. A. tournament will be played next week between Tri-Sigma and the Pups.

The WRA basketball tournament will start soon. Girls wishing to play are asked to turn in the teams' names by Friday, Dec. 15 at the women's gym.

Shorthand Nets Good Jobs Says National Mag.

The December issue of MADE-MOISELLE reports that a knowledge of shorthand can net you an annual $364 more than typing alone. According to a Bureau of Labor Statistics survey of New York City office workers stenographers averaged $47 a week to the clerk-typists' $40. And the N. Y. State Employment Service says it's having trouble finding stenographers to meet present demands.

Davis Attends Band Meet In Chicago

Dwight G. Davis, director of the Northwestern State College Band and Associate Professor of music, will attend the College Band Directors' National Association convention in Chicago, Ill., on December 18 and 19.

Mr. Davis was recently appointed chairman of the Louisiana division of the C. B. D. N. A. by Ernest Lyons, Southern division chairman.

The convention, to be held at the Congress Hotel, will deal with the problems of college band directors, both in marching and concert bands.

Credit Now Allowed Students Who Volunteer for Military Service

NSC students who volunteer for the Armed Services no longer have to worry about losing the credit or hours they are taking during the semester in which they volunteer, according to information from President Prather.

Students who have progressed to the middle of the semester and who have a "C" average in a course may now get credit for it, whether inducted or entering voluntarily into military service.

The new ruling, "Regulations Governing the Granting of Credit to Students Inducted into Military Service," was released yesterday from the office of the President.

Dated Dec. 13, it states:

"For students who resign during a school term to enter military service, credit for incomplete courses shall be granted on the following reservations:

"(1) Credit is allowed for courses pursued for nine weeks or more of a regular semester, or for six weeks more of a summer term. The grade in the course is the one assigned by the instructor at the time of the student's resignation.

"(2) Credit is allowed in a course only where the grade assigned at the time of the student's resignation is C or better.

"(3) Credit is allowed a student who leaves school no earlier than ten days before entering military service. Students who desire credit for the semester should submit promptly to the Dean of Men a certified copy of the orders placing him on active duty."

Potpourri Ball Highlight of Week's Events

In keeping with its yearly tradition the Potpourri staff is sponsoring the Potpourri Ball from 8 to 12 in the student center tonight.

An entertaining floor show will be highlighted by the announcement of Miss Potpourri and her eight maids. Ronald Martin will be master of ceremonies. Julia McBroom is in charge.

Marie Tilleux is chairman of decorations.

Members of the Potpourri staff include Ronald Martin, Robert Allen, Julia McBroom, Marie Tilleux, Ponder Davis, E. G. Smith, and Louise Vick.

Everyone is invited to the dance.

Assembly Wednesday!
Santa will be there!

New York Hotel Offers Student, Faculty Rates

With hotel rooms in New York City again approaching wartime scarcity, The Biltmore, through its College Department will have rooms available to undergraduate and faculty members over the coming holiday season. Open dates at present are Dec. 10-Jan. 7. Students planning on being in Manhattan through these dates are urged to make reservations with The Biltmore College Department as soon as possible. Special student-faculty rates, as in the past, will continue to remain in effect.

Williams Author Of Article on Library Problems

Mrs. Ora G. Williams, Documents Librarian for Northwestern, placed an article in the Fall, 1950 issue of a professional journal.

The article, "College Library Attitudes Toward Users," was carried in Volume 13, No. 4, issue of the "Bulletin of the Louisiana Library Association."

The two page article, pp. 101-102, related problems that library users create.

Fall Semester Closes Jan. 26 On the 'Hill'

The fall semester, for NSC, will close at noon, Friday, January 26, 1951. Registration for the spring semester is scheduled for Tuesday, January 30, 1951, with work beginning at 8:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 31, 1951.

Graduation exercises are to be held for the senior class Thursday, January 25, at 7:30 p.m.

NOTICE!

250 Fellowships Now Available to Science Graduates

Approximately 250 AEC-sponsored predoctoral fellowships in the physical and geological sciences are available for the 1951-52 fiscal year through the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, which is administering the program for the Atomic Energy Commission.

The predoctoral fellowships provide a basic stipend of $1600, with increments of $500 if married and $250 per child, not exceeding two in number. Additional allowance will be made for travel to the place of study and for college or university tuition.

Appointments will be for one year beginning September 1, 1951, and it is expected that renewals may be made where appropriate.

Students who have had one year of graduate study at the time of entering upon the fellowship are eligible for the fellowships in the physical sciences, while applicants for fellowships in the biological sciences must have received their bachelor's degree.

To qualify for a fellowship, a candidate must plan research so related to atomic energy as to justify a presumption that upon completion of his studies, he will be especially suited for employment by the AEC or one of its contractors.

In addition to the predoctoral fellowships, the Institute will ap-

Annual 'Messiah' Given in F.A.A. December 18

Mr. Donald Glattly, directing the combined NSC chorus and College Singers, presented the "Messiah" by Handel, December 18, 1950.

This program, given annually by the choral groups, gave the full performance of the "Messiah." The soloists were Beryl DeLoach, Wilhelmina Wise, Joy Norris, Elizabeth Lee, Daisy Prudhomme, Jerry Fuller, Allan Grant, and Ted Forte.

The Natchitoches Symphony Orchestra accompanied the chorus.

'Messiah'

Joy Norris takes a leading part in the presentation of the Messiah, conducted by Donald Glattly in the Fine Arts Auditorium, Monday evening, December 18. Participating were members of the college chorus, singers, and orchestra.

Senate, Council at Deadlock On Short Range Loan Fund Bill

ROTC Deferment Policies Outlined

A quota making possible the deferment of Freshman ROTC participants was just released from Headquarters, according to Col. Bowman, Director of ROTC here at Northwestern. Deferment for Freshmen will be determined on the basis of leadership ability and satisfactory overall college grades, says Col. Bowman.

Freshmen who are deferred will be able to remain in college as long as they continue to do satisfactory work in all subjects and continue with the ROTC. Only those students who will be able to complete the full four years of training as outlined in the ROTC program will be eligible for deferment.

The Student Senate and the Student Council came to a decision deadlock Tuesday night on Senate Bill No. 1, 1950; "A bill to propose a Short Range Student Loan Fund."

Don Jones, as a one-man committee representing the Student Council, presented the Council's official veto on the Senate removal of a clause containing a method of enforcement of collection of delinquent bills.

In addition to the Council veto of the Council veto of the Bill of the Bill without the above clause, the suggestion was made that the loan fund not be administered by the Senate, or legislative branch of student government, but by the executive. The Council members based their decision on the fact that they are the administrative unit of the Student Body Association.

After debate for one hour on the two Council decisions, the Senate turned the bill over to a six-man joint committee of Council and Senate members.

Effort was made at the session to override the Council decision by a 2/3 vote of Senate members, in order to put the plan in operation as soon as possible. After a new edition of the Bill, agreeable to representatives of both chambers, has been completed, it will then go before the two groups for final approval, before being placed in operation.

Senate Joint Resolutions 2 and 3, introduced by President Jimmy Johnson earlier in the semester, were placed before the Senate for approval at the same session. Both Bills passed the house with unanimous vote.

The second resolution of the Senate this year marks an effective change in the arrangement of the executive department of student government, placing greater power in the hands of the Student Body President rather than in the

Dean Walker Writes Article

New York, January 5—George T. Walker, Ph.D., Dean of the School of Applied Arts and Sciences at Northwestern State College of Louisiana, is the author of an article in the January issue of The Journal of Accountancy. The Journal is the official publication of the American Institute of Accountants, national professional society of certified public accountants.

Dr. Walker writes on the accountants' concept of goodwill.

Saucier Attends Spanish Meet

Taking advantage of the Christmas holidays Miss Corinne Saucier attended a convention of the National Association of Spanish Professors in New Orleans.

Leaving there by train Miss Saucier went to New York to take part in the National Association of Modern Language Professors at the Statler Hotel.

She spent the holiday season there with friends and saw several Broadway hits.

Call Us Murderers

If you like. We're out to kill or maim, with the deadliest weapon we have at hand. Kill what? A rumor. With what? Fact and reason.

Where it started, we don't know, but the rumor is this: That the ROTC unit here at NSC is about to be abolished, kicked out, vanished, or what have you.

Application for a Reserve Officer Training Corps unit here was made several years before it was approved. Durnig that period of time the Army investigated, checked, re-investigated, and rechecked to find out if NSC was a proper place for a Reserve Corp unit. The same amount of work is done before any college or university if granted a military school. Is it possible that after all that time, and work, there would be a mistake?

During World War II, some 100,000 ROTC graduates served in the armed forces, ranging in rank from second lieutenant to brigadier general. Since 1948 approximately 150,000 graduates have been commissioned. ROTC was established in 1916 for the purpose of training such men as the above for times of crisis. What power would take away from themselves such a proven source of good military men or, in a time of crisis, minimize the production of the training system?

Rather, in the past two years, there have been added to the already existing 425 ROTC units (which enroll over 160,000 students) more than 30 new ones.

On the basis of these and other facts, it is evident that, as Lt. Colonel James W. Bowman stated, "ROTC here is definitely a permanent fixture."

Editorial

The Sophomore and Junior classes take the honors of the week—along with all the people who chipped in time and effort to make the recent Variety Show the terrific success it was.

Odd thing about shows of that nature. Most of them flop because everybody figures that it will just be a lot of amateur corn put on stage to bore people and at the same time rob their pockets for some cause or other.

This particular show did not flop. It was not a lot of amateur corn and it certainly did not rob people's pockets. It climaxed an all-semester drive to secure funds for a name band for the Spring Formal dance. The Demonaires played short dances on Wednesday nights during the semester, charging fifteen cents admission. That brought in a good bit of money.

The Variety show netted a profit of $80.00 by itself. With effort and interest like that, if Northwestern doesn't get a name band this spring semester, it won't be the fault of the students.

The Knothole

This column for the last issue of the Sauce this semester . . . then dead week, the next to last word in that phrase being just about what we are.

Correspondence to the staff has certainly stepped up since the leaving en masse of draftee eligibles. Life is the same—some gripe, some are happy.

Thanks to the powers that be . . . a new innovation in the dining hall seems to have met with much success. The addition of extra serving saucers for the vegetables, that is, don't know if or not the plates have made all the difference — but even the food tastes better. Much better.

Where, oh where did the rumor get started that ROTC here was about to fail. Some people can never be content, it seems. Lt. Colonel Bowman, PMS&T, informs us that the cadet unit here is definitely a "fixture."

Speaking of the Colonel . . . he agrees with ex-President Stokes of LSU that the wise thing to do is to stay in college as long as you can. Maybe the two have in mind the old Army game; keep your eyes open, mouth shut, and don't volunteer for anything.

Rain, rain, rain . . . c'est tout! Wonder who-all is leaving next semester? 93 so far and more joining the service every day. Just to be pessimistic . . . we might all have to go. Just to be optimistic . . . we might not.

Orchids to Beta Beta Beta . . . on their coming presentation of color film on hypothyroidism . . . as opposed to hyperthyroidism. Do you know what pituitary myxedema is? Neither do I!

"It's a cinch" . . . that the campus won't be empty come the latter part of March. The American Legion invades us then. Watch the basketballs fly.

Who says Current Sauce editors are no good. Didn't ex-editor Charles Stahls just write a book? encee.

Speaking of writing . . . a modern grammarian has discovered a new source of neuroses. This one is of the anxiety variety; caused by the average person's mental coin-flipping to determine which to use: shall, will, who, whom, whoever, whomever, ad infinitum. Another book to buy.

Next semester is "convention" semester. I can name three right off hand: H. S. Government students, AWS Careers Conference, and the proposed conference of the Louisiana High School Press Association.

Have heard this kicked around . . . "The only thing wrong with the younger generation is that they have more critics than models." Don't kick it too far.

Senate Minutes

The meeting was called to order January 9 by Jimmy Johnson. Group pictures were made for the Potpourri.

Rudy Berlin moved that the Senate offer a formal suggestion to the Student Council to fill the position left vacant by Sonny Hoff. It was seconded and passed.

The Senate's skit was withdrawn from the miscellaneous division of the talent show.

Don Jones, representing the Student Council, brought an amendment of the Student Loan Fund plan providing for action on delinquent notes. It was moved that the amendment be passed, and it failed.

Ellard moved that the Senate accept the previous amendment with the addition that the delinquent names be published. It was seconded and the motion failed.

The Student Council also suggested that the Executive Treasurer be a part of the executive department of the association.

Martin moved that after giving the Student Council suggestions careful consideration, the bill be passed as read. The motion was seconded and failed due to the lack of a two-thirds majority vote required.

Berlin moved that the Senate accept the Student Council's recommendation that the executive treasurer be in the executive department. It was seconded. Tillman amended the motion whereby the Fund Plan would be turned over to a joint commission to make the changes. The motion passed.

Chuck Tillman, Pat Cameron, and Leland Langridge were appointed to the joint committee from the Senate.

The Senate Joint Resolution 2, clarifying the duties of the Legislative Department and changing the election date of Senate members, was passed.

Senate Joint Resolution 3, clarifying the duties of the Executive Department and succession of the president's office was passed.

Senate Joint Resolution 4, pertaining to the drama fund, was passed.

Senate Joint Resolution 5, permitting the editors of the publications to choose their advisors, was passed.

Respectfully submitted,
Joyce Rambin

Those good old holidays are over now. And its back to tests! But quite a few of the gals and guys came back hitched!

Bea Bruscato and Gene Uhrbach were married December 26, 1950 in St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Monroe. The church was decorated with its Christmas decorations. Miss Beth McGuffee served as maid of honor. Jerry West was best man.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride. Bea and Gene will make their home in Natchitoches where both of them are students at N.S.C.

Miss Dorothy Olivier was wed to Robert W. DeKeyser on December 23 in St. Nicholas church, New Iberia, La. The families of the gride and groom heard the couple take the vows. Robert is back at NSC getting a degree in education.

Sue Gilmore and Tyrus Sibley were married January 8 at ten a.m. in the home of Reverend Poole, Methodist Minister of the First Methodist Church, Natchitoches. Tyrus has resigned from school to enter the service. Sue will remain here.

Jo Clark, former NSC student, was married to Sid Morrell December 27 in Jena. Jo is teaching school in Olla. Sid is here in school.

Mattie Jackson, graduate of N. S. C., was married to Quinton Pruitt, on December 23. Mattie is teaching in Vinton. Quinton is in school here on the hill.

Miss Jo Nell Richardson was wed to Sonny Gatlin, December 22 in Mansfield. Jo Nell is in school here until the end of this semester when she will graduate.

Wedding belles will ring soon for several more NSC students!

Miss Doris Dickson, nursing student, is engaged to Bill Williams of Natchitoches. The wedding will be January 25.

Miss Louisa Johnson and Buddy Moore will be married January 21 in Chestnut. Buddy and Louisa will finish their medical technology study here this semester and will begin training in February at the Southern Methodist Hospital in Houston.

Miss Sue Lee, former NSC student, will be married to Wyndell Evans, January 27 in Mansfield. Ruth Ellender will be maid of honor.

Among the other engagements are: Miss Ann Bolen is engaged to Ralph "Kay" Gremillion. Miss Mayme Rae Schoonover to Harry "Buck" Anderson, Miss Nelda Madden to Johnny Emmons, Miss Barbara Hall to Perry Wilson, Miss Johnnie Nash to Jackie Hannah. Miss Gail Curley is also wearing an engagement ring.

Beth McGuffee is now wearing Bobby Johnson's Sigma Tau pin. Bobby is a graduate of NSC and works in Shreveport.

Pattie Green is pinned to Joe Holley, another of those Sigma Tau boys. Joe has resigned from school to enter the service.

Best of luck to all you gals, and congratulations, guys!

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

Just a good old Louisiana hayride was held by the Alpha Sigs just before the Christmas holidays. The ASA's and their dates met at the sorority house and from there, went on a big truck filled with hay to Chandler's camp. The highlight of the party was a big weiner roast. Some games were played, along with singing, and just sitting around talking. After everything was over, everyone climbed back into the truck and came home.

Our pledges are all working very hard. They gave the members a Christmas party. We all had a lot of fun. Gifts were exchanged between big sisters and little sisters. Everyone gave something to the house.

We were all very proud of our own Dollie Smith and Peggy Sandifer at the Potpourri Ball. Dollie was chosen to reign as Miss Potpourri and Peggy was on the court.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The actives were thoroughly entertained at a Christmas party the week before the holidays by the pledges. The pledges did a fine job making and painting slides pertaining to the actives and showing on a large screen, in a theater setting. At the door, ushers clad in "short uniforms" gave each person Pi-nuts, Kapcorn and Sigma-rettes. Later Santa Claus came and refreshments were served.

Ann Bolen received a ring from "Kay" Gremillion, Nelda Madden a ring from Johnny Emmons, and Gail Curley received a ring from that lad from Ferriday. Beth McGuffee proudly sports Bobby Johnson's Sigma Tau pin. Best of everything, girls! The Pi Kaps were sorry to lose Jo Pullin, who is now Mrs. Dwane Murphy.

TRI SIGMA

Congratulations are in order for the Tri Sigmas who won first place in the Variety Show Wednesday night or their skit "Heaven of Hell." The skit was one depicting dormitory life in its arrest form as it appeared to the bewildered freshman girl. Credit for this skit goes mainly to Louise Hanchey who directed and managed it.

Last Saturday night there was an all night jam session at the Tri Sigma house when around twenty - five girls entertained themselves at another of those famous slumber parties. There was ukulele playing and singing which lasted until the wee hours of the morning much to the distress of the few who were trying to get in a few winks of sleep. Well, they should know better by now not to expect such a thing as everybody going to bed. Why its just unheard of.

Janette Pace is to be congratulated on being chosen as one of the maids in the Potpourri court which was presented at the annual Potpourri Ball before the Christmas holidays.

During the Christmas holidays marriages and engagements highlighted many of the Tri Sigmas activities. Fay Coleman and Dona Mae Thompson were married and Wilma Craig and Ann Keys became engaged.

As the new semester is just around the corner the Tri Sigmas are beginning to make plans for the spring rush season which will probably begin during the first two or three weeks.

Death by Fire

More than 11,000 lives were lost in fires in the United States during the past year, the leading cause of which was carelessness in the use of matches and cigarette smoking.

Nursing Program Gets Recognition

For the second time within a month the new program in nursing at Northwestern State College has received national recognition. The December issue of "Hospitals" carries a two-page story on the program. "Hospitals" is published by the American Hospital Association for the information and guidance of all hospital officials.

The November bulletin of the Health Information Foundation series entitled "Progress in Health Services" had carried a complimentary report on the new program. The Health Information Foundation is a non-profit institution established to assemble factual information to enable American communities to better their health standards.

The "Hospitals" story, entitled "Nursing Goes to College," begins with the following statement: "A bright spot in the picture of national nursing education has emerged during the last year in the State of Louisiana. The new light is Northwestern State College in Natchitoches, Louisiana, 75 miles from Shreveport. Here in September 1949, a new integrated collegiate nurses' training program was set up to take the place of a collection of noncollegiate hospital programs that previously had supplied the Shreveport area with nurses."

At another point the editors commented: "A striking illustration of the planners' success is the fact that the first year brought 100 freshman students to register in the two basic programs—an enrollment that stands in sharp contrast to the small numbers in many new collegiate programs. Enrollment for the 1950 fall semester was half-again as large. The total number enrolled is expected to exceed 500 by September, 1951."

Loyola-NSC Cage Tilt Tonight; Demons Out to Avenge SLI Defeat

The Demons of Northwestern State will meet the Wolfpack of Loyola on the local hardwood tonight. This is the second conference tilt for the locals. SLI tripped the Demons in their conference game on Tuesday night in Lafayette by a count of 74-56. The Demons will be out to even their conference record against the victory-hungry wolves.

The local quintet has an overall record of 7 wins against 4 losses thus far in the campaign. This is only the beginning of conference play and the drive is just starting. The Purple and White will meet Centenary on Monday night and Louisiana Tech on Wednesday night of next week. Both games are scheduled for the home floor. On Friday the 19th the Demons meet the Southeastern Lions in Hammond and fourney to New Orleans for a contest with Loyola on the following night. After this gruelling week the boys will take a week lay-off for exams and registrations.

The Demons are building their offense around big Johnny McConathy, a 6-5 senior from Bryce-land. Johnny has 223 points in 11 games for an average of 20.3 points per game. Hershel McConathy, who has been out with a sprained ankle, is expected to be ready for the wolfpack. The remainder of the starters are scheduled to be ready also. These include Linwood Outz, Artie Ranew and Jim Yergler.

The Demons were hampered by several injuries in the SLI game but are expecting to be in better shape for the Loyola invasion. Loyola is expected to bring a strong ball club here. Loyola has tasted defeat several times but each time by a close margin. The wolves dropped an overtime contest to Louisiana College and another game to Centenary by a single point in the last minute of the fracas.

The Demons are undefeated on the home floor this season and are in hopes of keeping their slate clean against the wolf pack.

School 'Drop-Outs' Discussed by Women's Magazine

Here is the most challenging educational fact of our times: almost half of the young people who start high school drop out before graduation. Profile of Youth, in the January LADIES HOME JOURNAL, discusses five representative "Drop-Outs" who, just like honor graduates, are our citizens of tomorrow.

Each year a million to a million and a quarter young people leave school without completing their high school education. There is no single, general reason why boys quit school. The reason they most often give is "to get a job and make some money." Providence,

NSC Swim Team To Meet Vandy

The Northwestern State College Swimming Team will meet Vanderbilt University here Saturday night, Jan. 13, at 6:15 in the College Natatorium.

Nothing much is known here about the Vandy swimmers, though it is expected that they will have first-rank swimmers in their line-up.

Coach John Piscopo has lost five men so far to the Armed Forces, but says his team under Captain Jack Branch will offer hot competition to his scheduled opponents, who include Memphis, Navy, Southern Methodist, Texas A. and M., Pensacola Navy, and the Southeastern A.A.U. meet in Atlanta.

SIGMA TAU

At its meeting last Tuesday night, Nu chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity elected its officers for the coming term. They were Jerry West, President; Fyrl Lee Ryder, Vice President; Crayton Hall, Recording Secretary; Ray Mayeaux, Corresponding Secretary; Carl Pharr, Treasurer; Ed Watkins, Chaplin; Butch Ellard, Sergeant -At-Arms; Jackie Gamble, Pledgemaster; Bob Durham, Saga Reporter; Buck Anderson, Historian; and Joe Lancaster, Intramural Representative.

NOTICE

Prospective student teachers for the spring semester are requested by Dr. John B. Robson to meet in the LVE room at 3:30 p.m., January 23. Teaching assignments will be made.

Jo Ann DeBate, physical education junior, was named battalion sponsor of the NSC cadet corps, according to Lt.-Col. Jas. W. Bowman, PMS&T.

Selection of the sponsors was deferred in order to allow girls eliminated in the battalion sponsor contest to participate in the race for battery sponsors. According to Bowman, they will be selected by the end of the semester.

Both the battalion and battery sponsors are selected on the basis of popular vote by members of the ROTC.

Tayrien Joins Nursing Staff Next Semester

Joining the faculty as a member of the nursing department next semester is Miss Dorothy Pauline Tayrien of Tulsa, Okla.

Miss Tayrien, who will teach Nursing 103 — foundations and basic procedures, is a graduate of the University of Colorado. She attended Vanderbilt University, where she held a fellowship in nursing arts. Her graduate work was done at the University of Chicago.

Before accepting her present position, Miss Tayrien served as instructor at the University of Oklahoma.

NSC, Confederate Memorial Center To Train Medical Technologists

Northwestern State College and the Confederate Memorial Medical Center in Shreveport announce a plan under which they will collaborate in the training of medical technologists, in a statement released jointly by President H. Lee Prather and Dr. W. E. Reid, superintendent of the hospital. The program recognizes the great need for trained medical technologists in Louisiana.

Under the new program, the Confederate Memorial Medical Center will accept only Northwestern students as trainees and will provide scholarships to Northwestern students during the second, third, and fourth years of the training program. The scholarships are valued at $200 per semester. In general, to qualify for one of the scholarships the student must have a C average or better at the end of the first year of study in the medical technology curriculum.

The Northwestern State College student will complete six semesters of work on the campus at Natchitoches and one calendar year in the clinical phases of the program at the hospital in Shreveport. Upon completion of the program the student will qualify for the B. S. degree in medical technology, and will be qualified to take the recognized examination for medical technologists administered by the board of registry of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists.

Northwestern students who are not awarded medical technology scholarships may go to an ap-

Well, another issue, another column. Sad, but true. Anyway, here goes . . .

Hats off to Bernard Calendar of Louisiana College who was selected by the Associated Press as a member of the "Little All-American" football first-string squad. Bernie has established several national pass receiving records during the recent season as an end for the LC Wildcats. . . . Speaking of football, why not let Lackland Field enter a team in the Gulf States Conference? After all, they've got practically all the players in the conference. . . .

And speaking of Lackland, we've been getting quite a lot of mail from the NSC boys there and at various other Military Resorts. . . .

And speaking of resorts, since there hasn't been too much news from other colleges due to the holidays, I'm having to resort to almost everything under the sun to amass enough words to fill up the space Tillman allows me. . . .

Have you noticed that the Dining Hall food is tasting better? Neither have I. . . .

Famous last words: "They can't draft me until I finish college!" . . .

Well, I guess I might as well sign thirty to this column for the rest of this semester. (Journalists always sign thirty to their articles because they can't count no higher). . . .

DSE is already making plans for the Mother-Daughter Banquet next April and the spring formal May 12.

Wedding bells will ring for Mai Levee and Doug Abbington at the Catholic church on January 28.

Last year's president, Betsy Smith, is now Mrs. George S. Morris. The wedding took place during the holidays, and Julie McBroom was the lucky DSE that caught the bouquet.

Cleaning and redecorating of the room are still in progress. One wall will be draped from window to window, and the furniture will be done over in unique, modern fashion.

The girls have been warned again of the Come-As-You-Are party that will occur some Friday night.

The party given by Margie Barnes Pierson before Christmas was a huge success. Everyone had a fine time.

Lyric Soprano, Magnolia Coulet, To Present Concert Tuesday Night

Magnolia Coulet, popular southern lyric soprano, the second attraction offered by the Natchitoches-Northwestern Co-Operative Association, will be presented in concert on Tuesday evening, January 16, in the Fine Arts Auditorium at 8:15. Mrs. Coulet is endowed with a beautiful voice, a gracious personality and a fine intelligence. These three attributes have made her a favorite with audiences wherever she has been heard.

After graduation from Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., she continued her education in the University of Pennsylvania where she received her M.A. degree; in the University of Chicago, Columbia University and the American Academy in Rome, Italy. Later she studied privately with Madame Bonnet Baron of the Paris Grand Opera and Madame Colomb Gyere of the National Conservatory of Bordeaux, France, and with Paul Althouse, famous voice teacher of Metropolitan Opera stars in New York.

Magnolia Coulet has sung the leading soprano roles in the Operas "Il Pagliacci," "Rigoletto," "Il Trovatore" and "Traviata." She has sung as soloist with the New Orleans Symphony Orchestra conducted by Massimo Freccia.

Accompanist for Mrs. Coulet is Elaine Penn, who will be remembered here as the very lovely pianist who appeared with Frances Greer.

Reserved seats may be obtained at the College Book Store. Membership holders may present their cards there and College Students their Activity Tickets for reserved seats.

Magnolia Coulet has an unusual repertoire ranging from Handel and Brahms through Debussy and Ravel to Poulenc, Obadadors and other well known contemporary composers. Her well arranged programs and her lovely clear high voice make her recitals entertaining as well as musically interesting.

Psychology 204 Added to Educ. Studies-Robson

Dr. John B. Robson, Dean of the School of Education, announces that Psychology 204, Adolescent Psychology, is being offered during the Spring Semester for the first time in a number of years.

Members of the Louisiana State Superintendents Association have petitioned the Teacher Certification Committee, of which Dr. Robson is a member, to make this course a degree requirement for all students in the School of Education.

The committee has not yet seen fit to make this requirement, but Dr. Robson urges all Junior and Seniors in the School of Education who need a 3 hour elective to enroll in this course because the Louisiana State Superintendents feel so strongly about the matter.

Fourth La. H.S. Constitutional Conv. Scheduled Here February 2nd-3rd

Northwestern State College, through its Social Science Department, is sponsoring for the fourth time a Louisiana High School Constitutional Convention. The event has been scheduled to take place on the Northwestern campus on February 2 and 3, 1951. At this time it is expected that three to four hundred high school students will gather for a week-end of conventioning.

The object of these conventions is to extend the scope of education in the social sciences in Louisiana High Schools by conducting practical citizenship projects connected with public events of contemporary interest in the state. The high school student is given an opportunity to go through a complete moot convention with general sessions, selection of officers, and committee meetings and reports.

The convention call has already gone out to more than 300 schools throughout the state. From many schools in diverse parts of the state acceptances have been received with promises to send delegates. The program committee has sent to each school planning to send delegates a set of study helps for use as a background in Louisiana constitutionalism.

The first students' convention was held at Northwestern in 1947, not long after the movement for Louisiana constitutional reform had resulted in the assignment to the Louisiana Law Institute by the Legislature of the task of preparing a constitutional draft for the state. Subsequent student conventions were held in 1948 and 1949, with interest in the project increasing each year. Note has been made in some national publications of these meetings. "World Week," a national scholastic magazine, carried an article in the October 6, 1948 issue with a photograph of the officers elected that year.

The work of the Law Institute is in the form of a draft or "Project of a Constitution for Louisiana." This is now available (after four years research) and will be used by the high school parliamentarians as a basis for their consideration. This addition of material, together with the interest in constitutional reform stimulated by the call and subsequent cancellation of a convention in Louisiana for 1951 should make this year's convention even more fruitful as an educational project than those in the past.

The civic project will be enhanced by a recreational program for the students who attend the convention. Supervised swimming in the Northwestern natatorium and admission to the Demon-Mississippi southern basketball game are in line for the delegates, who will be housed on the NSC campus at Natchitoches.

The Social Science Department at Northwestern is headed by Dr. John S. Kyser; this year's convention is directed by William C. Havard, assistant professor of government. A student committee composed of Eugene Flores, Shelton Robinson, Bill Sykes, Cecil Neilson, and Luke Petrovich has been engaged in preliminary planning for the event.

local chapter, attended the convention as official delegate from the chapter.

Included on the agenda of the convention was a partial revision of the constitution of Phi Alpha Theta, and a discussion, opposing extraneous loyalty oaths, i. e. oaths required of individuals over those taken by all civil employees. Dr. Duffy spoke in favor of the opposition. Speaking at the convention, also, were such national history authorities as Dexter Perkins, national authority on the Monroe Doctrine, and Conyers Reed, national authority on the English Tudor government.

While in Chicago, Dr. Duffy also attended an American History Convention. S. E. Morrison, president of the convention, gave the presidential address, and John Caughey, past president, spoke.

Dr. Duffy has had published two book reviews in the last issues of the "Mississippi Valley History Review" and the "Journal of Southern History."

Xmas Program Presented by College Singers

The NSC College Singers, directed by Donald G. Glottly, presented their annual Christmas program on December 17, 1950.

The program was initiated with a "Choral Processional," by Glattly. The rest of the program was as follows: "The Three Kings," by Willan; "Lost in the Night," a Finnish folk song, by Christianson, with Beryl DeLoach as soprano soloist; "Jesu, Priceless Treasure," by Bach-Cruger; "In Bethlehem's Lowly Manger" by Williams, with Joy Norris as soprano soloist.

proved hospital of their choice, as in the past, for the year of internship.

Dr. W. R. Mathews, chief pathologist at the hospital, states that under the new program the two institutions will be able to prepare better-qualified technologists. He emphasized the essential need of the program because of the increasing importance of the work of medical technologists as members of the medical team.

Students now enrolled in the college who are interested in applying for scholarships should contact Dr. George T. Walker, dean of the school of applied arts and sciences, or Mr. A. L. Ducournau, professor of chemistry. Prospective students in medical technology may get complete information from them on the new program.

Council as a unit.

The Resolution, though it doesn't state so specifically, creates a "cabinet" form of government, the "cabinet" or council, to consist of eight association officers acting in the capacity of assistants to the president.

Other changes made by the bill are that, in case of absence of both the President and vice-president of the student body, the Senate president will preside over the executive department, and that the Student Council shall act on the budget of the Drama Department, as far as student funds are concerned.

Senate Joint Resolution 2, in Section 2, Sub-section a., changes the date of election of Senate members. The policy now is to elect Senate members on Wednesday of the sixth week of the fall semester. Intentions are filed by Monday of the fifth week of the same semester. Replacing the same sub-section in the present Association Constitution, the Senate Resolution proposes that Senate elections be held "on Wednesday of the fifteenth week of the spring semester. Intentions . . . shall be filed not later than Thursday of the thirteenth week."

The powers of the legislative department are more definitely outlined in the new bill and the time of sessions is changed from bi-monthly to semi-monthly. According to the resolution, the Student Senate "shall have the power to legislate laws and organize activities which will promote and provide for the general welfare of the Association; and before these laws and activities shall take effect, must be approved by the Executive Department, or, being disapproved, shall be re-passed by two-thirds of the Student Senate."

Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps has announced plans for the additional requirement of approximately 2000 Marine Corps Reserve ground officers, and approximately 2500 additional staff non-commissioned officers, to be called to active duty in the near future. In addition about 250 Marine Corps Reserve aviation personnel, and aviation ground officers will be required it was learned. The officers to be called will be principally in the grade of Lieutenant.

Under this new strength requirement the four month minimum advance notice to Marine Corps Reserve personnel ordered to active duty has been found to be impractical, and henceforth a minimum of 30 days between receipt of orders and reporting for extended active duty will be authorized for both officers and enlisted personnel.

"Of the total officers to be called approximately 350 are in the Eighth Marine Corps Reserve District, comprising Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico." Major C. G. Rollen, Director of the Eighth Marine Corps Reserve District announced. "There are about 300 Staff

Medical College Admission Test Slated for May and November

Princeton, N. J., January 12.—Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1951 are advised to take the Medical College Admission Test in May, it was announced recently by Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test for the Association of American Medical Colleges. These tests required of applicants by a number of leading medical colleges throughout the country will be given twice during the current calendar year. Candidates taking the May test, however, will be able to furnish scores to institutions in early fall, when many medical colleges begin the selection of their next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 12, 1951, or on Monday, November 5, 1951, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1952 take the May test.

The MCAT consists of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which gives details of registration and administration, as well as sample questions, are available from pre-medical advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Completed applications must reach the ETS office by April 28 and October 22, respectively, for the May 12 and November 5 administrations.

Tilleaux To Be Installed As New Senate President

Effective at the beginning of this semester was Jimmy Johnson's resignation from the office of Student Senate president. Johnson's resignation was enforced because of his failure to maintain the required "C" average during the fall semester of 1950-1951.

Succeeding Johnson as president of the senate will be Marie Tilleaux, whose previous position was vice president.

The resulting vacancy in the office of vice-president will necessitate the election of a new officer by the Student Senate from their members. Upon the election of the new vice-president, the Student Council will appoint a new member to the Senate to fulfill the quota of students in the Senate.

The election for vice-president will be carried out at the next scheduled meeting of the Student Senate.

New Course Is Being Offered by Business Dept.

As the result of a survey made last year, the Department of Business is offering this Spring semester an elementary accounting course for non-business majors. The course is scheduled as Business 113, 2MWF. It carries three hours credit, has no prerequisites, and is open only to non-business majors.

It is the intention to provide in this course, if it materializes, the basic principles of accounting with their practical application to the everyday problems of individuals, organizations, and professions.

The course is being taught by Professor Easley.

Despite heavy losses of students to the armed forces and the handicap of ice and snow, approximately 1136 students had registered for the spring semester by Friday.

Although the number is incomplete due to late registration, the total thus far falls short of the fall total by 250 students.

Originally scheduled for Tuesday only, the registration period was lengthened to include Wednesday due to the weather condition. Classes officially began Thursday morning.

No figures are available at the present concerning the ratio between men and women students, departmental breakdowns, or the number of freshman and transfer students. These totals will be published, however, as soon as they are available.

Veterans' Widows May Now Apply For Housing Loan

The date a serviceman dies has no bearing on the eligibility of his widow for a GI loan under the Housing Act of 1950. The Veterans Administration ruled this week.

The Act entitled unmarried widows of those who died either in or after service, from service-connected causes, to the GI loan benefits for which their husbands would have been eligible had they lived.

There had been some doubt as to the eligibility of a widow whose serviceman husband died after July 25, 1947, the end of the

American Students Examinations for May Register Now Civil Service Jobs Now Being Given

It was announced this week by the Institute of University Studies Abroad that arrangements had been completed with five famous European universities to ease summer school registration for American students.

In the past, Americans interested in combining summer travel and study abroad had either to write to the universities for information or trust to their luck and apply for admission on arrival. As most universities limit enrollment in their summer schools, students coming from the United States were likely to be refused admission because quotas

This Is a Time for Decision

EDITOR'S NOTE—We found the following editorial in the Central Michigan Life, campus weekly. Although the editorial was primarily directed toward Central students, we believe it is applicable to students everywhere. The editorial is printed verbatim.

Six months of tension and uncertainty ended last week for over 50 Central students who left to enlist in the armed forces.

Immediately a campus, long uneasy where world conditions were concerned, exploded with rumors and speculation. Reports that the services would soon close their ranks to enlistees were talked about; rumors that all college students would be drafted en masse at the end of the semester disquieted the college. The tale jumped far and yon that 200 men had enlisted by the middle of the week.

This condition wasn't confined to Central, for all over the nation educators reported drops in enrollment, and worse, a new low in student morale. Unstable world conditions and the January speed-up in mobilization plans prompted many young people to turn from their books with an attitude of "what's the use."

The need for assurance was exhibited Thursday evening when one of the year's largest audiences attended the Campus Chat to hear President Charles L. Anspach and Dean of Men George N. Lauer discuss troubles confronting today's war-conscious student.

In reference to the future Dr. Anspach stated that the condition today differs from other years only in intensity. If we must go to war, Dr. Anspach said, the student must regard it as a detour, that we cannot look to war as the end but that we must look beyond to the realization of our present ambitions.

Mr. Lauer, in his speech outlining the draft situation as it exists at Central, stated that enlistment at this time was a matter of personal decision.

During the past week the most universal comment regarding present enlistments was, "only a fool would join a service with the end of the semester so close."

Certainly one cannot blanket all cases under one solution. As individual personalities vary, so must the terms in which students meet the present crisis. Many elect to continue with their studies; others feel that they must enlist. Telling all students under one heading what they must do in the present crisis is like advising all people to be brick-layers.

The greatest need of the student of today is assurance. It is not the fear of getting killed should war break out, but the instability of the future that bothers him. Were we at war there would be little indecision. It is the present state of "near war," described by Dr. Anspach, which makes for the state of unrest in the collegiate mind.

How must the young person of today react to the possibility of having to give up his education? Certainly the "what's the use" attitude is no cure for the uncertainty of the future.

Will worrying about a situation over which we have little control help? Obviously not. Yet to tell an intelligent individual that he must not allow himself to worry over the possibility of a war in which he will be involved would be sheer foolishness.

There are people who attempt to quiet their fears by viewing the present crisis as the result of bungling on the part of the administration, announcing because they do not agree with the issues involved that they will have nothing to do with the whole thing. Again nothing is solved. We cannot solve the present problems or our own by quitting.

What then is the solution? According to Dr. Oscar Oppenheimer the only panacea for a troubled mind is work. Students who are uneasy about the possibility of being drafted can ease their worries by application to their studies. Dr. Oppenheimer also stated that if one thing at a time is accomplished the future will not look so black.

Students who are tempted to give up their studies should know also that education, more than ever, is needed today. President Cole of Amherst College recently stated that "we cannot compete with Russia. . . in raw manpower. Where we can compete is in trained, educated, skilled manpower."

The Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, president of Notre Dame University said that: "The experiences of World War II have proved the need, not only in the time of war, but in the vital post-war period, of men trained in colleges and universities."

Students cannot deny that education is still an essential and will be, no matter what crisis affects the nation. Whether we wish to use what we have acquired so far, or continue to attend college until called, is a decision which the student must make himself.

Now is the time for facing reality and for the examination of values. A future war does not mean the end of life plans and ambitions. As President Anspach stated, "it would only be a detour."

Fiction Contest Is Now Open

"Mademoiselle has always been interested in young fiction writers and is proud to publish their work so frequently. Six years ago we established a College Fiction Contest for women undergraduates and think today it offers the college student an incomparable opportunity," states a letter to the Current Sauce, offering over one thousand dollars in prizes for fictional writing accepted by the magazine.

Stating that it is the policy of the magazine to SHRDLUETAOIN the magazine to keep up with the work of young women in the fiction field, the letter notes: "We believe it important, therefore, to encourage the talent to be found in the colleges and universities."

One Co-ed's Concept

By DOLLIE SMITH

After returning from the metropolis (Dry Prong), I dashed by to redust my p.o. box. And while I stood on one knee peering up into the empty darkness, I heard a very peculiar sound—the sound of many muffled feet. When I turned around, all I could see were women and more women, all armed with sticks and rocks, creeping quietly—so quietly toward the cafe teria. The power of suggestion was more than I could bear, so arming myself with the only available weapon I could find, my P. O. box door (no combination anyway), I joined the ranks.

Never have I seen such intense feeling as lined the weather beaten faces of those NSC women (mine, too). Silently tapping one on the head, I asked what was up. Her reply, though whispered, ran through the crowd like an electrical current — it was rumored that there was a man left, and he was in the cafeteria.

Well, to make a long story short, the poor thing got away. Mr.

Guillespie, in desperation, tried to appease the maddened crowd by throwing newspapers to them (us), which they (we) read avidly looking for any reports of the navy, army, or boy scouts being stationed at NSC.

In case anybody is wondering what the moral of this story is, please contact the Lonely Hearts Club, a recently established bureau on this campus, but which from the looks of things, shows great promise of progress.

The Knothole

The Fourth Estate is back . . . back for another semester of chronicling student and faculty events. We know that it will be as interesting this semester as it always is.

Old man weather made many students wonder if they were doing the correct thing when they wrote "Spring" in the registration card blanks for "semester."

The staff is beginning to feel like slackers. Everybody wants to know what happened to the Current Sauce last week, the week before, and the week before. 1 - 2 - 3; dead week, test week, and a vacation.

Orchids to: the people who had the patience to stand in the registration lines and enough energy left to slide to town for a movie that night.

Heard a veteran in the bookstore Wednesday make the suggestion of the year: to put the bookstore on a production line basis, complete with the books on rollers so all a student would have to do is pick up the books he wanted as they came by. He didn't delve into the necessity for checking the times. But then—that's a trifling matter, huh?

Talking shop . . . Colliers take-off, "48 States of Mind," tells of the editor of a small publication owned by the International Typographers Union and called, after the name of the town, the "Free Press." The name has nothing to do with the editor's resignation . . . because he couldn't complain about the city's poor water supply, or make suggestions for improving the town. ITU said all copy for the paper must be read and approved by the town's mayor before publication. We can't print what the editor said. Neither did Colliers.

Typical veteran's advice to non-vets . . . "Stay in school."

It's a pleasure always to hear good music. . . Come in and see our stock of—

Levee-Abington Marriage Is Solemnized at Church Ceremony

The Church of The Immaculate Conception was the scene of an impressive ceremony, Sunday afternoon, January 28, at 4:30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Louise Levee, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude H. Levee, Washington, D. C. became the bride of Douglas C. Abington, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Abington, Many. Msgr. John

C. Vandegaer officiated at the service.

Arrangements of white gladioli, ferns and white tapers burning in candelabra furnished attractive decoration and a program of nuptial music was by Ted Forte prior to the service. He accompanied Miss Mamie Rae Schonover, who sang "Ave Maria."

The bride, escorted by her brother, Mr. Steve Levee, was a picture of loveliness in her wedding gown of imported ice blue Chantilly lace over matching Duchess satin. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell gracefully from a Juliet cap of lattice work studded with pearls. She wore a strand of pearls, and carried a bouquet of white hyacinths centered with a white orchid and tied with satin ribbons.

The bride's attendants, Mrs. Steve Levee, matron of honor and Miss Essie Gabbert, Minden, and Miss Esther Lewis, Bastrop, were identically gowned in gold taffeta floor length gowns fashioned with fitted bodices, upright collars and full corded skirts. Their golden net hair bands were adorned with purple iris and their old fashioned bouquets were of purple iris and net.

Joseph Dees, Many, was best man, the ushers were Kerlin Sutton, Willie Williams, Tom Phillips and Milton McLanahan. Messrs. Phillips and McLanahan lighted the candles prior to the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerlin Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sutton were hosts at the wedding reception at the home of the latter. Displays of white stock, calla lilies, gladioli and acacia, in yellow and white beautified the rooms. The table laid with an exquisite banquet cloth was centered with acacia illuminated on each side with white tapers. Mrs. John McConnell, Coushatta, served. The elaborate wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom beneath a wedding bell. Miss Mary Lou Statham poured punch.

The groom's mother wore a green crepe afternoon dress, a wheat colored hat, matching accessories and a corsage of bronze mums.

For traveling Mrs. Abington wore a navy blue wool gabardine suit, cape effect, embellished with rhinestone buttons, matching accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Abington are graduates from Northwestern State College. She is a member of Delta Eigma Epsilon sorority and he is a member of Lambda Zeta fraternity. They will reside in Natchitoches where Mr. Abington is engaged in business.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Well, gang, here's that snow you've been waiting for! Better enjoy it now, 'cause it's sure to be gone 'fore long. Snow caps, ear muffs, boots, and colorful scarves are the fashion for this weather.

The Purple Jackets proudly present a musical, "Rainbow Review" Wednesday night in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Student talent will be used. It is a very promising performance. Be sure to be there.

The AWS is really busy this semester. A leadership conference is to be held in February; the theme of which emphasizes the woman's place in this military world. A play written by Dolly Smith will be portrayed by students. The highlight of the conference will be a talk by Dr. Bentley of North Texas State Teachers College in Denton, Texas.

AWS under the leadership of Social Chairman Pat Marmande is planning the annual Backwards Dance for March 3. So be thinking about that favorite man you want to ask. And also plan that corsage to match his personality.

Miss Carolyn Cartwright is engaged to Eddie Armstrong. Carolyn, a freshman, is from Alexandria.

Miss Betty Lynn Goldsby became a Mrs. during the holidays. Best of luck to these swell kids.

Vanderbilt Tankmen Fall to Demons In First Swim Meet of Season

A strong Northwestern State College squad defeated Vanderbilt University 51-24 Saturday night, January 13, in the Demon Natatorium.

Captain Jack Branch of the NSC team scored twin wins in the 50-yard freestyle and 100-yard backstroke events. Myron Lockety of the Demons also scored dual honors by taking the 200-yard breaststroke and 440-yard freestyle events.

Coleman of Vanderbilt was the only single winner in the 220-yard freestyle for the Nashville squad.

Demons Down Memphis Naval Tank Squad

Northwestern State College's swim team defeated Memphis Naval Air station, 47-28 in their second meet of the year at the Demon pool here, Jan. 20.

The meet was highly contested throughout with close places in the 100-yard and 50-yard freestyle events. The 400-yard freestyle relay pool record was shattered by the Northwestern State team consisting of M. L. Aust, B. Duhon, R. Voorhees, and Capt. J. Branch. This mark was lowered 3 seconds for a new pool record of 3 minutes 50.8 seconds.

Individual honors were shared by Capt. Branch, Myron Lockety, Bob Voorhees and Jeff Hennessy of Northwestern. Branch scored dual wins in the 50-yard freestyle and 100-yard backstroke event while Lockety and Hennessy placed first in the breaststroke and diving contests. Bob Voorhees nosed out Kimball of Navy in a thrilling 100-yard freestyle sprint. Lockety of NSC lowered the college breaststroke record to a sizzling 1:09.5 seconds.

Ilsen of Memphis was the standout for the blue-jacket tankmen, turning in near record times in the 220-yard and 440-yard freestyle events.

Official results are as follows:

300-yd. Medley relay won by Northwestern (Duhon, Lockety, Voorhees). Time: 3:21.8.

220-Yd. Freestyle won by Olsen of Navy, 2nd Kimball, Navy, 3rd, Aust of NSC. Time: 2:28.6.

50-Yd. Freestyle won by Branch of NSC; 2nd, Dolton of Navy; 3rd, Duhon of NSC. Time: 24.6.

Dive won by Hennessy of NSC, 2nd, Gaston of NSC; 3rd, Leckrone, Navy.

100-Yd. Freestyle won by Voorhees of NSC; 2nd, Kimball of Navy; 3rd, Aust of NSC. Time: 58.3.

100-Yd. Backstroke won by Branch of NSC; 2nd, MacInnes of Navy; 3rd, Shroder of Navy. Time: 1:05.8.

100-Yd. Breaststroke won by Lockety of NSC; 2nd, Donnelly of Navy; 3rd, Howard of NSC. Time: 1:09.5 (New record).

440-Yd. Freestyle won by Olsen of Navy, 2nd, Lockety of NSC; 3rd, Frunkhouser of Navy. Time: 5:25.3.

400-Yd. Freestyle Relay won by NSC (Aust, Duhon, Voorhees, and Branch). Time: 3:50.8 (new record).

AUREOMYCIN HIGHLY EFFECTIVE AGAINST BOILS, CARBUNCLES

Sufferers from eruptive skin boils and carbuncles are offered new hope for relatively quick, safe relief by the use of aureomycin, the "golden wonder drug."

Early tests with this versatile antibiotic drug indicate that it is the most effective agent yet developed for combating these types of skin infection.

Most boils and carbuncles are caused by staphylococci and streptococci germs, which enter the skin through tiny hair openings or through a very small scratch. While these infections are almost always localized, there is a strong chance that low resistance or amateurish tampering will push the germs into the blood stream and cause serious illness, possibly death.

Much suffering and possible complications can be avoided if the infected person visits his doctor as soon as local inflammation is detected. Advanced cases of boils and carbuncles require surgical treatment.

Aureomycin has proved vastly superior to penicillin and the sulfa drugs in treating these particular infections. In addition, there is no evidence that germ organisms build up a resistance to aureomycin, as they do to many other drugs.

Also good news is the fact that aureomycin is effective when swallowed in capsule form rather than injected with a needle, as is often necessary with penicillin and other drugs of this type.

Intramural Notes

Intramural Volleyball made its final rounds Tuesday night with the two highest scoring teams of each league participating in a best 2 out of 3 games.

In the semi-finals Sigma Tau defeated the Cream Puffs 15-13 and 15-7. The Spanish Boys defeated the Brick Shack team by scores of 16-14 and 15-3.

The two winning teams, Spanish Boys and Sigma Tau Gamma, tangled in the finals with the Spanish Boys overcoming the Tau's 15-9 and 15-13. The two losing teams, Brick Shack and the Cream Puffs, played on the opposite court for third and fourth place winners with the Brick Shack team defeating the Cream Puffs 15-9 and 15-6.

Coach Charles "Red" Thomas, Intramural Director, presented First and Second place winners with their well-earned medals at the end of the games.

Intramural Volleyball nears the final round of play with two undefeated teams leading their respective leagues. The Cream Puffs, with a 3-0 record, holds first place in the American League and the Spanish Boys lead in the National League with a 4-0 record.

To Appear Here

The Cavallaires, nationally famous male quartet, will appear in concert here in the Fine Arts Auditorium Monday, Feb.

5, as a part of the Natchitoches-Northwestern Co-operative Concert Association. Reserved seats may be obtained at the College Book Store.

The original purpose in forming The Cavallaires Male Quartet two years ago, was to secure Chicago's finest solo voices, then blend them into the Midwest's most glorious quartet. That they have accomplished much in this short time is evidenced by their many radio and television network appearances.

As a quartet they have appeared on The Harvest of Stars (CBS Network), Treasury of Music (WCFL) radio, and on the NBC Television show Carroway - At-Large, the Norman Ross Show, and Hawkins Falls dramatic show. Individually as soloists, they have appeared on practically every major Network program which emanates from Chicago, including Mutual's Chicago Theatre of the Air; Hymns of All Churches (ABC Network); Music from the Heart of America (NBC). They have also sung for practically all of Chicago's finest local broadcasts, including The Northerners (WGN) and Treasury of Music (WCFL).

Elaine Penn, now a favorite with Natchitoches audiences, will be at the piano.

The Cavallaires will appear in concert here in the Fine Arts Auditorium on Monday, February 5, for the Natchitoches-Northwestern Co-operative Concert Association. Reserved seats may be secured at the College Bookstore.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 11...
THE OPOSSUM

The class clown went out on a limb and tried to prove cigarette mildness by the quick-trick method! He tried the fast inhale, fast exhale test—a whiff, a sniff—and they still left him up in the air! But then he got his feet on the ground. He learned that there is a reliable way to discover how mild a cigarette can be!

And that test is...

The sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke—on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

Dr. Mack Stokes to Speak At Assembly Here Wednesday

Dr. Mack B. Stokes, guest speaker at the First Methodist church in Natchitoches, will appear at a third period assembly Wednesday morning in the Fine Arts Auditorium. He will speak on "The Church and Our Freedom."

Dr. Stokes is currently giving a series of talks at the Methodist Church on such themes as "What the Bible Means to Me," "The Incalculable Value of Your Soul," "How Can I Tell Right from Wrong," and "An Immortal Destiny."

The lecturer was born in Korea and received his A.B., B.D., and Ph.D. in America. He was an honor student and is considered one of the leading theologians of today.

He is much in demand as a speaker at other universities and conferences of young people.

LSMFT Jingles Pay $25 Cash

If the thousands of jingles arriving at the Be Happy — Go Lucky postoffice address are any criteria, thousands of college students are cramming for mid-years with a cigarette in each hand.

It seems you don't have to be an English major to compose a winning four-line jingle singing the praises of L.S./M.F.T. Since early fall poetry-minded (and money-minded too, we might add) students from east to west have sent in jingles in hopes of receiving $25.00 for their particular gem. And many have already seen their jingles appear in the Lucky Strike ads in their own college newspapers.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I am going to school under the GI Bill and I have just received notice that I am to return to active military duty. Need I inform VA to stop my subsistence payments?

A. Yes. Write the VA regional office which has your records, and include your full name and address, "C" number, the amount of the VA payment and the date you are to go back into service. You are not entitled to any VA benefit payments covering any period after you have returned to military service.

Certificate of Commitment on a GI home loan, and he died a few days later — before he had a chance to sign a mortgage or any other papers. May I, as his widow, go ahead and buy the house on a GI guaranteed loan basis?

A. Under your circumstances, VA does not have the authority to issue Certificate of Guaranty, even though your husband already has a Certificate of Commitment. However, you may be entitled to a GI loan on your own rights as a deceased veteran's unremarried widow—if he died because of injury or disease incurred in or aggravated by line-of-duty service and was discharged under other than dishonorable conditions.

Q. Next time I visit my nephew in a VA hospital I would like to give him several hospital canteen coupon books. Where can I get them?

A. The coupon books, in denominations of $1.00, may be purchased directly at the hospital canteen. Patients use the coupons, in lieu of money, in making canteen purchases.

Veterans of World War II planning GI Bill education and training were reminded by Veterans Administration this week that the July 25, 1951, cut-off date for starting courses is only seven months away.

This coming Spring school term will be the final such term most veterans may enter or re-enter before the deadline, VA said, so if they plan to enroll it's not too early to start making arrangements now.

The 1951 deadline applies to most World War II veterans—those discharged from service before July 25, 1944. Those discharged after that date have four years from their discharge date in which to begin.

Veterans actually must have commenced their training by the cut-off date if they want to continue afterwards, VA said. A veteran must be in training on that date unless he has temporarily interrupted his course for summer vacation or for other reasons beyond his control.

Once he completes or discontinues his course of GI Bill training after the deadline, he may not start another course.

"The Fallen Idol"

The expanding National Defense Program has created a serious shortage of stenographers and typists in Federal agencies in Washington, D. C., according to a statement issued recently by A. J. Leach, Regional Director, Tenth U. S. Civil Service Regional Office in New Orleans. The shortage is most acute in offices of the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, Mr. Leach said, and the Civil Service Commission is attempting to alleviate it by intensifying its recruiting efforts throughout the country.

Starting salaries for stenographers are $2450 to $2875 a year; for typists, $2450 and $2650. Satisfactory employees get yearly pay increases until the highest salary for the grade of the position is reached. Government employees are given 26 days of vacation leave each year and sick leave credit at the rate of 15 days a year. Promotion opportunities are good for employees who show ability to assume the responsibilities of higher level jobs.

In order to qualify for appointment to these positions, applicants must pass a Civil Service examination but no previous experience is required. Age limits are 18 to 62. Qualified persons who want to make their services available during the present emergency are urged to secure additional information and application forms from the local civil service secretary at any first or second-class post office or from the Tenth U. S. Civil Service Regional Office, Federal Office Building, 610 South Street, New Orleans, La. Applications should be forwarded to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Council Minutes

The Student Council of Northwestern State College met January 4, 1951, in a regular meeting. The meeting was called to order by Chuck Castaing.

Chuck Castaing reported to the Council that the cheerleader award sweaters could not use the block "N", as the result of a decision which was made last year.

Dollie Smith then brought up for discussion several complaints which had been made by the students concerning line-breaking in the dining hall. It was decided that nothing could be done except to request the students' cooperation. Luke Petrovich was appointed to make announcements in the dining hall to this effect.

A motion was made by Luke Petrovich that the Student Council approve President Prather's suggestion to exempt nurses not living on the campus (Shreveport) from the various college fees. This motion was seconded by Zona Morris. It passed unanimously.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Together with a well-known travel agency, the Institute has prepared a series of tours in connection with the summer schools in Europe, thus helping the students get a background knowledge of Europe and its current problems. ## C. M. Mouser Named Clerk of U. S. Senate Agriculture Committee

Appointment of C. M. Mouser of Natchitoches to be Clerk of the U. S. Senate's Committee on Agriculture and Forestry was announced Wednesday in Washington by Senator Allen J. Ellender, who has assumed the chairmanship.

Coming to Northwestern State College at Natchitoches in 1940, Mr. Mouser was Assistant Professor of Business. He was named Auditor of the college in 1943, and in 1947 was assigned the additional responsibility of Business Manager.

In 1949 he resumed his teaching duties with the rank of Associate Professor of Business.

A native of Bossier Parish, he was born near Plain Dealing. He attended the public schools at Ansley, Pollock and Grayson; and Wortham, Texas.

He attended Westminster College, Tehuacana, Texas, before entering the University of Texas, where he took the Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

He later took the Master's degree at LSU. His teaching experience before coming to Northwestern includes several years at Laredo, Texas, and Sam Houston State College at Huntsville.

His wife is the former Vestal Mathis of Grayson, La. They have two children, Elizabeth Harriet, senior in Natchitoches High School; and John, nine. His family will remain here until the end of the present school term.

Ask Veterans to Register Blood

Henry Breazeale, Parish Civil Defense head, and Paul Pratt, Parish Service Officer, have asked all veterans who have not done so to register their blood type with Mr. Pratt.

Stockwell's Speech Correction Clinic Aids Children to Speak Normally

By LAURA MAHAN

At the end of this semester twenty little boys and girls will walk out of Miss Irma Stockwell's speech correction clinic in the Fine Arts Building, with new confidence, arising from the ability to speak clearly for the first time in their lives.

These children, some of whom have been unable to speak plainly since birth, went into Miss Stockwell's clinic with speech defects caused by birth accident, inherited and acquired difficulties, and will finish their correction training with little or no trace of their former defects.

The children, ranging from pre-school age to ten and twelve years, requiring speech correction, are directed to Miss Stockwell by their parents or teachers. Miss Stockwell, then places them under her own direction or that of one of her speech correction stu-

Stokes Presents Wed. Assembly Talk on 'Church and Our Freedom'

"The fundamental difference between we and communism is that we believe differently," stated Dr. Mack B. Stokes at the third period assembly Wednesday morning in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Dr. Stokes, guest speaker at the First Methodist Church, outlined four main points in his talk on "The Church and Our Freedom."

The first point brought out by Dr. Stokes was that we and communistic nations have different points of view concerning ideals, beliefs, and economics.

That religion is the most fundamental factor in our civilization was the second point discussed by Dr. Stokes.

He stated that today many professors of our colleges and universities take to lightly the subject of religion in relation to our every day life. Religion, related Dr. Stokes, is the fundamental philosophy which governs the policies of society.

The third point discussed by Dr. Stokes was that the church represents a fundamental unity for support in a crisis. The church gives us a world view that saves us from the wrongs of the present.

In conclusion Dr. Stokes said, "Science can take on a new glory if seen in the light of God."

Cavallaires in Concert Here

The Cavallaires, nationally famous male quartet, appeared in concert in the Fine Arts Auditorium, Monday, February 5. They appeared as a part of the Natchitoches - Northwestern Co-operative Concert Association.

Their program ranged from selections by Bach and Mendelssohn to the light classical pieces of Romberg and Victor Herbert.

The Cavallaires are comprised of Roy Glahn, tenor; Ralph Nielsen, tenor; Gerald Smith, baritone; and Robert Morton, basso. As a quartet, they have appeared on such nation-wide hook-ups as The Harvest of T-Sars and Treasury of Music; and on the NBC television shows as Carroway-at-Large and the Norman Ross Show.

They have also appeared, individually as soloists, on practically every major network program emanating from Chicago, including Mutual's Chicago Theatre of the Air, and Music from the Heart of America.

Elaine Penn accompanied the Cavallaires on the piano.

NOTICE

Next Monday night, Feb. 12, Lt. Commander T. M. Sabre and Chief C. M. Metheny will give a talk, and answer questions about the new Naval Reserve Officers Candidate program. Registered College students are eligible for this program.

The meeting will be held at the City Hall on Second St. and will begin at 7:30 p.m. All students who are interested in obtaining a Naval Reserve Commission are urged to attend.

1316 Register for Spring Semester

The number of students registered for the spring semester is approximately 1316, a total which falls short of the 1950 fall semester total by some 200 students.

Heading the departmental registration list is nursing, with 257 students enrolled for this semester as compared to 285 enrolled for the fall semester. Business comes next with 220 students compared to 265 for last semester, and elementary education ranks fourth with 194 students registered to 200 registered for the fall term.

Classes were scheduled to start January 31, but because of bad weather many students were unable to secure transportation back to NSC. January 31 was therefore used as an extra registration day and regular classes began Feb. 1.

Over three hundred high school students convened on the Northwestern campus yesterday for the Fourteenth Annual High School Speech Tournament. The annual tournament, this year combined with the District Speech Rally, has drawn students from 14 high schools over the state.

Students attending the two-day rally were welcomed at a formal assembly in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building prior to registration, and drawings for individual events.

The first morning of the rally was spent in preliminary competition in various rooms available over the campus. Both students and faculty members of the college served as judges of the contests.

Finals were held Friday afternoon to decide individual winners in poetry and interpretative reading, extemporaneous speaking, radio speaking, and oratory.

Winners Announced

At a banquet in the student center Friday evening the finals in the after-dinner speaking were conducted and individual event winners were awarded with certificates.

The evening closed with a dance in the student center. Music was provided by the Demonaires, under the direction of leader Frank Pasqua.

Today's Events

This morning will be delegated to conducting the final rounds of debate. Topic for the debate is, "Resolved: That the American People Should Reject the Welfare State." Under the rules, each school is permitted to enter two senior boys' teams' two senior girls' teams, two junior boys' teams, and two junior girls' teams.

Editorial

To take off on a tangent . . . we'd like to welcome a new publication in this week's issue: The American Mercury. It isn't so much of a tangent as it might seem, since the new magazine is now directed, at least in part, to "the faculties and student bodies of the Fearful Fifties."

In a memorandum from the editor of the new magazine to "the editors of the college press," Bill Huie says "There was a time when the 'American Mercury' was the most important magazine on most of the college campuses, of this country."

One of the goals of the publication is to "re-become" a popular campus magazine.

Contrary to what might be believed, this is not a pitch for Mercury, as a private enterprise with or without financial remuneration. There is no way in which we can get even an infinite percentage of the rack or subscription sales.

We do appreciate a few refreshing pages of print that promise something different from the "politico-literary" magazines which bow before government, pressure group, advertising, and subscriber censors.

The opening editorial of the new publication promises battle to M. Mencken's old adversaries and perhaps a few of the newer ones. It promises a new, vigorous, straight-from-the-shoulder style of writing, and above all, it promises the encouragement of individualism.

We are plugging the New Mercury for no other reason that we think that IF the issues keep the style of the original, IF they keep from bowing to the above mentioned censors, IF, as they promise, they "array as many young authors" as possible against the Cult of the Common Man, and IF they publish the promised "monthly meditative magazine of free discussion. . . . A magazine which can strive for objectivity and thoroughness," we think it deserves attention.

KNOTHOLE

By TILLMAN

By way of explanation — last week's copy of the Current Sauce was strictly a "catch-up" issue. (Not to be confused with the word "ketchup"). There were some important things which needed printing, but not enough to fill eight pages of type, so we filled up with "canned stuff." We don't think we deserved the comment, "Is there anything about Northwestern in it?"

Perhaps issues such as last week's evoked the written remarks I found lying on my desk this week. For your — or some body's benefit, here they are verbatim: "The current editor of this yellow scandal sheet should be tarred, feathered, and wrapped in this insult to journalism's 'fish wrapper' and thrown into the evil grasp of political clutches, before he and his black-legged, pistol-packing politicians win our wonderful Utopia with their nonsense about Capitalism, and false democracy. They are traitors to our movement. It is signed, 'Comrad Pinky.' Nice Dame Rumor has it that those in charge of choosing the all-GSC team won't have any trouble in picking high scorers. Seems that Tom Elkins has top honors; "Frenchy" Arseneaux, a close second.

Wonder why the comment, "We haven't had a good meal since we got here?"

Note the feature this week on Dean Stockwell's speech correction class. You should hear the "before and after" recordings made by the students. Nothing short of miraculous.

The new journalism professor, Mr. French, has arrived. He got here after the snow, and for a change, it didn't rain. Lucky man!

New plans for improvement of the Sauce are being asked for, I hear. If there is anything that you haven't seen enough of, or some things you have seen too much of, why not let us know. We might warn you now — such suggestions as the one in the second paragraph of this story will not be heeded . . . I hope!

Nearly 700,000 World War II veterans went into training under the GI Bill and Public Law 16 for the first time during 1950, bringing the total number of veterans who have entered the training programs up to 7,900,000.

Number 12...THE MOURNING DOVE

"Some of them are pretty sad!"

Melancholy and dejected, this gloomy miss found little to titillate her in the recent deluge of quick-trick cigarette tests! She was not enthralled by the idea of judging cigarette mildness with just a fast puff or a single sniff.

But, joy of joys! . . . happiness came to her when she discovered one test that left no doubt in her mind.

It was the sensible test! . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke — on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) we believe you'll know why . . .

Society

A very colorful and appreciative audience of college and townspeople attended the performance of the Cavaliers last Monday evening. This male quartet presented their program with such obvious zest that they imparted much of their enthusiasm to the audience. Everyone seems agreed that it was a most enjoyable Artists's Series.

The date for the Musical Rainbow Revue to be presented by the Purple Jackets has been changed to Wednesday evening, February 14. The program will feature mostly student talent.

On February 21, a Leadership Conference will be held here at Northwestern. Dr. Bentley of North Texas State Teachers College of Denton, Texas, will be the principal speaker. A reception for Dr. Bentley will follow, with the Varnado Council in charge.

Miss Sue Garmany of Leesville and Mr. Fred DeFoe of Coushatta, both former NSC students, were married at Miss Garmany's home in Leesville, January 28. The couple are making their home in Coushatta.

Three more girls on our campus are sporting that sparkle on their third finger, left hand. Miss Lila Gore, a freshman from Plain Dealing is engaged to Elton Vaughan who is stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. Miss Bobby Murphy of Homer is engaged to Bobby Lowe of Haynesville. The third, Miss Madge Blackwell of Athens is the bride-elect of Charles Nichols of Arcadia.

Have you noticed a kind of quietness and serenity around here lately? The familiar screech and rattles and squeaks are gone, for the whoopee has departed from our fair domain. Somehow things are not quite the same without that splendid red and white vehicle rolling smoothly along the highways. Could it be we all miss it?

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The theme of the Alpha Sigs' first meeting of the new semester was a devotional service in memory of Shirley Few. Wilda Jones read two poems from a book given the sorority by the Few family.

Congratulations to Faye Bullock, who was named Pledge-of-the-month. Each month the pledge having the most points will receive this honor and at the end of the semester the best pledge of the year will be named.

Plans are being made for the annual sorority dance which is to be given the last of April.

Margie Barnett, an Alpha Sigma alum, will be married February 10. Best wishes, Margie!

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Tri Sigmas have started off the semester with a bang as evidenced by the recent house cleaning (Spring?) during the snowy semester. Pat Bishop is making necessary arrangements for the Mother-Daughter banquet; a committee has been appointed for the purpose of nominating sorority officers for the coming year; themes are being suggested and discussed for the Sorority Dance. Seems like the semester will be loaded with coming events!

Gloria Vos was elected Treasurer for the coming year. She will take the place of Mickie West, who has resigned from the office.

The Sigmas are burning the midnight oil this week due to Chapter Examination which will be held February 17. Now girls, let's not cram!

Seems like Tri Sigma was trumps at the end of the girls' Volley Ball Tournament. The season ended when they were the victors over the Physical Education Majors girls' team. Jeanne Oliver has announced that the Basketball Tournament will begin soon. Come on Sigmas, let's win again.

The Sorority sure wishes that Carol Clark, Louise Hanchey, Charlotte Martin, and Faye Coleman hadn't left us. But it seems that Carol and Louise are working in Lake Charles, Charlotte is attending Med Tech school in Vicksburg, Miss. and Faye has changed her name to Mrs. Norman.

Ole Cupid really hit the target last semester! Erin Mays is sporting Frank Orton's diamond; Sue Lee became Mrs. Bernard Evans at a very beautiful and impressive wedding in Mansfield, Ruth Ann Ellender was her maid of honor; and Joyce Landry and Frank Pasqua are now Mr. and Mrs.

PI OMEGA PI

Pi Omega Pi had its first meeting this semester Wednesday, February 7. A committee was appointed to check grades for prospective members. To become a member the following requirements must be met: One must have a junior standing, a "B" average in business subjects, and a "C" average in all other subjects. A committee was also appointed to revise the constitution.

Five members, Aubrey Haynes, Loita Martin, Angel Martinez, June Oliver, and E. A. Powell, who graduated, were really missed.

The meeting was adjourned and February 28 was set as the date for the next meeting.

Gaston Passes National Test

Jack Gaston, senior Health and Physical Education major at Northwestern State College, passed the "National Association of Rudimental Drummers" test given Sunday, February 4, at the home of Val Hill.

Judges for the test were Mr. Hill, professor of Music at the college, and Jack Fisher, local Drummer. A group of Northwestern students and faculty members audited the performance, after which Mrs. Hill served coffee and cookies.

The National Association of Rudimental Drummers was founded to promote a standard practical form of instruction in the art of playing the snare drum.

Gaston, who hails from Eldorado, Ark., is also a stellar diver on the NSC aquatic team; a member of Phi Mu Alpha, national honorary music fraternity; and a member of both the college concert band and dance band.

Miss Stockwell Guest Speaker At Lesche Club

The new Home Economics building on the college campus furnished an attractive setting for the February meeting of Lesche Club, held Monday evening at 6 p.m.

The reception rooms reflected artistic arrangements of pine branches, pine cones and lighted candles. The tea table laid with a lace cloth was adorned at one end with a flat arrangement of pine sprays and pine cones with white candles burning in silver holders on each side. The silver tea service was placed at the other end of the table. Sandwiches and cookies were served. The hostesses, Mrs. R. E. Gahagan, Mrs. C. E. Dugdale and Miss Mamie Bowman served and Miss Mary McEniry poured tea.

An interested audience enjoyed a talk on "Developments in Speech Correction," given by Miss Irma Stockwell.

Miss McEniry, president, welcomed Mrs. Troy V. Wheeler, a new member and Mrs. Ed H. Webb, a guest. A brief business meeting was held.

Demon Tankers

The 1951 edition of the Demon swim team met the Texas A. and M. Tankmen last night at the NSC natatorium in their fourth meet of the season. Demon tankers so far have defeated Memphis Navy and Vanderbilt, while falling to SMU. Results of last night's meet were unavailable at press time.

Pool adn GSC Records Set Here In SMU Swim Meet Saturday

Southern Methodist University downed NSC swim team last Saturday night in the Demon pool, 26-49. This was the first defeat of the season for the purple and white swimmers of Northwestern. Six swimming records were broken during the contest. Dick Muckleroy of SMU shattered the pool records for the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events. Myron Lockety of NSC broke his own pool record in the 200 ard breast-stroke event.

The 300 yard medley relay and 400 yard freestyle relay records were also broken. A fast Northwestern Medley of Branch, Lockety and Voorhees turned in a new college and pool record of 3:11.8 seconds.

Epps, Farrell, Amerine, and Muckleroy of SMU smashed the 400 yard relay record by 1.6 seconds.

Official results of the meet are as follows:

300-yd. Medley Relay, won by Northwestern: Branch, Lockety and Voorhees. Time: 3:11.8.

220-Yard Freestyle, won by SMU: Amerine, 2nd Wilson, SMU, 3rd Rider, Northwestern. Time: 2:26.0.

50-Yard Freestyle, won by Muckleroy, SMU; 2nd, Duhon, NSC; 3rd, Restrige, NSC. Time: 23.6.

Dive won by Hennessy, Northwestern; 2nd, Gaston, Northwestern; 3rd, Slocum, SMU. Points: 106.3.

100 Freestyle won by Muckleroy, SMU, 2nd Farrell, SMU; 3rd Voorhees, NSC. Time: 53.8.

100-Yard Backstroke, won by Branch; 2nd, Wilson, SMU; 3rd, Mott, SMU. Time: 1:06.3.

200-Yard Breaststroke, won by Lockety, Northwestern, 2nd, Moore, SMU; 3rd, Willis, SMU. Time: 2:40.4.

440 - Yard Freestyle, won by Amerine, SMU; 2nd, Wilson, S. M. U.; 3rd, Rider, Northwestern. Time: 5:45.2.

400-Yard Freestyle Relay, won by S. M. U.: Epps, Farrel, Amerine and Muckleroy.

Sauce Staff Gains Five New Members

Five new members have been added to the Current Sauce staff for this semester, as announced by Editor J. C. Tillman.

Writing "Views of the News," a weekly column, will be Thomas Poole. The column "One Coed's Concept," inaugurated last year, will appear weekly this semester. Serving in this capacity is Dollie Smith.

Patsy Winkler will edit the Society column for this semester, following the resignation of Pat Leone from this position.

Two reporters, Donita Gothard and Wesley Jackson, have also been added to the staff. Jackson will also serve as columnist.

Sauce Staff Meeting, Fine Arts Building, Monday, Feb. 12, 4 p.m.

Nearly 2,366,000 veterans were on Veterans Administration disability compensation and pension rolls on December 31, 1950.

Intramural Notes

Notice

An Intramural Council meeting for Basketball schedules will be held at 6 p.m. Wednesday, February 14 in the Men's Gym. Everyone interested be present. Entry blanks for Basketball may be obtained at the Intramural Office.

Rules for Intramural Basketball are as follows:

Competition:

Provided there are eight or more organizations entered, the teams will be divided into two leagues. Each league will participate in a round-robin tournament. The winner and runner-up of each league will qualify for a final elimination tournament. The winners will play the second-place teams of opposite leagues and the two successful teams will contest for the school championship. The losers will play for third and fourth place honors. If less than eight teams are entered the competition will be a single round - robin with a play - off among the leading four teams.

Special Rulings

1. Length of Games:

All round-robin games will consist of two twelve-minute halves with a fire minute rest in between. All preliminary games will be played on cross courts in the men's gymnasium. The number of games per day and per week to be used will be determined by the number entered. Play-off games will be played on the official court and will consist of four eight-minute quarters.

2. Squad Roster:

Squad rosters may include up to ten players, exclusive of non-playing personnel.

3. Scorers:

Each team must furnish one scorer. The referee will designate one as the official scorer.

Mexican League

Mexican League play is now open from 5:50 to 6:50 each night. Just sign up for a court and sart your game. New balls will be furnished.

Also entries in Free Throw Contest will be accepted. You do not have to play on a team to enter the Free Throw Contest.

Demons to Meet Southwestern Sat.

The Northwestern State College Demon Basketball team will play the Southwestern five in Lafayette Saturday night following their contest with Louisiana Tech Thursday night.

High-riding Springhill College defeated the NSC quint, 56-51, here Saturday night and then went on to down the Centenary Gents. Friday's game with Mississippi Southern was not played because of weather conditions that halted the team's trip from Hattiesburg. The contest will be played at a later date.

Hoffman Opens Art Exhibit Sunday, Feb. 18

William A. Hoffman, instructor of art will present his first art exhibit at Northwestern Sunday afternoon, February 18, in the Blue Room of the Fine Arts building.

Displayed will be work in painting, drawing, and ceramics. The exhibits will be opened by a tea, beginning at 4 p.m.

Hoffman came to NSC this fall from the Art Institute of Chicago, where he taught ceramics.

Born in Roswell, New Mexico, the art instructor received an A. B. degree from Easter New Mexico University at Portales.

During the war he served as a bandsman in the Army, being stationed in North Africa, Italy, and Austria.

He further studied art at the Art Institute of Chicago from 1946 to 1950, taking academic subjects at the University of Chicago and Northwestern in Chicago.

He holds from the Chicago Art Institute a Bachelor of Art Education and a Master of Art Education degree.

The Alexandria Air Force Band, shown in the picture above, has been engaged to provide the music for the first annual military ball for members of the newly activated ROTC unit here. The recently chosen battalion and battery sponsors will be formally honored at that time.

Pasqua Chosen to Head Demonaires Semester Dance Schedule Tentative

It's a new year, a new semester, and a new leader for the Demonaires. Frank Pasqua, a senior at NSC, was recently appointed as successor to Gene Flores.

The Demonaires are planning a season designed to be better than any preceding period in their history. At present the dance schedule is not yet official, but it has been outlined.

There will be a dance following the ball game tonight and the organization will also appear on the Purple Jacket show February 14. Tentative plans are being made to continue the Wednesday night dances indefinitely, if the Student Council gives its support and sponsorship.

The students comprising the Demonaire roster and the instruments they play are: Don Jones, Hardy Rose, Wesley Jackson, Elzer Marx, S. W. Dickerson, saxophones; Frank Pasqua, Gordon Young, Gerald Carter, trumpets; Hank Camp, Allen Grant, trombones; Dave Carson, piano; Glynn Gardner, bass; Gloria Camp, "vibes"; and Jack Gaston, drums. S. W. Dickerson and Jack Gaston are playing with the De-monaires for the first time this semester. Dickerson is a freshman from Leesville, and Gaston is a senior from El Dorado, Arkansas. Joseph Carlucci is acting as faculty adviser.

Draft Women?

"Why not draft women?" Mildred McAfee Horton, wartime head of WAVES, asked in her article in the February issue of Ladies Home Journal.

She points out that our hard-to-fill quotas would be much easier to supply if we drew from 16,000,000 young men AND women, instead of attempting to equip our army from 8,000,000 men.

The main purpose of an Army of Navy is combat, and it is agreed that women should be non-combatant. However, there is much which women could do behind the front lines.

Currently, there seems to exist some sort of gallantry which prevents the use of women in a war. They must be saved and protected from all which is undesirable. It is hard to see just how we can say they are protected when their husbands are being drafted, leaving them with families to rear alone.

There is also a so-called chivalry which has led many people to believe that girls in uniform are not quite so good as the rich girls who stay home to work in a factory. Most of the rumors which spread about their manners and actions were untrue.

The experience of most of the servicewomen was a healthy, morally sound experience, enriching and maturing their lives. Oftentimes, armed service proved much less dangerous places than factory jobs, where less care could be taken of the welfare of the personnel.

American girls proved to be a fine lot of human beings whether or not they were in military uniform.

32 Cadets Receive Their Promotions

Thirty-two Cadets received promotions this week, it was announced by Lt. Col. Bowman, NSC Professor of Military Science and Tactics. Cadets receiving promotions and their ranks are Jerry E. West, Cadet Lt. Col., Ephraim J. Macaluso and Lowell W. Vaughn, Cadet Major, Herbert J. Sudbury, Robert S. Bryant, Firal L. Ryder and Walter E. Butler, Cadet Captain.

Melvin E. Luse and Wilmer Price, Cadet First Lt., Rudy C. Berlin, Cecil P. Davis, Leon A. Fuller and Billy Rowell, Cadet 2nd Lt.

Harry Anderson and James C. Martin, Cadet First Sergeant, Mac D. Craft, Jack D. Gaston, R. D. Sdains and James E. Yergler, Cadet Master Sergeant.

Michael J. Bellipanni, James T. Bonsall, Gilbert E. Derouen, Chas. L. Johnson, Carl J. McLendon, Billy D. Sibley, Harold A. Sykes, Robert R. Voorhees, Ollian O. Warner, Herber W. Willer, Ben E. Dubon, John C. Buck and Myron C. Russell, Cadet Sergeant First Class.

Enrollment in the ROTC at NSC reached 187 for the spring semester, with 7 MS. 402's, 25 MS. 302's, 16 MS. 202's and 139 MS. 102's. The enrollment was stabilized after the first few months of the Korean situation and is expected to remain at this level for the remainder of the semester.

Journalism Frat Is Reactivated This Semester

Following a semester of inactivity, Iota chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalism fraternity, will resume its regular functions on the campus, as announced by Louise Harris, chapter secretary.

The first meeting of the semester will be held Thursday night at 6:45 in the Yellow Room of Fine Arts with President J. C. Tillman presiding. All members are urged to be present, as several vacant offices will be filled and journalistic activities of the semester will be discussed.

Tentative activities include the acquisition of new members and sponsorship of the annual Louisiana High School Press Association.

Serving as advisor of the group professor of journalism.

The members of Iota chapter are J. C. Tillman, Louise Harris, Pat Leone, Mary Belle Davis, Dorothy Taylor Sibley, Dennis McMullan, Erin Mays, Jean Weeks, Jerry West, Frances Rhodes.

While in the city, Major Moseman will contact students at Northwestern State College.

Famed Sea Devil To Lecture Here Next Wednesday

Count Felix von Luckner, famed "Sea Devil" of the Imperial German Navy during World War I, will lecture here Wednesday, Feb. 14, at 10:00 a.m. in Fine Arts Auditorium at a Northwestern State College Assembly.

There is no admission charge; and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Even after World War I hostilities ceased, the romance and mystery that surrounded this fabulous sea raider lived on, and when he came to the United States he was welcomed as a goodwill ambassador. Count von Luckner was here for seven years following World War I and became very popular across the nation.

He became an honorary citizen of many cities and Lowell Thomas sponsored him at that time. The Count lectured widely at that time on international good will and the need for keeping the national "chin up."

Never a member of the Nazi party in World War II, the Count was instrumental in negotiating with American troops in 1945 and influencing German troops not to make resistance. For this he was condemned to death by the Nazis but they never made good their threats against him.

Speech Tournament and Rally Being Held on NSC Campus

Twenty Louisiana high school are competing for honors in the Fourteenth Annual High School Speech Tournament sponsored by the NSC Forensic Club February 9 and 10. The tournament is combined with the District Speech Rally.

Participants are divided into four groups, senior boys and girls, and junior boys and girls for the debate. The proposition is: Resolved: That the American people should reject the Welfare State.

Individual competitive events include extemporaneous speaking, poetry reading, serious and humorous interpretative reading, oratory, radio speaking, and after-dinner speaking.

The number of awards given have been increased over former years to nine because the District Speech Rally has been combined with the tournament. In an effort to allow the smaller schools to compete for awards on an equal basis with the larger schools, two separate sections of individual events have been made. Section I will be composed of Class AA and A high schools; and Section II will be composed of Class B and C high schools. This division will not be made in debate.

It is a policy of Northwestern State College to offer high school scholarships to all participants awarded first place certificates except the junior divisions of debate.

The schedule of events included a banquet in the Student Center Friday night with a dance following.

The tournament began with an assembly at 9:30 Friday morning in the Little Theatre and will end Saturday afternoon with the announcement of debate results.

Senate Minutes

The regular meeting of the Senate was called to order Feb. 6 by President Marie Tilleux.

Leland Langridge moved that Jenny Lou Ingram be accepted in the Senate. The motion was seconded and passed and Miss Ingram was officially seated.

Nominations were in order for the new vice-president. Leland Langridge, Willard Harlan, Clydie Mae Beacham, Rudy Berlin, and Chuck Tillman were nominated. Leland Langridge was elected.

The report on the Student Loan Fund indicated that the plan is still incomplete. Leland Langridge moved that there be a joint meeting of the Senate and Student Council the week of Feb. 12 to discuss the plan. The motion was seconded and passed.

Chuck Tillman brought up for discussion the possibility of a provision for the surplus drama fund.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Joyce Rambin, Secretary

Council Minutes

The Student Council of Northwestern State College met February 2, 1951, in its regular meeting. The meeting was called to order by Chuck Castaing.

The Council approved Luke Petrovich's appointment of Virginia Lou Ingram to fill the vacancy in the Student Senate caused by the resignation of Jimmy Johnson.

The Council discussed the Possibility of a meeting with the Name Band Committee and Luke Petrovich was appointed to discuss it with Mrs. Kendrick.

The amendments which were offered to the Council by the Student Senate were tabled for further consideration. A committee was appointed to study possible revisions to the bill.

Don Jones suggested that we start the Wednesday night dances again for the purpose of raising funds for the Name Band.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

VA Outlines Role In Vet Program; Denies Control of Training Schools

Veterans Administration neither supervises nor controls schools training GI Bill veteran-students, VA said recently in reply to numerous queries recently raised as to VA's role in the huge GI Bill training program.

Supervision of schools is a function solely of the States and not the Federal government, VA said. The law expressly prohibits VA from exercising "any supervision or control whatsoever" over schools that train veterans. In fact, VA even is barred from controlling the State agencies that supervise schools.

VA does pay the States for enforcing minimum standards set forth in the law for on-the-job training establishments and certain profit schools training veterans under the GI Bill. But here again, enforcement of the standards is entirely up to the States.

VA explained that under the GI Bill its connection with schools simply is this:

A State approves a school for GI Bill training. Then, if all provisions of the law are met, VA pays the bill for veterans taking the training.

Only three conditions exist under which VA would stop tuition payments to schools with GI Bill trainees, and none could possibly imply VA control or interference, VA said.

One would be withdrawal of State approval. The law does not permit VA to make payments to schools that do not have such approval.

The second would be a VA effort to recover an overpayment of GI Bill tuition previously made to the school. In such a case, VA would suspend a sufficient amount of tuition to get back the overpayment. Suspensions are only made, however, where overpayments are so large that recovery could not be effected any other way.

And the third condition would be in those few cases where investigation of a school shows strong evidence of fraud. In these cases, all payments are suspended until further investigation discloses just how much money is to be recovered.

In the matter of suspensions, VA explained that it is guided by a long-standing federal practice of withholding current payments to recover past overpayments, in order to protect the interests of the Government.

Under Public Law 16, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act for disabled veterans, VA's relationships with schools is somewhat different than under the GI Bill.

Public Law 16 gives VA the authority to step in and supervise the disabled veteran's training, to make certain he is receiving the type of training that will help him overcome the handicap of his disability.

longer will we sleep through our 8:00 classes, no longer will we clutter up our study time with faces (card faces), no longer will we miss any of those tasty dining hall meals and eat out, no longer—yep, this time will be different.

But the most important thing is — keep smiling. Up here, we don't care if yo' smile is muddy.

Payment of 2nd Dividend to Vets Is Announced

Payment of a second special dividend totalling $685,000,000 to the holders of some eight million national service life insurance policies was announced this week by Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

Dividends will be calculated through the anniversary date of the policy in 1951. The amount earned by each policy will vary according to the number of months it was in force, the plan of insurance, face value of the policy and the age of the insured. The first checks will be ready in April.

The first dividend on GI insurance, now virtually complete except for about 40,000 policies which require special investigations, covered the period each policy was in force up to its anniversary date in 1948. The second dividend will be for the number of months in force from that date to the corresponding date in 1951.

Unlike the first dividend, no application will be required for the second dividend. In cases of doubt about address, a special two-part card will be mailed by VA to the veteran for verification of proper address.

VA urged veterans not to write about the second dividend since correspondence will cause delay in payments to individuals.

By the end of 1950, a total of 238,041 disabled veterans had been rehabilitated under Public Law 16, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, and another 438,245 veterans had exhausted their entitlement to GI Bill training.

One Co-ed's Concept

By DOLLIE SMITH

"How big do men grow where you come from? and Miss Smith you will have to get another p.o. box with a combination." Gee whith, and I thought I thaw a putty cat.

I was glad to notice this morning that the frozen bodies which have been littering the halls are beginning to thaw out. A few of the stronger ones even crawled to the dining hall. Ah! Northwestern! Where you can't keep a good man down!

Of great interest to our little NSC family are the unusual antics of the elements which those of higher larnin' call weather, while us poor plebes call it snow and water and mud. I hear the natatorium is having to close because of the competition. It seems that the students get more practical experience by swimming to their classes — or, to the Field House.

Spring semester, 1951 — and it's testimony time again. Testimony time? Most inspirational. We may not all have looks, or we may not all have brains, but we've got inspirations. At the beginning of each new semester we drag ourselves up out of the muddy mire of vice, acclaim loud and long the virtues of a good student, and testify that this time is going to be different—yep, this is it. ## 'Henry V' Set At Cane Theatre Lovers of the drama and cinema have a real treat in store when the Laurence Olivier production of "Henry V" is shown at the Cane Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, February 14 and 15.

Time Magazine praises "Henry V" in its Cinema Review section by stating, "The movies have produced one of their rare great works of art," and goes on to say of the production . . .

"It begins with shots of 17th-Century London and Shakespeare's Globe Theater, where 'Henry V' is being played. The florid acting of Olivier and his prelates and the Elizabethan audience's vociferous reactions are worth volumes of Shakespearean footnotes. For the invasion, the camera, beautifully assisted by the Chorus (Leslie Banks), dissolves in space through a marine backdrop to discover a massive set such as Shakespeare never dreamed of—and dissolves backward in time to the year 1415. Delicately as a photographic print in a chemical bath, there emerges the basic style of Shakespearean cinema."

Attend the Purple Jacket Rainbow Review Wednesday night. Fine Arts Auditorium, 8:00 p.m.

Naval Reserve For NSC To Be Discussed

A discussion of prime importance to NSC students concerning the Naval Reserve program will be held at the Natchitoches City Hall on Monday, February 12.

The speakers for the discussion will be Lt. Commander J. M. Babre and Chief C. M. Metheney. The discussion will also deal with the Naval Reserve Officer Candidates' program which is open to all college students who are presently attending an accredited college.

This program is open to both men and women students.

Veterans Administration during December, 1950 approved 88 per cent of veterans' applications to make second major changes of GI Bill course. Advisement and guidance is required for veterans who desire such changes. In numbers, approvals totaled 4,130; disapprovals, 1,164.

Less than half of all GI Bill-approved schools were training veterans on November 1, 1950, a Veterans Administration survey disclosed. Only one-quarter of the approved job training establishments had veterans enrolled on that date, VA added.

Speech Tournney—

of four speakers each.

Debaters entered in the junior divisions were limited to contestants not above a sophomore standing. Freshmen and sophomores, however, were allowed to compete in the senior division in mixed teams in the boys bracket only.

Speeches were limited to ten minutes, with five minutes for rebuttal.

Extemporaneous

Extemporaneous speakers were required to discuss some phase of "National and International Problems of Today". Poetry was selected from standard literature considered as dramatic material.

In the interpretative contest here were two types of readings, one stressing the serious type; the other the humorous. The material in this division had to be memorized by the students and presented without the use of notes or manuscript.

Topics for oratorical speaking were not limited in any manner, although each speaker filled with the tournament director, prior to delivery, a copy of the oration.

Entrants in the radio speaking contest had to deliver an original two minute speech of general interest to a radio audience, and a one-minute script, to be read cold. A speaker who exceeded the time limit or who spoke more than twenty seconds under the time limit was disqualified under the rules.

Survivors of the preliminary rounds of after-dinner speaking participated in the finals at the banquet Friday night. Students were given five minutes in which to present an entertaining speech adaptable to the occasion.

In an effort to allow the smaller schools to compete for awards on an equal basis with the larger schools, two separate sections of individual events were made. Section I was composed of Class AA and A High schools. Section II was composed of class B and C high schools.

High School scholarships were offered by Northwestern to all participants awarded first place certificates except the junior divisions of debate.

The tournament this year was held under the auspices of the Speech department, with the rally being under the direction of William Smith, NSC director of forensics.

Schools attending were Bolton, Alexandria; Converse, Mt. Carmel, Jesuit High School of New Orleans, Cypress, Castor, Simpson, Sulphur, Bossier City, Byrd and Fair Park, Shreveport; Natchitoches, and Ruston.

Stockwell—

speech defection are usually admitted to the clinic in the fall, and are given three one-half hour periods a week of treatment. The less serious cases are admitted in the spring, and are given two one-half hour periods during the week. Periodical recordings are made of the child's progress. They are kept on record with daily histories of the child's work. This facilitates the teacher's . . .

College students are also admitted to Miss Stockwell's clinic, if deemed necessary by the tests made every year for entering students.

When asked why she chose speech correction for her profession, Miss Stockwell, who has received her bachelor and master degrees in theatre, interpretation, and public speaking, said, "I have gone astray." It was while working on her doctorate at the University of Wisconsin that she became interested in speech correction work, and she took all available speech courses and corresponding science courses offered, in order to have the wide background necessary for her type of work.

Miss Stockwell professes a preference for the hard cases of deflection admitted to her clinic, because, as she says, "They offer a great challenge." And the hardest cases of speech defection she knows are those stemming from the cleft palate, or the unformed palate. These require special work, and she had her first experience with this type of work at the University of Wisconsin, where she taught in the first cleft palate clinic in the United States.

Before coming to Northwestern in the fall of 1948, Miss Stockwell taught at the University of Florida, in Jacksonville, Fla., in a clinic similar to hers at NSC, and with this exceptionally wide background, she is carrying on her work here with interest, understanding, and wisdom. And she is reaping magnificent results.

Besides her full schedule at the clinic, she teaches a speech correction class, speech 104, theatre, and interpretation.

"The secret of being a success in correction," says Miss Stockwell, "is not in imitating what is learned from teachers and books. It comes in using great imagination." That she is a success in her work is evident when her charges leave her clinic, metamorphosed from timid, retiring children whose various speech defects leave little hope for normal futures to children who, talking normally, are ready to accept their rightful heritage of good speech and unblighted horizons.

To Present Snow White Here

Natchitoches children and grown-ups will have a chance to see a stage production of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs Saturday afternoon, Feb. 17, in the Fine Arts Auditorium, Northwestern State College, 2:30 p.m.

The production, by Penthouse Productions, is being sponsored by the Natchitoches Kiwanis Club for the benefit of the Natchitoches Scouting program and for underprivileged children. There will be only one performance.

A New York singing and dancing cast will bring the Grimm Brothers now famous mixture of fantasy and realism to life with colorful costumes and elaborate sets.

ROTC Sponsors

Pat Bishop, Jo Ann Debate, and Beth McGuffie are the recently elected sponsors for the NSC ROTC unit. They will be formally presented at the forthcoming military ball.

Debate, Bishop, McGuffie Named ROTC Cadet Corps Sponsors

Jo Ann Debate will serve as battalion sponsor and Pat Bishop and Beth McGuffie, battery sponsors for the NSC ROTC unit, according to an announcement made last week by Colonel James W. owman, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

These selections were made on the basis of election by members of the unit. Honorary commissions equivalent to the commanding rank of the unit they sponsor will be conferred upon the girls.

Jo Ann, the battalion sponsor, is a senior health and physical education major from Bunkie. A member of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority, she was a Cenla Fair maid in 1949.

Pat Bishop, a sociology major from Lake Charles was selected as sponsor for Battery "A". A transfer student from McNeese Junior College, Pat holds several honors on the campus. She is co-ed vice-president of the student body and Potpourri beauty for 1951. Her sorority is Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Serving as sponsor of Battery "B" is Beth McGuffie, home economics major from Harrisonburg. A member of Pi Kappa Sigma, she holds the office of corresponding editor. Beth has also been active in extra-curricular programs as a "big sister," secretary in her sophomore class, and a member of the intramural basketball team. She was named a maid at the Cenla Fair game and Potpourri beauty in 1949 and 1951.

The three sponsors will be formally introduced at the forthcoming military ball.

Four NSC Teams Attend Mid-South Debate Tourney

Northwestern State College will be represented in the 21st annual Mid-South Debate Tournament at Conway, Ark., Feb. 16-17.

William S. Smith, NSC Director of Forensics, is entering four teams in the tournament; two in the senior men's and two in the junior men's division. Arkansas State Teachers' College and Hendrix College are co-hosts for the tourney this year. The general topic for the debate is, "Resolved: That the Non-Communist Nations Should Form a New International Organization."

Representing NSC in the men's division will be Luke Petrovich, a senior, of Buras; Joe Don Jones, a junior, of New Orleans; Thomas Poole, a senior, of Winnfield; and Jim Vorhoff, a freshman, of Abbeville.

The NSC junior division team will be made up of David Kendrick, a freshman, of Natchitoches; and Cecil Neilson, a sophomore, of Shreveport; Jerry Rasberry, a freshman, of Basile, and Joyce Winn, a freshman, of Plain Dealing.

More than twenty colleges in this area are expected to vie for forensic honors in the meet.

NOTICE

The Post Office Department will pay two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person on the charge of stealing mail or any valuable thing contained therein, or money or property, from any letter box rented in a post office.

The post office boxes, which are government property, are to be used correctly for your convenience. You were given a combination to your box when you rented it. If at any time this combination fails to open your box, please report it immediately to the postmistress. To force the lock on the box will break the combination and may give you the suspicion of stealing mail or property that belongs to someone else.

It is best that you do not ask others to open your box. If you forget the combination, which is a seldom thing, please do not hesitate to ask at the window for a duplicate copy of the combination. Under no conditions should you attempt to open a box unless you have been assigned that particular box. Failure to comply to these regulations will make you liable to a fine or imprisonment or both.

Teaching Staff of Mathematics Dept. Attending Meet

The entire teaching staff of the Department of Mathematics at NSC are taking a "vacation" to attend the Annual Joint Meeting of the Louisiana-Mississippi Section of the Mathematical Association of Teachers of America at Mississippi College, Starkville, on Feb. 16-17.

Members of the department attending the meet, which will be held at NSC in 1952, are Professors G. J. Corley, Joe Hendrickson, C. G. Killen, A. C. Maddox, and Associate Professors G. E. Miller and S. W. Shelton.

In the absence of the professors three student secretaries of the department and several advanced students are taking charge of classes.

Students and the professor for whom they are substituting are James Brannon, Corley; Wilmer Price, Shelton; W. J. Smith, Corley; L. E. Nunley, Corley; Kathleen Kheil, Deason; Leon A. Fuller, Stokes; Myrtle A. Babin, Shelton; Elva Sue Tucker, Corley; James Leake, Havard; Mary E. Corby, Allbritten; and Patricia Leone, Corley.

Professor Stokes, of Social Sciences Department, and Dr. Allbritten, of the Education Department, are also attending.

SFLCU Exec. Comm. Meets in Alex.; Set Next Convention for March 30

Three Northwestern members of the Southern Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities traveled to Alexandria Saturday, Feb. 10 to attend an Executive Committee meeting, at Louisiana College.

Luke Petrovich, president of the student body, and member of the Executive Committee for the federation; Don Jones, SFLCU Treasurer; and Leland Landgridge, NSC correspondent met with representatives from La. Tech, Southeastern, Southwestern, and La. College.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the next meeting of the Federation. Plans were completed to hold the next convention on the campus of La. Tech on March 30-31.

It was decided at the session that two other schools in the state are to be invited to the next convention as non-voting delegates. To be issued invitations to become permanent members, are Northeastern La. College and John McNeese, in Monroe, and Lake Charles respectively.

With the next session of the Federation an Editor's Committee will meet for the first time. The new group has been formed from the Louisiana Conference of Editors, which became defunct during the administration of Dr. G. W. McGinty, former president of the college.

Schools not attending the meet were Tulane and Louisiana State University.

Thirty-two Cadets To Receive Ranks In Wed. Ceremony

Thirty-two cadets will be conferred the cadet rank of their appointment Wednesday in a formal ceremony in the square between Caldwell Hall and the Library.

Jerry E. West, Natchitoches, will be given a warrant effective to the rank of Cadet Lieutenant Colonel, the highest rank to be conferred in the corps.

Second in rank to West will be Ephraim J. Macaluso and Lowell W. Vaughn. Both will receive the rank of Cadet Major, Commanders of the A and B batteries of the unit.

Cadet rank from Sergeant 1st Class up will be awarded the following men, in a regulation army procedure:

Cadet Captain: Herbert J. Sudbury, Firal L. Ryder, Robert S. Bryant, and Walter E. Butler.

Cadet 1st Lieutenant: Melvin E. Luse, Wilmer Price.

Cadet 2nd Lieutenant: Rudy C. Berlin, Leon A. Fuller, Cecil P. Davis, and Billy Rowell.

Cadet 1st Sergeant: Harry Anderson, and James C. Martin.

Cadet Master Sergeant: Mac D. Craft, R. E. Skains, Jack D. Gaston, and James E. Yergler.

Bentley Is Speaker For Leadership Conference Wed.

Dr. Imogene Bentley, prominent North Texas educator, will be featured as guest speaker at the Associated Women Students' Leadership Conference, February 21 at 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Dr. Bentley is Dean of Women and Professor of English at North Texas State Teachers College in Denton, Texas, President of the Texas Association of Deans of Women and member of the American Association of University Women.

Her talk, "The Leadership Women Should Take", will climax the Leadership Conference.

The young dean has become widely known in Texas and elsewhere for her humorous addresses and has for the past three years talked to numerous educational and civic audiences. She was also one of the guest speakers at the 1950 A.W.S. National Convention held at the University of Oklahoma.

All women students and faculty members are urged to attend the Conference.

McConathy Leads GSC Scoring With 437 Pt. Total

Currently leading the Gulf States Conference in the total points scored department is Northwestern State College's candidate for All-GSC honors, center Johnny McConathy.

McConathy, who hails from Bryceland, La., is 6 feet-five in. tall and weighs an even 200 pounds. This is his second season as a regular on the Demon five.

Last year, Johnny, who is known to most of the NSC students as "Hound," scored 290 points and was selected as a member of the All-GSC second team. So far, Johnny has already scored 437 points this season and still has five more games left to play in the regular schedule.

"Hound" is not the only basketball player in his family, as his older brother Les was an outstanding guard for the Demons several seasons ago, and his younger brother, George, is doing a fine job playing center for the Bryceland High School five.

Although there are two McConathys on the Northwestern squad, they are not related. However, both, Hershal from Florien, La., and Johnny are both seniors majoring in Health and Physical Education.

32 Players Are Recommended for Football Award

Thirty-two men were recommended for letters for 1950 in football recently, according to Coach Turpin, head football coach.

Cited for outstanding work during the 1950 season were Bobby Davis, Bobby McHalfey, J. H. Akins, M. D. Ray, Jack Moore,

Editorial

Wednesday night, in the Fine Arts Auditorium, members of the Purple Jackets staged a show that was well worth anybody's time and money, in our opinion.

The performance was as near professional as is possible on a campus this size. It featured a majority of the outstanding musical talent on the campus and behind-the-stage work that merits the praise of the best.

Yet! Few people attended!

Just what is the cause of the poor attendance, not only at the Purple Jacket Review, but at practically every student-staged show put on on the campus, we do not know.

Some say it is a lack of advertising.

This might be the case in one or two productions. But, for the majority of performances, we know better. There are remarks flying around the campus after every show to the effect that either the show wasn't known about, or that it was forgotten.

Some say it is the price.

That is a logical explanation in many cases, but not in all. Take the movies last summer and part of this fall semester. How well were they attended? Just well enough to barely cover the expenses of running the film. Was the price exorbitant? You could call twenty cents that, but...

Is it the quality of the productions. That would be hard to prove.

The reasons "why" such performances are not attended would be well worth hearing. There is bound to be a logical explanation.

Why not write a letter to the editor and state why you don't attend—if you don't, and why you think other people do the same.

Maybe the situation can be remedied!

LETTER TO EDITOR

February 5, 1951

The Current Sauce
Northwestern State College
Natchitoches, Louisiana

Dear Editor:

Concerning a front page story in the Current Sauce of last week about Jimmy Johnson, I should like to say to the students of NSC that the information therein is not wholly incorrect, but certainly has received disproportionate emphasis.

First of all, my registration became automatically effective at the end of last semester rather than "the beginning of this semester."

Secondly, my resignation was from the Student Senate and not specifically from "the office of Student Senate president"—the latter being incidentally effective.

Thirdly, my resignation was effectuated rather than "enforced," because I had completed the requirements for my degree and because of my "failure to maintain the required 'C' average during the fall semester of 1950-51." This latter fact is only incidentally correct.

Although I do not believe the editor or staff meant any malicious harm by the above mentioned errors, but was merely reporting the news, nevertheless, harm has been done. My association with the Current Sauce has revealed to me an earnest desire on the part of the editor to print the facts and the news with all fairness. That is why I am asking a re-release of the said story to give the students the facts, namely, Jimmy Johnson is no longer in school and no longer in the Student Senate because he has completed his requirements for the B. A. degree. The fact that he did not make a "C" average last semester is only incidental.

Sincerely yours,
Jimmy Johnson

Views of The News

By THOMAS POOLE

In 1864 when Lincoln gave his Gettysburg address the Chicago Times said: "The cheek of every American must tingle with shame as he reads the silly, flat and dishwatery utterances of the man who has to be pointed out to intelligent foreigners as the President of the United States." This undoubtedly was a great injustice to President Lincoln, but today when we have the "show me" boy from Missouri criticizing a Critic, calling the Marines a Navy Police force, and the strikers Communists, the article fits the action much better.

It seems that everyone who doesn't follow along with the thinking of Mr. Truman gets the full blast of his Missouri bragging. What would he label upon the South if in the coming election the "Solid" South wasn't in line with party thoughts? I for one, can stand the disgrace of being in dis-favor with Mr. Truman.

On the international scene the UN forces are again being pushed back on the battle fields of South Korea. This makes us wonder if it isn't a smart plan on Russia's part to keep us occupied in the pacific area, while they build up the armies of their satillities around Europe. We do know that the countries of Bulgaria, Rumania, and Albania have built up an army of 600,000 men. Is this to attack Western Europe or is it just a bluff to scare them into joining with Russia's Program for the world. If the Russian controlled armies in Western Europe invade Yugoslavia and take control of that country we will be cut off from the nations of Greece, Turkey, Arabia, and also from the Adriatic Sea. This will greatly endanger all of Europe and retard our influence to a great degree. That is why at the present time the nations of the Atlantic Pact are arming as fast as possible in an effort to meet this threat of Russia's satillities. We hope and pray for the free nations of the world to be able to do this very thing so that the security of not only the United States but of the world, will be maintained.

Through unity we will be able to maintain our freedom for as the old saying goes, "We must hang together or we will hang separately."

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

Arrows have been flying thick and fast around here this week, and Dan Cupid is suing the union for overtime. The question of the week is, "To be or not to be a Valentine," and the answer of the week is, (drool). Hollyhocks to those girls who are getting to be such masters at the art of pre-deciding what candy centers are. Aw heck. Who wants Valentine candy anyway? Me, I'm kindo partial to salted peanuts.

Well, by now everybody has had time to take all their cuts, run out of money, and fall their first test. Guess we're really getting back into swing. Speaking of swing—there was some evry nice swing (vocally and literally) in the Purple Jacket show, "Deep Purple," which was presented on Wednesday night.

Spring Formal is right around the corner, and again we hear the yearly cry, "We want a Name Band!" The Student Council and Name Band Committee are going all out look for a reasonable answer to the cry. And just in case you've got any loose money you don't know what to do with, or any ideas about how to raise money, you might drop by to see Mrs. Kendrick who is head of the Name Band Committee. She would be very glad to see you, I'm sure.

Rumor has it that spring almost sprung this week. They say if you quit blowing your nose long enough, you can smell it in the air, and maybe if you take off your ear muffs, you can hear robins twittering. Me, I'm kindo doubtful. But, like somebody always says, "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?"

Jean Bower Leads Fall Graduates On Honor Roll

Fifty-five Northwestern State College students receive B.S. degrees here at graduation exercises January 25. Twenty-five received B.A. degrees.

Out of that number 9 were listed on the Honor Roll. They are Roberta Jean Bower, 2.62; James Alphonse Gongre, Jr., 2.48; L. W. Snider, 2.28; Helen M. Abrams, 2.24; Emmett P. Horn, 2.17; Joe Francis Vance, 2.12; Loita Ernestine Martin, 2.10; George Elwee Ward, 2.09; Mary Louise Statham, 2.04.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Hellen Wilson became the bride of Roscoe D. Barnes, Friday, February 16, in the home of her mother, Mrs. R. T. Cardwell at Springhill.

Miss Wilson is a freshman here at Northwestern and a major in Secretarial Science. She plans to continue school after a short honeymoon.

The ceremony was performed by the groom's brother, Reverend T. W. Barnes, Minden. Giving the bride in marriage was her brother, James Wilson. She wore a tailored suit of winter white with navy accessories.

Miss Johnnie Mae Brown, of Bastrop, a former NSC student, served the bride as maid of honor. Providing the nuptial music was Miss Virginia Seigler.

A short reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride.

Mr. Barnes will continue working for a lumber-buying concern in Springhill.

A recent marriage of interest was that of Miss Rebecca Jane Rockefeller and Jack Page Ashley, both of Shreveport. The couple were married Sunday, Feb. 4, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Rockefeller.

The bride, a student here for the Fall, 1950 semester, was attired in a rose suit with black accessories. She carried a small white Bible topped with white carnations and long white streamers.

Serving the bride were Alta Mae Vasocu, maid of honor, a student here at Northwestern, Joy Fortson, who presided over the guest book, and Mary Ann Morell, who lighted candles. The latter are both former students here. The attendants wore suits of tan, navy and grey.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride.

The couple spent a brief honeymoon in Dallas and are now making their home in Shreveport, where the groom is employer as assistant manager of one of the local stores.

We are all glad to see Carmen Basco and Sadie Martin back at school after their accident. Carmen suffered two depressed ribs and pulled muscles, and must still carry her arm in a sling. Sadie had a good many cuts and bruises and a fractured knee-cap. With all their ills, they made a speedy recovery, which just goes to show that you can't keep Northwestern girls down.

The Demonettes plan to sell sandwiches to the high school students attending the Band Clinic, here, Saturday, February 17.

The Demonettes are trying hard to raise money in order to get sweaters. Because many of the group are nursing students and will not be here next year, the organization is putting forth a special effort to raise money and buy sweaters before this semester is over.

Offer Crest

Cape Foulweather, now popularly known as Otter Crest, on the Oregon coast near Newport, was discovered and so named in March, 1778, 14 years before the Columbia river was discovered by Captain Gray. Today a lookout is on the cape, 500 feet above the sea, providing spectacular seascapes for many miles in both directions.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Plato never had the difficulties in learning the Greek alphabet that the Delta Sig pledges had Tuesday night.

Life seemed so simple until Mac Schoonover, pledge leader, read a few of the things pledges must learn before being initiated. After worrying their young brains over the facts presented to them, it was a relief to go downstairs and let the actives do the thinking.

Louise Burns was again best pledge of the week.

DSE said good-bye to Marilyn Kent; she won't be back this semester.

Be looking for DSE's selling sandwiches in the dormitories Monday night. They'll be there!

The girls again concentrated on a study report by Betty Koch. They are truly earnest about learning the history and important facts of DSE.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

At our next sorority meeting we will proudly welcome our new sponsor, Mrs. Robert Easley. Mrs. Easley is an Alpha Sig alum who has always helped us with our rush parties, dances, and such. Now she's official!

We miss Frances Nell Pender who began working in Leesville last month.

Peggy Sandifer and Ann Webster attended a meeting of the Alpha Sigma Alpha alumnie chapter Monday night in town.

This week the sorority elected two outstanding Alpha Sigs for awards to be presented in the spring. The Elizabeth Bird Small Award goes to Dollie Smith on the basis of scholarship, personality, and participation in extra curricula activities.

A new award, the Frost Fidelity, is an award to be presented a member whose faithfulness and loyalty to the sorority are outstanding. Peggy Sandifer was chosen for this honor. Congratulations to both you gals!

Hoffman to Present Art Exhibit Sunday in Blue Room, Fine Arts

Featuring work in painting, drawing, and ceramics, William A. Hoffman, now instructor in art at Northwestern, will present his first art exhibit here Sunday afternoon in the Blue Room of the Fine Arts Building. The exhibit, which will be opened by a tea, will be open from 4 to 6:30 p.m. to townspeople as well as to students and members of the college faculty. Instrumental music for the occasion will be provided by the music department of the college.

Although Mr. Hoffman's field of instruction here is primarily ceramics, in the exhibit Sunday will be examples of his artistic skill and versatility in the use of oil, tempera, casein, charcoal and sanguine. Hung on the walls of the Blue Room gallery will be canvases showing landscapes, portraits and still life. In addition there will be lithographs and etchings, as well as sculptured and molded pieces of ceramics.

Mr. Hoffman came to NSC last fall from the Art Institute of Chicago, where he taught ceramics. Since he has been here he said he has been greatly impressed by the talent and interest of NSC students in ceramics.

A native of Rosewell, New Mexico, Mr. Hoffman holds a diploma as an associate in Arts from Eastern New Mexico University. He also holds the degrees of Bachelor of Art Education and Master of Art Education from the Chicago Art Institute. While in Chicago, where he made most of the works of art he is exhibiting here Sunday, he also studied academic subjects at the University of Chicago and Northwestern University.

During World War II Mr. Hoffman served as a bandsman in the U. S. Army. He saw military service abroad in Italy, North Africa and Australia. As a musician, Mr. Hoffman's specialty is the French horn.

Leading Scorer in GSC

Johnny "Hound" McConathy, leading GSC scorer, evades Centenary guard to sink two more for the Demons. "Hound," at last count, led the conference by only 8 points. He hopes to increase his lead at the expense of Springhill and Miss. Southern this week on the road.

Demons Down La. College Wildcats Wed. Night in Alexandria, 67-65

The Demons defeated the Louisiana College Wildcats last Tuesday at Pineville by the score of 67 to 65, in a game which changed leads five times.

The Demons jumped off to an early 13 to 3 lead in the first few minutes of play with Johnny "Hound" McConathy scoring six points in two minutes. However, the Wildcats came right back and within four minutes, the score was even at 15 to 15.

The purple and white took a small lead and maintained it throughout the rest of the first half. The halftime score was NSC

47, LC 39.

The Wildcats were dangerously hot the entire second half except for the last few minutes of play, scoring 26 points to the Demons' 20, however; the game was sewed up only when Hershail McConathy sank a last-minute field goal after a beautiful recovery of a long shot by Linwood Ouzts who also played a whale of a game.

Pacing the Demons in scoring were Johnny McConathy, Jim Yergler, and Hershail McConathy each with fifteen points.

For the Wildcats, big center Billy Moses with 19 points and Billy Reed with 18, were the big guns. Also effective for the blue and gold was Bernard Callendar, Little All-American football end, whose long shots seemed to go in with deadly accuracy. Callendar had 13 points to his credit.

The win put the Demons in fourth place in the GSC race, breaking a tie with Southwestern and giving the Demons a six-five conference record for the season.

Baseball Season To Open March 1 With Practice

Baseball will take over the spotlight at NSC March 1 when practice officially opens. First contest of the season will be an exhibition game with Sam Houston University here March 20. Other exhibition games have been scheduled here with Illinois State, Normal University and Mississippi State. Exhibition contests will be played both here and there with Barksdale Air Base, Lamar Tech, and Sam Houston University.

A nucleus of experienced players from last year's team, which finished third in a five team division, with an 8-8 record, will be back this year. Returning for this season will be, Catchers, Sam Harper and "Chip" Perot, Pitchers, Lynwood Ouzts, Joe Macaluso, W. B. Calvert, and Wilson Ronda. Several promising freshman prospects are on the campus.

Lost to the services are Johnny Emmons, G. C. Batting Champion, and Jerry Harville, outfielders, and Brooks and McHalfey, pitchers.

A group of players not still engaged in basketball and football have begun working out on the diamond, and all interested in trying out for the team are requested to report to Coach Brown's office to sign an application blank.

Intramural Notes

The annual Cross-Country Run will be held on Friday, Feb. 23 during the Northwest Louisiana Basketball Tournament.

The run will start at approximately 3:30 p.m. during an intermission between the Friday afternoon games.

Course of Run

The Cross-Country Run will start directly in front of the men's gymnasium. It will go west in front of Caspari Hall and will turn left at the Practice Cottage. The run will continue past the rear of the stadium and on to Mr. Young's home. The course turns left and follows the lake road and crosses the railroad and turns left on College Avenue. The route proceeds out of College Ave. to the Women's Gymnasium where it turns left past the Infirmary and back to the Practice Cottage. A final left turn is made and after passing Caspari Hall, the course finishes in front of the Men's Gymnasium, where it started.

Each contestant must run the course at least nine times prior to the day of the event.

Spikes of any kind on shoes are prohibited.

KNOTHOLE

By TILLMAN

Someone said the schedule for the week runs like this: Classes, study, classes, read, classes, and maybe coffee; classes, research, classes, study, classes, home-work, and coffee; classes, copy homework, class . . . coffee, bridge in the fieldhouse, and a movie; classes, coffee, coffee, Canasta, short date, copy homework; class, hunt-a-ride-home, coffee, sleep (in class or out), Canasta, coffee, more coffee. No schedule given for Saturday. "Well," he said, "I started the week with good intentions anyway."

The staff of the paper has the April Fool's Day fever already, so if you see a cut upside down in the paper, don't be surprised.

Finally acquired a sports editor. Odd that last year we had only people who could write sports. This year, few.

Re: the "unidentified swimmer from SMU" last week. After being threatened with a dunking in the pool, I finally admit that it is Voorhees. Sorry, Bob.

See by the Tulane paper, Hullabaloo, that NSC isn't alone in their food problems. The Hullabaloo editorial specifically points to high prices, cold food, and not enough. It hints at mal-administration.

Converse to the radio broadcast Thursday nite . . . "Private" Bowman is now a Colonel again.

The "thumbnail" cut of the new SOC editor this week turned out bigger than most thumbs. I'll admit . . . the engravers did it.

NSC Demons may not be on top of the GSC this year—but it's a chinch they are the hardest fighting group in the conference. Then too, they have had some "bad breaks."

A live drab and Army blue are becoming a definite part of campus life. Our compliments, along with the cadets in the Corps, who say they've "no kick coming."

Count von Luckner Speaks at Wed. Assembly Program

NSC students were delighted by the daring exploits told by Count Felix von Luckner at an assembly in the Fine Arts Auditorium Wednesday, Feb. 14.

Count von Luckner related how, at the age of 13, he ran away from home because of his father's determination that he become a lieutenant in the German Navy. After some trouble he finally reached America in 1894, and began to search at once for his ideal, Buffalo Bill Cody. He walked some 1300 miles in 6 weeks to see Buffalo Bill, only to find, upon his arrival in Denver, that that great showman was touring in Germany.

Disappointed, the Count worked at various jobs here in America for some time, and while he was working he also went to boxing school. After some time he traveled back to Australia, where he was acclaimed as the first man to introduce boxing to that country.

After seven years he returned to his native Germany and attended naval school in Lubeck. Upon his appointment as a lieutenant, he promptly returned to see his parents, who had thought him dead for some time.

During World War I, Count von Luckner was given permission to raid Allied ships upon the high seas. He was determined to destroy as much nitrate, which was being brought from Chile, as he could, since nitrate was essential in the making of gun powder. Once he succeeded in running a British Blockade after carefully preparing his ship to appear as a neutral Norwegian vessel. He succeeded in running the blockade only to meet a British cruiser near the south of Iceland. By posing the youngest member of the crew as his wife and by means of other ruses, he also got by the cruiser.

In World War II, Count von Luckner was commissioned as a liaison officers by General Patton. von Luckner also arranged the surrender of Halle to General Terry Allen of Texas. Count von Luckner and Gen. Allen became very close friends, and Gen. Allen gave the Count a pipe. On his journey here from New Orleans, the Count lost this pipe, and his last request before leaving Natchitoches was that it would be returned to him if it is found.

The Count destroyed 25 million dollars worth of ships and supplies of the Allies during the war, and he accomplished this without the loss of a single human life. As a result of this, he is the godfather of several English children.

Demon Tankmen Meet Pensacola Here Tonight

The NSC Aquatic Team, almost back to full strength again, will compete against the powerful squad representing the Pensacola Navy Base, Pensacola, Fla.

The Demons, who lost to Texas A. & M. last Friday night, were badly outnumbered by the Aggies, with seventeen team members at the meet as compared to the five first-stringers who carried most of the load for the purple and white.

Jack Gaston, diving stalwart of the NSC tankmen, is still out of competition due to a badly infected ear. However; Jeff Hennessy has been doing a grand job in the diving department.

The meet tonight promises to be one of the best of the season, so let's all try to go out tonight and back our swimmers. That's at the Natatorium at 7:30 tonight.

Attention, Tennis Players! Contact William Havard immediately. Call 60.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pasqua are shown above immediately following their ewdding. Mrs. Pasqua is the former Joyce Landry.

From The Press Box

Another semester, another Sports Editor, same old headaches, etc. But before passing the aspirins, let's take a look at the Demons and how they fare in GSC competition.

After taking a close one against L. C.'s Wildcats, 67 to 65, last Tuesday night at Pineville, and by virtue of SLI's loss to South-eastern the same night, the Demons have gained another notch in the GSC hoop race. The Purple and White now own a six won, five lost record which is sufficient for a fourth place standing in the conference.

Thursday night, the Demons moved into Mobile, Ala., where they encountered the Badgers of Spring Hill. Last night, the squad was in Hattiesburg, Miss., vying against the Mississippi Southern quint.

The next home game for the Demon five will be Tuesday night when the Purple and White play host to the Lions from South-eastern Louisiana College.

Johnny "Hound" McConathy, NSC's main candidate for All-GSC honors, garnered in 15 more points in the Louisiana College fracas to increase his conference leading total to 437. "Hound's" nearest rival is Mississippi Southern's stalwart, Tom Bishop.

An important factor in the Demons' recent surge is the current showing of Jim Yergler, who has been doing a grand job in taking up the slack when the opposition is busy trying to stop McConathy. Jim tallied 16 points against SLI and 15 in the Louisiana College game.

Faculty Members Attend Ark-La-Tex Chemistry Meet

Professors A. L. Ducournau, Alan H. Crosby, Archie K. Deason and Louis Cusachs of the Chemistry faculty attended a meeting of the Ark-La-Tex section of the American Chemical Society at the Caddo Hotel in Shreveport, Tuesday, February 13. At the meeting were representatives from Centenary and from Stephen Austin Teachers College. Ed C. Greco, Marvin Carter and John Falkner, former NSC students now employed by various industries, also attended.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Dr. Jesse Greenstein, Chief Biochemist and Chief, Section on Biochemistry, U. S. Public Health Service. Dr. Greenstein discussed research he has been doing on the chemical differences between normal and cancerous tissue.

SFLCU News

By CHARLIE JOE PRINCE

In order to familiarize the students with the works and plans of the Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities, a brief history should prove useful.

During the summer of 1948, students representing various Louisiana colleges and universities attended the National Student association convention held in Madison, Wisc. Weather or not it would be beneficial and practical for the Louisiana school to join NSA was the question confronting our delegates.

A great deal of information was gained through this convention but it was decided by the group that joining NSA was out of the question. However our representatives could still see a definite need for a unified student organization throughout the state.

The first step in that direction was made in the fall of 1948 when the representatives again met at Southwestern Louisiana institute to draw up a proposed constitution.

Louisiana State University was the scene of the first meeting later in the year for the purpose of rewriting the constitution. In reality, all of these assemblies were not conventions but rather meetings held to continue the work until an adequate number of representatives from each college could meet. This convention finally took place in the spring of 1949 at Southeastern Louisiana College in Hammond. Each participating school sent delegates, alternates and observers. At this convention the constitution was again amended until it met the approval of the majority.

After nearly a year of consideration had been devoted to the Federation it was submitted to the student bodies of all colleges concerned to be passed or rejected. With the exception of Loyola, the constitution was passed by all colleges and the SFLCU was formed. The convention at Northwestern State College was the first to be held since the student organization came into official being. At that meeting, several changes were made in the organization of the committee system.

The aims of the Federation were weighed against what had been accomplished and what was planned for the coming year. The Federation was put on a firm foundation of concrete ideas. When such a beginning as this, the Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities cannot help but go forward.

In closing this brief history of SFLCU, it is felt that some recognition should be paid to the "fathers" of the Federation. Bob Hollingsworth, Louisiana Tech; Ralph Edwards and J. O. Lancaster, Northwestern; Floyd Lewis, Tulane; Fred Goodrow, Southwestern; Jack Williamson, Centenary; Ray Newman, Louisiana College, and Jack Jones South-eastern.

Now serving as officers of SFLCU are: Luther Moore, Louisiana Tech, president; Cecil Landry, Southeastern, vice-president; Elizabeth Cook, Tulane, Secretary, and Don Jones, Northwestern, treasurer.

Watson Article Is Published

Eugene P. Watson, head of the Library Staff at Northwestern State College, wrote the article entitled "A Look At Our Clubs and Fraternities" which appeared in the February 1 issue of the "Library Journal."

In this article Mr. Watson describes the library clubs and fraternities in general and describes the establishment of Alpha Beta Alpha on Northwestern State College campus which took place May 3, 1950.

Alpha Beta Alpha is the first co-educational undergraduate library science fraternity in the nation.

Music Fraternity Initiates Nine

Gamma Rho, NSC chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national honorary music fraternity, held initiation rites for nine new members, February 4, in the Blue Room of the Fine Arts building.

The new Sinfonians of Gamma Rho chapter are: Max Burns, Joseph Carlucci, David Carson, Gerald Carter, Ted Forte, Wesley Jackson, Dave Lepard, Byron McCain, and Richard Somers.

After an impressive ceremony depicting a scene in the tragic life of Orpheus, the new members and the older brothers trekked down to Lay's Ice Cream Parlor, where a banquet was held in honor of the former.

Old members attending the initiation were: Hank Camp, president of Gamma Rho Chapter; Max Pugh; George Booker; Allen Grant; Hardy Rose; Tommy Latham; Frank Pasqua; John Zenter; Jack Gaston; Burt Boone; Paul Torginson; Sherrod Towns; and Donald Glattly.

Several members of the fraternity attended the Phi Mu Alpha district convention, which was held in Hammond, La., last Saturday with Southeastern Louisiana College's chapter acting as host.

NSC Establishes Libraries for Nursing Students

To provide its students in nursing training with a library of ready reference, Northwestern is establishing libraries in various hospitals in Northern Louisiana.

Miss Olive L. Roberts, associate professor of Library Science is engaged in organizing and setting up such libraries in hospitals at Shreveport, Monroe, and Alexandria in connection with the nursing program on the campus.

Miss Roberts spent three days last week in establishing a library for the home for nurses in Shreveport, and this week will return to arrange a reference library for doctors in the Shreveport Charity Hospital.

Working in conjunction with Miss Graham Price, director of the Department of Nursing, Miss Roberts has also set up libraries for student nurses at the E. A. Conway Memorial hospital in Monroe and the Baptist Hospital in Alexandria.

Society Hears Book Review

Miss Irene Pope of the Northwestern State College library faculty presented a delightfully entertaining book review of "The Peabody Sisters of Salem," by Louise Tharp, at the February meeting of Epsilon Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society held in Coshatta, February 10. Speaking from carefully prepared notes, Miss Pope held the attention of the audience by her incisive comments. Her reading of well-chosen excerpts from this exceptional book was especially well received.

The meeting was held in the charming new home of Mrs. Carrie Carr, and several of the Coshatta members were assisting hostesses. Members from Red River and Natchitoches Parishes were present.

Striking floral arrangements of carnations—accenting the colors red, white, and blue—were used on the mantel and tables in the spacious living rooms, and these colors were repeated in the individual favors accompanying each delicious salad plate served by the hostesses.

At the short business meeting Mrs. Martha Dugdale presided and welcomed three new members into the Society.

March 15 Deadline For Photo Contest

March 15 is the deadline date for college photographers to submit entries in the Sixth Annual Kappa Alpha Mu International Collegiate Photography Contest to be held at Baylor University, Waco, Texas, March 22-24.

Kappa Alpha Mu, national honorary fraternity in photo-journalism, sponsors the contest with the objective of making today's collegiate photographer more conscious of the importance of good, ethical photo-journalism to our society.

Any student enrolled in an accredited college or university is eligible to submit entries. Prints must be 8" x 10" or larger, and must be mounted on standard 16" x 20" photo-mounts. Each photographer may submit a maximum of ten prints.

The picture that is considered best by the prominent news photographers who will judge the show will receive a grand prize. Major prizes will be awarded in five classes: News, Sports, Feature, Pictorial and Industrial. Prizes will be announced later. Last year's grand prize, won by Dean Conger of the University of Wyoming, was a two-year scholarship to the Fred Archer School of Photography, and a copy of John R. Whiting's "Photography Is a Language."

Ten prints in each division will be selected for a traveling exhibit which will appear at colleges, universities and camera clubs throughout the nation. Entry blanks, rules and additional information may be secured by writing: Louie L. Hulme, Department of Journalism, Baylor University, Waco, Texas; or Drury H. Cargill, secretary, Kappa Alpha Mu, 18 Walter Williams Hall, Columbia, Mo.

Jackson Takes Sports Department For Spring Term

Wesley Jackson, Junior Journalism Major from Leesville, Louisiana, has been appointed Sports Editor for the Current Sauce effective beginning with this week's edition of The Current Sauce.

Jackson, a member of Phi Mu Alpha, national professional music fraternity, has also served on the Sauce staff as reporter, feature editor, managing editor, and columnist, formerly the writer of "The Other Half," column designed to keep the student body posted on events in other colleges.

Well experienced in sports writing, Jackson has written and worked as correspondent and official scorer for the Leesville Generals of the now defunct Red River Valley League, and held the same position last year for the Leesville Angels of the Class C Gulf Coast League.

Capably assisting Jackson with sports news are Buster Keaton and Louis Cusachs.

Senate, Council Discuss Student Loan Fund Plan

Primarily to discuss the Student Loan Fund Plan, the Student Senate and the Student Council held a joint meeting Tuesday night.

The two governing bodies came to the agreement that the Executive Treasurer for the Loan Fund

Plan be of the Student Council instead of the Student Senate and the officer be appointed by the president of the Student Body Association. The Senate and Council were also in accordance as to the Executive Treasurer being a male. The plan is now in the hands of a joint committee for rewriting.

The bill submitted by the Senate concerning the Executive Department was discussed, as it was considered incomplete in stating the duties of the various offices. There was also objection to the order of succession of the president of the student body.

Article VI, listing the officers and their duties was considered to have been written to clarify the confusion brought about by the preceding amendment. As the Council has not yet taken action on the bills, the Senate suggested that the Council combine the two resolutions before returning the amendments to the Senate.

Both groups were in agreement concerning amendments about the Student Drama Fund and advisers to the student publications.

AWS to Sponsor Backwards Dance Saturday, March 3

"Girls' tag" will be the special feature of the Associated Women Students' annual Backwards Dance scheduled for next Saturday night in the Student Center, according to President Janette Pace.

Breaking the usual tradition, girls will be allowed to invite their dates, and no male "stags" will be admitted. Women students may attend without escort, however.

Comprising the floor show will be a musical or comedy skit staged by members of each women's dormitory. "Shamrock Swirl" has been selected as the theme of the dance.

Candidates for the king of the dance will be nominated by the women's dormitories next week, and the final vote will be held Thursday. The six "runner-ups" will comprise the king's court. Each man selected will be presented with a suitable corsage.

Sororities Issue Thirty-two Bids Under New Rules

In accordance with the policy of open bidding, adopted by the Panhellenic Council for the spring semester, thirty-two bids from the local sororities have been and accepted.

Under this new system, bids may be issued at any time, without the usual notification of the other sororities. The only prerequisite is the preliminary check on grades with the Office of Dean of Women.

A total of ten members has been added to the roles of Tri-Sigma. They are: Mildred Butte, Mary Ann Cronin, Eddie Jean Elliot, Sunshine Flemming, Bernadine Henderson, Martha James, Billy Joye Payne, Beatrice Rumsey, Helen Thompson and Nelly Whipp.

Six girls accepted bids from Pi Kappa Sigma. They are: Betty Thompson, Mary Jo Turnage, Rose McRight, Lou Frissell, Gerry Perry, and Barbara Bremer.

Delta Sigma Epsilon received five girls into their sorority. They are: Sue Miller, Judy Schnieder, Mildred Wassan, Carolyn Cartwright, and Ray Gremillion.

The six girls who accepted bids to Theta Sigma Upsilon are: Dorothy Corry, Audell Peavy, Jerry Raspberry, Dorothy Thompson, Jerry Ward, and Marcia Wren.

Alpha Sigma Alpha received five new members. They are: Pat Payne, Robbie Morgan, Eerlene Usury, Fay Jordan, and Anette Dily.

11 of Faculty to Attend Ruston Meet Of La. College Conference March 2

While a considerable number more than that will attend, eleven members of the Northwestern State College staff are scheduled to participate actively in the annual meeting of the Louisiana College Conference at Ruston, on March 2 and 3.

Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, chairman of the women's division of health and physical education at Northwestern, who is vice chairman of the Health and Physical Education section, will lead in a group discussion on "What Sports Skill should be required for men and women majoring in Physical Education?"

Mrs. Ruby Duncelman, head of the Home Economics Department, will head the Home Economics Section in a discussion of "Responsibilities of Home Economics Administrators in Following up the White House Conference."

Prof. Alvin Good, of the Sociology Department, will participate in a round-table discussion at the sectioned meeting in Preprofessional Education for Social Work. Topic for the discussion is "Louisiana College and Preprofessional Education for Social Work."

"The Eighteen Century Publisher, His Perils and Profits" is the topic of a talk to be made before the English and Journalism section by Dr. Sarah L. C. Clapp, professor of English. Prof. Mamie Bowman, also of the English Department, is secretary-treasurer of the Section.

Don A. Garr, associate professor of speech, is scheduled to participate in a panel discussion of the question "Is Speech Becoming Over-Specialized," at a meeting of the Speech Section. L. T. Britton, associate professor of education, is to discuss the topic "How Can the Program for Selecting Prospective Teachers Be Improved," at the Education Sectional meeting.

Dr. G. T. Walker, dean of the School of Applied Arts and Sciences, is the secretary-treasurer, of the deans' organization; C. M. Mouser, associate professor of business, is vice-chairman of the Commerce Section; Prof. Eva R. Mouton, of the French Department, is a member of the Resolutions Committee, and Prof. Warren F. Tracy, acting librarian, as secretary-treasurer of the Librarians' organization.

Spring Enrollment Closed at 1396; Enrollment Drop Less Than Expected

Final enrollment figures for the Spring semester at Northwestern State College stood at 1,396 students this week as against 1,453 for the corresponding period a year ago. Otis R. Crew, college registrar, announced this week. Although the total enrollment for the Fall semester of the present school year was 1,571, the shrinkage in student numbers this semester was far less than was anticipated in view of the rather heavy exodus due to mid-year graduation and the withdrawal from school of 101 men students to enter military service before the start of the Spring semester,

Mr. Crew said.

This Spring semester finds 84 new students on campus, of whom 49 are men. Women students outnumber the men students this semester, there being 809 co-eds and 587 men students.

While there are 347 seniors, the freshman class leads all the others in number with 515 students. There are 244 sophomores, 239 juniors, and 51 special students.

By schools, the School of Education, with 774 student majors, ranks first in enrollment. Applied Arts and Sciences is second with 467, and Arts and Sciences third with 155.

First Military Ball Slated Tonight; ROTC Sponsors to Be Honored

The ROTC Unit of Northwestern will hold their first annual Military Ball, Saturday evening, February 24, in the Field House.

A reception in the living room of Varnado Hall will be given shortly before the dance.

Misses JoAnn DeBate, Beth McGuffee, and Pat Bishop will serve as hostesses at the reception and will be honorees at the dance.

When asked how they felt about being chosen sponsors, the girls gave the following comments:

"I am taking this opportunity as a means of thanking the R. O. T. C. for selecting me as their battalion sponsor, a selection which I feel to be an honor," replied JoAnn DeBate.

Beth McGuffee responded by saying, "It is indeed a great honor and privilege to be elected Battery "B" sponsor. I will do my best to fulfill this position, and help in any way I can to make the first year of ROTC a big success for Northwestern."

From Pat Bishop we quote, "Naturally, I consider being sponsor of "A" Battery an honor. I was quite thrilled and pleased at being chosen."

Music for the dance will be provided by the Barksdale Air Force Band of Shreveport, La.

Journalistic Term Stumps Students; Meaning of Trade Word Guessed

This is station D-O-P-E-Y bringing you a campus-wide survey concerning the origin and daffy-nition of "Etaoin, Shrdlu," the term used by Carolyn Fultz to express her feelings over the loss of that erstwhile vehicle, "Useless."

Listed below are a few of the brave souls willing to risk their dignity and guess the meaning of "Etaoin, Shrdlu."

Ben Duhon believes it to be the abbreviation for Supercalifedulestices (next week there will be a column about that word).

JoAnn DeBate thinks it means the same thing as the THING.

Johnny McConathy says it must mean easy come, easy go.

Kayo Gremillion — "Tough stuff."

Mary Lou Hines states, "Since it obviously is not the name of an animal, plant, or mineral, and since the innovation of Einstein's unified field theory, I would, by inert deductive reasoning, say that I have no idea!"

Carolyn McLean — "Something unprintable."

Jack Gaston—"I don't know." (Honest man, that Jack Gaston). Julia McBroom knows positively that it is something taken from the "Feather Merchants," but she knows not what.

Bessie Morgan says that it is some expression peculiar to that language known as Fultz-Latin.

Jack Rogers thinks it is a mistake in the print. (Thanks, pal!)

Beth McGuffee says that sounds like what her roommate, Sara Wadsworth, calls her at times.

Well, there you have. Take your pick and see if you come out on top. As for "Caro" Fultz's explanation, she just grins sheepishly and says, "Welllll . . ."

Beg pardon? Oh, you want to know what "Etaoin Shrdlu" really means? Well, I cannot tell a lie, and "Etaoin Shrdlu" is a trade secret and I cannot tell that, either.

Student Government And You

Where do you stand in student government? Each year, the students of NSC, elect as their Student Body Association officers, members of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department. Some years the elections are hotly contested; other years they are passive.

After the election, those elected take their respective places and begin the ponderous work of directing the activities of the Association, revising the constitution, or interpreting law.

As a corporate body they act (or are supposed to) in the manner they consider most beneficial to the students protest?

All this is unlikely . . . far fetched, we admit. But to coin a phrase, "It could happen." It has happened.

Suppose they don't? Suppose some bad piece of legislation comes from the Senate. Suppose the Honor Court miss-interprets the constitution. Suppose the Executive branch fails to carry out its administrative function. Would you take up your part in student government and whom they represent.

The legislative work done by the 1950-51 student Senate members will be ready for student body approval in the next few weeks.

When they present the proposed amendments to the constitution for approval, their work is done. The rest is up to the members of the Association.

It is as much their responsibility to see that the bills they pass are good as it is the responsibility of the Association officers to put them into practice.

If each bill is carefully read and studied before being voted upon, and if an honest opinion, formed on facts, is expressed with each vote, then the democratic processes of student body government are being properly carried on.

Views of The News

By THOMAS POOLE

Gamblers, Loans, and Politics, this is all we hear as the world goes forward to destruction. While battles are fought and the tension grows, we hear the same stories from Washington. That gamblers are operating on a large national scale throughout the United States, and are paying off high officials to retain freedom of action. That loans from the RFC are being given to people who are favored by the leaders and by people who have pull in the Administration. And as for Politics, it is an American custom to tare down the respect of the people for some of the leaders so that these men will not be a threat to the interest of the party. Then if they stay nice little boys, they can have their jobs and the respect of the people back after the election.

You know the old saying that "It takes a thief to catch a thief." well we have a good example of that in Washington. One committee investigates a group of men of another committee and finds out all the little evil that these men have done, like letting a million dollars disappear or something like that, and then the first committee is put on the spot by another investigation. It is a very vicious circle, but what I am wondering is what happens when we run out of investigating committees.

In the world today there are several important happenings, such as the proposed Big-4 meeting, the Pacific pact between Australia, New Zealand and the U. S., and the Russian-sponsored "World Peace Council." The proposed Big-4 meeting by the U. S. is to combat the propaganda of Russia's that we do not want to settle the world problems in a peaceful way, but want to take over the world. This as a very good idea, if it would work, but from past evidence of the meetings between Russia and the United States it is doomed to failure. For neither the United States or Russia will give in to the other, and with the difference in ideologies they can't come to a compromise.

While they are proposing this meeting each is forming a stronger defense for their countries. This way I pointed out the Pacific Pact being organized by the United States and the "World peace council" that is sponsored by Russia. The Pacific Pact is to be modeled on the North Atlantic Treaty to give us protection in the Pacific and well as in the Atlantic area. As for the "World peace council," there is a possibility that Russia plans to leave the UN and substitute this organization in its place. If this happens the world will be split into two armed camps, and it is technically already. If War comes, there is only one thing to say for the peoples of the world, that is, "God have mercy on their souls."

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

Women? Shouting orders and trying to lead the 10 'til crowds across the street? Well, don't be surprised at anything these days. All the women at Northwestern have recently been converted from followers into leaders, as a result of Dr. Bentley's talk on "You are Leaders" in the Leadership Conference held Wednesday night. She was really tops.

Pine trees, pine trees, pine trees . . . a la beautification at Northwestern. No longer can we tread the familiar cut offs from one slab of concrete to another, but we're barred by very young, and at present, very pitiful pine trees. We wonder—are they worth the extra step?

Hail to all you future politicians Better start getting your handshake in style, and brightening up that smile. Come next month and it'll be time to start filing intentions for Student Body offices and who knows. . .

King Solomon certainly doesn't have a thing on Northwestern. We've got our own little treasure chest, the whereabouts of which I'm not quite sure, but it seems that the diggers are guided by a series of triangles. Very inspired, several safaris have already left from NSC with only one goal in their wee little heads — to find The Triangle. Reports — Mission completed.

KNOTHOLE

By TILLMAN

To those who wonder if NSC has been turned into another high school . . . it's only tournaments, rallies, and meets.

Of all the (few) colleges I have visited, there are none who turn over as many of their facilities and take as much time with the youngsters of the state. They must appreciate it, the way they turn out for speech, basketball, track, music and numerous other meets held on the campus each Spring.

Watch Louisiana and other state papers for pix and a story on "Coach" Prather.

Guess "Hound" is on his way out. Another six-footer, only this one's a girl, has bettered his record. She has 716 points, not including the games played in the annual rally in progress here now. Tough luck, Johnny.

Someone wanted to know if the Sauce would print a letter-to-the-editor, griping about the show situation. As long as it is signed, we'll print it.

That leaves me only 27 days . . . and I move slowly.

Former Wave Visits French Prof.

Visiting G.I.'s in the United States whom she and her late father, then a newspaper publisher, befriended in Belgium during World War II, Miss Claire Lamboray, of Verviers, Belgium, is now in Natchitoches. She is the house guest of Miss Eve Mouton, assistant professor of French at Northwestern State College and former WAVE.

Miss Lamboray already has renewed friendships formed in the war with former members of the U. S. military forces residing in seven states—New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisiana. From here she is to go to Texas, Colorado, California and Oregon before returning to Belgium. Her friendship with the Northwestern State College professor dates back only to last fall when the two young women met as passengers on the French steamship Liberte bound from France to the United States. Miss Mouton had spent the summer in study and travel in Europe.

An event being anticipated by the many students here at Northwestern is the ROTC Military Ball, to be given Saturday evening, February 24, in the Field House. At that time, Miss JoAnn DeBate, battalion sponsor, and Misses Pat Bishop and Beth McGuffee, battery sponsors, will be honored.

Mrs. D. W. Poole, Director of the Wesley Foundation, was treated to a surprise birthday party in the Religious Center, Tuesday evening, February 13.

The group greeted Mrs. Poole with "Happy Birthday to You" and presented her gifts to her. Heart-shaped, rose-bedecked birthday cake and punch were served to those present.

Miss Jerry Jackson, a freshman nursing student from Shreveport, recently became engaged to Jimmy Harper. Jimmy, who also hails from Shreveport, is a student at Tech.

Miss Jean Harper, Assistant Professor of Health and Physical Education, has been dazzling everybody's eyes with that beautiful diamond of hers. It seems the lucky man is Sanford D. Lee of Scottsboro, Alabama.

Nancy Montgomery and Jim Williams, both former students here, are now Mr. and Mrs. Jim is now in the service and Nancy is continuing in nursing school in Shreveport.

We were very sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Ruth Weber's mother, Mrs. Weber, who is house mother at Agnes Morris Dormitory, is staying with her mother for the present time. Mrs. Mae A. Parker, of Natchitoches, is serving ably in her absence.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to Elaine Harris over the loss of her mother, last week. Elaine, a senior home economics major, is from Olla.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Pi Kappa Sigma sorority announced the addition of six new members to their family. On Monday, February 19, Misses Rose McWright, Betty Jean Thompson, Lou Frissell, Barbara Bremer, Mary Jo Turnage and Jerry Perry were formally pledged at six o'clock Monday evening, and afterward the actives extended a hearty welcome to the new members. The group then enjoyed singing Pi Kappa songs.

At a recent meeting, Miss Jean Harper, co-sponsor of Pi Kappa Sigma, answered numerous questions about that great big sparkle on her third finger, left hand, and presented the group with the traditional box of candy which everyone enjoyed.

Plans are now being made for the annual Spring Formal to be given in April. Actives and pledges are busily working on plans for the theme, decorations and entertainment for this festive occasion.

Pat eLone, president, now proudly wears the scholarship ring of the sorority for her outstanding scholastic average during the fall semester. Congratulations, aPt!

Congratulations are also in order for Beth McGuffee, who has been elected sponsor of Battery "B" of the ROTC. We agree with the boys, Beth. They made a grand choice.

The highlight in Tri-Sigma's agenda of events last week was the formal pledging Thursday night of the ten new pledges. They were: Mildred Butte, Mary Ann Cronin, Eddie Jean Elliott, Sunshine Flemming, Bernadine (Bunny) Henderson, Martha James, Billy Joye Payne, Beatrice (Bea) Rumsey, Helen Thompson, and Nelly Whipp.

Ribbon pledging was held early last Sunday afternoon at the sorority house, at which time cookies and coffee or cokes were served.

The Tri-Sigas are looking forward to one of their enjoyable slumber parties in the near future, when the new pledges will be initiated into the ranks of those who can stay up all night and still look as fresh as daisies the next day.

To any visitor of Tri-Sigma members last Tuesday afternoon, it might have seemed that final test week had crept up many months too early, but in reality, it was just that the annual chapter exam was held Tuesday night and, as usual, everyone was doing last minute cramming. With the exam over, we may now turn our attention to the spring events, such as the spring formal, Founder's Day Banquet, and many other small, but still important events.

Which team will win the big Tri-Sigma song contest is the question of the week. Maybe Pud McLean or Betty Martin, the team captains, will know. The object of the contest is for the members to learn well some of those Tri-Sigma songs that we all like, but have been relying on our songbook for the words.

Our fall pledges are studying industriously for their pledge tests which will be held next Friday. It won't be too long before they will be wearing those triangle badges which signify them as full members.

Jeane Oliver, sports director, is busily preparing her basketball team in view of another successful sports season for the Tri-Sigas.

Billy Greer and Ruthie Ellen are our new Panhellenic representatives for this semester. Congratulations, girls!

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

A merry singing session brought another of those Theta Sigma Upsilon cokes parties to a gay close last Tuesday night. The new pop corn popper was given a real try-out and proved to be very successful.

The Theta Sigmas now have claim to six new pledges: Dorothy Corry, Andell Peavy, Jerry Rasberry, Dorothy Thompson, Jenny Ward, and Marcia Wren. Joyce Winn and Jerry Rasberry journeyed up into Arkansas last week-end to try their hands at debating. Nice work, girls.

Plans are under way for Theta Sigma Upsilon's annual Rose Ball, which will be held the last week of March.

Wit and Wisdom

By DENNIS McMULLAN

First, let it be known that this column is not to try to squeeze out "Knothole." While the material presented in Knothole, is of a local nature, the trash in this so-called column will come from all sources. However, both columns will be alike in that neither of them have anything worth while to say.

This pointless melange is concocted from facts, figures, statistics, and strange odities, salted down with pithy peculiarisms, ponderous bishoosh, pungent pastiches, hilarious hieroglyphs, and cockeyed, corny causticities, mixed with as much useless information as possible. And, I might add, boldly stolen from dozens of other publications.

It is my objective to print only accurate facts, concerning all subject matter, in this column. However, due to the results of the 1948 presidential election predictions, I cannot depend on the validity of all of the facts and calculations contributed to me by America's pollsters. As evidence of their inaccuracy, and inconsistency, here is a classic bit of confiction dreamed up in ideal moments and thrown to the "hounds." One pollster says that six million American women will be old maids, while another bright boy says only two and one half million American women will die as old maids. (The outlook is pretty dark either way you look at it, ain't it girls?)

Enough of these silly apologies and accusatoins. Leave us get down to de facts.

It's a Fact:

That Brigham Young, leader of the Mormons, had 19 wives, and lived in a 20 gable house. (Some house!)

That the brain isn't mentioned in the Bible.

That in Miami, Florida, it's against the law to molest an alligator. (Ain't civilization wonderful!)

That 66 percent of the women in the U. S. sleep in nightgowns, see making rag dolls haven't reverted to childhood days. They are making them for an orphanage.

The pledges have certainly proved their worth. They all boast an average above the 2.5 mark for the fall semester.

Start collecting those pennies, girls, because the Theta Sigs will be selling hot hamburgers come Tuesday night.

That the AARD-Vark has the body of a pig, the ears of a mule, the eyes of a cat, a head like a wolf, teeth like a fish, legs like a dog, a tail like a kangaroo, and claws like a tiger. (If it drank like a fish, I'd swear that it is my new girl-friend.)

Character is not truly determined by moral faults or virtues, but by loyalty, tolerance and generosity.

A city code in Savanna, Ga., declares that jazz dancing at a public dance is unlawful and indecent.

One robbery, burglary or theft is committed every half-minute of every hour of every day in the year in these United States.

Many old English estates were held by curious tenures such as presenting a banner annually to the king, carving for the king at annual feasts, holding the stirrups for the king when he mounted a horse, etc. (We have modern methods of ear-banging nowadays.)

Demon Cagers Fall to S. E. Lions; McConathy High Scorer With 26 Pts.

Johnny "Hound" McConathy, NSC's candidate for all GSC honors, scored 26 points against the Lions of Southeastern last Tuesday night as the Demons fell before the Southeasterners by an 80 to 76 score.

With his 26 points, "Hound" became the first player in GSC basketball competition to ever score 500 or more points. Johnny's total, excluding last night's title in Shreveport against the Centenary Gentlemen, is now 516 for the season.

In the Southeastern game, the Lions got off to an early decisive lead in the first few minutes, paced by center "Bill" Boyd, who made several amazing hook shots, scoring 17 points in the first half.

The Demons were never more than two points ahead at any stage of the game, trailing at the half by 43 to 40 margin. However, the last few minutes of the game proved to be very encouraging for the Demon sympathizers, as the Demons tied it up with less than two minutes remaining on the clock.

But, the Demon hopes were short-lived as Barnett, Lion forward put the clincher on for the green and gold with a last minute field goal.

McConathy was high point man of the game with 26, closely followed by Boyd and Barnett of SLC, each with 24.

Best Yet

Big Johnny "Hound" McConathy this season is big in more ways than straight up. He added his fourth GSC scoring record to his collection here this week when he pushed his grand total over the 500 mark. By tallying 26 points against Southeastern, McConathy garnered a total of 517—and that beats the fabulous Claude "Jodie" Stoutamire, a GSC legend himself. With two more games to play for the Northwestern State College Demons this season, "Hound" is almost a cinch for top scoring honors, although several other Gulf Conference hot shots are close on his heels.

National Winners In Chesterfield Contest Listed

New York, February 20.—The names of the national winners in the Chesterfield Mildness Test Photography Contest were re-issued here this week by the Campus Merchandising Bureau, Inc., New York.

Under the rules of the contest, amateur and professional photographers were encouraged to snap pictures of college students taking the now-famous Chesterfield Mildness Test.

The winning photographer for each of the three contest periods were awarded fifty dollars. In most cases, the winning pictures were or will be used in Chesterfield's college advertising, which is being carried by the Current Sauce.

Intramural Notes

Intramural Basketball competition will begin March 5. Deadline for entries is March 3.

Don't forget the Free Throw contest which will be held in conjunction with the Intramural Basketball games. Entries for Free Throw are due the same time as Intramural Basketball entries.

The Cross-Country Run will take place Friday, February 23 during the Northwest Louisiana Basketball Tournament.

The run will start at 3:30 p.m. during an intermission between the Friday afternoon games.

Popular response to the contest was attested to by intense participation which included entries from nearly every major college in the country.

Governor Will Not Back Dodd

Governor Earl K. Long said flatly in New Orleans Wednesday that he will not support Lt. Gov. William Dodd for governor in next year's election. He said that he has "been telling him that for a year."

Natchitoches Parish friends of Dodd, made while he was attending old Louisiana State Normal College in Natchitoches, consider

Officials for Northwest Rally Named; NSC Students, Alumni Participate

Approved by the seeding committee made up of coaches and principals of the participating high schools, the list of officials for the Northwest Louisiana Basketball Rally to be held on the Northwestern State College campus Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 22, 23 and 24, was announced this week by Coach H. H. Turpin, Rally director.

Approximately 90 high school teams will be on hand to participate in the rally, which is to be held in four gymnasiums here

—the men's gym of NSC, the women's gym of NSC, the Natchitoches High and the St. Mary's High School gyms. The tournament is held here each year to determine the championship teams of Northwest Louisiana, and the winners in this event then proceed to the State tournaments.

All the officials for this week's rally are nationally rated and are experienced. For the boys' section there are six officials who are now enrolled as students at Northwestern and two off-campus professionals. Students who will serve as officials are M. A. Benson, of Meridian, Miss.; Tommy Thompson, of Shreveport; DeWitt Patton, of Bossier City; James LaRue, of Zwolle; Elzer Marx, of Menasha, Wis.; and Kermie Valentine, of Mitchell. The two outside officials, who are well known in college basketball circles throughout Louisiana, are Tom Elkins and Ray Scott, both of Natchitoches.

All six of the officials to work the girls' games in the rally are nationally rated officials. They include Mrs. Coleen Mann, a NSC graduate of Ouachita Parish High School in Monroe; Mrs. Tommy Thomas, a NSC graduate, of the Winnfield Recreation Department; Mrs. Barbara Nolan, of Baton Rouge; Mrs. Jeannette Williamson, of Minden High School; Miss Dolores Bacaresse and Miss Glenna Williams, both of the Health and Physical Education Department at Northwestern. All are Northwestern graduates except Mrs. Nolan, a former NSC student now enrolled in Louisiana State University.

Northwest Louisiana championships to be decided in the rally are for Class A schools for both boys and girls; Class B schools for both boys and girls; and Class C schools for both boys and girls.

Nine Home-Ec Grads Placed

The nine graduates in home economics from Northwestern State College in the January class are now busily engaged in the fields for which they were preparing at the college, according to an announcement from Mrs. Ruby Duncelman, Head of the Department.

Four of the graduates are teaching: Verna Faye Fortenberry, Merryville High School; Peggy Matheson, 5th Ward High School, Avoyelles Parish; Marguerite Monks Pickering, Logansport High School; and Amy Lou Smith, Delhi High School.

Three graduates are engaged in homemaking, one of the great careers: Mrs. Ann Rutledge Ducco, Coushatta; Mrs. Jean Atkinson Marshall, Forest Hill; and Mrs. Lorene Watts Williams, Natchitoches.

The field of home economics is now much broader than homemaking and teacher training, and two of the graduates are now working in other areas: Miss Janice Brouillette of Baton Rouge is a trainee in home demonstration work in Coushatta, and Miss Louise M. Hanchey of Lake Charles is doing home service work for the United Gas Corporation in Lake Charles.

These graduates were the first who had the privilege of completing their work in the new home economics building completed in the summer of 1950. The building, equipment, and furnishings were designed to provide the best physical facilities for a complete educational program in all phases of home economics and family life.

Military Service, Graduation Leave 9 Of '50 Lettermen for Spring Football

Graduation and military service have left Coach H. H. Turpin but nine of the 1950 football letter men to report for spring training at Northwestern State College. Although 32 players of last season were awarded varsity letters, 15 of them already are in the military service, four were graduated at mid-year and five others will graduate in June.

The nine Demons who have reported for spring training include Bobby Davis, a junior and veteran backfield man who has won three letters, of Shreveport; Jack Moore, sophomore back, a two-letter man, of Eunice; M. D. Ray, freshman back, of Haynesville; Junior Turner, two-letter sophomore back, of Springhill; Joe Lancaster, one-letter sophomore back, of Ferriday; Johnny Haynes, two-letter sophomore end, of Haynesville; Geo. Pharis, two-letter junior end, of Pineville; W. B. Calvert, two-letter sophomore end, of Shreveport, and Sid Morrell, two-letter junior lineman, also of Shreveport.

The fifteen Demons who have entered the military service since they were awarded varsity letters include Bobby McHalfey, of Bossier, who played in the backfield his freshman year and who is now in the Air Force; J. R. Aikins, of Haynesville, a junior and three-letter winner who played center for the Demons, who is now in the U. S. Navy; Bobby Smith of Homer, also a junior and three-letter lineman, who is now in the Air Force; Harold Tanner, also of Homer, a sophomore and two-letter backfield man, who is in the Air Force.

Also, Billy Walker, of Shreveport, a one-letter man who played center his freshman year, who is now in the Air Force; Eldred Harp, of Bastrop, who won a letter last year as a backfield man, who is now with the Parish Co-ops; Johnnie Emmons, of Mansfield, a three-letter junior backfield player, now with the Air Force; Tyrus Sibley, of Nederland, Texas, a one-letter sophomore guard, now in the U. S. Navy; Harry Creech, of Bossier City, who completed the requirements for graduation at midyear and who won his varsity letter as a guard last fall, now with the Air Force; Huey Thomas, of Haynesville, former junior tackle and three-letter winner, now with the Air Force; Merrick Young, of Eunice, two-letter junior end, now with the Air Force; Mac Carter, of Baton Rouge, a junior and three-letter lineman, now with the Air Force; James Beck, three-letter backfield junior, now with the Air Force; Don Nation, a freshman of Minden, who won his letter last fall as backfield man, now with U. S. Navy, and J. L. Hooper, a sophomore of Baton Rouge, who won his first letter last fall as a center, now with the U. S. Coast Guard.

Those, in addition to Creech, who won football letters last fall and were graduated at mid-year, include Harold Harlan, of Jonesboro, a two-letter lineman; Steve Cole, of Minden, veteran end and winner of three varsity letters; Don Danos, of Raceland, four-letter veteran lineman.

Veteran Demon football players who will be lost to the team through graduation in June are: Lloyd Danos, also of Raceland, who won two letters as a lineman; Sam Harper, of Minden two-letter lineman; Jack Huckaby, of Hall Summit, four-letter lineman; Buster Keaton, of Winnfield, two-letter lineman, and Arthur Lancaster, of Ferriday, a three-letter backfield man.

Demons Play Next to Last Tilt; Game Slated for Wednesday Here

The NSC basketball five ventured to Shreveport last night to play the Centenary Gentlemen in an attempt to avenge an early season defeat at the hands of the Gents.

This game is next to the last that the Demons will play this season, the next game being here next Wednesday night against the quintet from Mississippi Southern in a make-up game of the previously scheduled February 2 tilt which was postponed because of inclement weather conditions.

Both of these games are important to the Demons, especially to Johnny McConathy, Demon center, currently leading the GSC in scoring with 516 points, not including the Centenary game last night.

McConathy will have to give a good performance in each of these games in order to stay ahead of Southern's Tom Bishop, second high point man in the conference, who at present is not within striking distance of McConathy, but has at least three more games left to play than does McConathy.

NSC Establishes Libraries for Nursing Students

To provide its students in nursing training with a library of ready reference, Northwestern is establishing libraries in various hospitals in Northern Louisiana.

Miss Olive L. Roberts, associate professor of Library Science is engaged in organizing and setting up such libraries in hospitals at Shreveport, Monroe, and Alexandria in connection with the nursing program on the campus.

Miss Roberts spent three days last week in establishing a library for the home for nurses in Shreveport, and this week will return to arrange a reference library for doctors in the Shreveport Charity Hospital.

Working in conjunction with Miss Graham Price, director of the Department of Nursing, Miss Roberts has also set up libraries for student nurses at the E. A. Conway Memorial hospital in Monroe and the Baptist Hospital in Alexandria.

Combustible Roofs

The roof covering of your house is one of its vulnerable points. The material with which it is covered, the manner of its application and its maintenance will affect its fire resistant qualities. Where roofs are wood, provide spark arresters on chimneys, wet down wooden shingles in hot dry weather or when there is danger of sparks from nearby fires. Remove accumulations of leaves and litter from gutters and valleys. Reroof before old wooden shingles deteriorate. Many cities require fire retardant roofs by law.

Natchitoches High Students Win FBLA Award at Convention

Jo Ann Prestridge elected state vice-president

At the third annual convention of the "Future Business Leaders of America" held in Lafayette on February 9 and 10, the Natchitoches chapter won the Gladys Peck Cup for the second consecutive year. The cup is awarded each year to the chapter doing the most outstanding work. This year the award was given for the best scrapbook. The local chapter presented a book which showed the progress of the club since it was organized on February 14, 1947—five years ago.

Jo Ann Prestridge, Natchitoches High School junior, was elected state vice-president at the two day meet. Jack Simpson, senior student at NHS, was president for the past year.

Natchitoches people appearing on the state program, held on the campus of Southwestern Louisiana Institute, included Mrs. Eunice Kennedy, sponsor of the local club, Jack Simpson, outgoing president, and Jo Ann Prestridge. Romaine Russell and Jeanette Methvin acted as delegates to the convention. Miss Marjorie Rachal of Gorum—now teaching in Elm Grove—also appeared on the program.

Those attending from Natchitoches were Patsy Payne, Yvonne Welch, Betty Jean Tolar, Nelwyn Potter, Margaret Townsend, Romaine Russell, Virginia Deason, Jeanette Methvin, Kenneth Wailes, Jo Ann Chambers, Stanley Knotts, Bea Adams, Christelle Wailes, Betty Jean Sibley, Jeanette Pace, Jo Ann Prestridge, Sylvan Sibley, Jack Simpson, Wayne Dew, Charlotte Cox, Betty Lou Ainsworth, Mary Louise McBride, and Miss Marion Lindsay and Mrs. Eunice Kennedy, teachers in Natchitoches High School.

Guest Speaker

Mr. J. Luther Jordan of Mansfield who will be guest speaker at the Brotherhood supper meeting to be held at Westside Baptist Church on Saturday evening, February 24, at 7 p.m. Mr. Jordan, an outstanding layman, has been very active in state Baptist work. His talk will be most helpful and inspiring. Rev. Ernest Lilley, pastor of Westside Baptist Church will introduce the guest speaker.

High School Debate Trophies Mailed This Week

Four different trophies went out from Northwestern State College this week to Byrd High School of Shreveport which took the lion's share of laurels in the fourteenth annual high school speech tournament held here Feb. 9 and 10. In addition to the prized sweepstakes trophy for topping class A and AA schools in debating, Byrd High received a trophy as the school winning the largest number of debates in the senior boys' division; a similar trophy for the senior girls' division, and also one for leading the junior boys' division.

Twelve Byrd High school contestants also won recognition in the individual events, taking one first place, five second places, and six third places.

Individual winners from Byrd High were:

Poetry reading (boys), Billy Futrell, second; (girls), Barbara Robinette, second.

Extemporaneous speaking (boys), Holly Mitchell, first; Bob Saldich, second; Edwin Blewer, third; (girls): Val Schoeder, third.

Interpretative reading (serious) for girls: Barbara Robinette, third.

Interpretative reading (humorous), for boys: Bob Kostello tied with Reuben Roy, Natchitoches, for third place; for girls, Marianna McClendon, second.

Radio (boys), Ed Smith, third; (girls): Val Schoeder, third.

Oratory (boys), John Bahcall, second.

While the school trophies ordinarily are presented at the final convocation period of the tournament this year they were delayed in arriving because of the railroad strike, William S. Smith, tournament director and assistant professor of speech at the college, explained.

Sixteen Undergo Phi Kappa Nu Frat Initiation Today and Tomorrow

Sixteen names will be added to the list of members of Phi Kappa Nu, campus social fraternity, after this weekend, when the men will undergo the three-phase initiation ceremony held each semester by the organization.

The first, or public, phase of the initiation will begin this morning when the pledges will appear in outlandish garbs and the beards they have been cultivating for two weeks.

Highlighting the thrice-annual initiation festivities will be the chalk-race, in which pledges to the fraternity are required to draw a chalk line from the front of the field house, down the street, to the intersection just off the campus.

The second phase of the initiation will begin Sunday morning at 1:00 a.m., just after the military ball.

Sunday afternoon the men will be formally initiated into the fraternity.

Pledges undergoing the initiation for Phi Kappa Nu today are O. J. Gremillion, Ronald Quinn, Mike Bellipanni, Joe Barkate, Johnny, Marmalidas, Charles Ertell, Pat Todd, Jimmy Bob Key, Sonny Mercer, Don Wineman, Gilbert McMurray, J. P. Johnston, John Hicks, Stewart Carrington, Henry A. Berry Jr., and Billy Boyette.

Bentley Speaks At AWS Meet Here Wednesday

Dr. Imogene Bentley, well-known North Texas State College Dean of Women and eminent educator, climaxed the Associated Women Students Leadership Conference Wednesday, February 21 at 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium, when she addressed the women students and faculty members.

After a welcoming speech by Janette Pace, president of the AWS, she was introduced by Mrs. Perle David, acting Dean of Women of Northwestern State College. Giving an inspiring and humorous speech entitled "You Are Leaders," Dr. Bentley pointed out the important places the women of the United States hold today.

In her talk she brought out the question, "How can we be leaders?" Defining a leader as a person with very special influence on others, she said he must be tactful, kind, and tolerant. She stated that the quality of leadership is either a gift, a science, or an art, and that above all, a person must have faith in himself as well as others.

To become a leader, Dr. Bentley pointed out, a person must possess a genuine sense of humor, including the ability to laugh when the joke is on himself. Her talk, rich in humor, was thoroughly enjoyed by the attentive audience.

A skit representing the theme of the conference was presented. Written by Louisiana Harris and Dollie Smith and directed by Julie McBroom, it was entitled "Lux Femina Facti" or "A Woman Was the Leader of the Deed." A trio composed of Carolyn Fultz, Carolyn McLean and Beryl Deloach sang the musical selection, "There Are Such Things."

Immediately following the close of the conference a tea was held at Varnado Hall to give the women students an opportunity to meet and talk with the prominent dean.

Vet Couple Make Straight A Grades

L. Earl Nunley, war veteran and senior at Northwestern hasn't a thing on his wife, Mrs. Sibyl Nunley, also a senior when it comes to scholarship. Both made straight "A" grades in all their college courses last semester.

In recognition of their high marks, Mr. and Mrs. Nunley each received this week a letter of commendation from the college president, H. Lee Prather, and also one from the dean of their respective schools.

A graduate of Logansport High School, Mr. Nunley made 19 hours of "A" in all his college courses last semester. He is majoring in mathematics in the School of Education.

Mrs. Nunley, who is a graduate of Castor High School, came through the semester with all A's in the six hours of work she was carrying. Specializing in Medical technology in the school of Arts and Sciences, she took less work than her husband because of her extracurricular responsibility in the home. The Nunleys have one child.

The honor roll lists, just announced by the deans of the three schools here, contain the names of 242 students whose scholastic average for last semester was "B" or better. The School of Education led in the number of honor students with 167, the School of Arts and Sciences had 48, and the School of Applied Arts and Sciences, 27. Each of the students received a letter of congratulations from his dean.

100 Attend Career Day Program Here

Approximately 100 high school senior girls from the 14 high schools in Natchitoches parish are attending the Senior Careers Day program planned especially for them on the Northwestern campus last Thursday.

Following registration in the Little Theatre in the Fine Arts Building at 9 a. m. there was a series of talks by representatives of various departments of the college. These talks emphasized various fields of training for future careers that the college has to offer young women.

These talks were followed by a charge of the Speech, Music and Physical Education Departments. The program was conducted in time for a short departmental meeting and was climaxed by a luncheon at 1 p. m., in the college cafeteria.

The day's program was sponsored jointly by the college and the parish vocational teachers organization, of which Mrs. Mary Love, teacher of Home Economics at Natchitoches High School, is president.

Beautification Committee Program Launched After Freeze Kills Plants

To replace losses of tender trees and shrubs that were winter killed during the unprecedented-cold spell early in February, the beautification committee for Northwestern has launched an intensive planting program on the campus.

A survey by Prof. Harrison J. Young, college agronomist and chairman of the beautification committee, revealed that extensive damage amounting to several hundred dollars was done to rare flowering trees and shrubs on the campus.

The hardest hit of these, he said, were the pyracanthas, camellias, and azaleas. Many of these were killed outright by the freeze, he said, and others were damaged greatly.

Noting that relatively few native hardwood and softwood species of trees were damaged, the college beautification committee arranged for the immediate planting of many slash and long leaf pine, oak, dogwood, French mulberry, and wild plum trees. A considerable number of native azaleas and wild jasmine shrubs are also being planted for this spring.

In keeping with the beautification committee's program to utilize as much as possible attractive native trees and shrubs, some 500 of these have been transplanted to the campus since 1950, Mr. Young said.

King and Court to Be Presented At Annual AWS Backward Dance

Name Band Plans Near Completion; Three Available

The thought of obtaining a name-band for the annual spring formal dance is not such a far-fetched idea as it used to be, according to Luke Petrovich, president of the student body.

Three name-organizations; Ray McKinley, Dean Hudson, and Harold McIntyre, have been contacted, according to Petrovich. The one that plays the dance will be determined by the available dates and the price.

The student body president stated that over one thousand dollars has been raised and placed into the student agency fund. Though all of this money will not be available, to prevent a complete drainage of student body funds, much of it can be used to defray the expenses of the band, he stated.

A tentative plan for raising the necessary money is to present a one-hour concert in the Fine Arts auditorium, open to all townspeople, and a three-hour dance.

Pi Omega Pi Initiates 8 Pledges

Pi Omega Pi held its pledging ceremony of February 22, and initiation was held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 28. The eight pledges, Sammie Banks, Ann Bollen, Barbara West, J. D. Caldwell, Don Jones, Melvin Luse, William McGraw, and Virgin Weick, are now officially members of Pi Omega Pi.

A short business meeting was held after initiation, in which the annual fish fry was discussed.

The next meeting was set for March 14 at 6:00 p. m.

Climaxing the Associated Women Students' "Backward Dance," scheduled from 9 to 12 o'clock tonight in the Student Center, will be the presentation of the king and his court.

Nominated by members of the women's dormitories, the candidates were voted upon Thursday night. The holder of the highest number of votes will be named king and his six runners-up will comprise his court.

The nominees voted upon are as follows: Bert Babcock, "Tyke" Babcock, Chuck Castaing, Bobby Davis, Houston Davis, Gilbert Derouen, K. O. Gremillion, Jimmy Gremillion, Hershel McConathy, Johnny McConathy, Jack Moore, Bill Smith, Don Wineman, and Ted Forte.

Winners will be presented during the floor show, at which time each will be awarded with a "suitable" corsage.

An annual event, the Backwards Dance, will feature "girls' tag." No male stags will be admitted, although women students may attend without dates.

In addition to the presentation of the king and his court, the floor show will include skits put on by each of the women's dormitories.

Play Casting Slated for Mon., Tues., Wed.

Try-outs for parts in the spring semester play, according to Don Carr, speech department, will be held at 6:30 on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights of next week.

"Oh! Susanna," a three-act musical comedy based on the life of Stephen Foster was first produced at the Pasadena Playhouse in 1947.

The play, requiring a very large cast of singers, dancers, actors, musicians, and others, will be produced on April 20 and 21. It will be produced under the direction of Sherrod Towns, of the music department.

Harper, of the dance workshop; and Don Carr, of the speech department.

Yancy to Manage Student Cafe

Mrs. Fred Yancy, Jr. is the new manager of the Student Center Cafe. Mrs. Yancy has been a member of the Cafe staff for some time.

Her motto for the management of the Cafe is "Service to the Students." Mrs. Yancy has expressed her willingness to help the students in any way that she possibly can. Her services will be available for help in planning, preparing and serving banquets, luncheons or other types of entertainment calling for food.

Your Duty As A Louisiana Student

Never before in the history of Louisiana Education have the students in our colleges and universities had the opportunity to speak out in favor of the kind of education they want and feel they deserve as they have today. This milestone along our road to democratic education has been reached through the united efforts of student leaders who have endeavored to develop among students a greater degree of participation and interest in their educational process, student government, and student body activities.

By promoting projects and services in this area, an unlimited source of dynamism is added to the educational process as generation after generation of students contribute new and more contemporary thoughts. If we are to preserve and extend these conditions indispensable to the full achievement of educational objectives, we must all exert every effort to support our student government.

A concrete example of an instance in which intensive interest in Student government will greatly benefit not only student government at Northwestern, but also at colleges throughout the state is the forthcoming spring convention of The Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities. Since its advent in 1948, the Federation has made huge steps in the advancement and development of the consolidation of Louisiana student activities.

SFLCU is a student organization, founded, developed, and maintained by students. It is of the utmost importance that students take an active part in the Federation since, like any co-operative organization its return value will be no greater than the value of the work invested in it.

The convention, slated for the latter part of March on the campus of Louisiana Tech, is no different. Conscientious delegates and observers are needed to attend the Federation meet. Without active interest and serious participation neither the convention nor the Federation will serve its purpose.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Well, I guess friends don't count for nothin'. Here I been waiting for you to send me a Sauce and . . . no Sauce!

Finally I come down there to get one and the first thing I see is this "Half-Wit and Wisdom" column by that McMullan boy. What I want to know—is he making a career out of NSC? He's still there, huh? His column really stands out—tell him that—no further comment.

And "Views of the News" by this poor man Jimmy Johnson what's his name—Poole? At least I can understand what Poole says.

But those ads! What do Jones and Freeze do—dream 'em up? They're almost as good as mine wuz!

Keep up the good work, Chuck, and if you're not going to send the Sauce, drop me a card and let me know!

Views of The News

By THOMAS POOLE

Science tells us that fear is a normal reaction, but it isn't for the people of the United States.

From the beginning of our nation we have not shown fear of another country; in fact this has been one of our most costly errors. We have always considered people of another country to be inferior to us, and felt we could defeat them in a short time. For instance Japan; we just knew that the Japanese would never attack us, and that if they did we could defeat them in a few weeks.

But today it is a different story. The people of the United States are showing fear of a war with Russia. This fear has influenced the thinking of most of the leaders in the Government, which in turn has influenced the foreign policy to a great degree.

We decide on one way of action this week and another way next week. This is very grave to us as a nation, for our policy must be consistent if we expect to retain our allies. If we do not present a solid front to communism as a nation, how do we expect to keep the free nations who depend upon us, in a solid, united action.

The new law which keeps a president from holding office for more than two terms can mean an important change in our trend of thinking along governmental lines. It may mean that we are reviving the states rights idea of government (in fact one columnist stated this very thing in a recent editorial) but I doubt it. The new law keeps us from having an officer develop into a dictator, and turn our government into an approving body.

It doesn't give back the rights that states once had (and I doubt that it ever will) for the things taken were considered to be important to the national government, else the people, through their representatives, would have objected. So therefore, do not let our southern ambitions give us foolish hopes. As you know the old saying goes, "possession is tenths the law."

Meeting the gang to discuss a quiz—a date with the campus queen—or just killing time between classes—Brooks Student Store at Stillwater, Oklahoma is one of the favorite gathering spots for students at Oklahoma A & M College. At Brooks Student Store, as in college campus haunts everywhere, a frosty bottle of Coca-Cola is always on hand for the pause that refreshes—Coke belongs.

The military ball was a ground success in the opinion of those who attended. The field house was attractively decorated, and enjoyable dance music was presented by the Barksdale Band.

The current comment flying around the campus goes like this: "There is simply nothing like being a freshman during rally time!" Most of the freshman girls dorms were well filled with visiting basketball girls last weekend. Even though the students did fuss a bit, for the most part they enjoyed playing hostesses to their visitors.

It takes mighty long legs to keep up with the Euthenics Club nowadays. Last Sunday afternoon, a group of them visited Melrose and were fascinated by the romantic history of the place. On Tuesday afternoon, an even larger group of Home Economics and Nursing students attended a demonstration on Frozen Foods, given at the Country Club. Many of the Northwestern girls were quite lucky in winning the door prizes. In fact, they carried home everything from a sack of flour and a loaf of frozen bread to a complete meal of pork chops, yams, hot rolls, and such. Can't say these girls aren't lucky.

All the girls in Agnes Morris dormitory, as well as her numerous friends, are very glad to see Mrs. Ruth Weber, back on the campus. Her mother, whom she visited, was very ill, but is improved somewhat now.

It's very discouraging this week to find that there is no love, courtship, or marriage going on around the Northwestern campus. Spring must not be affecting people in the usual way. Maybe the busy little students have decided to stop such childish nonsense and settle down to the much more enjoyable school work!

Plans are now being made for the Founder's Day Banquet in April, and the Sorority Formal which will be May 5.

Next week the nominating committee will announce the candidates for next year's officers. They will take over their duties in April.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Pledging ceremonies took place again Tuesday night with Mildred Wassan and Judy Schneider becoming part of the sorority.

After much thought and discussion, the theme for the spring formal was voted on. Definite plans can really be put under way now.

Janell Watson was elected treasurer of the pledges Tuesday to fill the office the rest of the semester.

Already thought is being put into nominations for officers for the coming year. It adds another item to the long list of things to do for the busy spring semester.

Flowers to JoAnn Debate for being chosen one of the sponsors of the ROTC unit. The sponsors were formally introduced at the first annual Military Ball last Saturday night.

A graduating senior, now an alum, that DSE is really proud of is Jean Bower who was valedictorian of her class with a 2.62 average.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Last Wednesday afternoon the ever-busy Pi Kaps defeated Co-op game. The final score was 27-15. How could Pi Kap help but win with Sarah Cook, Betty Roberts, Rita Doughty, Beth McGuffee, Dee Dee Barmore, Edith Tarver, Bobby Platte, Nelda Madden and Marilyn Snoddy running up the score!

Plans are being made for the annual formal dance to be given in the middle of April. This promises to be a lovely event and more about plans will appear at a later date.

All the little pledges are looking forward to the initiation to be held on the 17th of March. If you see several girls with their noses in pledge books, you'll understand that their test is coming up soon and the usual last minute cramming is taking place.

The Pi Kaps are glad to know that Miss Jean Harper, co-sponsor of our sorority is now enjoy-

Demons Down Miss. Southern 80-73 Here in Final Game of Season

The NSC Demon five helped to ruin all chances for a tie in GSC competition for first place between Spring Hill and Mississippi Southern Wednesday by defeating Southern, 80 to 73, in a hard fought game.

The Demons were paced by GSC high point man, Johnny McConathy, who scored thirty-one more points raising his season's total to 562. McConathy has a chance to raise his total when the Demons participate in the Louisiana NAIB tournament in Hammond next Monday and Tuesday.

Tom Bishop, Southern forward and second high point man in the GSC, led his team with 24 points, closely followed by Jack Gallagher with 23.

The Demons were never headed or tied by the Mississippians, who defeated the NSC five earlier this month at Hattiesburg.

Demon Football Schedule Outlined

There are nine games on the Demon schedule for next year. They are:

- September 22 — Central Oklahoma State—Natchitoches
- September 29 — Lamar Tech—Natchitoches
- October 6—McNeese State College—Lake Charles
- October 13—Louisiana College—Alexandria
- October 20—Louisiana Tech—Shreveport
- October 27 — Southeastern—Natchitoches
- November 3—Mississippi Southern—Hattiesburg
- November 10—Alabama State Teachers—Natchitoches
- November 17 — Southwestern—Lafayette.

Demon Footballers Enter Third Week; 27 Lettermen Lost from Last Year

The Northwestern State College Demons entered their third week of spring football here Monday with emphasis being placed on the development of freshman linemen. The Demons have only six linemen who saw action last year. These consist of four ends, one tackle, and one center.

The Demons lost 27 out of the 32 lettermen of last year's squad, eight by graduation and 19 to the armed forces.

The squad this spring is as follows: Ends: W. B. Calvert of Shreveport, George Pharis of Pineville, Harry Anderson of Tallulah, Jack Rogers of Springhill, Bob Weaver of Jonesboro, Dick Methvin of Natchitoches, James Carson of Mansfield, and Charles Eyer of Winnfield.

Tackles: Johnny Haynes of Haynesville, Sid Morrell of Shreveport, A. J. Telotta and John Motty of Abbeville; Guards: Maurice Thompson of Colfax, L. Perkins of DeRidder, J. M. Couch of Homer, Ellace Bruce of Vivian, M. K. Woolbert of Shreveport, Rex LeBlanc of Abbeville, and Alan Langridge of Shreveport; Centers: Jerry Epperson of Baker, Brian Hanchey of DeRidder, Jack Moore of Eunice, and Dudley Downing of Baker.

The backs include Leon Fuller of Delhi, Donald Wineman of Shreveport, John Ropp of Natchitoches, George Bailey of Forest Hill, Don Purser of Natchitoches, Harvey Chauvin of Raceland, Thomas Broussard of Abbeville, Johnny Buck of Kinder, Bruce Broussard of Abbeville, John Walcott of Shreveport, Ralph Ezelle of Shreveport, M. D. Best yet in Gulf States Conference basketball is Johnny "Hound" McConathy, who scored 562 points for the season. He tallied 31 against Mississippi Southern here Wednesday night, in the final game of the season which the Demons won, 80-74.

McConathy is almost a cinch for top scoring honors for the season. He has set three individual scoring records during regular play this year. As the Demons downed Centenary, 54-51, in Shreveport Friday night, "Hound" racked 14 points to make his total then 531.

Chiefs to Play Pleasant Hill

The Natchitoches V. F. W. Chiefs will engage a hustling Pleasant Hill quintet on the Northwestern Hardwood here on Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m.

Defending champions of the Southern Amateur Athletic Union, the Chiefs will use proceeds from this game to finance their trip to the SAAU tournament on March 8-11.

Former NSC stars Ocie Ritchie, Claude Stoutamire, Bernard Waggoner, and Buddy Bates will play for the Chiefs.

Bossier, Pelican and Martin Cop Nowthwest Rally Here Last Week

The three day Northwest District Basketball Rally which was held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, proved to be easy pickin' for three of the classiest teams participating.

Bossier City, second in last year's District Tourney, came through with a resounding victory over the Red Devils of Natchitoches High to cop the honors in the Class A bracket. Unfortunately, the Bearcats will not be able to defend their district title next year as Bossier will be raised from Class A to Class AA for the '51-'52 season.

The speedy quintet from Martin, also second in last year's competition here, defeated the Coushatta Choctaws to take the Class B title for 1951.

In Class C competition, Pelican High School's five walked away with the title by trouncing the Robeline Bulldogs.

In the consolation tilts, Many's Tigers took third place by victimizing Winnfield's Tigers. Many was the defending champion in the Class A bracket.

Marthaville, last year's Class B champs, walked off the court with a victory over Rosepine under their belts to take third place in Class B.

A speedy forward named Jack Bice paced his team as the Calvin High School Class C entrants defeated the quintet from Saline in the consolation tilt for the Class C division.

Of last year's champions, only the speedy Class C titleholders for both District and State, Florien High School, failed to qualify for this season's State Tournament. Florien, heavily ridden by graduation losses, was defeated in the first round competition by Belcher High School despite showing flashes of similarity to last year's squad.

Many, last year's Class A triumphant, were defeated in the semi-finals by Natchitoches' Red Devils, marking the second time this year the Tigers have fallen to the NHS squad.

In the Class B Bracket, "conglomeration" was the word most descriptive of the results. Coushatta, last year's third place team, defeated Marthaville, '50 champs, only to be beaten in the finals by Martin, last year's second place club.

Just as simple as dividing six apples between seven people!

Thirty-seven Colleges Slated to Attend Annual Debate Tournament Mar. 9-10

Thirty-seven colleges, including nine in Louisiana, are expected to send their key individual speakers and debaters to Northwestern State College, March 9-10, to participate in the 16th annual Louisiana speech tournament here, William S. Smith, the tournament director, announced this week.

An invitational affair, the tournament will bring both college men and women students from eight states here, Mr. Smith said. Fifty-four colleges were invited to participate. Of the colleges expected to attend, Texas leads with 13, Oklahoma has five, Arkansas four, and Alabama, three. Other states with at least one college entered includes Missouri, Mississippi, and New Mexico.

Besides representative from the host school, Northwestern State College, Louisiana institutions of higher learning to participate in the tournament include Centenary College at Shreveport, Louisiana Polytechnical Institute at Ruston, Northwestern State College at Monroe, Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, Mc-Neese College at Lake Charles, Louisiana College at Pineville, Southwestern Louisiana Institute at Lafayette, and Southeastern State College at Hammond.

Individual evens for both men and women will include extemporaneous speaking, oratory, poetry reading, and radio speaking. Men and women will compete against one another, however, in the after-dinner speaking contest.

The debate phase of the tournament will be conducted in four divisions; senior men and senior women, and junior women. Besides individual and team awards, a sweepstakes trophy will be presented to the college that accumulates the most points in all events of the tourney.

Senate Minutes

The meeting of the Student Senate was called to order Feb. 26 by the president.

Home Ec. Students Learn Practical Food Preparation

Local homemakers, including wives of college students, are eager to learn various ways to serve adequate meals and stretch the food dollar. The large number of inquiries concerning the night course in food preparation to be offered this spring by the Home Economics Department of Northwestern State College indicates wide interest in the subject.

The first meeting of the class will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 13, in the Home Economics Building, Mrs. Ruby Dunkelman, head of the Home Economics Department, announced today. The class is to be taught by Mrs. Eola Rooks, foods specialist on the Home Economics staff. Information concerning enrollment and other matters pertaining to the course may be had by dialing Phone 2423 or 2371—Extension 68, Mrs. Dunkelman said.

DODD, MISS LOUISIANA WILL ATTEND BASKETBALL TOURNEY

Lieutenant Governor Bill Dodd and "Miss Louisiana" will participate in the ceremonies for the annual National American Legion Basketball tournament slated here March 29-31.

Lt. Gov. Dodd and "Miss Louisiana," the former Rowena Taliaferro, Winnsboro, will present trophies to winning teams. Dodd will also officially open the meet by tossing out the game ball to officials.

Both are graduates of Northwestern State College where the contests will be played. Dodd is an active Legionnaire and is now being prominently mentioned as candidate for Governor in 1952.

The meet will be the first held in the South, approximately 20 states are expected to certify teams for competition in the cage events.

Natchitoches and Coushatta are co-hosts for the meet as Red River Post 118 won the event last year and had the privilege of selecting the tournament site this year. Co-operating in staging the cage attraction are the Natchitoches Chamber of Commerce and Godron Peters Post 10 of Natchitoches.

Louisiana will have two teams in the three day affair. The defending champions automatically enter the meet with another squad to be selected in a state tournament in Baton Rouge early in March.

Dale Miller, chairman of the Legion's national athletic program, will conduct the tourney, which features teams composed of top-flight collegiate stars of recent years. Day and night games will be held in the men's gymnasium on the college campus. Other state and national Legion figures will attend the attraction.

Other than Louisiana, states which have filed are Oklahoma, Illinois, Utah, Iowa, Kansas, Pennsylvania and Nebraska. Deadline for entries is March 1.

The Central Louisiana Association and Cenla Mayors' Council have pledged their support of the attraction.

Five to Attend Home Economics Workshop Mar. 17

Five Northwestern Home Economics majors will attend the Annual State College Workshop held in Baton Rouge March 17. They, along with representatives from 7 other colleges in the state will be guests of Louisiana State University Home Economics Club for luncheon.

Those attending from Northwestern are Mary Belle Davis, President of Northwestern State College Euthenics Club; Evelyn Gandy, State Reporter; Jane Walcott, voting delegate; Patsy Winkler, incoming State Parliamentarian; Barbara Malloy, non-voting delegate; Nezzie Deville, and Mrs. Dunn, Euthenics Club adviser.

At this state-wide meeting plans will be made for the ensuing year and the new officers will be initiated. Other colleges attending the State College Workshop are Louisiana State University, hostess club; Southeastern Louisiana College; Southwestern Louisiana Institute; St. Mary Dominican College; Louisiana College; Centenary; Louisiana Polytechnic Institute and Northeast Junior College.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 14...THE BEAVER

"How eager can they get?"

For once in his life, our fervent friend admits that eagerness can be over-done! He's alluding, of course, to all these quick-trick cigarette tests—the ones that ask you to decide on cigarette mildness after just one puff, one sniff, one inhale or one exhale! When the chips are down, he realizes cigarette mildness can't be judged in a hurry. That's why he made . . .

Auditions Open For Heidt Show

Horace Heidt and his Youth Opportunity caravan will appear in New Orleans on March 18 at the Municipal Auditorium, in a two-hour variety show sponsored by the New Orleans Recreation Department. Heidt's weekly "Original Youth Opportunity Program" will be broadcast over CBS from coast to coast at 8:30 p.m. (CST) from New Orleans.

Heidt has made his reputation and his career by building others to stardom. He has given the entertainment world such well-known personalities as the late Glenn Miller, Frankie Carle, Alvin Rey, the King Sisters, Dick Contino, Gordon MacRae and others.

Still seeking new personalities and new talent, Heidt is holding auditions for entertainers, either professional or amateur in this area. Jim Rankin, one of his talent scouts, will conduct auditions March 8, 9, and 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the studios of Radio Station WWL in the Roosevelt Hotel, in New Orleans. Mr. Rankin asks all talent to bring their own accompanist and music. No group may have more than four members, whether vocal or instrumental. Those who are successful in these try-outs will be heard over the nation-wide facilities of CBS on Heidt's program originating in New Orleans.

Williams Speaks To Euthenics Club Thursday

On Thursday, February 22, 1951 Mrs. Ora Williams, Northwestern State College librarian, spoke to the Euthenics Club on Louisiana Literature. In her talk she stressed the point that no one from Louisiana should ever be apologetic about their state to people of other states. Many people living in Louisiana do not realize just how much we have to be proud of.

Mrs. Williams pointed out to the girls many books and stories by Louisiana authors and about Louisiana that it would be good for them to read while they are here in college. by reading sketches from some of these books she fired the enthusiasm of the girls.

Potpourri Arrival Slated for May; To Arrive on Time

Final preparations for the 1951 Potpourri are being made by the Potpourri staff. Although the staff has been considerably hard-pressed due to the loss of several of its members, the Potpourri will be published and will arrive on schedule, according to Editor Ronald Martin. They will arrive between May 25 and May 30, probably before graduation.

John Moore, who formerly held the position of Potpourri photographer, was called into the service. The resignation of Ponder Davis leaves the position of Organizations Editor open. Also open is the position of Class Editor. No new members have been added to the staff recently, but will be sometimes soon.

Student Assembly Called Off Wed.; Fifty Attend

A meeting of the student body in the Fine Arts Auditorium Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. was called off by Luke Petrovich, president of the student body, because of inattendance.

Approximately fifty people turned out for the third period assembly, at which was to be discussed the SFLCU, NSA, arrangements for a name-band for the spring formal dance, and Student Senate proposed amendments to the constitution.

According to Petrovich notices of the meeting were placed around the campus Monday.

Don Jones, president of the sophomore class, and Chuck Castaing, vice-president of the student body, were also on the stage with Petrovich.

According to Petrovich, a tentative date for the dance has been set either for March 17 or March 27, depending on which band can be obtained.

Discussion of the Federation was to center around recent activities of SFLCU committees and the spring convention to be held at Louisiana Tech during the latter part of March.

8-DAY SEARCH FOR STUDENT ENDS FRI.

Near Scene of Prank

Kaplan Found Below Grand Ecore By Members of Rescue Party

One of the biggest, unwanted, stories at Northwestern in a long time broke yesterday morning as the body of Allen Kaplan, 18-year-old Health and Physical Education student from Chelsea, Mass., was found floating in Red River approximately five miles from the place where he was last seen running away from the scene of a practical joke, played on him by fellow students.

The lad disappeared 8 days ago after he was made the brunt of an "outraged husband" joke at Grand Ecore.

Kaplan and a group of friends drove to the historic bluff to meet a "date" who was reportedly awaiting him. They were met by an "angry husband" who had a gun. The youths dashed off through the woods and disappeared as the "husband" let go a blast from the gun. All of the other students, including Kaplan's dormitory mates at Caspari Hall, were wise to the joke.

Kaplan was found in the river at 9:30 Friday morning by Walter and Carl Durham, members of a searching party, and Natchitoches residents. The pair immediately phoned the news of the discovery to J. L. DeBlieux, who in turn called the Natchitoches parish sheriff.

Immediately plans were made to proceed to the Blanchard place, where the body was found, floating freely, with equipment heavy enough to overcome the strong currents necessary to battle in transporting the body to a place where the bank was low enough to make a landing.

President H. Lee Prather, at an executive district meeting of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball at the time the lad was found, returned here early this morning by train, upon learning of the discovery. He was met at Clarence by Acting President F. G. Fournet.

"With deep regret, we announce that the body of Allen Kaplan, a Northwestern student, was found in Red River by two members of the searching party. The family and friends have the deep sympathy of the faculty, staff, and students of the college," stated F. G. Fournet, acting president of the college in a release to the press today.

Thinking earlier this week that 18-year-old Kaplan was turning the tables on the jokesters by keeping out of sight, college officials searched every possible hiding place on the campus, to no avail.

Soldiers from Camp Polk arrived in Natchitoches early yesterday morning to join in the hunt. The body was discovered just as the detachment was employed to search a heavily wooded area near the scene of the prank.

During the time the lad was missing numerous wild rumors sprang up, including the story that the prank was part of a fraternity initiation, and that it was an old "college" tradition. Of all the rumors, these two in particular are unfounded and absolutely untrue.

Norman Kaplan, father of the student, arrived at Natchitoches from Massachusetts Tuesday night. He was accompanied by an uncle of the lad, Harlod Kaplan.

The father of the boy spent most of the day yesterday in the college infirmary, suffering from shock. Last plans at the time of publication of the Sauce were for Kaplan to leave Natchitoches today.

The body is to be shipped to Chelsea, Mass., his home-town, for burial.

Over twenty college students were in on the prank played on young Kaplan. Under the advice of their coaches, they gave no statement to the press yesterday. A number of them went home over the week-end to confer with parents.

Dr. W. H. Pierson's parish coroner verdict after the autopsy held late Friday afternoon, was "accidental death by drowning." According to Pierson there were no signs of "foul play," or concussion. There were bruises about the shoulders.

Deadline for Filing of Intentions For Student Offices Set for Wed.

Intentions for running for student body officers for the 1951-52 school year must be filed with the Student Council by Wednesday of next week, according to Luke Petrovich, president of the student body.

The actual date of the election is at present uncertain, due to pending bills in the Student Senate that, revising the student body constitution, would change the date of election of student body officials.

The bills, at present in the hands of the senate, after recent return from the Student Council, would also alter the date of election of Student Senate members, having them elected in the spring, shortly prior to the election of other Association members.

According to the present constitutional election provision, applicants for positions in the Association, or student body, government, must have at least twenty signatures on an applica-

McIntyre Orch. Scheduled to Play For Spring Formal

For the first time since 1948 NSC will have a name band. Hal McIntyre and his orchestra will play for the spring formal dance on Thursday, April 5.

A concert open to townspeople will be held in the Fine Arts auditorium from 7:30 to 8:30 for the purpose of obtaining additional funds. The dance itself will be from 9 to 12 in the student center exclusively for the students, faculty and their dates.

The dance committee plans to open the three main portions of the field house to provide extra dancing space.

The admittance price has not yet been determined, in an effort to keep the cost at a minimum for the students.

Prather Leaves NAIB Meet Due to Emergency Here

President H. Lee Prather returned at 4:30 this morning from the executive meeting of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball in Kansas City due to the discovery of the body of Allen Kaplan Friday morning.

Meeting Prather in Clarence was F. G. Fournet, who served as acting president in Prather's absence.

President of the NAIB, Prather left NSC Monday to attend its annual meeting. His stay in Kansas City was cut short ten days by the present emergency.

Student Problems, Organizations Discussed Wed.

A comparatively few members of the student body assembled again Wednesday morning in the Fine Arts auditorium to discuss Student Senate bills, the Southern Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities, the National Student Association, a name band for the spring semester formal dance, and other current student problems.

Luke Petrovich, president of the student body, stated at the meeting that Hal McIntyre had been acquired for the dance. Due to conflicts in dance schedules and the Easter holidays, the dance has been postponed till early in April.

Don Jones, president of the sophomore class, and treasurer for SFLCU, spoke to the group on current activities of the student organization and the next con-

Editorial

This week a story broke at NSC about a Northwestern student and was carried on the front pages of papers all over the country.

That story is one that students at the college have feared seeing since Allan Kaplan, NSC athletic student disappeared Thursday night a week ago after being taken on by a prank date by members of his dormitory.

Sentiment over the affair has run from heated anger to the thought that "boys will be boys." Some newspapers have clamored for facts only. Others have displayed the human interest side of the story, plus the facts.

How this story is taken throughout the state and what repercussions it might have out of the state, is not known. We do know, however, that it is not an incident that could only have happened at Northwestern. The same prank has been played at colleges throughout the nation for many years.

At NSC, it was played just one time too many. It was played in a dangerous place, and it backfired.

Without a doubt, there was no intention, on the part of any of the persons involved in the prank, to cause any harm.

The adage of not "crying over spilt milk" applies as equally as does the fact that "through these things we learn."

LETTER TO EDITOR

Executive Department
Mene Grande Oil Co., C.A.
Apartado 45
Barcelona, Venezuela
February 28, 1951

Editor, The Current Sauce
Northwestern State College
Natchitoches, Louisiana
Dear Editor:

Here, from the land of manana and 3 percent income tax, is the letter I promised you on my last visit to NSC.

After being thoroughly punctured for every known and suspected tropical disease, we finally left Houston at 2:00 p.m., November 16 via Chicago-Southern DC-4 Skymaster. We made thirty-minute stopovers in New Orleans, Havana, and Kingston, and landed at 7:00 a. m. the next day at the Maiquetia airport on the Caribbean Sea, just down the mountain from Caracas, the capital of Venezuela.

Most of us aged ten years as we spent the next few hours answering in English what the customs officials asked—we hoped—in Spanish. Unanimously they seemed to grasp American currency better than American vocabulary, with the result that when our company plane reached Camp San Tome every capitalist aboard was a peasant. There was no choice—we had to work!

Veteran oil men who have been with major companies all over the world say that San Tome is the world's best oil camp. In my 103 days of servitude I've found only one fault with the set-up here: Mene Grande (Gulf in Venezuela) employs 25 males for every female. That is gross mismanagement!

We are in rolling hill country, 100 miles in the interior from Meneg's Caribbean port and center of shipping operations in Eastern Venezuela. On a clear day we can see the mountains between here and port, and there, where the sea and mountains are less than a mile apart, is some of the prettiest scenery I've ever seen.

The temperature here is ideal. Sometimes the days are slightly warm, but the nights are always pleasant. This is the dry season in Venezuela, but it rains every day.

San Tome is modern in every respect, but we are in a very primitive section of the country. Most of the natives here in the state of Anzoategui live in mud huts, and many of them sleep in hammocks fastened to pegs driven in the walls. It is not uncommon to see small bands of Indians with bows and arrows just a few miles from camp.

An article in the March issue of See magazine gives you the gory story of the South American oil man—"the unsung hero upon whose sturdy shoulders rests the task of turning the lifeblood of Venezuela into oil for democracy's tanks!" Read it and weep.

The author speaks of multi-million dollar highways comparable to roads donated "tax-free to you good people of Louisiana." Ours are all ruts, holes, and bumps disguised with oil, sand, and gravel.

My jungle tent is a 4-bedroom casa that cost the company forty thousand dollars.

I haven't wrestled a boa constrictor or raced a bushmaster, and if I ever see one of the local variety I'm going to take his measurements.

There are no head-hunters in business around here; they live down below the Orinoco River, 120 miles away. Land down there is dirt cheap, but I'm not the homesteading type. I'm not collecting autographs, and I don't envy the headless horseman!

The pictures with the story are good, although the one of the natives on a burro at a Mene Grande San Joaquin well near here might have included half a dozen Chevrolet pick-ups and perhaps a Buick or two. You may, however, find the article interesting.

For entertainment we have a country club with golf course, tennis courts, swimming pool, bowling alleys, pool room, dance floor, theatre, library, barber shop and bar.

We have square dances once a month, and most Monday and Thursday nights there is a patio in honor of a few hapless victims of Local Board Number so-an-so, who end their contracts sooner than anticipated and take the next day's plane back to Los Estados Unidos. The chief topic of conversation at such social gatherings is not women but, "And how many men is your draft board calling?" or, "I wonder where my number is." (Unless the present situation changes in a hurry, it's pretty near the top!).

All of the field men have company cars or pick-ups, and we go to movies and dances in other camps once or twice a week. Many of us go to the port on weekends for swimming, sailing, and deep-sea fishing.

You have no doubt heard of Latin American political disturbances. So far we haven't had a single major revolution, although at the time of my arrival the country was under martial law as a result of the assassination of President Chalabaud.

My work is of a statistical nature with the Budget Control Division of the Executive Department—a pretentious position, the prime prerequisite of which is the ability to count!

The company's Spanish classes are supposed to start next month, but I am already teaching English to the Peruvian dentist here in return for Spanish lessons.

I teach a Sunday School class, and am scoutmaster of the local scout troop. Recently I was appointed "Technical Consultant"—whatever that is—of the Vneezuelan Boy Scouts (Exploradores de Venezuela) in the state of Anzoategui.

The scoutmaster of a nearby troop, a Hindu boy from Trinidad, wants to study medicine in the United States. I am going to try to help him get a scholarship to NSC.

I enjoy reading the Current Sauce, which comes by boat mail. I'm anxious to get the next copy and see who won the football penant.

Although I am well satisfied here, I'm sure Northwestern will look mighty good to me 'long about Christmas, 1951—or sooner, draft board willing. Meanwhile, I'll be rootin' as you-all rip 'em up, tear 'em up, and pursue the paths of learning!

Sincerely,
Reginald Gates

The Home Economics staff honored the nursing students with an informal reception in the living room of the Home Economics Department, Wednesday evening, March 7. A St. Patrick's day theme was carried out in decorations and in the food. The lovely arrangements of redbuds gave a colorful appearance to the room. From the reports of all the girls who attended, the reception was indeed a success and was enjoyed by everyone.

Miss Gloria Crump and Thomas L. Hennigan were wed in a beautiful candlelight ceremony, Saturday evening, March 3, at six o'clock in the Marthaville Methodist Church.

Both the bride and groom are from Marthaville and have attended Northwestern.

The bride wore a white organdy dress and a shoulder-length white veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by tiny tube roses, with white split orchids on satin streamers cascading down.

The bride's sister, Fay Ray Crump, served her as maid of honor. She was attired in a blue organdy dress and carried pink carnations. The candlelighters were Joy Nell O'Brien, and Jane Hennigan, who were clad in pink, with white corsages. Serving as ushers were Carl Pharr and Firal Ryder.

Piano music was provided by Miss Jean Burkhalter, and vocal music, by Miss Theda Welch, who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman O'Brien. The four-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and served with punch, to the guests.

The bride is continuing her education here at Northwestern, where she is a senior, majoring in Business Education. The groom is now teaching Mathematics at Oakdale High School.

Mr. Laddie Alexander, a recent graduate of Northwestern, visited here this past week-end. He is now in Quantico, Virginia, in Marine Training Camp.

Miss Fay Ray Crump has recently become engaged to Jonh Brydels of Alexandria, a former graduate of Northwestern. He has been formerly employed in Galveston, and is to leave the latter part of this week for the armed services.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jackson (many of you remember her as Jo Jackson) have recently become the proud parents of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cole (nee Bebe Colewell) have also added a welcome addition to their household, a baby girl. The Coles are now living in Minden.

Mac Carter, James Beck, Jackie Givens, and Snap Oakes, all former Northwesterners now in the service, visited here last weekend.

Miss Mary McEniry and Mrs. Eola P. Rooks have recently been made co-sponsors of the Newman Club.

Mrs. Ruth Shepard, of New Orleans, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Iva Lee Stinson. Mrs. Shepard is a former NSC House Director.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Pi Kaps are really on the ball (basketball, that is) these days. If you don't believe me just ask anyone who saw them defeat Carondelet 22 to 18, last Wednesday night in a very exciting game. Beth McGuffee, Edith Tarver, Bobby Platte, Pat Leone, Rita Doughty, Betty Roberts, Sarah Cook and Dee Dee Barmore were cheered on to victory by a peppy boosters section of Pi Kaps, who donated their lungs to the cause.

Monday night these girls will play again and you can't afford to miss this thrilling athletic event.

It was indeed grand to see Miss Harper again after her recent trip to Virginia. Her pep, smile and enthusiasm were missed at meetings and socials.

The following officers were elected to serve Pi Kappa Sigma for the next year:

President, Eunice Eden; Vice-President, Patsy Winkler; Recording Secretary, Beryl DeLoach; Treasurer, Barbara Malloy; Corresponding Secretary, Kathleen Ray.

The other officers will be disclosed at a later date, but to those mentioned, we say "Congratulations" and "Keep up the good work."

TRI SIGMA

At the meeting Tuesday night Jo Ann Gandy became a pledge of Tri Sigma.

Officers for next year were elected as follows: Margaret Gene Ohlson, President; Billie Greer, Vice-President; Virginia Metcalf, Recording Secretary; Jean Lyons, Corresponding Secretary; Ruth Ann Ellender, Keeper-of-the-Grades. Congratulations, and good luck!

Seems like spring-time is slumber party time. The date has been set for March 17th for the next one.

Next week the pledges of Fall 1950 will be initiated. Seems like they all made very good grades on their test. Keep up the good work gals, we're proud of you.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Welcoming new pledges was the order of DSE's day last Sunday as Carolyn Cartwright, Sue Miller, and Rae Gremillion came into the fold. The sorority met first at the sorority room and then proceeded to the apartment of Mai Levee Abington for Cokes and cookies. The Coke party, full of fun, laughter, and songs followed some two weeks of informal rushing.

Carolyn, Sue, and Rae were formally pledged at an impressive ceremony Tuesday night in the sorority room. After the little sisters were chosen, the usual business of the meeting was held.

Discussion for the theme of the spring formal, one of the main events of the year, is still under way. The girls plan to have it as one of the best formals sponsored by DSE.

Congratulations to Jo Ann Debate for being chosen battalion sponsor of Northwestern's ROTC unit. She was selected on the basis of election by members of the unit, and honorary commission equivalent to the commanding unit sponsored will be awarded her.

DSE is also proud of Jenny Lou Ingram for taking her place in the Student Senate filling a chair that had been left vacant by the president's resignation.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Now that the first whirl of the spring semester rushing is over, DSE is getting down to its regular business.

For one thing the seniors met as a nominating committee for officers for the coming year. They will be voted on at the next meeting.

Committees were appointed for the Mother - Daughter Banquet and the Spring Formal. The only discussion of the banquet with the graduating senior present concerned the time, which was set for 6 o'clock April 8.

Cokes and cookies were in order for the reception of two new pledges, Jerry Jackson, and LaVerne Hopper. We're sure glad to have both of you!

Joselyn Townsend and Mac Schoonover put their musical talents together for fun and entertainment, but as usual, the party ended with everyone singing.

DSE is in the sports light! The members have been playing regularly in the girls' intramural basketball games.

Orchids to Rae Gremillion who was best pledge of the week with 195 points—also to the pledges who finished up the tests on the Greek alphabet. Incidentally, if there is anything anyone would like to know, just ask Mac Schoonover who is the pledges nomination for "Miss Information of 1951."

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

After a bit of cramming and a little whispered help, our pledges passed their exams and are now full pledged members. We initiated Jeanette Dowden, Jean Has-kin, Dot Dezendorf, Alice Crawford, Nan Short, Faye Bullock, Claudine Box, Betty Goyne.

Under the new system of bidding we issued bids and received five new pledges — Pat Payne, Robbie Morgan, Earline Ussery, Annette Dailey, and Faye Jordan. We are very pleased to have these new girls and we know they'll be fine Alpha Sigs!

Frances Pender, an Alpha Sig, was visiting on the campus Tuesday. She began working in Leesville this semester.

There is chatter going around in the house concerning a slumber party. Seems everybody wants one real soon, so it shall be done!

Bootie Wilcox treated the sorority with a box of chocolates Tuesday night. Even though the candy was a few months belated, we enjoyed it, Bootsie.

Hospital Bed

A new hospital bed that can be operated by the patient without the aid of a nurse may be a boon to nurses and patients alike. The inventors claim that the electrically and hydraulically controlled bed is foolproof—the patient cannot end up in an awkward position.

YWCA Elects New Officers

Sue Tucker, a junior mathematics major from Haynesville, was recently elected president of the YWCA at NSC.

Other newly elected officers are: Vice president, Sue Wheat; Secretaries, Billie Greer; and Katherine Hopkins; Treasurer, Lila Gore; Social Service chairman, Beth Hargrove and Mary Ann Proshaka; Social chairman, Tommie Jean Tullos; Publicity chairman, Tommie Blackburne; Program chairman, Patsy Kinkler and Dorothy Barmore; Candy representative, Carolyn Price; and hostess, Rose McRight. Mrs. Ruth Weber, house director at Agnes Morris Dormitory is the campus sponsor.

The new officers will be installed March 15 in the YWCA room located in the Religious Center.

The YWCA organization is making plans to sponsor a "World Student Service Fund" drive, to be conducted the second week in April. Plans are also being made to send several representatives to the state convention to be held May 5 in Baton Rouge.

In Elizabethian Times

During the reign of Queen Elizabeth, the painters of signs sometimes encountered difficulties because the portraits they painted of her majesty were not sufficiently complimentary. Many of the portraits were chopped up and burned by the queen's order and proclamations were made regarding the censorship of royal portraits.

41 Turn Out for Demon Baseball; Weeding Process to Begin Monday

Surrounded by 41 aspirants for regular berths on the Demon varsity nine, Coach H. A. (Cracker) Brown said this week he would begin "weeding them out" beginning next Monday. At that time the coach is expecting the full strength of the Northwestern State College baseball squad to have reported. Several potential regulars are expected to be in uniform for the first time with the close of both the basketball season and the spring football practice this week.

Intensive squad practice is in store for the baseball squad next week in preparation for the Demons' first intercollegiate encounter of the season, with Southern Illinois University here, March 16, and 17 While practice officially begins March 1, emphasis has been placed to date on individual conditioning. This included work on base running, throwing, hitting, and defensive tactics.

In cutting the squad to season size, Coach Brown said he would pick three regular catchers, as many pitchers as show promise, and two players to each of the other positions. At the present there are five catchers, nine pitchers, eleven infielders and sixteen outfielders all hoping to be chosen for the 1951 edition of the Demon team. Among these are eleven lettermen from last year's varsity squad.

Candidates reporting this week and the positions they seek are as follows:

Catchers—Charles Davis Perot, Natchitoches; Robert L. Durham, Shreveport; Sam A. Harper, Minden; J. P. Johnston, Benton; Wesley Jackson, Leesville.

Pitchers—C. W. Dodson, Montgomery; Herbert Law, Olla; E. J. Macaluso, New Orleans; Gale Hearn, Forest Hill; Billy Smith, Heflin; Wilson Ronda, Capa Rojo, Puerto Rico; Arnold Norman, Chestnut; Louis C. Cusachs, Natchitoches; Artie Renew, Tallahassee, Fla.

Infielders — Ed Watkins, Haynesville; Bob Weavre, Hodge; A. R. dek Toro, Cabo Rojo, Puerto Rico; Horace McCann, Cheneyville; Sam Booras, Shreveport; Ralph White, Alexandria; Chic Ramirez, Sunset; Thomas Young, Texarkana, Texas; Ronald Martin, Natchitoches; James Carson, Mansfield; James Baily, Forrest Hill.

Outfielders—Charles Dew, Provencal; Billy Gray, Sibley; Charles Ertrell, Port Sulphur; Leland Langridge, Shreveport; Billy Scroggins, Natchitoches; Harold Albritton, Downsville; Charles Chauvni, Ferriday; Jack Holley, Coushatta; James Upshaw, Ringgold; John Gremillion, Alexandria; Don Finley, Olla; David Lewis, Winnsboro; Pat Lyons and Rafael Cuebas, both of New Orleans; Henry Lyle, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Kermie Valentine, Mitchell.

Aquatic Club Initiates Fourteen Monday in Nat.

Following an initiation Monday night, the Aquatic Club increased its membership by 14.

Those initiated were Harold LaRoux, Isabel Pierce, Carolyn Cartwright, Lou Frissel, Betty Jean Thompson, Jenny Lou Ingram, Dorothy Hewitt, Joyce Rambin, Peggy Trichel, Bess Haynes, Tom Drewett, Dennis Ryder, Paul Foshee, and May Godwin.

After the initiation Cokes and cookies were served in the office of the natatorium.

Big plans are underway for the Aquatic Club this year under the sponsorship of Delores Bacareese, Jean Harper, and Glenna Williams. The main event of the spring semester is the Aquatic Show which is already in the process of production. It will be April 26, 27, and 28.

Demons End Season With 15 Won, 12 Lost; Lose to Sw. at NAIB Meet

The Northwestern State College Demon five ended their season this week with a record of fifteen wins against twelve setbacks.

The Demons, who lost the final game of the season last Monday night to Southeastern Louisiana College in the Louisiana NAIB tournament, finished with a conference record of eight wins and eight losses, while copping seven and dropping only four in non-conference tilts.

According to Demon Coach Charles "Red" Thomas, the Demons will lose three of this year's first-stringers to graduation. The three are: Johnny "Hound" McConathy, of Bryceland, who set a new scoring record for the GSC with 582 points, passing the old mark of 480 by 102 points; Linwood Ouzts, mainstay guard and one of the best floormen in the conference, who hails from Minden; and Hershhal McConathy, no relation to Johnny, speedy forward from Florian. Also graduating will be "Buddy" Bonnette, substitute guard.

Of the starting five, only Jim

Yergler, 6'1½" guard from Cissan Park, Ill., and Artie Ranew, 6'6" guard-forward from Tallahassee, Fla., will be back to see action next season. Yergler is a sophomore and Ranew, a junior.

Coach Thomas, finishing his first season as coach at NSC, is looking forward to a successful season next year and is depending heavily on this year's strong freshman squad to supply the Demons with talent.

State-wide Ind. Arts Contest Slated For Northwestern April 28—Robinson

To stimulate greater interest in industrial arts and vocational-industrial education in Louisiana, the Industrial Education Department of Northwestern State College is sponsoring a state-wide Industrial Education Awards contest here Saturday, April 28. This contest will be patterned largely after the Ford Motor Company's annual industrial awards contest. Winners in the event here will be certified for entry in the Ford regional contest at Kansas City in June, Prof. Walter J. Robinson, head of the Department of Industrial Education, said this week.

Pupils ranging from those in the seventh grade through the fourth year of high school and vocational students who spend more than 10 hours a week in courses represented by their entry will be classified into four separate groups in the competition, Prof. Robinson said.

Judged on both mastery of knowledge and craftsmanship, the contest will be conducted in each of 16 areas open to contestants. Entrants have the choice of wrought metal, pattern making, molding, machine shop (bench), machine shop (machine tool), general woodworking, furniture making, woodturning, plastics (carving) and plastics (fabricating), electrical (radio), general mechanical drawing, detail and assembly drawing, advanced detail and assembly drawing, architectural drawing, and printing (single impression letter press printing in two or more colors). The contestants have until April 21 to submit their projects, Prof.

Robinson said.

Each instructor who enters a pupil in a contest is being asked to submit 15 to 20 objective questions over the area in which the project is entered. These questions will be consolidated into one test and given to all pupils who enter a project in that area. However, projects selected to enter the Ford regional contest will be judged only on craftsmanship, Prof. Robinson explained.

In instituting the state-wide contest, Northwestern's industrial education expert expressed the hope it would prove as stimulating and as helpful to industrial pupils as similar contests in debating, public speaking and music have proved to other pupils.

Rules of the contest and individual entrance blanks are being sent to more than 100 secondary and vocational schools in Louisiana. Any additional schools interested in the competition will be provided with entrance blanks and the rules governing the contest upon application to the Industrial Education Department of Northwestern State College, Prof. Robinson said.

Baby's First Steps

Doting parents often try to rush the walking process by holding baby's arms and guiding him. This isn't wise. Premature walking may keep tiny legs from straightening shape, and thus encourage bow-out from their originally curved legs. A heavy child should not be urged to walk until he's ready for the ordeal himself. Try simple foot exercises to develop muscles strong and firm enough to bear the weight of the body.

Diamond Doin's

Several former NSC baseball stars are currently playing pro ball or have signed up for this summer. Among these are Big Jim Willis, who was recently acquired by the Boston Red Sox for future delivery. Jim will finish this season out with the Shreveport Sports of the Texas League for whom he toed the slab last year.

Others who are slated to play professionally this year are Elzer Marx, who played with the Grand Rapides team of the Class A Central Association; Eddie Moore, former Demon basketball standout, with Valdosta of the Georgia-Florida League; and Glenn Williams, who recently signed a Brooklyn Dodger farm chain contract.

Bobby Johnson, former baseball and grid star for the Demons, with the Monroe Sports of the Sotton State League last year, will don a uniform of the Shreveport Sports this spring. Jimmy Cox, former southpaw of the Demon nine, will return to the Monroe Sports of the Cotton States League for the coming season.

Chiefs Defeat Pleasant Hill

The VFW Chiefs downed the Pleasant Hill Legion team, 81-68 in the college gymnasium here Tuesday night.

Ocie Richie was high point man for the night with 25 points. T. Free and H. Powell each scored 17 points for the visitors.

The Chiefs will play a donkey basketball game in the High School Gym March 15 for the benefit of the Chiefs' trip to the Southern Amateur Athletic Union Tournament in New Orleans.

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

The satisfying plunk of a basketball in a net, the feel of an "A" grating across your teeth, the cry of defeat from a captured Backward Dance date—these are the good things in life. And life has been good around here lately. Ask any woman!

"No trouble at all to get a man, but lotsa trouble to keep him," was the comment from the better half at the Backward Dance last Saturday night. All in all the dance was a fine success. More, we say!

The Student Body, or at least the usual 3 per cent who go to assemblies, received the glad word Wednesday concerning the Name Band. It's Hal McIntyre on April 5. Score! Also discussed, were the new proposed Constitutional amendments. Mimeographed copies will be passed out to the students before the election which will be held after Easter. The amendments are badly needed, and well worth consideration.

That breath of Spring is about to blow us down around here what with a sweep of plays, dances, basketball games, and midterm. Even parking space on the square is getting scarce, and they say you have to have priority on the benches—that is you have to have been going steady for at least six months, and have 50 hours sitting time already on one of said benches.

Unofficially it has been declared "Off With Woolens Week." With or without?

From The Press Box

Well, basketball season is over here on the hill for this year. It's too bad that the Demons couldn't start their late-season surge any sooner, but from here, it just seem to be in the books for Coach Thomas and his lads to fare any better than they did.

Speaking of Coach Thomas, this columnist is taking this opportunity to congratulate him on the grand job he did this year, his first as mentor of the Demon cake squad.

When you get down to facts, it's a pretty big order to step in and replace such an established coach as Coach Prather, who watched them come and go for thirty-eight seasons, producing such standouts as Josh Briley, Ocie Ritchie, Tussie Waggoner, Frank Lamkin, Jim Willis, Wally Prather, Jodie Stoutamire, and countless other stars, including Coach Thomas, himself.

Also consider taking over a squad which had lost such men as Stoutamire, then the GSC high point man, Jim Willis, and Buddy Bates from the previous season and building a winning squad from it. That in itself is a mighty tall order.

So, I'm pretty sure I'm relating the consciencious of the entire NSC Student Body when I say, "Congratulations for a good season, Coach, and keep up the good work in seasons to come."

Cadets Brace for Two-day Inspection Mar. 12-13 by Military Representative

Cadets in the ROTC unit of Northwestern State College are bracing themselves for a two-day informal inspection, March 12 and 13, by a U. S. Army representative of the Louisiana Military District, with headquarters in New Orleans. This will mark the first inspection of the semester for the college battalion which was formed only last fall as a training unit in Anti Aircraft Artillery.

All phases of the military work being offered at the college will be observed by Lt. Col. Benjamin A. Falzgraf, of the Louisiana Military District staff, during the two-day informal inspection. This will serve to alert the battalion as to what it must do to merit an "excellent" or "superior" rating at the Department of Army's annual inspection early in May. Lt. Col. James W. Bowman, professor of military science and tactics at the college, said this week.

Assisting Lt. Col. Bowman in providing military instruction to the unit are Capt. Bernard G. Sims and six non-commissioned Army officers. All members of the Military Department staff are veterans of World War II.

Northwestern's battalion consists this Spring of 185 cadets who are assigned to the two battalions with 13 cadet commissioned officers in charge. The unit also has 19 non-commissioned officers.

Cadet Lt. Col. Jerry E. West,

Natchitoches, holds the post of battalion commander. The other commissioned officers of the battalion are:

Cadet Majors—Ephen J. Maculuso, New Orleans and Lowell W. Vaughn, Coushatta.

Cadet Captains — Herbert J. Sudbury, Natchitoches; Firal L. Ryder, Alexandria; Robert R. Bryant, Newark, N. J.; Walter E. Butler, Tallulah.

Cadet First Lieutenants—Melvin E. Luse, Natchitoches; Wilmer Cadet Second Lieutenants—Rudy C. Berlin, Nederland, Texas; Leon A. Fuller, Waverly; Cecil P. Davis, Many; Billy Rowell, Mansfield.

Twenty-five juniors and seven seniors comprising the entire roster of commissioned and non-commissioned officers are planning to attend summer camp at Port Bliss for a period of six weeks. At the conclusion of this training the seniors will receive reserve commissions.

The battalion recently gave its annual military ball in the Student Center. Cadet officers from other colleges in the state attended as special guests. During the ball the co-ed sponsors for the Northwestern cadet unit were introduced and feted. The popular choice of the men in the battalion, the sponsors are Honorary Lt. Col. Jo Ann DeBate, of Bunkie and Honorary Cadet Majors Pat Bishop, Lake Charles, and Beth McGuffie, Harrisonburg.

Beautification Committee Announces Program to Replace Trees and Shrubs

The Beautification of Northwestern State College announces that in the past month some 200 Louisiana native trees and shrubs have been transplanted on the campus. Among the various species transplanted are long leaved pine, slash pine, water oaks, wild azelea, wild plum, wild yellow jasmine vines and some 75 native dogwood. A concentration of dogwood, wild azelea and French mulberry may be noticed at the main entrance. Others were placed along the main roads of the campus, including Chaplin's Lake and at various "empty" spaces on the campus.

Nearly 500 plants of the above species have been added to the campus since 1950. The committee hopes to continue this program until a sufficient number have been placed on the campus to replace the various trees and shrubs that have died within the last few years. The whole theme Beautification program is to stay within the boundaries of the Louisiana natives.

The next big project is to beautify the "square" within the boundaries of the South, West, and North Barracks. Plans for this scheme are now being made and it is hoped that before the end of this term the program will be well underway. This fall many varieties of native Louisiana iris will be planted in the lower parts of the campus.

NSC Nursing Students Will Make Annual Educational Tour March 31

Northwestern State College nursing students, along with several faculty members, will make their annual educational tour on March 31, to several places of scientific interest in Louisiana. The group will travel in chartered Trailway Buses, departing at 3:30 a.m. Saturday the 31, and arriving at their first destination, the Esso Oil Refinery in Baton Rouge, at 8:00 a.m. There they will visit the hospital and view the manner in which nurses participate in the health programs of large industrial places. They will also be shown a movie. This part of the tour was arranged for them by Mr. W. B. Cotten, public relations official of the plant. While in Baton Rouge they will also visit the State Capitol Building.

Their second stop will be the National Leprosorium at the United States Marine Hospital in Carville, La., where they will tour the various sections. The persons making this possible were Dr. F. A. Johnansen, Medical Director Carville who has done tremendous research in the study of Leprosy, and the Chief Nurse, Sister Teresa, of the Sisters of Charity.

Between 130 and 150 persons will make this trip. Anyone not majoring in nursing and wishing to go may do so if there are extra seats available. The cost of a round trip ticket is $5.00; students going should make their deposits by March 20. Chairman of the committee is Yvonne Lawton. The nursing scholarships cover the fees, and the deposits will be refunded to the students at a later date.

Meals will be prepared and boxed by the college dining hall, as there will be no stops enroute, due to the large number going.

More Men Needed For Roles in Play, 'Oh Susannah'

Approximately forty students participated in the try-outs, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, for the spring semester play, "Oh! Susanna." The play, based on the life of Stephen Foster, requires a cast of about fifty members.

At this time, more men are required for the casting, with an additional eight men needed for the minstrel and song-and-dance parts. Inasmuch as the open try-outs are now closed, and only closed try-outs are being held, reading for the parts may be done by appointment with Sherrod Towns, of the music department, and Donald Carr, of the Speech department.

The play will be produced on April 20 and 21, under the direction of Sherrod Towns, Donald Carr, and Jean Harper, of the dance workshop.

Views of The News

By THOMAS POOLE

"We want our way" Labor has been told by "I can't be stopped", Wilson that nothing or nobody will impede the plans of mobilization for the United States. It seems that the division between the Truman Administration and organized Labor is steadily growing wider with each new happening in the plans of Wilson to Mobilize. Maybe Philip and the boys won't be so willing to play with the Elephant in the coming election.

You wouldn't think that a little animal not over 3 or 4 inches tall could cause very much trouble, especially after it's dead, but in Washington a lot of people are worrying about just such an animal. It seems that when a little mink is dead and added to other little dead minks, it multiplies into the strangest things, like loans to some company who needed a little extra cash to keep in operation, and now the Senate wants "playboy" Harry to come back from his vacation and clean up the mess that this little animal has made. I may be prejudiced, but it seems to me that when Harry gets back to Washington we will have not one mess but two.

The little boys of the state departments of the big four nations are meeting to see if it will be possible for the countrys to get together and solve some of the problems that exist between Russia and the West. This willingness of Russia to meet at all stems from the fact that at the present time Russia plans to take the world are stuck in the mud of resistance that the free-nations of the world are putting up. It has been the policy of the Russians to attack when nations are weak and negotiate and wait when they are strong, so they probably expect to negotiate and wait until things cool off a bit, and then carry on again the same tactics that they have had for the last four years. If we are to keep them from being able to resume their activities now is the time to unite the Non-communist nations into one front to retain the balance of power in our favor. "United we stand, divided we fall."

NOTICE

Due to a lack of a quorum, the meeting of the Student Senate was postponed until Tuesday, March 13.

It is requested that every member be present.

Before Beginning Again
Paint-and-varnish-remover is used when it's necessary to take off an old finish completely before applying a new one.

ATTENTION

The Euthenics Club will serve supper on Sunday, March 11, 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. on the first floor of the Home Economics Building. The faculty and their families and students are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to "dine out." Bring your family or make up a party; let us know in advance and we will set up a special table for you. Tickets will be on sale in the Field House and in Caldwell Hall on Thursday and Friday of this week. Price 75 cents.

Hershall McConathy Reigns as King At AWS Shamrock Swirl Dance Sat.

Hershall McConathy, popular Demon Cager, was selected by the Associated Women Students of Northwestern State College to reign as king of their annual backward dance, the Shamrock Swirl, Saturday, March 3 from 9:00 to 12:00 p.m.

Janette Pace, President of the Associated Women Students placed a crown of gold on King Hershall and green Irish top-hats on the members of his court as each knelt before the "Blarney" stone. The King and his court and their escorts were as follows: King Hershall McConathy escorted by Nell Emmons; Johnny McConathy, escorted by Mittie Lancaster; Bill Smith, escorted by Ladye Jane White; Chuck Castaing, escorted by Dokie Abraham; Gilbert Derouen, escorted by Mary Nell Cowgill; Houston Davis, escorted by Marie Tilleaux; and Ted Forte, escorted by Darlene Farr. After the crowning ceremony the Demonaires, under the direction of Frank Pasqua honored the King and his court with a special dance number.

Dollie Smith was Mistress of Ceremonies during the floorshow when each dormitory contributed a number for entertainment. Varnado began with a radio broadcast advertising "galvanized, extra-illuminated, super-humiliated yo-yo's" in which Julia McBroom, Dokie Abraham and Elaine Harris participated. Audubon presented Sallie Jo Foster, accompanied by Rose McRight, who sang "My Wild Irish Rose." A trio, Ladye Jane White, Dot Corry, and Helen Cooley from Kate Chopin harmonized on "A Sentimental Journey." Co-op presented a skit, "Wed in Holy Padlock" with Eddy Elliott, Gloria Williams, Charlene Lark, Jackie Howard, Ann Jones, Evelyn Simpson, Lynn Stephens, Joycelyn Townsend, Betty Andries participating with Betay McCarty at the piano. A skit,

"Cassie's Coffin" was presented by Carondelet with the following people participating: Rae Gremillion, This Beter, Helen Brupbacher, Rose M. Rafaro, Dot Hewitt, Aphrodite Marmolidas and Virginia Ingram. Marilyn Snoddy represented Agnes Morris with a monologue, "When I Grow Up."

The Student Center, setting for the Shamrock Swirl, was very cleverly decorated in a St. Patrick's Day theme in a conventional Irish motive. Green Irish shamrock was placed at vantage points throughout the Student Center and adorned the handstands of the Demonaires and the Demonettes' concession stand. The center of interest was focused around the traditional "Blarney" stone placed in front of the fireplace and Marie Tilleaux's mirror painting of the "Little people dancing on the green."

The entire program was planned by the Executive Council of the Associated Women Students with Pat Marmand acting as chairman of the Social committee.

15 NSC Students Enter in Debate Tourney Here

Fifteen NSC students are entered in the Louisiana Forensic Tournament at Northwestern this week-end, according to William S. Smith, NSC Forensics coach.

Debating in the Senior Men's division will be Luke Petrovich and Julie McBroom and Thomas Poole and Don Jones. In the Junior Men's division there will be David Kendrick and Cecil Neilson and Jim Vorhoff and Louis C. Cusachs.

Jim Vorhoff will also deliver an oration, while Vorhoff, Petrovich, and Jones will compete in extemporaneous speaking in the men's division, with Julie McBroom, Nelwyn Turner, and Peggy Haywood in the women's division.

Radio speaking will be handled by S. O. Long and Elzer Mark, and Julie McBroom, while Petrovich and Vorhoff and Beth Cox and Beth Hargrove will compete in Poetry Reading.

Students Attend Youth Meeting Held in Ruston

Dr. Lowell B. Hazzard, Professor of Religion at Illinois Wesleyan College, will be the platform speaker at the annual State Conference of the Louisiana Methodist Student Movement this week end, March 9-11, when it meets in Ruston.

According to Mrs. W. D. Poole, director of the Wesley Foundation at NSC, students will hear Dr. Hazzard give four addresses on the general theme, "From Debate to Discipleship."

Rev. G. W. Pomeroy, District Superintendent of the Methodist Churches in the Ruston district, gave the key-note address on Friday night on the theme, "A Sense of What Is Vital."

Ministers and laymen in and around Ruston will lead various seminar groups to discuss problems and questions raised by the speaker.

Approximately 25 NSC students were expected to make the trip.

Use of Red

Red is a color to be used judiciously. On too large areas it is overpowering, irritating. Used as an accent color, it lends life and gaiety to less interesting surfaces. Many women like to use it as an accent color in kitchens, but such a warm color should not be used in too large quantities in a room that is so frequently overheated by meal preparation.

Illini Defeats Demons 4 to 3;

The baseball nine from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill., defeated the Demon nine Wednesday in a close ball game by a 4 to 3 score.

The game was decided when West, Illinois' right fielder bursted up an attempted double play at second base in the top of the ninth, allowing the winning tally to cross the plate.

Milliken was the winning pitcher for the victors while Ronnie Martin was tagged with the defeat. In losing, Martin allowed only one hit in the three stanzas that he toiled.

Bill "Lord" Calvert was the starting hurler for the Demons, followed by Wilson Ronds, and then Martin.

The score:

So. Ill. ....003 000 001— 4 4 2
NSC .....021 000 000— 3 9 6

Batteries: (SI) Schimpf, Milliken, Grandcolas and Wisebecker, Hahn; (NSC) Calvert, Ronda, Martin and Perot, Harper.

Hal McIntyre Slated for Spring Formal

Hal McIntyre and his band will appear at the College Spring Formal, Thursday, April 5.

The band will play in concert at 7:30 to 8:30 in the Fine Arts Auditorium, and at the Student Center from 9 to 12 at the formal. Both appearances are open to the public.

Tickets for the concert will be seventy-five cents per person, and the dance tickets are to be $1.50 per stag, $2.00 per couple. The combined tickets for the concert and the dance are $3.00.

In an attempt to keep the cost for the students at a minimum, the Dance Band Fund committee has requested that the college students do not buy corsages.

Hal McIntyre is appearing at the college in culmination of the efforts of the Dance Band Fund which was started last fall.

Various Conventions Will Bring Thousands to Campus During March

March is always a busy month at NSC — what with all the conventions, tournaments, and festivals that are being held every year about this time. Before the month is out, the total number of visitors attending these events will run into the thousands.

Listed below are some of the forthcoming activities.

March 16 and 17

On Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17, the Future Homemakers of America are holding their annual Central District Rally. The state and district officers will arrive Friday to attend a planning meeting and supper in the living room of the Home Economics building. Schools from all over the Central Louisiana District are expected to be represented, and the NSC home economics students will act as hostesses.

March 29-31

The National American Legion basketball tournament will be held here March 29-31. Red River Post 118 at Coushatta won the tournament last year in Kansas, and the winning team each year has the privilege of choosing the location for the next year's tournament. Coushatta chose Northwestern as the site of the 1951 tournament.

Fourteen states will be represented, and they are: Louisiana, Utah, Mississippi, South Carolina, Indiana, Wisconsin, Kansas, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Ohio, Oklahoma, and Pennsylvania.

March 30 and 31

A record enrollment of 3,000 students or more is expected for the annual district Music Festival at NSC March 30 and 31. The festival will be climaxed by a mass marching band spectacle on the last night of the festival.

The fourteen northwestern parishes of the state are included in the district and all are expected to be represented. These parishes are: Avoyelles, Bossier, Catahoula, Caddo, Concordia, DeSoto, Grant, La Salle, Natchitoches, Rapides, Red River, Sabine, Vernon, and Winn.

April 6 and 7

Approximately 25 delegations from schools all over the state are expected to attend the Students' Constitutional Convention here in from 5 to 40 members in each delegation, and a total attendance of two or three hundred.

While here, the delegates will attend general sessions and committee meetings as well as study helps and social activities.

To Participate In Denver Meet

The Natchitoches V.F.W. basketball quint which includes many former and present Demon hoop stars, will journey to Denver, Colo., on March 18, to participate in the National AAU Tournament.

Members of the squad who will make the trip are: Ocie Ritchie, coach; "Pee Wee" Patten; Tommy Thomas; "Jodie" Stoutamire; "Hongry" Bates; Hershal McConathy; Johnny McConathy; Jim Yergler; Linwood Ouzts; and "Buddy" Bonnette.

The team won the SAAU meet held in New Orleans by defeating the Whitfield-Phillips Post of Shreveport in the finals. The Shreveport delegation was comprised mainly of former Centenary stalwarts.

Maraist to Visit Department Wed.

Colonel Robert V. Maraist, new Chief of Louisiana Military District, will make an informal visit to the Military Science department of NSC Wednesday.

Succeeding Col. J. S. Tate, retired, Col. Maraist assumed command March 6. This will mark his first visit to NSC under his new position.

A native of Louisiana, Col. Maraist attended Louisiana State University. He participated in both world wars.

Two File for Student Body Prexy; 21 Others File for Assoc. Officers

In the field for the office of student body president next year are only two candidates, Don Jones and Ronald Martin.

Jones, a junior in accounting, is presently serving as junior class president and business manager of the Current Sauce.

A social studies major from Natchitoches, Martin is a member of the Honor Court. He also holds the position of Potpourri editor.

Meeting the Thursday noon deadline for filing intentions for student body offices were 23 students, considerably less than the total last spring. Seven candidates are unopposed, while two offices have no candidates.

Following are the candidates for the sixteen student body offices:

Vice-President of the Student Body: Leland Langridge and John D. Ropp; Coed Vice-President of the Student Body: Beryl De-

Loach, Carolyn "Butch" Price, and Marie Tilleux; Secretary of the Student Body: Daisy Prudhomme and Sue Tucker; Treasurer of the Student Body: Carolyn "Pud" McLean, and Arlene Norsworthy.

President of the Senior Class: Cas Moss; Vice-President of the Senior Class: Elvin Lightsey; Secretary-Treasurer of the Senior Class: Jean Lyons.

President of the Junior Class: Lowell Starns; Vice-President of the Junior Class: (No candidate); Secretary-Treasurer of the Junior Class: Sue Wheat.

Editor of the Current Sauce: Louise Harris; Editor of the Potpourri: (no candidate).

NSC Social Sci. Dept. to Sponsor 21-Day Tour of Northeast in Aug.

The NSC Department of Social Sciences is arranging for a 21-day conducted tour of historic and industrial points of interest in the Northeast this summer for Louisiana parish supervisors, principals, and teachers, as well as college students.

Covering more than 5,000 miles of travel by bus, the tour will provide three hours of college credit for all desiring it, Dr. John S. Kyser, chairman of the Department of Social Sciences, said.

The journey will be made during the interval between the close of summer school and the beginning of the fall semester, with the party leaving the campus August 14 and returning September 3. The entire trip will be made in buses of modern design, driven by experienced operators. Leisurely stops are to be made frequently at points of interest along the route, and all overnight stops will provide advance reservations for the group.

Cities on the itinerary for official study include Memphis; Chattanooga; Morganton, N. C.; Richmond, Va.; Washington, D. C.; New York City; Boston; Albany; Niagara Falls; Detroit; Chicago, and Springfield, Ill.

The major portion of the time will be spent in examination and study of those localities that provide outstanding natural and cultural features. This applies to characteristics as diverse as land formations, mineral deposits, and historic landmarks.

"While the tour is especially recommended for teachers of the social studies, college students and others interested in an economical summer vacation trip in the East and Northeast will be welcomed," Dr. Kyser said. "It offers an opportunity to combine pleasure, college credit and deep insight into areas of vital concern to our country," he added.

Kyser to Read Paper on La. At Chicago Meet

Dr. John S. Kyser, head of the Department of Social Science at NSC, will read a paper on Louisiana at the annual meeting of the National Association of American Geographers, March 20-22, in Chicago.

The specific title of his address is "Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana, a Sub-Delta of the Mississippi."

In his address, Dr. Kyser will stress the extraordinary natural and other conditions that combine to make Louisiana's largest parish—larger even than the state of Rhode Island—a unique segment of the entire Gulf Coastal (Con't on Page 8)

Torgrimson Gives Recital Thursday

Paul Torgrimson, assistant professor of piano at Northwestern State College, was scheduled to give his annual recital in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building here Thursday evening, March 15, at 8 o'clock. The program included two piano suites by Natchitoches composers.

One of the compositions was "Five Paragraphs for the Piano," by Miss Jayne Breazeale of Natchitoches.

"Five Pieces for Piano" is the title of the other suite to be played. The composer is Lester Gillespie.

Legislature Not Enough

There is no possible legislature we know of that can correct the errors made in the reporting of the recent death of Allen Kaplan. Representative Lane (D. Mass.), who advocates the taking away of federal aid from colleges who do not outlaw hazing, might have a point—as far as his constituency is concerned. So might the governor of Louisiana.

They might not have had a point, had they gotten the facts of the incident straight before speaking.

How the report got out that the death of Allan Kaplan was connected in any way with college tradition, hazing, or fraternity initiation, we do not know. To trace the rumor to its origin could only result in more rumors and more material over which such people as Representative Lane and Governor Long, and such publications as Newsweek, could fawn.

The fact, as stated in the Natchitoches Times this week, is that, "The tragedy had absolutely no connection of any kind with any initiation, nor was it connected with hazing. It was a practical joke, nothing more."

"The dead lad's father, we think, has made a most comforting gesture towards the students who unwittingly caused his son's death, and we believe this attitude is one that should be adopted by all."

Since the father of Allen Kaplan and college officials have absolved those involved in the accident from all responsibility, we see no reason why the affair should continue to be aired by publicity-seeking political aspirants.

Views of The News

By THOMAS POOLE

Do you remember when the government proposed federal aid to education? If you don't, let me tell you something. At that time, the people asked if it would mean governmental control of education.

What do you think they said? "Well," they said, "it won't make any difference. We don't want to control anything but certain requirements that have to be met to receive the aid."

They didn't want to control anything then, but what about now? Look in Wednesday's paper. There is an article about Rep. Lane from Mass., who wants to stop federal aid to colleges and universities that permit hazing. This representative was inspired by, as he says, the death of Allen Kaplan. What Mr. Lane failed to take into consideration is that this was not the traditional college hazing, but a joke that is pulled by students all over the United States.

So when the gentleman proposes to stop federal aid to those colleges and universities that do have hazing, he is unjustly trying to rule not only the college officials, but the action of the students as well. Is this Democracy?

Louisiana is in the news again. It seems that we just can't stay out of the minds of the people of the United States. This time it seems that about twenty years ago, somebody put a nickle in a slot machine belonging to Frank Costello. When asked to give the nickle back, Frank refused. So for many years, this frustrated reformist has been after the hide of one Costello. We see today that because of the unreturned nickle and because there is an election coming up, Louisiana again must take the publicity of being the only state in the Union that has grafting officials in the states offices.

It is definite that the morals of the government and the people are at a low point. Could be that we are going in the same direction as the Roman Empire. Or we may be having just another pre-election purge. Long live the King!

Senate Minutes

The meeting was called to order March 13, 1951 in the faculty room. The minutes were read. "Chuck" Tillman gave a letter of resignation to the president; his resignation was officially accepted by the members of the Senate.

The Senate resolutions returned to the Senate by the Student Council were read with the recommendations.

By PATSY WINKLER

The supper served in the Home Economics Department last Sunday evening was well received. It drew a large number of faculty members and some students. Delicious spaghetti and meat balls, salad, French bread, dessert, and coffee were served by home economics students, under the supervision of Mrs. Ruby Duncelman, Mrs. Eola Rooks, and Mrs. Marie Dunn.

Plans are being made to continue serving supper each Sunday night.

Among the business discussed at the recent A.W.S. meeting was the election of officers. The new girls will be elected next Tuesday, March 20.

Former students visiting our campus last weekend were Miss Margei Seegers and Miss Magda West, who visited their little sisters, Liz and Mickey, respectively. Miss Judy Schuler was a guest of Trudy Rice, and Peggy Matheson visited Elizabeth Abraham.

Our sincere sympathy goes out to Miss Wilda Pigott of Kentwood who recently lost her brother. She was accompanied home by Alva Mae Brumfield.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The nineteen members of the Northwestern Wesley Foundation who attended the state conference of the Methodist Student Movement at Ruston, March 9-11, enjoying a fine meeting.

They, with Mrs. D. W. Poole, Wesley Foundation Director, left the campus Friday afternoon and drove to Ruston. The students were housed in the newer dormitories at Tech.

The main speaker at the conference was Dr. Lowell B. Hazard of Illinois Wesleyan College.

Jerry Fuller, Vice-president of the Louisiana M. S. M., presided at one of the meetings. A worship service was given by the Northwestern group, with Dorothy Carry, Patsy Winkler, Ann Montgomery, Betty Sue Boydston, and Sallie Jo Foster taking part.

Many times throughout the conference, Bert Boone was called upon to lead group singing. Evelyn Musselwhite served as a student convener for one of the Seminars.

All the group enjoyed the fine meetings and the opportunity to meet and make new friends.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

The meeting of DSE Tuesday night was a most eventful one. First of all Jerry Jackson, LaVerne Hopper, and Janet Ludwig were pledged, and Irene Hebert was repledged.

The nominations of the officers by the seniors were read, and further nominations from the floor were accepted.

The officers elected were: President, Mac Schoonover; vice-president, Pat Marmande; corresponding secretary, Betty Koch; recording secretary, Jean Weeks; treasurer, Marie Tilleux; Chaplain, Joselyn Townsend; sgt-at-arms, Dot Nesbitt; senior panhellenic representative, Jean Weeks; junior panhellenic representative, Dolores Sutherland; alumni secretary, Ethlyn Cloutier; reporter, Peggy Trichel; and historian, Daisy Prudhomme.

The new officers' first task is to take over the plans for the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Plans are rapidly being formulated on the spring formal which is to be May 12.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Monday night the Pi Kaps gave Audubon a very close basketball game with the ending score 26-20. Beth McGuffee, Edith Tarver, Rita Doughty, Betty Roberts, Sarah Cook, and Mary Jo Turnage did a fine job.

Edith recently received an award and medal for being an outstanding player on the Harrisonburg Independents. We're proud of you, Edith.

The pledges are to be initiated Friday and Saturday nights and will have a slumber party at Miss Harper's afterward. You'll hear more about this later, that is, if we live to tell the tale.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Tri Sigma initiated Gervais Aldredge, Doris Bolen, Jo Ann Breedlove, Berta Adams, Betty

Lou Palmer, and Thelma Ruth Stephens this week, and we are very happy to have them as members. No more trays to be carried, beds to make, laundry, etc.; what a life! But our newest pledges are still working feverishly trying to get their points.

A slumber party has been planned for Saturday night, and from the enthusiasm already exhibited by the members, it seems it will be a "Long and Sleepless" night.

We were very glad to see Robbie Sue Adams on the campus last weekend, and are looking forward to seeing other alums very soon.

Pat Bishop is making plans for the Mother-Daughter banquet to be given in April. Also money making schemes are being considered for spring activities. Dreams, schemes, and plans are being made for the spring formal, May 5 is the date!

In basketball Tri Sigma was the victor over Delta Sigma Epsilon last week. It was a grand game.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

Recent welcome additions to the merry membership of Theta Sigma Upsilon are two new pledges: Barbara Dean Arnold and Theresa Jamison. With the conducting of initiation ceremonies Wednesday night, Betty Sue Boydston, Evelyn Musselwhite, and Joyce Winn, became full-fledged, duly-certified Theta Sigmas.

Once again the sorority room has acquired the semblance of a busy bee-hive, what with all the preparation for the Theta Sigma spring formal, the annual Rose Ball, scheduled for March 31. Although the work involved is tremendous, the dance promises to more than compensate for any blistered hands, weary fingers, and dark circles around the eyes.

A break in the usual grind was the party in the sorority room Saturday night when the Theta Sigmas took time out to make fudge and popcorn.

Continuing their social service project, the girls are working on rag dolls for an orphanage.

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

The clank of grinning teeth, and the rattle of healthy handshakes are stealing the show again. Somewhat lamely, the Student Body of Northwestern has dragged itself out of its perpetual lethargy, and entered into politics. To what new low have the political offices on this campus sunk?

From the looks of the present situation, most of the candidates will go into office uncontested.

Well, maybe there's still hope. Oh, excuse me Mr. Student Body. Guess I did speak a little too loudly. Sorry to disturb your sleep. You just go right on back to dreamland, and when it comes time for election, we'll rouse you enough so that you can mark X's opposite the first names your weary eyes can focus on. Now if you're all with me, we'll give three cheers for the most school-spirited school south of the Mason and Dixon. What school? Your guess is as good as mine.

Hello Easter Holidays! And welcome you are to the school-weary souls that haunt the hill. We intend to use your miserly hours only to refresh ourselves. For what and how is our own business. With a fond farewell to the Easter Eggs and Bunny Rabbits. . . .

Three Sororities Elect New Officers

Three of NSC's five sororities have recently elected chapter officers for next year.

Heading Alpha Zeta chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma will be President Margaret Gene Ohlsen. Her supporting officers are Billie Greer, vice-president; Virginia Metcalf, recording secretary; Jean Lyons, corresponding secretary; Ruth Ann Ellender, keeper-of-grades.

Eunice Eden was named incoming president of Alpha Delta chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma. In charge of pledges will be Patsy Winkler. Other officers include Beryl DeLoach, recording secretary; Kathleen Ray, corresponding secretary; Barbara Malloy, treasurer.

Serving as new president of Delta Sigma Epsilon is Mac Schoonover. Pat Marmande was named vice-president; Betty Koch, corresponding secretary; Marie Tilleux, treasurer; Joselyn Townsend, chaplain; sergeant-at-arms, Dorothy Nesbitt.

Women Graduates May Compete For Fellowship

Women graduates of colleges in this state are eligible to compete for an $1800 fellowship to be awarded by Barnard College for graduate study in the social sciences.

The Public Service Fellowship, established in 1934 by the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, is awarded annually within different sections of the country. Candidates for the 1951-52 award must have received the bachelor's degree not earlier than May, 1943, or be assured of receiving it no later than July, 1951 from an approved college or university in the District of Columbia, or in the states of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. The fellowship may be used at any approved institution.

The student must have shown special ability and interest in the social sciences and must show promise of future usefulness in the public service. Mrs. Mary H. Fairbanks is chairman of the awards committee, which also includes Dean Millicent C. McIntosh, Professor Conrad Arensberg and Professor Basil Rauch. Applications, which must be submitted by April 1, may be obtained from Mrs. Fairbanks, Barnard College, New York 27, N. Y.

NSC to Hold Thirteenth Annual Invitational Relays March 31

All seven Louisiana colleges in the Gulf States Conference and forty high schools are expected to be represented by their star athletes in Northwestern State College's 13th annual invitational relays March 31, Coach H. H. Turpin, director of the event, announced.

Although the deadline for entries is not until March 28, school entries are already beginning to roll in, Turpin said.

According to the rules governing the running of the rally, only college contestants will compete against each other, and secondary school representatives from A and AA schools will compete together. Those from B and C schools will have their own contests, Turpin explained. There is no limit to the number of events a contestant may enter, but a high school will be allowed only one entrant in each individual event.

The different events scheduled are as follows:

- 1:00 Pole vault (high school)
- 1:00 High jump (high school)
- 1:00 Shot put (high school)
- 1:400 880 relay (high school)
- 2:00 880 relay (college)
- 2:00 High jump (College)
- 2:00 Shot Put (college)
- 1:30 120 high hurdles (college)
- 2:10 120-yd. High hurdles (high school)
- 2:30 100-yd. dash trials (high school)
- 2:50 100-yd dash trials (college)
- 3:00 Running Broad Jump (high school)
- 3:00 Discus (high school)
- 3:00 440 relay (high school)
- 3:20 440 relay (college)
- 3:30 180-yd. Low Hurdles (high school)
- 3:40 Sprint Medley (college)
- 4:00 Running Broad Jump (college)
- 4:00 100-yd. Dash Finals (high school)
- 4:10 100-yd. Dash Finals (college)
- 4:20 Mile Relay (college)

Plaques are to be presented to the winner of each group in 440 880 and mile relays, and ribbons will be given to the first, second and third place winners. In addition, the W. W. Turner trophy will be awarded to the high school in each of the two divisions making the most outstanding performance in the relays. The "N" Club trophy will be presented to the outstanding high school athlete of the relays in each division.

Nine Swimmers Recommended for Varsity Letters

Climaxing a season in which the Demons won five of their seven dual meets, Coach John Piscopo has recommended nine members of the NSC swimming team for varsity letters.

Those recommended to receive the "N" in swimming are Jack Branch, team captain, and Kenneth Howard, both of Shreveport; Ben Duhon, Baton Rouge; Dennis Rider, Hodge; Jeff Hennessy, Robert Vorhees and Myron Lockey, all of Monroe; Jack Gaston, El Dorado, Ark.; and Henry Lyle, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A survey of the season's dual meets shows Northwestern defeated Vanderbilt, 51-24; Memphis Navy, 47-28 (here) and 44-31 (there); Pensacola Navy, 43-32, and Emory U., 40-35. The two defeats were at the hands of Southern Methodist, 43-30, and Texas A. & M., 42-33. Both defeats occurred in meets held in the local pool. Participating in the post-season Southeastern A. A. U. meet in Atlanta, the Demons placed sixth to wind up their 1951 series of aquatic engagements.

Although by graduation he is losing the versatile Capt. Branch and Hennessy, Coach Piscopo is anticipating another brilliant season for his tank team next year. He said he was expecting his squad of veterans to be bolstered by a considerable number of able recruits.

EASTER HOLIDAYS

Some 1399 Northwestern students will begin leaving the "Hill" at noon next Thursday for the annual Easter Holidays.

Their four and one-half day vacation will begin at 12:00 Thursday, March 22 and continue through Monday, March 26. Classes will begin at 8:00 on Tuesday, March 27.

Mid-semester grades will be due at noon of this same date.

Demon Tracksters Practice Started

The Northwestern State Track squad reported to start their annual pre-season training on March 5, last Monday.

Holdovers from last year's squad include such stars as John Patton, hurdler extraordinary who came in third in last Sugar Bowl meet at New Orleans; Johnny McConathy, high jump man; Dan Poole, ½ and ¼ miler; Buck Anderson; Junior Turner; and Art "Buddy" Lancaster; all relay men.

Newcomers to this year's squad include Billy Hartt; Ray Kelly, intramural star; Murray Walker; George Davis; Buddy Hildebrand; Ken Corley; Bob Broussard; Dennis Rider; "Toosie" Thomas; Jules Robichaux; Bob Weaver; and Johnny Maricelli.

The first meet of the season for the Demon tracksters this season will take place here, March 31, according to Coach Harry "Rags" Turpin.

Remove All Rust

Metal surfaces should be sandpapered to remove any roughness before applying a new coating of paint or enamel. Any traces of rust should be completely removed or the rust will continue its destruction. Where the surface is sanded down to the metal itself, it should be given a first coat of metal primer before the finishing coats are applied.

CHIEFS WIN SAAU TOURNEY- SET NEW SCORING RECORD

For the second year in a row Natchitoches' local independent basketball team, the VFW Chiefs, won the first prize trophy of the Southern Amateur Athletic Union tournament in New Orleans. Competing against top teams from five southern states the Chiefs qualified to represent the South at the national tournament in Denver.

In the quarter finals the locals set a record for high score by downing Forest Motors of Mississippi 117 to 85. In the finals a strong Whitfield-Phillips team bowed to the Chiefs 78 to 68.

Three members of the squad made the honorary all tourney team: Johnny McConathy, Hershall McConathy and Linwood Outz. Archie Ranew was placed on the second team.

Members of the team that will travel to Denver include Coach Ocie Richie, Stoutamire, Thompson, Waggoner, Patton, J. McConathy, H. McConathy, L. Outz, Bates, Yeager, and Ranew.

Tulsa Oilers to Play Sports Here Next Wednesday

Local Baseball fans will be able to see AA baseball here Wednesday, when the Tulsa Oilers play the Shreveport Sports at Highland Park.

Game time will be 2:00 p.m. and admission is 75c and 50c.

President J. N. Howlett of the Oilers states that if the crowd turns out in sufficient numbers, he will play some of his exhibition games here every year.

Gymnastic Team Preps to Defend Championship

Working out daily under the direction of John Piscopo, varsity gymnastic coach, Northwestern State College's gym team is preparing for three crucial meets scheduled for April. The Demons will be defending their Southern championship title gained last year, and Al Copp, New Orleans, captain of the team, is out to retain his title as the Southern all-round gymnastic champion.

The Demons' first meet of the season and the first of its kind ever held in Natchitoches, will be with the Dallas (Texas) Athletic Club April 7. This event will have as a special attraction four outstanding girl tumblers in the nation. Jo Ann Slocum, 1951 National A.A.U. champion, will give a special performance of her skill as will Beverly Gallagher, present Southwestern A.A.U. trampoline and tumbling champion. In addition, Barbara Gallagher and Sue Ragsdale, top Dallas Athletic Club tumblers, will perform with the two champions.

On April 10 the Demons will be in Hattiesburg, Miss., participating in the Southern AAU championship meet to be held at Mississippi Southern. Both the North-western team and its captain will defend their titles there.

The third meet will find the Demon gymnasts participating in the Southwest gymnastic championships at the Dallas (Texas) Athletic Club on April 21.

Coach Piscopo released his roster of 15 Demon team members this week. They are: Capt. Kopp, Warren Hauth, Charles E. Castaing, Bert Babcock and John Hicks, all of New Orleans; Lee Reece, Leland Langridge, Kenneth Howard, and James Carlyle, all of Shreveport; Ben Duhon, Baton Rouge; Henry Dale Branch, Waterproof, Jack Gaston, Eldorado, Ark.; Pedro Velez, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico; James Brannon, Sulphur; and Robert Vorhees, Monroe.

State Legion Tourney Set March 17-18

The 1951 statewide American Legion basketball tourney will be staged on the Louisiana State University campus in Baton Rouge March 17-18, announced J. E. Knight, Louisiana Department athletic chairman.

Preliminaries will be held in the Gym-Armory on Saturday afternoon. Semifinals will be staged Sunday afternoon and the finals Sunday night, following an exhibition game between the Couchatta national Legion champions and LSU all-stars.

The state champion will qualify for the national tournament to be staged at Natchitoches March 29-30 and 31. The Couchatta quintet is an automatic finalist, in the nationwide event.

Robinson, Isgitt Visit Beauregard I. A. Programs

On March 12, Dr. Walter J. Robinson, Head of the Industrial Education Department, at Northwestern State College, accompanied by Kenneth A. Isgitt, Converse, a senior majoring in Industrial Arts, visited the industrial arts programs in Beauregard Parish. The trip was made in response to an invitation by the industrial arts teachers of the Parish to attend one of the monthly meetings.

Schools visited by Dr. Robinson were DeRidder, Merryville, Singer, Longville, and Ragley. In DeRidder, he examined plans for the new shop which is included in the modern ranch type school under construction. Mr. Mack McWater is the I. A. instructor. In Merryville he inspected the general shop program which is under supervision of C. E. Younger, a NSC '50 graduate. Similar programs were observed at Singer, Longville, and Ragley, all of which are being taught by NSC graduates. Joseph Ruge is at Singer, Laverne Evans is at Ragley, and Jimmie Hillman at Longville. The work at Ragley is operating on a limited scale due to the unfinished shop building. Mr. Evans said they expected to be in the new plant before the end of the present school term.

After a tour of inspection was made of all the programs in the parish, an oyster dinner was served the group at one of the local cafes. The dinner was followed by a conference at which problems confronting the industrial arts teachers were discussed. Supt. K. R. Hanchey and some of his principals attended the meeting. The final event of the day was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McWaters. Coffee and delicious sandwiches were served.

Beauregard Parish schools under the supervision of K. R. Hanchey are to be commended upon their progressive and constructive industrial arts programs that are getting started.

Soc. Sci. Dept. Participates in Recent Conference

The Department of Social Science at Northwestern State College played an active role in the Louisiana College Conference held at Louisiana Tech on March 2 and 3. In all, 7 of the 9 members of the department attended, and of the group, four figured actively in the meeting.

Dr. John S. Kyser, Department Head, and Professor Alvin Good appeared on the programs of the social science and social welfare sections. Dr. Kyser took part in a panel discussion of the "Integration of great books, great issues and current events into social science curriculum," while Professor Good was one of the speakers on the question "The Pre-Professional Curriculum for social welfare students."

Two other members of the Northwestern delegation were elected to office. Dr. John Duffy, Associate Professor of History, became vice-chairman of the State A.A.U.P. organization, after serving as last year's chairman. As 1950 Chairman, Dr. Duffy was instrumental in changing the informal state organization into a more effective agency. William C. Havard, Assistant Professor of Government, was elected State Chairman of the social science section for next year's meeting. As chairman, Havard will be responsible for the Social Science program at the 1952 conference.

Other members of the Department attending the meeting and participating in the various discussions and other activities were: George A. Stokes, Assistant Professor of Geology, Le Roi Eversull, Assistant Professor of Geography, and William H. Adams, instructor of sociology and economics.

Student Senate Changes Dates for Election of Student Body Officers

The changing of dates of elections of student body officers was one of the main accomplishments of the Senate Tuesday night.

According to the new bills passed, students desiring to be candidates for the various Association offices shall file a written notice of intention not later than the ninth week of the spring semester. Names of the qualified candidates will be announced in the tenth week, and the general student body election will be held in the twelfth week.

Intentions for the candidacy for the office of student senate shall be filed in the thirteenth week, and the election will be held in the fifteenth week. Also at this election will be the run-off, if necessary, of the Student Body Association officers.

An amendment to the constitution, Article III, the legislative department, clarified the duties of the Student Senate and further elaborated on the regulations concerning it. It provided for members to succeed themselves in the Senate, and the time of meeting was set.

Article V, the executive department, provided for the executive power to be vested in the Student Council, and that the president should serve as chairman. The bill set up the order of succession and elaborated on duties of the officers.

Article VI, Student Association officers, set up duties for the co-ed vice-president and provided for cheerleaders. Qualifications of the officers were set, as well as procedures for nomination and voting.

According to Article VIII, concerning advisors of student publications, the editors may now choose their own faculty advisers. The drama fund was put under the jurisdiction of the student council and shall be administered by the director of the dramatics department.

Osborne to Speak Wednesday on Family Relations

"Boy-Girl Relationships in College" is the subject of one of the three public talks to be given here next week by Dr. Ernest Osborne, Columbia University professor and former president of the National Council on Family Relations.

Urging college boys as well as girls to attend, the Panhellenic Council of Sororities of NSC is sponsoring Dr. Osborne's lecture to be given in the Library Building Wednesday evening, March 21, at 7:45 o'clock.

Dr. Osborne is being brought here by the college as the headline speaker for the annual program sponsored by the Louisiana Council on Family Relations. Prof. Alvin Good, of the sociology department, and Mrs. Marie S. Dunn, of the home economics department, are in charge of the arrangements and plans for the series of meetings here.

Planned particularly for welfare workers in this area, as well as for students in home economics and in sociology, an open meeting will be held in the Little Theatre, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at which Dr. Osborne will discuss "Psychological Factors in Marriage." This will be followed by a question-answer period from 11 a.m. to noon. Both single and married students are being urged to attend and participate in the discussion, Prof. Good said.

"Keeping Peace in the Family" will be the subject of the Columbia professor's second talk to be given in the Little Theatre Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This discussion is being sponsored by the Homemakers Club of Natchitoches, an organization of graduates and former students in home economics, and the Euthenics Club, a group of under-graduate students in home economics here.

Following his day on the Northwestern campus, Dr. Osborne will go to Pineville to take part in the meeting of the Southern Council on Family Relations there Friday morning.

Three of Phys. Ed. Dept. Attend District Meeting

Mr. Guy W. Nesom, Director of Health and Physical Education at Northwestern State College, and Miss Jean Harper, a member of the Health and Physical Education Staff, along with Miss Glenna Williams, Supervisor of Physical Education at the Natchitoches High School, returned this week from Richmond, Virginia, where they attended the Southern District meeting of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

During the meeting, Miss Jean Harper was elected to the office of Secretary for the Dance Section of the Southern District of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Mr. Nesom was elected vice-president of the Southern District of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, and will serve as Chairman of the Recreation Division. Mr. Nesom was a member of the Legislative Assembly, and he also served as Chairman of the Aquatic Section and as a Panel Member of the Professional Education meeting in Richmond.

"Nothing to Wear"

If you "haven't a thing to wear" you are no worse off than many people in the world less than 200 years ago. Until the last century or two many persons never had a new garment in their lives. Except among the rich, the idea of "changing clothes" was unheard of, for no one had more than one outfit.

This is typical of thousands of letters telling how HADACOL relieves the real and basic cause of deficiency distresses. For HADACOL provides more than the minimum daily requirement of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin and Iron, plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium. It builds up the hemoglobin content of the blood (when Iron is needed) to send these precious Vitamins and Minerals surging to every part of the body and to every body organ.

Why not find out today why thousands say, "Only HADACOL gives you that Wonderful Hadacol Feeling." At your druggist: Trial size only $1.25; large family size, only $3.50.

The marvelous benefits of HADACOL, today's great nutritional formula, are equally helpful to young and old alike who are suffering from a lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin. Here's what these two pretty coeds, who may have been suffering from such deficiencies, have to say: "We are two college students writing you this letter. Before taking HADACOL we were nervous, restless and unable to sleep at night. We found we were foggy all day and ached all over. Now after taking only 3 bottles of HADACOL we are different persons. We are full of life and energy and our aches have completely disappeared. Thank you for your wonderful discovery of that remarkable product, HADACOL."

providence of the United States. From Chicago Dr. Kyser will go to Austin, Texas, to participate in a round-table discussion of the introductory course in the field of the social sciences to be held at the University of Texas, during the annual Easter meetings of the Southwestern Social Science Association. Having been teaching such a course at Northwestern State College since 1939, Dr. Kyser is recognized as both a pioneer and an authority in this type of college work in the Southwestern states of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana.

According to Dr. Kyser, interest and concern with this work has been growing in the Southwest to such an extent that in the Houston meetings of the association last year, it was decided to set up a special program for the 1951 meetings at Austin.

Dallas Symphony to Close Concert Season Here

The Dallas Symphony Orchestra will close the concert season of the Natchitoches Northwestern State Concerts Association when it appears in concert at the Fine Arts Auditorium on Wednesday, April 4, at 8:15 p.m.

The drive for memberships for the 1951-1952 season will be held April 9-14.

High School Musicians Convene Here For Annual Two-Day State Festival

Buses from all over the Northwestern area of Louisiana will be bearing hundreds of high school musicians to the Northwestern State College campus Friday, March 30, for the annual two-day music festival. Prof. Sherrod Towns, director of the college's department of music as well as director of the festival, and his departmental associates and all students in the Department of Music will serve as hosts for the occasion.

In addition to the large auditorium in the Fine Arts Building rooms on all three floors of the mammoth building will be used for judging the various individual and group events of the festival. Friday will find 13 bands and orchestras performing elsewhere in the building. Vocalists, including individuals as well as groups, also are scheduled to perform throughout the day. The performances of other groups, including 11 band and orchestras, will be heard on Saturday. The greatest number of entrants in any single event is that of piano in which 72 will try for superior rating on Friday and 92 on Saturday.

Schools participating in the festival include those from Natchitoches, Campti, Winnfield, Ferriday, Vivian, Coushatta, LaSalle, Oil City, Bossier City, Jena, Houston, Leesville, Providence, Many, Alexandria, Belcher, Southfield, Shreveport, Pineville, Logansport, Mansfield, Greenwood, Rayville, Pleasant Hill, Elm Grove, Hall Summit, Florien, Martin, St. Joseph, Tioga, Simpson, Pickering, Bethany, Mooringsport, and others.

Debate Squad Ends Season In Okla. Meet

The Northwestern State College Debating squad under the direction of William S. Smith, finished its season last week-end by participating in the Twenty-second Savage Forensic at Southeastern State College of Oklahoma at Durant.

The NSC squad, composed of 17 members, participated in five speech tournaments away from the campus, the Louisiana Speech Tournament held on the campus and a clash with Louisiana College. A total of 2,800 miles of travel allowed, 91 intercollegiate clashes, of which 20 were rounds of discussion. Of the 71 debates, 28 were won, 37 lost, and 6 were non-decision.

The squad began its intercol-

Legion National Tourney Underway; Coushatta Cagers Defeat Penn, 50-48

Miss Louisiana to award trophies

Ten teams from nine states are entered in the National American Legion Basketball Tournament, which began here Thursday night.

The event was originally scheduled to include 14 teams, but was cut to ten with the withdrawal of teams from Wisconsin, Ohio, Utah and South Carolina. States who will have representative teams in the affair are: Kansas, Illinois, Michigan, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, Indiana, Iowa and Oklahoma.

The three days of the tourney have been proclaimed "Legion Basketball Week" by Governor Earl K. Long. Lieutenant Governor Bill Dodd will attend the tournament as a representative of the State of Louisiana.

To be played for the first time in the South, the tourney is scheduled for the local college because last year's championship was captured by the Red River Post No. 118 at Coushatta. The champs earned the right to play host to the nation and selected historic Natchitoches as the site for the meet.

The Coushatta team is composed of three of Northwestern State College's cage greats, Ocie Ritchie, Bernard "Tussie" Waggoner, and Claude "Jodie" Stoutamire. The Champs will field practically the same team that won the championship last year and will have the advantage of playing on a familiar floor.

Martin High School's cage quint, State Class B Champs, will play Bryceland, State Class C Champs, in an exhibition game before the final contest of the tournament Saturday night.

Miss Louisiana, Miss Rowena Taliferro, will award trophies and jackets to the winning team Saturday night.

Pairings for the meet are as follows:

Thursday Night

Game No. 1 6:00 p.m. McPhearsen, Kans., vs. Illinois.
Games No. 2 7:30 p.m. Jonesboro, La. vs. Niles, Michigan.
Game No. 3 9:00 p.m. Coushatta, La. vs. Beaver Falls, Pa.

Friday, March 30

Game No. 4 6:00 p.m. Versailles, Ind. vs. Winner game No. 1.

Game No. 5 7:30 p.m. Winner game No. 2 vs. Independence, Iowa.

Game No. 6 9:00 p.m. Tecumseh, Okla. vs. Winner game No. 3.

Saturday, March 31

Game No. 7 1:30 p.m. Prairie, Miss. vs. Winner Game No. 4.

Game No. 8 3:00 p.m. Winner game No. 5 vs. Winner game No. 6.

Final Game

Game No. 9 8:30 p.m. Winner game No. 7 vs. Winner Game No. 8.

Officials for the tourney are Sam Massette and John Cover, Gary, Indiana; Alaric Smith, Bossier City; and Frenchy Arceneaux, Shreveport.

Cellists Present Concert for Local Group

David Lepard and Richard Somers, Cello majors in the music department presented a musical program for the United Commercial Travelers' banquet last Thursday evening. The program was a varied one, consisting of Cello solos by both Mr. Lepard and Mr. Somers, and combined Cello duets by both students. The students were well received and their music was greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

To Our Readers...

Dear Sir:

You might note a slight change in the format of the Current Sauce this week—and, you might not. However, we are sure, since this is the issue in which we, the staff of the paper, take our annual holiday, you will feel jubilant, insulted, or in utter sympathy with us.

To repeat—on this day, and only on this day—though it may appear so at other times—we take a reporter's (and editor's) holiday. We disregard all possible suits of libel and/or slander; we take no heed of the long-standing principles of journalistic makeup; and we have no use for the grammar rules that our professors have crammed into us throughout the six or seven years we have been in college.

We slam our professors until they holler in self-defense... "Stop or I'll fail every lasting one of you"... We knock students until they swear that they'll never pick up a Current Sauce again" (so what, they don't pick them up now anyway); and we even take a few cracks at ourselves (you'll have to look hard and long to find them).

Regardless (or should we say irregardless) of the things you see in the Sauce this week—please do not think they were written with malice—premeditated or otherwise. It is just our way of expressing our fondness for the people with whom we work. Besides, what would life be without a little fun. If you think we have gone a little too far in any instance, then we offer our sincere apologies. We hope you enjoy reading this issue as much as we have enjoyed putting it out. Believe us—it was really fun!

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

Whose was the hand that slanted back this brow? Whose breath blew out the light within this brain? Whose pen carved out these mid-semester grades? Ah, 'tis a bitter life.

From a table poll of NSC where particular people congregate (fieldhouse, in case you're wondering) we get the reaction to the invasion of this week-end. Nine out of ten commented intelligently, "Yeah." It's right useless to explain this reaction. To those having lived and learned at Northwestern "yeah" can express almost anything. Anyway there are an awful lot of people around.

We're really going in for a clean-up job here. Someone came from a fer-off place to tell us what is wrong with our boy-girl relationship. ?? England even sent over part of her parliament to tell us what is wrong with our country, and Illinois sent a posse down to tell us what is wrong with our food. Gee tanks! We're on the right road now.

Illinois seems to have a solution for student assemblies. The students are assigned seats in the auditorium, and after three unexcused absences from assembly, they're kicked out of school. Rough but so effective.

One after thought: To those people who disagree with he about whether or not a basketball plunks, or whether a handshake rattles, nad teeth clank, check this coinage on the campus — a smilking smile. Not my creation, either.

C'est tout.

Barbara Anne Richter and Claude Stoutamire Reveal Wedding Date

Miss Barbara Anne Richter whose engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. Claude L. Stoutamire is announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Richter.

Mr. Stoutamire is the son of Mr. Charles M. Stoutamire of Tallahassee, Florida and Mrs. W. G. Jones of Jacksonville, Fla.

The marriage vows will be exchanged in a double ring ceremony at the Trinity Episcopal Church of Natchitoches on the evening of Wednesday, April 18, at 7:30 o'clock, with Rev. David J. Coughlin officiating.

The Easter holidays seem to have been a most enjoyable vacation for all the student body. The loudest sounds heard around here now are grumblings about having to be back at school.

Some of the students aren't grumbling, though. They have their heads in the clouds and a sparkle on that all-important third finger, left hand.

Miss Jeanette Pace has been wearing her beautiful diamond for a couple of weeks now. Janette is engaged to Paul Boswell of Many and Shreveport. A business education major from Homer, Janette graduates in June, but as yet the couple have not made further plans.

Barbara Malloy of Ville Platte, a freshman Home Economics student is the bride-to-be of William Parker, also of Ville Platte and a student at L.S.U.

Patsy LeRoy of Flora and a business education major here became engaged to Thad Longlois, who is in the Air Force stationed at Shaw Field, Sumpter, South Carolina.

With so many diamonds dazzling our eyes, how can we ever keep our minds on studying!

Our hats, whether they be Easter bonnets or last year's variety, are off to Miss Mary Clark for walking off with three awards at the recent A. W. S. election and award presentation. Mary received a silver anklet as the A. W. S. Scholarship award, a gold bracelet as the Pan-Hellenic Scholarship award, and the Purple Jacket Key Award for the best all-round sophomore. Congratulations, Mary's we're happy for you.

All eyes and thoughts are turned to the coming Spring Formal to be held April 5. Hal McIntyre and his orchestra will provide concert and dance music. We students want to say a sincere "thank you" to the student council and to everyone who worked hard to make it possible for us to have a name band here at Northwestern.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

All the Pi Kaps had a grand time at a recent slumber party in Miss Harper's house. After weariness had overtaken all but a few hearty souls, quiet descended upon the house—but not for long. The girls were soon up and going strong, guzzling down the coffee as quickly as Miss Harper could make it. It was unanimously agreed that it was one of the nicest slumber parties we have had.

Jodie Brantley of Alexandria came up for the slumber party and to visit the girls. We were certainly glad to have Jodie back again.

The officers of Pi Kappa Sigma were installed in an impressive ceremony. They were: Eunice Eden, President; Patsy Winkler, Vice-president; Beryl DeLoach, Recording Secretary; Kathleen Ray, Corresponding Secretary; Barbara Malloy, Treasurer; Marilyn Snoddy, Corresponding Editor; Betty Roberts and Sarah Cook, Keepers of the Archives; and Louise Vick, Sergeant-at-Arms. Congratulations to all yuo girls. We know you'll do a good job.

The Pi Kap house was certainly a cheerful place the evening Carolyn Fultz was formally pledged. We're so happy to have Carolyn with us.

After the regular meeting, Tuesday evening, the actives enjoyed the box of candy presented by Barbara Malloy, who is flashing that lovely diamond at us all. Congratulations to you and Buddy, Barbara.

SIGMA SIGMA, SIGMA

Congratulations are in order for Billie Greer who will be Vice-President of A.W.S. for next year, and Janette Pace, retiring A.W.S. president, who won the award for the outstanding Senior woman student. Congratulations are also in order to all the Sigmas on winning the A.W.S. Candlesticks

Miss Marguerite Robinson, home economist, will conduct a lecture - demonstration using evaporated milk before food classes and nurses studying foods and nutrition in the foods laboratories of the Home Economics Building at Northwestern State College April 4 and 5.

for the sorority having the highest scholarship.

Tri Sigma's plans for the coming month include installation of officers, the annual Mother-Daughter banquet, and a bridge-supper. Committees have been appointed, and plans are underway.

Tri Sigma sends her most deepest sympathy to Erin Mays on the death of her mother last week.

Local All-Stars, Barksdale Team Meet Tomorrow

The All-Star team from Natchitoches will meet the Barksdale Air Force Sky Raiders in an exhibition baseball game here at Highland Park Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

This will be the first in a long line of recreational programs planned for local fans and sponsored by the Natchitoches Recreation Department, stated Mr. Donald Brumbaugh, Recreation Director.

The Barksdale Sky Raiders are a classy service team from the Barksdale Air Force Base and have defeated the Northwestern State College Demons twice this season, 14-13, and 4-3 respectively. They have also beaten Centenary College twice.

The Recreation All-Stars' team is made up of Ex-College stars, local talent, and some ex-professionals.

Night Watchmen Recently Resign Positions En Masse

A bewildered NSC president announced last night, from behind closed doors, that each of the 500 night-watchmen on the campus had resigned their position. The series of resignations occurred shortly after the nervous breakdown of one of the campus sleuths, Mr. Johnson. He was last seen running from the campus yelling, "There ain't no such animal." He was obviously referring to the many persons who have, when reproached for over-amorous acts, claimed that they were "Joe Slavodnich and Marie Ippleswitch," or "Gustave Inklebavodkey and Gustavia Pettersaninika".

The president released several plans for acquiring a new staff of nightwatchmen. In the meantime, however, the entire Natchitoches Police Force has volunteered to assist. They virtually offered the college the keys to their doors, complete with a welcome mat.

Only remaining member of the SS troopers of the campus, according to the president, is Mr. Holt, chief traffic manager of the local sub-division of the Gestapo.

Local Grammar School Cops Honors In American Legion Basketball Meet

Upsetting the expert's predictions, the Natchitoches Grammar School quintet defeated the Coushatta American Legion five, 69 to 45, to cop the National Legion Championship title.

Coming from behind (Coushatta made the first goal), the Little Red Devils displayed classy floor work and controlled the backboards for the entire second half and the first half.

The "Imps" were paced by "Popeye" Rallen, 5'11" center,

Mr. Holt stated in an interview that he would be at NSC, regardless of what happened, until his whistle were out—and until they quit making new ones.

Rumor has it that, since the draft has eliminated possibilities of a good football team, the college will employ the huskiest of the athletes to handle the irate campus lovers. The new night-watchmen will be armed with, in addition to their size, multi-colored flashlights—to assist them in carrying out the elaborate signal plan being devised—and oversized billyclubs. Plus this, the men will be issued giant-sized pencils and pads, and will have access at all times to the ROTC Armory.

(APRIL FOOL!)

who contributed 14 points to pace his squad to the thrilling victory and the championship. Close behind was Bike Mellipani with 13. Collecting 12 points each were "Tuck" Chillman, Harry Korley, and "Silent" George Booker. Buster K. Keaton sank the remaining six points.

Brad Shaw, coach of the victors, said plans were being made to play several games in New York's Madison Square Garden next season, for the purpose of donating the gate receipts to the Underprivileged Bookies' Fund.

Believe it or not, this didn't actually happen at the annual Backwards Dance. It also proves that the camera—in he wrong hands—can lie. This one lied all over the place. Some people accuse the photographer of lying all over the place that night—but we think he was sober. Besides, you should have seen the swell picture he did get that night. That's what you get for not erasing the Current Sauce.

ROTC Members Resign in Staff Planned Meeting

A simple question posed by the Professor of Military Science and Tactics yesterday in class led to the resignation of the entire group of ROTC members. When Col. James Bowman opened a class session for questoins yesterday, an irate member of the class jumped up and yelled, "Yeah! I gotta question. How do you get out of this man's Army?" The colonel's attempt to answer the question was futile, as thirty-one members of the class feverishly wrote out resignation slips and rushed out to buy tickets to lower Siberia.

The PMS&T was last seen deftly side-stepping bayonet parries of the well-trained members of the corps, and wildly yelling, "You can't do this to me."

Brigadier General Raymond Hufft was immediately contacted (Con'td on page—you guess)

'Oh Susanna' Rated With Grammar School Production — Vaughn

The production of "Oh Susanna", the Drama Department's spring semester presentation will be marked by several changes from established custom, according to Don Carr, speech professor and director of this Stephen Foster musical. "We feel that this play is SO bad that something has to be done in order to relieve the boredom and make it possible for the audience to last through the two acts. Therefore, the Drama Department has arranged for the use of a small bar in the lobby for the audience between acts and at any other time the patrons feel the need of a 'Bucker-up.'"

The cast also will have a small party on stage beginning three hours before curtain time, in order that they will be able to last thru the entire show. There will be vaudeville numbers between acts featuring loud music in order to awaken the audience. The refreshments will be furnished by a local catering company, The Silicon Chapeau, Inc. of this city."

In another interview with Lowell "I'll be glad when this thing is over, so I can quietly drop dead." Vaughn, the student technical director. Mr. Vaughn is quoted as saying, "I have already made my plane reservations for British Samoa, and I can hardly wait for April 19th and 20th in order to miss both performances of the production."

All-in-all, "Oh Susanna" promises to be one of the outstanding dead spots in the history of college dramatics. (APRIL FOOL).

Kyser Advocates Return to Simple Language Usage

Dr. John S. Kyser, Head of the SPKLF (Society for the Preservation of the Lowest Form of King's English) advocated yesterday in an exclusive interview with a Sauce reporter the reversion to monosyllabic language.

Kyser, who has only been at NSC for 2 years, has only recently been available for comment. Most of his time at NSC has been spent in the library working on a 200 word dictionary to be published by the Natchitoches Times some time in the future.

The pedantic Social professor advocates the usage of simple words like "ug", "Naa", "uh-huh" and "Un-uh". When questioned on the importance of this, in relation to world affairs, Kyser stated "Ug". His secretary later revealed that this means, in the lowest form of the King's English, "Categorically speaking, the ethical, and ethical relationship to the utilization of monosyllabic terms, is indeterminably evident; especially to the intelligentsia of the pedagogues and to the modernistic politico. Reversion to this utterly insipid means of communication would allow the races of the world—including all cephalic types — to speak on a common basis, with the possible exclusion of Stalin, who would probably revert to some other form of Martian language."

When questioned on what effect this change would have on the culture of the world, Kyser mumbled in two and four syllable words, "this change obviously will not effect the culture of the student world, particularly the NSC student world since sign language and one syllable words are the only ones in their vocabulary at the present time." APRIL FOOL!

Full Schedule Slated for Summer

Virtually all departments of Northwestern State College will be operating full force during the nine weeks' summer term beginning Monday, June 11, the summer session bulletin just released from the press, indicates. The closing date of the summer session is August 10.

For the first time in its history, Northwestern State College will offer, in the summer of 1951, certain short courses designed to meet the needs of teachers-in-service and others who cannot spend the whole summer term in school. These short courses will carry regular college credit, and each will operate for three hours a day, five days a week, for periods ranging from ten days to three weeks.

Another highlight of the 1951 summer session will include the holding of the National Aquatic School, June 3-13, under the sponsorship of the American Red Cross. This includes courses in first aid, life saving, accident prevention, swimming, canoeing, boating, and programming.

A square-dance camp will be held on the campus, June 4-9, (Cont'd on following Page)

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 10...THE PANDA

"Let's get down to bear facts!"

The sudden rash of quick-trick cigarette tests may have caused panda-monium on the campus — but our scholarly friend was unperturbed. He pondered the facts of the case and decided that one-puff or one-sniff tests... single inhale and exhale comparisons are hardly conclusive. Proof of cigarette mildness doesn't come that fast!

And that's exactly why we suggest...

The sensible test — the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone"

(T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

Pat Marmande President of NSC Association

Miss Patricia Marmande, of Houma, was chosen president of the Associated Women Students of Northwestern State College for the next school year in the annual election here Tuesday, March 20. Miss Marmande, who is a junior home economics mafor, was also voted the distinction of being Northwestern's "outstanding undergraduate woman" of the year.

Others elected to office at the annual mass meeting of Northwestern coeds were: Billy Greer, Springhill, vice-president; Barbara Malloy, Ville Platte, recording secretary; Delores Sutherland, Westlake, corresponding secretary; Claudine Box, Shreveport, treasurer, and Louise Vick, Vivian, social chairman.

Besides the election of officers various awards for scholastic achievement were made at the mass meeting. Miss Mary Clark of Alexandria, a sophomore music major, received three of these awards. They were: The Pan-Hellenic award to the Northwestern coed of the 1949-50 school year with the highest scholarship average; the A.W.S. award to the 1949-50 freshman coed with the highest scholastic average, and the Purple Jacket award to the 1950-51 outstanding sophomore coed. Miss Clark's scholarship average was 2.9 out of a possible 3.

The Purple Jacket award is made annually to the sophomore woman student on the basis of her scholarship, leadership and character. The honor is bestowed upon no student whose scholarship average is below 1.6 for her selection committee is composed entire freshman year's work. The of the president of the college, the dean of women, a faculty member and officers of the Purple Jacket Club, honor group of outstanding coeds.

For the second successive year residents of Kate Chopin dormitories. Mrs. Iva Stinson is the house director of the Kate Chopin dormitory.

The Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority was announced as the winner of the A.W.S. award of silver candlesticks for achieving the highest scholarship average of the five social sororities having chapters on the Northwestern State campus.

Miss Janette Pace, Centerville, who has served as president of the Associated Women Students this year, was the recipient of the award for the "outstanding senior woman" of the year. Miss Pace is a business education major.

Eng. Professor Discovered to Be Mary Marvel

Reporters and newsreel cameramen from all over the nation were present to record the public presentation of Miss Mamie Bowman of the English department as Mary Marvel, the wonder girl of the past century.

The mysterious veil of secrecy surrounding the identity of this modern Amazon was lifted Thursday when Ambrose, NSC president, witnessed her daring rescue of Dr. John Duffy, who had leaped from the top floor of Coldwell Hall in an attempt to elude police officers.

Heralding the discovery of her true identity, the Natchitoches Chamber of Commerce staged a gigantic parade yesterday. Miss Bowman, or Mary Marvel, rode in state (we don't know what state) on the back of a sacred white cow imported by air express from India for that purpose. In exhibitng her prowess, Mary carried the cow half the distance.

An unanticipated incident occurred which also revealed her mighty vocal power. Having forgotten to make an assignment to her English 102 class, she simply shouted it during the parade. Official reports from Dallas, Texas, confirmed statements of the local residents who stated they had heard the echos. The Mount Palomar Observatory also recorded earthquake manifestations on the planet Mars.

In reference to the Congressional Medal of Honor she received during World War II for knocking out 26 German Luftwaffes single-handed, Miss Marvel stated, "I only wish I could be as successful in knocking a little knowledge into the heads of my students."

(April Fool.) Aren't we imps?)

(Editor's Note: It is our sincere hope that by this article we do not incur the wrath of Miss Bowman, who really is a good scout. Besides, four of the staff are in her classes.)

ROTC—

for help in the situation, but refused to commit any of his troops. "Ye Gods, men!" he explained, "This thing could spread."

Colonel Bowman's only statement regarding the nutiny was, "Gad . . . what will the War Department think!" Obviously, his staff members weren't concerned. They crawled from under their desks one by one at the Colonel's order and reported nonchalantly for duty. Each of them assured the ROTC commander, as they stuffed one-hundred bills in their pockets, that they had nothing whatsoever to do with the revolt.

Havard to Enter Legal Profession

Professor William Havard, of the NSC Social Sciences Department, stated yesterday that he has at last decided to enter the legal profession. The professor gave as the reason for his change from the teaching profession the influence of his recent class lectures on the lawyer class of society. Havard stated that he has praised the lawyers so much in the past few months that he has won himself over.

Upon being questioned on his future plans, the teacher stated that he had no use for the high salary he was getting at present. Taxes, he remarked, ate up his salary, and it was getting too hard to find worthy charity causes to which to donate his surplus funds.

Before setting up practice, possibly in the area of Herzegovina, which is nowhere close to Istanbul. Havard will probably attend short courses at the University of Yug. The professor states that he can, by utilizing his slush fund, stay indefinitely at the great center of legal learning. Literature on the school states that, outside of the out-of-state entrance fee, expenses are very low. The only difficulty, said the legal aspirant, is the low rate of exchange of the money. He has chartered the Queen Mary to carry his traveling money—which will be converted into gugas, the official coin of the country. Havard will, to obtain local color and lose some of the professional attitudes, travel to the University on a Cunard tramp steamer. (APRIL FOOL!)

Capable Musicians Fill Ranks of Orchestra

The Natchitoches Orchestra, under the direction of Val Hill, is busily preparing itself for its Spring tour and public concert in Natchitoches. Musicians from Natchitoches capably fill its ranks.

For instance, did you know that Miss Jayne Breazeale, cellist in the orchestra, is a graduate in music composition from L.S.U. and a former member of the L.S.U. and Baton Rouge symphonies. Miss May Beville is a graduate of L.S.U. and Northwestern State College in violin. Miss Beville has studied extensively in New York and at Columbia University. She has been a member of the L.S.U. and Baton Rouge symphonies. Mr. Joseph Carlucci, also clarinetist with the Natchitoches Orchestra, is a graduate of Yale University. Mr. Carlucci has the privilege of studying for several years with Paul Hindermith and he is a former member of the New Haven Symphony. Mrs. Val

Hill, concert mistress of the Natchitoches Orchestra, is a graduate in violin from the Universities of Nebraska and Colorado; she has studied violin in Chicago with Mr. Cerwkonky. Mrs. Hill's orchestral experience is extensive and she is known as one of the finest violinists in the South. Mrs. John Makar, violinist, has played with the Kansas All-State Orchestra and the Tri-State Festival Orchestra of Texas, Kansas, and Oklahoma. Mrs. McCain, known as an outstanding musician and educator, is a graduate of N.S.C. and L.S.U. in violin. Frank Schneider, oboist with the orchestra, is a graduate of Southeastern and L.S.U. Mr. Schneider is an important name in the field of band music in the South; he has appeared as guest director of many music clinics and has directed many bands throughout the state. Mr. Schneider is a specialist in the field of woodwind instruments. Mrs. E. G. Shields is a graduate student in violin from the University of Kansas and she is well known in Natchitoches as an outstanding violinist. Mrs. Shields is also a former member of the Wichita Symphony.

Police Capture Desperado Don Fri. in Fine Arts

The curtain of justice was lowered yesterday on the crime career of Desperado Don Glattly of the music department when police machine guns put an end to his three-day reign of terror.

Glattly was trapped late Friday afternoon in a small practice room on third floor of Fine Arts building in the act of hurling one of the hundreds of snowballs he preserved in a portable deep freeze unit. The eleventh victim of his escapade was Miss Olive Cooper, head of the art department.

According to officers making the arrest, Glattly was at the time of his capture clad only in bathing trunks. This, however, was understandable since he had just returned from a nation-wide contest for the most perfect physique, before his crime-spree.

Undaunted by his arrest, Glattly calmly informed reporters that during his confinement he intended to work on plans for the irrigation of the Sahara Desert.

Schedule—

Another feature of the summer session will be a music clinic for high school pupils, tentatively scheduled for June 17-29. College students attending the regular nine weeks' session may earn as much as ten semester hours credit. For board, room, laundry and infirmary service each dormitory student pays $81.50 for nine weeks. The student activities fee for each student is $5.65. Since books may be obtained under the rental system, their cost is never very heavy, the bulletin states.

The Natchitoches High School will be in operation nine weeks, from June 11 to August 10, thus enabling high school pupils to schedule three half units of new work or to remove deficiencies in as many as three half-unit courses. In addition, supervised teacher training will be offered to students of college grade in the Northwestern Elementary School as well as in Natchitoches High School. For teachers who desire refresher work an observation seminar course in education will be open to both elementary and high school teachers. This will include guided observation in the classrooms of the secondary schools and frequent conferences with supervisors. Special emphasis in this course will be on providing for individual differences in the classroom.

Throughout the summer term the Physical Education Department will sponsor a recreation ment will sponsor a recreation program in which students will have an opportunity to participate in dancing, swimming and other outdoor and indoor sports. The classes in physical education will take canoe trips on Cane River Lake, and picnics and other types of entertainment and special programs for student groups will be scheduled from time to time during the summer session.

legiate competition at the Alabama Discussion Tournament at the University of Alabama in November. The members of the squad who participated were E. G. Smith, Alexandria; Thomas Poole, Winnfield; James Johnson, Starks; and Luke Petrovich, Buras, who won a rating of Excellent. In December the squad attended the LSU debate tournament, adding David Kendrick, Natchitoches, and Cecil Nelson, Shreveport, to their number. The NSC debaters then attended the Mid-South Debate Tournament at Conway, Arkansas, in January. New members of the squad to participate were Don Jones of Lake Charles, Jim Vorhoff of Abbeville, Joyce Winn of Plain Dealing; and Jerry Rasberry of Basile. The Louisiana Speech tournament at NSC under the direction of Mr. Smith was the next event on the Northwestern State squad's schedule, and the high point of the season. A senior man's team composed of Petrovich and Julia McBroom of Shreveport won all four debates in the preliminary rounds only to be defeated in the quarter finals. Miss McBroom won first place in women's extemporaneous speaking. A junior men's team composed of Kendrick and Nielson, proceeded to the semi-finals on four wins out of six debates.

Members of the squad who had not participated before in intercollegiate activities were Beth Cox, New Orleans; Beth Hargrove of Oakdale, Peggy Haywood of Shreveport; Nelwyn Turner of Natchitoches; Louis Cusches of Natchitoches, and Elzer Marx of Menasha, Wisc., who won second place in Radio Speaking.

Before finishing the season at Durant, Okla. two senior men's teams attended the Piney Woods Debate Tournament at Nacogdoches, Texas. The Petrovich-McBroom team proceeded to the elimination rounds but were eliminated in the quarter-finals.

Cape Cod Canal

Although George Washington stressed the need for a canal across Cape Cod during the Revolutionary war, it was 1909 before work was actually begun on the waterway. The Cape Cod canal was completed in 1914 at a cost of $13,000,000.

Student Body to Select Officers; Decide on Amendments Thursday

Student Body elections will be the event of the week next Thursday. The election will be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. according to precinct voting on that day.

Also to be voted on Thursday are the constitutional amendments. Copies of the amendments will be distributed for the voters' information. They will be voted on either "yes" for all or "no" for all because many of the amendments are related in such a way that all are necessary for the effective running of student government.

Candidates for the office of president are Don Jones and Ronald Martin. For the vice-presidency are Leland Langridge and John Ropp.

For coed vice-president are Beryl DeLoach, Carolyn "Butch" Price, and Marie Tilleux; for secretary of the student body are Daisy Prudhomme and Sue Tucker; treasurer of the student body are Carolyn "Pud" McLean, and Arlene Norsworthy.

The following are class officers candidates:

President of the senior class: Cas Moss; vice-president, Elvin Lightsey; secretary - treasurer, Jean Lyons.

President of the junior class: Lowell Starns; vice-president, no candidate; secretary - treasurer, Sue Wheat.

President of the sophomore class: Ronald Quinn, Joe Saltzman, and Murray Walker; vice-president, Elmo Martin, Stewart Carrington; secretary-treasurer, Claudine Box.

Editor of the Current Sauce: Louise Harris; Editor of the Potpourri, no candidate.

There is a possibility of a runoff election at a later date.

Preceding the election, the traditional political rally will be conducted in Fine Arts auditorium. At this time the candidates will present their political platforms.

Dallas Symphony Closes Concert Season Wednesday

The Dallas Symphony Orchestra closed the concert season here when it appeared in concert at the Fine Arts auditorium Wednesday night.

Brought here by the Natchitoches-Northwestern Co-Operative Concert Association, the symphony is under the direction of Walter Hendl.

Included in the program were selections from Strauss, Beethoven, Wagner, and Stravinsky.

Appearing March 28 as guest artist was Set Svanholm, leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Association.

Accompanying Mr. Svanholm in a varied program of songs was Kenneth Thompson at the piano. Mr. Thompson rendered piano solos by Chopin and Rachmaninoff.

The drive for memberships for the 1951-52 season will be held April 9-14.

Past NSC Student Wins Debate Meet With 31 Colleges

Jan-An LeBlanc, former NSC student now attending Western Michigan State College at Kalamazoo, gained first place in debate competition with students from 31 colleges.

Now a senior at the Michigan college, Jan-An took top honors in a tournament sponsored by Tau Kappa Alpha, national debate fraternity, at Harrogate, Tenn.

During her three years at NSC Jan-An received highest ratings in a number of inter-collegiate debate tournaments. A member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, she edited the 1950 Potpourri.

College Singers To Give Concerts In Alexandria

Sponsored by the state Elks Club, the College Singers, under the direction of Donald G. Glatly, will give a series of concerts in Alexandria, April 29 and 30.

Sunday, the group will present their program at the First Baptist Church. On the following day, they will appear at Botlon high school, and later at Tioga.

The Singers will make the trip in a college bus.

Louise Harris, associate editor of the Sauce, steps up to become editor this week. An applicant for editorship of the Sauce next year, Louise publishes this Sauce as her trial edition.

Marmande, David Attend AWS Meet In Lafayette, Ind.

Patricia A. Marmande, president-elect of the Associated Women Students, and Mrs. Perle David, acting dean of women, attended the national convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students in Lafayette, Indiana, on the Purdue University campus March 29-April 1.

Present at the convention were over 250 women students and 40 deans representing collegiate women governments all over the United States. The purpose of the annual convention is to promote and discuss leadership possibilities of college and university women.

Highlights of the program included addresses by Marguerite Higgins, Korean War correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune; Dorothy Stratton, national executive director of the Girl Scouts of America; and Dr. Lillian M. Gilbreth, author of "Cheaper by the Dozen." Dr. Gilbreth addressed the convention on the subject, "American Womanhood."

H. S. Students Convene on Campus Today for 4th Constitutional Session

High school students from over the state move into the second period of the fourth annual constitutional convention today. They convened on the campus yesterday to begin the culmination of a year's study of information furnished by the NSC social science department; the recommendation of revisions for Louisiana's basic law.

The meet began yesterday with a tour of the campus, conducted by the Purple Jackets. Simultaneously, there was a meeting of the faculty advisers in the Little Theatre.

McIntyre, Orch. Play for Concert, Dance Thursday

Students and townspeople thronged to the college Student Center last night for the first name-band dance held at NSC in two years. Hal McIntyre, popular band leader who has recently had his congregation on the East coast and Atlantic seaboard, played a one-hour concert in the Fine Arts auditorium at 7:30; then the group moved to the field house to play three hours of dance music.

McIntyre commented both on the excellence of the Fine Arts building and the equipment it contained and on the students at NSC, stating that, "I have never seen a group who dance so long and so enthusiastically to my music."

Maintaining a friendly atmosphere during his visit to the campus, the band leader mixed with students and townspeople during the intermissions of the dance. He seemed to particularly enjoy talking to members of the Demonaires and to other music students on the campus. One of the members of the McIntyre band, from Kenner, La., with the consent of McIntyre, offered to rearrange some of the band's scores for the Demonaires. McIntyre himself relinquished three personal arrangements to the local band members.

Sunny Gale, handled the vocal spotlight of the night, teaming with members of the band to present novelty tunes.

Purple Jackets To Make Annual New Orleans Trip

The twenty members of the Purple Jackets, honorary service organization, will make their annual trip to New Orleans, April 15 and 16.

Miss Catherine Winters, adviser of the club, will accompany them on their two-day sightseeing and shopping tour of the city.

Transportation for the trip will be furnished by the college.

Arts and Sciences department of the college, gave the welcoming address at 11 a.m. in the first general convention session, presided over by Dr. John S. Kyser, head of the Social Sciences department.

At the same session, LeDoux R. Provosty, member of the Council of the Louisiana State Law Institute, spoke to the student group on "Highlights concerning the Judiciary Article of the Project of a Constitution for Louisiana."

After the nomination of student officers of the convention, the group broke into committee sessions until after the evening meal. At 6 p.m., in the second general session, the group held an officers election and heard preliminary reports of committees.

At 8:30 this morning the students entered their second group of committee sessions, discussing the various parts of the Louisiana Constitution and making a preparation of recommendations for the convention. At 11 a.m. today, there will be a conducted tour of Natchitoches, leaving from the Student Center.

The main address of the session will be given by H. Lee Prather, president of Northwestern, at a luncheon in the Student Center at 12:30 today.

The final session of the group will be held, under the direction of student officers, at 2 p.m. today. There the group will hear, discuss, and adopt or reject the committee reports.

The final session, at 2 p.m., will be followed by supervised swimming in the college natatorium. Those students remaining until Sunday will be guests of the college.

According to William Havard, social sciences professor on the campus and director of the convention, this year's program is the climax of four year experiment in civic training. The Social Sciences department of NSC is already planning for a new specific program to meet the general needs made evident by the previous successful conventions.

Students May File For Editorship Of Potpourri Now

Since no applications were filed for the editorship of the 1952 Potpourri, NSC yearbook, at the scheduled time for filing for student offices, the College Publications committee will select the editor.

The committee requests that any students interested in assuming the editorship of the Potpourri for next year file their applications with Dean Dudley Fulton, committee chairman, by noon Monday, April 9. The application should contain the applicant's qualifications for the position, Dean Fulton said.

The Publications Committee will meet at 12:30 p.m. Monday to pass on the applications and select the editor.

Basketball and track were the highlights of the sports activities on the campus March 31. Simultaneously held, in the Fine Arts auditorium was the annual Music Festival sponsored by the college music department. Shown above are action scenes from the sports events held Saturday. In the upper right corner members of the Coushatta American Legion team and Mississippi opponent vie for possession of the ball. Coushatta won the game and the American Legion championship for the second consecutive year. At the lower left is shown the beginning of a mile relay. ## Only An Editor

The editor of The Scribe, University of Bridgeport, recently bared his soul to the reading public. He declared: "Profs can sit crosslegged on the top of a desk; dean's list students can let down their guard; student body presidents can fraternize with the masses. Only editors are required to be pontifical always.

"Only editors are supposed to know everything that happens, so it is taken for granted that they already know it, and nobody ever tells them anything; only editors are supposed to keep open minds always, and at the same time make snap decisions for each political impasse; only editors are required to keep their noses out of politics, meanwhile keeping tab on each separate lineup.

"Only editors have to guess.

"Only editors have to grope blindly along, trying to put out a paper for a student body and faculty who will only talk behind their backs, who will never tell them what they like or don't like . . . Only editors never accomplish anything. Only editors have to endure the spectacle of copies of their paper on the men's room floor.

"... And, when all's said and done, only editors have the satisfaction of knowing that their thousands of words a week are written down in letters that can never be erased . . . of sensing that they are doing a job for the students that no one else could do in quite the same way."

Student Government

Next Thursday morning at 8 o'clock the polls will open for the annual election of student body officers and for the approval or disapproval of constitutional amendments.

At present, interest in student affairs seems to be at a new low on the campus. Why . . . nobody knows. What can pull the student body out of this "don't care" attitude is also a moot question.

Regardless of our present attitude about the student body, as an association, how it is to be governed, and who will hold the executive, judicial, and legislative positions, we do have an important responsibility.

Student self government was introduced on the campus of Northwestern a number of years ago by a group who felt that students should have some "say-so" in what goes on on the campus. A certain number of student leaders have, year by year, managed to maintain a high level of interest in college and student affairs, and have strived to create, through co-operation with the faculty and staff of the college, a better place for both to work in.

Students and faculty have, each year, worked together on numerous committees, on budgets, in a cooperative spirit they have evolved better cut systems, have initiated a plan for motion pictures, and, most recently, have created a short-range loan fund for students. They have worked together both in normal times and in times of strife.

It is up to this student body, its leaders, and the association as a whole, to maintain this atmosphere and to keep student government operating on a high level.

Views of The News

By THOMAS POOLE

The election is coming nearer and the investigations are getting hotter with each passing day. The grafters and gamblers will be happy when this is all over, for if it does not end soon, we will not have any government officials or slot machines, either.

Maybe you do not realize the funny angle of all this investigation and purging of the men in government, but just think of the usual policy of nations. When a party is not doing so good on the international front, they usually start a strong foreign policy, and engage in the international scenes. But today after the United States has a stalemate on the international scenes, they suddenly decided that the nation is not in danger of Communism, but is being over-run by slot machines.

Before long we can bring our boys back from Korea and let them hunt down "bookies," slot machines, racing wires, and crooked politicians, instead of getting shot up in the battle with the Reds.

General "We'll be home by Christmas" MacArthur is still plugging away in Korea (by way of Japan), and must have meant by next Christmas. If we had a General Lee to send to Korea with the material of war that we have at the present time, it would be over by the time MacArthur got back to the United States. Of course, I could be prejudiced.

Old "Ike" might not get any more troops in Europe if Congress gets their way in controlling the sending of troops to other areas. The French girls sure are going to miss them, and also the American dollar. I would not mind taking a trip over there myself. I have heard the wine is "superb."

April Fool's day has passed, and if it was only possible to call all the happenings of the past few years a joke and go forward with progress and world peace, everyone would be able to breathe a big sigh of relief and pay more attention to the things that make up normal living.

Then the college student would know that he has a reason for going to college; and the young couples could marry and know that they could have time to raise their children and live together peacefully, instead of dreading the day that his draft call would come and off to war he would go.

But these things will not change yet, and not for a long, long time.

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

To make a broad unbiased statement, Northwestern State College is generally lacking in school spirit. I admit that this is not an original statement on my part, for it is accepted and agreed upon by the other 99.999% of the student body. This point was also accepted at the semi-annual S. F. L. C. U. meeting in Ruston last week.

The remedy, however, is still unprescribed. Someone suggested having a parade the day before each general assembly and encouraging the sepaquer to give away free cigarettes between paragraphs of his speech. As for yelling at the football games—that we have paid "hollers" to yell for the home team. These are only some of the suggestions, and, all in all, the S.F.L.C.U. meeting proved very enlightening. (Literal statement).

Someone Told Me says that the new catalogue for NSC has an interesting feature, "Animal's Paradise." In this feature, all the phases of mongrel education are explained carefully, emphasizing the fact that "This is the only college in the United States where the dogs outnumber students 2 to -!" As an added attraction, there is a sub-section for cats, particularly Mother Cats. All are invited, yea encouraged, to eat in the college dining hall. A progressive school, that Northwestern!

Demon Almanac: Bare arms and gentle people are the good signs of the week.

Tri Sig Has Two Social Projects During This Year

Two of Tri-Sigma's many social projects were the sending of two Christmas boxes to two French orphans and Alpha Zeta's assistance in selling Christmas Seals. Climaxing the year's projects is the collecting and sending of children's books to the John Randolph Library.

From the look of all the sun-tans, spring must really have arrived. There's hardly an afternoon that passes that the ground behind Varnado is not sprinkled with pallets, much sun-bathing paraphernalia, and girls, girls, girls.

Some of the latest fashion notes here on the campus seem to be colorful gingham dresses with touches of white pique. As with last year, sleeveless blouses set off by pretty artificial bouquets at the neckline are very popular. But, because Old Man Weather is so uncertain, it is not odd to see jackets and sweaters covering these bright spring dresses.

Miss Joyce O'Brien, a senior home economics student from Vinton, and Lt. Billy Townsend of Coshatta, a graduate of Texas A. & M., now stationed in Ft. Sill, Oklahoma are making plans for their forthcoming wedding. The couple will be married in the Catholic Church here in Natchitoches on April 14. Many former students of NSC will be among the guests.

It seems that romance is back in the air, for besides one coming marriage, there are several recently engaged students on the campus, two of whom are Misses Betty Dezendorf and Kathryn Dawkins.

Betty, a senior Physical Education major from Natchitoches, is engaged to Arthur Hilton, who is stationed at Hamilton Air Base in Hamilton, California. At the present time, the couple have no further plans.

Kathryn Dawkins of Bastrop has recently become engaged to James Bonsall of Saline. The couple are both Juniors, majoring in the field of education.

Congratulation and the best of luck to you all!

Among the recent visitors to the college were Miss Jodie Brantley of Alexandria and Mrs. Dwayne Murphy, remembered better by many as Jo Pullin, who was a freshman cheerleader this past fall. Jo and her husband are living outside Memphis, where he is stationed.

Mrs. Perle D. David, acting dean of women, and Miss Pat Marmande, president-elect of the Associated Women Students have recently returned from the Inter-collegiate AWS Convention at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana. Mrs. David and Pat both reported that they had a fine, full program and gained must to apply to our local AWS.

Upon her return, Mrs. David was given a birthday party by Mrs. Mae Rhodes and Mrs. Ruth Weber in the latter's apartment in Agnes Morris Dormitory. The house directors of the other buildings and Miss Joy Temple were invited to help Mrs. David celebrate her birthday which occurred while she was in Indiana. Delicious ice cream and birthday cake were served to the ladies.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Congratulations to Pat Marmande and Dolores Sutherland, Pat for being elected president of the AWS and Dolores for being elected social chairman.

The Mother-Daughter banquet is the event next on the DSE calendar. It will be held at the Natchitoches Hotel in the private dining room April 28 at 6 o'clock.

Members are contributing old clothes for a rummage sale soon, and someone is hatching the idea of a slumber party after the sale.

Sometime, too, when the weather warms, DSE is going to have another of its picnics on Cane River.

The dance in May, in spite of all other plans, is foremost in our minds. There'll be a slumber party after that event, too.

You can see DSE has a well-filled schedule for the next two months.

Initiation of some of our pledges is to take place next week. It will be nice to fill the places left vacant by graduates with new actives.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Pi Kaps are collecting cotton scraps of all size and color to make into rag rugs. The alums in Natchitoches and Miss Eola Rooks have offered their time and effort to make the rugs for the Pi Kap house, while the girls are to provide the material. Articles are also being collected for a rummage sale that will be held in the near future.

Plans for the Pi Kap formal dance on April 14 are well under way and everything is going smoothly.

We were both surprised and glad to see Jody Brantley and Jo Pullin Murphy last week. Jody drove up from Alexandria for a surprise visit Sunday, April 1, and Jo was here all last week on a visit from her home in Memphis, Tennessee. She was honored by a coke party at the Pi Kap house Wednesday evening, and left for Memphis Thursday morning.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Have you seen the sparkle on Janette Pace's finger? She's engaged to Paul Boswell, of Shreveport.

Tri Sigma enjoyed the box of candy that Mary Ann Gaunt sent us; we only wish she had been here, too. She is to be married in the near future.

Betty Roan visited NSC over the weekend. She came to see the Coshatta American Legion team beat Jonesboro. (Tussie plays for Coshatta, you know).

We were all glad to see Rowena Taliaferro Merryman, "Miss Louisiana," when she presented the awards at the American Legion National basketball game Saturday night. She's a former Alpha Zeta.

The Tri Sigmas' ideas really burst forth Tuesday night concerning the Sorority Spring formal which is to be May 5. Plans are underway to make this our best ever.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

We have been pretty busy around the ASA house lately. Plans have been discussed going and coming for our spring formal, which is to be held April 21.

Last Saturday night, March 31, we had a slumber (less) party, and on Sunday you surely could tell an Alpha Sigma from the rest of the girls on the campus because they were the ones propping their eyes open. Mrs. Arlin Bice was our chaperon. Mrs. Rosemary Easley and a friend paid us a visit and surprised us with a chocolate cake.

Officers have been elected for the coming year. They are: Dollie Smith, president; Betty Sue Choate, vice-president; Genie Claxton, secretary; Nan Short, treasurer; Jeanette Dowden, Panhellenic representative; Dorothy Dezendorf, chaplain; and Jean Haskins, editor. We sincerely wish these girls good luck with their work next year.

At the last meeting before the Easter holidays, we had one of our old members visit us. She was Mrs. Paul Adams, better known as Dorothy Dale. It seems that everyone is getting married nowadays—the lucky things.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

what we hope will be a very successful year. Barbara West is swinging the gavel now. Her supporting officers for the next year are: Betty Sue Boydston, vice-president; Peggy Taylor, secretary; Evelyn Musselwhite, treasurer; Joyce Winn, editor; and Maurine Gray, rush captain.

Saturday night the Student Center became a rose garden for the Theta Sigmas' annual Rose Ball. Trellises, covered with ivy and artificial roses, climbed the walls and picket fences and an arch completed the decoration. The center of interest was the unique birdbath and birds that really looked like the real thing.

Another center of interest, as always, was the punch table, which was covered with a beautiful lace tablecloth and had a centerpiece of roses.

For entertainment, Ted Forte rendered a couple of songs, and Bessie Morgan sang, "Only a Rose." Jerry Raspberry gave a humorous reading of "The First Kiss."

Miss Stockwell, faculty adviser, was presented with a bouquet of roses.

One of our alums from Natchitoches, Anne Powell, is going to hold a slumber party for the Theta Sigmas, Saturday night, April 14.

NSC Gymnastic Team to Compete With Dallas Team Here Tuesday

The Northwestern State College gymnastic team will play host tonight to the Dallas Athletic Club gymnastic team of Dallas, Texas.

The meet will mark the first competitive gymnastic program ever to be held on the NSC campus.

In connection with his team Coach Lester Griffin of the D. A. C. will feature Jo Ann Slocum, the 1950 national A.A.U. women's tumbling champion, and Barbara Gallagher, Southwest A. A. U. women's trampoline champion of 1950. Both will give exhibitions in their respective events.

Coach Griffin, rated an expert coach in tumbling, has produced national champions in the women's division for the past two years.

Included in the NSC team will be Al Kopp, last year's S.A.A.U. all-round champion, and Bert Babcock, runner-up in the same contest.

Other members of the team and their specialties are: Warren Hauth, balance team and parallel bars; Chuck Castaing, tumbling; Ben Duhon, long-horse; Ralph Gremillion, weight-lifting; Jack Gaston, trampoline; Pedro Velez, balancing; Lee Reece, rope climbing; Leland Langridge, Indian clubs.

James Brannon, long-horse leaping; Kenneth Howard, tumbling; John Hicks, tumbling; Jas. Carlyle, Southwest all-round gymnast winner.

As present S.A.A.U. title holder, the NSC team will journey Tuesday to Hattiesburg, Miss., to defend its title in the 1951 S.A.A.U. meet.

Proceeds from the Natchitoches meet will be used to defray expenses for the Hattiesburg contest and for new uniforms.

NSC Tennis Team Beats Tech Apr. 3

The Northwestern State College tennis team defeated Louisiana Tech at Ruston on April 3, four matches to three.

The results are as follows (NSC listed first):

Singles

1. R. Gravel defeated J. Cheneval 2-6, 6-3, 6-1.
2. D. Chamberlain lost to B. Craft 6-4, 6-3.
3. B. Hunter defeated J. Bates 9-7, 7-5.
4. H. Corley lost to B. Bowles 7-5, 2-6, 4-6.
5. E. Marx defeated H. Ingerman 6-0, 6-0.

Doubles

1. R. Graves and D. Chamberlain lost to J. Cheneval and B. Craft 6-4, 8-6.
2. B. Hunter and E. Marx defeated B. Bates and H. Ingerman 6-1, 6-2.

Bulldogs Upset NSC Baseballers In 2 Game Series

The Demons came out on the short end of their two tilts with the Tech Bulldogs this week by scores of 4 to 3 at Ruston Tuesday, and 6 to 2 here Wednesday.

The two losses now give the Demon nine a won one and lost three record in Gulf States competition, the lone win coming at the expense of the Louisiana College Wildcat delegation whom the Demons mauled by a 14 to 3 count late last week.

The Demons, who are slated to play five games next week, also were scheduled to play host to the Lamar Tech nine from Beaumont Friday and today on the college diamond. The Lamar Cardinals are a new member on the list of Demon baseball opponents.

NSC Students Rep. 53 La. Parishes, 13 Other States

Fifty-three Louisiana parishes and 13 states are represented by NSC students enrolled for the spring semester, according to the office of the registrar.

Leading all other parishes is Natchitoches, with 296 students. Caddo is second with 173 and Rapides, third with 123. The total enrollment for the college is 1,399 students, of whom 55 are from out of state.

Louisiana parishes represented by 20 or more students include Sabine, Winn, Vernon, Ouachita, Bossier, Webster, Concordia, DeSoto, Grant, La Salle, Red River, Orleans, Beauregard, Claiborne, and Bienville.

In the number of out-of-state students attending Northwestern, Texas leads with 18, with Arkansas and New York second and third respectively. Germany is the only foreign country with a student representative. Representing Puerto Rico are four students.

Other states with students at NSC include New Jersey, Illinois, California, Wisconsin, Oregon, New Mexico, Massachusetts, Michigan, Florida, and Mississippi.

Intramural Notes

Sports Night

The first annual Sports Night was held April 4 in the Men's Gym with 37 students entering the following four events: badminton, table tennis, paddle ball,

After a tough-luck session in the annual track carnival held on the NSC campus last weekend, the Demons are preparing to meet Southwestern in Lafayette today.

The Northwestern squad took honors in the high jump at the seven-college meet, but lost by a narrow margin in several other events. In the shot put, the relays, and the high hurdles the Demons rated high.

Johnny McConathy, NSC hoop star, topped the high jump bar at 6'1" to gain first place. He lost fourth place in the shot put by a margin of 1/2 inch.

John Patton, Demon high hurdler, will be out of the Southwestern meet due to a pulled leg. Thomas Poole, also a high hurdle man, did not dress out for the Demons' first meet, due to a previous injury.

Several freshman members of the NSC squad got their first taste of GSC competition in the meet here March 31. They, along with the older members of the team, "looked pretty good," according to Coach Harry Turpin.

After the Southwestern meet this week-end, the Demons have seven tilts scheduled. April 14 they will travel to Shreveport to vie with Centenary in their third contest of the season.

The remainder of their schedule is:

- April 20—Southeastern, Louisiana Tech, NSC—Hammond
- April 21—Southwestern Relays—Lafayette
- April 26—NSC, La. College, La. Tech, Centenary—Pineville
- April 30—NSC, La. College, Centenary—Shreveport
- May 5—Southwestern, Louisiana Tech, NSC—Natchitoches
- May 12—Gulf States Conference—New Orleans.

and box hockey.

The following named men will participate in "The Tournament of Champions" to be held April 25. These men are eligible to enter any other sport on April 18 except that sport in which he has already qualified:

- Ronda and Cottingham—Badminton
- Cuebas, Gray, Pruett and Lightsey—Table Tennis
- Johnston and Henderson—Paddle Ball
- Mahfou and Yergler—Box Hockey.

Committee Colors College Campus With Wild Flowers and Evergreens

By LAURA L. MAHAN

Dogwood and wild azalea blooms are seen on the campus this spring for the first time in NSC history, due to the efforts of the Campus Beautification Committee.

A similar committee was organized some years ago, but it remained inactive up to 1949, when the present committee formulated extensive plans for beautifying the college grounds.

In following its plans, the committee announced that in the past two years, some 500 native plants have been added to the varieties of pines, oaks, dogwood, holly, wild azaleas, and several yellow jasmine vines. Also, a substantial number of young seedlings have been planted in the college nursery to secure a future supply of plants.

The committee, with Mr. Harrison J. Young, Sr., as chairman, has six members. They are: Miss Hope Haupt, assistant professor of art; Mrs. Lilian McCook, of the music department; Mrs. A. J. Hargis, of the Natchitoches high school; Luke Petrovich, student representative and student body president; Mr. Sherrod Towns, head of the music department; and Mr. Young, of the department of agronomy.

Immediate plans for the future, according to Mr. Young, consist of a project for the beautification of the grounds within the enclosure of the North, South and West Barracks. These plans, now in the making, are considered by the committee as its first job for the fall of 1951.

Other projects include a plan to secure and beautify the north bank of Chaplin's Lake, from the college farmstead to the new dairy. Native trees have already been planted on the lower end of the Chaplin's Lake bank.

The purpose of the Beautification Committee, as stated by Mr. Young, is "to replenish diseased or dead plants; to re-arrange landscape scenes; and to add, mainly in native varieties of plants, to what we already have on campus."

The committee's work is done by college labor, under the direction of Mr. W. W. Wilson, supervisor of the college plant and grounds.

Already considered one of the most attractive college campuses anywhere, Northwestern may soon hold the undisputed title, "The Garden Spot of Louisiana."

Stockwell Attends Speech Convention In Fla. This Week

Miss Irma Stockwell, assistant professor of speech and director of the NSC speech clinic, is attending the annual convention of the Southern Speech Association at the University of Florida in Gainesville, April 4-7.

Miss Stockwell is vice-president of the Louisiana Speech Association.

Two senior speech majors, Julia McBroom and Doris Jeanne Pine, are accompanying Miss Stockwell. En route to the convention the group visited the Florida State School for the Blind at St. Augustine to observe the speech rehabilitation program there.

Net Squad Bows To LSU, Loyola Wed. and Thurs.

The Demon Tennis squad, coached by Professor William Havard, met and lost matches to net teams from Louisiana State University and Loyola University by scores of 7 to 1 and 9 to 0, respectively.

The Demons' lone victorious match came when Elzer Marx defeated LSU's Joe Dean, All-SEC hoop man, in the fifth round of singles at Baton Rouge Wednesday before venturing to New Orleans Thursday for the Loyola encounter.

Scoring in the LSU match:

Milton Walker (LSU) defeated Roy Gravel 9-7, 8-6.

Cecil Webb defeated Ben Hunter 6-2, 4-6, 6-0.

Roger Richardson beat Doug Chamberlain 6-0, 6-0.

Spud Baldwin defeated Harry

Corley 6-2, 6-3.

Elzer Marx (NSC) defeated Joe Dean 6-1, 6-2.

Webb and Walker defeated Gravel and Chamberlain 6-2, 6-3.

Richardson and Balwin defeated Hunter and Marx 6-0, 6-0.

Dean and Ernie Barton defeated Jules Robicheaux and Corley 6-4, 6-1.

No figures on the Loyola match are available as yet.

The two losses give the Demon netters a one and three record with the lone win coming over the Louisiana College Wildcat squad.

Red Devils Set Football Game Here Tuesday Night at 7:45

The NHS Red Devils will conclude their six-weeks Spring training period with an inter-squad game to be played Tuesday night, April 10, at 7:45 in the Northwestern Stadium.

Spirit among the Devils has been high this spring, and a fur-flying contest is in the making, says Coach Tom Elkins.

Line-ups are as follows:

The Red Squad

The White Squad

Demon '9' Downs La. College in Conference Game

In the conference opener the Demon baseballers overwhelmed La. College, 14 to 3. With a 17 hit attack and four runs in the first inning, the Demons never lost command of the game. While giving up 8 hits, Ronald Martin held the visitors scoreless until the fifth, when NSC led 8-0, and was never in really serious trouble. Leading the attack on three La. College pitchers was Angel del Toro with 4 for 5. Also in the heavy hitting department were Weaver with 3 for 4, and "Chip" Perot with 3 for 5.

The Demons dropped both ends of a two game series to Tech, the first game, at Ruston, by a score of 4 to 3 and the second at Natchitoches, 6-2.

Phillips Leads College Play 'Oh, Susanna'

Owen Phillips, freshman music major from Shreveport, will play the lead role of Stephen Foster in the forth-coming stage production "Oh, Susanna." The play will be presented April 19 and 20 in the Fine Arts auditorium by the Northwestern State College.

Other students who received lead parts in the two-act musical comedy are: Elizabeth Leo, as Augusta Foster; Gervais Aldredge, Susanna Foster; Beryl DeLoach, Jeanie McDowell; James Leake, Edwin P. Christy; and Ted Forte, Dr. August McDowell.

Rehearsals are being conducted nightly under the direction of Donald Carr, of the speech department.

Admission to the play dramatizing the life of the song writer, Stephen Foster, will be 50 cents per person or by presentation of the student activity ticket.

Natch. Hi Groups Rated Superior In Music Festival

Both the Natchitoches high school band and string orchestra received superior ratings at the Northwest District Music Festival held at NSC Friday and Saturday, according to Prof. Sherrod Towns, festival director.

In individual events 15 Natchitoches students received the highest rating in instrumental solos and one, in vocal solos.

Judges of the festival heard 2,664 youthful musicians perform during the two days of auditions. A total of 371 groups entered the rally for ratings in vocal, instrumental, and twirling events.

Other bands and orchestras receiving superior ratings were those of Bossier, Oil City, Broadmoor, Linwood, and Lakeshore high schools.

Choruses from Jena and Many were rated superior.

All groups and individuals with the highest rating will be eligible to attend the state music festival.

Dr. Duffy to Read Paper at Sci. Meet

Dr. John Duffy, associate professor of history, will read a paper today entitled "Eighteenth Century Health Conditions in the Colonial Carolinas" at the Silver Jubilee of the Louisiana Academy of Sciences at Centenary College April 6 and 7.

Other professors attending the meeting from NSC are: Alvin S. Good, professor of sociology, Professors H. L. Barr, Rene Bienvenu, George Ware, F. G. Fournet, and Dr. W. G. Erwin, all of the science and biology departments.

Professor Fournet, head of the science department, is a charter member of the Academy of Sciences. It is a project of the Academy to have all charter members of the organization present for this, their Silver Jubilee meeting.

Dallas Symphony Personnel Accord High Praise Upon Fine Arts Bldg.

By RICHARD SOMERS

Although we of Northwestern probably all appreciate our beautiful Fine Arts Building, it was especially gratifying to hear what the personnel of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra had to say of it. Mr. Robert Davis, program manager of the D.S.O., stated that throughout their whole tour, from Chicago to Florida and Virginia to Texas, they found no other plant to compare with Northwestern's. Giovanni Cardelli, the manager, was equally impressed.

According to one member, our facilities far outshine those of all other colleges and universities where they performed, and are even ahead of those of the Symphony Hall in Chicago. Other signs of approval came in the form of remarks such as "quite a place," or "I thought Texas had everything until I saw this."

And our Fine Arts Building really is "quite a place," possibly more of a place than we realize. As well as providing space for music, speech, dramatics, art, journalism and language classes, it is the headquarters of the Northwestern Band, Northwestern Chorus, the Natchitoches Orchestra, The Current Sauce, the Potpourri, and the publicity department for the college.

Under its roof are classrooms, studios, offices, an art gallery, instrumental and choral rehearsal rooms, a workshop, a radio outlet station, a little theatre, and an auditorium complete with large stage, modern lighting facilities, dressing rooms, and an orchestra pit. It is the scene not only of numerous concerts and recitals throughout the year, but it also provides space for music clinics, speech tournaments, and many other meets and conventions.

We can justly be proud of this magnificent and useful building.

Audubon Team Named Champs In Basketball

Winner of the annual basketball tournament of the Women's Recreation Association is the Audubon Hall team, with a total of six victories during the season and no defeats.

Comprising the championship team are: forwards, Team Captain Judy Honeycutt, Bobbie Morgan, and Barbara Corley; guards, Ruth Good, Lois Sikes, and Nel-lois Wills. Their season record is:

Audubon 25, Pi Kap 20; Audubon 22, Agnes Morris 15; Audubon 35, Delta Sigma 15; Audubon 28, Tri Sigma 9; Audubon 20, Carondelet 15; Audubon 26, Alpha Sigma 21.

Three other teams, the Pups, Kate Chopin, and Co-Op were eliminated with two defeats each before meeting the Audubon team.

Robbie Morgan was high scorer with 67 points in the six games.

Teams are now being organized for the double elimination softball tournament. Team rosters must be submitted to Miss Elisabeth Cunningham at the Women's Gymnasium by Wednesday, April 11.

Geology Group Makes Field Trip

George A. Stokes, assistant professor in geography and geology, directed a field trip for his class in geology 201 to Winnfield and Colfax, La., April 4.

The class visited surface plants at the rock quarry and salt mine at Winnfield, and then observed jetties now being constructed at Colfax to prevent further change in course of the Red River, already threatening property in and around Colfax.

This is but one of the several trips planned for the class. Other trips planned are: a visit to the Mississippi River Commission Waterways Experiment Station at Vicksburg, Miss., and a four-day trip to the Arbuckle Mountains of Oklahoma. In the past, classes have visited Natchez, Miss., and have made field trips south to the Gulf.

Those who made the trip are: Gus Broussard, Mac Craft, Jeff DeBlieux, Myron Fleming, Leon Fuller, Rod Juneau, Lenell Martin, Arlis Teekell, and Perry Wilson.

Sigma Alpha Iota Initiates Three; Pledges Five

The NSC chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary musical society for women, recently initiated three and pledged five students who distinguished themselves in musical activities last semester.

Those initiated this week are Mary Clark, Jean Lyons, and Theda Welch. The five new pledges are Mary Ann Cronin, Darlene Bennette, Dorothy Corry, Nanette Garrett, and Sallie Jo Foster.

1951 National Champs

Pictured above is Miss Rowena Taliferro, Miss Louisiana, presenting the National Award to Coach Mel Crawford. Reading left Falls, Penn. and Jonesboro-Hodge

Coughatta defeated Beaver in order to qualify for the finals against Mississippi. Mississippi drew byes into the semi-finals where they downed McPherson, Kansas, 52-51, to enter the finals against Coughatta. Coughatta team is the first team in the history of American Legion Tournament play to cop the National Championship two years in succession.

Demons Set Five Games Next Week

The Northwestern Demons' baseball team will play five games next week. Games here include one Monday with Sam Houston; Tuesday with Northeast Louisiana; Friday with Southwestern; and Saturday with Southwestern.

On Wednesday the team will play Louisiana College at Pineville.

Typhoid shots will be given at the infirmary April 12-13 between 1 and 4 p.m. There will be no charge.

No Credit Now to Voluntary Enlistees; Change in Draft Law Causes Revision

Students can no longer volunteer for active military duty and receive full credit for courses, since the change of the draft law, according to the president's office. At a recent meeting of all the presidents of colleges of Louisiana, under the State Board of Education, it was agreed that a policy common to all schools in the state would be put in practice.

During the last fall semester a student who resigned after mid-semester in order to enter military service, either voluntarily or involuntarily, received credit in all courses pursued in which he was making a grade of "C" or better; "W's" were assigned in those courses in which achievement was below "C".

According to the information released from the president's office, students called into military service after mid-semester may be granted credit as follows:

1. Graduating seniors who are called into service after the end of the first nine weeks may be assigned these grades which he had earned up to the point of resignation. (That is, if the grade is B, then the student gets a B recorded.)

2. Other students, after twelve weeks, receive credit for those courses being pursued at the time of resignation, according to the letter grade achieved at the time of resignation.

Under the former draft law, when a student was placed in a postponement status, he was no longer eligible to enter the service of his choice. This created the feeling, on the part of many, that resignation and enlistment in the service of their choice was preferable to service in the ground forces. A change in the Selective Service policies had made the resignation of college students no longer necessary, inasmuch as they are given the choice of service at the end of the academic year in which they enrolled.

The primary manner in which the new regulation will affect students is in the voluntary enlistment in the armed services. Those persons involuntarily called into service, after mid-semester in the case of graduating seniors, and after twelve-weeks of school in the case of all other students, may still receive full credit; but, in the letter grade which they hold in the class at the time of resignation.

According to the regulations, a student must be in service 10 days after the time of resignation.

NSC Men to Take Selective Service Tests May 26

The Selective Service College Qualification Test will be administered at Northwestern State College to all men students on May 26, 1951. To be eligible to take the Selective Service Qualification Test an applicant—

(1) must be a registrant under the Selective Service Act who intends to request occupational deferment as a student;

(2) must be under 26 years old at the time of taking the test;

(3) must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course leading to a degree (the applicant need not be in a four-year college but his entire course of study must be satisfactory for transfer of credits to a degree-granting institution);

(4) must not previously have taken the test.

(The local draft board will, in the near future, be supplied with applications for the above test, but at the present time they do not have them. Students who expect to take the test are asked to please wait until the forms have arrived. Notification will come through the office of the Dean of Men. Watch the Sauce.)

(Ed. Note . . . the Sauce will carry in its columns in the near future an article explaining the intended use of and the regulations concerning the above test).

Juvenile Judge, Youth Expert to Speak At Annual Honor Court Meet April 18

The Honorable Chris Barnette, Judge of the Juvenile Court, Caddo Parish will be the guest speaker at the Fifth Annual Honor Court Convocation which will be held Wednesday, April 18, 1951, at 10 o'clock in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Judge Barnette is also chairman of the Louisiana Youth Commission. He is a well known authority on youth and is known throughout the south as an excellent speaker on that subject.

Citizenship awards to outstanding freshmen, which the Honor Court makes annually, will be given by Dr. Leo Allbritten, Faculty Sponsor.

New Justices will be called to fill the vacancies which will be left by graduating seniors. These new justices will be introduced by President H. L. Prather.

In the fifth year of operation the Honor Court is more actively engaged in its purpose of promoting higher standards of citizenship, maintaining a code of honor among men, and administering justice through a student - sponsored tribunal than ever before.

All of the faculty, staff, and students are cordially invited to attend this assembly.

NSC to Train AF Clerk Typists; First Contingent Due April 17

Official notification that Northwestern State College has been awarded a contract for the training of 250 clerk-typists for the U. S. Air Force has been received by President H. Lee Prather from the commanding officer of Scott Air Base in Illinois.

The first contingent of 25 students and other personnel for the special air force school was scheduled to arrive at Natchitoches on Tuesday, April 17. Classes are to begin Monday, April 23.

The contract provides that instruction for each contingent of 25 students will run for twelve weeks until ten contingents have been trained during a 22-week period.

Several weeks ago, a personal investigation and study of the facilities and equipment available at the college for a special school in business and clerical work and office training of Air Force personnel, was made by two officials of the Air Force. They reported the set-up at NSC was highly satisfactory and that they would recommend the institution for special wartime training.

During the last war Northwestern State conducted for the U. S. Navy, a training program that received the highest commendation from the Navy Department. At present, a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps Anti-Aircraft Unit, which was instituted only last fall, is offering military training for the men students at the college. Upon completion of the four years' training program, students are to be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Army Reserve.

'Oh! Susanna' to Go to Camp Polk Before Two-day Staging on Campus

"Oh! Susanna," a comedy with music in two acts, will be premiered as a soldier's benefit at Camp Polk, Leesville, Wednesday, April 18, according to Don Carr, professor of speech at NSC, and director of the production.

Thursday and Friday, April 19 and 20, the play will be presented in the Fine Arts auditorium on the campus, at 8 p.m.

Cast in the leading roles are: Owen Phillips, as Stephen Foster, Elizabeth Leo, as Augusta Foster, Hardy Rose, as Major Benjamin Foster, Gervais Aldredge as Susanna Foster, Beryl DeLoach as Jeannie McDowell, and James Beake as E. P. Christy.

Others in the cast are: Kenneth Isgitt as Dingle, Pat Lyons as Clem, Perry Canard as Lasses, Beth Hargrove, Delores Sutherland, Tommy Blackburn, Louise Burns, Bertha Adams, Bea Ramsey, and Betty Pittman as riverwomen.

Five to Inspect Nursing Program Here Next Week

Five distinguished visitors are expected to arrive on the campus Wednesday, April 18, to look into and inspect the Nursing program in full swing, according to Miss Graham Price, Director of Nursing at the college.

Dr. J. P. Sanders, President of the American Academy of General Practice and President of the Louisiana Rural Health Council; Mayor Clyde Fant, Mayor of Shreveport; Dr. Clarence Webb, Past President of the Shreveport Medical Society and President of the Shreveport Health Council; Dr. W. S. Harmon, member of the Shreveport Charity Hospital Board; and Dr. W. J. Sandige, Director of the Shreveport Caddo Health Unit, will arrive on the NSC campus at 3 p.m., April 18 to speak at a meeting in room 101 of the Business building, scheduled for 4 p.m. At 5 p.m. coffee will be served the group in the drawing room of the Home Economics building.

Dr. Sanders, president or past president of eight various medical groups and author of some 20 books and articles, will talk on "The Nurse in the Medical Care Plan."

Mayor Fant, Dr. Webb, Dr. Harmon, and Dr. Sanders.

The group is extremely interested in the nursing program at NSC because of the important part nursing plays in a complete medical care program. The program is expected to carry an enrollment of almost 500 students next semester, stated Miss Price. This will be more than any college the size of NSC in the country.

Don Jones, junior accounting student from Lake Charles, garnered a total of 447 votes from 13 precincts on the campus of Northwestern State College April 12 to win the primary election for student body officers, defeating his opposition in the race for president of the Association by 78 votes. Ronald Martin, junior social studies student from Natchitoches, received a total of 369 votes.

NOTICE

All those interested in the possibility of a law scholarship to Tulane please met in Room 27, Caldwell Hall, on Tuesday, April 17, at 2 p.m.

Mr. Cecil E. Ramey, Jr., of the Tulane faculty, will be here to sepak at that time.

David, Winters To New Orleans With Girls' Club

Accompanied by Miss Catherine Winters, history professor, and Miss Perle David, Dean of Women, twelve members of the Purple Jacket Club will start their annual trip to New Orleans tomorrow morning at 4:30 a.m. The two-day visit will terminate Monday, April 16.

A highlight of the trip, this year will be the Icecapades, which the group will attend Sunday evening.

The group will stay at the Monteleon Hotel, from where they will go on their sightseeing tours Monday.

Expenses for the trip will be defrayed by funds raised from ushering at the various college sponsored affairs in the Fine Arts building, and by funds raised at the Purple Jackets Rainbow Review, presented earlier this spring.

Leland Langridge, Shreveport, defeated John Ropp, Ruston, in the race for vice-presidency of the student body with a total of 425. Ropp, son of President R. L. Ropp, La. Tech, netted 391 tallies.

Visiting for the position of co-ed vice president, Beryl DeLoach,

DON JONES

W. Monroe, received 436 votes, downing her opponent, Carolyn Price, Mansfield, by 59 votes.

In other student body offices, winners of the election and their positions are: Sue Tucker, Haynesville, secretary, 471 votes; Arlene Norsworthy, Bellwood, treasurer, 447 votes. In the class officer division: Cas Moss, Winnfield, president of the senior class, acclamation; Klvin Lightsey, vice-president, acclamation; and Jean Lyons, Crowley, secretary-treasurer, acclamation.

Lowell Starns, Crowley, president of the junior class, acclamation; and Sue Wheat, Montgomery, secretary-treasurer, acclamation.

Ronlad Quinn, Sarepta, president of the sophomore class, 192 votes; Stewart Carrington, Lisbon, vice-president, 283 votes; and Claudine Box, Shreveport, secretary-treasurer, acclamation.

Louise Harris, French student from W. Monroe, will be editor of the Current Sauce, student weekly publication, for the coming year. She was unopposed for her position. Also unopposed was Marie Tilleux, for editorship of the college yearbook, the Potpourri. Tilleux is an art student from Shreveport.

In one of the quietest elections in the history of the college, 816 students out of a total of 1399 turned out to vote. The polls, operated by members of the Purple Jackets, honorary women's organization on the campus, were open from 8 a.m. till 5 p.m. Votes from all precincts were totaled by 9:30 p.m.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor or News Staff

Members:

I would appreciate it if you would bring this letter to the attention of men on the staff of your paper who are not members of a national social fraternity, and who might be interested in organizing one.

Some of the men of your student body, or some of the men's local organizations of your campus may be interested in the national program of the Kappa Sigma Kappa Fraternity. The special objective of Kappa Sigma Kappa is to foster a good social organization for college men of character and campus leadership, as well as maintain a national organization in which all expenses are kept as low as the average local fraternity.

If you have in your institution any local organizations interested in the objectives of Kappa Sigma Kappa, or some young men not connected with any social fraternity who might like to organize, I wish you would bring this letter to their attention. A group of young men may organize at very small expense since men organizing a new chapter are given special consideration and assistance in return for their interest and effort. Information on how to organize may be secured by writing to National Secretary, Box 609, Fairmont, W. Va.

If you will please bring this to the attention of some of your men interested in a national social fraternity, I shall be glad to supply them with any information desired regarding the establishment of a chapter of Kappa Sigma Kappa at your institution.

Very sincerely yours,
George R. Jefferson
National Secretary

To the Editor:

I wish to make some public expression of my thanks to the people who helped assure the success of the Student Constitutional Convention held on the Northwestern campus on April 6-7.

The cooperation of the faculty of the Social Science Department, the College administration, especially Dean Dugdale, and President Prather, and the publicity department under Mr. French was significant.

Special tribute, however, goes to the students who gave so enthusiastically of their time and energy. The Purple Jackets, Eugene Flores, Shelton Robinson, Luke Petrovich, Harold Sykes, Kenneth Isgitt, Cecil Nielson, Allen Grant (plus quartet), and Chuck Tillman were invaluable. In my experience here I have not seen a better display of student-faculty co-operation, nor more student initiative demonstrated. My faith in student leadership ability at N.S.C. is reaffirmed and I hope that this example may be emulated many times over in coming years.

Sincerely,
William C. Havard

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

All those nasty things I said about NSC school spirit—I take back. Because last night at the political rally, my whole concept was changed. The spirit shown there was the type of thing we've been wanting to see around here for a long time.

As each candidate stepped on the stage, the crowd cheered madly with a bedlam of whistles and catcalls following. Inspired by the huge response, the speakers broke into long remembered oratories. After a long and spirited rally, which ended on the same note it had begun on, the 59 students who had attended crowded out the door. (And that is an official head count).

Those people cramped under the flowers in the field house are members of the Co-opion tribe; Northwestern's unique nomad tribe. Another distinguishing characteristic of the tribe is the black hand on their left arm, signifying a mourning of the arrival of more men at NSC. They have my sympathy . . . We really like this ratio of six "dateable" women to one "dateable" man. What woman would not mourn the upset of this ratio?

(Ed's Note: Susan B. Anthony, maybe?)

Well, plans are well under way for our spring dance. Sunday night, committees were appointed for the various jobs, and before long, the room was buzzing with ideas and plans.

Claudine Box, our new registrar, made a very attractive poster for the pledges and surprised them with it at their last meeting. The poster was a way of keeping a record of the pledges' points.

The Alpha Sigs think the student Council did a fine job with the spring formal. What do you say?

The Purple Jackets are planning their annual trip to New Orleans. The group will be accompanied by their sponsor, Miss Catherine Winters.

Congratulations to Billie Greer and Gene Butts, both of Springhill, who plan to be married at Billie's home in Springhill on April 12.

The 1951 A.W.S. officers were installed in an impressive ceremony in the living room of Varnado Hall Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Sarah Richardson, a Home Economics major from Jean, is flashing her diamond engagement ring around these days. She is engaged to Glen Owens of Anacoco, who is stationed at Camp Polk.

According to all of the excitement and interest it has been arousing, this item should have ranked first in the column. An Air Force clerk's typist school is being stationed at Northwestern. The girls aren't too elated about it; they always go dashing about with such beaming faces.

The girls of Agnes Morris dormitory surprised their house mother, Mrs. Weber, with a birthday party Wednesday night, April 11. The girls presented her with a gift and a beautiful birthday cake.

Sue Talbert is in the infirmary with a case of measles. We hope you will be up and around soon, Sue.

The sororities on the campus have their plans for their spring formals and Mother - Daughter banquets underway.

The Theta Sigs had their formal on March 41. Their annual Rose Ball was quite successful and enjoyed by all those attending.

This coming Saturday night, April 14, is the date for the Pi Kaps spring formal. Their banquet will be on May 26 and plans will be completed later.

The Alpha Sigs dance will be on April 21, but as yet no plans have been made for the banquet.

April 28 is the date of the Delta Sigs Mother-Daughter banquet. Plans for their dance are still in the making.

The Tri Sigs have both their banquet and dance under way, with the banquet to be held April 21 at the Nakatosh Hotel and the dance, on May 5.

Miss Graham Price visited our nurses' home to discuss any problems that might exist in the student body and to aid the students in plans for a constitution. Plans are also being made to provide more activity for students. Swimming tickets will be available for students this summer. Also, seasonal tickets will be available for community concerts which are presented in a series here. Nelson Eddy, who appeared two weeks ago, was among the many artists presented by the Community Concert Association.

We were invited to the District Nurses' Meeting April 3, which was held in the Administration Building at Central State Hospital. Two motion pictures were shown entitled, "What's On Your Mind," and "Over Dependency." A discussion followed the pictures in regard to their meaning and the responsibility of the nurse. The point was brought out that mental sickness was not a disgraceful thing that was inherited but should be looked upon as any other illness. It develops from childhood happenings and if recognized soon enough, can be cured much more quickly. It was also stressed that we, as professional people, help to overcome the stigma of mental illness. People as a whole misinterpret it.

All of the hospital services are being occupied by students now, the operating room included. The first day there was slightly frightful, but with the interest of the head nurses it is now a service we regret to leave. Some students are in the diet kitchen, which has been pictured to us as a haven of pots and pans. Some of the pans we will readily recognize, they say. Well, maybe we'll at least be able to sling a mean skillet after that particular service. All in all, the services in the hospital are really being enjoyed by all of the students. Our work is made more pleasant by a lot of fun at the right time. We've found that, after all, it isn't just where you work that makes the difference, but the people you work with.

Zeta Stage Annual Bar-Fly Ranch Party

"Draw yer gin, Pardner!" was the typical greeting at the third annual Bar-Fly Ranch party given in the student center last Saturday night by Lambda Zeta Fraternity. The entrance to the Bar-Fly, typically western, was complete with chuck-wagon, real horses, and log fences. The student center, decorated with bales of hay and pine trees, was the replica of a real western ranch.

A realistic painting of a "Bar-Fly Westerner" was painted by Nellwyn Boydston on the large mirror over the fireplace. As the guests entered, they were given "cowboy" hats by the Zeta Ranch Hands, to complete the typical western outfits of boots, blue jeans, and guns. Music for dancing was furnished by the Demonaires.

An entertaining skit entitled "Red River" was presented. Members of the cast were Ronald Martin, acting as narrator, and Ponder Davis as "Tex Dunston;" Popeye Allen as "Cassidy Hear;" E. G. Smith as "Chief Fallen Arch;" and Peggy Haywood as "Saddie Soap Sal." Raymond Russell sang three lively western songs.

President Luke Petrovich, acting as master of ceremonies, introduced the officers of the fraternity for the coming year. They are: Ronald Martin, president; E. G. Smith, vice-president; Hamilton Prestridge, secretary; and Dick Traber, treasurer. Also introduced were several alum members, guests of the present and several former Zeta Sweethearts.

Barbecue with all the trimmings was served under the stars in real chuck-wagon style. High-lighting the very enjoyable and lively evening, western favors were passed out to all the members and guests.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Officers of Tri Sigma installed for the year 1951-52 were Margaret Ohlson, president; Billie Greer, vice-president; Virginia Metcalf, recording secretary; Jean Lyons, corresponding secretary; Ruth Ann Ellender, keeper-of-the-grades. These girls will take their duties at the next meeting. We surely hate to see our officers of this year leave us, as we'll miss them so much.

After the installation of officers Tuesday night, a surprise shower was given for Billie Greer, who is to be married this week to Gene Butts. She was presented an umbrella decorated with crepe paper flowers; inside the umbrella were the gifts. As the umbrella was brought into the room, the Sigmas sang "April Showers." Cokes and candy (given to the sorority by Billie) were served to the members and the pledges. Tri-Sigma wishes Billie and Gene the best of luck always!

With the Mother-Daughter banquet less than two weeks off, and the Spring Formal less than a month off, the Sigmas are making big plans for the events. Pat Bishop is chairman of the Banquet, and Margaret Ohlson is chairman of the Spring Formal.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Student Center is blooming with forget-me-nots and everything is in order for the Pi Kap Spring Formal. The girls turned all out to prepare for the dance and a good time should be had by all the Pi Kaps and their dates as well as the guests. Of course, there will be some pretty tired Pi Kaps, but it's worth it!

The Pi Kaps have organized a softball team and practice will start any day now, says Coach Anne Freeze. The team roster is well rounded out with both pledges and actives.

The lights burned late last Saturday night at Pi Kap House. In fact, for some hardy souls they burned all night. A slumber-less party was the occasion and there was no place that night for party-poopers.

The Pi Kaps have missed Barbara Bremer, one of their pledges, who is ill in the infirmary. Best wishes to Barbara for a speedy recovery.

THETA SIGMA UPSILON

The Theta Sigs are busy little Kappas here of late. Everyone from the pledges, who are hard at work on those manuals in anticipation of initiation, to the graduating seniors, who are looking forward to the family banquet to be held May 24, have a full schedule for the remaining weeks of this semester.

At the regular meeting Tuesday night plans were made to start the "ball rolling" toward the best family banquet the Theta Sigs have ever had. As a take off from the ordinary thing, the Theta Sigs were honored with the company of one of the opposite sex. Don Jones made a campaign speech in view of the election held Thursday.

Theta roses to Betty Sue Boydston, Dorothy Thompson, and Joyce Winn for being called as man commissioners for 1951-52.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

DSE's sorority room really looks like a sorority room! One wall has been painted deep green in contrast with pale green walls. Covering the middle half of the dark wall are green and gray striped curtains.

Another celebrity in our midst is Marie Tilleux. Congratulations, Marie. She has been appointed to the office of Potpourri editor as there were no candidates for that office. She had previously filed intentions for the office of coed vice-president but has now withdrawn.

Any old clothes today! That's what DSE's said at their rummage sale Saturday. It's a lot of work, but it's fun, too.

After the rummage sale there will be a slumber party to—shall we say recuperate—from the labors of the day.

The various committee reports for both the Mother-Daughter Banquet and the dance were given. All the plans are well under control.

Demons vs Gents In Cinder Meet There Today

The Northwestern State College track squad, coached by Harry "Rags" Turpin, will engage the Centenary Gentlemen of Shreveport in a two-team competition as an added feature of the Tri-State Track and Field Meet to be held in Shreveport Saturday, April 14.

The Tri-State meet, to be held at Byrd Stadium, is an annual track and field meet with teams representing Ark-La-Tex high schools. The addition of the NSC-Centenary match is an added attraction to add more "color" to the meet.

The Demon cindersmen, who got off to a slow start earlier this season, are expected to give more and more headaches to the foe as the season progresses. An encouraging sign for the Demons is the return of hurdler and sprinter John Patton, who won honors in the annual Sugar Bowl meet last year.

The Demons, fresh from an encouraging showing at the Southwestern Relays last week, are depending heavily on Johnny "Hound" McConathy, all-GSC basketball center, who is currently pacing the track team as point-getter. McConathy garnered in 13 points in last week's meet.

Coach Turpin has announced that 23 men will participate in the Tri-State meet for the Demons. These men are: Field-men: Jack Huckaby, Jack Moore, Johnny Buck, Johnny McConathy, George Davis, Charles Eyer, Geo. Pharis and Ralph Ezelle.

Sprinters: Brady Broussard, Billy Hartt, Tommy Broussard, John Patton, Dan Poole and Henry Thomas.

Relay and Distance Men: Harry

Marine Captain Here This Week

The U. S. Marine Corps is offering the opportunity to qualified young men to apply for officer training leading to a commission, and for college students to enroll in the Platoon Leaders Class program also leading to commissioned rank in the U. S. Marine Corps or Marine Corps Reserve.

Captain L. L. Page, USMC, Officer Procurement Officer will visit Northwestern State College, Natchitoches, La. from the 13th thru the 17th of April, for the purpose of conducting interviews.

Those eligible for appointment under the present Officer Candidate Course and the Platoon Leaders Class are as follows, Captain Page announced: Applicants for the Officer Candidate Course must be seniors in an accredited college or a recent graduate from an accredited college or university. All applicants must be mentally, morally, and physically fit. Applicants for the Platoon Leaders Class must be regularly enrolled students, in good standing, of an accredited college or university, in their Freshman, Sophomore or Junior year.

Those applicants who are accepted for the Officer Candidate Course will be enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve, and will, upon graduation, attend a ten week course at Parris Island, South Carolina, where upon completion they will be appointed as Second Lieutenants and transferred to Quantico, Virginia, for further training.

Applicants for the Platoon Leaders Class will remain in school and attend two six week summer training programs at Quantico, Virginia, where upon graduation they will be commissioned Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Forensic Club To Join Nat'l Fraternity

Forensic Club of Northwestern State College will become Louisiana Epsilon chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic society for college men and women, early in May. Notification of the acceptance of the club's petition for a charter was received from the society's national officers Wednesday by William S. Smith, NSC director of forencics and club sponsor.

Consisting of 22 members, the Forensic Club has as its president Luke Petrovich, Buras, a senior and president of the Northwestern student body. Other officers of the club are Thomas Poole, Winnfield, vice-president, and Joyce Winn, Plain Dealing, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the club this week appeared in the college convocation program by participating in a non-decision debate before the student body. The top junior men's debating team of the year engaged the top senior men's team in a discussion of the question, "Resolved, That non-communist nations of the world should form a new international organization." The junior men's team, consisting of David Hendrick, Natchitoches, and Cecil Nielson, Shreveport, took the affirmative stand on the question, and Julia McBroom, Shreveport, and Petrovich presented the negative side.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 18...THE RACCOON

Shades of the roarin' 'Twenties! All duded up in his ancient benny — but he has modern ideas on testing cigarette mildness! He's tried every "quickie" cigarette test in the book — and they're not fooling him one bit! He knows for dang-sure that cigarette mildness can't be determined by a cursory sniff or a single, quickly-dispatched puff. He doesn't have to go back to school to know that there is one real test — a test that dispels doubt, fixes fact.

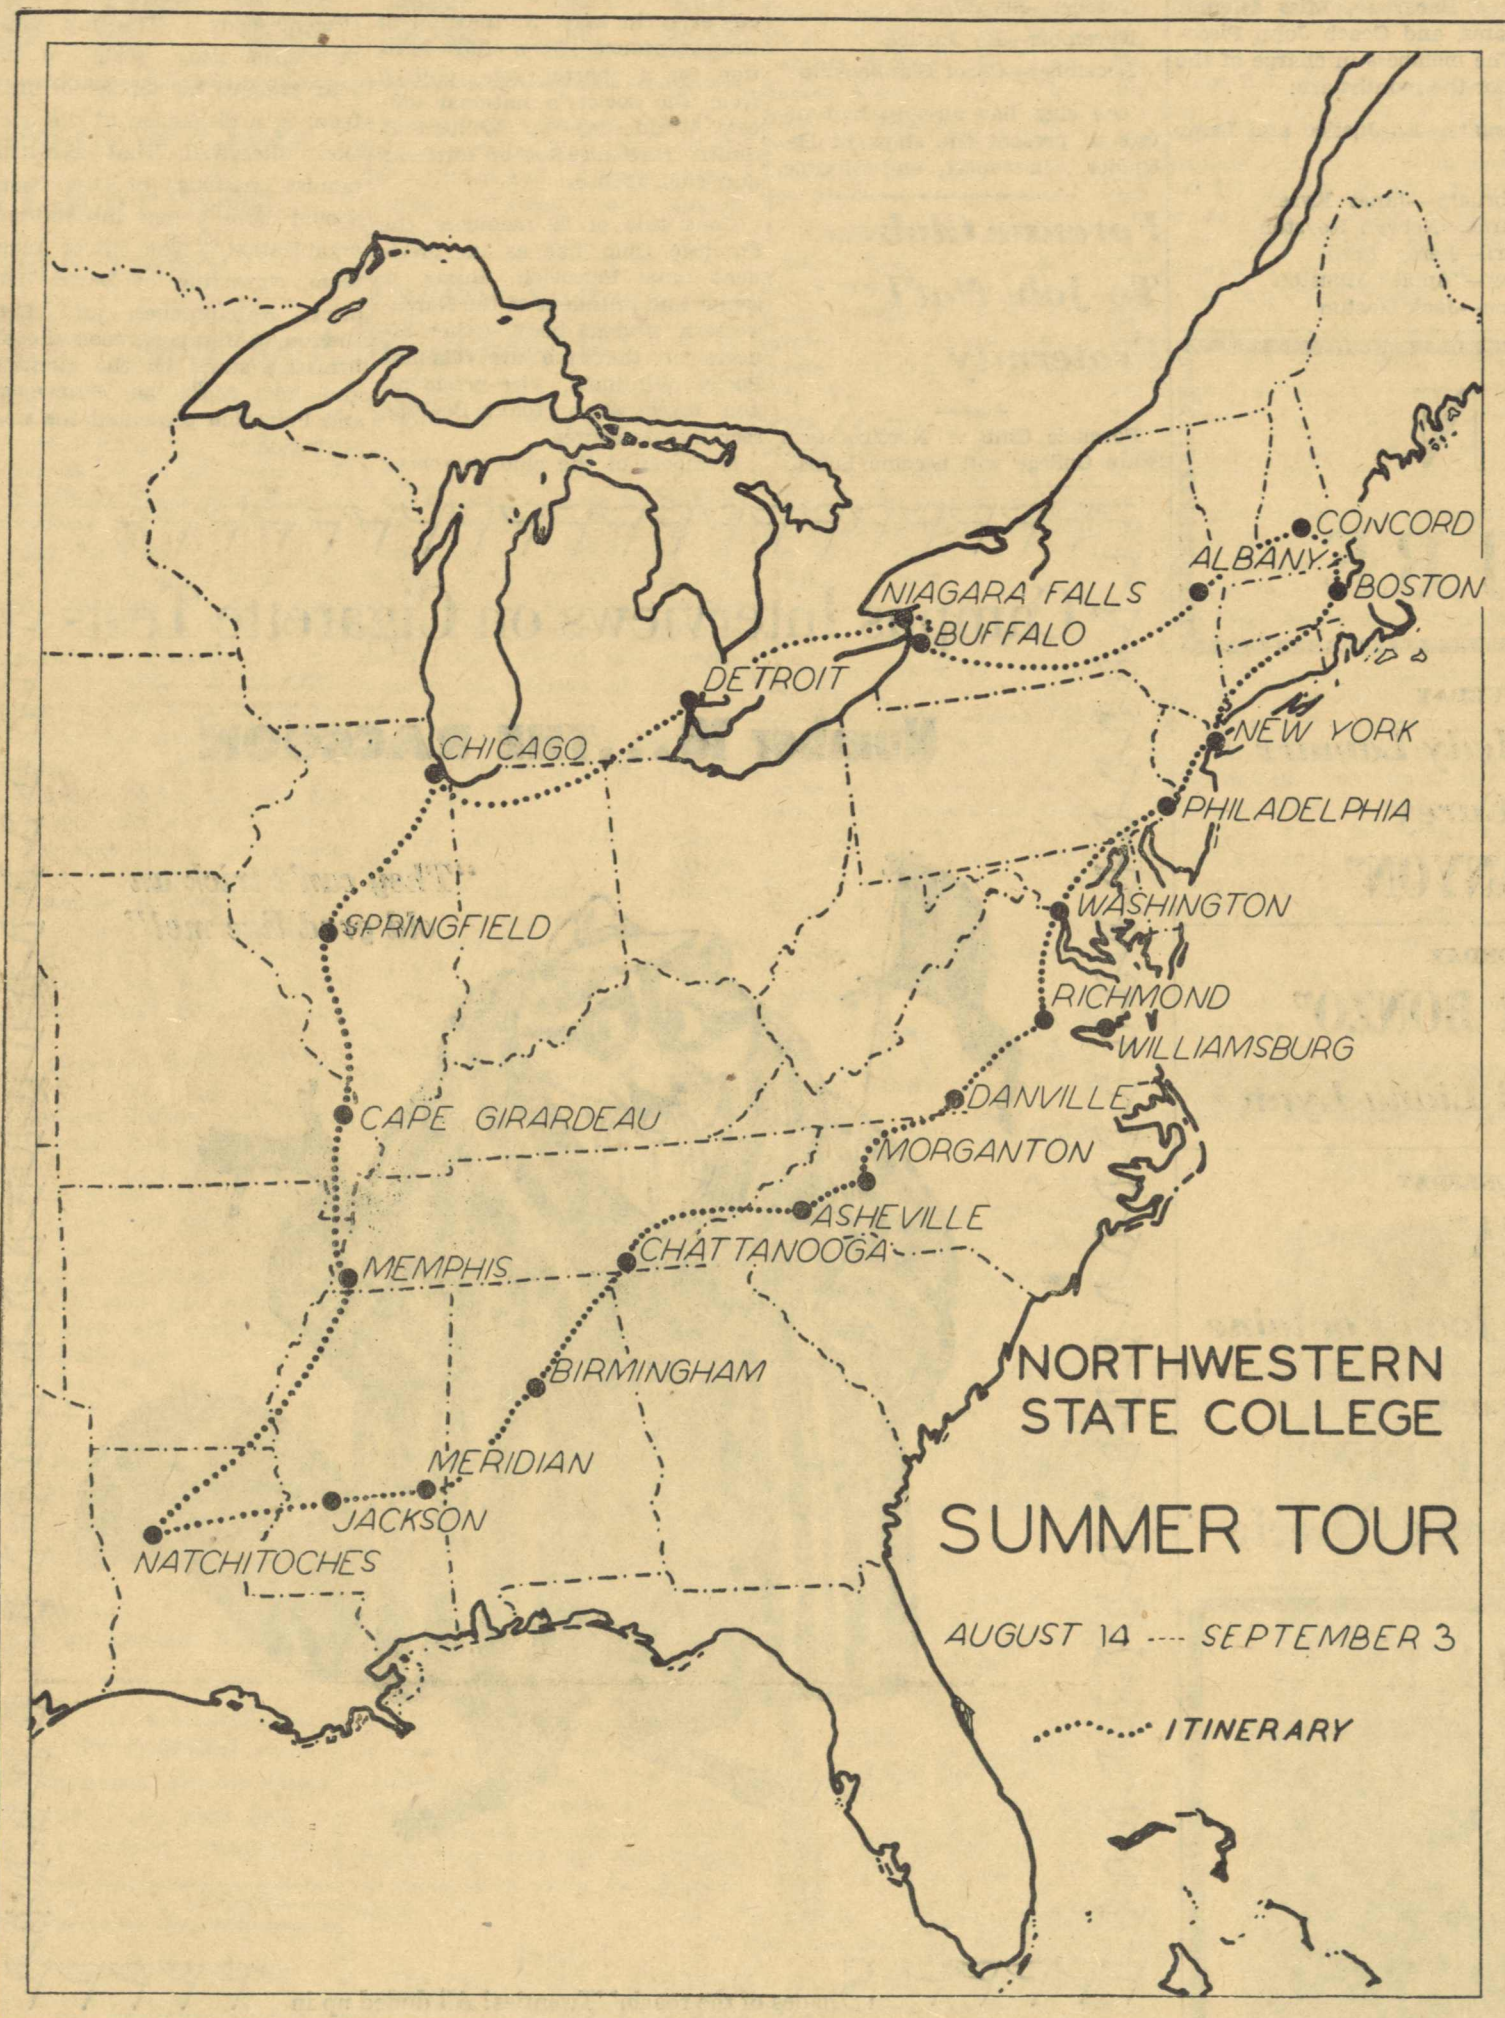

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

Itinerary Outlined For Bus Tour Offered By College In July

A 21-day conducted tour of historic and industrial points of interest in the Northeast is being arranged for parish supervisors, principals and teachers of Louisiana, and students late this summer by the NSC Department of Social Sciences. Covering more than 5,000 miles of travel by bus, the tour will provide three hours of college credit for all desiring it, Dr. John S. Kyser, chairman of the Department of Social Sciences, said this week.

The journey will be made during the interval between the close of summer school and the beginning of the fall semester, with the party taking off from the Northwestern State College campus August 14 and returning September 3. The entire trip will be made in buses of modern design, driven by experienced operators,

Leisurely stops are to be made frequently at points of interest along the route, and all overnight stops will provide advance reservations for the Louisiana group.

Cities on the itinerary for official study include Memphis, Chattanooga, Morganton, N. C., Richmond, Va., Yorktown, Va., Washington, D. C., New York City, Boston, Albany, N. Y., Niagara Falls, Detroit, Chicago, and Springfield, Ill.

The major portion of the time will be spent in examination and study of those localities that provide outstanding combinations of This applies to characteristics as diverse as land formation, mineral deposits, and historic landmarks.

"While the tour is especially recommended for teachers of the social studies, college students and others interested in an economical summer vacation trip in the East and Northeast will be welcomed," Dr. Kyser said. "It offers an opportunity to combine pleasure, college credit and deep insight into areas of vital concern to our country," he added.

Placement Bureau In New Orleans To Aid Alumni

A newly organized graduate placement committee set up in New Orleans by the Northwestern State College Alumni Association will enable more graduates, especially those in Business Administration, to find better jobs. The committee will work in conjunction with the placement bureau at NSC.

Leroy Miller, Alumni Secretary and head of the NSC Placement Bureau, said that if this present plan for the New Orleans area works out to the satisfaction of the Association, other such bureaus will be organized in key cities such as Monroe, Alexandria, and Shreveport.

The local committees will arrange for appointments with prospective employers, and present letters of introduction or personally introduce the applicant to the employer. This will enable the applicant to get the better jobs and afford the employer a better chance to pick his employee from a better qualified group.

Practice Sessions Occupy Time of Orch. Members

Twenty-six Northwestern students are spending from two to four hours in practice sessions and countless other hours each week preparing for the concert schedule of the college orchestra, under the direction of Val Hill, professor of music.

Of the students, 24 are music tra are Larue Adams, violin; majors; one is an elementary education major; and one is a general student.

Together with approximately 25 townspeople and Northwestern faculty members, the group spends two afternoons a week in the orchestra practice room in the Fine Arts Building of the college.

The college-community orchestra has scheduled three preformances on the campus; one for April 20, May 4, and May 7. It will appear in concert in Logansport May 11.

Student members of the orchestra are Larue Adams, violin;

Shreveport; George Booker, piano, Basile; Walter Burns, French horn, Leesville; David Carson, French horn, Shreveport; Gerald Carter, trumpet, Winnfield; Elaine Ferguson, string bass, Coushatta; Ted Forte, percussion, Sandheimer; Jerry Fuller, viola, DeRidder; Glynn Gardner, string bass, Ferriday.

Allen Grant, trombone, Leesville; Jim Bob Key, percussion, Winnfield; Mittie Lancaster, bassoon, Ferriday; Dave Lepard, cello, Alliance, Neb.; Jean Lyons, violin, Crowley; Betty Martin, string bass, Shreveport; Jeanne Mayer, flute, Ferriday; Marian Musselwhite, viola, Oberlin; Frank Pasqua, trumpet, Gonzales.

All seniors graduating this semester are urged to attend an important meeting of the class, to be held Tuesday at 12:30 in the Fine Arts auditorium.

Dance Group To Give Annual Recital Tuesday

Tuesday night, April 24, the dance workshop is presenting its annual dance program in the Little Theatre auditorium of the Fine Arts building on the campus of NSC.

The program, directed by Miss Jean Harper, consists of three dances which are subdivided into several shorter dances. The program is as follows:

Frontier Frolic, with Sweet Betsy, Mary Jo Turnage; Galloping Sam, Carol Blankenship; Red Feather, Quincy Lincecum; Callers, Carolyn McLean, Carolyn Price; Patsy Burke, Maily Snoddy, Ila Mae Milton, Patty Green, Patsy Winkler, Carolyn Fultz.

Xochipili, with Ila Mae Milton, Carol Blankenship, Patsy Winkler, Mary Jo Turnage, and Patsy Burke as women; Marilyn Snoddy, Carolyn Fultz, and Quincy Lincecum as animals; and Quincy Lincecum as Yaqui, an Indian witch doctor.

The last number is a trilogy consisting of This Is My Theme, Abstraction, and Cuban Carnival. The members of the workshop all participate in these dances, with Carolyn Fultz dancing solo in This Is My Theme.

The unusual and colorful costumes will be well worth seeing and as for the program as a whole, just wait and see.

Play Festival Slated Here

April 20

An all-day production of one-act plays is the work laid out for high school students attending the fourth annual Northwestern State drama festival is being sponsored jointly by the college and the National Thespian Society, with Prof. Don Carr, of the NSC division of speech, in charge.

Dramatic students of seventeen high schools have been invited to present plays at the festival and to vie for superior ratings. Schools receiving invitations to participate in the festival include Lake Charles, Natchitoches, St. Mary's Parochial school of Natchitoches, DeQuincy, Converse, Lacassine, Rayville, Byrd of Shreveport, St. John's high school of Shreveport, Jena, Hammond, Neville high school of Monroe, Martin, Rodessa, Coushatta, Abbeville, and Many.

As a climax to the festival all participants will be the guests of the college Friday evening at the final performance of "Oh! Susanna," a two-act musical comedy with an all-NSC student cast, directed by Prof. Carr.

Registration for the summer session of 1951 at NSC will begin at 8 a.m. June 11. Classes will begin at 8 a.m. June 12. The short term session of 9 weeks will end August 10 at 1 p.m.

'Oh! Susanna'

Beryl DeLoach, who played the part of Jeannie McDowell, and members of the cast of "Oh! Susanna," staged Thursday and Friday nights in the Fine Arts auditorium, are shown above. The play was successfully premiered at Camp Polk Wednesday night, and received a rating of excellent by crowds attending the campus productions.

Last Performance of 'Oh! Susanna' Given in Fine Arts Last Night

Like experienced troupers in a professional road show, students of Northwestern State College presented their third performance of the week of "Oh! Susanna" at 8 o'clock Friday evening in the Auditorium of the Fine Arts Building.

The premier showing of the two-act musical comedy was at Camp Polk Wednesday evening when the entire cast of 37 characters carried their elaborate costumes and scenery over there for a benefit performance for the soldiers stationed at that post. The first home performance was Thursday evening in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Tonight as special guests of the college will be all the high school youngsters who attended the annual drama festival held under the sponsorship of the NSC division of speech. After a day of presenting one-act plays for superior rating in the festival, the high school thespians will sit back tonight and enjoy the performance of NSC students in their annual play, which is being directed by Prof. Don Carr, of the speech division.

All the scenery for the musical comedy, which has its setting at Cincinnati, Ohio, during the heyday of Stephen Foster, the famous ballad composer of pre-Civil war days, was designed by students under the technical direction of Lowell Vaughn, senior of Coushatta. For one of the scenes a large two-story warehouse on the Ohio riverfront in Cincinnati was constructed. A second structure also was constructed on a smaller scale that was used exclusively for the Camp Polk performance.

Obtained from a professional theatrical outfitting house in New York, all the costumes for the cast are authentic to the period just preceding the War-Between-the-States.

Annual Aquatic Carnival Slated For Apr. 27, May 7-8 in Natatorium

Twelve months a year on water will be portrayed by the Aquatic Club in its traditional water show on April 26, 27, and 28 at 8 o'clock.

The show will feature a wide variety of swimming, acts and unusual costumes. Coach John Piscopo will demonstrate unique methods of water safety.

Tickets are on sale in the student center for 25c and 50c; all seats are reserved.

After a three-night showing at NSC, the Aquatic Club will make appearances May 11 in DeRidder and May 19 in Shreveport.

Faculty advisers for the organization include Miss Jean Harper, Miss Dolores Bacarisse, and Miss Glenna Williams.

Members include Nelwyn Boydston, Carol Blankenship, Dale Branch, Jack Branch, Ben Duhon, Leroy Ford, Jack Gaston, Jeff Hennessey, Mary Lou Hines, and Ken Howard.

Four Named to Seats Wednesday At Annual Honor Court Convocation

Decrying the accelerated trend toward federal dependency in this country and the fallacious philosophy of modern youth that the government owed them a living, Judge Chris Barnette, Shreveport, head of the juvenile court of Caddo parish, charged the seven young men composing the honor court of Northwestern State college to resist this movement toward Communism with all the forces at their command. Judge Barnette, who is also chairman of the Louisiana Youth Commission, was the principal speaker at the fifth annual NSC honor court convocation Wednesday.

Three Attend Retreat at Camp Brewer

Three members of the Northwestern State College Westminster Fellowship represented their organization at the Annual State Retreat held at Camp Grant Walker, near Pollock, April 6-8.

Those attending were Charles Ertrell, president of the local organization; Jane Walcott, secretary-treasurer; and Beverly Miles. Rev. Earl Clary of the Presbyterian Church of Natchitoches accompanied them.

The purpose of the "Retreat" was to elect state officers, make plans for the coming year, and to give leaders inspiration and enthusiasm to carry back to their various campuses.

Seven Attend Annual Library Meet April 12-14

Four members of the college library staff and three members of Alpha Beta Alpha, library science fraternity, attended the 25th anniversary convention of the Louisiana Library Association in Alexandria, April 12-14.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tracy, Mrs. Ora Williams, and Miss Julia Duke attended from the library staff. Mrs. Williams reported on the work of the Committee on the Classification of Louisiana Documents.

Sallie Harper, Patsy Eason, and Mary Driscoll, Alpha Beta Alpha members, were guests of the Association meet. They received high commendation on the establishment of the fraternity on the campus last summer.

Feature event of the Convention was the Book Dinner, at which Carlyle Tillery received the "Louisiana Literary Award" for his novel, "Red Bone Woman." Virginia Kirk, New York critic and reviewer, was the Book Dinner speaker.

With "Evolution vs. Revolution" as his topic, Judge Barnette said that "when you have enough people dependent on the government for support you are ripe for revolution and dictatorship." At a nation, he said, we are moving in the direction of socialism, which he termed "the last flagstop on the road to communism."

Presiding at the convocation was Don M. Williford, Shreveport, chief justice of the honor court. To succeed him and three other justices, all of whom are seniors, Prof. F. G. Fournet, head of the Science Department and acting president of the college in the absence of President H. Lee Prather, introduced the four new justices. They are John Zenter, Grand Cane; James Yergler, Cissna Park, Ill.; Wilmer Price, Leesville, and James Bonsall, Saline. Besides Williford, William T. Moore, Goldonna, William J. Smith, Sulphur, and L. J. Melder, Glenmora, will retire as justices at the end of the spring semester. Ronald Martin, Natchitoches, Jerry Fuller, DeRidder, and Cass Moss, Jr., Winnfield, are all hold-over justices.

To Ronald Quinn, Sarepta, president of the freshman class and president-elect of the sophomore class, was presented an award as the outstanding male member of the freshman class. The award was presented by Dr. Leo Albritten, professor of education and faculty sponsor of the Honor Court.

The convocation program included a cello duet by Dave Leopard, Natchitoches, and Richard L. Somers, Shreveport. They were accompanied at the piano by Betty Jo Martin, also of Shreveport.

Current draft laws and the way they affect college students will highlight the mass meeting of all NSC men students slated for Wednesday, April 25 in the Fine Arts auditorium, according to Dudley Fulton, Dean of Men.

Scheduled as part of the program is a panel discussion of draft regulations for college men. Participating in the panel will be Dr. Kyser, Hal Townsend, Loraine Brittain, and Colonel Bowman, all faculty members. Students taking part in the discussion are Don Jones and Ronald Quinn.

According to Fulton, some of the questions prominent in the minds of draft eligibles in college that will be discussed are: What is the student's part in the draft program?; How the draft affects them and their education?; What is a deferment and how may it be obtained?; and What is the college's responsibility in a selective program?

All men students, whether or not they are draft eligibles, are urged to attend the meeting and take part in the discussions.

There will be an important Senior class meeting April 24 to work out the committees for commencement exercises.

NSC scored again as the "Friendliest Campus in the South" this week as they welcomed the first contingent of 25 Air Force men to be trained as clerk typists. Hardly had the troops gotten here than they began highly praising the atmosphere of friendliness that they found.

Natchitoches seems to have gotten in on the honors also. The group of weary AF men were met at their plane, which landed at approximately 3:30 a.m. Friday morning, by city police, who offered them the "keys to the city."

Early Friday morning the troops were finding their way around the campus and the town, and by noon had come to the conclusion that they would like to be here much longer than just 10 weeks.

The only thing they did not like about Natchitoches and the college was the weather. When they left Cheyenne, Wyoming, snow was falling. The sudden change was too much for them.

Welcome to the new group of men, and we are pleased that they find our campus so likeable. Our hope is sincere that the following groups of men will find the campus equally as friendly.

Women Students May Enroll in Naval Program

Women students of junior standing who have reached the age of eighteen may now enroll for special summer training programs at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Chicago leading to the commission of ensign in the navy, according to Eve R. Mouton, of the department of languages and former lieutenant-commander in the WAVES.

In order to receive her commission a student must complete two six-weeks training periods, one each summer. All travelling expense are paid by the navy, as well as the cost of uniforms.

Each candidate for commission receives petty officer's pay while in training. Upon successful completion of the program the candidate may then enter the navy with the rank and pay of ensign. However, students are under no obligation to remain in the service.

Further information regarding this program may be obtained by contacting Miss Eve Mouton, C14, Caldwell Hall.

Registration for the summer session of 1951 at NSC will begin at 8 a.m. June 11. Classes will begin at 8 a.m. June 12. The short term session of 9 weeks will end August 10 at 1 p.m.

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

Flash! The capitol of the United States has just been moved! The new site is Natchitoches, Louisiana. The capitol, itself, of a low modern design is located on the NSC campus behind the dining hall. The students familiarly refer to the capitol as the Co-op. The new president, Miss Givens, ran on an independent ticket, and since she was the only candidate to file intentions, she was automatically elected.

The president's first move was to raise the Confederate flag in front of the capitol. During the raising "Dixie," was sung.

An old advocate of the spoils system, the president selected her cabinet carefully. No member of her cabinet has ever crossed the Mason and Dixon line.

The first bill which the president hopes to get through provides for an orientation program for all foreigners, that is any person not born in the South. The program includes such features as speech instructions in how to say "y'all" with the proper drawl. Because, as the president says, "Our aim is progress!" Hail Dixie!

Parting note: To all the bonnie flowers and little green things I bid welcome to this frigid land. May you survive better than we have.

Stothart Replaces Temple at Infirmary

Northwestern welcomes to its campus Miss Hazel Stothart, who is the new head nurse at the college infirmary. She is taking the place of Miss Joy V. Temple, who recently resigned the position.

Miss Stothart has spent fifteen years doing private duty nursing in Shreveport. She was also employed as an industrial nurse by the J. B. Beard Plant in Cedar Grove, La. and by the Kansas City Southern Lines in Shreveport.

Miss Stothart says that although she has not become thoroughly acquainted with the campus, she likes very much the friendly atmosphere of Northwestern and the people she has met thus far.

Long Live The Confederate! The Stars and Bars Belong!

Long live the Confederacy! Hurrah for the Stars and Bars! That the loyalty of the South for its once-heralded Confederacy is not dead is evident as its flag waves high above Co-op dormitory. The flag flutters as bravely in the southern breezes as its colleague in front of Caldwell Hall.

Co-op, formerly a women's dormitory, is now the residing place of men students from South Barracks, who were moved to make room for the Air Force men coming to NSC.

The flag makes the old frame building look brighter each morning, as men raise the Stars and Bars to catch the first rays of the morning sun. And, the crueld by the early southern zephyrs, the flag smiles a glad welcome to all stout-hearted souls hardy enough to be up that early.

And, as Apollo bids a fond farewell to us poor mortals doomed to mundanian depths, he lays a lingering glance on the Confederate flag, which flutters proudly while it is being lowered for the night.

May this flag always symbolize show they remember the proud the never-lost esteem and pride that the South holds for its one-time Confederacy. And may NSC always house those souls who ole South of yesteryear.

Ascorbic Acid

Ascorbic acid is now being added to apple juice. Not only does it increase the Vitamin C content, but it also enhances the keeping qualities and retains original flavor and color better than usual methods.

Timely Tips

'Tis Spring! To thoughts of love some fancies may turn, but we American homemakers are more apt to have soap suds and scrub brushes on our minds. Here are a few tips to help lighten your Spring housecleaning chores.

If you do your own decorating, you'll find painting around window panes is a breeze if you mask the window pane with transparent tape first. Thus your brush can whiz speedily over the frame without a worry about getting paint on the glass, for the tape takes the paint, then zips off in a jiffy when the paint is dry.

Bathroom tiles will sparkle and shine if you will put a little vinegar in the washing water.

Have you ever tried those big desk blotters as pads on your kitchen cabinet shelves under glasses? They're colorful, and they absorb moisture and prevent the glasses from sticking.

Cellulose sponges are wonderful for washing walls! Have several on hand so that a clean one is ready when one gets soiled. They wash easily in a mild soap and water. Squeeze them dry — don't wring them.

An artgum eraser is a handy device for removing spots from painted or wallpapered walls.

Washington's Cherry Trees

Japanese cherry trees bloom along the Potomac river in the spring, because the wife of William Howard Taft admired the trees while on a visit to the Orient. When she told her husband that, he had them planted in the nation's capitol for her.

At 10 o'clock Saturday, April 14, Miss Joyce O'Brien and Billy Townsend were wed in a beautiful ceremony in Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Natchitoches.

The bride wore a suit of pale pink and a hat covered with matching pink flowers. She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Marcia Harrison, the bride's only attendant, wore an aqua suit with white accessories and a pink rose corsage.

Jack Hall served the groom as best man.

After the ceremony, the couple left for Baton Rouge for a short wedding trip.

Among the guests were the following people of Natchitoches and Northwestern: Mrs. Ruby Dunkelmann, Mrs. Eola Rooks, Miss Wade, Misses Patty Green, Marilyn Barnett, Dollie Smith, Sara Jane Wadsworth, Beth McGuffee, Mary Bell Davis, Edith Tarver, Mary Lou Singletary, and Hazel Brannam, Mrs. Evelyn Claire Hall, Wilford Cummings, Beau Taylor, Vic Boyd, and others.

The Euthenics Club is planning a Mother-Daughter Banquet for the Home Economics students, to be given in the Field House, April 27. A May-day theme is being planned. At the banquet the new Euthenics Club officers for next year will be installed.

With all the practicing going on in Aquatics Club, Modern Dance Workshop, and the musical, everyone has been in a mad rush lately. The performers of "Oh! Susanna" have completed their work and gave two fine performances. It was heard that they also enjoyed the trip to Camp Polk as much as the boys enjoyed their coming. Come April 24, the Dance Workshop will present their annual spring program in the Little Theatre. The group has been working diligently and, if their unique and attractive posters are any sign, the program ought to really be good.

The Aquatic club still has a week of practice before their show. The students are greatly looking forward to it.

Mrs. Hays Clark, of Shreveport, visited the first of the week, her mother, Mrs. Iva Stinson, house director of Kate Chopin Dormitory.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Delta Sigma Epsilon has been much like the workshop of the little elves as the girls, busily engaged in painting, re-doing and purchasing new furniture, give new life to that seclusion of joy and make it a thing of beauty as well.

The new members were welcomed into the sorority last Wednesday night as a very impressive initiation ceremony was administered to the following: Betty Bryant, Ethlyn Cloutier, Mary Glaze, Bobbye Lou Hancock, Martha Ann Leach, Lilla Lenehan, Dolores Sutherland, Joycelyn Townsend, Janelle Watson, Mary Lynn Swope, and Peggy Trichel.

Doris Jeanne Pine and Buddy Bonnette were elected to represent Delta Sigma Epsilon in the Annual Aquatic Show.

Plans are being made for the Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, April 28. This promises to be a gala affair and one of our favorite functions of the year.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Tri Sigmas are awaiting the arrival of their mothers for the Mother-Daughter banquet Saturday night, and suspense is in the air with all the Sigmas wondering who will get the best pledge award to be given at the Banquet. Also an award will be given to the outstanding Senior.

All of the Sigmas welcomed Liz Wingate and Beth Hargrove into the sorority Tuesday night. They are our newest pledges, so don't be surprised seeing them working furiously for their points.

We were all very happy to have Billie back this week, you know she's changed her name to "Mrs."

It seems that this weekend will be "old home week" for the Alpha Zetas. Billie Faye Adams, Dot Kinnison, Betty Roan, and several others will join with us to celebrate the fifty-third anniversary of Tri Sigma at the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

PI OMEGA PI

Pi Omega Pi had an important meeting Wednesday. Officers for the coming year were elected. They are: President, Melvin Luse; Vice President, Ralph White; Secretary, Sammie Banks; Treasurer, Dudley Morrison; Reporter, Beverly Ann Miles; and Historian, Ann Bolin. Installation of these officers will take place at the next meeting.

Since Mr. Morrison, Dr. Ellis, Mr. Walker, and Mr. Easley have to be out of town on April 28, the date of the big annual fish fry has been set for April 26. Arrangements have been made to go to Durham's camp. Committees for transportation, food, recreation, and fish were appointed.

We are happy to have E. A. Johnson in Pi Omega Pi. He was pledged Wednesday and will be initiated this summer. The next meeting of the fraternity will be held April 25.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

The Pi Kaps held their "Forget-Me-Not Ball" last Saturday, April 14, in the Student Center, and true to last week's Sauce prediction everyone had a wonderful time.

There were the usual last minute worries, but as always everything turned out wonderfully, and as we sat and chatted at the tables arranged under a blue and gold canopy which decorated three sides of the room, we decided that every bit of effort put out was "time well spent."

The canopy was supported by seven white columns, between which were placed large forget-me-not pot plants. The beautiful bouquet of forget-me-nots painted on the mirror by Louise Vick added the final touch to the decorations, which were supervised by Anne Freeze.

The floor show began with a duet by Carolyn Fultz and Carolyn "Pud," McClean, followed by a trio consisting of Mitty Lancaster, Carolyn Fultz, and Beryl DeLoach accompanied by Carolyn McClean. Beryl then sang a solo accompanied by "Pud," after which Martha Ann and Carolyn Glas, entertained us with a tap routine. Pat Leone served as mistress of ceremonies and introduced the distinguished guests and the representatives from the other sororities and the fraternities.

The music for the dance was furnished by the Demonaires. After the floor show refreshments were served and then the Grand March was held while the Pi Kaps presented small jewelry cases with the Pi Kap crest on top as favors to their dates.

The arrival of twelve o'clock was met with regrets, but there is always a next year to look forward to.

At sorority meeting Tuesday night the Pi Kaps were entertained by Mr. Françoise Mignon from Melrose Plantation, who spoke on plantation life. Mr. Mignon has been at Melrose for twelve years and his talk was both amusing and informative. Our thanks to the Pi Kap alums in Natchitoches for arranging to have him speak to us.

Alpha Beta Alpha Pledges Seven

Alpha Beta Alpha, National Library Science fraternity, pledged seven NSC students in a simple service conducted by Patsy Eason, Many, president of Alpha Chapter.

The students pledged at the regular meeting of Alpha chapter Tuesday were Barbara Bremer, Glenmora; Annette Dailey, Extension; Maxine Stroud, Florien; Millicent Thompson, Good Pine; Gladys Britt, Castor; Bill Williams, Alexandria; and Sue Tucker, Haynesville.

Following the pledging ceremony, Patsy Eason, Mary Alice Driscoll, Natchitoches and Sallie Harper, Crowville, gave brief talks on the Louisiana Library Association Convention to which they were delegates last week.

BSU Elects

Year's Officers

The Baptist Student Union of NSC recently chose, from among the Baptist students on the campus, officers for the coming year.

Chosen on the basis of outstanding Christian qualities and participation in activities sponsored by the B.S.U. were: Clydie Beacham, president; Lamar Rodgers, Men's Enlistment, Vice-president; Ladye Jane White, Social vice-president; Mary Clark, Devotional vice-president; Dudley Morrison, treasurer; Katie Hopkins, Promotional representative; David Lewin, Sunday School representative; Willis Haynes, Training Union representative; Don Finley, editor, "Chain"; Rose McWright, hostess; Byron McCain, Missions Director; Mary Ann Cronin, Music Director, Winnie Dowden, publicity director; and Claudine Box, AWS representative.

Installation of the newly elected officers will be held in the near future.

Miss Richter Is Honor Guest at Parties Last Week

Mrs. Harry Hyams and her mother, Mrs. J. T. Batten complimented Miss Barbara Richter at a lovely card party and handkerchief shower last Thursday evening.

A wide variety of garden flowers including phlox, pansies, pinks and iris furnished attractive floral arrangements, for the reception rooms of Mrs. Hyams' home on Cont'd on Page 7

Gymnastic Team to Enter AAU Competition in Dallas April 21

Looking for new fields to conquer, the Northwestern State College gymnastic team, which recently won the Southern A. A. U. championship, will go to Dallas, Texas, Saturday, April 21, to take part in the annual Southwestern A.A.U. gymnastic championships there.

John Campbell, health director at the Dallas Y.M.C.A., has informed the Demons that they will encounter stiff competition as more than 100 entries are expected for the meet, including, Texas A. & M., University of Texas, Southern Methodist, Kansas State and a host of other clubs from the surrounding area.

John Piscopo, coach of the Demon club, said that this is the first venture of a NSC gymnastic team into the Southwest A.A.U. competition, but that he expected the Demons to give a good account of themselves even though the competition may be keener than they encountered in the Southern A.A.U. meet at Hattiesburg, Miss.

Coach Piscopo, who is in his second year as gymnastic mentor at Northwestern, has produced the Southern A.A.U. gymnastic team in as many years.

40 HS Teams To Enter Rally Here Next Sat.

Not only all the teams that took championship honors last year but a considerable number of newcomers are expected to participate in the annual track, field and volleyball tournaments at Northwestern State College Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28, Coach Harry Turpin, NSC director of sports rallies, said this week. Indications are that 40 high school teams will be entered in the various rally events, Turpin said.

Late entries will be accepted up until the scheduled time of the tournament drawings Thursday afternoon, it was announced.

For the track and field events, the schools will be divided into four classes, AA, A, B, and C. Two contestants may be entered for each track and field event in all classes. Preliminaries for both track and field events will be held Friday afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock. Finals are scheduled to start at 1:30 p.m., with Walter Ledet, NSC assistant varsity track coach, in charge.

In the volleyball tournaments there will be two separate contests, one for the girls with Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, director of the NSC Department of Physical Education for Women, in charge, and the other for the boys, to be under the supervision of Coach Paul Marx, of the NSC athletic staff.

Eliminations in the volleyball tournaments are scheduled to start at 9 a.m. Friday. According to the rules, there shall be 16 players allowed per squad for the girls, and 12 players per squad for the boys.

Aquatic Rulers To Be Judged Monday Night

Candidates for the king and queen of the Aquatic show will be judged Monday, April 23 at 6 o'clock in the dance studio of the women's gymnasium.

The girls will be judged at 6 and the boys will be judged at 6:45.

The candidates are: Doris Jean Pine and Buddy Bonnet, Delta Sigma Epsilon; Jean Haskins and James A. Brannon, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Charlene Lark, Leon Fuller, Co-op; Louise Vick and Lee Reese, ABC Frames; Myrtle Ann Babin, and Bert Babcock, Purple Jackets; Jerry Jackson and Harold LaRue, Chopin; Zona Morris and Jack Rogers, Theta Sigma Upsilon; Mrs. Buddy Cope and Ken Howard, Vets Town; Elrisa Maxwell and Sonny Pharris, Agnes Morris.

Marilyn Barnett and Hamilton Prestridge, Lambda Zeta; JoAnn DeBate and Houston Davis, North Barracks; Earline Urserly and Ben Duhon, Audbon; Margery White, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Martha Ann Glass and Johnny Buck, Carondelet; Joyce Rambin and Bobby Voorhees, AWS; Irene Hebert and Bobby Davis, Beta Beta Beta; Beryl DeLoach and Ray Weimar, Phi Mu Alpha.

Lou Frizzell and "Drink" Barker, Canterbury Club; Betty Jean Thompson and Al Kopp, Pi Kappa Sigma, Patty Green and Dan Poole, Phi Epsilon Kappa; Louise Sheppard and Linwood Outzs, Varnado, O. J. Gremillion, Phi Kappa Nu.

The judges are Don Brumbaugh and Mrs. Eugenia Livingston of Natchitoches and Miss Mary McEniry, Martha Lou Craft and Elzer Marx, and Mr. Hoffman, of the Art Department.

Demons Down Centenary Here, 6-2

The Demon baseball team managed to salvage a 6 to 2 decision over Centenary to lend some cheer to an otherwise bleak week. While Lynwood Outzs was neutralizing the Gents offense, the Demons jumped on Mooty and his slightly luckier successor, Bushyhead for six runs on seven hits. Leadoff man "Chip" Perot was on in the first when a pitch connected with his left elbow, and Bobby Davis, lately on a hitting spree, contributed a single. Angel del Toro bunted both down, and Bob Weaver brought in a run with his single. Davis then scored on Artie Ranew's base on error, to give the Demons a 2-0 lead they never lost. Davis, del Toro, and Weaver came home in the 5th, when another hit batsman, a walk and two singles removed Mooty from the scene.

Centenary scored single runs in the third on shaky fielding and in the 9th on a pair of hits. The Demons added their last run in the 6th as a result of "Chip" Perot's triple.

The Demons lost a pair to Southwestern here Friday and Saturday, by scores of 11-7 and 15-1, and a single game to Lamar Tech, 5-3 here Thursday. Centenary took the first game of the two-game series, in Shreveport Tuesday, also by a score of 5-3.

Registration for the summer session of 1951 at NSC will begin at 8 a.m. June 11. Classes will begin at 8 a.m. June 12. The short term session of 9 weeks will end August 10 at 1 p.m.

Ind. Awards Contest to Be Held On Campus April 28 in I. A. Building

The Louisiana High School Industrial Education Awards Contest will be held in the Industrial Education Building on the campus of Northwestern State College April 28, according to Walter J. Robinson, Head of the Department of Industrial Education at the college. A Bar-B-Cue supper will precede the contest on April 27 at Saline Lake.

Entry deadline for high schools has been set for April 27. Competitors for the event entered thus far include: Reserve, Shreveport (Linwood and Brodamore High Schools), Bastrop, Neville of Monroe, Springhill High School, Natchitoches High School, and the Natchitoches Trade School.

Certificates will be awarded winners in each event and will entitle that entry to attend the regional contest to be held at Kansas City, Missouri. Winners in the Kansas City contest will then be sent to the National contest in Chicago where the winners there will receive cash prizes and be taken on a tour of the Henry Ford plant in Dearborn, Mich.

This is the first attempt made in Louisiana to hold a state-wide International Education contest and the hopes for more and better entries in coming years should come true, stated Mr. Robinson. Also, the Industrial Education's infancy in most high schools throughout the state has kept the list for this year's contest from being larger, however there is still time for many more schools to get in this year's event, he said.

The contest this year will be judged on an intellectual basis as well as from the craftsmanship angle, said Mr. Robinson.

Clapp Represents NSC at Recent AAUW Meeting

Dr. Sarah L. C. Clapp, professor of English at Northwestern State College, represented the Natchitoches Branch of American Association of University Women at the biennial convention of the Association in Atlantic City, New Jersey, April 9-13. She served as a delegate from the State Division, of which she is also treasurer.

The convention program was built around the theme: "Freedom—Our Responsibility." The speakers presented the subject in various aspects both national and international; and delegates discussed the program in relationship to the world struggle. Among the speakers were such outstanding figures as Norman Cousins, Editor of the Irish Federation and President of the International Federation of University Women, and Charles Malik, UN delegate from Lebanon.

To Dr. Clapp one notable feature of the meeting was that the delegates were given ample opportunity to formulate and express their own thinking in setting up a legislative program designed to further A.A.U.W.'s concerted concern with sound social and educational practices. Some very forward-looking plans were made to guide the Association to meet the challenge in these critical times.

Speakers iterated the necessity of knowing what freedom consists of: Of knowing that we love it in a form known to only one-twentieth of one per cent of the known race; of using every means to maintain it not only for ourselves but for export to other parts of the world. A recurrent idea was the importance of the United States in asserting and extending freedom by remaining true to its won history, by the strength of its technology, and by its place in the UN.

Present were 1299 delegates from the United States and Hawaii.

The incoming president is Dr. Susan Riley, Professor of English at George Peabody College. Dr. Riley is personally known to many in Natchitoches and throughout Louisiana for her wisdom, poise and aptness of speech. She is the first National president of A. A. U. W. to be chosen from the Southeast Central Region, of which she has been vice-president.

Havard Urges Reading As Great Leisure Time Activity in Talk

Prof. William Havard of the Social Science Department of NSC addressed the Natchitoches High School Student Body on Wednesday, April 11 as another speaker in the program series: "What Shall I Read?"

Stating unequivocally that reading is the greatest leisure time activity, Mr. Havard urged his audience to develop habits of reading good books both as the greatest single step toward becoming men and women and as the best insurance against possible boredom.

He suggested many titles which he had enjoyed during his high school days, books he was sure they would find both interesting and worthwhile: Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn," Stevenson's "Treasure Island" and "Kidnapped," Cooper's "Last of the Mohicans," Tarkington's "Penrod" and "Seventeen," Verne's "10,000 Leagues Under the Sea," and the novels of Dickens, of Tolstoy, and of Jane Austen.

He urged the young people to read history and biography critically, warmly recommending the histories of Charles and Mary Beard and of Henry Steele Commager. As outstanding biographies, he suggested Charnwood's "Lincoln," "The Autobiography of Stefan Zweig" and "The Education of Henry Adams."

In the realm of poetry he recommended Housman, Ogden Nash, and James Thurber.

Mr. Havard was introduced by Helen Fletcher of the V. L. Roy Club F.T.A.

Geology Students Take Field Trip To Vicksburg

Professor George A. Stokes and seven students in geology at Northwestern State College took a field trip to Vicksburg, Miss., Wednesday, April 18, to observe the U. S. Engineers waterways experiment station there.

Under the direction of a guide provided for them, the Northwestern State group covered the 500-acre area and observed various experiments being carried on there in flood control. Since its establishment in 1929 as a laboratory agency to assist in food control planning on the Mississippi river, the experiment station at Vicksburg has expended into an organization without parallel in engineering circles, Prof. Stokes said. In 1949 the station was placed under the direct supervision of the Chief of Engineers, U. S. Army. Its principal missions have been augmented to cover all hydraulic model investigations regardless of where performed, soils and concrete investigations, and even to include the testing of aircraft landing strip surfacing materials, according to the NSC professor of geography.

The station not only does work for various governmental agencies but also for private concerns if the latter obtain special permission and bear the entire cost for the particular experiments they desire made. The NSC group was particularly interested in observing such an experiment being conducted on a model built to scale for a large Chicago steel company whose docking facilities on Lake Michigan had been crippled by waves.

Students who made the field trip included Gus Broussard, Campti; Jeff DeBlieux, Natchitoches; Myron Fleming, Ferriday; Rod Juneau, Cottonport; Lenell Martin, Colfax, and Arlis Teekell, Hineston; and Sue Wheat, Montgomery.

Natchitoches Orchestra Will Present Spring Concert May 7

Val Hill

The Natchitoches Orchestra will present its Spring Concert for the people of Natchitoches and surrounding communities, Monday, May 7, at 8:15 p.m. This concert has been especially designed to please everyone's likes in music.

Val Hill, conductor, is well qualified to assist the orchestra in one of its most exciting programs. He has had numerous experiences as director of orchestras and bands throughout the Mid-

West.

Among the many bands and orchestras he has directed in the National Band Clinic Band, the Nebraska All-State Orchestra and the Nebraska Inter-collegiate Band. He is the honorary president of the National Music Camp, which he organized at Chadron, Nebraska.

He has served as judge at music contests in Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, South Dakota and in Denton and San Antonio, Texas; he is also on the recent National list of Adjudicators and Clinic Directors.

Mr. Hill is a past member of the famous Chicago Business Men's Orchestra. His orchestra experiences include the Lincoln, Omaha, Boulder orchestras and the Denver Civic Symphony.

The concert is sponsored by the Natchitoches Branch of the A. A. U. W.

Mrs. Sam Hill received the bridge prize, a copper planter and Mrs. Mary Hughes received the canasta prize, a set of ash trays. The winners presented their prizes to Miss Richter and the hostesses presented their honor guest with crystal in her chosen pattern.

A shower of lovely handkerchiefs was given by the guests. Delicious homemade angel food cake topped with whipped cream and strawberries were served with Cokes.

Invited guests included Mesdames Sally Gunn, Sam Sibley, Sam Hill, John Winn, Juanita Jackson, Mary Hughes, Lou Holmes, Lester Gillespie and Misses Loneta Graves and Ena Durio.

Mrs. Paul Marx and her mother, Mrs. W. B. Few of Shreveport were hostesses at a canasta party on Saturday afternoon honoring Miss Barbara Richter.

Specimen yellow Dutch iris and yellow and purple German iris graced the reception rooms of the Marx home in St. Denis Division.

Miss Janelle Farris and Miss Ruth Bruner, winners at canasta, presented the honor guest with their prizes and the hostesses presented her with a brass planter holding an ivy plant.

A chicken spaghetti supper was served with pineapple salad and relishes to the honor guest, her mother, Mrs. A. J. Richter and Mesdames Steve Brown and Robert Nix and Misses Ruth Bruner, Loneta Graves and Janelle Farris.

Morrison App'd Head of AF Clerk School by Prather

Prof. Noble B. Morrison, head of the Department since its establishment at Northwestern State College in 1930, has just been appointed by President H. Lee Prather as coordinator of the new Air Force clerk-typist school at the college. Classes for the school, for which the college recently was awarded a contract to train 250 men in the Air Force, are scheduled to begin Monday, April 23.

Training at Northwestern State is to supplement that of the giant Warren Air Force Base school near Cheyenne, Wyo., with its facilities for training 2,400 men, Prof. Morrison said. A representative of the Warren Air Force Base school, Louis W. Higson, was scheduled to arrive Thursday to assist Prof. Morrison in setting up the school in which instruction will be given by regular college faculty members. In addition, two commissioned officers and eight enlisted men in the Air Force have been detailed to the school to look after the subsistence and maintain routine records of all clerk-typist students while they are here.

The school will provide 12 June 15 and July 9.

Should it be necessary to supplement the college's own office equipment, including typewriters, when the load is at its peak, Prof. Morrison said he would arrange with secondary school officials in the state for renting their equipment, as that will be during the vacation period for the secondary schools.

During their stay here students in the clerk-typist school will be housed in the men's dormitories. weeks instructoin in type writing, filing, English, military correspondence and preparation of reports for ten different classes of 23 students each. The instruction will continue until Sept. 14, with the peak load of students, 250 of them, being on the campus together for three weeks, between

Piano Pedagogy Class to Present Recital

The Piano Pedagogy class of NSC will present John Steel Bitter, 12-year-old pianist, in a recital on Friday, April 27. The recital, to which the public has been invited, will be in the Little Theater of the Fine Arts building at 7:30 p.m.

A seventh grade student in Many, John is the organist of the First Baptist Church there. As the winner of the Shreveport Symphony Concerto Contest in the high school division, he played the 1st movement of the Haydn B Major concerto on the Christmas program of the orchestra.

He has done outstanding work in auditions of the National Guild of Piano Teachers, which has awarded him the Mozart pin for outstanding work and a prize as a winner in the Guild's annual recording competition.

Shreveport Physicians NSC Guests; Praise Nursing Program Highly

Two Shreveport physicians who are extremely interested in the nursing training provided students at Northwestern State College, primarily because of the important part nursing plays in a complete medical care program, were guests of the college Wednesday, April 18. They came here to observe the Department of Nursing Training in operation and to inspect the facilities for providing that training.

The two physicians, both of whom commended highly the training program here under the direction of Prof. Graham Price, were Dr. J. P. Sanders, president of the American Academy of General Practitioners and also president of the Louisiana Rural Health Council, and Dr. Clarence Webb, president of the Shreveport Health Council and past president of the Shreveport Medical Society.

Besides inspecting the nursing training facilities here, they adressed a general meeting of students and faculty in the Little Theatre. Dr. Sanders, who is the president or past president of eight different medical societies and author of some twenty books and articles on medical subjects, spoke on "The Nurse in the Medical Care Plan." Dr. Webb also addressed the group on "The Field of Pediatric Nursing."

After the meeting there was an informal reception for the two doctors in the Yellow Room of the Fine Arts building.

This was Dr. Sanders' first visit to the NSC campus since the establishment of the nursing training program here in 1949 and he was profuse in his praise of the staff and the ultra modern physical plant and equipment for the basic training of nurses. Dr. Webb, who has visited the campus before, likewise expressed enthusiasm for the work being done here in nursing training.

CHEERLEADER ELECTION

Intentions must be submitted to Dollie Smith, Secretary of the student body, before 5 p.m. Friday, May 4. Trials in Cheerleading will be conducted in the Student Center lounge at 6 p.m. on that date. The entire student body is urged to attend these try-outs. The election will be held on Monday, May 7.

Newman Picnic Slated May 20

The NSC Newman Club will hold its annual picnic honoring the Senior members on May 20, at either Kisatchie or Gum Springs.

An invitation is extended to all Catholic students and their dates to attend this picnic.

The cost will be approximately 75c per person. This price includes lunch and transportation.

A full program will be scheduled during the day, to include swimming, soft-ball, and other games.

Newman Club Holds Dance

On Saturday, April 21 from 8 till 10:30 the Newman Club held its second informal dance of the year in the Newman Room at the Religious center.

The dance started with the introduction of a few of the Air Force men recently assigned to training here.

Besides dancing, the group played several games. Refreshments were served throughout the dance.

Mrs. Rooks, Home Management teacher, chaperoned.

AWS to Select Soph. Counsellors, Big Sisters Wed.

Members of the executive council of the Associated Women Students in a joint session with the present sophomore counsellors will make the final selection of sophomore counsellors and "big Sisters" for next year Wednesday.

A total of six girls from the freshman class this year will be named to serve as counsellors to the incoming women students next year in Audubon, Agnes Morris, and Co-Op dormitories. They will be selected on a basis of participation in college activities, scholastic attainment, and interest.

The AWS Council will extend invitations to approximately 90 girls to serve as "big Sisters." They will participate in the orientation program next fall for freshman girls and will serve as advisers in other capacities.

Members of the AWS Council are also making plans for their annual spring retreat.

I. A. Contest Slated for Today Here

The Industrial Arts Department of Northwestern is having its first annual Industrial Arts Education Contest today in the Industrial Arts Building. This is the first time a contest of this type has been held in the state of Louisiana.

Awards will be issued on the basis of tests on technical information and on evaluation of the projects in craftsmanship. There are fifty-one entries from various high schools entered in the areas of metal working, woodworking, and drafting.

Those schools having entries in the various fields are: Springhill, Bastrop, Linwood Junior High in Shreveport, Martin, Minden, Neville, Ouachita Parish High, Ouachita Valley Vocational School, Leon Godchaux in Reserve, and Natchitoches High School.

Largest Class To Graduate On June 1

The largest number of graduates since 1940 is expected to receive degrees at Northwestern State College commencement exercises on June 1. Of a total of 166 candidates, 40 are seeking the Bachelor of Arts degree and 122 the Bachelor of Science.

A total of 108 students will graduate from the School of Education; 31 from the School of Arts and Sciences; and 27 from the School of Applied Arts and Sciences.

DEFERMENT METHODS OUTLINED IN MASS ASSEMBLY WEDNESDAY

Pointing out the different ways a college student might obtain deferment from induction into military service, Dudley Fulton, dean of men at Northwestern State College, presided at a mass meeting of men students here Wednesday morning. He not only urged all eligible students to take the selective service qualification test, to be given here May 26, but that they stay in school this summer.

The dean predicted that there would not be a great reduction of male students at Northwestern next fall due to the military draft. "Of the 600 men now enrolled, less than 60 of them have been tagged and are awaiting calls into the armed forces at the end of the Spring semester," he said. This figure does not include those students enrolled in the ROTC nor those in reserve units in other branches of the armed forces, it was explained.

"Selective service does not particularly concern itself with the wishes of the individual," Dean Fulton continued. "Every regulation issued by it has to do solely with the needs of the military services. Therefore, if a deferment is granted, it is with the purpose that you will better be able to serve when the service needs you most. It does not need you now or you would be called. Selective service wants men to stay in college," the dean declared.

The students were told that should they make a score of at least 70 on the selective service qualification examination, their selective service boards have been authorized to grant such students a deferment for another school year. He predicted that 40 per cent of the NSC men who take the examination will score 70 or better. The test, which he said would require approximately three hours, will not be easy, he warned. "It is not a test designed to measure what kind of grades you have made, but the grades you are capable of making," he explained. "With the possible exception of veterans, every man in school owes it to himself and his country to take this test," Dean Fulton concluded.

Clarinetist

JOSEPH CARLUCCI

Joseph Carlucci, clarinetist with the Natchitoches Orchestra, will be featured in the orchestra's Spring Concert May 7. He will perform von Weber's "Concertino" for clarinet and orchestra.

Mr. Carlucci, a native of Port Chester, New York, is assistant professor of music at Northwestern State College, where he teaches woodwinds and music theory. He studied clarinet at Yale University, School of Music, with Alvin Etler, well-known American composer. He received his Bachelor of Music degree in 1946.

He then did graduate work in theory and composition with Paul Hindemith, world-famous composer, and received a Master of Music degree in 1949.

While at Yale, Mr. Carlucci held scholarships in clarinet and theory and won first prize in a fugue-writing competition. He played clarinet for four years in the New Haven Symphony and has performed in numerous solo and ensemble recitals, as well as appearing as soloist with the New Haven Symphony and in concerts of contemporary American music at Smith College and Saratoga Springs, New York. He has also played string bass in the New Haven and Connecticut Symphonies.

Radio Class

To Give Mock Day's Program

The Advanced Radio Drama Class at the college will simulate a complete day of radio entertainment Friday, May 11. The purpose is to give the class members the opportunity to do practical work in laying out a program format for a full day of radio broadcasting.

Under the sponsorship of Don Carr, professor of speech and radio, and the direction of Elzer Marx, the program will consist of various types of music, late news casts, campus news, comedy, a baseball game, and various other types of programs.

Tentative plans are to relay the day's entertainment to the Field House for the listening pleasure and approval of the student body. If this arrangement is possible, it will be announced in next week's paper. If not, the "Green Room" and "Yellow Room" will be open to any and all students interested in listening to the program.

Members of the class and those assisting in the broadcast are: Elzer Marx, Lowell Vaughn, Julia McBroom, Ponder Davis, Jim Rigsby, Al Bailey, Paul Keyser, and Don Carr.

Are You Interested? ...

That there is a lack of interest on the part of students on the campus is a widely known fact. That over half of them aren't even interested enough about their draft status and means of staying in college, is nothing short of appalling. Less than half of the 600 men on the campus showed up Wednesday at third period last week for a mass meeting of all men students, for the purpose of discussing the draft laws and how they affect college students.

Three years ago the student interest on the campus was at a high level. The majority of the students on the campus knew what was going on, when, where, who was involved, and why. Frequently meetings were called by the president of the student body, or by administrative staff members, to discuss campus events and problems. Two years ago the interest level was high, but dropping. One year ago, it was killed. Obviously, this year, it is still dead.

The only thing to make a student body a good one is liveliness, spirit, and cooperation. Each of the three are basically dependent on interest. Is a little interest asking too much?

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

Rebel Hall has been recognized nationally. So welcome it was that even troops have been shipped in to be placed at the disposal of the president of the Hall. The active duties of the troops at present are guarding the chow line. So extensive and complete has been the guard that not one NSC student has been seen cutting line since the arrival of the troops. (Phantasy).

The arrival of the Air Force has also somewhat relieved the congestion of the show line. The line now stretches to Caldwell Hall, giving the students plenty of fresh air and sunshine while they wait to eat.

"Just a place to hang my hat," says one of the troops as his thin face peeps out from an oversized cap which was the result of leav-

Society

The Alpha Sigma Alpha Spring Formal was held Saturday evening, April 21, in the Field House. The theme for the dance was "Harbor Lights" and the decorations effectively carried out the theme. In the program, Ted Forte sang the Alpha Sig Sweetheart Song. Among the guests were Mesdames Holstein, David, Rhodes, and Townsend.

Miss Peggy Taylor, who hails from Stamps, Ark., has recently become engaged to J. C. Langley, also of Stamps, but now stationed at Ft. Bliss, Texas. Peggy, a junior music major, has been having her beautiful diamond admired by everyone.

Mrs. Ruby Duncelman, Head of the Home Economics Department, attended a meeting of the State Home Economics Education Committee in Alexandria, Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28. The meetings are to be held in the Management House on the Louisiana College campus.

Mrs. Mae Rhodes, house director of Carondelet Hall, was treated to a surprise birthday party last Monday evening. A little program was given by the girls. After a ukulele number, Sue Ann Westmoreland sang, "I Apologize" and Thais Beter rendered, "I'll Never Be Free." A gift was presented to Mrs. Rhodes by the girls along with a large birthday cake. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and Cokes were enjoyed by the girls, Mrs. Rhodes, and their guest, Mrs. Weber.

On Tuesday evening, April 24, the Modern Dance Workshop group presented their Spring program. The performance was greatly enjoyed by the large group who attended. Mrs. Jean Harper, workshop instructor, and Mrs. Audine Durham, musician, were presented with flowers by the dance group.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Like a breath of spring is the new view of the DSE sorority room. Color as well as style and beauty of the new furniture and fixtures, transforms it into a thing of beauty and the girls point with pride to the visiting guests that it is their own choice of selection.

Final plans are being laid for the Mother-Daughter banquet, Saturday, April 28, 6 p.m. at the blue room of the Nakatosh Hotel.

A gentle glimpse into the future is the formal dance coming up soon. Plans are well under way.

The rummage sale, after being postponed, was held this past Saturday. Results? — Good.

THETA SIGMA Upsilon

Zona Morris and Jack Rogers represented the Theta Sigs in the contest for king and queen of the show held here this week-end.

Welcome back to school, Barbara. Barbara West Rainey (yes, you read correctly) has been in Tampa, Florida for the past week on her honeymoon. She and Jimmie Rainey were married at Barbara's home in Jonesboro April 19, at 5:30 p.m.

Another Theta Sig has acquired a sparkle in more ways than one. Peggy Taylor's usual smile is wider than ever for she too is wearing "one of those diamonds" on her left hand. The lucky man is J. C. Langley of Stamps, Arkansas. At the present time J. C. is in the army and stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas.

During Barbara's absence Betty Sue Boydston picked up the gavel and presided over the meeting Tuesday night. The main topic of discussion was the family banquet which is to have as its theme "Carousels."

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Amid candlelight, bouquets of purple iris, and ivy lined tables, the Tri Sigmas met in the banquet room of the Nakatosh Hotel Saturday night, April 21, for their annual Mother-Daughter banquet celebrating the fifty-third anniversary of Sigma Sigma Sigma. Toastmaster was Janette Pace, retiring president. Katie McNamara, Erin Mays, Louise Harris, and Miss Eve Mouton served as speakers for the banquet. Awards were given to Betty Lou Polmer, Freshman girl with the highest average; Elaine Ferguson, "Best Pledge," and Erin Mays, "Outstanding Senior." Congratulations to you all! Also congratulations are in order for Pat Bishop, Chairman of the banquet.

We were very glad to have so many of the Alumni back with us for the banquet. They were Carol Clark, Betty Roan, Evelyn McClung, Lt. Dot Kinnison, Joyce Pasqua, Carolyn Bennet, Alida Bishop, Emily Willis, Billie Faye Adams, Mrs. Marian Nesom, and Mrs. Ora Williams.

This week Tri Sigma received two more outstanding girls for pledging; they are Pat Holmes and Millicent Thompson.

Wednesday all those Sigmas who are athletically inclined reported for baseball practice. Seems like they make a pretty as well as skilled team!

Plans are now being made for the dance which will be May 5.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Initiation ceremony was held Saturday, April 21 for Nelda Madden and Glenn Ellen Pennington. We were happy to welcome them to their first active meeting last Tuesday night.

The Pi Kaps are also very proud of the fine performances given by Patsy Winkler, Carolyn Fultz, Marilyn Snoddy, and Mary Jo Turnage in the recital presented by the dance workshop group.

Coach Anne Freeze is practicing with the softball team and the girls are shaping up fine. Plans are also under way for the Mother-Daughter banquet which is to be held Sunday, May 27.

It is good to see Nell Richardson back with us. Nell has been at her home in Alexandria for the past three weeks.

Richter-Stoutamire Nuptials Solemnized in Church Ceremony

Miss Barbara Anne Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur John Richter and Mr. Claude Laneau Stoutamire, son of Mrs. W. G. Jones of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. Charles M. Stoutamire of Tallahassee, Fla. were united in marriage on Wednesday, April 18, at 7:30 in the evening, at the Trinity Episcopal Church with Rev. David J. Coughlin, officiating.

The vows were exchanged before the altar beautified with arrays of calla lilies, stock and myriads of lighted candles. Mock orange blossoms and Southern smilax completed an effective background.

Mr. Lorane Brittain, organist, played nuptial music prior to the service, accompanied Miss Joy Norris who sang several beautiful wedding songs, and played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her wedding gown of bridal satin featuring a fitted bodice topped with a nylon net drop shoulder effect yoke joined to the bodice in scallops outlined with bugle beads and seed pearls. The full skirt ended in a court train and her veil of French illusion was appliqued with flowers. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid encircled with fleur d'amour and a cascade of white ribbons fell from the bouquet.

Miss Loneta Graves, maid of honor, was lovely in a yellow formal of net featuring a hoop effect. Her small hat was fashioned with a gold crown and she carried an artist palette covered with golden glads and adorned with yellow and white tapers.

Mr. Arthur Ranew was the best man and the ushers were Dewitt Patten and Frank Lampkin.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a smartly styled navy sheer worn with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the Church service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A profusion of exquisite spring blossoms in artistic arrangements beautified the reception rooms. The wedding table was adorned with orange blossoms and white tapers and the four tiered wedding cake elaborately embossed.

Mrs. Steve Brown and Mrs. Robert Nix alternated at the cake service, Miss Ruth Bruner and Miss Janelle Farris served punch and Mesdames Harry Hyams, C. A. Hughes and Miss Elizabeth Horton assisted in the serving courtesies. Mrs. Charles Kramer II was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Palmer received in the gift room.

For travelling on their wedding trip to New Orleans, Mrs. Stoutamire chose a navy faille suit worn with a white crepe blouse, navy hat and accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. F. J. Webb, Blair, Nebraska; Mrs. L. G. Micheels and Mrs. Carl Bolln, Omaha, Nebraska, aunts of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Minch, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ruffin, Mrs. Clarks Kramer II, Elizabeth Horton, Shreveport; Mr. and Mrs. K. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. M. Crawford, Coushatta; Frank Lampkin, Bossier City, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winters, Misses Nell and Patsy Winters, Alexandria.

McConathy Drafted for Pro Ball

By Syracuse Nationals of NBA

Johnny "Hound" McConathy, Demon center and All-GSC squad star, was one of nine first choices in the recent draft by teams in the National Basketball Association.

"Hound" was selected as first choice by the Syracuse Nationals. Other first choices include Gene Melchiorre, Baltimore (Bradley '51); and Sam Ranzino of North Carolina by the league champions, the Rochester Royals. Both were selected as All-Americans last season.

When asked what he intended to do about it, McConathy replied with an emphatic, "Sure, I'm going to play with Syracuse."

Thus, with McConathy joining the ranks of professional basketball, his name is added to the list of former NSC stalwarts who have become pros, including stars like Coach Charles "Red" Thomas, coach of the Demon five; and Ocie Ritchie, coach of the Couchatta American Legion National Champion quint.

Dance Workshop Presents Annual Recital April 24

Tuesday night, April 24 in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts building members of the NSC building members of the NSC Dance Workshop presented their annual stage, the group presented three dances in full costume. The program was under the direction of dance instructor, Miss Jean Harper.

The three dances were divided into several shorter dances to comprise the following program:

Frontier Frolic: with Sweet Betsy, Mary Jo Turnage; Galloping Sam, Carol Blankenship; Red Feather, Quincy Lincecum; Callers, Carolyn McLean, Carolyn Price, Patsy Burke, Marilyn Snoddy, Ila Mae Milton, Patty Green, Patsy Winkler, and Carolyn Fultz.

Xochipili, with Ila Mae Milton, Carol Blankenship, Patsy Winkler, Mary Jo Turnage, and Patsy Burke as women; Marilyn Snoddy, Carolyn Fultz, and Quincy Lincecum as animals; and Quincy Lincecum as Yaqui, and Indian witch doctor.

The last number was a trilogy consisting of This is My Theme, Abstraction, and Cuban Carnival. The entire cast of the production participated in the latter dances, with Carolyn Fultz dancing solo in This is My Theme.

Vets NSLI Checks Placed in Mail Early This Week

The first checks for the second special dividend of $685,000,000 to be paid to holders of some 8,000,000 GI insurance policies were placed in the mail this week.

Veterans Administration said the checks cover dividends due on some of the National Service Life Insurance policies with anniversary dates falling during the month of January. The anniversary date of a policy is the anniversary of the date on which it originally became effective.

An insured should not expect to receive a dividend check until several months after the policy anniversary date because the final calculation of the amount due cannot be made until the last premium has been paid for the dividend policy year.

Dividends will be paid on those policies which have been in force three months or longer during the three year period from the anniversary in 1948 to 1951 inclusive. This applies to both term and permanent plan policies, including those which have lapsed or were terminated by the death of the insured.

VA said the dividend will require about one year in which to pay. The bulk of the dividend should be distributed by April, 1952.

VA again urged policy holders not to make inquiries about the dividend before they receive their checks. However, after a policy holder has received his check and he has a question about the payment he should write to the VA District Office handling his account. The District Office to which he should write is identified in printed material accompanying each check.

One check will be mailed for each policy. Policy holders with more than one policy eligible for the dividend will receive one check for each eligible policy based on the anniversary date of that policy. Since different policies held by the same insured may have anniversary dates months apart the dividends would be paid at different times.

The amount of dividend earned by each policy will vary according to the following formula: (1) The number of months it was in force; (2) the plan of insurance; (3) the face value of the policy; (4) the age of the insured at the time it became effective.

Since this is a special dividend the payments may not be left on deposit with VA at interest. However, the checks may be cashed and the proceeds used to pay insurance premiums.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q. My eyes have been bothering me since I left military service. May I get eyeglasses from the VA?

A. VA will furnish eyeglasses only under three conditions: If VA judges they are necessary for a service-connected disability; if they are needed as part of hospital or domiciliary care, or if they are needed for proper continuance of Public Law 16 training.

Q. I have completed four years of college under the GI Bill, during which time I received quite a large number of textbooks at Government expense. May I keep the textbooks, or must I now return them to VA?

A. The textbooks are yours, and need not be returned to VA.

Q. I was commissioned in the Army in 1935, and hope to retire in 1965, after 30 years' service. Will I be eligible for GI Bill benefits, since I was in service during the World War II period?

A. No. Under present laws, all GI Bill benefits will have expired before your release from active service. The deadline for unemployment and self-employment allowance is July 25, 1952; for education and training, July 25, 1956, and for GI loans, July 25, 1957. Veterans who enlisted or re-enlisted under the Voluntary Recruitment Act (between October 6, 1945 and October 5, 1946) are exempted from the deadlines, but the exemptions would not apply in your case.

Q. Where do I apply for institutional on-farm training under the GI Bill?

A. Apply directly to the school in your locality approved to offer the training. The school then will transmit your application to VA for approval of the agency.

1,000 Athletes Compete in Two-Day NW District Track, Field Rally Here

To avert having to extend into moonlight hours the finals in the Northwestern district track and field rally here this week-end, Coach Harry (Rags) Turpin, rally sports director at NSC, announced that both the trials and the finals in field events for B and C high school contestants were scheduled for Friday afternoon at 1:30.

With more than 1,000 athletes representing 30 schools in the two-day track, field and volleyball tournaments, Turpin said it would have been inadvisable to have attempted to run off all the track and field finals for the five different classes of schools in one afternoon.

Intramural Notes

Golf

ATTENTION: Intramural golf will be held on May 1. Entries are due at 12 o'clock noon on the same date.

Tennis

The Intramural Tennis games must be played within the dates specified on the bracket in the Men's Gym. After each game be sure and record your score.

Intramurals at NSC

The intramural program is booming along in fine style at Northwestern State College. Having just completed basketball and Volleyball league play the various teams are heading down the home stretch in the fight for the overall team trophy.

At present softball and tennis hold the spotlight!

Of wide spread interest on the NSC campus was the free-throw contest held the first part of March. James Upshaw (freshman from Ringgold, set a new intramural record by sinking 91 out of 100 shots. Can anybody in the Gulf States Conference beat him?

From January 15 to April 11 NSC Intramural Program had 2739 participants take part in its over-all program.

In addition to completing the finals in field events Friday afternoon, B and C school contestants will hold preliminaries in the 100-, 200-, and 440-yard dash events, the 120- and 180-yard hurdles, and the 440- and 880-yard relays. The final track events for all classes will be run this afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock, in the following order: C, B, A, and AA.

Both the trials and finals in all field events for Classes A and AA will take place Saturday, Turpin said.

In the volleyball tournaments both the boys' and girls' elimination matches were scheduled to be held Friday, with the championship to be decided 10:00 Saturday morning.

In the girls' division, Hall Summit, last year's winner, met Kisatchie at 1 p.m.; at 2, Martha-ville met Couchatta; at 3, Martin met Natchitoches. Pleasant Hill drew a bye in the first round of competition.

In the boys' division, for the first round, Rosepine met Hall Summit at 1 p.m.; also at 1 p.m. Couchatta met Natchitoches; at 2:30, Martha-ville met Stonewall, with Kisatchie, last year's winner, drawing a bye.

Kopp Named All-Round AAU Champ As Demons Win Dallas Gym Meet

The NSC gymnastic team, 1951 Southern A.A.U. champions, picked up another crown Saturday when it won the Southwestern A.A.U. Gymnastic meet at Dallas, Texas. Al Kopp, running true to form, won the all-round senior championship just as he did in the Southern meet at Hattiesburg, Miss. on April 10, and James Carlyle was declared the all-round champion in the junior division of the Dallas meet.

With eleven teams entered in the Southwestern meet, the Demons scored 76½ points, the University of Texas was second with 58, and the Dallas Athletic Club, the host team for the meet, was third with 55½.

In winning all-round championship honors, Kopp, who is captain of the NSC club, placed first in three events—side horse, horizontal bar, and parallel bars—tied for first place with W. Trout, of Texas, in the rings and won fifth place in the long horse event. Bert Babcock, also of New Orleans, ranked fourth in all round honors. Carlyle took fifth place.

In the rope climb event, Robert Vorhees, won third place for the Demons. Lee Reece placed third, and Babcock fourth. Besides Kopp, who won the side horse event, Carlyle came in second, and Babcock sixth. Babcock placed fourth in the horizontal bar event. In the longhorse event, Babcock took second place, Ben Duhon third, and Kopp, fifth.

Besides Kopp, who placed first in the parallel bars, Warren Hauth scored fourth place points. In the tumbling events three NSC entrants scored points. John Hicks won second place, Charles Castaing, fourth, and Duhon, sixth.

In the junior division of the meet, Castaing took first place in tumbling, and Duhon won the long horse leaping event.

Primary Children Attend NSC Orch. Concert Tuesday

Their heads and shoulders swaying to the rhythm and with their hands clutching imaginary batons, 1,000 Natchitoches primary school children assisted Val Hill in conducting the NSC Orchestra in the first of a series of Spring concerts, Tuesday afternoon, April 24, in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Most enthusiastically received was the orchestra's rendition of Prof. Hill's own orchestration of "The St. Louis Blues."

Another very popular number with the youthful audience was a cello trio's interpretation of "The Swan" by Saint-Saens. Cellists were Richard L. Somers, Dave Lepard, and Jerry Fuller. They were accompanied at the piano by George Booker.

May will find the orchestra giving a special program during the noon hour for Natchitoches High School students in the High School auditorium.

A formal concert, sponsored by the Natchitoches branch of the American Association of University Women, is scheduled for Monday evening, May 8, in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Presenting both matinee and evening concerts, the orchestra will perform at Logansport Friday, May 11. The Orchestra includes musicians of Natchitoches, as well as students and faculty members.

Pugh Presents Piano Recital

The Department of Music at Northwestern State College presented Max Pugh, Logansport, in his senior piano recital in the Little Theatre on the campus at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, April 25. Pugh, who is a graduate of Bossier High School, studied piano with Mrs. A. E. Carrol, Logansport, and Prof. Ralph Squires, head of the Music Department at Centenary College, Shreveport, before enrolling in Northwestern.

Pugh, who will receive his degree in music education in June, has been very active in student affairs at Northwestern. He is a member and past president of Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternity; member of Kappa Delta Phi, honorary education fraternity; former state president of the B.S.U., a former member of the NSC Freshman Commission, and active in Y.M.C.A. affairs on the campus.

Neville, Jena High Schools Cop Play Fest

One-act play casts from Jena and Neville high schools were awarded superior ratings in the third annual drama festival held on the Northwestern State College campus Friday, April 20. Ratings of excellent also were given by the judges to another group from Jena and to a Natchitoches high school cast, according to Prof. Don Carr, of the NSC division of speech, festival director.

An all-festival cast was selected by the judges and included Lady Pool, Natchitoches; Patricia Hankins, Coushatta; Marian Guerriero, Neville; Polly Ott, Converse; C. J. Dyer, Jena, and Myrna Bassham, also of Jena.

The Jena group presented three playlets under the direction of Miss Dorothy Gamewell. The Neville cast was directed by Mrs. John Lacy; the Natchitoches cast, by Mrs. Dorothy Sibley, Shreveport, a senior at Northwestern; the Coushatta cast, by Mrs. Juanita Smith, and the Converse cast, by Mrs. Sibyle L. Edwards.

Jena and Neville high schools will receive certificates in recognition of their superior ratings in the festival from the National Thespian Society, and members of the all-festival cast will receive special certificates from Northwestern State College.

Judges for the one-act plays, which were produced throughout the day in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Auditorium, were Prof. Carr, Prof. Irma Stockwell, director of the NSC speech clinic, and Prof. Ellis G. Shields, of the NSC English staff.

Students who participated in the festival were the guests of the college Friday night at the final performance of "Oh! Susanna," two-act musical comedy presented by NSC student under the direction of Prof. Carr.

The first meeting of the group will be at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, May 8, in the Home Economics building on the college campus.

Bridal Couple Feted at Supper

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Richter were hosts at a rehearsal supper honoring their daughter, Miss Barbara Anne Richter and her fiancé, Claude Stoutamire, last Tuesday evening following their rehearsal at the Trinity Episcopal Church. Colorful spring flowers furnished attractive decoration and a delicious supper of creamed chicken in patty shells, pear salad, hot rolls, relishes, iced tea, cake and ice cream was served.

The guests included the bride and groom, Rev. and Mrs. David Coughlin, Arthur Ranew, Miss Joy Norris, Miss Loneta Graves, Elsie Teague, Frank Lampkin, Lorane Brittain, Dewitt Patten, Mrs. T. J. Wolff, Mrs. L. G. Mickells, and Mrs. C. H. Bolln, Nebraska.

SODA SAFE FOR CLEANING TOYS

April 28 to May 5 is National Baby Week. That's the time to concentrate on new methods and theories in the care and health of better babies. Everyone knows that almost from the minute they're born, babies put everything into their mouths. And no matter how germ conscious we might be, how can we think of keeping toys and rattles from them? But baby's toys can be clean and sweet-smelling if they are washed regularly with a solution of baking soda and water—3 tablespoons soda to a quart of water. Baking soda is the only cleanser that is good for you as a dentifrice and alkalizer. Safe, too, on baby's toys.

Lookout Mt., Rock City Gardens On Itinerary of Summer Tour

The Continental Trailways Tours Division has done everything possible to insure the utmost comfort and convenience for the members of the 21-day tour of the northeast United States. Everything except food costs has been included in the price of the tour, and even tips for the porters and tour guides will be taken care of. The food costs per person are estimated at $65.00.

The tour will begin at Natchitoches on Tuesday, April 14 and the first night will be spent at Memphis, Tenn., on top of Lookout Mountain overlooking Chattanooga. After an early morning visit to the famous Rock City Gardens, the group will leave Lookout Mountain for a drive through the Great Smoky Mountain National Park with a stop at New Found Gap where an excellent view of these mountains is seen from this point over a mile above sea level. From there the tour goes through Canton and Asheville, N. C. and on to Morgantown for the night.

In Morgantown there will be an excellent chance to study the tobacco industry from the farm to the finished product, North Carolina being first in tobacco production, growing 70 per cent of all the bright leaf cigarette tobacco produced in this country. The state produces 50 per cent of the cigarette and plug tobacco and 35 per cent of the smoking tobacco of the nation. There will be brief stops to inspect some of the tobacco kilns and warehouses and take a tour of one of the major cigarette factories. The night will be spent in downtown Richmond, Virginia just across the street from the state capitol which was designed by Thomas Jefferson and is one of the most beautiful capitol grounds in the U. S.

Softball League Season Opens Here Monday

The Natchitoches Softball Association swings into the 1951 season on Monday, April 24 with two games scheduled. V.F.W. will open league play against Falstaff in a game scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

The Association will operate two leagues this year. The Men's League will have five teams participating while the Women's League will have three teams competing for honors.

The second game on Monday night, scheduled to start at 8:00 p.m. will pit the W.O.W. team against T.G.T.

Wednesday night games will see women entering play with a contest between the W.O.W. Circle Choppers and the Younger Supply Deers. The second game will see R.E.A. and V.F.W. battling each other.

Friday night games will find T.G.T. and R.E.A. playing the opener while Falstaff and W.O.W. will engage in the nightcap.

Games are scheduled for every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights for the next 20 weeks.

Admission prices to these games will be those charged to all Department of Recreation activities, 9c and 24c.

Door Construction

A bolt or lock on any door should be so constructed that the door may be unlocked from the outside. Doors which give access to closets or other spaces should have handles on both sides. Doors between connecting rooms should be of single section and of a type that can be anchored.

Pers. Placement Positions Open In Civil Service

Open competitive examinations have been announced by the Tenth U. S. Civil Service Region, Federal Office Building, New Orleans, La., for Personnel Officer, Placement Officer, Position Classifier, $3825 to $5400 a year, Stenographer, $2450 to $2875 a year, and Typist, $2450 to $2650 a year, according to a statement issued this week by A. J. Leach, Regional Director. Applications may be filed until further notice.

Indefinite appointments to these positions will be made in federal agencies in the states of Louisiana and Mississippi as a result of these examinations.

The minimum age for Stenographer and Typist is 17; there is no maximum age for these positions. Age limits for the remaining positions are 18 to 62, but these age limits are waived for veterans. Applications for all positions will be required to take a written test. In addition, applications for Personnel Officer, Placement and Position Classifier must meet certain experience and training requirements.

Application forms and additional information, including where applications are to be filed, can be secured from the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at any first or second-class Post Office in Louisiana or Mississippi, or from the Tenth U. S. Civil Service Region, Federal Office Building, New Orleans, La.

Expect 40 High School Teams to Participate in NSC Track Meet

Approximately 40 high school teams are expected to participate in the track, field and volleyball tournaments to be held on the Northwestern State College campus Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28.

Coach Harry Turpin, director of sports rallies at Northwestern State, said he expected not only all the teams that took championship honors last year to return to defend their titles but that there would be a considerable number of newcomers to the rally this year. Late entries will be accepted up until the scheduled time for the tournament drawings Thursday afternoon, Coach Turpin said.

For the track and field events, the schools will be divided into four classes, AA, A, B, and C. Two contestants may be entered in each track and field event in all classes. Preliminaries for both track and field events will be run off Friday, beginning at 1 p.m.

Finals will begin Saturday at 1:30 p.m., with Walter Ledet, assistant varsity track coach, in charge.

In the volleyball tournaments there will be two separate contests, one for the girls, with Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, director of the NSC Department of Physical Education for Women, in charge, and the other for the boys, under the supervision of Coach Paul Marx.

Eliminations in the volleyball tournaments are scheduled to start at 9 a.m. Friday. According to the rules, there shall be 16 players allowed per squad for the girls, and 12 players per squad for the boys.

KOPP COPS

Al Kopp, NSC gymnastic great, led the Northwestern team to the Southwestern A.A.U. championship this week. Kopp won the all-round senior championship. The team recently won the Southern A.A.U. title.

Vets Deadline 3 Months Off; Laws Outlined

The July 25 deadline for starting GI Bill courses of education and training for most veterans is exactly three months away, Veterans Administration reminded veterans this week.

That date, established by law, should be kept in mind, VA said, by World War II veterans making plans for schooling or training at Government expense. This coming Summer term, for example, will be the last during which most veterans will be permitted to enter or re-enter GI Bill training.

A veteran actually must be in training by the deadline if he wants to continue afterwards. VA will consider him in training, even though he has temporarily interrupted his course for the summer vacation or for other reasons beyond his control, such as re-entry into military service.

Once he completes or discontinues his program of training after the cut-off date, he may not start another course.

Also, he must meet these requirements:

He will be expected to pursue his training "continuously until completion, except for conditions which normally would cause interruption by any student."

He may change his educational objective "only while in training and then for reasons satisfactory to the Administrator."

The July 25 cut-off date applies to World War II veterans discharged before July 25, 1947. Veterans discharged after the 1947 date have four years from the date of discharge in which to begin GI Bill training. Most veterans in both groups, however, must finish training by July 25, 1956, wind-up of the program.

An exception has been made for those who enlisted or re-enlisted under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act (between October 6, 1945, and October 5, 1946). Those veterans have four years from the end of their enlistment or re-enlistment period in which to start training, and nine years from that time in which to complete it.

Reece-Hebert Named King-Queen Of Aqua Show on Final Night

Irene Hebert and Lee Reese were named queen and king of the 1951 Aquaganza, at the last performance, staged Saturday night in the natatorium.

Selected by faculty, student, and community judges from representatives of various campus organizations, both Irene and Lee were awarded a trophy.

Among the finalists for queen were Irene Hebert, Zona Morris, Elresa Maxwell, Myrtle Ann Babin, Jo Ann DeBate, Jeanne Pine, Earline Ussery, Martha Ann Glass, Joyce Rambin, and Jerry Jackson.

Finalists for king were Lee Reese, Hamilton Prestridge, Al Kopp, Bert Babcock, O. J. Gre-million, Buddy Bonnette, Ben Du-hon, Harold LaRoux, Ken Ho-ward, and J. H. Brannon.

All finalists in the women's and men's divisions comprised the court of the Saturday night coronation.

The theme of the water show this year was "Twelve Months on the Water," highlighting a wide variety of swimming acts in which a holiday of each month was represented. As added attractions, John Piscopo, varsity swimming coach, demonstrated unique methods of water safety, and Jack Branch, captain of the men's swimming team, played the role of a clown diver.

Following the three performances on the NSC campus, the Aquatic Club will now take its annual water carnival on the road. Two performances are slated for May 18 and 19 in Shreveport. On May 14 the show will be presented here for visitors from Camp Polk.

KNSC to Pipe All-day Program To Field House

You might call it NSCFH—but the station call is KNSC. We're talking about the all-day radio presentation to be produced by members of the 308 Radio Production Class next Friday.

Under the supervision of Don [REDACTED] direction of Elzer Marx, students, the group will produce and pipe over special loudspeaker units in the student center an all day variety program.

News, sports, drama, interviews, comedy and music of all kinds will comprise the day's program, which will sign on at 8 a.m. and continue broadcasting until 10 p.m. Friday.

The various announcing parts on the program will be divided among the members of the class; who have written and produced their own shows. Operating on a professional radio basis, the students will interstice pseudo-commercial spot announcements with their regular productions.

Ex-NSC Student Dies in Korea

Pfc. Thayer O. Pollard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Pollard, Sr., of Colfax, died April 24 in Honolulu, T. H., War Department officials have notified his parents.

The telegram with news of his death was received by the Pollards Friday. To date they have received no word of the cause of death of the 21-year-old Air Force man.

Pollard attended grade school at Dry Prong, Tioga and Pineville and graduated from Houghton High School. He attended Northwestern State College for three and one-half years. In January, 1950, he enlisted in the Air Force.

He is also survived by a brother, John E., of Colfax; and his grandmother, Mrs. W. E. Pollard of Winnfield.

Assemblies for the remainder of this semester are as follows:

May 9—Review of ROTC Unit.

May 16—Film, "Self-Preservation in an Atomic Bomb Attack." This film has been released by the Department of Defense and is being made available to NSC through the Eighth Naval District in New Orleans. It obviously is of interest to every one of us, and the Assembly Committee urges a full attendance on the part of students and faculty members.

Broadway Actress to Appear Here In Last Artist Series Production

Northwestern State College will present Maude Scheerer, distinguished Broadway actress and recitalist, on Tuesday, May 8, at 8:15.

The program Miss Scheerer has selected to present to the Nat-chitoches audience will include the entire play by Christopher Frye, "The Lady's Not for Burning," as well as a scene from Tennessee Williams' latest success "The Rose Tattoo." As the title of Frye's poetic comedy suggests, this is a play about witchcraft. The scene is not Salem, Massachusetts, but 15th century England—with a peculiarly modern feeling and vocabulary. Miss Scheerer says she chose this from all the Broadway successes this season because of its novelty, its charm, and its comedy twists. The play was an importation from its long London run and the stars were John Guilquid and Pamela Brown in both the London and New York productions.

Subscribers to this season's concert association, as well as next season's, will be admitted to this attraction. College students will be admitted upon showing activity tickets. There will be no reserved seats.

Northwestern will be host for a triangular track meet with Tech and Southwestern here tonight. The meet will be run under the NSC stadium lights, with the field events scheduled to begin at 7:45.

Director

Dwight G. Davis, NSC band director who will lead that group in concert May 13, has studied music at five top-notch schools. He is District II representative of the Louisiana Music Education Board, and State chairman of the College Band Directors National Association. The well-known adjudicator and clinician has held numerous offices in station and national music organizations and has held chairmanships of both band and orchestra divisions of region 5, including seven states of the south.

Air Force School Officers To Be Honored at Picnic

Officers in command of the U. S. Air Force men attending the clerk-typist school, recently instituted at NSC, will be the guests of the business department of the college at a picnic supper, Saturday, May 5 at Ducournau's camp on Cane Lake. Prof. Noble B. Morrison, business department head and director of the NSC Air-Force School, is in charge of arrangements.

The outdoor fete is in honor of Captain Joseph M. Whelan and Sergeants William L. Baggett and Robert G. Kessler, who recently were assigned to duty here in connection with the school. Other guests will include President H. Lee Prather, Lt. Col. J. W. Bowman, and Capt. Bernard G. Wims, commandant and assistant commandant, respectively, of the ROTC unit, Dudley Fulton, dean of men, and other members of the administrative and teaching staffs.

'N' Club, Purple Jackets Call New Members at Wednesday Assembly

Special recognition was accorded 19 men athletes and 14 outstanding women students at the Wednesday assembly when the 'N' Club, athletic organization, and the Purple Jackets, top women honorary society, called their new members.

Business Dept. Shakes Head Over Ventilator Slide

Could any low flying airplane develop enough suction power to lift a 200 pound ventilator cover atop a NSC building and move it a foot?

That problem stumped both faculty members and students in the new Business Building one morning this week when a torrential rain deluged the top floor of the structure.

Efforts to ascertain the cause of the unusual roof leaks led to the discovery that the heavy ventilator cover was askew. According to Noble J. Morrison, Head of the Business Department and curator of the building, the mystery is still unsolved. Only he and the janitor had keys leading to the miniature penthouse atop the building, he said, and neither is noted for his weight-lifting prowess.

Highlighting the program was the presentation by President H. Lee Prather of two individual awards. The athletic achievement award, given on special occasions by the "N" Club, went to Johnny "Hound" McConathy, outstanding varsity basketball player for NSC and leading scorer in the Gulf States Conference.

President Prather commended McConathy for his high ideals as well as for his athletic achievements. The college president also expressed personal pride in the fact that McConathy had been a member of the last three basketball teams he had coached before assuming the presidency of Northwestern last fall.

Miss Myrtle Ann Babin was announced as the 1951 winner of the V. L. Roy (former NSC president) Purple Jacket annual award. This signal honor, President Prather said, is bestowed each year on the most outstanding member of the Purple Jackets on the basis of her scholarship, leadership, and character. Miss Babin was elected to receive this honor by her fellow members and

1st Formal ROTC Inspection Slated for Unit Wednesday

The first formal inspection of the ROTC unit of NSC will be conducted by three U. S. Army officers from headquarters of the Louisiana military district at New Orleans throughout Wednesday, May 9. The inspecting officers are Lt. Col. Edward Purdy, Major F. A. Lingner and Capt. Henry I. Coulam.

Included in the inspection, according to Lt. Col. J. W. Bowman, head of the Department of Military Science and Tactics at NSC, will be the unit facilities, administration supply, classroom instruction, and the cadet corps itself.

Climaxing the inspection will be a formal military review in the college stadium with cadet officers in charge. Lt. Col. Purdy will be the reviewing officer.

Training in the NSC cadet corps, which is an anti-aircraft unit, was instituted on a voluntary basis only last fall. One hundred eighty men students are enrolled this spring in the three companies comprising the ROTC battalion. The instructional staff consisted at first of two commissioned and seven non-commissioned Army officers, all sergeants. Two of the latter, Edward Hanscome and John P. Jeter, received promotions to the rank of warrant officers, junior grade, recently. They were formally sworn into their new offices by Capt. Bernard G. Sims, Assistant Commandant of the unit here.

Const. Amend. Election Slated Monday

Monday the polls will be open again. The purpose is to elect upperclass cheerleaders for the coming year and to vote on the constitutional amendments that the Senate and Council are presenting to the student body.

The polls will be open from 8 to 5.

The deadline for filing of intentions for cheerleaders was Friday afternoon at 5 and the try outs were at 6 in the field house.

The constitutional amendments to be voted on clarify the present constitutions and define various clauses that have proved from past experience to cause confusion. The amendments make no major change in the constitution.

Editorial

Educators, business men, and people of all walks of life who have hope of seeing the American way of life continue are urging college students to do everything they possibly can to stay in school. They have been doing so, more fervently since the Korean conflict began.

At present these people are urging students to take the Selective Service Qualification test that has been devised by the draft authorities. The test, which has been widely publicized on the campus, is solely for the purpose of determining whether or not a student is eligible for a deferment. It does not guarantee a student more time in school.

Elmer P. Brock, vice-president of the National Student Association, an organization which represents over 800,000 American college students, said recently that he felt many students were under the impression that the tests have been made meaningless by a Congressional amendment to the draft bill, stating that local draft boards are not bound by the results of the tests in granting deferments. The amendment, continued, does not in any way modify the original plans for the aptitude tests.

The chief ways for a student to stay in college, or to better his chances of being able to stay, are many. He may make a score of 70 on the SSQ test, stay in the upper scholastic ranks of his class, or both, or he may enlist in active or inactive reserve units. For the latter, there are ample opportunities in all branches of the service.

None of the above listed means is a definite assurance of staying in college, but at least they are in the student's favor. The demand for highly qualified persons to fill the leadership positions, both in military service and in the civilian counterparts which aid in war if necessary and peace if possible, necessitate the remaining in school of every possible college and university student.

College Band Well Staffed;

19 Soloists Fill Group's Ranks

The Northwestern State College concert band will not lack for soloists in its concert programs this spring. According to Prof. Dwight G. Davis, band director, the band has 19 soloist musicians, including one faculty member and several coeds.

Frank Pasqua, Gonzales, president of the NSC band organization, is an instrumental musician in the Department of Music and a trumpet soloist with the band. Other officers are Jerry Fuller, DeRidder, vice-president and baritonist, and Lorraine Vaughn, also of DeRidder, corresponding secretary.

For its Mother's Day concert to be given in the Fine Arts Building on the campus, Sunday afternoon, May 13, the band is to present as a special feature a trombone trio's rendition of Walter's "Slippery Gentlemen." Members of the trio are Henry Camp, West Monroe, graduating senior and president of Phi Mu Alpha, national honorary music fraternity; David Carson, Shreveport, drum major in the college marching band, and John Benter, Grand Cane. Camp also will conduct one of the band numbers, "Emblem of Unity," by J. J. Richards, in the program.

Other Bandsmen having outstanding solo parts in the Mother's Day program include Glynn Gardner, string bass player, Jeanne Mayer, flutist, Frances Wilson, clarinetist, and Thomas Latham, percussionist, all of Ferriday; Prof. Joseph Carlucci, a new member of the Department of Music staff, tympanist, Frank Schneider, oboist, and Gordon Young, cornetist, all of Natchitoches.

Also, Peggy Jo Taylor, basoonist, and Hardy Rose, clarinetist, both of Shreveport; Charles Preston, tenor saxophonist, and Allen Grant, baritone saxophonist, both of Leesville; Patricia Sullivan, horn player, Clayton; Jerry Fuller, DeRidder, baritonist; Robert DeLoach, Winnfield, tubaist, and Sallie Jo Foster, Tallulah, marimbist.

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

No news is good news, I've always heard, so consider yourself well-read if you progress this far in the column.

What are the students' feelings this week? Hmmm. A very ponderous question. "No pain," seems to answer sufficiently well.

Do they have any complaints? Oh, yes, millions of them. The space provided does not include room, however, so . . . (1) It seems that some unsophisticated and unusual students have been misinformed about the use and purpose of the water fountains at said Northwestern State College. "They ain't spittoons!" (This is a political advertisement paid for by the Anti-Drinking Fountain Spitters Association. Their motto is "Think . . . before you spit.") (2) I can't go on (writer's note).

What are they doing this week? Well, I could be nasty and say "nothing," but that word seems a little narrow around the edges when I really stop to think about it. Because, take for instance the Hustlers. They work all the time. And then there are a few people who look up words in the library (to fill out crossword puzzles, of course). And last but not least are the Drifters. What do Drifters do? They neither study nor hustle, and since there is no in-between, they just kinda drift around. But even that must be commended. It's a lot of work just driftin'.

Senate Minutes

The meeting was called to order April 27.

Discussion was held concerning the Senate bill about publications editors appointing their own advisers. The fact was brought out that under the present administration there would be no friction between the publications and the administration.

Rudy Berlin made the motion that the amendment, Senate Resolution 5, Article III, Publications, be deleted from the amendments. The motion was seconded and passed.

There was discussion about the amendment as to business managers of the publications receiving 25 per cent of the advertisement brought in. It is a school policy that no person should receive more than a full time scholarship.

Leland Langridge moved that the amendment be retained. The motion was seconded but failed. The meeting was then adjourned.

Respectively submitted,
Joyce Rambin, Secretary

Miss Barbara West of Hodge and Jimmie Rainey of Tampa, Florida, were wed in a beautiful ceremony in the bride's home, Thursday, April 19, at 5:30 p.m. The bride was lovely in a navy and white suit with white accessories. The bride's aunt and her only attendant, Mrs. Sibyl Denman, wore navy with white carnations.

Two large baskets of gladioli flanked a large double window and provided a setting for the exchanging of vows.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Wedding cake was served by Zona Morris, and the punch bowl was presided over by Edwina Harper.

The couple left for a honeymoon trip to Florida following the ceremony. The groom returned to his naval post, aboard the battleship "Missouri" in Norfolk, Va., and the bride returned to school here.

Among other Northwestern guests there were Bessie Morgan, Patsy Clement and Maureen Gray.

The Northwestern Choir performed at the Annual Elks Memorial at the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Alexandria, Sundrya. The group was chaperoned by Mrs. Mae Rhodes.

Among the visitors on the campus last week-end were the following alums: Mrs. Ed Lee, of New Orleans, who visited her sister, Miss Pat Marmande, Mrs. Ann Rutledge of Shreveport, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cole.

Miss Marilyn Finley was also a visitor on the campus last week-end.

Pi Kappa Sigma

The Pi Kaps started spring cleaning Saturday and finished the job Monday afternoon. It's good to see the House on Pi Kap Hill shining again.

Softball practice was called last Wednesday afternoon and the team is coming along fine. The girls are all enthusiastic about the whole business and hope to top their basketball season, which was something to brag about itself.

The Mother-Daughter banquet is to be held Sunday, May 27, at 1 o'clock. The committees and their chairmen were chosen last Tuesday night and plans are progressing.

We were very glad to act as hostesses this year for the Panhellenic installation ceremony last Thursday afternoon, and we want to wish the new officers and representatives the best of luck for the forthcoming season.

The Pi Kaps are also preparing for the tri-district convention which is to be held in Little Rock on June 8, 9, and 10. Representatives from Districts IV, V, and VI will attend. While in Little Rock the representatives will stay in the Sam Peck Hotel. Representatives from Alpha Delta Chapter, which is in District IV, have not been chosen yet.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The annual Sorority dance is scheduled for Saturday night and the Sigmas are busy making arrangements for the affair.

Our Spring pledges passed their tests and are to be initiated next week. Congratulations, girls on making such high grades!

Congratulations also to Ruthie Ellender on becoming a member of the Purple Jackets. Louise Harris, Vice-President of Tri Sigma, is already a Purple Jacket.

Gervais Aldredge has been named Junior Pan-hellenic Representative of Tri Sigma.

Theta Sigma Upsilon

The actives donned short skirts, bobby socks, and ribbons Tuesday night to come to the Circus given by the pledges.

The "children" were met at the door by Barker Boydston. The Barker led the "kids" around to the various booths arranged about the room.

Soon the "children" were completely out of control so the Barker let them wander about and do what they wanted to. (Little could she help herself.) Some hurried to see gifted Darlena, the Gypsy (Darlene Farr) to have their fortunes read in the cards. Others peeped at the bearded fat lady (Joyce Winn), freak of freaks. Still others were most interested in having their pictures made, so they went straight to the Photo booth, ran capably by Audell Pevy. Those who have a gambling spirit tried their luck at Marcia Wren's "Win a Prize Every Time" dart throwing booth. The curious gathered at Jerry Raspberry's booth to see the strangest animals in the world. The most interesting animal of this group was "the most ferocious animal in the world," enclosed in a tremendous cage for the protection of all who paused to look. This dangerous animal was at least three niches tall.

By the time the "children" had seen all the mysterious sights of the circus, Theresa Jameson, the cook, lured them away with popcorn, cokes, and animal cookies.

While the "children" ate, Ginny Lu Lu from Hawaii (Ginny Ward) entertained them with a hula dance. The fat bearded lady became jealous of all the attention given to Ginny Lu Lu. Therefore she showed the "children" what talent she did not have by trying to imitate the Hawaiian girl. Pleased with herself, the bearded fat lady then challenged Darlena, the Gypsy, to dance better than she. Darlena being very talented, as most gypsies are—well, you know who showed whom.

The party ended with a contest for cutest kid at the circus. Each little girl told her name, where she lived, and what she most liked to play. The judges could come to no decision so all "children" were awarded balloons. Everyone is going to grow up enough to stay up late and have a slumber party at Ann Powell's Saturday night.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

The Blue Room of the Nakatosh Hotel was a scene of beauty when Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority honored their mothers with a banquet on Saturday, April 28, at 6 o'clock p.m.

The tables, adorned with green and white candles were interlaced with yellow tulle, and bore attractive place cards of scroll and musical notes. Each daughter sat next to her mother.

An interesting program of talks, poems and songs was given as the delicious "turkey with all the trimmings" was enjoyed.

A fitting climax for the happy occasion was the return to the college, to see the final of the Aquatic show, and see our own Delta Sigs—seven of the ten finalist for Aquatic queen. At the end of the show Miss Irene Hebert, a Delta Sig, was crowned queen and thus it again is proven, Delta Sigma Epsilon has quality as well as quantity.

Julie McBroom, past president, very graciously presented to Myrtle Ann Babin the award for best active of the year; to Louise Burns for best pledge, and to Pat Marmande the coveted award of the Myrtle Aymond ring.

Wednesday at assembly Pat Marmande was called for membership to the Purple Jacket Club. Myrtle Ann Babin, president of the Purple Jackets was awarded the V. L. Roy award, which is one of the highest honors a girl can receive.

We're really proud of our Delta Sigs—Keep up the good work girls.

YWCA Members Hear Evangelist

On March 24, a group of the YWCA members and their sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Weber, traveled to Shreveport to hear the evangelist, Billy Graham. They thoroughly enjoyed the message on the Christian home.

On the following Sunday, the new council had their retreat in the YWCA room. They made a tentative calendar for the activities of the coming year. Among those activities were plans for open house during the fall semester.

The current project of the group is a money raising scheme to send two members to the National Student Christian Association in Berea, Kentucky.

Miss Doris Carruth Is Engaged to Wed Mr. Edwin Stoker on June 15

Miss Doris Carruth whose engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. Edwin Stoker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stoker of Natchitoches is announced by her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Godbold of Pineville. The marriage will take place in the First Baptist Church of Natchitoches, Friday, June 15.

The announcement and wedding date was revealed at a beautifully planned reception given last Friday afternoon by Mrs. Godbold.

The reception rooms featured arrangements of exquisite roses and spring blossoms with shades of pink predominating. The refreshment table was unusually attractive. Sweetheart roses were placed against a background of pink candles burning in crystal candelabra and the words Doris and Edwin, June 15, adorned the foreground of the table. The pink letters were interspersed with sweetheart roses.

A pink theme was emphasized in the fruit punch, sandwiches and cakes.

Mrs. Godbold received with Miss Carruth who was attractively gowned in a floor length dress of pink organdy worn with a corsage of lovely lavender sweet peas.

About 80 guests called during the hours of 4-5:30 p.m. Among guests from Natchitoches were: Mesdames Earl Morris, Troy Wheeler, Don Clark, J. T. Batten, I. E. Ward, Jack Rigdon, R. G. Corkern, O. C. Butler, G. D. Bridges, F. F. Lawton, B. O. Scroggins, Leroy Miller, W. H. Baker, W. E. Bryan and B. S. Swett.

Miss Carruth is well known here. She spent the past 6 years at Northwestern State College as B. S. U. Director and is also an outstanding worker in activities at the First Baptist Church.

44 HS Baseball Teams Due on Campus May 11-12 for District Diamond Fest

They'll be playing ball all over the place when 44 high school teams take over the Northwestern State College campus, May 11 and 12, for the annual district baseball and softball tournament. The tournament will include softball games for both boys and girls and baseball for boys only, according to Coach Harry (Rags) Turpin, director of sports rallies at NSC.

High school entering teams in the boys' softball division include Forest Hill, defending champion; Provençal, Poland, Hall Summit, Oak Grove, Saline, Flora, Ebarb, Cypress, Marthaville, LaSalle, Oil City, Calvin, Goldonna, Coushatta, and Ashland.

The girls' softball teams entered to date include Ebarb, defending champions; Oak Grove, Saline, Pleasant Hill, Flora, Ajax, Cypress, Marthaville, LaSalle, Oil City, Calvin, Goldonna, Coushatta, Ashland, and Natchitoches.

For the baseball division the following entries have been received: Robeline, Pleasant Hill, Sibley, Benton, Ajax, St. Mary's of Natchitoches, Cloutierville, Castor, Marthaville, Gibsland, LaSalle, Readhimer, Glenmora, Many, Vivian, Monterey, and Natchitoches. The winner in the district baseball competition last year was Winnsboro.

According to the rules governing the competition, no school may enter teams in both baseball and boys' softball events. Coach H. A. Brown, NSC varsity baseball coach will be in charge of the baseball games. Coach Charles Thomas, varsity basketball coach, will direct the softball tournament for boys, and Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, head of the department of physical education for women, will be in charge of the girls' tourney.

Eliminations have been scheduled to start promptly at 9 a.m. Friday, May 11.

Kopp Selected by Dept., Students For Nat'l Meet

So well do his campus friends think of his athletic prowess that they have sent Al Kopp, 1951 winner of both the Southern and Southwestern AAU gymnastic all-round championships, to Detroit, Mich., to engage in the national AAU meet Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5. Kopp, who left the campus Wednesday to take a plane from New Orleans to Detroit that night, will be entered in six individual events as well as the national all-round championship competition.

Kopp's entry in the national meet is being sponsored jointly by the NSC Department of Health and Physical Education and the student body, according to Prof. Guy W. Nesom, department head.

Kopp took individual honors in the Southern AAU team won the southern championship for the second consecutive year. Two weeks later he repeated that feat in the Southwestern meet at Dallas, where the NSC team walked away with the Southwestern championship.

Wesley Retreat Slated May 5-6

The Wesley Foundation of Northwestern is planning its annual retreat for this weekend, May 5 and 6, at Camp Brewer, the Methodist camp near Alexandria.

Speakers for the retreat will be Rev. Johnny Harper and Rev. Bill Mayo, both of Alexandria.

3 HS Students Cop I. A. Contest; Get Scholarship to Department

Three Louisiana high school contestants emerged from the first annual state industrial Arts contest, conducted last week-end at NSC, with scholarships to the college on first-place awards. The scholarship winners are Charles Baker, Springhill high school; Tommy Elioff, Neville High school of Monroe; and Wiley Champagne, Leon Godchaux high school, of Reserve.

The scholarships may be used either for a pre-engineering or an industrial arts course at Northwestern State, according to Dr. Walter J. Robinson, head of the NSC department of Industrial Education, which sponsors the contest.

Contestants were graded not only on the craftsmanship displayed in their exhibits entered in the contest, but upon their technical knowledge as well. Dr. T. E. Hampton, Baton Rouge, state supervisor of trade and industrial education, and H. O. Thomas, also of Baton Rouge, state supervisor of industrial arts, judged the exhibits for craftsmanship. Advanced students in the NSC industrial education department, supervised the intellectual tests. The total rating of each of the scholarship winners was 100 per cent, Dr. Robinson said.

Charles Baker took 1st place in the mechanical drawing division for pupils ranging from the 7th through the 10th grades, and Tommy Elioff topped the contest in mechanical drawing for pupils in the 11th and 12th grades. Wiley Champagne won his scholarship in wood turning, heading the list of contestants enrolled in Type B vocational - industrial course of study.

Demon Nine Beats La. College, 10-9 At Pineville Tues.

The NSC baseball team payed a pleasant visit to Louisiana College Tuesday, blasting out a 10 to 8 victory. Led by Sam Harper with 4 hits in 5 tries the Demons hitting power overtook a 5 to 3 Louisiana College with a four run outburst in the eighth, enabling Bill Smith to go the route.

The Demons scored first in the second inning, on singles by Ronald Martin and Sam Harper, dropped behind when Louisiana College got two in the third, went ahead, 3-2 in the fourth, but Moses' 3-run home run brought Louisiana College back into the running, until the big eighth, when Martin singled, Harper singled, Booras singled, and after one out, Perot singled, Davis brought in a run with a squeeze play, and del Toro singled to bring the total to four runs for the inning. The Demons picked up three more in the ninth for insurance, as Louisiana College picked up three more before Smith lowered the boom.

Price Attends Boston Meet

Miss Graham Price, head of the Nursing Department at NSC will leave the campus today to attend the annual convention of the Nursing Educator's Association at the Statler Hotel in Boston, Mass., May 9-11.

The association, founded in 1893, has as its purpose the improvement of nursing education in the nation.

In the absence of Miss Price, who will return to the campus May 14, Miss Dorothy Tayrien will be in charge of the department.

Washington, D. C. Visit Slated As A Focal Point of Summer Tour

After leaving Morganton, N. C., the tour will continue on to Richmond, Va., where the night will be spent. After a walk through this famous state capitol grounds the next morning, the members of the group will board their buses at 9:00 for a drive to the end of Monument Row and back by St. John's Church and burial ground where you will visit the pew where Patrick Henry made his famous "Liberty or Death" speech. From there the buses will drive on to Williamsburg for a personally conducted tour through this old rebuilt colonial capitol. Going next to Jamestown and then on to Yorktown, the party will see where Cornwallis surrendered on October 19, 1781, and then motor back to Richmond for another night.

Getting an early morning start, the party will arrive at Mt. Vernon in time to take an hour and a half walking tour of this national shrine before lunch. Reservations will be made at the Mt. Vernon Tea Room for the party to have lunch together when this tour is finished.

In the afternoon the party will drive into Washington by way of Mt. Vernon Memorial Highway where they will go directly to the Arlington National Cemetery to see the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers, then stop by the Jefferson Monument on the left as you cross the Potomac River. The schedule will be arranged so that the party will not enter the downtown section of Washington during closing hours, 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. EDT.

The first day in Washington will be spent on a guided tour in the buses. Some of the places that will be visited are: the White House, the Pan-American Building, Washington Monument, National Capitol tour, Library of Congress, Supreme Court Building, Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and the Government Printing Office. In the evening one of the larger theatres will offer excellent entertainment.

Except for a short visit at the Old Ford Theatre, where Lincoln was assassinated, and a guided tour through the Department of Justice Building, the second full day will be spent inspecting the various buildings of the Smithsonian Institute, which belongs to no city or state, but to all the people of the United States. The Chairman of its board of trustees is the Chief Justice of the United States.

Lunch will be had at the National Gallery of Art which is two blocks east of the Smithsonian Building. Among the exhibits to be inspected are models of the oldest inventions, collections relating to Anthropology, biology, and geology, life size models of hundreds of specimens of marine life, and works of art. Since these buildings close at 4:30 p.m. only the most interesting exhibits will be seen. Upon leaving here, the party will take a cab back to the hotel and the balance of the evening will be free.

Tune in next week, same time, same paper to read the next chapter about this tour, which will include such interesting places as New York City, Boston, Albany, and many more.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held; Winkler New Pres.

The Euthenics Club of the Home Economics Department held its annual Mother-Daughter Banquet in the private dining room of the Field House, Friday evening, April 27, at 7 p.m.

About 40 girls and their guests were present to enjoy the get-together. The tables were decorated with May poles wrapped in lavender, with lavender and white streamers. Tall white candles were placed between the May poles and red roses were strewn down the center of the table.

Mary Belle Davis, president of the Euthenics Club, acted as toastmistress, and started the group off, with each girl introducing herself and her guest.

Elaine Harris, a senior from Olla, welcomed the group. Mary Belle Davis was presented with a tiny gavel, as a gift from the girls for her outstanding work as president during the preceding year. Due to the illness of Mrs. Marie Dunn, the club sponsor, which prevented her from attending the banquet, her gift of a luncheon set was presented to her at a later time.

A delicious meal was served the group. Mrs. Sam Levy, prominent Natchitoches woman, was the guest speaker. Mrs. Levy spoke on Mother-Daughter Relationships, which was greatly enjoyed by both mothers and daughters.

At the close of the banquet, the following girls were installed as officers for 1951-52:

President, Patsy Winkler; Vice-president, Lois Ferre; Secretary, Jane Walcott; Treasurer, Geraldine Zabasky; Reporter, Mary Dean; Parliamentarian, Gloria Etheridge.

Barnette Named To Represent Northwestern

Marilyn Barnette, a Junior English Major, is representing Northwestern in the annual "Miss Holiday in Dixie" contest now being held in Shreveport. Approximately 45 beauties will vie for the coveted title.

A short dance was held in the Student Center Wednesday evening, April 18, for the purpose of nominating several girls to go. The final selection was made at a joint meeting of the Student Council and Student Senate, where several more girls were nominated.

Marilyn is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority, and is the sweetheart of Lambda Zeta Fraternity for 1950-51.

Cardneaux Slates Music Recital

The Music Department of Northwestern State College will present Kathryn Cardneaux, soprano, in her senior voice recital on Sunday afternoon, May 6 at 3:30 o'clock in the Little Theatre.

Born in Natchitoches, Miss Cardneaux has been singing since childhood. Her early studies in music were under Sister Mary Mercedes at St. Mary's Academy. A graduate of Natchitoches High School, she was active in the chorus, Glee Club, and the Fine Arts Club. Her first singing lessons were under Mrs. Gilbert Saetre, and Miss Stella Owsley, well-known teacher of T. S. C. W. in Denton, Texas.

Miss Cardneaux is a member of Alpha Xi Delta, Sigma Alpha Iota and Northwestern's College Singers. The major portion of her study has been at Northwestern where she has been an outstanding student.

George Booker, formerly of Beaumont, Texas, will play a group of piano numbers and will accompany Miss Cardneaux. The public is cordially invited to attend the recital.

Professors Assoc. Slates Triennial Banquet Here

The Northwestern State College chapter of the American Association of University Professors will hold its triennial banquet at 7 p.m. Friday, May 11, with Dean Cecil G. Taylor, of the Louisiana

State University College of Arts and Sciences, as the principal speaker. Guests from Centenary, Tech and Louisiana College will be present, according to Prof. G. Wlado Dunnington, president of the NSC chapter.

The banquet will be given in the dining hall of the college's new home economics building where Dean Taylor will address the group on "Administration and Educational Policy." Through a system of rotating the annual banquet with other colleges in the state having A.A.U.P. chapters, Northwestern plays the role of host for it every three years, Prof. Dunnington said. Last year the banquet was at Ruston, with the Tech chapter doing the honors.

The Natchitoches Garden Club will hold its annual flower exhibition, Saturday, May 5, in the drawing room of Varnado Hall, from 2 to 5 p.m. Mrs. Addie P. Shehane, president of the club, invites all college students to attend the exhibition.

Phi Mu Alpha Will Present All American Concert Friday, May 10

The Gamma Rho Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha, national music fraternity, is sponsoring an All-American Concert to be presented on the evening of May 10, at 8:00, in the Little Theatre of the Fine Arts Building on the campus of Northwestern State College.

The concert will be in keeping with the aims of the fraternity; the first of which is to advance the cause of music in America.

Local composers appearing on the program will be Miss Jayne Breazeale and Joseph Carlucci. Miss Breazeale is a graduate of LSU, where she received her Master's Degree in composition. The Divertimento, for Two Cellos and Piano was written especially for this concert. Miss Breazeale has written various numbers for orchestra; one of which will be played by the Natchitoches Symphony Orchestra on their forthcoming concert.

Mr. Carlucci, a native of Port Chester, New York, is assistant professor of music at Northwestern State College, where he teaches woodwinds and music theory. He is a graduate of Yale University, where he received his Master of Music Degree and studied theory and composition with the world famous composer, Paul Hindemith. He is a member of the Gamma Rho chapter of Phi Mu Alpha and has been most active in all musical activities at Northwestern State College.

Performers other than fraternity members are Mrs. Lillian G. McCook and Paul Torgimson, both members of the faculty at NSC.

This will be the second concert of the year to be sponsored by the Gamma Rho chapter. The first was the program presented by the Shreveport Symphony String Quartet, which appeared here in February.

During the recent District Music Festival held at Northwestern State College, the fraternity served in a valuable capacity, and has been very active in the promotion of more and better musical activities on the campus of NSC.

Kappa Delta Phi Banquet Held; Gloria Paris Gets Chapter Award

Honoring three retiring women faculty members, the spring class of initiates, and the recipient of the society's annual scholarship award, the Northwestern State College chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary and professional society in education, recently held its annual spring banquet on the campus.

Eighty members of the organization, whose membership is open to both faculty and students, attended the meeting at which Dr. Mary C. Wilson, supervisor of Lincoln Parish and former president of the NSC chapter, was the principal speaker. She spoke on "Discoveries in Reading."

The three members of the faculty who are retiring at the end of the present school year are Prof. Bertha Haupt, supervising teacher in the School of Education; her sister Prof. Hope Haupt, of the Art Department, and Prof. Inez Allen, of the Department of English.

Prof. A. C. Maddox, head of the Department of Mathematics, spoke effectively concerning the varied and fine contributions of the three retiring professors. In token of the chapter's appreciation, Prof. Eve Mouton, of the French Department, presented memento gifts to the Misses Haupt and a similar gift to Miss Clio Allen to be taken to Miss Inez Allen who could not be present.

The final honor of the evening, the Kappa Delta Pi annual award, representing high scholarship, went to Miss Gloria Paris of Mansfield for having the highest average in the field of nursing. The first student in the NSC nursing training program to receive the award, Miss Paris is now in training at a hospital in Shreveport.

Meeting with the society were the spring initiates with Dr. Robinson are Marie Tilleux, Shreveport; Mary Beth Buckley, Eugene Lester Dells and Elzer Marx, all of Natchitoches; Kathryn Fay Dheil, Longville; Elaine Koonce, Natchitoches high school, for third-year mechanical drawing contestants, and Ronald Bryan, Linwood, Jr., High School, Shreveport, for contestants in furniture making ranging from 7th through 10th grades.

Phi Epsilon Kappa Installs Chapter At Northwestern

Phi Epsilon Kappa, the only national professional fraternity for male students and teachers of physical education, installed a chapter, its fortieth, at Northwestern State College Saturday night, April 28. Twenty-five students and three faculty members in the NSC Department of Physical Education and Health were initiated as charter members of the chapter.

An installation team of four officers of the fraternity, including Earl W. Vornheder, Cincinnati, Ohio, national president, and Wm. K. Streit, director of health and physical education for the public school of Cincinnati, flew to Natchitoches by private plane Saturday to conduct the installation ceremonies. The ritualistic work was given in the men's gymnasium at the conclusion of the NSC aquatic club's annual water carnival in the natatorium.

Elzer Marx, Menasha, president of the new fraternity on the NSC campus. Other officers installed were Cornelius L. Rede, Natchitoches, vice-president; Harold G.

Denning, Alexandria, secretary, and Dan Poole, Natchitoches, treasurer.

Other students initiated in the fraternity were: Jack P. Branch and James K. Howard both of Shreveport; Harold Albritton, Downsville; Michel J. Bellipanni, New Orleans; Nolan R. Comas and Wilson W. Ronda both of Cabo Rojo, P.R.; Pedro A. Velez, Rio Piedras, P.R.; Roy J. Gravel and Ralph H. Gremillion, both of Alexandria; Charles Henry Ertell, Port Sulphur; Jeff T. Hennessy and Myron Lockey, both of Monroe; Robert Holmes, Buras; Linwood H. Ouzts, Minden; Jack L. Jordan and James LaRue, both of Natchitoches; Robert E. Justiss, Jena; Elvin G. Lightsey, Delhi; John A. Patton, Oxford, William A. Smith, Mooringsport, and Lloyd A. Danos, Raceland.

Three staff members of the Department of Health and Physical Education—Guy W. Nesom, head of the department; Paul G. Marx and Thomas T. Elkins—also were initiated. Faculty sponsors of the new organization are Profs. Marx and Nesom.

Dance Students May Now Compete For Scholarship

A scholarship has been offered by the Perry-Mansfield School of Dance to the most outstanding student of dance from Northwestern. The school is located in the Rocky Mountains at Steamboat Springs, Colorado, and the scholarship is offered for the training period that will be held during the months of July and August of 1951.

Members of all the dance classes and any other student who wishes may enter into the competition for the scholarship. The decision of the recipient of the scholarship will be decided by the faculty of the NSC physical education department.

Beginning and advanced ballet, beginning and advanced modern dance, art, fencing, square or ballroom dancing, horseback riding and pack trips, stage production, and many more interesting and educational courses will be offered.

The Perry-Mansfield School of Dance is one of the most famous dancing schools in America, and besides the experience of being able to attend the school, the students attending will be allowed high school or college credit for the course.

Formal Orchestra Concert Slated For May 7 in Fine Arts—Val Hill

Monday, May 7, at 8:15 p.m., the Natchitoches Orchestra will present its formal Spring concert in the Fine Arts Auditorium especially for the people of Natchitoches. The program, interesting and varied, has been especially selected so that everyone will find it to his liking.

The orchestra has included in its program the very popular "Introduction To The Third Act of Lohengrin" by Wagner. A stirring arrangement of Victor Herbert's "March of the Toys" will also be performed.

In addition to being featured as a clarinet soloist, Joseph Carlucci of the Northwestern State College music staff is debuting here as an arranger. His arrangement of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" for clarinet and orchestra promises to be a big hit.

Miss Jayne Breazeale, graduate Cum Laude in composition from L.S.U. has written a number especially to be performed by the Natchitoches Orchestra for you. There are other specials too. The "Swan" will feature Northwest-ern's top cellists, Jerry Fuller, David Lepard, and Richard Somers.

P'hellenic Group Installs Incoming Officers May 3

Installed as officers for the coming 1951-52 session were: Dollie Smith, president; Mayme Rae Schoonover, vice-president; Margaret Gene Ohlsen, secretary; Barbara West Rainey, corresponding secretary, and Eunice Eden, treasurer.

Representing the five sororities on the NSC campus are: Pi Kappa Sigma, Beryl DeLoach, Senior Representative, and Patsy Winkler, Junior Representative; Sigma Sigma Sigma, Ruthie Ellender, Senior Representative, and Ger-vaais Aldredge, Junior Representative; Alpha Sigma Alpha, Betty Sue Choate, Senior Representative, and Jeanette Dowden, Junior Representative; Theta Sigma Upsilon, Peggy Joyce Taylor, Senior Representative, and Betty Sue Boydston, Junior Representative; and for Delta Sigma Epsilon, Jean Weeks, Senior Representative, and Bobbye Lou Hancock, Junior Representative.

Physical Ed. Dept. To Honor Member

The Department of Physical Education has announced that it will present an award to the most deserving member of the W15 dance workshop group. Each member of the group will write her choice for the award and why she thinks her nominee deserves the award. A board composed of the faculty of the physical education department will make the final decision.

a specially selected committee of faculty and staff members.

New members of the "N" Club, those who had won their varsity letter for the first time this year, were announced by Harry "Rags" Turpin, head coach at NSC. Those called to the stage to be recognized were: Robert Pender, Jack Moore, Tynes Hildebrand, Harry Anderson, Ralph White, Johnny Haynes, Kermit Valentine, George Davis, Buddy Bonnette, Kenneth Howard, M. D. Ray, Joe Macaluso, Joe Price, Dennis Rider, Walter Powell, Henry P. Lyle, Robert Vorhees, and Firal Lee Ryder.

The new members of the Purple Jackets Club were announced as follows: Sammie Jean Banks, Clydie Mae Beacham, Darlene Bennett, Mary Clark, Ruth Ellender, Elizabeth Leo, Patricia Joy Short, Dollie Smith, Geraldine Transier, Jane Wolcott, Barbara West, Geraldine Zabasky, Patricia Marmande, and Patsy Eason.

Special music for the occasion was provided by faculty members of the music department. Both Prof. Sherrod Towns, head of the department, and Prof. Lillian G. McCook sang solo numbers. Prof. Lorane V. Brittain, at the piano, led the entire assembly in the singing of the Alma Mater.

Tour Members to Spend 2 Days In N. Y. City; Boston Next on List

(Ed's Note: This is the 3rd in a series of articles on the summer tour scheduled by the NSC Social Science department. The articles, written by Donita Gothard, Sauce staff member, are comprehensive surveys of the interesting places scheduled on the tour. Next week, the article on Boston and the remainder of the trip will end the series for this semester. Further information of the tour may be obtained by contacting Dr. John S. Kyser, LeRoi Eversull, or other members of the Social Science department.)

The buses will leave Washington in time to reach New York before 4:30 in order to get a New York City inspection for the buses before entering Lincoln Tunnel. The Delaware River will probably be crossed on the New Castel Ferry below Philadelphia in order to miss the heavy traffic. The hotel in New York where the members of the tour will stay is only one block from the Times Square theatrical district and one of the larger theatres will provide entertainment for the evening, or the members of the party may join the throngs along the great white way, where one of the most spectacular displays of neon and advertising lights that is to be found anywhere may be seen.

The first morning in New York will be spent on a combination downtown-uptown city tour. The party will view the financial district, the lower east side, the Bowery, the civic center, the East River, and the Hudson River piers with stops at China Town and the Battery for a view of New York Harbor and the Statue of Liberty. From these the group will go back uptown, passing Rockefeller Center and Radio City, the 5th Avenue shopping district, Millionaire's Row, Riverside Drive, Columbia University and Harlem, with stops at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine and Grant's Tomb.

On the return the group will have lunch at Rockefeller Center and then tour the 15 buildings of this 12½ acre city within a city.

The 2nd morning will be partially spent on a 3 hour cruise around Manhattan Island, beginning at 10:00, on a Circle Line Sightseeing Yacht. At the end of this tour cabs will take the party back to the hotel and the rest of the afternoon and evening is free.

Upon leaving New York, the tour will continue to Boston. The route between New York and Boston is very congested, and there will be very little time left for any activities on that day. The hotel in Boston is near the Copley Plaza Business District and convenient to the subway to all parts of the city.

Next week the tour will continue through Boston and vicinity. Some very interesting tours and a round trip cruise to Provincetown will give more information about the tour, so don't forget our date for the next issue of the Sauce.

Joy Norris Presented in Senior Recital

The Music Department of Northwestern State College will present Miss Joy Norris, soprano, in her Senior Voice Recital on Tuesday evening, May 15, at 8 o'clock in the Little Theatre.

Miss Norris is from Hall Summit, and is the daughter of Mrs. Lewis H. Norris and the late Mr. Norris. Joy calls Natchitoches her second home as she is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Norris of this city.

During her career at Northwestern State College she has been most active in social and religious circles and has been particularly active in the Natchitoches First Baptist Church. She is a member of the Purple Jack-ets, a past president of Sigma Alpha Iota Sorority and a member of the B.S.U. Executive Council.

In Hall Summit she was a piano student of Mrs. D. W. Stewart.

CECIL MORGAN NAMED PRINCIPAL SPEAKER FOR GRADUATION; BACCALAUREATE SET MAY 27

Huftt Clears Deferment Rules; Draft Suspended

In an administrative circular issued this week, General Raymond Huftt, State Director of Selective Service, made clearer policy pertaining to deferment of students.

He stated that students would no longer be handled under postponement procedures. If students qualify they will be eligible for 2A; if they do not, they will be liable for induction in due course. The requirement for eligibility for deferment is a score of 70 or above on the Selective Service Qualification Test, or the upper half, upper 2/3, upper ¾ of the freshman year, sophomore year and junior year respectively. He also stated that it was not necessary for a student who otherwise meets the requirements for 2A classification to attend summer school. In a broad move intended for the purpose of allowing students to have placed on their records the scores of the qualification test and their class standing, induction of all students was suspended until July 9, 1951.

All students interested in securing this deferment are requested to call at the office of the Dean of Men to give necessary information which will assist that office in advising the draft boards to their standing.

Students are reminded that the Selective Service Qualification Test is scheduled to be given in the Fine Arts Auditorium, beginning at 9:00 a.m., May 26, 1951, and that the deadline for filing for this test is May 15, 1951. Applications are available in the office of the Dean of Men.

Const. Amends. Pass in Vote Taken Monday

The election Monday put into effect new amendments of the constitution. The major change affects the election of Student Senate members. Intentions of this office are to be filed by Thursday of the 13th academic week this spring instead of next fall.

The Senate is also given liberty to have called meetings, which heretofore was not granted, and the seven days required to pass before the Council could act upon a Senate bill, and vice versa, was eliminated.

Many of the duties of the Student Council were more clearly defined, and the order of student body officers was changed to a slight degree.

Postmistress Resigns

Mrs. O'deal Pharris, postmistress of the postal branch of NSC postal branch at Northwestern since the Naval pre-flight school was installed during the war, has submitted to the Current Sauce a letter of resignation, which is printed here verbatim. We of the Sauce staff would like to take this opportunity to express, both for ourselves, and in behalf of the students, our regret that she must leave her post and our sincere thanks for the many little and large favors that she has gone out of her way to do for people.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to the faculty, staff, my faithful student helpers, and the entire student body of Northwestern State College for their wonderful cooperation and kindness to me during my six-year stay here at the college as your "college postmistress." Truly it has been a pleasure to work on the campus of one of the most beautiful colleges in the south.

I came to NSC while the Naval pre-flight school was enrolled in school, and I have learned to love you from that day. On June 30th, I will leave the college post office for none other than my "home sweet home" at 1241 Williams Avenue.

Certainly I will miss the eager faces who expect mail every day. I shall miss the ones who pour out their troubles just as I will miss the happy and carefree ones. Yes, I'll miss your cheery "Hi's" and "Hello's," but then after more thought, I won't have to remember box numbers or bother you with collecting box rent.

As yet my successor has not been named, but whoever he or she may be, I'm sure they will find it a pleasure to be of service to you.

I would be pleased to have you visit me in your spare moments. With every good wish for each of you, I remain,

Sincerely,
Mrs. O'deal Pharris

McConathy Named to NAIB Team

National recognition has come to Northwestern State College and its all-Gulf States Conference basketball center, Johnnie McConathy, senior, of Bryceland, in being named a member of the N.A.I.B. All-America second team. Both McConathy and the college are to be presented with the Helms Athletic Foundation All-America Scroll.

A business executive of Baton Rouge and a Baptist minister of Jackson, Miss., will be the principal speakers at the Spring graduation exercises at Northwestern State College, President H. Lee Prather announced this week.

Addressing the second largest class ever to graduate from Northwestern, Cecil Morgan of Baton Rouge; general counsel and vice-president of the Esso Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, will deliver the Commencement address at 8 p.m. Friday, June 1, in the Fine Arts Auditorium. At that time 164 seniors, two less than the record graduating class of 1940, will receive their diplomas. The School of Education is awarding 107 degrees, the School of Arts and Sciences 31, and the School of Applied Arts and Sciences 26.

Dr. Douglas Hudgins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Jackson, Miss., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday, May 27, also in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The baccalaureate program will be in the nature of a union service for all the churches in Natchitoches. Local ministers, in response to an invitation by President Prather, have dismissed or rearranged their morning services for that day in order that members of their congregations might hear Dr. Hudgins.

Glass Chosen Maid in Dixie Contest Recently

Miss Martha Anne Glass, a freshman Home Ec major at Northwestern and representative from the Natchitoches Chamber of Commerce in the annual Ark-La-Tex "Holiday in Dixie" contest was chosen from among 38 other contestants as one of the 13 maids in the Dixie Queen's Court.

Martha Anne left for Shreveport Friday afternoon and joined the 37 other contestants from all over the Ark-La-Tex area, at the Washington-Youree Hotel where they stayed as guests of the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce during the entire week-end of festivities.

Friday afternoon prior to the contest in which the Queen and her 13 maids were chosen, they were entertained by the Junior League with a Style Review, and Friday night directly following the contest they were guests at the English Men's Ball at Barksdale Field. Saturday morning each contestant was presented with beautiful compacts as favors by the Petroleum Club, which was host to them at breakfast.

Saturday afternoon a Boat Pageant was given on Clear Lake in which Martha Anne, as one of the Queen's maids participated.

Editorial

All day yesterday the Field House was filled with music, sports, drama, and the usual variety of items that go to make up a day of broadcasting. A day of broadcasting planned, set-up, directed, rehearsed, and presented to the students from the studio in the Fine Arts building by members of a radio class.

Since the beginning of the semester, students in that class have been learning the essential operations of a radio station, and have for the past several weeks been planning the entire day's radio show, under the direction of Donald Carr, speech professor.

This is one of the latest innovations that have come out of class work at Northwestern. The idea, from the time it was evolved, became a project that the students could work with, at the same time learning and enjoying themselves. It gave them something to work with, to use their original ideas in, and something in which they could see an end.

The success of this project, the almost expert manner in which it was finally presented, exemplifies what the method of "learning by doing" can do.

Personally, we'd like to see more of this type of teacher-student cooperation, more of these projects. They involve a lot of work and worry on the part of both, but they are well worth the effort.

Band Presents Concert at Arcadia and NSC

The Northwestern State College concert band was heard both in Natchitoches and in Arcadia Wednesday.

While the bandmen were giving a concert before the Arcadia high school students, members of Northwestern State's ROTC unit were marching in formal review to a recording made by the Band last week for that occasion.

The formal review, with cadet officers in charge, was held in the college stadium in connection with the annual inspection of the cadet unit by three United States army officers from the Louisiana district headquarters in New Orleans. Lt. Col. Edward Purdy was the reviewing officer. The other inspecting officers are Major F. A. Lingner and Capt. Henry I. Coulam.

Organized on a voluntary basis only last fall, military training at NSC is under the direction of Lt. Col. J. W. Bowman. The corps, which is an anti aircraft unit, consists of 180 men organized into three companies comprising the ROTC battalion.

The members of the Modern Dance Workshop traveled to Kisatchie, Tuesday afternoon, for a picnic. The white sand and cold water invited the swimmers and the sunbathers.

Miss Harper and Miss Williams got a fire built and the food spread out on the table. No one required a second invitation to come and eat. Roasted weiners, potato salad, and cokes were enjoyed by everyone.

Society

As June, the proverbial month of marriages approaches, all you good people can expect to read in the society section is love, courtship, and marriage, marriage, marriage.

Miss Ann Rambin, a freshman primary education major from Powhatan, is planning her June 15 marriage. She is engaged to William "Dub" Cox of Natchitoches. The couple will be married at Ann's home.

An engagement that was somehow overlooked was that of Sue Tolbert to Herbert Dawkins. They have been engaged for a few months, but Sue is still proudly sporting that diamond. Sue is a junior from Port Sulphur and Herbert, an Upper Elementary major, is a junior from Bastrop.

Among the girls recently pinned are Earline Ursury, pinned to Ben Duhon; Frances Woodall pinned to Lloyd Danos; and Peggy Heywood pinned to Popeye Allen.

Mrs. Mae Rhodes is being visited this week by her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Arceneaux, and her daughter.

Miss Essie Givens and Mrs. Ruth Weber were shoppers and visitors in Shreveport, Tuesday.

The end of school is drawing near. That seems to be the one straw these poor students of N. S. C. can cling to in all the rush of final tests before Final Tests, last performances, and only a million and one things to do. We surely hope they make it!

Check Child's Hearing

Typical childhood diseases like measles, mumps, scarlet fever, diphtheria, meningitis and influenza, can bring on hearing conditions, which, unless given immediate medical attention, will result in permanent deafness. Parents should have their children's hearing checked after these childhood illnesses.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Everything went off fine. I'm speaking of our dance, of course, which was April 21. The theme was "Harbor Lights," and it was carried out in every detail. I'll try to give you an idea of what it was like.

First let's start with the tables. The center piece was a large life saver with "S. S. Alpha Sig" painted on it. The nut cups were small anchors and the dance programs and place cards were mermaids. All of the tables were arranged in the shape of an anchor and they were separated from the dance floor by lamp posts and rope.

Large white capped waves surrounded the bandstand and lighthouse. About the lighthouse were dozens of stars and a huge moon.

Elzer Marx was our Master of Ceremonies, and he did a splendid job. Wilda Jones sang "Harbor Lights," and Ted Forte sang "Alpha Sigma Sweetheart." We were very fortunate in having Gwen Thomas from Tech to do some tap dancing for us—she's an acrobat too.

Sunday, May 6, was the day of our Mother - Daughter - Father banquet. Yes, we let father in on it this time. The banquet was held at Lay's. The theme of the banquet, while complicated, was very appropriate. It was the contrast between mother's "teenage" days and daughter's "teenage" days.

Awards were given to Claudine Box for the Best Pledge, Nan

Short for having the highest scholastic average of the pledges, and Dolly Smith received the Shirley Few Awards, Frost Fidelity Award, and was named "Alpha Girl."

The banquet was a great success, and I am sure our parents were pleased with the aims and goals of their daughters and our sorority.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

Girls are rushing around like mad making final plans for their formal dance slated for Saturday, May 12, at the Field House. The Demonaires are to be at their best and a surprise is in store for those who appreciate specialty numbers.

The Rose of D.S.E. will be presented and a most exciting and gay evening of entertainment is expected!

New dark green slips covers have been added to the D.S.E. room, to blend in with the new furniture and the surroundings.

Pi Kappa Sigma

Our Pi Kap house is sparkling like new after its spring cleaning, and the girls are very proud of their work.

Softball practice was called for 5:30 Wednesday afternoon, and the Pi Kaps all showed up for a good workout.

Pledges Lou Frissell, Mary Jo Turnage, and Carolyn Fultz took their pledge test May 5 and all passed with flying colors. Initiation ceremony for these three Pi Kaps is scheduled for May 19.

We were very proud of our Beth McGuffie as she paraded with Company "B", which she is sponsoring, Wednesday morning.

Alpha Beta Alpha

Eleven NSC library science students became members of Alpha Beta Alpha, national under graduate library science fraternity when initiated Monday night. Those initiated were Barbara Bremer, Glenmora; Glodys Britt, Castor; Annette Dailey, Extension; Patsy LeRoy, Flora; Claire Lucius, Florian; Jimmie Parker, Maxine Stroud, Florian; Sally Thibodeaux, Flora; Millicent Thompson, Good Pine; Sue Tucker, Haynesville; Bill Williams, Alexandria.

The very impressive candlelight initiation was conducted by Patsy Eason, president of Alpha Chapter, assisted by the vice-president, Yvonne Ewing; the corresponding secretary, Ruth Ann Ellender; the recording secretary, Maurine Gray; the treasurer, Marguerite Durham, and the national executive committee member, Tommie Jean Tullos. The history of Alpha Beta Alpha was given by Sallie Harper, the national president.

Other national officers present were Kathryn Hopkins, treasurer and Mrs. Lucille Carnahan, national executive committee member. Initiation committee members deserving recognition were Mary Alice Driscoll, Johnnie Malory, and Randall Detro. Professional members present were Mr. Warren Tracy, acting librarian, NSC; Miss May Hammett, Elementary School Librarian, and Miss Dorothy Keyser, Secretary, NSC Library.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The Alpha Zetas danced amid "Lavender and Old Lace" Saturday night at their annual Spril formal. A large fan of Lavender crinoline trimmed with paper lace and pink and lavender flowers covered the mirror of the Field House. Underneath the fan was the refreshment table also decorated with lavender flowers.

At the opposite end of the dance floor was a garden scene encircled by a picket fence, which was entwined with ivy and flowers. Inside was an iron lace bench where sat a lovely mannikin dressed in lavender holding a small fan.

Picket fences trimmed with ivy and flowers partially surrounded the band stand, and separated the dance floor from the tables which were lined against the wall. On the tables were small dolls dressed in lavender organdy skirts, and dance programs shaped like small fans.

Trellises entwined with ivy and flowers stood against the walls.

Throughout the dance refreshments were served, and a dedication was presented to the group.

Tri Sigma enjoyed Gloria Vos' box of chocolates Tuesday night. She and Steve Murphy became engaged last week-end!

Congratulations to Mildred Butte, Mary Ann Cronin, Sunshine Fleming, Billie Joy Payne, Bea Rumsey, and Helen Thompson on their initiation this week!

It's Spring cleaning time! The Sigmas are planning on a big house cleaning day, Saturday, May 19. The next day they will go on their annual sorority picnic, that is if they're still able to be around!

The Helms Foundation, of Los Angeles, Calif., was authorized by the executive committee of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball, at its annual meeting in Kansas City last March, to select the official N. A. I. B. All-America team. This selection has just been made public by W. R. (Bill) Schroeder, chairman of the selection committee.

While more than 300 colleges and universities are members of the N.A.I.B. no college is required to compete in championship tournament for its players to be eligible for this honor, as the selection is based on the entire season's play.

McConathy was the only Louisiana player named to the All-America team, but Tom Bishop, of Mississippi Southern, another Gulf States Conference school, was also selected on the second team.

NSC Concert Band

While its program in general is being dedicated to all mothers, the Northwestern State College band will present a concert in the Fine Arts auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday with each number dedicated to an outstanding civic group or organization in this region. Nineteen different groups in Natchitoches and nearby communities will be so honored, according to Prof. Dwight G. Davis, NSC band director.

The opening number on the program, "Emblem of Unity March," will be directed by Henry Camp, West Monroe, and NSC senior instrumental music major. It will be dedicated to the 1950 and 1951 American Legion national championship basketball teams of Coushatta, and their coach, Mel Crawford. According to plans, President H. Lee Prather will be seated with this group during the concert as almost all its members were proteges of his when he was head basketball coach at Northwestern State.

"Headlines," a rollicking number by Charleton Colby, will be played in honor of the three service clubs of Natchitoches—Kiwanis, Ralph Todd, president; Lions, W. R. Noah, president, and Rotary, Hugh Bernard, president.

The Coushatta high school band and its director, M. I. Brumfield, will be honored with a selection, "Slippery Gentlemen," played by a trombone trio.

To the Northwestern State College gymnastic team and its coach, John Piscopo, the next piece will be dedicated with the band's playing of "Youth Triumphant Overture." The band is honoring the NSC gymnasts for having won both the Southern and the Southwestern A. A. U. Championships this year.

"An American Weekend" will be played for the Ferriday high school band and its director, Forrest Griffin. This will be followed by the playing of "Five American Folk Songs" in honor of nine high school bands that participated in the recent district music festival on the campus.

The Winnfield high school band and its conductor, William Noonan, also will have a special number played in their honor, "El Caminante del Mayab," by Joseph Cardenas.

"A Walking Tune," a new concert band number, will be dedicated to the Natchitoches High School Band and orchestra and their director, Frank Schneider and Mrs. Val Hill, respectively.

For its final number the band will play Paul Yoder's arrangement of "Dry Bones," dedicating it to all in the audience who might have felt slighted in not having a number dedicated to them.

Twelve Represent NSC at Sixth WRA Convention May 4

The 6th annual weekend camp of the Louisiana Federation of College Women's Recreation Associations was held at Camp Kiwanis near Alexandria on May 4, 5, and 6. Ten colleges from all over Louisiana were represented by 12 girls from each college.

Southeastern was hostess for the camp this year, and Northwestern was co-hostess. New officers were elected at a meeting of the House of Delegates, and Virginia Metcalf from NSC was chosen the new historian. Southeastern presented Virginia, as the historian, with a large wooden scrapbook to keep for the WRA.

The delegates were divided into teams and each team was named after a state. Saturday the teams participated in a tug-o-war, a sack race, swimming, softball, and many other sports. Square dancing was enjoyed both Friday and Saturday nights, and there were guest callers from all of the colleges.

Representing NSC were Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, Miss Ora Williams, Miss Dolores Bacarisse, and Miss Elisabeth Cunningham from the physical education department here. The 12 students attending from NSC were Helen Brubacher, New Orleans; Rosemary Tafaro, New Orleans; Virginia Metcalf, Shreveport; Carolyn Fultz, Mansfield; Jeanne Oliver, Bastrop; Hope Butler, Natchitoches; Carolyn Price, Mansfield; Jo Ann DeBate, Bunkie; Carol Blankenship, Oakdale; Mildred Wassan, Monroe; Betty Dezenendorf, Natchitoches; and Patsy Burke, Gretna.

Gravel Runner-up in GSC Net Meet As Team Ends Season May 3-4

Roy Gravel, singles star on the NSC team, was runner-up in competition against six NSC teams in the final match of the season at Hattiesburg, Miss., May 3-4. According to team coach, William Havard. Gravel took the singles matches throughout the tourney past the semi-final match against McGinn of Springhill. The tourney was capped by a strong Loyola team. The Demons tagged fourth. Gravel lost to Crumley of Loyola.

Closing out a 4 won, 7 lost season, the team has high hopes of a brighter session next year, since not a member will be lost.

Gravel, who has consistently beaten every singles player in the western division of the GSC for the past two years, will remain with the squad another year, and new additions to the team are expected, according to Havard.

So far this year, the five members of the team have competed with Southwestern once, Louisiana Tech twice, McNeese twice, Louisiana College twice, LSU once, Loyola once, and Springhill once.

Members of the team are Roy Gravel, Doug Chamberlain, Ben Hunter, Harry Corley, Elzer Marx.

(All persons interested in membership in the Demon tennis squad next year, contact Wm. Havard.)

Wesley Retreat Held in Alex.

The Wesley Foundation spent on enjoyable weekend at Camp Brewer, below Alexandria, on their annual Spring retreat.

The group of young people were accompanied by their Wesley Foundation Director, Mrs. D. W. Poole.

Upon arriving at Camp Brewer Saturday afternoon, cabins were assigned, and after getting settled, everyone enjoyed exploring the grounds and playing softball.

A weiner roast, with everyone cooking his own supper, was planned next. That evening, Reverend Willie Mayo, of Trinity Methodist Church in Alexandria, drove out to deliver the devotional. Singing, under the direction of Burt Boone and games, under Jerry Fuller's supervision followed.

Sunday morning, the group arose early for an early morning service, then returned for a hearty breakfast.

Reverend Jolly Harper, District Superintendent of the Alexandria District was in charge of the morning worship and gave communion.

During the freetime before lunch, the energetic people went on explorations or played games, while the lazy ones retired to their cabins for a nap.

Everyone was wide awake when the smell of fried chicken began to float out from the kitchen. After thoroughly enjoying the dinner, the young people had another quiet period of devotion before gathering up their belongings and starting back to NSC.

It was the opinion of all that the spring retreat was a great success; in fact, someone even suggested that a retreat be had about every other week-end!

Cattle Egret

The cattle egret, unlike the rest of the heron family, does not live on water creatures. It catches insects disturbed by the feet of grazing livestock. Well known to parts of Africa and South America, it was first recorded in Australia by the National Geographic Society-Smithsonian Institution Arnhem land expedition in 1948.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 21... THE PELICAN

OUR easy-going, big-billed friend has learned to say "No" to these hurry-up, one-puff, one-sniff cigarette tests! "Why", says he,

"they don't even give you time to finish the cigarette before you're supposed to decide which is mildest!" Millions of smokers have come to the same conclusion —there's just one real way to test the flavor and mildness of a cigarette!

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke—on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments needed! After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone"

(T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why...

KNSC Operates With Success

Yesterday the student body of NSC was entertained for the first time by a fabulous new radio station—KNSC—broadcast over special loudspeakers beginning at 8 a. m. in the Student Center lounges. The broadcast was traced to the Radio Studios in the Fine Arts Building, where promising future stars of the 308 Radio Workshop class were busily engaged in presenting their individual shows, having written, directed, and produced them themselves.

The purpose of the project was to give the students experience in radio by simulating an actual day's work in the field of radio production. Besides being given the opportunity to present their own shows, each engineered the broadcast for a specified time.

Platter shows, featuring all types of music from Hillbilly to classical were presented. Along with both drama and comedy, programs for children as well as variety shows and interviews were produced. At various intervals during the day AP newscasts were given, received directly from Station KWCJ in Natchitoches. A ballgame was broadcast in the afternoon, much to the satisfaction of the many ballfans at NSC.

An interesting feature of the broadcasts was the pseudo-commercial spot announcements. At 10 p.m. Station KNSC signed off the air, after a typical continuous day's broadcast in radio.

Members of the production class, under the supervision of Don Carr, are Elzer Marx, who directed the whole project, Julia McBroom, Alvin Bailey, James Rigsby, and Lowell Vaughn.

13 Thinclads To Enter GSC Meet Saturday

Northwestern State College is entering 13 thinclads in the Gulf States Conference annual track and field meet at New Orleans Saturday. Head Coach Harry Turpin originally had planned to enter fifteen contestants, but two had to be scratched because of injuries incurred in the recent Centenary-Tech-NSC meet at Shreveport. Buck Anderson, Tallulah, and Leon Fuller, Waverly, are the two Demon track men nursing muscle injuries.

Demon entrants in the various events of the conference meet are as follows:

100-yard dash: Billy Hartt, DeRidder; Brady Broussard, Abbeville.

220-yard dash: Murrya Walker, Dry Prong.

440-yard dash: Walker

880yard run: Junior Turner, Springhill

Mile Run: Dennis Ryder, Hodge

Ken Corley, Florien.

Two mile run: Ryder, Corley

High Jump: Johnny McConathy, Bryceland; George Davis, Florien; Ronald Byrd, Bossier City.

Runnig broad jump: Tommy Broussard, Abbeville; Byrd

High Hurdles: John Patton, Oxford; Dan Poole, Natchitoches

Low Hurdles: Patton, Poole
Pole Vault: John C. Buck, Kinder

Shot put: McConathy.

Javelin: McConathy.

Accompanying the Demon contestants to New Orleans were Turpin, Walter Ledet, assistant track coach, and Charles Thomas, varsity basketball mentor.

Senior Plans Completed Thursday; Country Club Picnic Slated for May 31

Final plans for senior activities were completed Thursday in a noon meeting in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Discussed were the issuance of caps and gowns to the 166 candidates for graduation, rehearsals, the Senior Day program, and the annual senior picnic.

Highlight of the meetings was the discussions on the Senior Day program and the annual senior picnic.

At the Senior Day program, scheduled for 11 a.m., June 1, in the Fine Arts Auditorium, the senior dedication and the last will and testament will be held, and the senior memorial gift will be dedicated.

The annual senior gift for 1950-51 is to be a bronze plaque for the historic three columns on the campus. On the plaque will be printed the history of the columns, and the mansion of which they were originally a part.

Second on the list for discussion for the meeting was the annual picnic. Final plans call for the affair to begin at 3 p.m. on May 31, with a meeting of seniors and their guests at the college power plant. From there the group will proceed to the Country Club, where reservations have been made for swimming, dancing, and exclusive use of the club.

Also scheduled on June 1 are, at 8 p.m., the commencement exercises, and at 9:30 p.m., in Varnado Hall, a reception for graduates, families, and friends.

Schedule of Activities for Seniors

June 1, 11 a.m., Senior Day

164 Listed As Candidates For Graduation

Listed as candidates for graduation this semester are 164 seniors, members of one of the largest classes ever to receive degrees from Northwestern.

The Baccalaureate Sermon for the group is scheduled for Sunday, May 27, with commencement exercises slated June 1 at 8 p.m.

Listed as candidates for graduation are:

Bachelor of Arts Degree

program, Fine Arts Auditorium. June 1, 8 p.m., Commencement exercises, Fine Arts Auditorium. June 1, 9:30 p.m. Reception for graduates, families, and friends in Varnado Hall.

NOTE: All candidates for graduation must be present to receive degrees and diplomas unless specifically excused in writing by President Prather.

Sauce to Continue Summer Editions; Staff Named

The Current Sauce, weekly student newspaper at Northwestern State College, will continue to be published during the summer session, with Miss Louise Harris, W. Monroe, editor of the publication for the coming year in charge. The final issue of the student paper for the Spring semester will be published Saturday, according to J. C. Tillman, manager, retiring editor and graduating senior.

Patsy Winkler, Olla, will move up to take the post of associate editor. She now holds the position of society editor. Tentatively, Don Jones, Lake Charles, recently elected president of the student body, will keep his post as business manager of the publication.

Other members expected to remain on the staff are Winnie Dowden, Cypress; Donita Gothard, Bossier; Mary Glaze, Many; Dorothy Langridge, Shreveport, and Kay Manan, Monroe, Mich.

Due to the lower enrollment in the summer sessions of the school, the paper will be reduced to four instead of the usual eight pages weekly, stated the editor for 1951.

Miss Harris, a French major, has been a member of the Sauce staff as associate editor for the past year, and as reporter and feature writer during the preceding years. A member of Alpha Phi Gamma, national professional journalism fraternity, she replaces J. C. Tillman, Mangham, as editor. A graduate of Ouachita High School, '48, she was editor of the Ouachita Lion, weekly publication there.

Wanted!

Any persons who are experienced in journalistic work of any nature; sports, reporting, editing, copyreading, proof-reading, column or feature writers, during the summer term and/or through the coming year, please contact Louise Harris, Ext. 33, Varnado Hall either before the end of this term or at the beginning of the summer term.

Especially needed is a student photographer. Complete equipment available, including a new Speed Graphic Camera. This latter position is subject to approval by the Dean of Men and the Publications Committee. The position is open preferably to someone who will be in school at least for two or three more semesters. However, anyone may apply.

To Edit Sauce

Louise Harris, French major from West Monroe, will edit the Current Sauce for the coming year, beginning with the primary publication during the summer term.

Editor of the Ouachita Lion, Ouachita High School student newspaper, in Monroe, the new Sauce chief has been a member of the Sauce staff for the past three years. She is now the Associate Editor. (Photo by Tillman).

IMPORTANT

All male students are urgently requested to leave at the office of the Dean of Men the address of their local draft board, so that their scholastic average may be filed with that board. This is required, regardless of applications for the SSQ test. Students are also asked to sign at that time a letter requesting deferment. Both will be forwarded to the students local board simultaneously.

Associate Editor

Patsy Winkler, sophomore home economics major from Tullus, will serve as associate editor of the Current Sauce next year, according to the incoming editor, Louise Harris. During the past year Patsy has held the position of society editor; she will begin her new duties in the fall semester. Succeeding her as society editor will be Louise Vick from Vivian.

SSQ Test Must Be on Draft Records Before Deferment Consideration

Draft authorities reaffirmed their position on the pending Selective Service Qualification Test last week in an interview with Dudley Fulton, NSC Dean of Men.

"At the present time only 48 men out of approximately 350 men eligible for the draft are scheduled to take the selective Service Test to be held next Saturday in the Fine Arts Auditorium. In my opinion this is a shocking state of affairs inasmuch as I do not believe that draft boards over the state will consider ANY student for deferment unless this test score is in his selective service file. I cannot over-emphasize the importance of this examination to all men students who plan to continue their education. I have repeatedly emphasized this fact, but yet the men students are assuming that they can secure deferment through ROTC, National Guard and various branches of reserve forces.* Regardless of the plan a student may have for deferment, I still believe that the draft board will not honor a request for deferment until that Selective Service Qualification Test score is in his file.

The deadline for filing for the May 26 test is past; however, applications are still available in the office of the Dean of Men for tests to be given on June 16 and June 30.

DUDLEY FULTON,

They stated that draft boards in the state would probably not consider any person for deferment if the score of the SSQ test was not entered on their selective service records, whether or not the grade made was satisfactory.

Fulton emphasized the fact, in an interview, that students who were members of the ROTC, National Guard, or reserve units of the various branches of service have taken the attitude of being assured of deferment. He pointed out that, as long as the draftee eligible is a member of one of the above units, then he is relatively secured. However, once released from, or once out of, this type of unit, the control over draft statutes of the individual reverts immediately to the selective service authorities.

In regard to the draft rules and students, the Dean of Men pointed out that students no longer are required to request postponement of draft for the one-month period after school. According to a recent draft ruling, a blanket deferment has been granted college students until July 9.

Members of Air Force Group Here Comment Favorably on Campus, NSC

By MARY GLAZE

Northwestern is still receiving more and more khaki-clothes Air Force students whom we see walking about the campus every day, or shall we say, marching to and from their classes, loaded with books, to the sound of "Hup-two, three-forp" (or something similar). Several of them from Shepard Field, Wichita, Texas, have returned to answer a few questions about the campus and the college.

Bob Rosenquist, a genuine rebel who hails all the way from Detroit, Michigan, when asked what his opinion was on NSC, in general, gave a very enthusiastic reply. His answer: "It's great, very friendly; it's heaven." When asked about the girls, his reply was, "Terrific."

Don Mock vented his opinion on the dining-hall show line: "I can say that it's much better than the one at Shepard Field was." (Take heed, chow dodgers).

Thomas M. Winger says he likes the school fine, but has not had any dates yet, during his stay here. He adds that his phone number is Ext. 77.

Bob Wolf, in summing up the teachers at Northwestern, thinks they are "Nice, Hmmm."

They think the ROTC members are a bunch of nice boys, and what do they think of the Current Sauce? No comment.

We think it's a nice place too.

16 File for Student Senate; No Election

Sixteen persons filed intentions for the Student Senate Monday eliminating the need for an election as the sixteen seats are now filled.

Originally seventeen people filed, but one was disqualified.

The new Senate consists of:

Joe Saltzman, Ponder Davis, Rudy Berlin, Mike Bellipani, Houston Davis, Marie Tilleux, and Patsy Winkler.

Donita Gothard, John Batten, Robert Miller, Jerry Iles, Kenneth Norsworthy, Bill Wells, Evelyn Pyle, Gordon Young and Hardy Rose.

An informal college dance will be held Saturday from 8 to 11 in the Student Center sponsored by the Student Council.

Donations will be accepted, and all proceeds will go to the Red Cross. Everyone is invited.

Editorial

In this, the last issue of the Current Sauce for this semester, I should like to express my personal thanks and the thanks of the staff members for the high degree of cooperation that has been shown us by the students, faculty, and staff of the college, during the past year.

During my editorship of the Current Sauce I have tried to build and maintain the high degree of professional, journalistic, ethics that has been characteristic of publications of Northwestern, thereby endeavoring to do justice to the position allowed me.

I wish particularly to thank President H. Lee Prather, Dean of Men Dudley Fulton, Dean C. E. Dugdale, and Sauce advisor, J. W. French, for their aid in smoothing over the difficulties that have arisen in the past year, and for the high degree of freedom in which they have allowed the publication to operate.

I wish to thank the members of the staff, and contributors, for their untiring effort in getting the news in week after week, and the business managers for keeping the pages filled with ads.

My work on the Current Sauce for the past two years, both as a staff member and as editor, has been a constant source of pleasure, and from it I have gained invaluable knowledge.

The Editor

ONE COED'S CONCEPT

By DOLLIE SMITH

Sentiment clogs my throat as I peer back over the year. Tempus fugit—whatever that means, and on with the rot. Regret is gnawing at my elbow, and making life generally disagreeable.

Why, oh why does one take her thirty-ninth cut in Science 106 when Mr. Deason has so subtly hinted that one is crowding the maximum? I sob. I wail. Regret chews on. And nobody ever told one that she couldn't get twelve term papers at the library between 7:30 and the first period class. Ah woe is me . . . Ah woe is I? Ah woe. And why didn't some kind soul say that meal tickets are to be punched in the dining hall and not used as passports to the Rendezvous? Disillusioning.

But on the other hand, Thank Goodness keeps patting me on the back. Look at all the beautiful Air Force Boys, and the food is getting better in the dining hall, and we had a Name Band. Gee Whitt! And most of all Thank Goodness for the new inventor (which I will call him for lack of a word). Inventor is presently nurturing and perfecting an "interest plant." The plant, a result of 10,000 years of careful cross-breeding (or do you cross-breed plants?) will bear this fall "interest seeds." The seeds may be taken in the manner of pills, with the result of a raving interest in everything, following in thirty minutes. These seeds are very valuable, but Inventor upon hearing of the serious lack of interest at NSC has offered to ship us FREE ten carloads of "interest seeds." Pardon me, but do I have your interest? No answer, please.

Waal, it ain't been nothin' but great a-writin' this drivin' fer . . . my own pleasure, now that I think uv it. C'est tout.

67 Scholarships Awarded to NSC Nursing School

A total of 67 scholarships for study in the nursing department at Northwestern have been awarded from the six hospitals operating in conjunction with the school, according to Graham Price, Nursing director.

The scholarship, awarded on the basis of competition of the American Council on Education Psychological Test, physical qualification, and nursing aptitude, were distributed among the six NSC affiliated hospitals, there being 5 from E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital in Monroe; 9 from Highland Sanitarium, Shreveport; 6 from the Northwestern Louisiana Hospital, Shreveport; 10 from the Tri-State Hospital, Shreveport; 20 from the Shreveport Charity Hospital and 17 from the Baptist Hospital, Alexandria. According to the director of nursing, approximately 190 nursing students are expected to enroll at NSC next fall.

Have you ever tried to guess the number of beans in a jar? If not, here is your opportunity to try your skill, only there will be cigarettes in the jar instead of beans. Carolyn Fultz, representative for Chesterfield cigarette company, announced that beginning today, May 19, there will be a contest to see who can guess most correctly the number of cigarettes (Chesterfields, of course) in a jar. The jar will be placed in the Rendezvous, and anybody may enter the contest which will continue until Saturday, May 26. The person having guessed the nearest to the correct number of cigarettes will be given the jar of cigarettes as a prize.

To Wed

As June 2 and summer vacation draw nearer and nearer, the students of Northwestern are making plans for those three months between semesters. For many, this means a wonderful time with no classes to attend or tests to worry about, but for others it means more school starting June 11.

Upon being asked the question, "What are you planning to do this summer?", Martha Ann Glass replied, "I really don't know right now, but there just ain't no tellin'."

Sammy Booras will spend his time playing baseball at Minden.

"I'm coming to summer school," was Claudine Box's answer, "My mama's making me."

Bobbie Davis will play baseball for Hodge this summer. "Is that all," he was asked. "Well, that's enough," he replied.

There will be no school for Thais Beter until fall. She plans to teach swimming at New Orleans starting next month.

Lee Reece will leave for the Marine Corps following this semester.

Before summer school begins, Pat Cameron plans to visit in West Texas.

Buck Anderson quickly answered his question, "Oh, I'll be at ROTC camp, but it shore ain't 'cause I want to."

Dollie Smith says if she can't get a good job, she'll just stay home and loaf.

Bobby Leach plans on coming to summer school and maybe learning to rhumba. He said, "I would probably have to get good and tight to learn."

Jeanette Pace will teach a class of Air Corps boys this summer. "I'm going to live in an apartment with five other girls, do my own cooking, and have lots of fun," she said. "After August 28, I'll either teach or get married."

ROTC camp will take up most of Leon Fuller's summer; but after that he's going to Mexico City. He says he'll be back this fall in plenty of time to meet all the new Freshmen girls, though.

Ann Freeze says she is going to try to teach a class of fly boys this summer.

Fire Lee Ryder will be at Fort Bliss, Texas this summer attending ROTC camp. "I just hope I'm here and not still out there this fall," he said.

Pat Leone will visit relatives in Harrisburg during her vacation. "I'm also coming back to Northwestern every chance I get," she said.

Jim Yergler will spend six weeks at camp and then he will be on his way to his home in Illinois. He invites everyone to come see him then.

Carolyn Fultz and Nell Richardson are going to work at camp Windy Wood at Alexandria during vacation. Carolyn says she'll be back cheering this fall.

Luke Petrovich will go to National Guard Camp at Camp Polk. He plans to get college and military training at the same time.

Max Schoonover will spend her summer months on the sandy beaches of Gulf Port, Mississippi getting a nice brown tan.

Bobbie Platt, a Primary Education major from Robeline was pinned last week-end to Charles "Chicken" Simmons. "Chicken," who attended Northwestern last year is now stationed at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Another one of those lucky girls is Gloria Vos who recently became engaged to Sgt. Del Murphy, who is stationed at Barksdale Field.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

Summer's just around the corner, which means that Spring cleaning time is here! The Sigmas plan to dive in and clean the Sorority house Saturday; in fact they plan to make an afternoon of it.

Sunday afternoon at one o'clock the Sigmas will depart for Kistachie, where they will have their Spring picnic. They plan to get well sunburned while swimming in the cool water and taking sunbaths on the banks of white sand. Picnic lunches are to be prepared by each girl.

Recently, Sophomore Counselors were elected for next year. Tri-Sigma is proud of the fact that out of the group selected, four Tri-Sigs were chosen; they are Bertha Adams, Eddy Elliott, Bea Rumsay and Thelma Ruth Stephens. Congratulations, and good luck!

Last Saturday afternoon Miss Erin Mays was honored with a tea at the home of her aunt in Shreveport. Several Alpha Zetas were there, and from all reports it was a lovely affair. Erin is to marry Frank Orton this summer.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Were we surprised! Tuesday night at our regular meeting, the pledges surprised the members with a "May Day" party. The decorations were darling. There were pastel bows tacked around the room, and in the center of the floor was a maypole — with flowers and everything.

After we had calmed down a little from our surprise, we were entertained with a wild west "Wild Nell" skit.

Fun was enjoyed by all and so were the refreshments. We were served muffins covered with green and pink icing. Pink lemonade was the beverage and everything was topped off by mints.

Why must school end so soon? We were really just getting to know each other—that is, the new members and pledges. When we know that something has to come to an end, we realize with a pain in our heart the mistakes we've made and the things we could have done and didn't.

We make up our minds that next year we will do better and put more of ourselves into our sorority and make it grow so that the reflection of its light will shine all over the campus. This is a fine goal for those that are coming back, but so many aren't coming back. So many of our girls are seniors that will graduate either in June or August.

Golly, you Seniors sure are going to be missed! You shouldn't feel sad about leaving school, though, because you are doing now what all of us will have to do sooner or later. You've had four full years in a sorority that has offered you love, friendship, and comfort. I think all of us, regardless of what sorority we may be in, have realized just how much these things mean when you are new around the campus.

Let's go back to your freshman year, Seniors. Remember the first rush party and how excited you were? You were then faced with a decision to make. One of the most important decisions that you were to make while in college. You had to choose a sorority that you would best fit into. After that choice was made, you knew you had chosen the right one.

Remember the first hayride, the first Christmas party, and the first slumber party? Things sure were looking up and sorority life was fine. Then came spring. You were initiated. Oh, but the pride you felt when you wore your big sister's pin. And then, you turned around, and it was time for your first Sorority Spring Formal. You didn't have the slightest idea who you would ask so you closed your eyes and picked a boy. You were so afraid things weren't going to work out well, but they did. The dance was wonderful—your date was wonderful—and you had a marvelous time.

Yes, Seniors, you have these things to look back on, and we new members and pledges have all this to look forward to. These will be memories we'll never forget, but we must move on and make new memories.

The sorority will miss you, because we love each and every one of you, but we'll try our best to carry on where you left off. We'll try our best to make you want to look back at a growing sorority and say, "That's my sorority, and I'll always love it and be a part of it no matter where I go."

Demon Baseballers End Season With Six Wins for Third Place

The Demon baseballers wound up their 1951 season last week by splitting four games, two with Centenary and two with Louisiana College. In the first, at Centenary, the Demons took an eleven-inning 8-7, affair. Artie Ranew and Bill Smith tolled on the mound for NSC, Smith being the winner. Davis and Weaver furnished the hitting, each with two for three, while Angel del Toro had two for six. Sam Harper worked behind the plate.

Centenary came to Natchitoches Wednesday and took a 3-2 decision from Lynwood Ouzts, though collecting only four hits to the Demons twelve off Woodward and Wright. Angel del Toro had four for five, as NSC got two runs in the seventh on singles by Davis and del Toro and a long double by Weaver. Centenary's three runs came in the fifth as a result of four walks and a single.

Closing out the season at La. College, the Demons took the first game of a double header, 2-0 as Ronald Martin pitched a four-hit shutout, the only one of the season for the Demons. Weaver collected two hits in three tries. All scoring was done in the first inning on walks to Perot and Davis and singles by Weaver and Booras.

La. College took the last game of the season, 3-2, by collecting a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh, to overtake a 2-1 Demon lead. Freshman pitcher Gale Hearn went all the way for NSC, dropping his first game. NSC scored in the first on a walk to Perot and a single by Sam Booras, and in the fourth on singles by Booras and Gray.

The Demons also dropped a pair to Southwestern in Lafayette last Friday and Saturday, despite excellent pitching performances by Ronald Martin, and by Artie Ranew in relief.

The close of the season found Northwestern in third place in a five division, with a record of six wins and ten defeats in conference play.

'Aqua Fun' Show To Shreveport

"Aqua Fun for '51" will be presented to many Shreveporters at the Fair Grounds pool this afternoon by the Aquatic Club.

The Business and Professional Women's Club are sponsoring the show with all proceeds to go to the building fund for the new YWCA.

The show was put on last night at the Shreveport Country Club. The group left Friday afternoon, returned that night, and will leave again this afternoon.

Many adjustments have to be made because of the smaller pools and lack of lighting arrangements.

Intramural Notes

Final Intramural Softball

The final Intramural Softball games were played Wednesday afternoon on the two elementary fields to determine the softball champions.

Phi Kappa Nu defeated the "Frames" by a score of 3 to 0 for first place throwing the "Frames" into second place position.

On field No. 1 Caspari defeated the Spanish Boys 6 to 4 for third and fourth place.

Medals will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners.

Equipment

It is requested that all equipment be turned in to the Intramural office immediately.

Swimming Expert Breaks Demon Pool Record

Breaking the Northwestern State College pool record by 30 feet, Dr. Thomas K. Cureton, physical fitness and aquatics expert of the University of Illinois, swam under water for 255 feet without exerting himself here this week. The feat was accomplished before members of the NSC Aquatic Club in connection with a lecture on and demonstration of aquatics.

Dr. Cureton, who titles include director of Physical Fitness Research Institute the University of Illinois, chief adviser in the development of the YMCA progressive aquatic committee, and chairman of the National YMCA Aquatic committee, gave three lectures while on the Northwestern campus.

In the morning he gave an illustrated lecture on artificial respiration and showed movies that pictured six different methods and demonstrated their values and weaknesses. That afternoon he lectured on the physiology of exercise, stressing physical fitness as a condition for efficiency in athletics and longevity.

With the aid of movies he explained the experimental work being conducted at the University of Illinois and showed famous athletes being tested and studies as to their ability to withstand fatigue and carrying out a progression of exercises to build up endurance.

While the two earlier lectures were for the general student body, the evening lecture was for members of the NSC aquatic club and special guests. Dr. Cureton came to the campus at the joint invitation of Prof. Guy Nesom, head of the NSC Department of Health and Physical Education, and John Piscopo, varsity swimming and gymnastic coach.

McConathy Honored With Helms Scroll

For the second time in two weeks, Johnny (Hound) McConathy, Bryceland, Northwestern State College basketball star and all-Gulf States Conference center, had his athletic prowess recognized at an all-college assembly here when he was presented on Wednesday with the Helms Athletic Foundation All-America scroll by H. Lee Prather, NSC president and former president of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball.

McConathy, who set a new GSC scoring record of 582 points this past season, recently was named a member of the NAIB All-America second team, the official selector committee being the Helms Athletic Foundation, of Los Angeles.

At a previous NSC assembly, McConathy was awarded the "N" Club trophy in recognition of his having been chosen Northwestern's outstanding athlete of the year. That presentation also was made by President Prather who tutored McConathy the last three years Prather served as varsity basketball coach before assuming the college presidency last fall.

In this year's intercollegiate basketball competition, McConathy paced his Demon teammates with a field goal-made average of 43.6 percent, and a free throw percent of 72.4. His average of points per game, 21.55, was almost a third of the Demon team's average of 65.18.

McConathy, who graduates at the end of this month, is slated to play for the Syracuse Nationals of the National Professional Basketball league next season. He was selected by the Nationals as their first draft choice.

FBI Agent Interviews Applicants

Mr. T. Fitzhugh Wilson, Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was on the Northwestern State College campus Wednesday to discuss and explain application for service with the FBI. Applications from both men and women are being considered, said Mr. Wilson.

Requirements for male applications were listed as: Must hold, or receive this semester, a Bachelor of Science or a Bachelor of Arts degree from an accredited college or University, applications may be considered if the applicant has reached his, or is closely approaching, 25th birthday, and must pass both physical and mental examinations offered by the Bureau.

Only applications for Special Agent and Clerical positions are being considered at the present, stated Mr. Wilson, and anyone interested in further information regarding the FBI may write the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New Orleans.

Female applicants are being taken for clerical and stenographic work only and must have a high school education and have reached their eighteenth birthday, Mr. Wilson added.

Paul Revere Home; Charleston Slated on Summer Tour Itinerary

The first day in Boston will be spent on tours of both Boston and Charleston, where the group will see the Paul Revere home, the site of the Boston Massacre, and the Charleston Navy Yard. The party will have lunch at the famous Colonial Inn, and the afternoon there will be visits to the Old Munse, the Old North Bridge and Concord Minute Men Statue and many more places.

The second day will be spent on a round trip cruise to Provincetown. At 10:00 the party will board the new vessel "Provincetown" to begin the all-day trip. While on board there are deck games, dancing, and lounging in the sandwich and snack bar to provide entertainment. Lunch will be eaten in the big modern cafeteria on board. At 1:00 the party will land at Provincetown for 3 full hours to spend as each person wants. When the ship sounds its whistle, the party will go back on board and arrive back in Boston at 7:00 p.m.

From Boston the touring party will go to Albany. This is beautiful country and there will be some very good spots for a picnic lunch along one of the beautiful lakes. The hotel for the night will be just across the street from the New York State Capitol grounds.

The day of travel between Albany and Niagara Falls will be filled with beautiful scenery and a walk to the falls after being registered at the hotel. There will also be a short stop at Goat Island, and after dark another walk to the falls to see the multi-colored lights played on the falls.

After passing the customs inspection as you enter Canada, you will drive to the whirlpool for a short stop and then continue to Detroit on the Canadian side of the border. No activity is planned for the night in Detroit.

Before leaving Detroit, there will be a short visit through the Ford motor company. The group will leave Detroit by 12:00 if possible and go on to Chicago.

In Chicago, the John G. Shedd Aquarium, the Adler Planetarium, and the Museum of Science and Industry are suggested as points of interest. The choice of how the time in Chicago will be spent will be left up to the individual.

The principal points of interest for this tour having been completed, the most direct route will be taken back to Northwestern. It will take approximately two days to complete the trip, and the final night on the road will be sent near Springfield, Mo.

This concludes our 21 day tour of the Northeast, and we sincerely hope you have enjoyed every minute spent on the trip.

Marx Gets Fellowship To Illinois U.

Elzer Marx, graduating senior in Health and Physical Education has been awarded an Assistant Fellowship at the University of Illinois. Marx will do graduate work in his field while there.

Although he graduates this semester, Marx will remain at NSC through the summer term.

During his career the H & PE graduate, from Menasha, Wisc. has been active in major field and dramatic activities and is a familiar sight as MC at campus functions.

Robinson Article To Be Published

Dr. Walter J. Robinson, head of the Industrial Education department of Northwestern State College, has just been informed an article by him is to appear in the next issue of Industrial Arts and Vocational Education, national monthly magazine published in Milwaukee.

Entitled "Industrial Education Awards Contest," Dr. Robinson's article deals with the state contest and exposition industrial arts pupils in Louisiana public and trade schools, which he and members of his staff conducted for the first time on the Northwestern State College campus earlier this month. The contestants were graded not only on their craftsmanship but on their technical knowledge as well.

Ferguson to Give Recital Tuesday

Concluding the series of senior recitals this spring, the Department of Music of Northwestern State College will present Miss Elaine Ferguson, Couthatta, in her senior piano recital in the campus Little Theatre next Tuesday evening, May 22, at 8:15 o'clock.

For four years Miss Ferguson has been associated with the NSC symphony orchestra, playing both the violin and the string bass, and with the College Singers. She also is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary musical fraternity for women; Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary educational fraternity, and Sigma Sigma Sigma, social sorority.

In her recital Miss Ferguson will play compositions by Bach, Mozart, Grieg, Chopin, Rachmaninoff, Gershwin, and Albeniz.

Phi Kappa Nu Barbecue Slated Today

Members of Phi Kappa Nu fraternity will stage their annual spring barbecue today at the College Wells between 4 and 8 p.m.

The annual affair will be highlighted by a series of entertainment, group singing, and games.

The group will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. William Havard. Mr. Havard, social sciences professor, is the newly elected faculty sponsor for the fraternity.

College Singers To Present Music At Baccalaureate

The Northwestern State College Singers, a campus choral organization, will furnish the special music at the Spring Baccalaureate services at 11 a.m., May 27, in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

The College Singers, under the direction of Donald Glattly, choral director at NSC, will sing four numbers. They are: "Introit and Choral Amen," written by Mr. Glattly, "Let Thy Holy Presence" by Tschesnokoff, "Hail, Gladdening Light" by Wood, and "The Lord Bless You" by Lutkin.

This semester, the Singers, presented their annual rendition of the "Messiah" at Christmas and sang at the State Elks Convention in Alexandria. The group is composed of music majors, faculty members, and other interested personnel.

Leroy Ford Host At Weiner Roast

Leroy Ford honored members of the Aquatic Club at Northwestern State College at a delightful weiner roast given on Sunday evening.

The spacious back lawn at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mercedes Ford furnished the setting for several hours of entertainment. Cakes, Cokes, potato chips and all the fixings were placed on a long table and served with the hot weiners.

Dancing by victrola music closed the evening's festivities.

About forty club members, including boys and girls, enjoyed the pleasant hours with the host.

Deane Varnado Returns to Campus For Visit

One of Northwestern's most outstanding and best-remembered figures was back earlier this week for the first time since her retirement nine years ago. She is Miss Deane Varnado, former dean of women, and the person for whom Varnado Hall was named.

Miss Varnado is well known in Natchitoches, having attended Louisiana State Normal in 1895-96 and in 1897-99. After doing additional work at Columbia and Chicago Universities, she returned to Normal in 1905 to teach English. After a number of years of teaching, she changed to the field of history, and became one of the first women professors in Louisiana.

In 1914 Miss Varnado became Dean of Women and gained the distinction of being the first person honored with that title. She served in that position until 1922 and again from 1932 to 1942. Her 37 years of service is one of the longest of anyone in the United States, and one of which she could be justly proud.

Throughout her years on the campus, she was known to many as one to whom they could talk, being sure always of her wisdom, understanding, and judgment. She also served as unofficial counselor for the three religious organizations on the campus, the YWCA, YMCA and Newman Club.

Miss Varnado is noted for her wit, charm, and patience in dealing with students. Though nearing her eightieth year, she is still remarkably active. She expressed regret at not getting to see many of her friends during her brief stay here, but she was entertained in several small groups, where she saw a number of old acquaintances. Those who saw her were pleased at seeing their Miss Deane again and having her back even for a short visit.

Newman Club Elects Officers

The Newman Club has elected the following officers for 1951-52: President, Leland Langridge; Vice-President, Lucian Spataro; Secretary, Lorraine Vaughn; Treasurer, Pat Marmande; and Marshals, Harold Abadie and John Maricelli.

Work Underway on New Science Bldg.; To Be Devoted to Physics, Chemistry

The new science building, latest addition to the campus, is nearing completion now. The structure is to be used for chemical and physical sciences only. The biological sciences will stay on the second floor of the old science building.

The new building will have 12 classrooms, 6 upstairs and 6 downstairs, and also there will be an auditorium, 1 lecture room downstairs with a seating capacity of 120 persons. There will be a complete glass-blowing lab and a machine room for the maintenance and repair of equipment when necessary, and also there will be 2 large lecture room and a medium size room which can be used as a lecture room. The whole second floor will be devoted to chemical science, and there will be two large general chemical labs with store rooms and balance rooms between them.

There will be several dark rooms and every table in all the labs will be equipped with gas, AC and DC electricity, and compressed air, which will all be internally supplied. Offices and store rooms are to be on both floors. There will be one main front entrance and two small back entrances, and the front decoration will have recessed letters, SCIENCE, with plates on either side of the entrance symbolizing the physical and chemical sciences.

It is expected that in the future the state will appropriate funds for a new building for biological science. The expected building will be approximately the same size as the one now under way since the number of students take physical and biological science is the same and also the number of professors in each branch is the same. The new building measures 219 ft. long by 70 ft. wide, and will accommodate approximately 800 people at any one time.

Davis Players Reactivated; Vaughn Presides

The Northwestern State College Davis Players, a former group of highly selected students who are active in drama and speech productions on the campus, has been re-activated as of Saturday, May 12, according to Don A. Carr, Director of Dramatics at NSC.

Bids to prospective members were issued to: Betty Sue Boydston of Natchitoches, Tommie Blackburn of Shreveport, Bill Cronin of Tenack, New Jersey, Perry Kinard of Ruston, Beth Hargrove of Shreveport, Beth Cox of New Orleans, Frances Elliott of Olla, Kenneth Isgitt of Converse, Tom Drewett of Shreveport, and Parker Ballard of Ragley.

The three old members of the organizations, who incidentally are all graduating seniors, conducted the initiation and played a huge part in the reactivation of the Players. They are: Lowell Vaughn, Coughatta, President; Luke Petrovich, Buras, Vice-President; Dot Taylor Sibley, Shreveport, Secretary - Treasurer. An election of new officers will be held during the fall semester.

The Davis Players, organized in 1923, by Mary Frances Davis, associate professor of speech and dramatics at that time, has for its purpose to stimulate an interest in dramatics. Activity in the organization consists mainly of one-act plays, student produced, directed, and acted.

Faculty sponsors for the Davis Players this year are Miss Irma Stockwell, Director of the Speech Correction Clinic at Northwestern, and Don A. Carr, Director of Dramatics.

Delta Eta, Cast of Drama Fraternity Pledges Two

Delta Eta Cast of Alpha Psi Omega, National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity at Northwestern State College, held its formal pledging ceremonies for two prospective members, Wednesday evening, May 16 in the Green Room of the Fine Arts Building.

William J. Cronin, sophomore foreign language major from Tenack, New Jersey, and Perry Kinard, nursing major from Ruston will be initiated into Alpha Psi Omega Sunday afternoon, May 20. Initiation will be followed with a dinner to be held in honor of all members at the home of Professor and Mrs. Don A. Carr. Mr. Carr is a member of Alpha Psi and Director of Dramatics at the college.

Alpha Psi Omega is the largest dramatic organization in the world and the Delta Eta Cast was organized on the NSC campus in 1933 by Miss Annetta Wood, director of dramatics at the college then.

Engagement of Two Sisters Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Carrol G. Killen announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughters, Fern Elaine and LaVera Kathleen. Miss Fern Elaine Killen will marry Mr. Robert Satterfield Douglass of Kingsville, Texas, the son of Mrs. A. M. Douglass of Breckenridge, Texas.

Miss LaVera Kathleen Killen will marry Mr. Iddo Pittman, Jr., of Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Iddo Pittman, Sr., also of Hammond.

The double wedding will be solemnized by the Rev. Troy V. Wheeler at five o'clock in the afternoon of Monday, June 4, at the home of the Killens.

Society—

Pi Kaps. Anne Freeze, Mary Lou Hines, Pat Leone, Beth McGuffee, Nell Richardson, Katherine Rogers, Emma Ruth Smith, Edith Tarver, and Sara Jane Wadsworth will be leaving us this semester. The best of luck to you all in the future, and although you leave NSC you will never leave in our memories.

Theta Sigma Upsilon

The Theta Sigs are making good use of the remaining weeks of this semester. For example on Saturday night, May 5, they gathered at Ann Powell's to have a rip snoring slumber party. Needless to say, no one ever sleeps at a slumber party. Just to be different a few tried sleeping, but the more conventional soon aroused them and the party continued as gay as ever. The party ended with a delicious breakfast which the Theatas needed after a "long and sleepless night."

Last Tuesday the Theta Sigs clanned together at Miss Stockwell's to have a weiner roast. They ate hot dogs, salad, and drank cold drinks, ate salad, hot dogs, and drank cold drinks, drank cold drinks, ate hot dogs and salad. As you have probably guessed by now, they had more food than could be eaten. For dessert everyone made "Some - mores," so named because if you eat one you're certain to want some more. Every thing must come to an end, even good things like this weiner roast so the little Thetas pocketed all the food they could carry and headed for school.

Congratulations to Barbara West Rainey and Bessie Morgan—to Barbara for becoming a Purple Jacket and to Bessie for being named national Theta Girl of the Year. We're proud of you girls.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

Climaxing what was one of the most beautiful and entertaining events of the year was the Delta Sigma Epsilon Formal Dance, held in the field house on Saturday, June 12. Miss Julie McBroom of Shreveport was selected as the Sorority's Rose and was presented with a gorgeous bouquet of yellow roses as the girls sang "My Rose of DSE.

The field house was attractively decorated with silvered half moons, candles and gilded stars led by blue streamers to an enormous star in the center that was covered with bits of mirror which caught the effects of the light and sparkled as realistic as if it were in the heavens. A large silhouette of a man and woman dancing covered the mirror and at the opposite end of the dance floor was another silhouette with the theme of the dance, "Dancing the the Dark," written above in gilded letters.

The Demonaires were at their best and Miss Doris Jean Pine and Mr. Ted Forte romantically danced and sang "Dancing in the Dark" as part of the floor show. The guest artist for the night was Miss Nancy McLellan, of Alexandria, who was lovely in a ballet number to the tune of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes." The dances were done under blue spot lights which made them most effective.

Punch, cookies and nuts were served throughout the hours and pictures were taken as the date passed through the improvised trellis of the picket fence entwined ed with silvered ivy.

The girls enjoyed Mary Glaze's box of candy Tuesday night. She just received a Lambda Zeta pin from James Builteman.

The Delta Sigs are looking forward to the picnic planned for Sunday, May 20.

A big Rummage sale is planned for Saturday. Everyone be sure and turn out. Don't miss our good bargains.

NSC Home Ec Annual Review Set for May 15

Home economics promises to take on a broader meaning to those who consider it but "cooking and sewing" after the annual review of the Northwestern State College home economics students and staff, in their new building next Tuesday, May 15, from 6 to 8 p.m.

The evening's program, planned for townspeople as well as other NSC students, will be an attempt to picture home economics in its various field through exhibits, pictures, classes in action, and displays of work. Mrs. Ruby Duncelman, department head, said this week.

With students acting as hostesses, there will be guided tours not only through the new Home Economics building, which was opened last fall, but through the Home Management house, an attractive house occupied by a group of home economics coeds who practice the problems of home management taught in regular classes.

Visitors will be invited to observe a food class in action as the "cooks" set about preparing a meal in one of their well-equipped laboratory kitchens.

From the exhibits and demonstrations the visitor will see that the coed who majors in home economics leaves school with a sound education for home and family living and a knowledge of good management of time and money, Mrs. Duncelman declared.

Lilian Gerow McCook, soprano, a member of the faculty of music of Northwestern State College and an artist member of the Federated Music clubs was the guest artist for the music study club of Beaumont, Texas, at their annual spring concert on May 15.

Singing in the crystal ballroom of the Hotel Edson, Mrs. McCook was enthusiastically received in a program of lyric and operatic vocal literature by French and American composers.

AAUP Meet Held Here

Faculty representatives from their Louisiana institutions of higher learning attend the triennial banquet here of the American Association of University Professors. Speaking on "The Role of the Dean in Educational Administration," Dr. Taylor, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at LSU, gave the principal address.

G. Waldo Dunnington, NSC professor of German and president of the local chapter, presided at the banquet. The speaker for the occasion was introduced by Dr. C. E. Dugdale, dean of the NSC school of arts and sciences. Faculty representatives from Centenary, Louisiana College and Northwestern in attendance.

An informal college dance will be held Saturday from 8 to 11 in the Student Center sponsored by the Student Council.

13 On Faculty Absent To Attend Summer Sessions

Thirteen members of the faculty are absent from the campus this summer to further their studies or do research.

Among those professors are: George H. Ware, assistant professor of science; May Beville, assistant professor of music; Eleanor Brown, assistant professor of music; Irene Pope, assistant professor of Library; George Parks, assistant professor of elementary school; Loraine Brittain, associate professor of music; Ellis G. Schields, assistant professor languages; Warren Tracy, assistant professor library; Dwight Davis, associate professor music; John Piscopo, assistant professor physical education; Lilian G. McCook, assistant professor music; Dr. John B. Robson, dean, school of education; and Dr. Waldo Dunnington, assistant professor of languages.

The majority of these professors are attending schools during their summer sessions. Professor Tracy is away for a year to do work on his doctorate and Mrs. McCook is spending her time in study and travel. Drs. Robson and Dunnington are doing research.

Driscoll Leads Honor Students Of Spring Class

Mary Alice Driscoll, a library science major from Natchitoches led the 21 honor-roll students of the graduating class this spring with an over-all 2.86 average.

Max Webster Pugh, a music major, was second with 2.67 and Ann Wilmoth Montgomery took third place with 2.59. Elzer I Marx, physical education major, made the honor roll by minimum 2.0 average required on all work toward a degree.

The other honor graduates in order of their scholastic standing are as follows: Patricia Ann Leone, Mrs. Jacq. Uhrbach, Rose Mary Scardulla, Virgil R. Weick, Emelyn Marna Hynum, Mary Lou Hines, John C. Curtis, Betty Jo Martin, Kathryn Elaine Ferguson, Myrtle Ann Babin, Joy Norris, O. Janette Pace, Nora Wilhelmina Wise, Robert Gates, Murrell G. Whatley, Hazel Gloria Ebarb, Emerson Carey Walters, and Elzer I. Marx.

Chess Players To Form Club

Woodrow Crew, President, and Wyatt Jones, Secretary of the Louisiana State Chess Association, announce a meeting on Sunday, June 24, at 2:30 p. m. at the VFW Home. The purpose of the meeting is to assist the Dept. of Recreation in organizing the local unit of the Chess Association.

Sauce- Staff

NSC Adds Five Faculty Members, Reference Librarian To Staff

Five faculty members and a reference librarian have been added to the regular college staff this summer. Of these, four have appointments for the summer semester only, while two have accepted permanent positions.

John C. Merrill, of Cleveland, Miss., is assistant professor of journalism and publicity director. A permanent appointee, Merrill holds a B. A. from Mississippi Delta State Teachers College and an M. A. in journalism from Louisiana State University. Before accepting a position here, Merrill was telegraph editor of the Jackson Clarion-Ledger, Jackson, Miss. He also held the position of assistant professor and publicity director at Southwestern College of Kansas.

Miss Yvonne Phillips is the new assistant professor of social sciences. Previously an instructor in the department, Miss Phillips has been on leave of absence to obtain her master's degree at Louisiana State University.

In the music department, Miss Elaine Canady, assistant professor of music, is replacing Miss May Beville, on leave of absence for the summer term. A native of Eros, Miss Canady has taught in various state high schools, including Sikes High school of Winn parish and Mangham High school of Richland Parish. Miss Canady has her B. M. from Louisiana Tech and holds an ME from Louisiana State University.

John McCollough is serving as assistant professor of art for the summer semester. With degrees from George Peabody College and from Columbia University, McCollough has also fulfilled all requirements for the doctorate at Columbia except his dissertation. McCollough, who has 23 years of teaching experience in various colleges and universities, will re-

Kyser To Address Workshop Group

Dr. John S. Kyser, head of the department of social sciences, will address the teachers who are participating in the Social Studies workshop at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Lafayette during the week of June 25.

The title of Dr. Kyser's address will be "The Social Studies and the World Around Us."

While at the meeting, Dr. Kyser will also serve as a consultant with individual workshop groups.

Twin Towers . . . . .

Standing in the shadow of the campus-famous "N" water tank is a second tower. This one marks the work done on the new physical science building to be completed sometime during the summer months. The $500,000 building will house only the physical sciences. The chemical science labs and classrooms will remain, for the time being, in the old science building. (Photo by Rigsby)

On behalf of faculty and staff, I wish to extend to each student attending Northwestern State College, a most cordial welcome. To all those who are in attendance here for the first time, we express the sincere and fervent hope that you have already become an actively participating member of our college community. And in these truly trying times, may each of you act each day as though you are convinced beyond a doubt, that you are here and now serving your country in the most helpful manner possible. If you do this, we have no doubt as to the quality of work you will do on our campus.

Our pleasant duty is to leave nothing undone which will add to the pleasure and profit of your work this summer. And may each member of faculty and staff remember always that this college is maintained for the purpose of helping you grow into more effective and intelligent citizenship and not for the purpose of enabling us to earn a living.

Our office doors are ever open and we trust that our mind is also.

College Singers To Leave June 30 For Chicago Meet

Approximately 63 members of the College Singers, under the direction of Donald Glattly, will board Continental Trailways buses at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, June 30 for Chicago to attend the annual Elks National Convention.

The group will sing at the national music festival held in Soldier's Field, at memorial services in the grand ballroom of the Stevens Hotel, on the Don McNeal Breakfast Club show, and at several banquets, including the all-southern Elks Banquet. In addition to these scheduled per-

The traditional long lines and hot weather characterized the summer registration period on the "Hill" when 1182 students enrolled for the nine-week session. This figure shows a decrease of 58 from last summer's total.

While the number of students enrolling June 10, the regular-registration day, was less than 800, the number increased throughout last week with late enrollees. According to Registrar Otis R. Crew, more registrants are expected Monday for short courses in education.

Leading the summer enrollment is the School of Education with a total of 804 students. The next largest enrollment is in the School of Applied Arts and Sciences with 235. Arts and Sciences trail with 93 students.

Enrolled at NSC for the first time are 256 students, 172 of whom are freshmen. This is an increase in freshmen enrollees over last summer, Registrar Crew said.

Nurses registering for the summer session total 156. Ninety-nine are on the campus and 57 are engaged in practical off-campus training in Shreveport, Alexandria, and Monroe.

For the first time in its history NSC is offering this summer a number of short courses designed to meet the needs of teachers-in-service and others who cannot spend the whole summer term here. The different courses are scheduled to begin each week from June 25 through July 23. Each course operates three hours a day, five days a week.

In addition to regular and special students, there are more than 200 Air Force clerk-typist students in training at Northwestern.

BOX RENT DUE!

Students are reminded that box rent for the summer quarter is now due. If rent is not paid on or before the last day of this month, the box will be closed and mail placed in General Delivery, which will necessarily cause delay in the receiving of mail.

Do Your Part...

During the week between the spring and the summer semester new signs were placed to the effect that pedestrians had the right of way on the campus, and yellow lane markers were painted across the streets. This the campus needed a long time. But it needs more.

It needs the cooperation of every driver on the campus, to obey those signs, as well as all rules of common sense and of common courtesy when behind the wheel.

Auto accidents on the campus of Northwestern, as far as we know, are practically unheard of, but they can happen. The streets between the main section of the campus, the high school area and the area containing the Science Building, Caldwell Hall, the library, Warren Easton, and other buildings, is full of students during the period between class hours. Most of the people who are driving on the campus at those times observe the 20 mile-per-hour speed limit and give the pedestrian some lee-way in crossing the streets. Others, however, do not. They barge through the area, perfectly content with the idea that they have the advantage over the student and can use it. These are the dangerous ones.

The school has gone so far as to place a traffic officer on permanent duty and to decorate the campus amply with traffic signs. They have done their part. Won't you do yours?

Principals Hold First Summer Conference Here

Noted educators from Louisiana and other parts of the South completed the final session yesterday of the first annual summer conference of the Louisiana Principals' Association held on the NSC campus June 20-22.

Divided into three general sessions and six panel discussions, Friday's convocation featured Dr. George Deer, of Louisiana State University, and Dr. Leo T. Albritton, of the NSC education department, who spoke on phases of the principals' responsibility.

Presiding over the first general session Wednesday was W. E. Pate, State Association president. Speakers for this part of the program were President H. Lee Prather, Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of George Peabody college, and Shelby M. Jackson, state superintendent of education.

Dr. John B. Robson, dean of the School of Education, was in charge of the second general session, held Thursday. Taking part in the program were Superintendent T. P. Baker, Austin, Texas, and Dr. J. G. Umstatted, University of Texas, both of whom discussed educational problems. Earlier proceedings of the day included six panel discussions emphasizing important problems facing principals in Louisiana today.

Designed to be educational and inspirational, the convention made possible the opportunity for the principals of the state to get together and discuss mutual problems.

IN THE LIBRARY

The library has recently received a number of new books. The following are a few that may now be found on the shelves:

Brock and Weinstock. MEN OF MUSIC.

Dyer. THE GALLANT HOOD. Jensen. THE NEW NATION. (A history of the United States during the years of the Confederation).

Untermeyer and Shikes. THE BEST HUMOR OF 1949-1950.

Nursing Students Measured For Uniforms Tuesday

Mr. N. I. Kruse and Earl C. Parker Jr. of the Earl C. Parker Uniform Company, Houston, Tex., measured 118 students majoring in nursing for student nurse's uniforms Tuesday.

The uniforms have been selected by experts from the Home Economics department, Nursing department and representatives from the collaborating hospitals. They were judged on the basis of design, serviceability, and versatility in both hospital and Public Health areas. An apron will be worn with the uniform in the hospital, while it is worn without the apron in Public Health work.

The students who were measured will enter the hospitals either in September or January for clinical instruction and practice during the next two years. E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital of Monroe will receive 10 students while the Shreveport hospitals, Charity, Tri-State, North Louisiana and Highland Sanitarium, will receive 49, 16, 10 and 9 respectively. Baptist Hospital in Alexandria will give clinical instruction to 24 students.

New Hours Set For Library This Summer

New library hours for the summer semester have been announced by Dr. Eugene P. Watson, librarian. Monday through Friday the library will open at 7:45 a. m. and close at 9:30 p. m. On Friday the hours will be from 7:45 a. m. until 4:00 p. m. The library will open at 8:30 a. m. on Saturday and will close at noon.

Replacing Miss Irene Pope, assistant professor of library science for the summer session is Miss Geneva Washburn, who is librarian at Neville High school in Monroe. Miss Pope is attending the summer semester at the University of Illinois.

Entertainment plans for the group include a visit to the clubs and restaurants where famous bands are engaged, and a trip to see the Chicago White Sox in action. While in Chicago, the group will be entertained by the Elks Club.

The trip, to last eight days, will be financed by the state and national Elks organization and by the college. The group will return to Natchitoches on Sunday, July 8.

Summer is here and in a big way. Makes a body want to give up all ideas of studying, jump in a big tub of ice cubes and soak for hours. But since that just ain't done around here—and incidentally, can't be done for too many hours if one wishes to pass, we find ourselves looking around for other means of entertainment to help keep us from thinking about the hot weather.

The tennis courts are kept busy this summer, and those who aren't playing tennis are golfing, canoeing and, swimming, or—more often—taking their daily recreation in the breeze of a cool fan.

No one can say the nursing students aren't at least trying to spice the long days with a bit of enjoyment. Full-scale plans are already underway for a picnic next Saturday.

Congratulations are in order for Julia McBroom for receiving the lead in the summer dramatic production, "Parlor Story," to be given in July.

The short dances given in the Student Center this summer offer an excellent opportunity to all. One good thing about it, girls there's no waiting on a date. Everyone is strictly on his-or-her own.

All freshmen seem to be liking Northwestern rather well. One freshman girl says she thinks Northwestern is fine, the people, friendly, and nothing wrong with the boy situation. In reference to the food, her opinion was "No Comment." "I cried all night in my stuffed frog the first night I was here," said another freshman, "but now I'm beginning to catch on to things." "If I don't fail all my subjects, I'll be back next fall wearing my little freshman cap."

Not even Dan Cupid seems to be taking a vacation this summer, or so it would appear from the progress the "fly boys" are making with the female civilians on the campus. Perhaps it's simply an all-out effort to raise the morale of the troops, but it doesn't seem too likely.

Other lucky girls, romantically speaking, include Dot Corry, recently engaged to Robert Gates; Jannette Pace, who is planning her wedding for this summer; and Erin Mays, who became Mrs. Frank Orton as of June 15.

While officially inactive during the summer semester, all five sororities are having informal "get togethers" each week. The Alpha Sigmas have been getting things lined up (probably the mattresses) for a bang-up slumber party tonight. Delta Sigs, too, are on the ball and a fine number turned out for the Tuesday evening session. A general room-cleaning was first on the agenda for the Theta Sigs Tuesday, and plans were made for painting the room and putting up new curtains. Nearly all the Pi-Kappas are back for the summer session and money-making plans are under consideration. Tentative plans for an alumni bridge party is the main point of discussion with the Tri-Sigmas.

Better be looking around for a good date, girls. The Airforce is sponsoring an all-college dance June 29, which should prove to be quite a treat.

BSU To Honor New Students At Ice Cream Party

The Baptist Student Union will play host to all freshmen at an ice-cream party to be given on the lawn of the First Baptist Church Friday night 7:30.

Everyone is invited to attend, but a special invitation is extended to all freshmen to come and get acquainted. Students who plan to attend are requested to meet at the Religious Center on the campus at 7:00 p. m.

Newman Club Plans Activities For The Summer

Members of the Newman Club, a religious organization for Catholic students, held its first meeting of the summer session Monday to plan the club's activities for the next seven weeks.

Regular club meetings were scheduled for each Monday at 6:00 p. m. The Rosary will be recited at 6:00 p. m., Monday through Friday.

A dance held Friday night for all Catholic students was the club's first activity for the summer. Next on the agenda is a watermelon party, the date of which is presently indefinite.

Platter Spin

by Perry R. Kinard, Jr.

Welcome to "Platter Spin". Well, kids, I think I had better tell you the why's and where's of this column, and what the purpose is. This column is to bring you: first of all, all the latest "dirt" on the latest records that have been released, and second: my personal opinion as to which records will make hits in the future. Also, from week to week. I will tell you about the latest record albums of musicals, movies, opera, etc. I will inform you as to where your favorite singer, or band, is playing and give you a word or two about each. But the main purpose is to give your mind a rest from that so-called stuff "studying and lessons." So chilluns—sit back, relax, and listen to the "Old Man".

Well, let's see, whom can we talk about first? What about Nat King Cole? (He is one of my special favorites, I might add.) Nat has really been making a name for himself of late. If I can recall, I think that the first big hit that Nat made was his recording of "The Christmas Song." Then he really swept the country with his recording of "Nature Boy." (You remember this one, don't you?) What with his recordings of "Mona Lisa," "Red Sails in the Sunset," "An Old Piano Plays the Blues," and now with "Too Young" and "Jet", he is one of the top entertainers in the popular music world. I have just read in "Capitol News" that Nat has made a new release that is really sweeping the country. It's "Song of Delilah" and the flip is "Because of Rain". "Capitol News" also says that a few of the oldies are having come backs. They have re-released Ella Mae Morse's "Cow Cow Boogie" with "Shoo Shoo Baby" on the flip. Both are well worth reviving.

Ray Anthony is really coming up in the musical world. His recording of "My Prayer" is one

"Birth of a Nation" To Be Shown Thursday Night On Film Program

"Birth of a Nation," third in the series of films in the Summer Film Program, will be shown to members of the faculty and student body Thursday night, according to Dr. John S. Kyser, head of the department of social sciences and chairman of the committee.

The picture, the first of the pageant movies, portrays conditions in the South, between the periods of 1860 and 1870, the Reconstruction following the Civil War. With eight months required for the filming, the production boasts a cast of 18,000.

Opening the series this summer was "Blue Lagoon," an English film. Thursday night's feature was "Tap Roots." According to Dr. Kyser, films will be shown each week with the exception of July 5 and July 12.

Faculty members of the Film Committee are Dr. Kyser, Dr. John Duffy, William C. Havard, Mrs. Olive Cooper, Don A. Carr. Student representatives are Don Jones, Cas Moss, Leland Langridge, and Louise Harris.

Last summer the committee, composed of faculty and student representatives, oriented the program, the purpose of which is to bring to the campus films both entertaining and educational. Though the efforts of Dr. Kyser, Thomas Hennigan, and Paul Kyser, technician, the technical equipment, including the 35 mm. projector, was put in good condition. In addition, the 16 mm. projector is available for use.

Lost Anything?

Have you lose a green pocket-book containing a string of pearls lately? This is only one of the many articles that have been turned in to Mrs. Gunn this week and in the weeks past.

9 varied assortment of objects ranging from a pair of hornrimmed glasses, a notebook, and a belt to a gray dress, a Parker fountain pen, a lead pencil with the name J. M. Fleming on the case, and two girls' purses, are to be found in Mrs. Gunn's filing cabinet. These articles may be claimed by calling at the lost and found department in the president's office.

Swimming Champ Attends Annual Aquatic School

Climaxing the tenth annual American Red Cross Aquatic School held on the NSC campus June 3-13 was the appearance of Miss June Taylor, world's foremost exponent of synchronized swimming. Miss Taylor who hails from Canada, has won the United States National AAU swimming championship for the past two years.

Attending this year's Aquatic School were 80 students and 12 staff members from various southern states, including Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Arkansas and Florida. The school was under the direction of Mr. Eugene Jones, well-known teacher in the field of aquatics and safety.

This year's course schedule called for intensive work both on the part of the students and instructors. A great part of the time was devoted to practice of skills under the motto 'Learn by Doing'. According to Coach Guy Nesom, the informal, democratic spirit that prevailed among the participants contributed to enjoyment as well as better work.

Besides offering both preliminary and advanced swimming and water-safety methods, classes were also given in applying and teaching first aid and accident prevention.

Aquatic School life was not all work. Provision was also made for recreation. Competitive volley ball games and swimming meets were held. "Stunt-night", square dancing, and other activities helped to give the school a well-rounded program.

Intramural Notes

Intramural Softball (Summer) starts Tuesday, June 26th on the softball diamonds behind Warren Easton Hall at 6:10 p. m.

The summer league will consist of six teams playing a double round robin. All games will be played after the evening meal on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Equipment may be checked out from the Intramural office in Men's Gym each day of the game. Tuesday's schedule is as follows:

Diamond No. 1

Flight "A" vs. Caspari Hall

Diamond No. 2

Brick Shack vs. Phi Kappa Nu

Thursday's Schedule:

Diamond No. 1

Caspari Dogs vs. Flight "B"

Diamond No. 2

Flight "A" vs. Brick Shack

Also of special interest to men and women students of summer school is the recreation nights sponsored by the men's Physical Education Department to be held every Monday night 6:30 p. m. in the men's gym beginning July 2nd. At this time paddle ball, badminton, pool, table tennis, box hockey, cotton golf, and Volley ball will be available for men and women students. At this time there, will also be a sports film shown free of charge. These films will mostly consist of slow pictures of Northwestern's Athletic teams in action.

Bring your date and come over to the gym for a fine evening of entertainment!

Appointed

President H. Lee Prather has announced the appointment of Miss Mary Ester Roberson of Arcadia as associate professor of home economics at Northwestern State College.

Miss Roberson will begin her duties in the fall. She is to teach courses in her specialty, clothing and textiles.

In 1947 she attended the Penland school of handicrafts in North Carolina. She is also qualified to teach home furnishings and arts and crafts.

A native Louisianian, Miss Roberson is a graduate of Arcadia High School. She was graduated from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute with the B. S. degree and received the master of science degree at Columbus Univ.

For the past two years Miss Roberson has been head of the Home Economics Department at Centenary College. She has also taught at Arcadia High School; Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C.; Furman University, Greenville, S. C. and Sullins College, Bristol, Va.

DRAFT PROBLEMS?

Any student wishing to obtain information concerning his eligibility for deferment or any other problem related to the draft may consult with Dudley G. Fulton, dean of men. Dean Fulton's office is located on the first floor of Caldwell Hall.

Music Clinic For H. S. Musicians Begins Sunday

Registration for the annual summer music clinic designated for Louisiana high school musicians clinic designed for Louisiana high school musicians is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, 1 to 5 o'clock, in Northwestern State college's Varnado hall.

The clinic will be in session from June 24 through July 6, according to Sherrod Towns, head of the department of music at NSC and clinic chairman.

Entry forms have already been received from students of Le-compte, Many, Coushatta, Elton, Sulphur, Oakdale, Mansfield, Greenwood, Alexandria, Leesville, Bordelonville, Moreauville, Merryville, Mandeville, Minden and Natchitoches.

Directors for the various aspects of the clinic will be faculty members of NSC's department of music. They are:

Band, Joseph Carlucci; string orchestra, Vall Hill; chorus, Donald Glattly; piano, Paul Torgimson; voice, Sherrod Towns.

All facilities of the college will be at the disposal of the clinic students during their two weeks of intensive musical training and recreation. Students will be under college supervision at all times, Chairman Towns said.

Demonaries

Under the direction of leader Frank Pasqua, the fifteen members of the Demonaires, college dance band, played the first of a series of summer dances June 15 from 8 until 11 p. m.

According to Director Pasqua, dances will be held every two weeks on Saturday night for the remainder of the summer session, except during special study week. The band will play short dances on Wednesday during the weeks in which no regular Saturday night dance is scheduled. Both boys and girls may attend these short dances "stag"; admission will be fifteen cents.

The Demonaires and the respective instrument played by each are: Don Jones, Harry Rose, S. W. Dickerson, David Lepard, Wesley Jackson—saxophones; Henry Camp, Johnny Zenter, Max Burns—trombones; Frank Pasqua, Gordon Young, Jerald Carter—trumpets; David Carson, piano; Glynn Gardner, brass fiddle; Hugh Mercer, drums; Mrs. Gloria Camp, vibraphone.

NORTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

Woes of Modern Family Man Told In 3-Act, "Parlor Story"

In times past, a man's home was his castle . . . wherein he could lord it over wife and offsprings . . .

But that, alas, was in times far, far past. Woe, oh woe, is the modern family man now. He governs his household only with the advice and consent of the governed, and usually gets more advice than consent!

Such is the situation chosen for dramation by the Northwestern Theatre Players this semester.

Entitled "Parlor Story," the humorous three act comedy chosen by the players is woven around the affairs of a college professor and his family. A hit of the 1946-47 Broadway season, the play will be presented in the Fine Arts Auditorium July 12 and 13 at 8 p. m.

Leading the cast of William McCleery's three-act hilarity is Don A. Carr, head of the college speech department, in the role of Professor Charles Burnett. Marian Burnett, his wife, is played by Julie McBroom.

Burnett, in whose parlor the story takes place, is an ex-newspaper man, now head of the journalism school of a western university. He comes home for a quiet evening, but before bedtime, his loving but free-thinking wife and daughters have drawn him into a political deal with the governor of the state, a soul-shaking debate with one daughter's boy friend, on love and marriage, a heated squabble with the loving wife, an altercation with a state trooper, and finally, a head-on collision with a powerful political fixer.

Supporting the main characters in the story are Gervais Aldredge as Katy, the Burnett's younger daughter; Chick Gabbert as Christine, their oldest daughter; Jim Vorhoff as Eddie West, Christine's boy friend; Tom Drewett as Mike, a state trooper; Perry Kinard as Lainson, another state trooper; Juke Petrovitch as Governor Sam Bright; Millie Middleton as Mrs. Bright, the governor's wife; and E. G. Smith as Mel Granite, a newspaper publisher.

Three Students Drag 30-Pound Turtle From River

A forty pound turtle that effortlessly bit a hole in a rinc tub to show his jaw strength was dragged from the Cane River Lake here recently by three NSC boys.

The river monster was caught on a set hook by L. T. LaBorde, of Moncla, who had to enlist the aid of two friends to get his prize from the water. Old-timers believe it is one of the largest turtles to be caught in this area.

With a head measuring 15 inches around, the tortoise was so big it could not be put in a tub with a 36-inch diameter.

The giant catch was given to "Ike", Negro caretaker of the NSC stadium. "Ike" kept some of the meat and distributed the rest among his friends, who consider turtle seaks the rarest of delicacies.

29 Named To Dorm Council

Twenty-nine women students were named to positions on the dormitory councils by residence constituents last week in the four dormitories on the campus. Each of the dormitory presidents will be listed as members of the Associated Women Student's Council during the summer session.

Elected were: Audubon; Ruht Good, President; Judy Honeycutt, Vice-president; Patsy Smith, Secretary-Treasurer; Betty McCarty, Social Chairman; Dora Tony, first floor representative; Ann Jones, second floor representative.

Carondolet; Rae Gremillion, President; Sue Westmoreland, vice President; Nelda Madden, Secretary-Treasurer; Louise Vick, Social Chairman; Eva Lou Young, first floor representative; Jeanette Ludwig, second floor representative.

Agnes Morris; Ila Mae Milton, President; Sunshine Fleming, Vice-president; Louise Burns, Secretary - Treasurer; Marilyn Snoddy, Social Chairman; Carolyn Cartwright, first floor representative; Ladye Jane White, sleeping porch representative; and Joyce Frances, second floor representative.

Varnado; Elizabeth Abraham, President; Elizabeth Seegers, Vice-president; Claudine Box, Secretary-Treasurer; Pat Winters, Social Chairman; Quincey Lincecum, Jeanne Sykes, Patsy Eason, East floor representatives; and Julie McBroom, Clydie Beacham, Jean Burkhalter, West floor representatives.

Natatorium Rules Announced For Summer Months

Rules and regulations concerning the operation of the college natatorium for the summer months were released from the department of health and physical education recently, and were effective June 16.

According to an information bulletin released by the department three essential things are to be considered: health cards, valuables, and supervision of swimming.

All students are required to have a health examination record on file at the infirmary; their health status will be determined from this record. All non-students, including faculty, staff members, and townspeople, using the pool at designated periods will be required to secure health cards signed by a recognized physician. All local physicians have been supplied with the health cards. Cards are also available at the H & PE office and at the office in the natatorium.

Baskets, according to the bulletin, will be issued for the care of valuables. However, it is advised that all valuables be left at home.

A life guard and tow checkers will be in charge of the building and the activity at all times. The guard will be the authority in the pool.

Student, faculty and staff members of the college and members of their immediate families are eligible to swim during any of the regular recreation periods which are 2:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m. daily, 7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. Saturday nights.

CHESS CLUB

Students interested in joining the Natchitoches Chess Club may obtain all information from Dr. Eugent P. Watson, head librarian and NSC representative for the Louisiana Chess Association.

Quota For Social Studies Trip Practically Filled Says Kyser

Over three-fourths of the number of students needed to fill one bus for the tour of the eastern United States planned by the social studies department of Northwestern have already made their reservations. Over 32 available positions on the air conditioned bus slated to make the tour, 24 are already filled.

Dr. Kyser stated that, for the comfort of the travelers, the huge bus would not be filled completely, but the department will continue to accept reservations throughout the summer. Kyser said that should sufficient students sign up for the tour, another bus would be chartered to make the trip.

The trip, which will carry the students over 5,000 miles across the land, is listed as a geography field course in the college catalogue, and carries three hours college credit.

Students making the tour are slated to leave Northwestern at 8 a. m., August 14 and return September 3. Included in the itinerary of the trip are such places as Lookout Mountain, Williamsburg, Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, Columbia University, Niagara Falls, and others.

Under the guidance of social studies professor Le Roi Eversull, the group will study man's adjustment to his natural environment, the survey of land and its uses, natural resources, industries, transportation and communication, and historic landmarks.

Annual Hi School Music Clinic In Session Here

Students from 65 high schools throughout the state convened on the campus of Northwestern June 24 for the annual band clinic, which will last through July 6.

Included in their daily program are rehearsals for the various instruments, the woodwinds being directed by Dave Carlucci, brasses by Frank Pasqua, and the string by Val Hill. Band rehearsals, piano, twirling and voice classes are also a part of the program.

During leisure hours for the group supervised recreational activities have been scheduled.

Climaxing the clinic will be the final concert on Friday, July 6 at 7:30 p. m. in the Fine Arts auditorium.

A. F. Program To Continue Through January

The Air Force Clerk Typist School inaugurated at NSC April 23 will continue until January, 1952 instead of September, 1951, as originally planned, according to N. B. Morrison, head of the business department. Originally the Air Force school was to consist of 10 contingents of 25 men each and last only during the 12 week period from April 23 to July 13.

After 12 weeks the first contingent was to be shipped out and another one shipped in. These weekly shipments were to continue until Sept. 10. Later the contingents were increased to 13 with 35 men each. Recently this number was increased to 675 men, and the time extended until January 1952.

Classes for the airmen will still include English, typing, filing and military correspondence. They are also required to take swimming during the summer. The men will engage in a variety of athletic activities.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club held its regular meeting on Monday, June 25. It was decided that the Club would hold its summer formal initiation sometime in August. All Catholic students who are not members and wish to be initiated should contact Leeland Langridge, president of the Newman Club. Initiation fees are 50c.

Tillman To Head Photo Studio On New Basis

The campus photographic studio was activated once again last week, on a revolving-fund basis, with J. C. Tillman as photographic supervisor. Tillman, a journalism graduate and past editor of the Current Sauce, will remain at NSC through the summer and fall semester, 1951.

According to Tillman, departments, organizations, and individuals on the campus desiring photographs taken may contact him at Ext. 62 or at the photographic studio.

In order to enable the photo operations to pay for themselves, a charge of $1.00 for each picture taken will be made. For copies of pictures made from negatives already in the lab, the fee will be $.50. All other work will be done on a price-agreement basis.

This eliminates the necessity for purchase requisitions to be submitted before the work is done. Hereafter, the work may be contracted for, and paid for by stores requisition at the first of each month, when the departments are billed.

Complete facilities for photographic work are available at the studio and the lab is so arranged as to allow from two to five days service on routine work and one-day service on rush orders.

Members of the College Singers, under the direction of Donald Glatly, rehearse for their performances to be given at the National Elks Convention in Chicago. The group will leave this afternoon on chartered buses for their week's stay in the "Windy City."

Society

Today, to most of us, means the end of a very trying and busy week of getting up at six o'clock in the morning, standing in line for meals, rushing to seven o'clock classes and spending more time than we like studying. But despite all that and the hot weather too, we have managed to find some extra time and energy for such things as picnics, parties, dances, and ball games.

The swirling of skirts, clapping of hands and strains of "Oh Johnny" all added to the fun had Wednesday night at the square dance. Miss Charlet, new dancing teacher for Northdestern, did a wonderful job of calling the numbers.

Thursday night brought out a large number of students to attend the movie, "The Birth of a Nation," given in the Fine Arts auditorium. This was the third of a series of movies being given this summer.

Better get one good last look at the college singers today before they leave for Chicago. Too bad we couldn't all go.

Seen lots of strange faces around lately? No, they are not new students; the group is here for a band clinic. They're working hard and learning lots.

Guess they just can't stay away. The campus has been swarming this week with visitors, for instance, Kathleen and Daisy Prudhomme and Ethlyn Cloutier, who drove over from Bermuda Tuesday night for the Delta Sig sorority meeting; and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Moore, better known as Louisa and Buddy to the Demonettes, who stopped by Monday afternoon on their way to Shreveport.

Others seen around the campus this week were Pee Wee Patton, Donald Ray, Max Schoonover, Patsy Burke, Bobby Ray McCoufey, Bobbie Hornsby and Alta Mae Vascocu.

Couples who have recently become pinned are Jeanie Mae Crum to Leslie Lum, graduate of Northwestern, now stationed at New Orleans, and Patsy Deville to Raymond Flores, both transfers from Southwestern.

Two fortunate girls are Beth McGuffee, who was married to Robert Owen Johnson last Sunday and Gloria Voss, who will be married to Sgt. Delbert Murphy at the Chapel at Barksdale A. F. B. August 8.

Vera Ellan Robertson and Buddy Bonnet who were recently married are now living in Natchitoches.

Cankerworms

Cankerworms, or inchworms as they are often called from their inching-along method of locomotion, are great defoliators of all deciduous trees. In many sections of the country they will be in outbreak form this year. In others they may be just reaching the peak of tapering off.

3-Day LHSPA Meet Held Here

School principals from throughout Louisiana ended a three-day education conference here Saturday. The conference, a Louisiana High School Principal's Association meet, was held to discuss major problems confronting our schools today.

After the welcome address by President H. Lee Prather, the group retired to conference sessions and round-table discussions.

Main speakers for the meet were Dr. Leo T. Allbritten, NSC; Shelby J. Jackson, Louisiana Superintendent of Education; Da. Henry H. Hill, president of George Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. George Deer, of LSU; Dr. J. G. Umstattd, of the University of Texas; and T. P. Baker, of Austin, Texas, school administrator.

At the final meeting, Dr. Allbritten stressed the needs for a good public relations program in high school. Both Dr. Allbritten and Dr. Deer praised the educational system of Louisiana at this session. They also pointed out the necessity of a program to inform people in other states what is being accomplished here.

Miss Elaine Canady, music education teacher, is replacing Miss May Beville, on leave, for the summer term. A specialist in music education, Miss Canady has taught in various state schools, including Mangham and Sikes high school.

PLATTER SPIN

By PERRY KINARD

Well, kids, let's not waste any time getting started this week.

This may be of interest to the College Singers. I'm sorry to say but Stan Kenton is not in Chicago at the present. He is on the West Coast at the Oasis. The Chicago Theatre and Oriental Theatre both have excellent stage shows, and believe you me, they have the best entertainers in the field. I have tried my best to find out who is appearing the week you will be there, but no such luck. I did find out one thing though, in case any of you have a way to get to Milwaukee (which is just 45 miles from Chi) you will find George Shearing and his Quintet appearing at the Stage Door Lounge for 10 days starting July 1 or 2. This man is really great. His recording of "I Didn't Know What Time It Was" and "Penthouse Serenade" have put him in the top bracket of the entertainment field.

"Billboard" stated that the best selling record albums over the country are: Mario Lanza's "The Great Caruso" and the New York Cast's of "The King and I". From what I hear, Mario Lanza is nothing short of sensational in "The Great Caruso". They say he is really demand on the Coast now, and that the New York agents are trying to get him to go on the Circuit. All I have to say about "The King and I", is: it should be good. It's by Roger and Hammerstein. What more do you want? Their show, "South Pacific" has been running two years, and still going strong.

By the way, College Singers, if you are lucky you might be able to get tickets to "South Pacific". It has been running in Chicago for quite a while now, and from the looks of things, it will be running a while longer. If I'm not mistaken, Janet Blair and Ralph Middleton are in the Chicago Cast. See it, if you can get the chance. It's a treat that you will never forget.

I also hear that the "Oklahoma" album is back in demand. The show has re-opened in New York to packed houses. "Oklahoma" has really been running for quite a spell. It first opened in New York in 1941, and has been going strong, not only in this country, but in Europe too. I hear that it is going on tour again and is booked solid until 1953. Who knows, maybe Shreveport will get it when it tours the South.

I read in RCA's PICTURE RECORD REVIEW of June 1951 that Walt Disney's "Alice In Wonderland" is going to be one of the greatest pictures of 1951-52. It is set for release in the Fall. All your favorite singers have started recording numbers from the show. They will be on the market soon, so keep your ears open.

MY PREDICTION FOR THIS WEEK: Stan Kenton's recording of "September Song" with "Artistry in Tango" on the flip. Real great number, so watch for it.

Watson Writes Article On Teachers College

All students are urged to read "Special Functions of the Teacher's College Libraries" by Dr. Eugene P. Watson, NSC head librarian, in the April issue of College and Research Libraries".

Dr. Watson, in his article, gives information concerning the origin and development of the teacher's college and brings out the importance of the teacher's college libraries.

What's Not Cooking At NSC?

The idea that students on the hill must live in dormitories on the campus and must eat in the campus dining hall has been a staunch one at Northwestern since, obviously, the day one. Regardless of the leniency of other campuses in the state, to say nothing of the United States, in allowing students to eat wherever they so choose, NSC has continued to hold it's students to a rigid schedule of meal tickets. This, as is common knowledge, has often brought complaints from the students, and from members of the administrative staff.

The problem is not one that has been allowed to lie dormant, from the standpoint of the student or from the standpoint of the administrative staffs. From the student viewpoint necessarily having to take meals in an overcrowded, poorly staffed, sometimes unclean dining hall (for instance, the canines lying on the floor at meal times) is an insult to both their stomachs and their pocketbooks.

From the administrative viewpoint, the constant financial operating loss sustained, is a headache. In this matter, the administrators feel that, if every student is compelled to eat in the dining hall, better meals will result. Hardly is this true, for several reasons.

First, all, and we say all without reservation, of the students who eat in the dining hall put up continual complaints. If compelling them to eat in the dining hall is to insure them better meals—why do they complain?

Second, the daily after-meal trek to local cafes indicates that the students are not getting enough to eat—or if there is enough, according to all dietary charts and tables, then it, for the major part, is inedible.

The college feels that, should they allow the students to eat off-campus, at their discretion, the local cafes would become so crowded that the quality of the meals would be reduced to a much lower level than is compatible with maintaining good health. Possibly this is true.

We can't say that we have a solution, for obviously, there is none, simple or otherwise. Several suggestions have been made for improving the situation.

Students have suggested in the past that they be allowed to pay only for the meals that they eat in the dining hall, regardless of whether they are compelled to buy a meal ticket. This would eliminate the heavy loss to the students on weekends, and for those who have a chance to sleep late in the mornings.

Other suggestions have ranged from operating the dining hall on a cafeteria basis to placing it on a cafe business—disregarding the daily suggestions that the place be entirely closed.

As we said, we know of no solution that is both agreeable and profitable to the students and the administrators. If you, the student, have any sensible ideas, which, in all faith, you think will help solve the problem, please pass them on to the others via the SAUCE.

Four Years Of Work! Takes Red Cross Position In Ala.

It is a well-known fact that over ninety per cent of the students enrolled at this college, or at any similar educational institution, are here, not for the cultural values alone, but primarily for the desire to prepare themselves to enter a desirable and dignified profession upon graduation. It should then be a major objective of the college to assist these graduates in finding such positions.

In June, Northwestern graduated over 100 students in the field of education. Of this number, at least 20% have not secured teaching positions for the coming year. Since most school superintendents have secured necessary quota of teachers for their parishes by July, this means that unemployed graduates must either wait for vacancies or accept employment in another field, usually a far less desirable one.

That these prospective teachers want and need positions is unquestionable. Many persons have toured all of Louisiana's parishes to find employment in a desirable school system. Others have written letters of application and have made numerous phone calls to the various superintendents. In many instances letters have not even been acknowledged.

The reasons for this situation may be attributed to various factors. In the first place, a majority of students take majors in secondary education, while the demand is much greater in the elementary schools. Some apparently have the wrong teaching combinations. One parish superintendent recently asked for a teacher who was certified in secretarial science, chemistry, and physics.

In other instances students wait too long to apply for positions.

Whatever the reasons, it is a bitter disappointment to a person to attend four years of college only to find that no position is available in his field. It seems that this problem could be partially solved with sufficient planning.

Freshmen planning to enter the field of education should be given the facts concerning the possibility of future employment in their preferred specialties. Students should also avoid electing a major haphazardly.

The placement service bureau maintained by the college assists many students in finding positions each year, but the fact remains that some students cannot secure jobs even through this means.

Naturally, the problem of employment should rest primarily upon the graduates themselves. Nevertheless, the situation should not be neglected by those in a position to help. Much has been done in the past along this line, but the increasing difficulties in finding teaching positions since the war years makes additional planning and aid to the students necessary.

It is not only to the benefit of the individual graduate that he find a position but also necessary to the social and educational welfare of the nation. Students who cannot find positions become disgruntled with their choice and so are socially maladjusted, even with their education. Others, who really desire to enter the teaching profession for the sake of the profession and not entirely for the salary, are kept out of their field by political job-assigning and "back-scratching" placement procedure on the part of state educational authorities.

The task of clearing up this situation is undoubtedly a large one. Just how much the authorities and individuals in higher education can do has not yet been ascertained. A perpetuated and highly publicized doctrine of student counselling on the selection of a vocation, as has been followed in the past by many educators, we believe, would eventually lead to better and more frequent placement of graduate teachers.

Peggy J. Casmore, Northwestern graduate from New Orleans, recently accepted employment as a recreation aid in the American Red Cross service in military hospitals, according to the Atlanta, Ga. Red Cross public information office.

One of several hundred additional staff members being employed by the Red Cross in expansion of its services supporting the nation's military expansion and home defense efforts, Miss Casmore has been assigned to Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala. Her job will be to assist Red Cross Recreation workers in providing medically approve recreation for both bed patients and convalescents.

A member of both the National Education Association and the Louisiana Education Association, Miss Casmore formerly taught at the Central School, Lake Charles. She received her B. A. degree from Northwestern in 1949.

CANTERBURY CLUB

NSC's religious organization for Episcopal students, the Canterbury Club, held their first summer meeting at 6:30 Monday evening.

A short discussion centered on the proper understanding of the Apostles' Creed. Thought was also given to a swimming party in the near future; however, definite plans are to be formulated at a later meeting.

Regrets were expressed to the group that more members were not present when Chaplain Nelson from Louisiana State University took photographs for Forth magazine last week. These pictures will be published in the September issue.

Forthcoming meetings will be held every Monday evening at 6:30. Club officers and members invite all new students and Air Force trainees to join these gatherings.

32 Plan To Go On Soc. Tour Slated In August

Thirty-two students have made reservations for the tour of the eastern United States planned by the social studies department of Northwestern, according to John S. Kyser, head of the social studies department. This number assures the group of having an air-conditioned bus.

Registration for the trip is rather widespread. There were two reservations from the Florida Parishes and one from Mississippi.

The people who have made reservations are: Mrs. A. G. Gill, Aline Strickland, Anna Pixley, Mrs. A. K. McConnell, Ola Cooper, Mrs. C. N. Underwood, Mrs. Eola P. Rooks, Mrs. Fred Preans, Grace Cooley, Martha James, Lila Gore.

Yvonne B. Spencer, Mrs. Mike Saloom, Barbara Arnold, Armida Pitre, Thelma Houston, Lucille Spurlock, Vera H. Small, Bertha Hoagland, Isabell Pearce, Annette Dailey, Dorothy Frasier, Jeanette Rachal, Marie Ann Abate, Dorothy Tucker, Ann Ruth Millican, Mrs. Iva Lee Stinson, Jeanne Lyons, Ruth Lee, Carol Blankenship, Mrs. Blankenship, and Doris E. Barber.

ATTENTION SENIORS

There will be an important senior class meeting in the Fine Arts Auditorium Monday, July 9, at 1:30 p. m. All graduating seniors are asked to be present.

Anyone interested in becoming editor of the CURRENT SAUCE must submit his application to Dudley G. Fulton, Dean of Men, or to J. C. Merrill, publicity director by noon Tuesday. The publications committee will meet to select the new editor Tuesday afternoon.

Singers Attend Breakfast Club While In Chicago

Members of the College Singers and Director Don Glattly appeared as guests of the Don McNeil Breakfast Club Tuesday as a special feature of their week's stay in Chicago for the National Elks Convention. Interviewed during the program, carried by the American Broadcasting Co., were Peggy Haywood, Carolyn Fultz, and Mittie Lancaster.

The group left Saturday afternoon on chartered buses and were due to arrive in Chicago late Sunday night. During their stay the Singers were scheduled to present performances at the national music festival, held in Soldier's Field, at memorial services in the grand ballroom of the Stevens Hotel, and at several banquets.

The students are expected to arrive in Natchitoches sometime today.

"Parlor Story" To Be Staged At Camp Polk

For the second consecutive year, members of the cast of a NSC drama department stage production will travel to Camp Polk to perform. Succeeding "Oh! Susanna", the play presented last year, "Parlor Story", a three act comedy by William McCleery.

The cast of ten, under the direction of Don Carr, head of the speech department, will leave for Leesville and the army post Wednesday afternoon taking with them the necessary stage equipment. The play will be staged in a post theatre at 8 p. m.

The production, slated for its premiere campus staging, July 12 and 13 at 8 p. m. evolves about the troubles of an ex-newspaperman-professor at a typical university. Campus politics and love, among other things, mix to create three acts of hilarity.

Duffy Is Author Of 1st Volume On Colonial Health Since 1799

Dr. John Duffy

TO BE PUBLISHED BY LSU PRESS

Dr. John Duffy has just finished a book, History of Epidemics in the American Colonies, which is to be released next year or in early 1953 by Louisiana State University Press.

Noah Webster wrote a book on epidemics in the colonies back in 1799, but no book has been published on the subject since. Dr. Duffy says he believes he is the only person doing research in this field at present.

Dr. Duffy has also written a number of magazine articles in the field of colonial epidemics and their treatment. Among them is "The Passage to the Colonies" which appeared in the June issue of Mississippi Valley Historical Review and deals with shipboard conditions of emigrants from Europe to the new world in the 17th and 18th centuries.

Two more of his articles will appear soon. One, "Yellow Fever in Colonial Charleston" will appear in the South Carolina Historical Magazine and the other, "Smallpox and the North American Indian," in the Bulletin of the History of Medicine, put out at Jones Hopkins.

Dr. Duffy was born in England and at the age of 12 came to Canada with his family where they lived for two years. The Duffys then moved to Detroit where Dr. Duffy attended high school.

Dr. Duffy received his B. A. degree from Northwestern State College and his M. A. in history from Louisiana State University. He received his doctorate from the University of California at Los Angeles. Dr. Duffy returned to Northwestern, his old Alma Mater, where he has taught for three years.

With all of his teaching, research and family life, Dr. Duffy manages to play a set or two of tennis each afternoon. From all reports he is more a "slouch" with a racquet than with his historical endeavors.

Tilleaux Takes Title To Heart; Cleans Office DeBais, Takes Trip

By CHUCK TILLMAN

"Something old, something new—something borrowed—and even—something blue," was the keynote of a frenzied scent last week when Potpourri Editor Marie Tilleux, and her office force took over the Potpourri office to begin the year's work.

Top on the list of "musts" for the new editor and staff was a clean-up job to ready the office for the coming session.

Plans for the 1952 yearbook, according to Miss Tilleux, will be made July 15, in Nashville, Tenn., when she, Cass Moss, the business manager of publication, and J. C. Merrill, publicity director, confer with Benson Printing Company officials. As yet, no official plans have been made for the book.

Staff members of the publication so far, are: Huston Davis, associate editor; Claudine Box and Ethelyn Cloutier, co-editors of the class session; Ned Mahfouz, sports editor; John Batten and Gervais Aldredge, organizations editors; Louise Vick, feature editor; and Charles Ertell, snapshot editor. Typists and general assistants for the book are Evelyn Pyle, Dorothy Thompson, Earline Ussery, and Katherine man, supervisor of the campus photographic studio.

There are, stated Miss Tilleux, positions on the staff that are unfilled at present. Interested persons may contact any member of the staff for information.

Photographic work for the yearbook will be done by J. C. Till-

130 Seniors Are Candidates For Graduation This Summer

One hundred thirty seniors have applied for graduation at the end of the 1951 summer session. Of the 130 graduates, the School of Education claims 117 of the candidates; the School of Applied Arts and Sciences, 8; and Arts and Science, 5.

From the 117 graduates in the School of Education, primary education majors top the list with 29 graduates. Upper Elementary is next with 26.

The present curriculum breakdown of graduation seniors in all departments is: Business Education, 11; Health and Physical Education, 11; Mathematics 6; Home Economics, 10; Social Science, 7; Medical Technology, 3; Business Administration, 3; Agriculture, 2; Nursing, 2; Music, 2; Chemistry, 2; Industrial Arts, 4; English, 2; Art, 2; Speech, 1;

Aren't "Fourth of Julys" simply wonderful? You wake up at seven o'clock in the morning—yes, yes, seven o'clock, because who can sleep with everyone else up making tuna-fish sandwiches, icing down cokes, frying chicken, and well, just about anything that goes toward getting ready for an all day Fourth of July picnic? From then until about ten o'clock that night when you come dragging in, tired, sleepy and anything but hungry, its one more of a grand day.

Needless to say, Northwestern had a very busy holiday. Nearly everyone celebrated the Fourth with firecrackers and picnics.

On these terribly hot days you'll find the girls here at NSC wearing just about the coolest thing they can find, not only in dresses but in foot-wear as well. Barefoot sandals and tissue-thin dresses seem to be in demand, as well as sun dresses and those old faithful ballerinas.

Jocelyn Townsend has been sporting one of those new sleeveless dresses that are so popular among the girls. It is deep aqua, straight cut, and has small rhinestone buttons down the front. Really looks neat.

Liz Seegers has been wearing a cute little lime green number that not only looks neat, but should be about the coolest thing out.

Sleeveless blouses can't be beat on these hot days. Those seen around the campus wearing them are Lyn Rutledge, Sue Rhodes, Nelda Madden, Virginia Scallan, Barbara Arnold, and Evelyn Pyle.

Two girls wearing thin blouses are Billie Payne and Sue Bellow. Sue has a light blue, sleeveless, sheer blouse that buttons down the back, and Billie has a white organdy blouse with ruffles and more ruffles. They both look nice and cool.

Betty Flo Few and Lelia Lanihan have two very colorful dresses. Betty Flo's is a bright orange and Lelia's red. Really brightens things up around here.

Those wearing the popular shell pumps are Joan DeBate, Louise Sheppard, Glen Ellen Pennington, Janelle Watson, and Zona Morris.

El Resa Maxwell always looks neat in her crisp blouses set off with different colored flowers.

Pat Cameron and Jean Weeks are charming in their peasant blouses and skirts.

Ben Hunter, who graduated from Northwestern in June, was married on Thursday, June 28, to Linda Harkness at the First Presbyterian Church in Minden. The couple will make their home in Minden.

Another couple recently married are Janice Austin and George Bruser, who are now living in Alexandria.

Janell Watson is the proud owner of a sparkling diamond. She and Donald Wyman became engaged about two weeks ago. Both Janell and Don are here this summer.

Carvel Prince was among the visitors on the campus this week. Really glad to see our friends around.

Leland Langridge visited in DeRidder last Saturday.

B. S. U.

The religious Center was crowded with some 60 freshmen and airmen about 7:00 Friday night, when the B. S. U. gave its annual Freshman ice-cream party.

Ladye Jane White, Social Chairman, led the group in such games as lion hunt, feather race and coffee pot. After the games everyone enjoyed lots of strawberry ice-cream.

Mrs. Doris Carruth Stoker, B. S. U. director at Northwestern chaperoned the party. Doris plans to stay on for the rest of the summer. A new director will be appointed in the fall.

Six students were named to the B. S. U. Executive Council for the summer term. These students will take the place of the council members not on the campus for the summer session.

Those named were: John Zenter, Sunday School Rep.; Mary de Schwab, Training Union Rep.; Patsy Smith and Amanda Merrill, Devotional Vice-presidents; Winnie Dowden, Chain Editor and Jackie Walker, Sec. Treasurer.

PHI KAPPA NU

The Phi Kaps found a way to "beat the heat" in their annual Summer Picnic, held at Kisatchie Friday, June 29 from 1:00 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. Nine couples enjoyed swimming, canasta checkers and other games on the beach.

After a swim everyone was ready for the delicious picnic lunch packed by the girls.

Those attending were: Cecil Neilson, Hulston Davis, Charles Ertell, Don Jones, Leland Langridge, Cass Moss, John Brewton, Bobby Leach, Ned Mahfouz, Liz Seegers, Margaret Sloan, Mary Ann Prohaska, Betty Sue Carnford, Jeanette Dowden, Irene Hebert., Winnie Dowden, Marie Tilleux and Freda Woodhatch. Mr. Havard was chaperone.

The Phi Kaps plan more outings of this nature for summer according to Cass Moss, Phi Kap president.

NURSES' PICNIC

Kisatchie Park was the scene of the annual nursing students picnic which was held Saturday afternoon, June 30. The affair was highlighted by swimming and various games such as soft ball and horseshoes.

After the supper was served the group was entertained by the witticisms of Louise Burns and Jack Smith, and a monologue rendered by D. D. Barmore. Also on the program was group singing led by several students who played ukeleles.

Members of the faculty and their families who attended the picnic were, Dr. and Mrs. George Walker and children, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Edwin, Mr. and Mrs. George Gunlach and Chris, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fairchild.

The Natatorium will be open for recreational swimming by students, faculty, and staff this summer from 2 to 4 p. m. daily, and from 7 to 9 p. m. Saturday. Although classes occupy the pool most of the day, during three periods a week the pool will be available to townspeople.

"Stars 'N Bars" Still Boost Spirit of Students' Roost

By WINNIE DOWDEN

No one thought it would last. But loyalty to the "stars and bars" has become more than a fad at Northwestern.

Today the Confederate flag flying over "Rebel Hall" is just as much a part of the school spirit on the campus as the traditional ghost who lives in Caldwell Hall.

It all started back in April when word first came that the air force was moving in. Mrs. David gave instructions for girls to vacate "Co-op Hall" because the boys from South Barracks were moving in. Very tearfully the girls packed and straggled across the campus to be crowded into the four other underclassmen dormitories.

And how did the boys from South Barracks take it?

"A girl's dormitory! Bah!"

said one.

"Co-op Hall!" mocked another in disgust.

"We'll just rebel!"

"That's it! I've got it. We'll be the rebels and make a rebel hall out of 'Co-op'."

And that's how it was. The "rebels" from South Barracks moved into "Co-op" and rechristened it "Rebel Hall".

But the strange part about it is the flag. It seems they got it from a boy from Brooklyn. Every morning punctually at 6:30 the flag boy and color-guard hoist the "Damyantee's" red, white, and blue "Stars and Bars" up over the Rebel Hall. Promptly at 6:00 p. m. the flag is hauled down.

For once the "rebels" were grateful to the "damyankee fly-boys". They just couldn't bear the idea of Rebel Hall being reconverted into "Co-op."

Student Body President Northwestern State College Natchitoches, La.

Dear Sir:

It is with sincere regret that I submit my resignation from the position of Current Sauce editor, effective Saturday, July 7, 1951.

Following the advice of my physician, I am withdrawing from all extracurricular activities due to poor physical condition. Under no other circumstances could I consider relinquishing a position that means as much as does the Current Sauce editorship. An objective consideration has led me to believe that, by attempting to continue my duties in this capacity, I would be doing an injustice both to myself and to the student body.

My three years as a member of the Current Sauce staff have been extremely satisfying and inspirational. A position on a college newspaper staff carries with it much work, but the experience and sense of pride gained from it are more than sufficient rewards.

I am confident that my position can be filled by someone who will be a credit to the office; someone who can contribute far more to the progress of the Current Sauce than I would be able to under existing circumstances.

I would like to express my gratitude to the faculty, and the student body for their splendid cooperation and the aid that they have always given to the Current Sauce staff.

Sincerely,

R-R-R-Ring - Who's To Answer?

"Oh, this telephone makes me so mad that I could just answer it!" stated an irate Varnado student as she toddled past the ringing instrument. Seventy-two rings later all was quiet.

Now, upon this little point we have a lecture. The telephone, as has been noted by many persons (especially the phone companies and indignant male students on the campus) is primarily designed for communication. The Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Coast Guard, and even Senators in Washington use the instrument for such purposes. Now why, pray tell us why, shouldn't the girls in Varnado?

A close examination of the Varnado situation will enable anyone to see the many reasons. With three floors to each section of the dormitory, the telephones had to be placed somewhere, and the logical places were on the second floors. So far, so good. This leaves BLANK,

Keyser Is "Paul of All Trades" As Radio Technician In F. A.

Paul Keyser, radio technician in the Fine Arts Building, has been working with the college for three years. Few people realize that he is capable of doing things that one would associate only with a mastermind. His work here at NSC is remarkably outstanding and worth much recognition. He was a student at NSC for two years and completed his training in commercial radio operation at RCA Institute in Chicago.

After graduating from RCA, Keyser spent 4½ years in the service—all of it with the air-to-ground communication service. His entire time in the service was devoted to radio, radar, and communication service. He was instructor in most of those fields for the majority of the time. He attended a number of schools while in the service, namely, Signal Corps School, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey; Army Air Force School of Applied Tactics, Florida; and Air Force Radar School, Florida.

Keyser did radio service work for six months after he was discharged from the service and then he started his technician work here.

He found the broadcasting equipment in the Fine Arts in poor shape and worked for some time on that. He has now just about placed everything in service that was out of service during the war.

Keyser services all of sound equipment and radio electronic equipment on the campus. He is technician in all college broadcasts, handles sound for public addresses in large auditorium, handles sound in stadium for all athletic events, and handles most of the lighting for campus activities.

Keyser is married and has two children. His wife is a registered nurse and received her training at Schumper Sanitarium, Shreveport. She was 2nd Lieut. in the Army Nurse Corps during the war and did most of her army work in Texas.

This "Jack of all trades" made a custom built hi-fidelity phonograph installation for the music department, to be used in the music library. He bought the parts and built it from there. The record player can be used to play any type recording.

Photography is Keyser's hobby, and though he is busy with radio technology, most of the time he manages to do a little photography, hand-painting included, now and then.

as far as communication is concerned, the first and third floors. This necessitates a constant yodeling (hardly of the Swiss Alps variety) up and down the halls (and out the windows). Possibly you have heard it when passing by, if you don't live there.... "Maaa-RIE! Marie IPPLESwich! Telephone!" But, alas! Marie is downstairs ironing a dress for the date she was to get that night. But she didn't get the phone call, or the date. The inhabitants of Rebel Hall, the infirmary, and the K. K. knew that Marie had a phone call, but poor Marie will never know.

(Does this editorial seem too long? So does the length of time it takes to get results from dialing 33 or 69.)

Now friendship is a fine deal...and a wonderful aid. But, is answering a telephone three times each hour (just because you happen to live by the darn thing), wearing out the best of your vocal cords, or hiking blisters on your feet, worth it? Are the girls on second floor to blame for not answering the telephone when they get nothing for it but a sore throat, sore feet, and not even a "Thank you?"

In other dorms on the campus, at least one person is assigned to the duty of answering the telephone and summoning people when they are requested. Varnado has only the people in the general office, who answer the office phone, and, when asked to, buzz the rooms. This, needless to say, does not solve the problem of the two hall phones, and who is to answer them

We suggest that either extensions be installed on each floor, or that someone be hired to answer the telephones. Either method would adequately solve the problem of "telephone nerves".

Publicity Plus . . . .

Last week we watched over one hundred high school kids file into the Fine Arts auditorium on the campus, feeling just as at home as if it were their own high school. They had none of the looks of anxiety, fear, or apprehension, that come from being in a strange place.

Why? They weren't in a strange place. They were in a place where they could yell at each other, and be yelled at; where they could walk down the hall, and into class sessions where college students and faculty would take time to work with them, to teach them, and to have fun with them.

For two consecutive weeks, from the day those kids walked into Fine Arts building, until the day they packed their gear to leave the campus, they worked. They learned about music, about life, and about NSC, the kind of school it is, all without a grumble or a gripe, and had plenty of fun on the side.

Many of them learned that Northwestern is the type of school that they would like to attend and vowed that, on graduation from high school, this would be their school. They learned these things because the faculty and students with whom they worked were eager and willing to put in long, hard hours to help them.

No pamphlet telling of the virtues of the college, of its friendly atmosphere, of its academic standards, or of its campus beauty, could win a high school student's admiration as well as did the two-weeks spent at Northwestern by those kids.

Platter Spin

Well, this has really been a busy week what with the play coming up next week and a hundred and one things to do here in the office. So let's talk about what's happening in the entertainment world (and whom it's happening to).

Here goes: From Walter Winchell's column: "Keep your ears open for a new comer named Beverly Hudson—out of Santa Monica. Her song dynamics are a blend of Judy Garland and Ethel Merman.—By the way, Judy is really knocking them over on her European Tour. I think its time that a great gal like Judy gets a break like this.

The lawyers of the George B. Shaw estate, it is rumored, are going to ask Rogers and Hammerstein to put the famous arthur's play, "Pygmalion", to music. It should be a great musical—Heddy Lamar turns "thrush" in her forthcoming movie, "My Favorite Spy"—The fact that Tulluah Bankhead's singing records have sold thousands of copies proves that there are a lot of Tallunatics in the land—Come Fall Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz will replace Horace Heidt's Phillip Morris show over CBS. Maxi Rosenbloom joins the lyrical set playing the role of Big Jule in the National company of "Guys and Dolls", which opens in L. A. July 30.

A hospital in Chicago, reports Music Business, has instituted music with anesthesia. The night before the operation the patient selects the type of music he wishes: bop, hillbilly, western, classical or Dixieland. What is this modern world coming to?

Frank Sinatra's forthcoming picture at Universal is tagged, "Meet Donny Wilson", but Mike Connolly of Variety says the arn parallels Frank's career so closely it should be called, "Meet The Voice". If there were ever any doubts, Frankie proved he's still the big time by jamming them in at his recent N. Y. Paramount engagement.

Connie Haines set for the lead in "Girl Crazy" at L. A.'s Greek Theatre this summer. Carmen Miranda, well mimicked lass turns the tables in her current night club routine with a sock impersonation of Billy Daniels.

Paramount scrapped its "A New Kind of Love" picture when Naurice Chevalier couldn't obtain a visa for entry into U.S. Tony Martin up for the lead in "Skirts Ahoy" at Metro now that Vic Damone has signed a no option deal with the U. S. Army. Kathryn Grayson sails for Europe on the first of July. She'll return in late summer to do MGM's "Lovely To Look At".

Mrs. George Steffen, Hane Powell, expects the baby July 17. This is about all the gossip for this week. Let me hear from you. I will give you the dope on your favorites.

MY PRELICKION FOR THE WEEK: Bob Eberly's recording of "Alone" with "I Made A Promise" on the flip.

EDITORIAL

Not The Placement But The Counseling Is The Trouble

Misunderstandings are regrettable.

Such is the case in the editorial "Four Years of Work! For What?" which appeared three weeks ago in the first summer issue of The Current Sauce.

The point was that more counseling should be given students at NSC, but the impression taken was that the college "owes" the graduate a job.

We regret this misunderstanding and hereby wish to clarify our views, placate ruffled feelings and rumpled nerves. We realize that a college owes nothing to the student except the facilities, a good faculty and a good plant, by means of which the student may receive an education and secure a degree.

We believe that NSC has a wonderful placement system and is doing a fine service for the students. In this placement system the college is going beyond the express purpose of an educational institution.

Many individuals and departments were mildly angered by the editorial mentioned above. We have been informed by many departments of their success in placing students and the central placement bureau points to its success.

For instance, the Industrial Arts department says it had little difficulty in securing positions for its '51 grads. Two have gone into military service, four are working in industry and ten have accepted positions teaching industrial arts. This accounts for all the grads.

We are glad such is the case. It is indeed heartening to find fields where they don't belong and they are in overcrowded fields where positions are unusually hard to get.

A better counseling system is needed. Students should be given the facts in the case. They should know their chances for jobs in the professional world. Also they should be tested to see if they have the personality, aptitude and traits necessary in a certain profession.

New Editors

Dowden, Barmore Sauce Editors For Remainder of Summer Term

Winnie Dowden

Dorothy Barmore and Winnie Dowden were appointed Co-Editors of the Current Sauce for the remainder of the summer session by the Publications Committee which met Tuesday afternoon.

The new editors were appointed by the faculty-student committee subject to approval by the student council. They succeed Louise Harris who has resigned the position.

The committee decided that a new editor will be appointed in September and applications will again be received.

Winnie is a second semester sophomore from Cypress, La. She is a Home Economics major and has served on the Current Sauce staff since the fall semester of 1950. She is a member of the Euthenics club, publicity chairman of the Baptist Student Union and editor of the B. S. U. "Chain".

Dorothy, a Nursing student, hails from Alexandria. She formerly served as Associate editor of the Current Sauce. She is secretary of the Wesley Foundation, program chairman of the Y W C A and a member of Pi Kappa Sigma sorority.

Upon appointment the new editors stated, "We shall endeavor to continue to make the Current Sauce a publication of and for the students of Northwestern."

Watson Receives Ph. D. From T.U.

Dr. Eugene P. Watson, head librarian, recently received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Texas. Dr. Watson received his degree at the close of the Spring semester, June 2, 1951. The title of his dissertation was "The Functional Use of Digressions in Eighteenth Century Epic Poetry."

He graduated from Northwestern State College, receiving his BA in English and in French. In 1934 he received his masters in English from Louisiana State University and his BS in Library Science in 1937 also from LSU.

Three-Act Comedy is Big Hit At Camp Polk and NSC

A Parlor Scene in the "Parlor Story"

For the second time this year, members of the drama department of the college, and students interested in dramatic productions, have turned out an almost professional play for presentation to the NSC student body. "Parlor Story," with Don Carr, head of the speech department, was staged on campus Thursday and Friday nights of this week, and was previewed in Camp Polk the preceding Wednesday night.

The Broadway hit, written by William McCleary, harangued lightly politics and education, the social impact of divorce, and the problem of teen-age children, with a touch of humor that kept the audience either awed or in constant laughter.

The cast, headed by Julie McBroom, speech major and outstanding player in several former productions, and Don Carr, consisted of Gervais Aldredge, Chick Gabbert, Jim Vorhoff, Tom Drewett, Perry Kinard, Luke Petrovitch, Milly Middleton, and E. G. Smith.

Kenneth Isgitt, industrial arts student, took honors for the set of the play; Paul Kyser was advising technician.

Diplomas Given A. F. Students

Diplomas were presented by Captain Whalen at graduation exercises yesterday to the first group of air force boys who have completed their 11 weeks business course here at Northwestern.

Five air force men who received promotions from privates to corporals were: Don Smith, Chicago, Ill., who will next be stationed at Travex Field, Wisconsin; Thomas O'Neill from Bronx, N. Y. to be stationed at Godman Air Force Base, Ky; Milt Heinowitz from Newark, N. J., to be stationed at Holman Field, Minn.; Robert Bolger from Bangor, Penn., to be stationed at Pope Air Force Base, N. C., and Clayton Swenson from Stoughton, Wisconsin, to be stationed at Travex Field, Wisconsin.

College Singers

College Singers Return From Chicago, Tired But Happy

By Polly Hays

On Friday evening at four o'clock, two buses loaded with the tired, but happy group of College Singers rolled back onto the campus of NSC.

Piling out of the buses were sixty-three students and four chaperones, all reporting a delightful trip.

The College Singers, under the direction of Donald Glatly, left Saturday, June 30, for Chicago to sing at the Elks Memorial Service held on Wednesday, July 4. While there, they also sang in the lobby of the Stevens Hotel where they were registered for the duration of their visit.

"We were warmly received wherever we went", reports Sally Jo Foster. "It seemed as if the people just couldn't do enough for us to make us feel at home. It was wonderful!"

The Singers didn't have a bit of trouble finding something to keep them occupied when they weren't singing, for there were so many places to go and so many things to see it was difficult for them to make up their minds what to see first, because they couldn't hope to see everything in only three days.

Some of the places visited were the museum, the aquarium, the zoo, Buckingham Fountain (especially beautiful at night) and the Board of Trade Building with its 45th floor of observation.

Many of the Singers took tours of the city and rode on the subway, while others, including Coach Prather, attended a baseball game.

While there they saw such celebrities as Bob Crosby, Ethel Waters, and Louis Armstrong.

One of the things that particularly appealed to the girls was the shopping spree in the Marshall Fields department store where they were entertained by television.

On Wednesday morning the Singers were breakfast guests of the Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi Clks Clubs in the

AWS Conference Convenes Today

Ten members of the Associated Women's Student's council are attending the annual summer conference held at Mr. Fulton's camp on Black Lake today. They left at 10 o'clock this morning for the all day conference. The purpose of this conference is to plan AWS activities for next year.

Pat Marmande, AWS President and Delores Sutherland, Corresponding secretary arrived on the campus Thursday to make preparations for today.

Those attending the conference are Pat Marmande, AWS president, Delores Sutherland, Corresponding secretary; Claudine Box, treasurer; Clyde Beacham and Rose McRight, council members; Eddy Jean Elliot, Berta Adams, Ladye Jane White, Thelma Ruth Stephens, and Bea Rumsey, Sophomore councilors; Mary Clark, sophomore councilor advisor and Louise Vick, representing Marie Tilleux as social chairman.

Society

The college singers, who have been the subject of all conversation for some time now, arrived back on the campus early Friday afternoon tired, sleepy, and thirsty. Despite all that, the first place they went was—you guessed it—the field house. Here such things as "Oh, what a wonderful time we had," and "Wish I could go back sometime soon," were heard. From all accounts the college singers had a grand time on their trip to Chicago.

Julia Chambers and Buddy Hildebrand were married last Saturday night.

Two girls who have been wearing frat pins around the campus are Kathryn Dheil and Dot Hewitt. Kathryn is pinned to Carl Pharr and Dot to Hamilton Prestidge.

A couple recently engaged is Dorothy Nesbitt and Artie Ranew. Wedding bells will ring the latter part of August.

Among the many visitors on the campus this week were Pat Leone, Mary Lou Hines, Joe Macaluso, and Bustor Keaton.

Marie Tilleux, Cas Moss, and Mr. J. C. Merrill will leave today for Nashville, Tennessee where they plan to learn the whys and wherefores of turning out a good annual. This should prove to be a fine trip.

Jean Weeks, who has been away due to illness, will be back with us this weekend. Really glad to have you back, Jean.

The first group of Air Force men will leave today. Here's wishing them lots of good luck.

One of our Alpha Sig girls who visited friends on the campus during the week was Peggy Sandifer.

Besides the usual sandwich selling, the Delta Sigs are planning a big cake walk to be given down town August 4.

The Tri Sigs sold cool, refreshing lemonade in all the dormitories Monday night. It was most welcomed after two long hours of.....study (?????). Billy Payne, Sunshine Flemming and Mary Ann Cronin are sporting their new pins, which arrived last week.

The Pi Kaps have been busy all week long getting out old dresses, shoes that just won't fit, outdated hats, and just about anything they can find to contribute to the big rummage sale they are having today. Sounds like lots of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Stevenson announce the engagement of their daughter, Marguerite, to George Hall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall of Sulphur, La.

Marguerite graduated from North La. Sanitarium School of Nursing in Shreveport and receives her B. S. degree in nursing in August.

George, former student of L. S. U. Medical School, is now employed at Union Sulphur Company, Sulphur. He is a Lieutenant in the Reserve Naval Air Corp.

The wedding will be in Athens Baptist Church 7 p. m., August 31 with Rev. A. T. Pilgreen officiating.

NOTICE

NOTICE: A talent show will be sponsored by Recreation class 403 in the Fine Arts Auditorium at 7:00, Tuesday, July 17.

MARIE TILLEUX, new editor of The Potpourri, above, Cass Moss, business manager, and John C. Merrill, Jr., faculty adviser leave today for a four-day stay in Nashville. They will confer with representatives of Benson Printing Company on the 1951-52 annual.

93 State Schools Represented In Lunchroom Meet

One hundred and three lunchroom workers from 11 parishes and 93 schools attended a School Lunch Workshop held on the campus July 9-13, and sponsored by the Louisiana State Department of Education.

Miss Everlyn Terrell, State Supervisor, School Lunch Section of the State Department of Education, headed the session.

Parishes represented are Rapides, Winn, Natchitoches, Sabine, Caddo, Grant, Bossier, Vernon, Red River, DeSoto, and LaSalle.

Mrs. Marie Dunn and Mrs. Eola P. Rooks, faculty members of Northwestern Home Ec. Department and Miss Caroline Dryer, dietitian of Northwestern acted as consultants during the school.

On Tuesday night a Get Acquainted Party, sponsored by the Physical Education department was held for the lunch room workers.

The ladies commented that they certainly enjoyed being on the campus because they met boys and girls everywhere who always spoke.

Caspari Leads Softball League

The summer softball league is becoming as hot as the weather, with Caspari Hall at present in the lead.

Thursday July 12 saw action between the Brick Shack and Flight "B"; and Phi Kappa Nu tangled with the Caspari Dogs, Tuesday, July 17 will find Flight "A" vs. Flight "B" and Caspari Hall against Phi Kappa Nu.

A pleasant change in weather was very evident in Chicago. Says S. J. Westbrook, the only freshman to make the trip, "It didn't even get warm enough for us to go swimming."

The song "Loozean", written by Donald Glattly, appeared to be the biggest hit and afford the most applause when sung in the lobby of the Stevens. "Little David Play on Your Harp," was another favorite. The six numbers rendered at the Memorial Service on Wednesday morning were also greatly appreciated.

The Singers left Chicago at 12:45 Thursday, and arrived here Friday afternoon. This concludes a memorable visit to the "Windy City".

Fifty-Seven Interning Nurses To Graduate In Fall Term, 1952

The next graduating class from the school of nursing on the campus will complete their requirements to take the State Board Examination by September of 1952, according to Graham Price, head of the department of nursing.

At present, Northwestern has 57 students studying in the six affiliated hospitals in Louisiana. Eleven student nurses are at the Baptist Hospital in Alexandria, seven are at North Louisiana Sanitarium, Shreveport, nine at Highland Sanitarium, Shreveport, twenty one at Shreveport Charity Hospital, seven at Tri State Hospital, Shreveport, and two at E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital, Monroe.

In the Shreveport area, NSC student nurses are studying public health and advanced medical surgical nursing. Students in Alexandria, are pursuing courses in pediatrics and obstetrics.

Vacations for this group of nurses will be of two weeks duration, beginning August 11. According to Miss Price, an enrollment of approximately 150 students is expected for the September nursing class.

Puppet Show To Be Held July 18

"Rip Van Winkle", a Ventriloquist act, and Dance of the Clowns will be the feature attractions of the twenty-two character puppet show to be given Wednesday, July 18, at 9:00 a. m. at the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Watchmaker Class Hours Changed At Trade School

Hours of the class in watchmaking at Natchitoches Trade School will be changed July 16 to suit the many requests from local people. The new hours are three p. m. to nine p. m.

Classes are either three or six hours long, depending on the individual. J. F. Ricketts, an expert watch maker, is instructor.

A AVERAGE

Nineteen students at Northwestern State College completed their work in the spring semester with a straight "A" average, President H. Lee Prather has announced.

Natchitoches students on the list were: Jack L. Jordan, Mrs. K. R. Hayes, Mrs. Rita Kendrick, Mrs. Mary Weller and Lolan Earl Nunley.

W. C. Fields In . . .

"You Can't Cheat an Honest Man", the fourth in a series of summer films will be shown in the Fine Arts Auditorium, Thursday, July 19, according to Dr. Havard of the Department of Social Science.

W. C. Fields, noted vaudeville comedian is starred in the production. Fields was born in Pennsylvania in 1879 and has traveled with stage productions all over the world. Fame came to him in 1915 with his performance in Ziegfield "Follies". However, he did his greatest work from 1938-1942.

"You Can't Cheat an Honest Man" is a fine example of old time vaudeville.

The film will begin at 7:45 p. m. and admission will be 25 cents.

25 In Arts and Crafts Workshop Being Held on NSC Campus

Twenty-five people are enrolled in the Industrial Arts Workshop which began July 2 and ends July 20. The Workshop, a cooperative undertaking of the Industrial Arts Department and the Home Economics Department, was organized by Dr. Walter J. Robinson, head of the Industrial Arts Department, and Ruby Dunckleman, associate professor of the Home Economic Department. The workshop carries three hours of college credit. Classes are from 1 to 5 p. m., Monday through Friday.

Assisting the professors in the workshop group are Kenneth Isgitt and James Yule, students of Industrial Arts, and Marilyn Snoddy Beth Buckley, and Evelyn Gandy, home economic majors.

Enrollees are from a wide area in Louisiana and Arkansas. Among the people participating in the workshop are teachers in the field of Industrial Arts, elementary and high school teachers, home economic teachers and people doing the work as a hobby.

Some of the areas of work included are leather and art metal work, reed and raffie work jewelry making, plastic craft, cork craft, weaving, and etching. Those people who were interviewed expressed the opinion that the workshop is very enjoyable and is a wonderful opportunity to learn handicraft.

NEWMAN CLUB

Members of the Newman Club were guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Pierson at a social given at the Pierson home Friday.

The party included dancing on the patio, which overlooks Cane River Lake, and various games were played in the playroom of the spacious home. Refreshments were served throughout the party.

US Reds Might Not Be Happy In USSR

By J. D. Caldwell

Recently, several famous Americans have admitted being members of the Communist party. Actors, government workers and noted businessmen are included. A glimpse inside Russia at the meaning of Communist might cause them to realize their mistake.

During the war, I spent two months in Russia. My ship (a merchant vessel) was docked in Molotovsk, three miles from Archangel. We stayed there during December and January.

The Russian government made every attempt possible to block the possibility of our learning anything except what they wanted us to learn, but we still saw enough to satisfy ourselves that Russia was no place for us.

We were allowed to eat, sleep and drink at only one place, called the "American Entourist Club." Here, food and drink was cheap, attractive hostesses who spoke perfect English were always handy. All this cost us about 30 cents a day, and everything was all right as long as we didn't leave the club and try to become too familiar with the workers or go into their homes.

The purpose of this club was to make us believe that food and good cheer were in the same abundance all over Russia. The Club failed in its purpose. While the Soviet government was stuffing American bellies, the Russian workers and their families were on starvation rations.

All the children had exactly the same kind of clothes, issued by the government. It gets cold in Russia in December and January and the clothes worn by the children were thin and worn. Every man, woman and child were assigned a job by the government. They either did this job or were severely punished. (My information on this statement came from dock workers, and from some children I became friendly with who worked in a slaughter house. These children's ages ranged from 12 to 15.)

The women drove trucks, dug ditches, butchered cows, and did almost anything else that needed to be done.

Not one person I met had any time to call his own. The government had him on a string like a puppet. His activities were figured out for months to come.

I wonder how some of our big shots who have joined the Communist Party and take orders from the Politburo in Moscow would react if they could visit Russia and see a few of these things? Probably not much reaction I suppose, since they indicate by their allegiance to the Commie ideals that they have no consciousness of value.

Platter Spin

by PERRY KINARD

Well, after this week, I will have a little more time to discuss the latest records. So, this week I will give you a little more "dirt" on the latest gossip over the country.

So, let's get started. Tune Pan Alley insiders (on both coasts) are excited about the big new tune you'll be hearing shortly, "In the Cool, Cool, Cool of the Evening", by Hoagy Carmichael and Johnny Mercer. Said to be the catchiest, cleverest lyrics of '51, it's from Bing Crosby's forthcoming picture, "Here Comes the Groom." The Met set's top chatter concerns the new baritone discovery, Randolph Symonette, "greatest voice since Kipnis", according to the co-re-mi-ta crowd... MGM is grooming Lionel Hampton's crew as its new dance band pet. His next melody is "A Kiss is Just a Kiss"....

Readers back from South America report that Radio Moscow uses a powerful gimmick to drown out our Voice of America. They play Mario Lanza's score from "The Great Caruso"—and tell listeners the program is coming "direct from Radio City in New York", which it doesn't. Midway in the program of platters Radio Moscow turns on the propaganda... Top angles for "Let Me Be Guilty" will be Billy Rose who tried to buy it all. It'll be the first drama to open the 1951-52 season... George Shearing's platter of "September in the Rain" has an MGM order for 500,000... Time Magazine last week described Denna Durbin as a "one-time cinema songstress". She was only Hollywood's top meal ticket for decades.

You will love the feathery dace routines footed by Marge Champion in the soon due "Showboat" film... Oscar Levant, who made a career of sassing folks, is now affectionately described as the "Snarling Darling". The latest feud is with Hal Black, the gag-writer... Lamour turned down $100,000 for one night stand tour for Hada-col. A ticklist turndown. Her husband, Bill Howard, is one of Hada-col's representatives. The excitement in London over Mary Martin in "South Pacific" is at fever pitch. They won't be disappointed... Doretta Marrow the lovely slave in "The King and I" is all set for Mario Lanza's picture, "The Big Cast". Doretta was born in Brooklyn of Italian parents. She played in "The Red Mill", "The Chocolate Soldier", and "Where's Charley?" on Broadway.

Well, I guess this is enough dirt for this week. Let me hear from you by letter, card, carrier pigeon, or what have you, about your favorites, and I will let you know what I can find about them.

NSC Singers - A Difference

What's all this talk about the College Singers? So they went to Chicago, had a big trip and a good time... so what? Just questions but quite important.

Anyone who heard the group sing realizes why there's talk about them. There's something about their performance that makes them different from the average choral group. In fact, there's a great deal that makes them different.

Small wonder they were so popular in Chicago. We hear that other choral organizations were amazed to see such exuberance, such team spirit such "esprit de corps" as was exhibited by the Northwestern Singers.

NSC Singers under the superb direction of Donald Glatly do not just sing. They become a part of their singing; they sing with their actions as well as their voices. They enjoy their singing. So do the listeners. Their enthusiasm is refreshing in a day when one sees so little enthusiasm. They sing for the love of the singing. Endeavor of this kind always produces the best results.

If any group deserves a pat on the back, it's the College Singers. From them Chicagoans got an impression of Louisiana and the quality of work done at Northwestern. No amount of printed or spoken publicity could have done so well as the singers. They spoke out (rather sang out) the college's praise as they went through their musical routines. The music was refreshing. They and their leadership have done and are doing a fine job. They deserve more praise and more attention.

The Other Half by Beryl DeLoach

If it were judged on the basis of soundness, coherence and intellectual content, this column would not get past the average editor—it would be filed away neatly in an overflowing wastepaper basket. I had better tell you what you are going to be digesting in this tidy little column—not that I expect you to read it (confidently, I don't, I only write the stuff).

It seems by some odd coincidence, that there are other schools in existence besides NSC, and it shall be my purpose to bring you the news and views of the students from these other colleges and universities.

It seems we aren't the only ones who have gripes about our eating facilities. The students at LSU complain about the long lines they must stand in to eat at Hatcher Hall Cafeteria. The Reveille says, "Many people are finding it necessary to spend as much as twenty minutes of their lunch hours getting into the cafeteria." At least they have something to stand in line for.

A Kansas College has found one way of financing its student union; they've installed pinball machines.

From the Muhlenberg Weekly, Muhlenberg College, Pa.—"Thirty musicians on the bandstand and approximately thirty students in the audience? Surely, surely, we can do better than that." The editor's note was: "Well, we could have fifty musicians on the bandstand." Sounds suspiciously like the Field House dances to me.

NORTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

JULY 21, 1951

NUMBER 24

School of Education Claims 825 Of 1225 Summer Term Enrollment

The summer enrollment at Northwestern reached 1225 on July 5 when the last student registered for a short course. This figure is just 15 short of the 1240 enrolled last summer.

Of the 1225 students the School of Education claims well over two-thirds with a total of 825 students. Of this figure 315 are enrolled in elementary education, leaving 510 in secondary education. Applied Arts and Sciences has the second largest enrollment with 284 students. Almost 200 of the students in this school are nursing majors. The School of Arts and Sciences is last with 116 enrollees.

The trend in the number enrolled in each class seems to be much the same as it was last summer with the exception of male students. There are 461 male students enrolled compared to the 546 of last summer. Despite the smaller number of total male students enrolled however, there are more freshmen men than women. There are 93 freshmen men students and 89 freshmen women as compared with the 67 men and 85 women of last summer.

There has been an increase in the total number of women students enrolled from 690, the figure for last summer, to 764, this summer's enrollment.

The present curriculum breakdown for each department for the summer is as follows:

Arts, 5; Accounting 21; Agriculture 34; Aviation 7; Business Administration 31; Business Education 79; Biology 12; Chemistry 19; English 12; Foreign Languages 3; General 17; Health and Ph. Ed. 63; Home Economics 60; Journalism 2; Library Science 15; Math 29; Music 51; Physics 3; Med-Tech 25; Pre Law 1; Pre-Med 9; Pre-Eng 6; Pre-Ministerial 1; Pre-Dental 3; Nursing 185; Primary 156; Secretarial 17; Social & Post graduate 69; Upper Elementary 159; Industrial Arts 41; Vocational Industrial Education 22.

A breakdown by classes shows that there are 240 Freshmen, 283 sophomores, 182 juniors, 346 seniors and 174 special students enrolled.

Fifth In Series To Be Shown

"Daybreak in Udi" a British documentary film will be shown in the Fine Arts Auditorium Thursday evening, July 26.

The film relates the dawn of many good things in parts of British West Africa. Having won the Academy Award for Documentary films in 1949, this movie is regarded as a high quality production.

This production, one of the regularly scheduled films of the NSC film committee, will be shown free of charge. The college film program is not operated on a profit basis, but on the basis of giving a maximum of satisfaction to the students and faculty and it feels that this movie can be shown without charging admission.

NSC Telephones On The Blink

Every telephone at Northwestern was out of commission for two days last week. The telephones could receive incoming calls from off the campus, but no outside or inter-campus calls could be made.

Belle telephone workers discovered the break in the communication line late Wednesday evening in front of the Religious Center in the line running parallel to the street.

When the breach was discovered, the concrete, tar and gravel had to be removed from the defected line. Because of the labor problem the work was somewhat delayed.

Thursday morning the damaged line was uncovered and repairs were begun. The damage was caused by electrolysis of the telephone wires the telephone work stated. This has happened several times before at Northwestern. The electrolysis is caused by the electrical wires which run under ground from the college power plant.

Art Professor Is Puppet Enthusiast

John McCollough, professor of art at the University of Wisconsin, is serving as assistant professor of art here for the summer session.

McCollough received his B. S. from George Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee. He then received his M. A. from Columbia University and has also fulfilled all requirements for the doctorate at Columbia and New York University except his dissertation.

McCollough has had 23 years of teaching experience in various colleges and universities and will return to the University of Wisconsin next fall.

McCollough, who is very much interested in puppets, has been working with them for many years. He owned his first puppet when he was four years old. It was a very simple puppet with moveable joints which his father had made for him. When he was nine years old, a medicine show came through his home town with two ventriloquism puppets. This greatly aroused his interest in ventriloquism. Shortly afterward, he made a puppet and began to entertain his young friends.

In 1940 while McCollough was working on his doctorate at Columbia, he made his present puppet. He "hung his shingle" in New York City and began to give shows. Since that time he has been giving shows often to the same type of group.

Puppet Show Presented at NSC By Art Department Students

Mr. McCollough and his favorite dummy

A puppet show under the direction of Mr. John McCollough, Art teacher at Northwestern for the summer, was given in the Fine Arts Auditorium, Wednesday, July 18 at 9:00 a. m.

The preliminary act to the main show featured two dancing puppets and was called the "Dance of the Clowns".

The main show presented the Story of "Rip Van Winkle". During the twenty year period when Van Winkle was sleeping, the audience was entertained by a funny little puppet-man who played professionally on a miniature piano.

The show was sponsored and presented by the Art 304 class as a student project in correlation. They demonstrated how puppets working with lighting, sound effects, public speaking, expression, scenery painting and staging.

The proceeds from the puppet show went to the Beautification Benefit. This project was inspired by Mrs. Olive Cooper, Head of the Art Department.

Social Studies Quota Reached For Tour of Eastern States

Reservations still possible

One bus has been filled for the Social Studies tour of the eastern United States. Another bus has been scheduled for the trip and reservations are still being accepted from those wishing to tour on a tentative basis.

The buses will be air conditioned and will also be equipped with loudspeaking systems. These provisions will add to the general comfort of all members aboard during the approximately 5,000 miles of travel.

The tour is scheduled to leave the Northwestern Campus at 8 a. m. August 14. Two pick-up stops are arranged at Monroe and Vicksburg, Miss.

Places of interest and study in the trip itinerary will include Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, Columbia University and others. Members of the tour are slated to return on September 3.

According to Dr. John S. Kyser, enthusiasm in the trip, which will carry three hours of college credit to the participants, is running high. It is his opinion and the opinion of others in the Social Science department that the enthusiasm should be high because of the interesting aspects of the tour and the reasonable cost at which it is being offered.

AWS Councilors Plan Activities

The AWS conference, held the weekend of July 13-14th, proved to be a success in many ways. The first meeting was launched with a supper given in Mrs. Perle David's apartment Friday night. After the supper, the girls, with Mrs. David's assistance, worked for three hours, on various problems confronting the organization.

Saturday morning, Dean Dudley C. Fulton drove the group to a lodge on Black Lake. The girls then continued their work by making plans for this coming fall. Included in these plans were the Christmas party and the leadership conference. The girls discussed, with much enthusiasm, several suggestions made by Mrs. David. Among these suggestions were a "Date Bureau" for this fall, and a new way to conduct Freshmen Orientation classes by letting upper-classmen help in the teaching, in order to give freshmen students first hand information about our college life.

After a morning of hard work and planning, the girls had dinner and ice-cold watermelon. After dinner, the more energetic girls, explored the woods and lake. At five o'clock, Saturday afternoon, the returned to the campus. Mrs. David said that the meeting was "very good and much was accomplished."

22 AF Students Receive Diplomas

The second class of the A F Clerk Typists School on the NSC campus graduated yesterday at 11 a. m. These 22 graduates will leave the campus sometime Saturday morning enroute to their new bases with furloughs granted to the men before they start their new assignments.

Receiving the highest scholastic average of 4.6 in this group was Pfc. Rodney O'Connor of Elba, New York. Pfc. O'Connor chose to be stationed at Mitchel Air Force Base in Roslyn New York.

Promotions to corporals were awarded to Pfc. Jack C. Chinouth, Johnson City, Tenn.; Pfc. Peter D. Quinzi, East Rochester, N. Y.; Pfc. Robert F. Bradley, Chester, Pa.; and Pfc. David I. McHose of Rochester, N. Y. These promotions were given on the basis of academic rating and leadership ability. The four men will be stationed at Godman A F Base, Fort Knox, Ky.; Macdill Base, Tampa, Florida, and Andrews A F Base, Silver Springs, Maryland respectively.

POP CONCERT

There will be an outdoor Pop Concert presented by the Northwestern State College Summer Band Wednesday evening, July 25 at 6:45 in the Fine Arts Court under the direction of Joseph Carlucci. The Band will feature a program of popular songs and Sousa marches. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Society

Yes, it's dreadfully warm; isn't it? So warm in fact, that the only persons who seem to have any energy left is our dear little friend cupid, and oh, how busy he has been lately.

Martha Lou Craft and Johnny Zenter will take that all important step sometime in September, and will make their home in Natchitoches. Martha Lou is now in California.

August 22 will be "The Day" for Sarah Richardson and Glenn Owers. Sarah is a student of Northwestern and a Home Economics major, and Glenn, a former student of NSC, is now in the army.

Alva Mae Brumfield and Billy Higdon, both of Coushatta, were married in San Diego in June.

Wedding bells rang recently for Joy Nell Buller and Jerry Wise. Jerry is now Editor of the South-west Citizen at Sulphur.

Ruby Morgan and Cedric Lindsey are among the newly weds. They were married in Martin, Louisiana, June 17 and are now living in Shreveport.

Archie Singletary and Marianne Rains were married in Shreveport around the first of June.

Loita Martin, graduate of Northwestern, was married May 12 to Roy Hataway at Vivian, La. After honeymooning in New Orleans they made their bow in Mobeetie, Texas.

Another wedding was that of Mary McLeod and Odelle Moore, both former students of Northwestern. The couple honeymooned in Mexico, and are now living in Shreveport.

Chris Rosier has been flashing a new diamond—on her left hand too. She became engaged about two weeks ago to Earl Ray Sandifer, a recent graduate of La. College.

The Sibleys, formerly Sue Gilmore and Tyrus Sibley, are expecting the stork in November. They are living in San Diego.

The campus was busy this week with visitors. Among them were Jo Ann Brantly, Anne Freeze, Mary Lou Hines, Patsy Winker, Carolyn Fultz, and Bobbie Platt, who came down to visit all the Phi Kappas.

The Theta Sig girls, Linda Mason and Darlene Pharr, are week-end visitors.

Other visitors are Johnny Nash, Tillie Cookston, who visited from La. Tech, and Joe Barkate from Sulphur.

Rodger Teekell of Hineston, La., a former student of Northwestern and graduate of LSU, was graduated as top man in the first class to graduate from the 3464th Air Force Clerk Typist school. As honor man, he will be stationed at the post of his choice. His picture was published in "The Mirror", official publication of Colorado State College of Education at Greeley.

Faculty Members Attend Ed. Meet

Dr. John B. Robson and Dr. Leo Allbritten of the Education Department of Northwestern State College attended the Louisiana Conference on Education Administration which convened at Louisiana State University July 16-21. This conference was sponsored jointly by the State Department of Education and the Kellogg-Peabody Foundation.

Representative school board members, parish superintendents, supervisors, visiting teachers, principals, classroom teachers and college professors of education and members of the State Department of Education were selected by the Advisory Committee to attend this conference. The purpose of the conference was to plan a long-range program of improvement in public school administration for Louisiana.

Dr. Robson and several other Deans of Education were asked to act as consultants for the various topics of study included in the conference. These topics included development of educational policies, administrative responsibilities, administrative competencies and procedures needed in program development and public relations.

D. Leo Arbriten of NSC addressed the general assembly Friday, July 20. The title of his address was "The Administrator's Responsibility for the In-Service ### Training of Teachers"

While attending the conference, the educators were housed in Pleasant Hall, the oldest dormitory on the campus which has been set aside for meetings such as these.

NSC Watermelon Fest To Be Held

The annual NSC watermelon party will be held Tuesday afternoon, July 24. The party, sponsored by the school, directed by Mrs. Melba O'Quinn's Recreation 403 class will be held at 6:30 on the green adjoining the Industrial Arts building.

Included in the program, besides plenty of watermelon is a community singing which will be led by Mr. Sherrod Towns.

A cordial invitation is extended to all students, members of the faculty and staff for the occasion.

NOTICE

The talent shows sponsored by the Recreation 403 class which was scheduled to be held July 31, has been postponed indefinitely.

Glattly Feted At Surprise Party

Donald Glattly, Choral Director at Northwestern, was honored at a surprise party given his by the College Singers Thursday, July 19.

Mr. Towns, Head of the Music Department, helped the scheming Singers by calling Mr. Glattly to a non-existent Artist Series meeting in the Yellow Room of the Fine Arts Building at 3:00. The unsuspecting choral director walking into the room was greeted by the Singers with a burst of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow".

Burt Boone, president of the College Singers, acting as spokesman for the group presented Mr. Glattly with a pen and pencil set and an engraved wallet.

After the presentation of the gift the Singers and Mr. Glattly enjoyed cookies and cokes while reminiscing in an informal "gab" session.

NOTICE

All students who have been teaching or expect to teach history in the high schools of Louisiana during the fall are requested to give their names and addresses—on the campus and at school—to Miss Ella Mae Pourciau, secretary of the Department of Social Sciences, office in the library near the reserve reading room, within the next few days. (If this is inconvenient, please give the information to any member of the department of Social Sciences.) The purpose is to consult with you about a possible project in history in Louisiana next year.

Dr. Duffy Is Recipient of Fellowship Award

Dr. John Duffy, Associate Professor of History in Northwestern State College, has recently been awarded a faculty fellowship from the Fund For The Advancement Of Education in New York. Dr. Duffy is one of about 500 college teachers throughout the United States to be awarded this distinctive honor. The award covers the long session of nine months beginning in September.

During his leave of absence from Northwestern State College, Dr. Duffy plans to do independent study and research at Harvard University. One of his projects involves a thorough study of the content and methods of beginning college courses in social science throughout the United States. He hopes to help define, at least to some extent, the social science contribution to general education.

At the same time Dr. Duffy plans to continue his studies of early colonial diseases. His contributions to this topic have already been extensive.

The generous fellowship program will be of great benefit both to the individual recipient and to American Higher Education. Those who receive the fellowship will prepare themselves for more effective service, and the colleges will receive some financial relief during a time when retrenchment is necessary.

Caspari Defeats Phi Kaps 1-0

Caspari defeated Phi Kappa Nu 1-0 to maintain its slim lead in Intramural Softball league, while the Brick Shack took a forfeit from Flight "B". Phi Kappa Nu swept a contest from the Caspari Dogs 7-1.

The schedule for the remainder of the league play finds Caspari vs. Flight "B" and the Brick Shack against the Caspari Dogs on the 19, and a single game between Phi Kappa Nu and Flight "A" set for the 24.

Present Standings:

	W	L	GB
Caspari	4	0
Brick Shack	2	2	2
Caspari Dogs	1	3	3
Flight "A"	1	3	3
Flight "B"	0	4	4

A two out of three play off for the pennant will start Thursday July 26, probably between Caspari and Phi Kappa Nu.

Charles Sandefur pitched a no-hitter as the Natchitoches Braves, eighth district champions, took the opener of a two out of three series from Opelousas, 4-0. The Braves are coached by "Cracker" Brown, NSC Baseball coach and include "Dog" John and Peyton Cunningham in the lineup. This is the second consecutive no-hitter for the Braves, Ted Lilly having done the trick last week against Colfax.

NOTICE

The talent shows sponsored by the Recreation 403 class which was scheduled to be held July 31, has been postponed indefinitely.

Steel Payroll

Iron and steel payrolls in the past decade have risen more rapidly than employment. The number of wage earners in the past two years has been approximately one-quarter larger than in 1939, rising from about 400,000 to 500,000. The payroll for these workers has more than doubled, however, climbing from $650,000,000 to above $1.6 billion.

A Tradition To Keep

It's situated on an ideal site. Nowhere on the whole campus could a better spot have been found to erect the college watertank. The grounds slope gently away from it on all sides and it proudly lifts its head above the dark, stately pines.

It is not an unusual water tank, but it is very graceful and balanced. It just seems to fit. The mind of an engineering genius must have been necessary to plan all of its symmetrical line.

But it is not the water tank itself that is so unusual. You'll find water tanks on all college campuses. The huge "N" outlined in neon is what makes the tank at Northwestern outstanding. Few campuses can boast a feature so unique.

In 1936 when the water tank was erected the "N" was outlined in light bulbs. But with the rise of the modern generation this became outmoded. This is the day of neons. So about four years ago the bulbs were unscrewed and an ultra-modern neon light was installed. Once again life went on at Northwestern under "the guiding light" of the old "N".

Many lonely, heartsick freshmen have looked out at the friendly light of the "N" during their first dreary nights and somehow life seemed less desolate under its benevolent and friendly rays. The "N" is a tradition at Northwestern—as traditional as the three columns.

The shining rays of the sun upon the silver "N" render it no less than a work of art. It gives a sense of pride and a feeling of belonging at Northwestern. But, now, with the dying of the sun, the "N" fades into oblivion.

For alas! There is just one thing wrong with the neon light over the water tank. It doesn't work.

Oh it did shine once upon a time. Then something happened and half of the light went out. It hung limply on one leg for a while, but soon gave it up as a lost cause and blinked out, leaving the water tank in darkness.

Can't something be done to make the old "N" work? We miss its inspiring light. We want once again to look toward the water tank with pride at this symbol of our college life. This is a tradition we don't want to die. Why, if we are not going to get the old "N" lighted up again, we might as well make friends with Tech.

Good Housekeeping

As anyone knows who has seen professor Morrison supervise Albert in his "clean-up" operations in the business building, here is a man proud of his new domain. The feverish, squirrel-like intensity of these "field-days" has been the starting point of many a joke, but anyone will tell you that even the jokesters were proud.

Things, as well as time, have changed. War-time needs and government contracts have swamped the campus, especially the Business building, with the "saviors of democracy" the Air Force.

With typical military disdain for other's quarters, practically caused by inadequate and poorly placed receptacles, they have made themselves the boll-weevil in Morrison's cotton.

Still worse, the students have gleefully, and with lamb-like abandon, oped the military. Now it is a toss-up as to who can more off-handedly flip his cig down the halls.

Certainly this moral crime should be made illegal and punishable by at least a week of hanging by the thumbs.

Seriously, let's all make the small effort it takes to act like responsible adults. Let's each, the students and the military try to set a good example for the other.

D. T.

The Other Half by Beryl DeLoach

Well, here I am back again, but for the life of me I can't understand why! Whoever requested this column each week must surely be a glutton for punishment.

This is the kind of day which calls for a wry sense of humor—or were you here last week-end to enjoy the glorious solitude that usually reigns over the campus on these summer school week-ends?

I noticed an ad the "Daily Californian" that went something like this: "Moths don't like it; water won't shrink it; what is it? A hippopotamus you say? Well, maybe, but we were thinking of nylon socks, $1.25 the pair." I wonder how much they are a dozen. The socks, you ask? The hippopotamuses I say.

As long as we are on the subject of ads, in the LSU "Reville" there is one advertising, "a top sirloin steak with french fries and salad—only 85 cents." Reminds me of that old joke, "I'd walk a mile for a steak." But Tigertown is a purty fur piece."

The United Press reports that the South Carolina senate recently appropriated an extra 50 cents to the Citadel Military college at

Faculty Members Attend Classes

Nine Northwestern faculty and staff members have enrolled in classes at the college for the summer term. Most of these are enrolled under the G. I. Bill in order to keep the G. I. enrollment up.

Life at Northwestern could never have been considered too formal and restraining. And this summer it is even less so. One just can't feel "ill at ease" in a teacher's class room when the next period he sits beside the faculty member as a fellow student and comrade.

The faculty enrollees give inspiration to the students and instill in them a desire and incentive to really put something into classwork. The students like this set-up. It gives them opportunity to see their professors as people and not just teachers.

And the faculty—Why they are just having the time of their lives. To quote Mr. Marx, "Enjoying being back to school and learning more. Having to work hard to keep up with the rest of my class."

Mr. Nesom thinks it's a "very wholesome experience for faculty members to continue study. A formal class is sometimes the only way a person who is busy can take time out and do study. I'm learning very much from visual education."

Charleston. The senate gave the college the additional four bits which had been omitted in the original appropriations bill

SUGGESTIONS APPRECIATED

Do you like the "Current Sauce?" Just what would you do if you were Editor? What is your pet peeve about your college paper? Or do you like anything about it? Do you ever read it?

Whatever your ideas are on the subject, why not let us know. Address your letters to box 463 or just drop them by the "Sauce" office.

It's your paper. All suggestions will be appreciated.

Forest Rehabilitation

The greatest forest rehabilitation project ever undertaken by either state or federal government has been initiated by the state of Oregon with a $10,000,000, 10 to 15 year planting and improvement program starting in the huge Tillamook burn.

Mr. Town's opinion was that: "It would be a lot easier if it wouldn't happen at seven o'clock in the morning."

Miss Mouton said, "I am having the time of my life!" When asked if she had much competition she laughed and said that even though she made the highest grade on her Spanish test, she was still learning plenty."

Perhaps Mr. Fulton expressed more completely the views of both the students and the faculty when he said, "It's pretty rough on the students even though they are making A's also. It's a class in which we have experiences we can draw upon which gives us an advantage over the younger. Old teachers have developed a philosophy. I recommend that every faculty member who teaches during the summer should take a course. You see how the other half lives and how it is to meet 7 o'clock classes."

Those faculty and staff members attending summer classes are Walter Ledet, Paul Marx, and Guy Nesom of the Physical Education Department; Joe Hendrickson, Mathematics; Donald Carr, Speech; Sherrod Towns, Music; John E. Jackson, Auditor, Eve Mouton, Languages and Dudley G. Fulton, Dean of Men.

And from all accounts the students they have classes with are really giving them a "run for their money."

Platter Spin

by PERRY KINARD

Well, let's see what the latest records are, and how they are doing now-a-days. At the KK everyone is playing "Mr. and Mississippi" by the Mills Brothers. A real great number. Another one that is going over is "Music By The Angels" by Jimmy Wawely. I don't usually like Wakely's records, but this I must make an exception to.

At the Field House everyone is playing Patti Page's recording of "These Things I Offer You", and Doris Day's recordings of "Would I Love You?" and "Lullaby to Broadway". You know, while we are on the subject of Doris Day, she really has made a name for herself in the last four or five years. I can remember when her recording of "Sentimental Journey" came out. She was singing on the Bob Hope Show with Les Brown's orchestra. Overnight she became a sensation. Now look at the little gal. What with recordings like "I May Be Wrong", "Tea For Two", "Do, Do, Do", "The Wishing Rock", "Orange Colored Sky", and her pictures: "My Dream Is Yours", "Tea For Two", "Young Man With The Horn", "The West Point Story", and "Lullaby of Broadway", she is really on the top of the ladder of success. My opinion is that I could listen to Doris Day every night of the week, and never get tired of her. She really sends me.

At Le Rendezvous the hottest records are "Because of Rain" by Nat King Cole and "Ocean of Tears" by Kay Starr and Tennessee Ernie, and something called "Silver Moon". All three are real great numbers.

Say, have you heard "I'm Late" by Mindy Carson. It is really a cute little number. One of the catchiest melodies in years. It's from the Walt Disney production "Alice In Wonderland". If all the other melodies from this show are as good, the show should be nothing short of sensational.

SPECIAL NOTE TO R. S.: Nat King Cole's recording of "I'm In The Mood For Love" is coming back. You should remember it. Also Gloria DeHaven's recording of "Who's Sorry Now?" Which do you like best. Better make up your mind.

MY PREDICTION FOR THE WEEK: The Dinah Shore, Patrice Munsel, Tony Martin, Robert Merrill album of the musical comedy, "The King And I".

Council Confab

Student Council At Black Lake Plans New Work

Ten Northwestern students, Mrs. David and Mr. Fulton left this morning to attend the Annual Summer Student Body Conference to be held at Chandler's Camp on Black Lake this weekend.

The purpose of this conference is to draw up a budget for all Student Body activities for the ensuing year. This budget will include the various organizations sponsored by the Student Body, awards and publications.

Leaving Varnado at 9 A.M., the group will arrive at Chandler's Camp a little before noon. After a light lunch, the planning conference will open with Don Jones, Student Body President presiding.

Saturday night tentative plans for homecoming will be discussed.

The lake will furnish boating, swimming and fishing by way of recreation for the group.

Those attending the conference are: Don Jones, Student Body President; Leland Langridge, Vice-President Student Body; Sue Tucker, Secretary; Beryl DeLoach, Co-ed Vice-President; Arlene Norsworthy Treasurer; Cas Moss, Senior Class President; Ronald Quinn, Sophomore Class President; Luke Petrovich, ex-Student Body President; Winnie Dowden, Co-editor, "Current Sauce"; Marie Tilleux, Potpourri Editor; Mrs. David, Dean of Women and Mr. Fulton, Dean of Men.

President and Mrs. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carr, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Odom are also expected to attend the conference.

The students are expected back on the campus sometime late Sunday afternoon.

Bellipanni Is Honor Cadet

FORT BLISS, Texas — Cadet Michael J. Bellipanni of New Orleans and the Northwestern State College of Louisiana has been selected as the Honor Cadet in Battery C, 2nd Battalion at the Fort Bliss ROTC Camp. As a result, he was presented an engraved belt buckle at graduation ceremonies held on Friday, July 27.

Cadet Bellipanni son of Mr. Mrs. M. J. Bellipanni, 426 S. St. Patrick St. He is active in Phi Kappa Nu and Phi Epsilon Kappa fraternities on his campus.

During the training period, the cadets were given instruction and practical training in the use of the 40-mm and 90-mm antiaircraft guns, small arms, gunnery, and troop leadership.

With the graduation exercises, a six-weeks training period was brought to a close. During the period of training, more than 1,300 cadets from 28 colleges and universities in the United States and Puerto Rico receiving training.

Band Presents Variety Tunes In Pop Concert

The Northwestern State College summer band under the direction of Joseph Carlucci, climaxed its weeks of practice with a pop concert Wednesday evening. The concert beginning at 6:45 was held on the green between the Fine Arts Building and the Student Center. The program of varied numbers was enjoyed by a large crowd of students and townspeople seated on the ground around the band. Some of the numbers rendered by the band were "Dancing in the Dark," "The Way You Look Tonight" a Tschalkowsky waltz and two Sousa marches.

Everyone is looking forward to the fall semester when the band will perform at football games.

Forensics Frat Installed at NSC

Six NSC students were initiated into Pi Kappa Delta, honorary forensics fraternity, which was installed here at NSC Friday, July 20, at 3:30 p.m. The installation and initiation were held in the yellow Room of the Fine Arts building.

Those who were initiated into the fraternity were Luke Petrovich, president, Julia McBroom, secretary-treasurer, Cecil Nielsen, Don Jones, E. G. Smith, and Jim Vohoff, Professor A. G. Alexander, head of Language Department here, and Donald A. Carr, associate professor of speech, were installed as honorary members of the fraternity.

Roy D. Murphy, head of Speech Department at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Lafayette, served as installation officer. Felix Frederick, president of SLI chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, and two other members were on the initiating committee. Donald Carr served as sponsor faculty member in the absence of Prof. William S. Smith, debate coach and head of forensic activities, who is working on his doctorate at Stanford University.

A banquet for the members of the fraternity was held in the private dining room of the field house at 6:30 that evening. The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. John Duffy, who spoke on "The Value of Debate as A Means of Tackling World Problems." Debate sweaters were presented to Luke Petrovich and Julia McBroom.

NSC Film Program Continues In Fall

The film program will be continued this fall on the basis of a picture every two weeks, according to Mr. William Hayard. If students are interested enough, season tickets will be sold at a reduction.

They now have better sources for their film, therefore, they will have a greater variety of pictures. Anyone may put in a request for a special film.

NSC Student From Germany Wishes to Remain in U. S.

Wants American Citizenship

Fritz-Egbert Dohse a young student from Goettingen, Germany, which lies just inside the British occupation zone, has been at NSC since the fall semester, 1950. His passport runs out in three months and unless he can remain in school in this country, he must return to Germany.

"I would like to get a masters degree here in the United States, apply for citizenship papers and remain here to work," he said in remarkably good English. Nine months ago he could speak only in his native tongue and French.

The mechanical engineering student said that the "personal freedom and the whole environment" in the U.S. is "wonderful." He likes the American student philosophy, which he called a "take-it-easy" attitude. "There is more time to relax and enjoy one's hobbies here," Fritz said. He commented that in Germany one studies from 8 a.m. 'till 8 p.m. and there is little time for relaxation. "It is not really necessary to study here . . . just attend lectures and listen attentively and you'll do all right on exams," he continued. "But the American way makes life much more interesting."

Dr. Waldo Dunnington is responsible for young Dohse's presence at school here. While doing research in Germany at the University of Goettingen, Dr. Dunnington became acquainted with the Dolse family and arranged a year's work for Fritz at Northwestern State College.

In 1949 he got the scholarship to Northwestern State College, but had to wait a year because of what he termed "Papierkrieg" and we term "red tape." He traveled to America with five other passengers on a cargo ship, and after two hurricanes and a siege of seasickness, was put ashore at Galveston, Texas. There he was met by Dr. Dunnington and brought to Natchitoches and NSC.

He knew no English. "I just had to get busy and learn it," he said. "I had to pass my exams." Fritz learned fast and as he put it could "risk" his first date after three months.

Fritz feels certain that in case of war involving the West and the Soviet nations, Germans will fight with the West. "You may be sure that Germans will be the best fighters against Communism."

Of the four occupation forces, Americans are the best liked by Germans, he said. "They are the only ones who have brought something into the country. The others, including the British, have just taken things out," he said. He praised the Marshall Plan and the Hoover Meals for Children plan, which he says has done more than anything else to break up any old Nazi tendencies in the country.

New Frosh Council For BSU Chosen

The Baptist Student Union of Northwestern has appointed the Freshman Council for the fall and spring semesters. This council composed entirely of Freshman will work with the Executive Council to acquaint incoming freshman of this fall with all functions of B.S.U.

These thirteen students were selected on the basis of their outstanding character and participation in religious activities. Those appointed and the positions they hold are as follows: S. J. Westbrook, President; Benny Ray, Men's Enlistment Vice-President; Rose Nell Crel, Women's Enlistment Vice-President; Eddie Ray Spurgeon, Promotional Director; Mary Lane Bailiff, Social Chairman; Annette Cook, Devotional Vice-President; Johnny Marshall, Publicity Chairman; Marcie Lee Douzat, Secretary-Treasurer; Curtis Hoglan, Sunday School Representative; Ray Teal, Training Union Representative; Jean Edwards, Missions Director; Vernie Wright, "Chain" Editor; and Harlene Ray, Hostess.

High Hopes

Potpourri Editor Plans Different Type Yearbook

"College annuals are too often the same year after year. The editor should strive to give the students something different."

This is what Marie Tilleux, new editor of The Potpourri, college annual at Northwestern State College, had to say recently as she and her staff began work on the 1951-52 book.

Editor Tilleux, a junior from Shreveport, hopes the Potpourri, which is scheduled to come out in May, 1952, will be "a superior book which will be well-liked by students and faculty alike."

She hopes to improve the annual by using more varied snapshots, thus getting more students into life-like campus poses. Most of the plans for the book are being kept secret, but Miss Tilleux did say that faculty members will be included in the new annual. They were left out of the 1950-51 book with the exception of department heads and deans.

The new editor is putting great emphasis on photography. "Our Potpourri will stand or fall on its photography," she said. "So we are making a great effort to secure superior and different pictures."

Miss Tilleux, Cas Moss, business manager, and John Merrill, faculty adviser, have just returned from Nashville where they conferred with representatives of the Benson Printing Company, printers of the book. According to the editor most of the planning was done there.

Associate editor of the annual is Houston Davis of DeRidder. Business manager is Cas Moss, Winnfield Class editors are Ethelyn Cloutier, Bermuda, and Claudine Box, Shreveport. Feature editor is Louise Vick, Vivian. Snapshot editor is Charles Ertell, Port Sulphur, and sports editor is Ned Mahfouz, Alexandria. Editor for the sorority and fraternity section is Gervais Aldredge, Natchitoches, and Organizations editor is John Batten, Natchitoches.

Other staff members are: Evelyn Pyle, Shreveport; Dorothy Thompson, Sikes; Earline Usrey, Sikes; Thelma Ruth Stevens, Alexandria; Nelda Madden, Hall Summit; Martha Ann Leach, Leesville, and Kathern Dheil, Longville.

No Drop In Frosh Enrollment Seen

The Freshman enrollment for the fall semester at Northwestern is expected to be at a continued high this year. There are no indications that the enrollment will fall below the 595 mark, figure for last fall.

Mr. Townsend, Head of Men's Housing, stated that, "If there is a drop in freshmen male students, it will be very slight."

Mrs. David, Dean of Women, has already received applications for 217 freshman women students and many more are expected to apply before September.

Society

The Student Council meeting brings several visitors to the campus this weekend. Among them are Sue Tucker, Dollie Smith, and Ronnie Quinn.

Other visitors this week were Artie Ranew, Dot Nesbitt, Pee Wee Patton, J. R. Akins, Rita Caldwell, Bill Smith, and Amy Lou Smith.

Mary Murphy had as her visitor last week end Fred Lee of Bossier.

Elizabeth Abraham spent last week end in New Orleans.

Several couples were entertained last Saturday with a party given in the recreation room of Carondelet. After the group danced, played cards and ping pong, refreshments were served to Jeanette Dowden, Leland Landridge, Margaret Sloan, Bobbie Leach, Glen Ellen Pennington, Bobbie Davis, Nelda Madden, Louise Vick, and Joe Barkate who was visiting from Sulphur.

Kappa Delta Pi, honorary Education fraternity, initiated ten new members in an impressive ceremony Friday night.

Evelyn Musselwhite became engaged last week to Glenn Smith. They will be married in Marthaville in December.

The Theta Sigs are up to their necks this weekend in paint. They are giving their room a real going over.

All the Pi Kaps had a little "get together" Tuesday evening to entertain Miss Debbie Pinkston, Pi Kaps first sponsor who is visiting in Natchitoches. The Misses Kathryn and Mary Winters, patrons of the sorority, were also present as guests.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club was host to a watermelon party which was given for Catholic students Monday at 6:30 p.m.

Following the recitation of the Rosary in the Newman Club room at 6 p.m., the students retired to the green behind the Religious Center for the watermelon party. There was plenty of ice-cold watermelon for all, and it was reported that everyone had a very enjoyable time.

YWCA

Mrs. Ruth Weber, sponsor of the Y.W.C.A. announced that the Northwestern Y.W.C.A. is looking forward to the return of Beth Hargrove, delegate to the Southern Regional Conference. Beth will give her report of the conference.

The Y.W.C.A. meets every first and third Thursday in each month to discuss problems that are of interest to the students. They are now making plans for a membership drive in the fall and will begin their work with a reception for the Freshman students. They will also continue to supervise play for the Negro church.

Members of the "Y" are sporting their new membership pins which are very attractive.

CANOEING PARTY

Chaplins Lake was the scene last Tuesday afternoon of a combined canoeing trip and picnic for the members of the W8 swimming and canoeing class. The group canoed down the lake to the pier, following the directions and canoeing hints which they have been taught in class.

When they reached the pier supper of sandwiches, cookies and watermelon was served. A good time was reported by all.

The class, a combination of advanced swimming and canoeing is under the direction of Miss Doris Charlet and Coach Guy Neesom.

Methodist Hayride To Powhatan Sat.

The Methodist students of the Wesley Foundation sponsored a hayride last Saturday night, July 21. Two large trucks filled with hay carried about fifty participants to Dr. Mooreland's plantation in Powhatan, which was the scene of the party.

The group enjoyed group singing and games that were played around the camp fire. Sandwiches and cokes were served afterwards.

Accompanying the group were Mrs. Jack Boydston and Rev. and Mrs. Galloway. Burt Boone and Dan Poole were in charge of the recreation and the food committee consisted of Marcia Wren, Mary Sue Bellow, Dot Corry, and Sally Jo Foster.

Clip Joint Opens In Field House

A campus barber shop was opened in the Fieldhouse Tuesday, July 17. The shop, operated by John Peterson, will be open from 7:30 to 5:00 on Monday through Friday and from 7:30 to 12:00 noon on Saturdays.

Mr. Peterson, a barber for the past 33 years, has been doing barber work in Natchitoches since 1922.

Townpeople, as well as college students, will patronize the shop.

Dean Dugdale Visits Ft. Bliss For Special ROTC Exercises

Dr. C. E. Dugdale, Dean of Arts & Sciences at Northwestern State College attended the special exercises given at Fort Bliss, Texas were R.O.T.C. Cadets are attending a six weeks summer camp. Representatives from each of the 28 colleges and universities from all over the United States and Puerto Rico attended the special program of activities from July 19-July 21.

Dr. Dugdale left Natchitoches Tuesday, July 17 and arrived at Fort Bliss the following day. Thursday morning the Presidents, Deans and other representatives were given a formal welcome by General Lewis of Fort Bliss. Later they were taken on a tour of replica of old Fort Bliss.

That afternoon the ROTC's guests were taken on a tour of the cadet camp and out to the firing range. While there Dr. Dugdale saw the cadets from Northwestern and watched them at target practice. He said that the cadets seemed to enjoy this part of their training very much and there had developed a rivalry between the different batteries as to which could hit the target more accurately. Their targets were guided missiles and a new "arcat," pilotless plane controlled by a man on the ground.

N.S.C. Cadets are in "C" battery which includes George Tech, Texas A. & M., University of Iowa, University of Alabama, University of Kansas, University of Washington and Northwestern.

Dr. Dugdale said that he enjoyed everything about the R.O.T.C. camp except the hot sun and the sand in his shoes.

Friday night Dr. Dugdale and the other guests were given a banquet at the officers Club. They also stood in the receiving line for the Cadet dance given Friday night.

Dr. Dugdale said of his stay at Fort Bliss, "I have never seen a better organized series of meetings. The Arm lecturers knew exactly what they intended to do, did it, and then passed on to something else."

Student Handbook Being Prepared

Something new is being tried this year in regards to Freshman Days Program booklets and Student Handbooks. Mr. Dudley G. Fulton, Dean of Men said that the two booklets duplicated each other so much it seemed an unnecessary expense to print two entirely different booklets.

The new handbooks will include the calendar of events for Freshman Week, the Student Body Constitution, Constitutions of major student council organizations, a brief history of the college and other items of interest to the students.

The handbooks are expected to be off the press by August 15 and copies will be sent to all incoming Freshman. They will also be available to the students on registration day.

Can't All Be Bad . . .

Yes, I know we've been gripping a lot about traditions, conditions and how things are in general here at old NSC. But we would just like to take a little time right now to tell you all what a really swell place we think Northwestern is.

No place else in the world do we think that we could find a more cooperative and understanding administration than we have right here on our own campus.

So we gripe about the faculty. We still think you're a swell lot — even if you won't let us have a minutes rest.

Yes, now about the food. That's the chief gripe of students on every campus in the United States, and we're no different. And there has been a little improvement, we will have to admit. Keep up the good work, only more so.

And did you know that all of the Freshman dormitories have water coolers now? And there's a new one in Varnado and the one in Carondelet works now.

We are more than proud of all of the new buildings on the campus. Not many institutions the size of Northwestern can boast about the erection of three "brand new" buildings like the Science, Home Economics and Business over such a short period of time.

Well, have we convinced you that it's "Northwestern for us?"

Why if all of these improvements that we've advocated in our previous issues can be made, we'll soon have nothing to write an editorial about. Then maybe we'll devote this page to comics (with pictures, that is.)

Grin and Share It . . .

"Northwestern is the friendliest campus in the South." Well — we used to think so. But here lately we're about to change our minds.

Say, where is the Great Big Smile and friendly "Hello?" We've heard of a "ghost of a smile" before, but now we know what the writer who coined the phrase was talking about. And that "hello" is an almost inaudible echo.

Just what have you got against your next-door neighbor that you can't smile at him every once in a while? Or, are you just too lazy? And you are not in such a big hurry that you can't give that fellow you meet on your way to class every morning a friendly, cheerful, "Hi, there." It might do him a lot of good and we know it would help you.

Oh, there are still a few cheerful souls on the campus who still try to live up to our boast. But they are getting rather fretted themselves. It's not much fun to speak to someone and have him regard you (if he bothers to regard you at all) as somebody who doesn't have quite "all of his marbles."

And it won't hurt you to speak to the airmen on the campus either. Well, so most of them are Yankees. The "War Between the States" was over in 1865, you know. And as much as we hate to admit it, we did lose. Let's just show them a little bit of good old "Southern hospitality." Okey?

We didn't know how else to go about this thing, so we decided to present this problem to you. And we're depending on you, yes, you to really make "Northwestern the friendliest campus in the South." Come now. Just "pack up your peeves and smile, smile, smile!"

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editors:

For a freshman who had never lived away from home before, I unexpectedly found that Northwestern State College afforded a new and interesting life. Now I feel as much at home here with my many new friends as if I were really there.

Even a desirable place like home has its problems. Likewise, Northwestern is experiencing them. The one I consider of great importance is the need for a loan company or a donation bureau for the poor students who cannot afford to buy a bathing suit. Now that my new bathing suit and several others have disappeared from the lockers such a loan may come in handy.

I would appreciate it if the student body would organize a special board to combat this problem. Thanks.

By Louis Cosachs
Caspari and Phi Kappa Nu opened the playoffs for the summer Intramural Softball League the 31st. If a third game is needed it will be played Aug. 2. During the regular season, Caspari romped through without a defeat, while Phi Kappa Nu dropped a close one to Caspari.

In the spring, among other things, a young man's fancy turns toward baseball and this year each team of the Natchitoches Parish Amateur Baseball League has at least one Demon in the lineup.

With Campti are Arnold Norman, Charles "Dog" Koods, and Jack Holley, while Wm. B. "No Hit" Calvert plays for Cloutierville. The local teams, the Natchitoches Rebels and Westside Cardinals list Peyton Cunningham and Louis C. Cusachs for the Rebels, and Morris Bruce, John Cunningham, Gale Hern, and John Ropp for the Cards. George Robinson and Ken Shaw are with Montrose.

A sixth team is made up from the Air Force unit on the campus.

A team representing NSC will compete in the Southern Amateur Athletic Union Senior Swimming and Diving Championships in New Orleans July 31, and Aug. 1.

This year's team, out to repeat last year's win over competition including the New Orleans Athletic Club and the Audubon Swim Club, consists of: Jack Branch, Captain, Dennis Rider, Myron Locke, Jeff Hennessy, Jack Gaston, Ben Duhon, Robert Voorhees and Ken Howard.

Possible freshmen entries include: John and Peyton Cunningham, Yakima Hanna, and Charles Woods.

Platter Spin

by PERRY KINARD

This past week has really been a hectic one, so I took off last week-end and went visiting. Which brings me to the subject of my column for this week: The movie version of SHOWBOAT.

SHOWBOAT is a very hard picture to classify as to whether I liked it or not. It can be either yes or no. There were certain parts of the picture that can't be touched, and then there were parts that could have been a lot better. For instance, Ava Gardner's role of Julie cannot be surpassed. Her rendition of both, "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man" and "Bill," left me with chills running up and down my spine. I have seen quite a few shows in my time, but there aren't many that can compare with this. The numbers done by Ava, the Champion dancers, and the colored man who sang "Old Man River" are worth the whole price of the picture.

The Champions are new in the movies. I think this is their first film. Their "Life Upon The Wicked Stage" number was a dream come true. Mark my word, in due time they will be billed as the "Veron & Irene Castle of Today." Then Willard Wilford, the colored fellow who sang "Old Man River," was nothing short of sensational. They really made a production number of this. One of the most beautiful production numbers that I have seen in years.

Now comes the bad part of the picture. I don't think they they gave Kathryn Grayson and Howard Keel good roles. In fact, I think, they wasted Miss Grayson's and Mr. Keel's talent in this show. They sang two numbers: "Make Believe" and "You Are Love." Without a doubt they did very good jobs with these numbers, but there was something missing. Miss Grayson played the part of Magnolia, which was terribly miscast for her. Mr. Keel played the part of her lover, and was also quite mis-cast. All I can say about them is that they should have had much more singing and lot less acting.

On the whole, SHOWBOAT is a picture that you must see. It is a good two hours of entertainment, with music by one of the greatest composers of all times, Jerome Kern.

By the way, MGM has released the album from the soundtrack, and it's darn good.

SPECIAL NOTE TO B.C.: Take a careful listen to William Talbert's recording of "You've Got To Be Taught" from the SOUTH PACIFIC album.

MY PREDICTION OF THE WEEK: An old recording, but good. Tony Martin's "Old Black Magic."

NSC Nursing Director To Re-enter Service

Miss Graham Price, director on the NSC Department of Nursing has recently re-entered the Army Nurse Corps. Her resignation will become effective on August 11. She will re-enter the service as a captain and will be stationed at Washington, D. C.

Miss Price received her B. S. degree at Louisiana Tech, her diploma in nursing at Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, and her M. S. in nursing education at Catholic University of America. Her major was in the administration of schools of nursing.

During the war years of 1942-1946 Captain Price served with the Army Nurse Corps, seeing active duty as chief nurse in front line surgery in the European and Mediterranean war theaters.

After receiving her discharge Miss Price became director of the Hermann Hospital School of Nursing, Houston, Texas. She then went to Catholic University and came to NSC shortly after completing work there for her masters degree. She became the first director of the NSC Department of Nursing in September, 1949.

Miss Price had had experience as instructor, director of nursing service, and other capacities in four of Northwestern's seven collaborating hospitals. She is also a former president of the Louisiana State Nurses Association.

Dr. George T. Walker, dean of the School of Applied Arts and Sciences, expressed the following statement toward Miss Price's leaving, "She leaves with our deep regret and with admiration for the sound way in which she has developed the program. She has made a lasting contribution and we shall always be grateful for her untiring and successful efforts to develop the program in the best possible way."

Miss Frances McKenna, who has directed the program of nursing at Ohio University for the last ten years, has been selected to succeed Miss Price.

She is a graduate of Youngstown Hospital School of Nursing, Youngstown, Ohio; received her bachelors degree at Columbia University and her masters degree at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

She has had experience as head nurse, assistant supervisor, supervisor, teacher and administrator. Miss McKenna has also experienced unusual success in the development of the program at Ohio State. The program there is one of the larger collegiate programs in the nation, but she is coming to NSC to direct an even larger one.

Tayrien Accepts University Job

Miss Dorothy Tayrien, assistant professor of nursing, has recently accepted the position of instructor in surgical nursing at the University of Florida Department of Nursing. She will leave NSC at the end of the summer term.

Miss Tayrien came to Northwestern in January, 1951. Besides filling her regular duties she has conducted courses in Home Nursing for the city of Natchitoches.

She received her diploma in nursing from St. John's Hospital School of Nursing, Tulsa, Oklahoma. After receiving her B. S. in nursing at the University of Colorado, she received a teaching fellowship to study medical and surgical nursing at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

Before coming to NSC, Miss Tayrien had had experience as staff nurse, head nurse and supervisor. She had also held the position of nursing arts instructor at the university of Oklahoma and at St. John's Hospital.

No one has as yet been appointed to fill her position.

Fulton Announces New Plans for Fall Registration

"Tentative plans call for a different type of process during registration," Mr. Fulton, Director of Student Relations stated last week.

Instead of the old system of obtaining meal tickets, paying registration fees and converting scholarships all at the cashiers window, a new method has been proposed. Three separate offices will be set up to attend to each part of registration, thus simplifying the system and eliminating, somewhat, the long periods of standing in line.

Students will continue to purchase meal tickets at the cashiers window. These may be purchased at any time during registration week.

Another office will be set up in the office of Student Relations for the purpose of converting scholarships into credit. This office will also be open all during registration week so that scholarship funds can be attended to prior to registration day.

The final checking committee will be placed at the East end of the Science building. In the West end of the science building a desk will be set up for the purpose of paying registration fees only. No scholarships will be accepted and no meal tickets issued from this desk.

NOTICE

Rehearsal for graduation exercises will be held in the FINE ARTS AUDITORIUM, Tuesday morning, August 7, at nine o'clock. All candidates for graduation should be present for the official list of graduates will be determined at that time.

Graduates should be sure that they have paid the diploma fee of four dollars and the cap-and-gown fee of one dollar.

Budgets Approved, Activities Planned At Student Conference Saturday

The Northwestern State College Student Council held its Annual Summer Conference at Mr. Fulton's camp on Black Lake on July 28-29. The purpose of the conference was to draw up a budget and plan all student body activities for the ensuing year.

In the business meeting Saturday afternoon, the "Current Sauce" and "Potpourri" budgets were presented and approved by the council. It was decided that because of the increased cost in printing, it would be necessary to cut the "Current Sauce" down to six pages instead of printing eight during the regular semester.

It was also recommended that at registration each student pay one dollar more fee to cover the added cost of printing the "Potpourri" and "Current Sauce." This extra dollar will also help to pay the deficits incurred in publishing the "Sauce" and "Potpourri" last year.

Last year the budget for printing the "Current Sauce" was placed at $3,400, an estimate based on the cost of printing the previous year's editions. Actually, $5400 was spent, a $2000 deficit over the approved budget. This deficit was incurred mainly because of the increase in the cost of printing. There was also a $1100 deficit in the 1951 "Potpourri" budget because of increased printing prices.

Mr. Carr of the Speech Department also presented the budget of the Drama Department for the Council's approval.

Several amendments to the Student Body constitution were proposed to be presented to the Student Senate at the beginning of the fall semester. Those suggested Amendments included the extra dollar to be paid for publications at registration, the awarding of student awards at the annual Student Award Assembly and attendance requirements for cheer leaders and members of the Student Council and Student Senate.

It was suggested that only those organizations sponsored directly by the student body should receive awards from the Student Body at the award assembly. Other awards shall be presented by the department sponsoring the organization.

The recommendation concerning the attendance of cheer leaders at college ball games was that in order to be eligible to receive a sweater from the student body, each cheer leader must be present at all home football and basketball games and also at all Fair games.

It was also recommended that in order to be eligible for a student senate key, the senator must

Cline To Speak At Graduation

Dr. William Rodney Cline, professor education at Louisiana State University, will be the commencement speaker at Northwestern State college's summer graduation exercises, President H. Lee Prather has announced.

One hundred and thirty seniors are scheduled to receive degrees at the exercises to be held in NSC's Fine Arts auditorium at 8 p.m., Thursday, August 9.

From 1941 to 1944 Cline was dean of McNeese State College. In 1944 he became dean of Northeast Louisiana State College and remained in that capacity until 1950. Since 1950 he has been at Louisiana State university as professor of education.

He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Delta Kappa fraternities.

Annual Melon Fest Offers Entertainment

Northwestern held its annual summer watermelon fest on the "green" by the Industrial Arts Building Thursday evening, July 26 between 6 and 8 o'clock. While the crowd was gathering the 403 Recreation played popular records.

While the truck load of ice-cold watermelons was being unloaded and cut Mr. Towns, Head of the Music Department, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the group entertainment.

Under his enthusiastic direction the group sang old-time favorites such as "Red River Valley," "There's a Long, Long Trail Awaiting," and "Dixie Land." Dr. Allbritten also assisted Mr. Towns in directing the group singing.

The most enjoyable part of the entertainment of the evening for the students, at least, was a men's quartet composed of Dr. Robson, Dr. Allbritten, Dr. Duffy, and President Prather. Their first number was a very melodious rendition of "Sweet Adeline." Everyone applauded them so wildly they consented to appear again and this time they sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

When Mr. Towns announced that all was ready, everybody made a mad dash for the long tables where the watermelons were cut. While some 1,000 students, staff and faculty members waited in line and later while they were eating, they were entertained by music from the portable record player.

Entertainment at the watermelon party was under the direction of Mrs. Melba O'Quinn, Recreation class.

Society

Topping the list of newly engaged couples comes Theresa Jamison and Buston Chapman. Both are from Pleasant Hill, Louisiana and students of Northwestern. They plan to wed soon after graduation.

Ann Powell, graduate of NSC and member of Theta Sig sorority, and Thomas "cess" Poole, also graduate of NSC and member of Lambda Zeta fraternity, are making plans for their wedding which will be in September.

Marilyn Finley and Jack Gaston plan to wed the latter part of this month.

Kathryn Dawking and James Bonsall will wed September 1 at the First Baptist church in Bastrop, Louisiana. Both will be back this fall.

A well known couple around the campus, Julia McBroom and Ponder Davis will be married August 25 in Shreveport at the Cedar Grove Methodist church at 8:00 P.M. The ceremony will be formal with Mary Lou Statham as maid of honor and Max Schoonover and Peggy Haywood as bridesmaids. Candle lighters are Irene Hebert and Lavern Hopper. All college friends of the bride and groom are cordially invited.

Visitors this week include Leon Fuller, Ruby Berlin, Mike Bellipanni, Ben Duhon, Jack Gaston and Dixie Baskin who was a visitor of Bobby Hale.

The Delta Sigs will be very busy tonight from 7:00 to 9:00 with a cake walk given down town.

Kasatchie, a favorite spot of all NSC students was the scene of the lively Tri Sigma picnic Sunday afternoon. The Tri Sigmahs had as their guests flight No. 5 of the Air Force boys, who have had a class under Eve Mouton, the Tri Sigma sponsor. Much fun was had by everyone—swimming, eating, singing, eating and more eating. The Tri Sigmahs further extended their southern hospitality Friday night when they entertained flight 14 team of the Air Force boys at the sorority house.

August 17, 18, 19 to all Pi Kaps will mean lots of fun and good eats. Most of the members will meet in Shreveport for a three day convention where actives and alums plan to have a real "get together." A banquet is scheduled for Saturday 19th at the Jefferson Hotel and plans for further entertainment are being made. Everyone is looking forward to a big time.

Kappa Delta Pi Has Initiation

Members of Kappa Delta Pi, Honorary Education fraternity recently held their annual summer breakfast and professional meeting in the Private Dining Room of the Student Center. Dr. John A. Jones, President of the fraternity presided at the meeting.

Dr. Eugene P. Watson, Head of the Northwestern State College library, was guest speaker for the group and used as the title for his speech Kappa Delta Pi's theme for the year, "The Place of the Library in Education." He was introduced by Sallie Harper, vice-president of the fraternity.

The summer initiates of Kappa Delta Pi were honor guests at the banquet.

These ten new members of the fraternity were formally initiated into the organization in the Living Room of the Home Economics building Thursday evening, July 26.

After the pledging ceremony, the pledges gave a skit built around the theme, "The Place of the Library in Education," showing the old and the new in libraries.

During a short period of relaxation the Home Economics members of Kappa Delta Pi served the group punch and cookies. The pledges were then formally initiated into the fraternity. Those initiated were: James R. Barnes, Provencal; Clydie Mae Beacham, Blanchard; Kathon P. Braves, Zwolle; Clyde H. Jordon, Natchitoches; Daisy M. Prudhomme, Bermuda; M. H. Miley, Natchitoches; Lolan Earl Nunley, Natchitoches; Beryl Lynn DeLoach, West Monroe; Joseph T. Kimbrell, Rayville; and Mrs. Mary Weller, Natchitoches.

The initiation closed the Kappa Delta Pi schedule of activities for the summer term.

PI KAPPA SIGMA . . .

The local alumnae chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma sponsored a watermelon party for the Pi Kaps attending summer school. The gala occasion took place at the home of Mrs. Opal Pollock.

A good time was enjoyed by all and plans of the Pi Kap convention to be held in Shreveport August 17-19 were discussed.

The alums present besides Mrs. Opal Pollock were, Mrs. Eola Rooks, Mrs. Margaret Ellen Sutton, Mrs. Alene Caren, and Mrs. Mary Cummings. The active Pi Kaps attending were Beryl DeLoach, Liz Seegers, Lynn Rutledge, Glen Ellen Pennington, Kathleen Ray, Mairlyn Snoddy, Patsy Sullivan, Nelda Madden, D. D. Barmore, Isabel Pearce, Mary Murphy, Louise Vick, Frances Wilson and Mittie Lancaster.

NEWMAN CLUB . . .

The Newman Club held its regular meeting Monday night at 6 p.m. Leland Langridge, president, presided at the meeting.

After the recitation of the Rosary, which was led by Rita Schexnaider, the club members engaged in a discussion of different subjects pertaining to religion and the Catholic faith. Monsignor Vandegaer, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, acted as instructor for the group.

A picnic for Catholic students was planned for Sunday, August 5. All students who are interested in attending should contact Leland Langridge. The group will leave for Kisatchie from the Religious Center at 9:30 a.m. Everyone is to take his own lunch.

Punch and cookies were served to the members after the meeting.

Final Plans Made For Eastern Tour

Final plans have been made for the Social Studies tour of the eastern United States. Dr. John S. Kyser reports that several reservations were dropped but were immediately filled from the long waiting list of applicants for the trip.

The group of thirty-five students will leave the campus at 8 a.m. August 14, and will return on September 3. They will be accompanied by Mr. LaRoi Eversall, assistant professor of Social Science department. Those students making the tour are: Marie Ann Abate, Doris E. Barber, Carol Blankenship, Eta Blankenship, Grace Cooley, Ola Cooper, Annette Dailey, Jessie M. Fournier, Ruby Dry, Dorothy Fraiser, Mrs. A. C. Gill, Lila Gore, Bertha Hoagland, Thelma Houston.

Margaret L. Keith, Ruth Lee, Jeanne Lyons, Mrs. A. K. McConnell, Mona Louise Masingill, Annie Ruth Millican, Kay Maham, Isabel Pearce, Armida Pitre, Anna Pixley, Mrs. Fred Preans, Jeanetta Rachal, Mrs. Eola P. Rooks, Mrs. Mike Saloom.

Mrs. Vera H. Small, Yvonne B. Spencer, Mrs. Iva Lee Stinson, Aline Strickland, Dorothy Tucker, Nelwyn Turner, Catherine Ann Wood, and Bernice Blankenship.

Winger Is Top A F Graduate

Thomas M. Winger, airmen, of Scranton, Iowa, took top honors in the graduation exercises for the A. F. Clerk Typist school held here yesterday.

Winger maintained a 4.7 average over all of his work here at Northwestern. This average was one of the highest made and is only three tenths short of a perfect score.

Winger was promoted to the rank of corporal and in recognition of his fine record he will be stationed at the base of his choice, Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio.

Second highest of the twenty-five man flight in scholastic rating was Curtis W. Vaughn, West Point, Mississippi with a 4.6 average. He was also promoted to the rank of corporal along with four other men in the flight. These promotions were awarded on the basis of the airmen's scholastic standing and leadership ability.

Those promoted were Bruce B. Blomberg, Chicago; John R. Ribich, Detroit; Russell R. Shonkwiler, Union Town, Ohio; and Harold V. Vick, Highland Park, Michigan.

Ribich, Shonkwiler and Vick played on the A F Baseball team. Shonkwiler and Vick were fielders and Ribich played the position of pitcher.

This flight of graduating A F Typist Clerks arrived at Northwestern May 4 and completing their courses will leave today enroute to stations throughout the United States. The men were granted furloughs before starting their new assignments.

Demon Swimmers Are AAU Champs

Northwestern State College Swimming Team won the Southern AAU Championship in the New Orleans Swimming and Diving Meet held July 31 through August 1 by amassing 71 points.

The meet was hotly contested among the Demon Swimmers and the New Orleans Audubon Club, with the score being in doubt until completion of the final event.

First place winners from Northwestern were Jack Branch in the back stroke; Jeff Hennessy, diving; Myron Lockey, breast-stroke nad the Demon relay team composed of Branch, Duhon, Voorhees, and Lockey. The final team scores were: first place Northwestern State College, 71 points; second, New Orleans Athletic Club, 67 points and third, Audubon Swim Club 61 points.

200 Yard Relay, 1 NWSC (Lockey, Duhon, Voorhees, Branch). Time: 2:52.3.

50 Yard Freestyle, 3. Duhon, NWSC; 6, Cunningham, NWSC. Time: 26.7.

100 Yard Breaststroke, 1, Myron Lockey, NWSC; 3, Ken Howard, NWSC. Time 1:10.9.

220 Yard Freestyle, 4, Lockey, NWSC. Time 2:28.1.

Diving, 1, Jeff Hennessy, NWSC; 2, Jack Gaston, NWSC; 4, Ken Howard, NWSC.

100 Yard Backstroke, 3, Duhon, NWSC; 6, Voorhees, NWSC. Time: 56 seconds.

100 Yard Backstroke, 1, Jack Branch, NWSC; 3, Ben Duhon, NWSC. Time 1:09.6.

400 Yard Freestyle, 4, Lockey, NWSC; Time: 5:28.5.

NOTICE

"All students who have been teaching or expect to teach history in the high schools of Louisiana during the Fall are requested to give their names and addresses —on the campus and at home or school—to Miss Ella Mae Pourciau, secretary of the Department of Social Sciences, office in the library near the Reserve Reading Room, within the next few days. (If this is inconvenient, please give the information to any member of the Department of Social Sciences.) The purpose is to consult with you about a possible project in history in the high schools of Louisiana next year."

not be absent from more than four senate meetings and must not have more than two consecutive absences.

These recommendations and amendments will be presented to the Student Senate at the beginning of the fall semester. After they have passed through the senate, they will be put before the student body at the regular constitution amendment election.

Plans for the Student government control of the Student Center cafeteria were also formulated and discussed. It was decided that next fall the student government will be given a three month trial operation period and if it is successful the cafeteria will be put permanently under the administration of the student government.

Other business discussed at the conference included plans for homecoming, the Tech banquet, plans for both Fair football games, trips to the Associated Collegiate Press Convention, and to the Student Federation of Louisiana Colleges and Universities. The Student Loan Fund was also discussed at the conference. Funds have been appropriated for setting up the system. It will begin operation in the fall semester. An executive treasurer for the loan fund will be appointed by the Student Body President at later date.

Those attending the conference were: Don Jones, Student Body President; Leland Langridge, Vice-President student Body; Sue Tucker, Secretary; Beryl DeLoach, Co-ed Vice-President; Arlene Norsworthy Treasurer; Cas Moss, Senior Class President; Ronald Quinn, Sophomore Class President; Winnie Dowden, co-editor, "Current Sauce" Marie Tilleaux, "Poptourri" editor; Mrs. Perle David, Dean of Women, Mr. Dudley Fulton, Dean of Men; Mr. John C. Merrill, Publicity Manager of Northwestern; Mr. Carr, Speech. Miss Givens was official chaperone for the group.

Sport Spots

Phi Kappa Nu took the opening game of the Intramural Softball League playoffs from Caspari 3-2. It was Don Purser pitching and Tom Purser catching for the winners, while Ken Shaw and Johnny McConathy toiled for the losers. Lefty George Robinson was behind the plate. Big blow of the game was Bobbv Davis' home run for Caspari. The second game is still scheduled for Tuesday evening.

Coach Alvin Brown is to be commended for his work with the Natchitoches Braves, the local American Legion baseball team, which completed its season this week. The Braves, champions of the 8th district and 4th region, lost the playoff for the North La. title to the 7-Up Bottlers of Shreveport, defending tri-state champions, who now go for the state title.

A Tribute To The Graduates . . . .

The 1951 summer session at Northwestern State College will be formally concluded next Friday. Climaxing the summer schedule of activities, graduation exercises for some 130 students will be held.

We congratulate the graduates on having successfully completed four years of extensive study and hard work here at Northwestern. During the graduation exercises each graduate will receive his diploma certifying that he has met requirements for the degree in his particular field. But when these students leave Northwestern they will be carrying away with them something more than mere paper diplomas. When considered alone, the diplomas do not mean much.

The students will be taking with them a part of Northwestern itself — some of its spirit, its traditions and its campus individualities. The physical plant of Northwestern when considered alone is a very small place, scarcely a dot on the map. But when taking into consideration the entire scope of its far reaching influence through the students who graduate from Northwestern, it assumes a much larger aspect.

The graduates will certainly be missed individually and also as an outstanding group on the campus. But we are proud to see them go. Proud that they can face the world as responsible citizens because of their years of training at Northwestern.

In closing, we would like to bring to the attention of the graduates the last four lines of the "Alma Mater"

"Unchanging thou midst changes vast Unswerved from idols of the past
Steadfast and true our watchword e'er shall be To Thee Our Alma Mater, Loyalty!"

It's Your Publication . . .

It is a fairly well-known fact that there are 1200 students on the Northwestern Campus. But what the average student does not know, or particularly care to give any thought to, is the fact that out of this large enrollment, exactly three students have been responsible for the output of the Current Sauce this semester.

Criticism of course, is frequent and elaborate, but constructive trips to the Current Sauce office are indeed rare. A college of this size is expected to produce an effective paper, containing a complete and representative coverage of school news and activities. But just how much news can be compiled and edited by a staff of three?

The problem, basically, is not disinterest. Most people, whose majors are not journalism, think that they would be a complete misfit in a newspaper office. They do not realize that a newspaper is, figuratively speaking, a kaleidoscope of their own ideas and opinions, which they voice everyday. Why not become interested in the comparatively simple application of these to paper?

The question is not one of subscription support, as there is no separate charge made for the Current Sauce. The acute inadequacy is the lack of enthusiastic support, taking the form of active participation in the publishing of OUR newspaper, The Current Sauce.

Platter Spin

by PERRY KINARD

Well, here we are at the end of another school year. If you are like I, you still have a million and one things to do before next Friday. And those "darn" exams coming up. Do you think you will live through it?

I have been looking to hear from you as to whether you liked this column or not. So far, I haven't heard anything against it, so I guess I'm safe. (Whew!)

I'm going to be awful busy for the next week, but believe you me, I won't be to busy to take a trip down to the Cane Theatre this week-end. Guess what's showing? Yep, that's right, Doris Day and Gene Nelson in "Lullaby To Broadway." This is one time you can bet your bottom dollar, that I'm going to the movie. That Doris Day really sends me. She sings numbers like: "Just One Of Those Things," "Somebody Loves Me," "Lullaby To Broadway." From what I hear, it's a great picture. I can hardly wait to see it. And while I'm thinging of it, every music store in town has the album from the picture. So if you want to get some darn good recordings, drop by one and get "Lullaby of Broadway."

At the Don this week-end they are showing "Excuse My Dust" with Red Skelton, Sally Foster, and Monica Lewis. Sounds real good. I'm looking forward to seeing it to. This little Monica Lewis puts out some darn good records, and from the reviews of the picture, she is just as good to look at as she sounds.

The 15th, 16th, 17th, and 18th of August, the Don is having "Showboat." I would advise any of you, that are in town to see it. Say, will someone give me the straight dope? Somebody dropped into the office today and told me that Ava Gardner did not do the singing in "Showboat." The press release that I got says she did. All I have to say is, that if her voice was dubbed, it's one of the best jobs of dubbing I have ever seen. The records from the show are quite good, and it is one album that you should have in your own collection.

SPECIAL NOTE TO J. R. V.: They are re-releasing the movie-sound track of "Madame Bovary." You should hear it again. These records are better than the first.

MY PREDICTION OF THE WEEK: Freddy Martin's recording of "Clair de lune."

Kids, have fun this summer, and I will see you next year in the same spot.

from classes. Nor would it be so difficult if more manners were shown and less special privileges granted at the dining hall.

"Southern hospitality" still prevails in the south regardless of what some may say. But like anything else that is free and easy going, there are always some who take advantage of it which is resented by most good southerners.

As far as the friendliness that exists between N.S.C. students (permanent students) it can't be matched by any other college campus in this section of the country. Ask ex-students from other campuses before drawing conclusions.

WILD GOOSE CHASE

By Beryl DeLoach

There are "wild goose chases" and then there are "wild goose chases," but probably there has never been one just like the one the Student Council took last week-end. In this age of the atomic bomb it is not unusual for one to travel several thousands of miles in several hours. On the other hand, it is unusual for one to jump in a car to travel less than twenty miles and arrive at his destination just three hours and twenty minutes later.

Last Saturday the Student Council and several guests packed up in three cars headed for a week-end of work and fun at Black lake. At ten o'clock the group started out. On the way they stopped in Campti for coffee and while there they discovered that not one of the group knew exactly where they were going. But being young and fresh for adventure no one bothered to try to find out.

Two hours and many "we tried that road but that didn't take us anywhere's" later, the group decided that positively nothing else could happen to them. But it did. Don Jones' car just quit. Stalled right in the middle of a lonely dirt road. Leaving Don and Ronald Quinn to try to get the car started, the other two cars renewed their search for the "cabin" on Black Lake.

Mrs. David decided that the only sensible thing to do was to call one of the profs and ask directions, but all the phones were out of order. So back to Campti goes one car while the other returns for the occupants of the stalled automobile.

Sometime later they were all on their way back to Campti, this time with directions. In Campti they met Mr. Fulton who had begun to worry about them and had driven to Campti to call about them. (He was especially worried since one of the boys was driving his car.) With Mr. Fulton as escort, the party finally arrived at the camp—tired, but not so happy.

And so ended an almost perfect day. But there is more to come. Early Sunday morning Leland Langridge took the truck and started to church. In Campti (the center of all the activities) he had a blowout and had to walk three miles back to camp.

In spite of all this the group still vows they had a wonderful time, but they hope the trip next year will be a little less exciting.

LETTER TO EDITOR

To the Editor of the Current Sauce:

In answer to the editorial entitled "Grin and Share It" printed in the Saturday, July 28, 1951 issue of the Current Sauce.

"Pack up your peeves and smile, smile, smile!" What a joke, coming from some air-sick pantie-waist no doubt. Even if some students have no pride in themselves, their school, their state, or in the south it would still be hard for them to swallow some of their so-called "peeves" and bow, curtsy, salute, ignore, smile or much less speak to people who act as if a crime is being committed if too much courtesy is being shown.

It wouldn't be so bad either if you could cross the campus streets without the fear of being rundown by a wingless airplane. There is also a chance that "peeves" could be turned into smiles if people did not make themselves nuisances by making so much useless noise by stomping and shouting going to and
